Stagger Inn

The Stagger Inn is a hotel for HorrorLand visitors.

It has a castle-like look and two sculpted Horrors with axes at the bottom of the staircase leading to the hotel entrance. Many screams and roars can be heard from inside the hotel, indicating that it is most likely haunted.

The only way to escape is to twist the nose of a dentist, who are all robots, which shuts them down.

Good-Bye Land

Good-Bye Land is the last attraction guests at HorrorLand will attend. It serves as the exit point for the theme park.

---

When I was finished they gasped in shock and horror.

Twilight Sparkle: WHOA!

Rainbow Dash: Oh man! That place is scary!

Scootaloo: No kidding! I would not want to go there! EVER.

Lizzy Morris: No one ever will again. We destroyed the entire park and reduced it to a crater.

Me: And we killed that fucked up lunatic Madison Storm.

Nico: Yep. And he deserved it. Because J.D. eats fucked up lunatics like him for breakfast.

We laughed at that.

Dead End: The movie theater there was most enjoyable.

Twilight Sparkle: (to Dead End) How come the Haunted Theater didn't affect you?

Dead End: Because I've always had a gloomy personality even when I was still serving Megatron.

Demolishor: It's true. I've known Dead End my whole life and I can tell you he's gloomy most of the time.

Brittney: And that makes him a very prominent member of the Goths of Darkness. Even though we all may be dark, gloomy and depressing we are still filled with emotion regardless.

Maggie: It's true.

Brittney: But the Goths of Darkness all loved Horrorland.

Haiku: it sure was cool.

Me: And this was long before the Masters of Evil formed and we became great frenemies and it was also when the Legion Of Doom was still in business.

Nico: I remember that.

Naruto: Yeah that was crazy.

Ra's al Ghul: It sure was.

Wreck Gar: If we hadn't heard about Horrorland, we wouldn't have met Lizzy or any of the Very Special Guests.

Me: No we wouldn't. But that was one of our most harrowing adventures.

Britney Crosby: And it's also where I found out that I'm not the only victim of Slappy.

Runo: Slappy? Who is that?

Me: Oh right. Slappy was a living ventriloquist dummy that terroized the living shit out of Nico and many others more than any other Goosebumps Monster we have seen and destroyed. Slappy was a true monster from the Darkness and Fire of Hell in its entirety.

I went over Slappy's history.

---

Slappy the Dummy is the main antagonist in the children's horror book series Goosebumps . He is created by R.L Stein. He is considered one of the most popular and most evil creatures in the series, as well as being the key factor to the success of one of the series' most popular story arcs: The Night of the Living Dummy Anthology . He is also a major villain in the Horrorland series and the narrator of his own series Slappyland as well as being the main antagonist in most books. He is also the main antagonist of the 2015 film Goosebumps and its sequel. He also appears as a major antagonist in the Goosebumps comics.

In the TV series, he was portrayed by Annick Obonsawin in three episodes, and Cal Dodd in two others.

Past

Slappy was originally created by an unnamed evil sorcerer by being carved out of the cursed wood of a stolen coffin, alongside Mr. Wood. He takes the form of a ventriloquist dummy but is granted life, threatening everyone around him and becoming more of a threat as the series progressed. The only way to make him live is by saying the following incantation " Karru Marri Odonna Loma Molunnu Karrano " (said to mean "You and I are one now"). Written down on a business card, he keeps the spell in his pocket. Almost every new owner reads out the spell, causing the electricity to act strange for a few seconds.

Night Of The Living Dummy

Slappy would soon be found in the dumpster by Lindy Powell, and later becomes her imaginary friend and ventriloquist dummy. Lindy reads the spell that is enscribed on Slappy's card and brings him to life. Lindy's sister, Kris, becomes extremely jealous of the attention Lindy is getting at school and from her mom. Soon, Kris gets her own dummy, Mr. Wood. Slappy hated his younger brother, so they would frequently fight and attempt to kill each other threw the night. Soon, Mr. Wood is crushed by a steam roller. Following Mr. Woods death, Slappy becomes twice as evil. This makes Slappy even more evil. Kris and Lindy run inside their house, and find Slappy standing up on his own two feet. Lindy sells Slappy the next day, and Slappy get's sent to an apartment store.

Night Of The Living Dummy II

Slappy gets found once more and sent to a new home. He goes into the custody of Amy Kramer, for a new ventriloquist act. He begins causing chaos and havoc in the household, wrecking Amy's dad's guitar, vandalizing her sister's painting, and even attacking a child. All of this gets blamed on Any, and soon Slappy has taken hold of her entire life. Fortunately, another living dummy (we have yet to know if he is related to Slappy) subdues him by splitting his head open.

Night Of The Living Dummy III

Slappy get's bought by a dummy collector, and get's his head fixed, bringing him back to life. He begins putting his evil soul into other dummies, causing havok in the household. This is, once again, blamed on the children of the house. But this time, Slappy attempts to turn the family into dummies too. He gets stopped, however, when lightning hits him in the head, blowing him up and killing him.

Other Series

Slappy keeps himself quiet, as the new owner finds out strange things are happening in the house. Furnitures get moved, things disappear and re-appear. His behavior is akin to those of a very naughty child and a poltergeist. He also has the ability to change people into ventriloquist dolls with his green breath, in addition to animating other dolls and puppets. In Slappy's Nightmare, The Streets of Panic Park, The Dummy meets the Mummy and Diary of a Dummy he serves as an anti-hero. He also appears in the Horrorland series and Goosebumps: Most Wanted .

He also has his own series called Slappyworld where is the narrator of the series and sometimes the main villain of some books. Slappy also would serve as the lesser of two evils or an anti-hero more frequently in these books such as in The Dummy Meets the Mummy or Dairy of a Dummy .

TV Show

In the TV show Slappy is more villainous than in the books. For example in Night of the Living Dummy 2 in the book his worst act is simply painting Amy's name in Sarah's room and squeezing a girl's hand painfully (though he doesn't break it). In the TV episode he attempts to slam a guitar on Amy's dad (though it's implied he knew Amy would stop him and break the gutiar and wasn't going to hit her dad). In the Night of the Living Dummy 3 episoe, he mistreats Rocky and turns Zane into a dummy, as he does in the book. In Bride of the Living Dummy book, he threatens to hurt but not kill the kids at the birthday party, doesn't kill anyone except Mary-Ellen (which is done in self-defense) and desires to make Jillian, who is is sixteen, his "bride". In the TV episode, he is stated by Jimmy to have killed his rivals (although they were other dummies, not humans) and intends to make Jillain's younger sister Katie, who is around the age of a twelve-year-old, his "bride".

He also appears in the comic book series as the main villain of the first arc and set to appear in others. He appears in the first story arc Monster at Midnight as the main antagonist leading the monsters to attack two sisters and later appears in the second arc Download and Die! where he team-ups up with The Creeps to antagonize three young girls.

Slappy also appears in the short story crossover Gaslighted: Slappy the Ventriloquist Dummy vs. Aloysius Pendergast, where Aloysius Pendergast the protagonist of the book series of the same name fights off Slappy.

---

They gasped when I was done.

Princess Celestia: That's horrible!

Princess Luna: This Slappy must've been a ruthless monster.

Me: You have no idea Princess Luna. He was so terrifying that he struck fear into Nico's heart and severely traumatized the people he came into contact with.

Dr. Strange: It's true and he was merciless. But before I was called in to help the Avengers take down General Ross, I banished him to the Dark Dimension.

Eli: Whoa! That explains why the Force told me that there was a living ventriloquist dummy there.

Nico: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle: That's horrible.

Fluttershy: My goodness.

Applejack: I have a feeling we're going to face him in the future and make sure he stays gone forever this time.

Me: Yeah I have that same feeling too. Anyway we have to get ready.

Overbite: Where are we going next?

Me: Las Vegas, Nevada.

Nico: Sin City.

Lola: And one of the most popular gambling places in the country.

Shaggy: Like yeah and the food is great!

Scooby Doo: Reah! (Slurps)

Nico: And the hotels are incredible.

Mindy Chan: They sure are big bro. My favorite is the Luxor. That's where I killed Balrog.

Cammy: (British Accent) I remember hearing about that. That was really well done.

Mindy Chan: Thanks Cammy.

Man Ray, Steam Smythe, Dirty Bubble, the U Foes, the Wrecking Crew, P'andor, Radioactive Man, and Mojo Jojo then appeared.

Man Ray: Can me, Steam Smythe, Dirty Bubble, the U Foes, the Wrecking Crew, P'andor, Radioactive Man, and Mojo go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. And while we have our usual battles there feel free to gamble away.

Dirty Bubble: You know we will J.D.!

Steam Smythe: I have always had a bit of a lucky streak.

Vector: Same here.

Nico: This is gonna be interesting. I hope you all are ready to laugh because we're gonna be meeting the funniest superhero ever known.

Lincoln: Deadpool?

Me: Nope.

Lola: Beast Boy?

Beast Boy: I'm right here.

Lola: Oh sorry.

Me: Nope.

Varie: The Pro?

Me: We haven't met her yet but nope.

Lana: We give up.

Me: We're going to meet Stanley Ipkiss. The Mask!

Lola: OH I LOVE HIM!

Lily: He is absolutely hilarious!

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja! Und he cracks me up every time!

Lana: And I love how he wedgies Kellyhan!

Me: I do too and I hate that son of a fucking bitch.

Nico: Me too.

Lynn: How did he get his powers?

Me: The Mask of Loki.

Loki Loud: I made a mask?

Me: No this is Loki the God of Mischief.

Thor: Ah yes I have heard of that mask. Loki has been known for having a mask like that.

Me: That's why we're gonna borrow Loki for this mission. Lets head on down to Mr. Grouse's house.

We went down the street and went to Mr. Grouse's house and knocked on his door.

Mr. Grouse answered.

Mr. Grouse: Oh hello everyone.

Me: Hello Mr. Grouse. Is Loki around?

Loki: (British Accent) Ah hello everyone.

Me: Hello Loki. We are heading to Las Vegas to meet Stanley Ipkiss who also has your Mask.

Loki: Yes I heard he found it and he is the silly crime fighter The Mask.

Me: That's right. Would you like to come with us to help him out?

Loki: I would be honored.

Me: Awesome. Lets head out.

We were off to Las Vegas, Nevada.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA

We were in good old Sin City. The Land of Fantasy, Las Vegas, Nevada.

Me: Wow! Here we are guys. Las Vegas, Nevada.

Nico: I can't wait to start eating the food.

Me: Me too.

Lincoln: I can't wait to see what enemies Stanley has.

Me: I know. And lets not forget that this whole city is infested with the Mafia. So it looks like we're gonna have to kill them.

Nico: I hate the mafia. They think they are so better than everyone and have all that money and power and all that.

Me: I know. As far as I can tell the world is better off without all those corrupt crime causing motherfucking douchebags. No offense to Fat Tony and his gang.

Lincoln: You said it.

Lola: The Mafia can all go to Hell.

Qin: Especially after everything they did to me.

Me: I know. The future of the Mafia will end with us.

Nico: Yep. So where are we going to find Stanley?

Me: He lives right there. (Points to a building) Peenman Apartments.

We went in and went up to Stanley's door and knocked.

Stanley answered.

Skalor: Hi. Are you Stanley Ipkiss?

Stanley: I sure am and Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor.

Me: Pleasure is ours Stanley. Sorry to come in like this but we would like to talk to you if we could about a powerful mask that came into your possession.

Stanley: Sure. Come on in.

We went into his apartment and a Jack Russell Terrier came and it was his dog Milo.

Lola: Aww who is this?

Stanley: This is my dog Milo.

Lola: He's so adorable.

Nico: So cute.

He showed us the Mask of Loki and I was holding it.

Me: Wow!

Loki: Ah my mask. I always wondered what happened to this.

Me: But this is awesome that you are the awesome masked superhero The Mask.

Stanley: Thanks guys.

Steam Smythe: Does anyone else live in this apartment with you?

Stanley: No it's just me and Milo. I'm also thinking about letting Tina live here too.

Me: Well you need a better place than this crappy apartment.

Stanley: I know but it's hard to find one and I don't have very much money.

Me: We can gladly get you a nice new place in our estate. We have more than enough room.

Nico: And we can treat you much better than that bitch of a landlady.

Stanley: Yeah her name is Agnes Peenman.

Me: She must be a total bitch.

Stanley: That's putting it mildly.

Starlight Glimmer: She needs a huge lesson in humility.

Trixie: Or she will end up like a bunch of serial killers we hate.

Nico: Yeah.

Stanley: But thank you all so much for letting me come live with you.

Me: You're welcome Stanley.

Then there was a knock.

Kellyway: Ipkiss! We know you're in there! Open this door!

Me: Oh great. It's that fucking bastard Kellyway.

May: We'll handle this.

They went to answer the door and it was Lieutenant Mitch Kellyway.

Maria: Lieutenant Kellaway. Is there something we can help you with?

Kellaway: You can tell me where the Mask is. I know all of you have been in contact with him. If you don't come clean, you're all looking at some prison time.

May: Even if we did know where the Mask is, we wouldn't tell you. Especially since you just threatened us.

Flywheels: (smirks) Or do you want to be wedgied by the Mask again.

Nico: (telepathically to me and the Loud Kids) Guys, stay calm. If we keep our cool, this asshole will be gone in no time.

Me: (Telepathically to Nico) I know. I just really hate this guy.

Kellaway: Tell me where he is.

Me: He's over in Summerlin.

Kellyway: Why there?

Me: To cause mayhem.

P'andor: (to Kellaway) (Russian Accent) It's no wonder the Mask likes to target you for pranks. We've known you for only a few minutes and already, we don't want to see you again. Now get out of here so that can happen! But first, tell us what you know about the various villains in this city.

Nico: (telepathically to me and the Loud Kids) Kellaway's on his way out. All you guys have to do is keep your anger under control for a few more minutes. Plus, we can learn all about the Mask's enemies.

Me: (Telepathically to Nico) Right. From what I remember and heard he has a ton of them and some of them would make great candidates for the Masters of Evil.

Kellyway left.

Chill Bill: There. Kellaway's gone.

Maria: That actually went pretty well.

Me: Yeah but I still hate that fucking son of a fucking bitch.

Nico: I know.

Lincoln: He is really out for the Mask huh?

Me: No shit.

Loki: (to Thor) The reason I didn't use the mask against you and the Avengers is because it was too unpredictable.

Radioactive Man: I can tell. Can you imagine one of the Avengers with a green face? Besides Hulk?

Hulk: HULK HEARD THAT!

Thor: I'm well aware of that. But the mask must be dangerous.

Nico: It's funny though.

Me: Can you show us what the mask does to you?

Stanley: Sure.

Me: Okay.

Stanley: I'm not sure I should put the mask on. Considering how very serious you guys are, you all might not like his pranks.

Broccoli Guy: Relax. We won't hate him for what he does. (to me and the Loud Kids) Right, guys?

Me: Are you kidding Broccoli Guy, we watched the movie and the cartoon and he always crack us up!

Nico: We laugh so hard at everything you do that we split our sides.

Varie: We sure do.

Stanley: All right.

He put the mask on and thunder and lightning struck and he spun around like a top and came out in a zoot suit and he had a green face.

Mask: SMOKIN!

Dirty Bubble: (to Mask) Nice to meet you, Mask!

Mask: (Imitating Albert Einstein) (Austrian Accent) Und it's an honor to meet ze famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm! (Gives me an atomic wedgie!) (HONKS LIKE A HORN)

We laughed hysterically!

Me: (LAUGHS) YOU ALWAYS CRACK ME UP!

Door pounds.

Agnes Peenman: SHUT UP IN THERE IPKISS!

Mojo Jojo: (to Agnes) Get out of here, old lady!

Anges screamed and Maria grabbed her.

Maria: Don't do that.

Agnes: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? I didn't expect you all to be here.

Me: Small world huh?

Maria: Now we have official business with Ipkiss so please let us do our job.

Agnes: Sorry.

She left.

Me: Now that was close. But anyway it's time to get down to business as to why we are here. We're here to kill a mobster named Dorian Tyrell.

I went over his history.

Dorian Tyrell is the main antagonist of the 1994 film The Mask .

He was a mobster and one of America's professional killers, who worked for Niko, the Mafia chieftain of Edge City. However, once Niko threatens to kill him upon realizing his intentions of usurping him, Dorian focuses on capturing The Mask so he can use his powers to topple Niko's criminal reign and take over the city.

He was portrayed by Peter Greene, who also played Zed in Pulp Fiction, D.J Wheeler in Black Cat Run, Deacon in Blue Streak and Tommy Bucks in Justified .

Tyrell's job was to oversee the management of Niko's casino known as the Coco Bongo . However, Tyrell grew weary of taking orders from Niko, and with a number of henchmen loyal to him, planned to eliminate Niko in order to ascend to Don of Edge City.

Carrying out his sinister plot step-by-step, Dorian had his mole, Tina Carlyle, go to the local bank and use her handbag as a camera so that Tyrell, who was on the top floor of the Coco Bongo, could get a view of the bank's security system. Tyrell then organized for his right-hand man and best friend, Freeze, to rob the bank in order to obtain the cash necessary for their plot against Niko.

However, Niko's henchmen eventually discovered Tyrell's schemes. His criminal activities attracted unwanted attention from the police and the Coco Bongo was almost closed down by them due to their investigations. Niko was unable to tolerate Tyrell's behavior, so he ordered his thugs to take Tyrell to meet with him. Niko threatened Tyrell via his thugs forcing him down at gunpoint, placing a golf tee in his mouth with a golf ball on top. Niko swung his tee and hit the ball, giving Tyrell a bloody lip and narrowly avoiding his skull. After explaining that he would not tolerate Tyrell's plans, Niko informed Tyrell that he would not kill him if he left Edge City within a week.

Refusing to obey Niko's demand, Tyrell sent his most trusted henchmen Freeze, Sweet Eddy, Murray, and one nameless henchman to rob the local bank they had previously examined. Tyrell remained at the Coco Bongo to attend to his necessary duties along with his other trusted henchman, Orlando. However, later that night, Tyrell's men returned with a mortally wounded Freeze, shot several times in the stomach, much to Tyrell's regret. Freeze informed Tyrell that someone robbed the bank before them and set off the burglar alarm, luring the police to the bank and resulting in a gunfight. Tyrell offered Freeze a cigarette, but when he was in the process of lighting it, Freeze died.

Enraged that the robbery attempt was a disaster and at losing one of his most trusted henchmen, Tyrell violently questioned Eddy as to who was the one responsible, and the terrified Eddy pointed to a green-faced, smartly dressed man below on the dancefloor. The man was Stanley Ipkiss under the influence of the mask, who was performing an intense dance with Tina. Tyrell and Orlando confronted Ipkiss and Orlando fired a single shot at him, which narrowly missed. Tyrell's henchmen threatened all the guests, who were ordered to leave. Tyrell and Orlando interrogated Ipkiss, who fooled around and did not take their questions seriously. Unable to tolerate his wacky behavior, Tyrell ordered Orlando to open fire, but Ipkiss managed to flee. Shortly after, the police entered. Lt. Mitch Kellaway intervened and accused Tyrell of having his men rob the bank, as Tyrell's men were found on the scene. Tyrell and his men were then cuffed by Kellaway and taken to the police station, for fingerprinting and further questioning even when a police officer found Freeze's dead body.

However, due to the fingerprints at the crime scene not matching those of Tyrell's men, Tyrell and his men were released. In an effort to exact revenge on Ipkiss, Tyrell placed a $50,000 bounty on his head.

Eventually, Tyrell and his men were led by Peggy Brandt to Ipkiss, who betrayed Ipkiss despite offering to help him hide from the police when he fled from them while under the influence of the powers from the mask. Tyrell gave the money to Peggy and took possession of the mask. He ordered his men to dangle Ipkiss over a Newspaper Printing Machine, despite Peggy's cries not to harm him. Tyrell demanded to know how the wooden mask worked. After being told by Ipkiss that he simply should wear it, Tyrell put on the mask, and dramatically transformed. His appearance differed significantly from the appearance of Ipkiss under the control of the mask. Rather than the thin and comical variant similar to Ipkiss, a bulkier and more intimidating version of himself was created, possessing an extremely deep voice, burning red eyes and purple, chapped lips, but still retaining the trademark green face. His hair was also the same even under the influence of the mask, contradicting Ipkiss, as his head under the influence of the mask was bald. His clothes also stayed the same, compared to Ipkiss, whose clothes simply changed after putting on the mask.

Tyrell then made a fake green mask and handed Ipkiss over to the police with it. The police drew the conclusion that Ipkiss was the culprit they had been looking for due to the presence of the mask with him. Ipkiss was then thrown into prison.

The next day, Tyrell heared that Tina had visited Ipkiss at the police station, and he and his men cornered her in the streets by gunpoint as she attempted to flee. As Tyrell threatened Tina not to betray him earlier, Tyrell then changed his rebellion plans, planning to kill Tina in the process.

That night, Tyrell (wearing the mask) barged into the Coco Bongo with his men. They confronted Niko and his gang, who were celebrating under the belief that Tyrell had left town. After a verbal confrontation, a gunfight took place. Two of Tyrell's henchmen were shot but his thugs succeeded in eliminating everyone except Niko himself. Tyrell challenged Niko to try and kill him, prompting Niko to fire several shots at Tyrell, hitting him with all of the bullet left in his gun, but Tyrell was seemingly unharmed. He then proceeded to suck the bullets from his body and fire them back out of his mouth, killing Niko. Tyrell ordered his men to ransack the club, taking as much cash as they could. He then proceeded to use a bomb to destroy the Coco Bongo, taking Tina and many other innocent lives with it, unaware that Ipkiss had escaped from the police station and, aided by a reluctant Kellaway, was coming to find him for a final confrontation.

Ipkiss was captured by Orlando when attempting to sneak closer to Tyrell, after knocking out Bobby the Bouncer (who Dorian had used to block the back exit) and handing his gun to Charlie. Tina, tied to an artificial tree next to the bomb, tricked Tyrell into removing the mask for one last kiss. As Tyrell kissed her, Tina kicked the mask out of his hands, and a fight began, which involved Stanley's dog, Milo, managing to put the mask on. He then proceeded to attack Tyrell's men. Meanwhile, as the timer of the bomb continued to count down, Tyrell and Ipkiss fought until Ipkiss succeeded in knocking out Tyrell with solid punches.

Ipkiss retrieved the mask off Milo and put it on. He then managed to dispose of the bomb by swallowing it and freed Tina and also defeated Tyrell's thugs including Eddy, Orlando, Murray, and several nameless henchmen. Tyrell attempted to kill Ipkiss from behind with a penknife. But Ipkiss, using his powers, painted a flush handle on the tree, pulling it just as Tyrell entered the fountain next to them. The flush worked like a real one, and Tyrell, screaming, was flushed away into the sewers, followed by his penknife pointing downwards.

It is unknown if Dorian survived into the sewers or not, but it's possible that he either survived while in the sewers, was killed off-screen by his penknife, or quitted being a mobster after being defeated.

Powers and Abilities

Originally Tyrell was a non-superhuman criminal who relied on armed thugs and his own brutal sociopathy to gain power and authority - when he gained possession of The Mask however he was granted the near-omnipotent powers that other users of The Mask displayed, though he was more subtle in the use of his powers due to his dark and murderous nature: he showed a glimpse of how powerful he was when he literally absorbed a rain of bullets into himself and spat them out with enough force to kill those who got in his way. Tyrell, while in The Mask, is naturally more of a threat than Stanley considering his more ruthless nature and skill as a mob boss. However, part of his downfall stemmed from how he lacked experience using The Mask as Stanley managed to defeat him after outwitting him.

Everyone gasped in shock.

Me: Yeah. I was after this guy for 3 years. But every time I got near him he always eluded me. But he's not gonna get away from me this time. This time I'm gonna kill him and mount his head on a pike.

Nico: Whoa!

Loki: I don't see how much help I'll be against Tyrell without my powers.

Aria Blaze: (to us) What do you think, guys? Has Loki been punished enough?

Me: Hmm. Nico what do you think?

Nico: I think he has been punished enough.

Me: I think so too. Thor?

Thor: I agree. Like it or not he is still my brother and he deserves a second chance.

Me: And he did help you in the Avengers movies from what I remember. All right then. I hope Lord Odin doesn't kill me for this.

I snapped my fingers and Loki had his powers back and I gave Loki his staff.

Me: You deserve a chance at redemption Loki.

Loki: Rest assured, I won't go back to my old ways. Because even with my powers, I'm still under house arrest in Mr. Grouse's house. But now, I'm able to defend myself.

Stan Smith: We'll tell Odin the good news.

Loki: And we should probably call your old buddy Principal Lewis so he can go gambling in the casinos with us.

Stan Smith: Good idea.

Me: Awesome. Lana also has a lucky streak like Steam Smythe does. When she was with Brittney during the journey of Sly Cooper, she cleaned out the entirety of Muggshot's entire casino of every coin.

Lana: It's true. Not bad for someone of my age huh?

Thunder Terror: You are one lucky kid Lana.

Lana: Yeah I know.

Me: I have a feeling I know where he's gonna show up. He's going to the Venetian Hotel.

Nico: That's one of my favorite hotels.

Naruto: It's a nice one.

Fu: It sure is.

Me: Lets roll.

We went to the Venetian Hotel and went to the casino.

Nico: Wow. The Casino is big.

Lincoln: It sure is.

X Ray: Hey, Vector. Can me, Ironclad, and Vapor try out the casino games?

Vector: I suppose.

Me: Have fun.

Mojo Jojo: And when we see Dorian we'll use an entrance made by me, Mojo Jojo!

Me: Awesome.

Lana, Laney, Lola and Nico and the U-Foes and the Wrecking Crew went to the machines and tables.

We also saw Principal Lewis at the Roulette table and he was gambling.

Alister: (to Principal Lewis) Hey, Lewis. Having fun?

Principal Lewis: Well this is a surprise! Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's great to see you all again.

Me: Same here.

Stan Lewis: Looks like you aren't the only one with a hot streak here.

Lana: No he isn't.

Lana has been raking in the dough.

Thunder Terror: Whoa! Lana really IS a lucky girl.

Nico: Yep.

Later we were waiting.

Piledriver: It's been an hour. I thought Dorian would be here by now.

Double D: Maybe he's on to us, Piledriver. (giggles)

Me: Don't be so sure.

We saw that Dorian came in and then SHOTS RANG OUT!

People ran for their lives!

Dorian: YOU ALL WILL DIE!

But then symbols of the periodic table formed and flew around them and smashed his men down. And then in a flash of light came us!

Me: Dorian Tyrell! So we meet at last.

Dorian: Team Loud Phoenix Storm! We'll enjoy fucking you up!

Me: Not if we fuck you up first you fuckers!

His men fired at me and I grabbed all the bullets with incredible speed until they ran out out of ammo.

Me: (Drops the slugs) I believe these are yours.

A mobster came at me and I dodged his punch and snapped his arm and kicked him in the face and knocked out some of his teeth.

Then Shade, Trap Jaw, Tri-Klops, Evil-Lyn, Beast Man and Mer Man then appeared.

Me: Shade, Trap Jaw, Tri-Klops, Evil-Lyn, Beast Man and Mer Man.

Shade: Nice meeting you guys here.

May: I take it you guys are enjoying the casinos as well?

Beast Man: We sure are. And we've even gotten our share of cash rewards.

Trap Jaw: By the way, we have two new recruits for you guys.

Me: Lets see them.

Suddenly we saw two figures come out and they were BIOWULF and SKALAMANDER!

---

Biowulf

Biowulf is a recurring antagonist of the animated series Generator Rex . He a biomechanical wolf-like E.V.O. who is the second-in-command of Van Kleiss' followers, the Pack.

He was voiced by Troy Baker, who also voiced Joel in The Last of Us and Erron Black in Mortal Kombat X and Mortal Kombat 11 .

Biowulf is an E.V.O with an attitude. His incredible speed, cunning and ability to leap five times his own hieght has led Biowulf to become Van Kleiss' right hand E.V.O. Couple Biowulf's abilities with his razor sharp claws and he becomes a force to be reckoned with.

It is interesting to note Biowulf has a more intelligent and calculating mind than most E.V.O's. Not only does he call the shots when Van Kleiss is absent, Biowulf also informs his boss of tactical advantages.

Skalamander

Skalamander is an EVO who is one of Van Kleiss' loyal henchmen and a member of The Pack.

The Day That Everything Changed

Along with Breach and Biowulf, Skalamander watched Rex battle the Multi-faced EVO After Rex snuck away from Providence Headquarters, Skalamander was the first to attack by launching some of his crystal spikes when Agent Six and the Providence agents came to retrieve Rex and Bobo Haha. Skalamander claimed to be on Rex's side, but once Breach opened a portal back to Abysus, he knocked Rex, Noah, and Bobo through it.

When the Pack took Bobo and Noah to the gardens at Van Kleiss' request, Skalamander attacked when Noah realized that the "statues" were actually petrified EVOs. He was incapacitated when Bobo crashed Biowulf into him. After Rex escaped from Van Kleiss, Skalamander along with the rest of the Pack dropped through another of Breach's portals to stop them. However, Skalamander was defeated by a barrage of lasers from Bobo Haha's laser pistols.

Frostbite

Skalamander was sent along with Biowulf to the Paradise base, both riding mammoth-like EVOs, on what was supposed to be a routine outing to collect Van Kleiss's nanites illegally bought from the traitor, Weaver. However, they were buried in an avalanche by Rex. Later, after a brief struggle between the two Pack members and the present loyal Providence members, and after Weaver accidentally absorbed all the nanites he had sold to Van Kleiss, they left the base because both the merchandise was left unavailable and presumably to inform Van Kleiss of the lost stream of active nanites.

Leader of the Pack

Later the Pack, including Skalamander, joined Van Kleiss during his "diplomatic" trip to New York City. Like Biowulf, Skalamander made an attempt at formal wear during the party, but since no suit in the world could fit either of them they were limited to bow ties. After Van Kleiss's defeat in New York City, the Pack left on the Blimp through one of Breach's portals.[3]

Dark Passage

Biowulf and Skalamander later joined Van Kleiss during his trip to Gabriel Rylander's base in the Amazon; however, he did not play any major role and was presumably rescued by Breach along with Biowulf before the base exploded.

What Lies Beneath

Later, during Abysus's destabilization, Skalamander assisted the other Pack members in rescuing Rex, Agent Six, and Dr. Holiday from an unstable EVO He later expressed great distress over the nearly resurrected Van Kleiss fading away. He was later nearly drowned in the nanite fluid, inadvertently rescued by Rex, and escaped capture presumably through one of Breach's portals.

Payback

The Pack, again including Skalamander, later participated in an attack on Providence Headquarters. When the Keep was rammed into the building, Van Kleiss immediately assigned Skalamander to capture Dr. Holiday. He chased her through the labs, the Petting Zoo, and finally cornered her near the Hole; however, what he wasn't expecting was the wrath of Dr. Holiday's sister.

Season Two Rampage

Skalamander later appeared to assist the rest of the Pack and Van Kleiss in stealing an energy core from Providence Headquarters. He was either broken out of prison by Breach or simply was never captured.

Alliance

Again, Skalamander went along with The Pack to the Bug Jar under

Van Kleiss' order to make a deal with NoFace. Along the way there, the group ran into Rex who got into a duel with the group. Later on, he, along with Biowulf and Circe, aided Rex in placing back the force field over the Bug Jar to prevent the EVOs' escape. He then escaped.

Written in Sand

Skalamander was spotted in the desert with Van Kleiss and Biowulf. Rex fought them off but was separated from the rest along with Van Kleiss. It is unknown what happened at the end, but he was eventually reunited with Van Kleiss.

Lions and Lambs

After Breach was caught speaking with Rex, she escaped. Skalamander, Van Kleiss, and Biowulf scouted high and low for her until they found her at a bowling alley with Rex. When she was found, she escaped once again, but fell into a large battle involving Providence and The Pack.

Assault on Abysus

Skalamander reappeared to still be remaining allied with The Pack at Van Kleiss' castle in Abysus. It turned out that once Van Kleiss went missing, Biowulf was appointed leader of The Pack. When Providence came to attack Abysus, he along with other Pack EVOs fought against Providence. He supported Rex and gave him enough time to find the Meta-Nanite. It was even implied that Skalamander believed Rex could set things right. Although he fought with his dear life, he was eventually collared and placed under Black Knight's control.

Endgame, Part 2

Skalamander stood beside Biowulf as they were minutes away from being cured by Rex's Worldwide Cure. Instantly, Breach followed the two and appeared to take them into a portal with her, avoiding the cure in the process.

Rex: Biowulf and Skalamander!

Biowulf: Long time no see Rex.

Skalamander: How have you been kid?

Rex: Surprised that's all.

Me: So you two are now in the Masters of Evil. This is gonna be awesome!

Breach: How have things been for you guys now that Van Kleiss is dead?

Skalamander: Much better Breach.

Twilight Sparkle: Who are they?

Me: Meet Biowulf and Skalamander. They are two E.V.O.'s from Rex's days of working with Providence.

Beverly Holliday: And some of the most dangerous enemies he knows.

Cricket: But they are really tough and awesome.

Biowulf: Do me and Skalamander really look similar to Blitzwolfer and Diamondhead?

Skalamander: Because we've been hearing that a lot ever since Dark brought us back.

Me: As a matter of fact you both sure do look similar to them.

Nico: I was just gonna point that out.

Me: I guess we never saw that when we fought the first time.

Biowulf: That's true.

?: You two do look so much like them.

2 figures came out and they were MOG from episodes 13 and 14 of Jungle Fury and the 3rd member of the 10 Terrors, SERPENTINA from episode 26 of Mystic Force!

---

Mog

Mog is a Rinshi that holds the Spirit of the Frog. He is an old friend of Camille. He serves as a minor antagonist of the episode "Ghost of a Chance".

Mog was summoned by Camille to defeat the Power Rangers. Mog attacked Ocean Bluff, along with Camille, and encountered the Ranger trio, their opening attack being Casey jump kicking him in the side. Mog was a weak Rinshi but had great defensive abilities. The Rangers overwhelmed him with a series of energized punches and claw slashes so he threw wart like bombs but the Jungle Fan deflected them and they tied him up with the Jungle Mace. Casey then summoned his Shark Sabers and takes down Mog with the weapons' devastating double energy slash. However, Mog then enlarged so the Rangers summoned the Jungle Pride Megazord. After being taunted by Mog, the Rangers summoned the Elephant Animal Spirit to form the Jungle Pride with Elephant Power and destroyed a shield he put up with the Jungle Mace so he leapt up into the air. They then summoned the Bat Animal Spirit and formed the Jungle Pride with Bat Power which knocked him from the sky before forming the Jungle Pride with Shark Power and took him down for good with the Mega Rotation Launch.

Serpentina

Serpentina (or as others call her "Lady Serpentina" ) was a Medusa-like Gorgon monster with a mirror-coated shield (similar to the Aegis of Athena) for a weapon and was one of the Ten Terrors, In the episode "Hard Heads" she was the third Terror to fight the Rangers as the main antagonist.

Serpentina first appeared in twenty-fourth episode, when Necrolai found the cave of Terrors. Necrolai told the demons that the Master was defeated again, and Imperious was destroyed, and now the Terrors had to help conquer the Human World. She openly said that Octomus was growing incompetent. She also seems to not care whether Octomus is revived and agreed with Megahorn, both were annoyed that the Terrors should follow the Rules of Darkness according to the Stone of Judgement. Terrors agreed to help conquer the world. They arrived in the human world when the sky turned dark and told people of Briarwood to give them Light, who is actually Nick Russell, the Red Ranger and leader of Mystic Rangers. They easily defeated the Rangers' Manticore Megazord and left.

She was the third to be chosen by the Stone of Judgement to face the Power Rangers. She had peered into the Book of Prophecy that Necrolai was reading and realized it was her turn to be chosen, and so she tricked Hekatoid to attack before her so that he would be able to get rid of the Rangers before she had to punish the humans. Although Hekatoid failed, he did manage to cast a spell on Nick and Vida that caused them to lose their ability to morph, giving the team a disadvantage. On her first appearance on the surface world, she fought Daggeron and the three remaining Rangers, who were forced into their Titan forms, due to Nick and Vida's inability to morph. Nick and Vida used a spell to knock her off balance, and Serpentina attempted to attack them when the other Rangers came to their aid. When Daggeron attempted to use Jenji's Shining Attack, Serpentina managed to get one of her snakes to bite Jenji and then activated her shield, turning Jenji to stone. She then challenged the Rangers by inviting them into her Serpent Dimension where she proceeded to swallow them in her giant snake form. She returned to the human world and set her sights on finishing the job by consuming Nick and Vida while they were still vulnerable. Rangers tried to battle her without their powers, but they were no match for Serpentina. However Itassis intervened, reversing Hekatoid's spell on them. Nick then defeated Serpentina with his Battilizer, causing Serpentina to regurgitate the other Rangers. She then grew into her giant form and summoned her snakes all over Briarwood, but before any of them could bite, Daggeron used the Solar Streak Megazord's furnace blast to suck up Serpentina's shield, causing all of her snakes to vanish. The Rangers then destroyed Serpentina with The Legend Striker Spin Attack. In her last breath, Serpentina warned the Rangers that Megahorn would avenge her destruction before falling and exploding, making her the third Terror to be destroyed, and the second Terror to be destroyed by the Mystic Rangers. Because of her destruction, the spell on Jenji was lifted and he was returned to normal.

Casey Rhodes: Mog!

Vida Rocca: And Serpentina!

Mog: Been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you both! Mog you were one of Camille's closest friends and you were sent to attack Ocean Bluff. And Serpentina you are the third member of the 10 Terrors that was fought. You ate the rangers in your giant snake form and Nick defeated you.

Serpentina: Indeed you are right J.D.

Mog: Great memory on you.

Nico: But this is gonna be awesome.

Me: It sure is. And Serpentina will be mine and Vida's fight.

Vida Rocca: YEAH!

Mog: Before you ask, no, me and Toady aren't related. Though we do have similar fighting styles.

Me: Indeed you do. I have a feeling we're gonna be in for some fun.

?: This is gonna be just as fun.

5 more figures came out and they were MUGGSHOT, MZ. RUBY, SIR RALEIGH, MARLUXIA, and Skeletor's former lackey WHIPLASH!

Muggshot

Muggshot is a vicious crime-lord and enforcer first appearing in the 2002 videogame Sly Cooper and the Thievious Raccoonus as the main antagonist of Episode 2: Sunset Snake Eyes . He was the chief enforcer of the gang known as the Fiendish Five - maintaining a massive gambling empire in Mesa City, Utah - which was headed by Clockwerk. He was later defeated by the thief Sly Cooper, who came from a long line of master thieves, and captured by Interpol.

He spent some time imprisoned in Heathrow Penitentiary until, probably after three years or so, he escaped (appearing in the 2005 video game, Sly 3: Honour Among Thieves ) and formed his own flight team called Team Muggshot to compete in the ACES tournament held in Holland. He was bested by Cooper again and apparently imprisoned a second time.

According to the short film Timing is Everything (released to promote Sly Cooper: Thieves in Time ) Muggshot escaped a second time and attempted to make off with a gold watch of some value, only - for the third time - to be bested by the Cooper Gang and captured again.

He was voiced by the late Kevin Blackton, who also played Panda King.

Early life

Once a rather puny specimen of a canine, Muggshot would change dramatically after he watched the film the "Dogfather" (a pun on "Godfather") and became obsessed with becoming a gangster himself.

Dedicating himself to training the once "runt" Muggshot grew into a muscular monstrosity who soon lay waste to his enemies and became a powerful crime-lord complete with his own army of henchmen, guns and heavily guarded casinos. He then became a member of the Fiendish Five .

Before Sly Cooper and the Thievious Raccoonus

Muggshot was present, along with the other members of the Fiendish Five, at Sly Cooper's house when Clockwerk had them attack and kill the thief's parents so they could steal the pages of the Thievious Raccoonus, the tome detailing the Cooper's thieving skills. It is unknown what is exact roll was. He took a portion of the pages and hid them in vaults around Mesa City, prompting Sly Cooper to track him down thirteen years later to retrieve the pages and defeat him.

Sly Cooper and the Thievious Raccoonus

Muggshot was the second member of the five to be defeated by Sly, the first being Sir Raleigh. After retrieving all of the pages held by Muggshot, Sly used several of his 'treasure keys' to gain access to his penthouse, where Muggshot lay in wait for him. The two fought, Sly using his agility and Mugghsot with his massive pistols. Cooper defeated Muggshot by using glass lamps to reflect light at him and make his pistols explode.

After the fight ended, Muggshot expressed his amazement at being bested by Cooper, but stated he would not be able to overcome the third member, Mz. Ruby. He was then captured by Inspector Carmelita Fox of Interpol as the Cooper Gang escaped Mesa City.

In The Adventures of Sly Cooper - Issue #2

Muggshot made a brief appearance in An Old Friend, a short comic story appearing in the second issue of the promotional comic series The Adventures of Sly Cooper, released to promote Sly 3: Honour Among Thieves. He is seen in a cell, alongside Sir Raleigh and Mz. Ruby, presumably where he was imprisoned after the affair in Mesa City. Although not described, it is assumed that he managed to escape in the one year period between Sly 2: Band of Thieves and Sly 3 .

Sly 3: Honor Among Thieves

Muggshot somehow escaped the long-arm of the law and turned up in Holland when the Cooper Gang arrived. Both parties were attempting to win an aviation contest called ACES, Muggshot with Team Muggshot and the Cooper Gang with Team Cooper. However, while the gang was trying to best the infamous Black Baron - a flying ace who never lost -, Muggshot just wanted to win for the glory and the prize. The gang initially spotted him boasting loudly about his team in the hotel where the pilots were staying while they competed. He then tried to break into the hanger housing the plane which Sly and his friends were restoring for the contest, but failed to eliminate the competition.

In order to get rid of him, Sly's wheelchair-bound techno-whiz friend Bentley provoked Muggshot to face him in a fight the afternoon before the competition. This was actually a set-up, as Muggshot came face-to-face with Inspector Fox for a second time. Although Muggshot employed his brute strength and weaponry, he was beaten by the inspector and incarcerated once more, thus removing him and his team from the ACES competition.

Timing is Everything

Although he was imprisoned during the events of Sly 3, it is suggested that Muggshot soon escaped capture after the episode in Holland. Although the film was released as promotional material for Sly Cooper: Thieves in Time, the fact that the Cooper Gang have their van - which was recovered in their subsequent skirmish with General Tsao - and that Sly has not begun a relationship with Carmelita as per the ending of the third game, suggest that Muggshot encountered Sly again before the final showdown with Dr. M.

In the film, Muggshot and his minions have stolen a valuable gold watch which the Cooper Gang intend to take. Having fitted the van with wings and a rocket engine, the gang infiltrate the plane containing the vault where the watch is kept. Sly encounters Carmelita, who has been captured by the gangster, but leaves her tied up so Muggshot does not discover them. He sets of an alarm which lures away the guards at the vault, but finds Muggshot wise to him, wearing the watch. The two fight and Muggshot gains the upper hand before he notices that Sly has removed the watch from his wrist. Sly then uses the watch to punch Muggshot in the face, knocking him out.

Carmelita has escaped in the meantime and comes to arrest them both, when the cockpit controls shattered during the fight cause the plane to plummet towards a mountain. The van crashes into the cockpit and Bentley attaches a line to Muggshot's body - allowing Sly and Carmelita to climb aboard - and ejects just before the plane crashes into the mountain. The gang leave Muggshot and the watch with Carmelita (who is initially angered by Sly's escape) on the mountainside, having used parachutes to avoid crash-landing, after which he is presumably arrested for his crimes.

Mz. Ruby

Mz. Ruby is an evil witch encountered in Sly Cooper and the Thievious Racoonus, serving as the main antagonist of Episode 3: Vicious Voodoo .

She was voiced by Presciliana Esparolini.

Biography

She is a large anthropomorphic alligator named after the jewel she has embedded in her belly button - she acts as one of the game's main antagonists and is a mistress of voodoo who resides in a dark and forbidden swamp where she commands an army of ghosts and voodoo-based monsters loyal to her will.

Coming from a long line of voodoo mystics, Mz Ruby was feared by all the other children, and delved into learning her family's magic as an escape from her loneliness. Learning how to summon the undead provided her with the only companions she had. Growing into a powerful, but deeply embittered, voodoo priestess as an adult, she turned to a life crime to punish the world for fearing her as a child, eventually becoming the chief mystic of the Fiendish Five.

Sir Raleigh

Sir Raleigh (also simply known as Raleigh ) is a green anthropomorphic frog who is featured as the main antagonist of Episode 1: Tide of Terror of the videogame Sly Cooper and the Thievious Raccoonus . He is the chief machinist of the criminal organization known as the Fiendish Five. He is a stereotypical "rich guy gone bad" villain.

He was voiced by David Scully.

Early life

Bored with a life of wealth and privilege among the aristocracy, Raleigh's criminal mind blossomed when he discovered a life of piracy. Raleigh quickly became addicted to crime, which got him noticed by the Fiendish Five. His genius for designing evil machinery also won this crime addict his place in the Fiendish Five.

As part of The Fiendish Five

After the attack on the Cooper home, Raleigh took off with the notes of Rioichi Cooper .

Years later, he had established himself near the Isle O'Wrath, situated in the center of his artificially created Welsh Triangle. Using his storm machine, he caused ships to crash, allowing him to loot them for treasure. Boarding the machine, which was contained in a blimp, Sly confronted Raleigh. Raleigh mocked Sly, saying that he and the rest of the Fiendish Five should have "finished the job" when he helped slaughter Sly's parents. Raleigh then swallowed special bees and bloated to gargantuan size, previously stating that he would "crush Sly like the insignificant bug that he is". Raleigh fought Sly on retracting platforms within the command centre of his blimp.

Despite his powerful attacks, Raleigh was beaten. Still conscious, Raleigh warned Sly of the dangers that awaited in Mesa City, where Muggshot resided. He began claiming that not even a snake could slither in without setting off alarms. Right on cue, Carmelita Fox arrived to arrest him and his crew, ending the legend of the Welsh Triangle.

Marluxia

Marluxia is a member of the original Organization XIII and a major antagonist of the Kingdom Hearts video game franchise. He is the Nobody of Lauriam, an Union leader of the Dandelions. He wields a scythe and the power of flowers, which represent death as opposed to how they represent Cure magic in the games for all the other characters. Marluxia, along with Larxene, another Organization XIII member, schemes to overthrow Xemnas, with the help of Sora, so they can become the leaders.

In the original Japanese version, he was voiced by Shūichi Ikeda. In the English dub, he was voiced by Keith Ferguson, who also voices

Flintheart Glomgold in the DuckTales reboot series.

Kingdom Hearts Union χ

Lauriam, Marluxia's original self, was a Keyblade wielder seemingly chosen by Master Ava to lead the Dandelions during the First Keyblade War. He was one of the five leaders, alongside Ventus, Brain, Ephemer, and Skuld. He appeared shortly after an unknown person murdered his sister Strelitzia, a Keyblade Wielder also chosen by Master Ava to lead the Dandelions, stole her book, and took her place amongst the leaders. Looking for answers behind Strelitzia's death, Lauriam seeks the aid of fellow Keyblade wielder Elrena (Larxene's original self).

Before Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days

At an unknown point in time, Lauriam succumbed to darkness, turning his heart into a Heartless. However, his will was so strong it left behind a Nobody, who was recruited into the Organization by Xigbar and Xaldin.

358/2 Days

Marluxia appears as a playable character in Kingdom Hearts 358/2 Days, and teaches Roxas a few things about fighting.

Chain of Memories

Marluxia makes his first offical appearance as the main antagonist of Sora's story mode.

After the events of the first game, Sora, Donald, and Goofy are wandering a long road. In the middle of the night, a hooded Marluxia appears and leads them to Castle Oblivion. Once inside, he takes all of their memories, and puts them into cards, weakening the party. He then teaches them how to use the cards, and then leaves after giving them a card that allows then to revisit a world from their memories.

As the game goes on, it is discovered that Marluxia has gotten fellow members of the Organization Axel and Larxene to help him conspire against the leader of the Organization, Xemnas. To do this, he wishes to use Naminé to twist Sora's memories, turning him into a slave of the Organization, so that the power of the Keyblade could be theirs. However, Vexen is killed by Axel after his defeat against Sora to prevent him of revealing their plans, Larxene is killed by Sora, Goofy and Donald, and Axel betrays him, leaving him the last person in the conspiracy.

Sora makes it up to the floor with Naminé, and after a short talk Marluxia reveals himself, and demands that Naminé use her powers to crush Sora's heart, but Naminé refuses, and Marluxia fights Sora. Sora is able to overpower him, but he then reappears and reveals that the Marluxia he fought was an illusion and flees into the highest room in the Castle, awaiting Sora with a reaper machine to help him fight. After that he fights Sora with an angel-like Nobody, which is the ultimate proof of his powers. In the end, Marluxia still falls at Sora's hands and is destroyed, fading away.

Kingdom Hearts II Final Mix

Marluxia's spirit remains as a special kind of Nobody, called an Absent Silhouette, and manifests itself inside the Beast's Castle in the Beast's room after Sora convinces the Beast to take back Belle and the rose from Xaldin. If Sora chooses to investigate the Silhouette, Marluxia reappears and engages Sora in a hectic rematch, but is defeated. A data replica of Marluxia also appears in the Cavern of Remembrance.

Kingdom Hearts III

Marluxia returns in Kingdom Hearts III as part of the real Organization, despite his attempts of overthrowing the original. His eyes are now golden, therefore implying that he has become a vessel of Xehanort. He first appears in Corona, offering to help Gothel find Rapunzel (Taking the role of the Stabbington Brothers from the film). Later, he appears to Sora and reintroduces himself, and comments on their past encounter, even though Sora has no memory of it. He then claims that the Organization seeks to compliment the light, and that Rapunzel is the light of Corona. Later, he kidnaps Flynn, then ties him to a boat with Rapunzel's crown in matter that made it look like he was abadoning her. He then confronts the Princess and claims that Flynn has robbed her.

Rapunzel doesn't believe him and runs, only to encounter Gothel who dispatches Marluxia's nobodies. Rapunzel, now starting to believe Marluxia's lies, returns to Gothel, in tears. Marluxia then confronts Sora and reveals that Gothel keeps Rapunzel prisoner, and that this serves Xehanort's goals by "preserving" her, because she is one of the seven new Princesses of Heart. Sora tries attacking Marluxia, but he knocks Sora out. Later, after Gothal disentigrates, Marluxia transforms her remains into a heartless.

Marluxia later met with his old partner-in-crime Larxene where she suggested another coup of the Organization. This time, however, Marluxia rejected the idea, reiterating that despite their previous betrayal of the Organization, Master Xehanort brought them back to be his vessels and nothing more. He also was aware that Saïx had brought Vexen on board to continue their plan on using replica's for the Organization, stating that the replicas (as in the case with Dark Riku) were human enough to join their ranks, Marluxia remained unaware of Saix and Vexen's true intentions on using the replica program. He and Larxene were both present with Demyx and Luxord when their old superior Xemnas revealed to them why they were all chosen as vessels for the real Organization XIII: their past connection to the Keyblade legacy. When the Second Keyblade War begins with the real Organization XIII and the Guardians of Light, Marluxia, Larxene, and Luxord gang up on King Mickey before Sora intervenes. After Marluxia is defeated, he seems to regain his forgotten memories of his past life before becoming a Nobody, laughing at the irony of how he just now remembers what is important to him. Having remembered his true purpose, Marluxia thanks Sora before fading away and presumably being recompleted as Lauriam again.

Whiplash (He-Man 2002)

Whiplash is a fictional character in the popular Masters of the Universe franchise.

A member of the Evil Warriors, Whiplash is an anthropomorphic reptilian creature. His main asset for battle is his long, bulky tail, which can injure or knock over his opponent by delivering a heavy blow, as well as being able to smash through solid rock.

2002 series

Whiplash features in the 2002 revival of the Masters of the Universe toy line and cartoon. The new series offers a new background to his character, but unlike most of the other villains, whose roles and characters are expanded upon, his portrayal is significantly weaker than his 1980s counterpart. In this incarnation, Whiplash is generally consigned to background appearances, with little dialogue and little personality, seeming to be little more than a generic thuggish villain. The only episode to offer him a spotlight role is "Underworld" in which his background is revealed. In this episode, we see that he is from a race of underground-dwelling reptile creatures called the Caligars, who inhabit Subternia and are caught in permanent dispute with their Subternian neighbours, the bat-like Speleans. The Caligars are shown to be a generally peaceful race, who regard Whiplash as a traitor since he joined Skeletor's forces. However, even in this episode Whiplash receives little dialogue and serves little importance to the overall story. Another notable episode for the character is "The Monster Within", in which he is shown to suck up to Skeletor, feigning sycophantic loyalty to impress his master, but this is as far as his development goes, and he quickly fades out of the series, consigned completely to the background by the time of season two.

Rinoa: Oh wow!

Layla: This is gonna be awesome!

Muggshot: (looks around the casino) Man, this takes me back.

Brittney: Just like when we stopped your gambling empire in Utah.

Lana: But it was really fun.

Mz. Ruby: And it's awesome how you know so much about the dark arts.

Brittney: I get that a lot. They don't call me the Empress of Darkness for nothing. And Raleigh, your boat is now a perfect mansion for Minato and Kushina.

Sir Raleigh: Indeed. I'm glad.

Serpentina: Can you believe it took me and the other Ten Terrors a whole year to make a move?

Me: No kidding. But the wait was all worth it.

Vida Rocca: It sure was.

?: (British Accent) Too bad it all will be your last.

Me: Oh shit! I thought we were rid of that voice forever.

Horsea: Oh no.

Another figure came out and it was JADIS THE WHITE WITCH!

---

Queen Jadis the White Witch, simply known as Jadis, is the main antagonist of The Chronicles of Narnia series by the late C.S. Lewis. She appears as the main antagonist The Magician's Nephew and The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe and a posthumous antagonist in Prince Caspian . In the films, she appears as the main antagonist of The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe and a minor posthumous antagonist in Prince Caspian and The Voyage of the Dawn Treader .

She was the evil, sadistic, cruel and tyrannical self-proclaimed Witch Queen of Narnia, who cast an incredibly powerful spell over the entire land of Narnia so that it is always winter and never, ever, ever any other season, nor Christmas. This magic spell was so strong that it lasted for a full century. As a tremendously powerful sorceress, capable and trained of dark magic, Queen Jadis wielded a much fearful wand through which she could transform anyone who opposed her into ice and stone.

Despite the fact that she was a tyrannical usurper, Jadis was shown to be truly knowledgeable in the laws of Narnia as well as the ways of the Deep Magic. She is also served by numerous servants: Maugrim as her police cheif, Otmin as her army General, Ginarrbrik as her servant, and the polar bears as her pets.

Jadis' tyranny over Narnia was brought to an end when she went to war against Aslan, the mighty and just lion who was the creator and true king of Narnia, the four Pevensie children who came to the land of Narnia from England through an enchanted wardrobe (Peter, Susan, Edmund, and Lucy), and their Narnian army, which concluded with her being killed by Aslan himself.

In the BBC series, she was portrayed by Barbara Kellerman (who also played the Hag and the Lady of the Green Kirtle).

In the film series, she was portrayed by Tilda Swinton, who also portrayed Karen Crowder in Michael Clayton, Minister Mason in Snowpiercer, Lucy and Nancy Mirando in Okja, Madame Blanc and Helena Markos in the 2018 remake of Suspiria, and Gabriel in Constantine .

Powers and Abilities

Being born into the royal family of Charn, Jadis had an innate talent in the magical arts, which she further attuned and enhanced through delving into the darkest side of magic, enabling her to emerge as a dangerously powerful witch. After eating an Apple from the Tree of Youth, Jadis became a goddess-level sorceress, and her incredible supernatural powers could only be surpassed by those of Aslan's.

Examples of powers Jadis displayed were:

Cryokinesis : Jadis has divine control and authority over ice, cold and snow. She is capable of holding Narnia in an unbreakable and eternal winter for more than a hundred years, and even capable of constructing an enormous palace entirely out of ice. She is also immune to freezing temperatures. She is also capable of creating enormous blizzards and snowstorms with relative ease.

Frigiokinesis : She is capable of-using her wand-turning living things to stone. This is not her most powerful trait, but it is her signature attack. Once inflicted, the power of the wand cannot be reversed by anyone, except for Aslan.

The Deplorable Word : Jadis's most terrifying ability is her knowledge of the Deplorable Word. This Word is incredibly powerful, and will effectively kill every single living creature on the planet it is being spoken on-the only person who is unaffected by the Word is the person who made the incantation. However, it is ineffective outside of her world.

Telekinesis : Jadis is naturally capable of manipulating objects without physically touching them. She is also capable of utterly reducing objects to dust.

Immortality : After eating an Apple from the Tree of Youth, Jadis was changed from having the longevity of her species to having complete immortality. Even if her body is destroyed, her embodiment will ultimately survive.

Preservation : Jadis has the unique ability to paralyze herself completely, sustaining her age, powers and physical condition unbreakably for an infinite amount of time.

Beauty : Jadis is incalculably beautiful, and any male creature who lays eyes on her will view her as the most beautiful creature that any individual has ever seen. Females, however, are understandably immune to this beatific charisma.

Telepathy : Jadis has the ability to read the minds of others.

Creature Control : She has utter control and authority over evil creatures such as minotaurs, wolves and dwarfs. This is enough to create an army for herself.

Superhuman Strength : Jadis is incredibly strong. It is her physical strength that she can retain in other worlds. She can rip lampposts from the ground, deliver bone-breaking blows during fights, and lift people cleanly off the ground and throw them through the air over huge distances. Jadis's physical strength increases when she enters Narnia and eats the apple from the Forbidden Tree. In The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, Jadis is so strong she can carry a broadsword in each hand and deliver phenomenally powerful blows with each blade, despite broadswords being extremely heavy and meant for two-handed wielding.

Swordsmanship : Jadis is an incredibly talented warrior and a deadly swordswoman - she has survived hundreds of wars on Charn, honing her own skills on the battlefield. During the Battle of Beruna, she effortlessly defeated every single opponent that she faced during the conflict with complete ease, even the extremely skilled Oreius. People may argue that this particular battle progress was due to her possessing a wand, but later when Edmund destroys the Wand, Jadis takes his sword along with her own and shows extraordinary proficiency with these weapons. In her duel with Peter, she completely outmatches him several times throughout the duel. It must be said that, up until Aslan appeared in the battle, Jadis was basically toying with him, never truly attempting to kill him but showing off her superior skill. However, when Aslan enters the battle, Jadis actually tries to kill him and comes close to doing so, but Aslan saves Peter just in time.

Supreme Reflexes/Speed : She has superhuman reflexes - when Edmund destroys her wand, she reacts quickly to recover from the horror of its destruction and overpowers and stabs him.

The story of Jadis the White Witch from The Chronicles of Narnia .
Books Background

Jadis was once queen of the world of Charn until she was embroiled in a war with her sister who "forced" her to utter the Deplorable Word, which had the power to kill every living thing in Charn except the person who spoke it. Jadis mentions that she paid a terrible price to learn it, though it is never revealed what this was. When her sister managed to defeat Jadis' army, Jadis spoke the word and destroyed all life in her world rather than let her sister rule it instead of her. She then put herself into an enchanted sleep, and remained in this state for a millennia.

The Magician's Nephew

Jadis was eventually awakened when someone came and tapped a bell in the room she resided in. That unsuspecting person was young Digory Kirke. Digory and his friend, Polly, accidentally bring Jadis to our world (more specifically to Digory's Uncle Andrew) and she wreaks havoc on England for about a day. There is a fight then, outside of Digory's house, in which Jadis takes a lamppost bar and begins to hit people with it.

Using magical rings that Uncle Andrew had given them (which took them to Charn in the first place) Digory and Polly manage to get Jadis (as well as a good lot of other people) out of England and into Narnia. Narnia is then a void world with nothing but darkness in it. When the Lion named Aslan starts singing Narnia into creation, Jadis flees. She is next seen in a Garden far up in the mountains of the young world where she had eaten an apple from one of the trees there, giving her eternal life and youth. Digory though takes another apple from the same tree back to Aslan and plants it. This becomes the Tree of Protection and guards Narnia from the Witch for many years (as whoever had taken and eaten the fruit from the tree without permission would be repelled by it). It is hinted that many years afterward a storm destroyed this tree. Presumably this is when Jadis was able to take over Narnia.

The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe

Over 100 years have passed since her arrival in Narnia. This time, whilst Aslan is away in other worlds, Jadis has taken over Narnia. She has an enormously vast army of evil creatures. She has set herself up as Queen of Narnia in a colossal palace made of ice. In order to sustain her castle's status, as well as that of her increasingly phenomenal powers, she has cursed the whole of Narnia with an eternal and unbreakable winter - a winter without Christmas, at that.

The good creatures of Narnia are terrified of Jadis, but there is also a prophecy that two sons of Adam and two daughters of Eve will enter Narnia soon, and when they do they will raise an army, defeat the White Witch and restore peace to Narnia. In order to rebuke this prophecy, Jadis made the presence of humans in Narnia illegal and punishable by death. During the events of the book, Lucy Pevensie enters Narnia and is taken under the wing of the Faun, Tumnus, who is one of her spies. Tumnus' conscience and Lucy's incalculable kindness get the better of Tumnus and he helps her out of Narnia, instead of turning her over to Jadis.

Later, when Lucy visits a second time, her brother Edmund follows her. He encounters Jadis who feigns warming up to him, entrancing him with her apparent kindness and giving him enchanted Turkish delights to entrance him into doing this. Thus, he instinctively reveals that he has other siblings, and unwittingly reveals that Tumnus has been offering hospitality to Lucy. She manipulates him into returning with all of his siblings to Narnia, and in return he will be made king of Narnia alongside her before giving him the directions of her house. She then leaves him and then later has Tumnus arrested for treason.

Edmund does return with his siblings, and after they discover that Tumnus had been arrested, they are taken in by a family of beavers. Edmund leaves alone, after learning of Aslan and the Prophecy. He is escorted by her chief of police, the wolf Maugrim, and at first she is enraged that he has come alone after she asked so little of him. He then desperately betrays their location to her and reveals about Aslan being in Narnia much to her anger. Jadis then sends Maugrim and the swiftest of his wolves to go kill them but tells him that if they were gone, then they must go to the Stone Table and wait for her in hiding. Jadis orders her dwarf to prepare her sledge and they set out at once and Edmund realizes how bad he was to his siblings and that Jadis is very cruel and never intended to make him a king. The next day, they come across a fox, four squirrels, two satyrs and a dwarf enjoying Christmas pudding. Jadis demands to know about it and the fox reveals that Father Christmas gave them the pudding, table etc. She refuses to believe this and turns the party into stone even when Edmund pleads to her to not do it. Jadis gives Edmund a slap to the face for "asking favor of spies and traitors". However, the snow begins to melt and Spring blossoms, thus confirming everything to Jadis that Aslan has come back and destroyed her Winter and thus she, her dwarf and Edmund are forced to walk until they stop at a dark valley.

Jadis and her dwarf discuss about the prophecy and she decides to kill Edmund now. One of Maugrim's wolves reports about his death until Jadis sends him to call out her evil army. Before she can kill

Edmund, Aslan's troops attack her and her dwarf but she and the dwarf manage to elude them by disguising themselves as a boulder and a tree while Aslan's troops escape with Edmund. Jadis arrives at Aslan's camp and bargains for Edmund's life before reminding Asland and everyone that she has a right to kill traitors as the law of the Deep Magic states otherwise, Narnia will be overturned and perish in fire and water. Aslan and Jadis bargain alone for a very long time with Aslan offering his life for Edmund's in which the Jadis agrees to this and renounces her claim on Edmund's blood. She then leaves while Asland moves his troops to another location. Later that night, Aslan secretly returns to the Stone Table where Jadis and her army are waiting for him. She first has him tied up, tortured and humiliated before having him brought onto the Stone Table. Jadis discreetly reveals that his sacrifice will not stop her from taking Narnia and killing the people he loves. She then kills Aslan, and prepares her troops for the upcoming battle.

The next day, Jadis and her troops battle Aslan's troops. She turns some of Aslan's soldiers into stone before Edmund breaks her wand before being wounded. Jadis then fights Peter before Aslan along with Lucy, Susan and all the freed Narnians that were turned to stone appear and start winning. Aslan then flings himself upon the Jadis and nothing more is shown. However, it is mentioned that Jadis had died and her army either flee or surrender thus ending Jadis's reign of terror once and for all.

Prince Caspian

Jadis is only mentioned when Prince Caspian, Trufflehunter, Doctor Cornelius and Nikabrik discuss about the Pevensies, Aslan and how to defeat King Miraz. Nikabrik brings along a hag and werewolf into the council where they try and offer to resurrect Jadis to defeat Miraz. Unfortunately, Prince Caspian, Trufflehunter and Doctor Cornelius refuse due to knowing that Jadis is much worse than Miraz and a fight breaks out among the two sides. Fortunately, Peter, Edmund and Trumpkin (who had overheard the talk) arrive and help kill Nikabrik, hag and werewolf before they could begin the ritual.

Films The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe

Jadis might have arrived in Narnia similarly like her book counterpart. Over 100 years have passed since her arrival in Narnia. This time, whilst Aslan is away in other worlds, Jadis has taken over Narnia like her book counterpart. She has an enormously vast army of evil creatures. She has set herself up as Queen of Narnia in a colossal palace made of ice. In order to sustain her castle's status, as well as that of her increasingly phenomenal powers, she has cursed the whole of Narnia with an eternal and unbreakable winter - a winter without Christmas, at that.

The good creatures of Narnia are terrified of Jadis, but there is also a prophecy that two sons of Adam and two daughters of Eve will enter Narnia soon, and when they do they will raise an army, defeat the White Witch and restore peace to Narnia. In order to rebuke this prophecy, Jadis made the presence of humans in Narnia illegal and punishable by death. During the events of the book, Lucy Pevensie enters Narnia and is taken under the wing of the Faun, Tumnus, who is one of her spies. Tumnus' conscience and Lucy's incalculable kindness get the better of Tumnus and he helps her out of Narnia, instead of turning her over to Jadis.

Later, when Lucy visits a second time, her brother Edmund follows her. He encounters Jadis who feigns warming up to him, entrancing him with her apparent kindness and giving him enchanted Turkish delights to entrance him into doing this. Thus, he instinctively reveals that he has other siblings, and unwittingly reveals that Tumnus has been offering hospitality to Lucy. She manipulates him into returning with all of his siblings to Narnia, and in return he will be made king of Narnia alongside her before giving him the directions of her house. She then leaves him.

Edmund does return with his siblings, and after they discover that Tumnus had been arrested, they are taken in by a family of beavers. Edmund leaves alone, after learning of Aslan and the Prophecy. He is escorted by her chief of police, the wolf Maugrim, and at first she is enraged that he has come alone after she asked so little of him. He then desperately betrays their location to her. She then sends Maugrim and the rest of her wolves after the beavers, before incarcerating Edmund in her dungeon. She comes with her police to the beaver dam and arrives just as the children and the beavers escape. In a fit of rage, she uses her wand to turn many of the nearby creatures to stone.

She returns and interrogates Edmund, who unwittingly reveals that they are going to meet with Aslan. She responds by turning Tumnus, who she had recently imprisoned for harboring a human, to stone. She then takes Edmund along with her to hunt for Aslan in her sleigh. Throughout the ride, Edmund gradually reveals the cruel, psychopathic and malicious nature of the Witch. She imprisons him again once she has set up a camp with her army near Aslan's camp. Whilst she is organizing strategy, Aslan's troops attack and free Edmund.

In response, Jadis takes her army and wrathfully bargains over Edmund's life with Aslan. Jadis intelligently points out that traitors - like Edmund - belong to her, and are for her to kill. If she does not then, by magical law, all of Narnia will be destroyed in fire and water. They bargain alone, for a very long time, and Jadis agrees to renounce her claim on Edmund's blood, if somebody else takes his place. Aslan himself takes Edmund's place and approaches the Stone Table, where Jadis sadistically orders the torture and humiliation of Aslan. After he is finally pinned to the Table, Jadis discreetly reveals that his sacrifice will not stop her from taking Narnia and killing the people he loves. She then kills Aslan, and prepares her troops for the upcoming battle.

With Aslan apparently dead, Jadis and her colossal army meet Aslan's army - led by the Centaur General Oreius, and Peter and Edmund - at Beruna fields. Jadis declares that no prisoners are to be taken, and all opposition are to be killed. She then orders her army to charge and a full-scale battle erupts between the two enormous forces. Jadis enters the battle on a chariot pulled by polar bears, but the charity is eventually brought down and Jadis fights off the army with her wand and broadsword. She kills thousands of Aslan's troops, turning many of them to stone. She comes dangerously close to turning Peter to stone whilst his back is turned, but Edmund intervenes.

Edmund faces Jadis one final time and uses his sword to destroy her wand. Enraged, Jadis stabs him in the heart, killing him. This infuriates Peter into rage and he attacks her. She steals Edmund's sword to replace her wand and challenges Peter. A climactic duel breaks out between the two, in which Peter is clearly hopelessly out of his depth. Jadis, completely confident that she will win and knowing that Aslan is dead, toys with Peter during the fight, disarming and flooring him time and again with her swords, but not bothering to strike a killing blow.

Soon, though, Aslan reappears, having resurrected all of the animals who had been turned to the stone by Jadis in the past, and enters the battle. Jadis panics and attacks Peter, actually intending to kill him quickly enough to be ready for Aslan. He puts up a decent fight, but Jadis overpowers him and pins him to the ground by stabbing him in the arm. Just as Jadis is about to kill him, Aslan charges and bulldozes into her, taking her clean off her feet, and eats her alive. With Jadis dead, her army evaporates and the magic she has inflicted on Narnia is permanently undone.

Prince Caspian

In the film, Nikabrik, the Hag, and the Werewolf come to Prince Caspian during crisis, offering a way to ensure King Miraz's death and secure power back to him. Caspian agrees, and the two begin a ritual involving an archaic incantation and the (somehow) recovered wand of the White Witch. They use it to create a wall of ice with the spirit of Jadis within. When Caspian sees her in the wall of ice, he tells them that it was not what he wanted, but the Werewolf holds him. Jadis asks for Caspian to provide her with a drop of his blood, which will bring her back to life. Caspian struggles but his hand is cut and his blood begins to spill. Caspian then becomes tempted. However, Peter, Edmund, Trumpkin, and Lucy arrive and fend them off. After a quarrel, Peter fights and kills the Hag, Edmund fights and kills the Werewolf, and Trumpkin and Lucy fight and kill Nikabrik. Peter knocks Caspian away from the ice, but becomes entranced himself and begins to be tempted by the spirit of Jadis. However, Edmund sneaks up behind the wall and stabs it, shattering the wall and killing Jadis for good.

The Voyage of the Dawn Treader

The White Witch appeared to Edmund as one of the illusions the Green Mist created. She is seen as one of Edmund's fears and tried to convince him again that he will be King someday and that he has to trust her, but Edmund knew she was not really there. The White Witch that appeared to Edmund on the Dawn Treader was merely a figment of his imagination unleashed by the mind-bending Green Mist. But she remained a reminder to him that that which tempted him was always a threat and the Pevensies' vanquished foes still lived on their minds.

Me: Jadis!

Nico: Not this cold-hearted bitch again!

Lincoln: I thought we were done with you for good Jadis!

Jadis: You will all pay for killing me!

Me: Don't try to pin that on us Jadis! You terrorized all of Narnia and tried to rule over it with an iron fist! That's why we came and took your life! It was all your choice!

Jadis: And it was thanks to this that I was brought back.

Eli: A Number Card.

She pulled out a Number Card and it was NUMBER 95: GALAXY-EYES DARK MATTER DRAGON!

We gasped!

Eli: Number 95: Galaxy-Eyes Dark Matter Dragon!

Nicole: That card looks like a dragon made entirely out of Dark Matter, the very matter that is said to make up 95% of the Entire universe.

Lisa Loud: Indeed it is.

Me: We can't fight here. We'll end up hurting someone.

P'Andor: Leave that to me.

P'Andor took us all to his home planet. We were on the planet PRYPIATOS!

---

Prypiatos is the home planet of Prypiatosian-As and Prypiatosian-Bs.

Landscape

The surface of Prypiatos is highly irradiated.

Society

The Prypiatosian-Bs are, or were, scavengers that lived in the irradiated ruins of the once beautiful ancestral Prypiatosian society.

History

Prypiatos was once the marvel of the Andromeda Galaxy, with mega-cities filling entire continents with hundreds of thousands of glittering structures that truly seemed to scrape the sky, but an atomic war put an end to that. In the aftermath, some of the planet's denizens managed to escape underground to avoid the nuclear fallout. They came to be known as the Prypiatosian-As, and eventually established new subterranean cities of their own, lead-lined for their own protection from the hazardously irradiated world that had once been their home. Others, now known as the Prypiatosian-Bs, stayed above ground, scavenging in the ruins of their once great civilization, where they were mutated into the highly radioactive beings from which P'andor, and subsequently NRG, are descended.

We were shocked at what we saw. We were on a world that was completely irradiated and we were in a giant force field bubble that was protecting us.

Me: WHOA! This world is terrifying! This must be the planet Prypiatos.

P'andor: That's right J.D. This is my home planet.

Ben: Man this world looks awful.

Nico: It's totally irradiated.

Julie Yamamoto: What happened here that caused the world to become like this?

P'andor: A massive nuclear war destroyed and irradiated much of the planet. My kind the Prypiatosian-Bs live on the surface while the others the Prypiatosian-As live underground in subterranean cities.

Riley: Whoa. This is awful that all this happened here.

Me: Yeah.

Horsea: You will pay for your crimes Jadis!

She grabbed Horsea.

Jadis: (to Horsea) Pathetic Pokemon. You will pay for defying me!

Horsea: (terrified) Please! Have mercy!

Jadis: (sneers) I have none to give! (about to slap Horsea)

But then, Maria grabs Jadis' hand.

Maria: (pissed off) YOU KEEP YOUR FILTHY HANDS AWAY FROM HORSEA!

Mask: What are you waiting for, babe? Rip her head off!

But Maria was just standing there glaring at Jadis.

Principal Lewis: (to me) Um, why's she just standing there?

Me: Because she just provoked a sleeping bear.

Maria then had eyes glowing blue with incredible power and a massive ring of water form around her and water was swirling around her.

Maria: I will never forgive you for everything you did Jadis! I'm going to make sure you die a really horrible death.

Suddenly a massive vortex of water exploded out and shot high into the sky and it went out of the planet and into space and it formed into a mermaid and it had angel wings. It sang in a divine voice and the cosmic energies of stars and nebulae poured into the mermaid. The mermaid went back down to the planet and Jadis went flying and crashed into a wall of the force field and then Maria emerged forever changed! She had longer brown hair with aqua blue highlights in her hair and she had blue sclera with the ocean in them and she had a mermaid surfing on an ocean wave emblazoned in the middle of her forehead. She had earrings in the shape of the kanji for water. She had a blue shirt with a mermaid on it and she had a blue skirt with water waves on it and different kinds of fish. She had blue combat boots and she had a blue sleeveless trench coat with water and fish all over it and it had the kanji for Maria Elaine Rockell, Champion of Tefnut, Emissary of Neptune and Master of the force of Water and Mermaids. She had angel wings that were made of pure water and she had a scythe in her hands made of water. She was now a SUPER ANGEL 25,000,000 NEPTUNE MERMAID MAELSTROM!

William: WHOA! Maria you look amazing!

Carol: Wow! Maria transformed!

Me: Unbelievable!

Venom: WHOA! Maria looks awesome!

Me: Maria how do you feel?

Maria: (Divine Aquatic Echoing Voice) Incredible J.D. I feel amazing.

Horsea: Wow! You look awesome Maria!

Maria: Thanks Horsea.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them!

Battle 1: Jake Long, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Mage Meadowbrook, Shun, Overbite and Seawing VS Biowulf

---

Biowulf was first.

Biowulf: (to Jake Long) It's about time I get some action! I barely had time to fight before Luan killed me the first time.

Jake Long: That's because you underestimated Team Loud Phoenix Storm's power. You had no idea what you were up against.

Biowulf: I know. And to tell you all the truth, Van Kleiss was a horrible leader and a monster that didn't care about anyone.

Fluttershy: Who is Van Kleiss?

Biowulf: That's right you are a new member of the team. I'll tell you all what he was like.

Biowulf went over Van Kleiss's history.

---

Van Kleiss is the central antagonist of the animated series Generator Rex . He is the main antagonist of the first and second season and a major antagonist during the third. He is able to control his nanites like Rex, except his mutation is unstable and requires a constant supply of fresh nanites, causing his victims to petrify in the process.

He is voiced by Troy Baker.

Backstory

In the past, Van Kleiss was present during the nanite incident. He was power hungry and never cared about others but for himself, wanting to obtain all the power with the help of the nanites and seeks to create a planet populated entirely by E.V.O.s. It's also revealed that he killed Rex's parents after the incident happened after discovering the same thing. This was due to him realizing that the Consortium had also the same objective like him.

Present

With the Pack as his enforcers, he established a domain called Abyssus at the original site of the nanite explosion and has nanites seeded for miles in the area. As a result, he can control everything in his sphere of influence, and even regenerate completely from the ground if his body is destroyed. He has an extensive knowledge about the nanites, apparently having worked on or been familiar with the experiment which released them, and about Rex's past.

He is killed in the episode "Dark Passage" while attempting to secure Dr. Gabriel Rylander's nanite laboratory but was resurrected in "What Lies Beneath" when Rex had to resurrect him with a machine when Abysus was becoming unstable. Rex cured him shortly thereafter.

In doing so, however, Rex gave Van Kleiss the means to study his nanites, which Van Kleiss then stole. With Rex's nanites, Van Kleiss gained the new power to create E.V.O.s simply by touching his victim, which passes them a unique mark. It is said that E.V.O.s created by Van Kleiss has their nanites extremely unstable, meaning that the transformation will eventually be permanent if not cured.

In "End Game" Pt. 2, during the final cure, Van Kleiss is dragged by Breach into one of her wormholes. His fate is still unknown.

---

When he was done they gasped in shock.

Mage Meadowbrook: My goodness! He was a monster!

Tree Hugger: No cool dudes.

Shun: Van Kleiss had no honor. I can't believe he was that dangerous!

Overbite: And he was the one responsible for flooding the world with Nanites that destroyed everyone's humanity!? That's terrible!

Seawing: No kidding! If he ever comes back he will be banished to the Warp forever.

Jake Long: You got that right!

Biowulf: Indeed. Lets do it!

They went at him and Biowulf slashed at them with his claws and they dodged each swipe.

Jake Long: Whoa! Your speed is amazing!

Biowulf: I get that all the time.

Fluttershy: I also have a new friend to show you all and he is amazing.

Fluttershy showed a crystal saber and it had a yellow crystal with a fairy zord in it. It was The Fairy Zord.

Fluttershy: FAIRY WING FLIGHT!

Fluttershy formed beautiful butterfly wings and fired waves of nature fire at Biowulf and they hit him all over.

Jake Long, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Mage Meadowbrook, Shun, Overbite and Seawing: NATURE FAIRY DRAGON STYLE FORMATION ART: DRAGON OF CELTIC FAIRIES BLAST!

They spun in a Heptagon formation and fired a wave of green fire and it formed into a fairy dragon and smashed into BIowulf and knocked him down.

Jake Long: All right! That was awesome!

Fluttershy: YEAH!

Tree Hugger: Far out dudes.

Battle 2: Chris Taylor, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Julie, Skalor and Tentakil VS Skalamander

---

Skalamander was next.

Skalamander: (to Chris Taylor) What was with all the stuff Rolf hit me with the first time?

Chris Taylor: He probably thought you were gonna hurt his livestock. Like how I've read with farms and all that in books.

Skalamander: Hmm. That probably was the case. And I do look intimidating. But I can't help it. Its been that way with me ever since I went E.V.O.

Applejack: Looks like Rolf and I do have something in common. We're protective of our farm animals. Just like me and my family are protective of our orchards.

Apple Bloom: That's right sis. And that is an amazing family trait.

Frozen Fright: It sure is. But I think it's awesome.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Just like how I was protective of my village in days long ago.

Julie: That's really cool.

Skalor: Yeah it is. I think so too.

Tentakil: One of these days we'll have to bring back the entire Mighty Helm and have them join us in the usual battles.

Rockhoof: Not a bad idea lads.

Skalamander: Cool. Lets get it on.

He fired waves of crystal shards and they went at him and dodged the shards.

Chris Taylor: Awesome! Crystal Powers.

Skalamander: Yep. And my crystals are strong enough to withstand a Kamehameha Blast.

Applejack: Wow! That's amazing.

Chris Taylor: Yep.

Chris Taylor, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Julie, Skalor and Tentakil: EARTH LIGHTNING VALKNUT STYLE FORMATION ART: FURIOUS TRINITY OF THUNDER BLAST!

They spun in an octagon formation and fired a wave of lightning and it formed into a valknut of lightning and earth and it slammed into Skalamander and knocked him down.

Chris Taylor: YEAH! That was awesome!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was awesome!

Apple Bloom: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 3: Black Widow, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Alice, Flywheels and Stranglehold VS Shade

---

Shade was next.

Shade: (to Black Widow) Hope you don't mind me keeping the upgrades Facilier made to my cane.

Black Widow: Not at all. It will be more challenging that way.

And the gem was The Frog.

Isabelle: The frog spirit is perfect for you Lana. It chose you because of your ability to move on land and in water. The frog as spirit animal or totem reminds us of the transient nature of our lives. As symbol of transition and transformation, this spirit animal supports us in times of change. Strongly associated with the water element, it connects us with the world of emotions and feminine energies, as well as the process of cleansing, whether it's physical, emotional, or more spiritual or energetic. The symbolism of the frog appears in many traditions around the globe. This animal is generally associated with the water element and its cleansing attributes. The frog is symbolic of:

Cleansing

Renewal, rebirth

Fertility, abundance

Transformation, metamorphosis

Life mysteries and ancient wisdom.

When the frog spirit animal appears to you, it is to teach you to jump across the distance between your hopes and your reality by leaving your unnecessary baggage behind. Calling on the frog symbolism allows you to wash away any feelings of disappointment and hurt, as well as stagnant feelings of resentment and regret. Just like the turtle symbolism, the frog spirit animal jumps on your path to signal that it's time to speak up and be heard. It will most likely appear to you when you need help figuring out right from wrong, or navigating between situations. Your frog totem is urging you to determine what you want to do for the rest of your life. It's time to decide what your goals are for the future, and what steps you need to take to accomplish them. When the frog spirit animal appears to you, it is to teach you to jump across the distance between your hopes and your reality by leaving your unnecessary baggage behind.

Lana: Wow! That's amazing!

Isabelle: It sure is. And it's perfect for you Lana.

Then an aqua green light appeared and a ball of light landed in Lana's hand and she saw that it was the Frog Wild Zord.

Rarity fired a beam of crystal energy and it formed into an anvil of crystal and it smashed onto a bunch of mobsters heads.

---

R. Mika: Try this one! COMEDY FLOWER STYLE: BOUQUET OF MAYHEM!

R. Mika formed bouquets of flowers and they fired acid and melted a bunch of mobsters.

Deadpool: These viewers are not happy! COMEDY STYLE: FOURTH WALL MAYHEM!

A portal from behind the fourth wall appeared and massive numbers of guns fired at the mobsters and blew their fucking heads off.

Demolishor: Time for some teamwork!

Demolishor, Avatar June, Wanda and Wreck Gar all used the Decepticon, Fire Nation, Fairy World and Gigantion Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Demolishor's lasers, June's powers, Wanda's Powers and Wreck Gar's decelerator laser 100-fold.

Demolishor and Avatar June: DEMOLISHING BOUNTY BLASTS!

They both fired laser blasts.

Wanda and Wreck Gar: MAGIC DECELERATOR BLAST!

They fired blasts of magic and energy and the blasts all hit the mobsters and blew them apart!

Mask: You feeling lucky, punks?

Me: (Imitating Dirty Harry) Now you motherfuckers have to ask yourselves one question.

Mask: (Imitating Dirty Harry) Do we feel lucky… Well?

We pulls out many guns.

Me and Mask: DO YA? FUCKING PUNKS!?

Our guns were fully loaded and we fired and blew the mobsters fucking heads off.

We got the Mobsters taken care of and we were back on Earth.

Tina Carlyle: STANLEY!

Evil-Lyn: Oh no!

Evil-Lyn teleported and appeared and saw that there was a bomb by her and there was 20 seconds left.

Evil-Lyn: GET DOWN!

We ducked and Evil-Lyn threw it and the bomb exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared, Dorian's plans were ruined.

Me: Lets wastes these dicks!

Tina: With pleasure!

Luan, Pinkie Pie, The Mask and Tina: COMEDY BLAST SURPRISE!

They fired a blast of energy and it hit a bunch of mobsters and killed them in powerful explosions!

Lincoln, Deadpool and The Mask: COMEDY STYLE FINAL SMASH: PINBALL MAYHEM!

Lincoln and The Mask rolled Deadpool up into a ball and sent him rolling and he crashed into a bunch of mobsters as a pinball and pinball sound effects were heard all over. The scores totalled up and then the TILT came on and all the slot machines exploded and all the money came out! Loki blasted many mobsters with his staff and blew them apart.

Me: That's the last of the mobsters! Now for Dorian.

I saw him get up and he had a switchblade knife ready and he came at me.

I unsheathed my sword.

Just as he got close…

SHHHHHEEEEEEEEEEEEENNNNNNNN!

I stabbed him all the way through his black heart and blood was pouring out of his chest and his back!

Me: GIVE MY REGARDS TO AL CAPONE YOU MOTHERFUCKING SON OF A FUCKING BITCH!

I pulled the sword out and he died in an instant and he was banished to the Warp.

Me: That takes care of that.

Mask: (Imitating Edward G. Robinson) You were good kid. Real good. But as long as I'm around you'll always be second best, see.

Tina: Thank you all for saving me.

Evil-Lyn: No problem, Tina.

Tri-Klops: We also earned a lot of cash.

Merman: (to Loki) And you got your powers back.

Loki: Of course I did. I just hope Father doesn't get too mad about it.

Unknown to us, Odin was watching from afar.

Odin: (smiles) I'm very proud of you, Loki.

I sensed that Odin was watching.

Me: Well lets head home. Loki, I hope you will be better with us and Mr. Grouse.

Loki: I will. I'm pretty much used to being around Mr. Grouse. But if you need me for missions, I'm more than happy to help you out.

Me: Thanks Loki.

We shook hands.

Thor: Glad to have you back on the side of good brother.

Loki: It's good to be back brother.

Me: Lets total up all our winnings and go home. And P'andor it was really cool seeing your home planet. That was the 6th planet we've been to for Ben's Aliens in the Andromeda Galaxy.

P'andor: Glad you all liked it.

The Mask: (To the viewers) You all were really good! OOH SOMEBODY STOP ME!

We did so and we won all the money in the casino. The mafia of Las Vegas was all dead and we also got a huge bounty on them as a bonus. We totaled up a grand total of $284,345,237,893,468,434,773,468,345,238,235,343.00 in winnings.

Later over in Southeastern France by the Mediterranean Sea, me and Nanette were searching for the second base of Black Ghost.

Nanette: France. The city of love. One could easily mistake me for your girlfriend.

Me: I know. But I think that's a great title for you Nanette. After everything you went through and how we helped you.

Nanette: Indeed. I like it.

We looked at the coordinates and found that we were right by it. It was located underwater in the Mediterranean.

Me: Looks like we're gonna have to fire energy blasts from the surface.

Nanette: Yep. Cover your eyes J.D. I'm going Thunderlegs.

I covered my eyes and she took off her clothes and turned into Thunderlegs.

Me and Thunderlegs fired tiny energy balls of lightning and energy and they went into the base and destroyed it in a huge explosion.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Another base of Black Ghost was destroyed. I covered my eyes and Nanette reverted back and I gave her back her clothes. Stanley, Tina and Milo moved to the Estate and we're placed under our protection. But the Mask's enemies are only just beginning.

Another awesome fanfic complete.

The Mask from 1994 with Jim Carrey was HILARIOUS! It was so funny that it made me laugh a lot! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a really interesting chapter as we head into the Post-Apocalyptic world of the famous book Maze Runner and we're going to destroy the evil company WCKD and make them pay for their crimes. I never saw the movies or read the books but I heard they were good. So get ready as we help the heroes of Maze Runner destroy WCKD and give them a better home on Our world.

See you all tomorrow.

The Apocalyptic Maze World

We got 2 more keys to the Chest of Harmony out of the 12 Keys. We got the Key of Empathy when Starlight Glimmer met a homeless orphan pony Starstorm Breeze that was about to do the same things she did and she understood how she felt by telling her that there are other ways to open her heart and one of them is making friends and all that. She has that kind of power and she can make awesome friends to help everyone. She got a necklace from her and it turned into the Key of Empathy. It looked like her cutie mark. Pinkie Pie got the Key of Laughter in the same way she helped Cheese Sandwich in the past and it was awesome. We had 6 of the 12 Keys and we were half way there to opening the chest.

Later we were watching TV and playing card games. Suddenly there was a knock at the door.

Me: DOOR'S OPEN!

In came two people and it was Jock Jockerson's parents.

Riku: Who are you two?

Mr. Jockerson: We're sorry to come in like this but we are Jock Jockerson's mom and dad.

Me: Oh it's a pleasure to meet you Mr. and Mrs. Jockerson.

Mrs. Jockerson: Same here J.D. It's an honor to meet you and we love all your adventures.

Me: I don't like to brag. What can we do for you?

Mr. Jockerson: We… We want to apologize for everything our so-called son did to you.

Me: Your son was a monster.

Mr. Jockerson: Yeah. He was. He was born bad.

Me: I know that feeling. But he got what he deserved for everything he did to everyone and more.

Lori: (laughs bitterly) You two literally got some nerve showing up here after everything that's happened because of your son!

Lynn: For all we know, Kellaway probably sent you two to us to get information on the Mask!

Lola: And even if that isn't true, why should we forgive you two after all the pain your son and his team caused us?!

Harry Potter: (to Jock's parents) (British Accent) We probably should've warned you both that the three of them wouldn't be so forgiving towards you two.

Me: Yeah but everyone stand down!

Eli: There is no energy signals from the Force that are telling us that they were hired by Kellaway to confirm that. Besides they speak the truth.

Me: Yeah. Jock was a monster and he brought everything he has done on himself.

Nico: I forgive you two. You two shouldn't be held responsible for what a monster did!

Undermine: At least you two disowned Jock after the first time we took him down while using his knockoff Iron Boy suit.

Me: That's right and I forgive you too.

Eli: What happened with Jock was not your fault. He was a heartless psychopath.

Nunnally: He sure was. He was a monster from Hell.

Nico: I'm glad he's dead.

Carly Beth: We had a similar situation to today where Chuck and Steve's parents apologized for what their sons did. But at least

Chuck and Steve never did the things Jock did!

Ultra Magnus: If those two heard what happened from where they are right now, I bet even they would be disgusted at what Jock has done.

Me: I'm sure they would too Ultra Magnus. Chuck and Steve may have been bullies but they didn't do all the terrible things that Jock did. They have honor and dignity. Jock was evil incarnate.

Nico: Good analogy. He makes all us boys look bad.

Lincoln: You got that right.

Nico: What Jock did was unforgivable. But we forgive you two.

Mr. Jockerson: Thank you guys. Thank you.

They left and we waved goodbye to them.

Me: That was a good apology.

Applejack: Indeed it was. It was really heartfelt.

* * *

Later I went to get the mail.

Me: Lets see. Bills, magazines, letters, hmm. Nothing of interest.

I went back in and got the Mail to the table.

Me: Mail's here!

Lynn Sr.: Thanks J.D.!

I went to check on Mary.

She was in bed sick with a nasty case of food poisoning and she had water and all that by her bed on her night stand.

Me: How are you feeling sweetie?

Mary K.: My stomach feels like it's being ripped apart.

Me: Well you just have to let this run its course.

She then suddenly got up and threw up in a bucket.

Mary K.: (VOMITS EXPLOSIVELY!)

Me: (Cringes) Oh Mary you will get better.

Mary K.: I hope so. This is nothing I can handle.

Me: That's my girl. Just keep drinking water to help you flush all that crud out.

Mary K.: Okay.

I left.

Nico: How is Mary doing?

Me: Still hurling her insides out.

Nico: I hope she gets better.

Me: Yeah.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the computer.

Retrax: Are we getting a distress signal?

Me: It sure looks like it. Computer show coordinates.

We saw a map of where the Distress Signal was coming from and it showed that it was coming from another Earth located on the other side of the galaxy.

Me: It's coming from all the way over there.

Computer: WARNING! Planetary structure of alternate Earth at this location unstable. Planet due to explode in 12 hours. Immediate Evacuation of citizens is recommended.

Tri-Klops, Skalamander, Biowulf, Evil-Lyn, Shade, Trap Jaw, Beast man and Mer Man then appeared.

Tri-Klops: Me, Skalamander, Biowulf, Evil Lyn, Shade, Trap Jaw, Beast Man, and Mer-Man will go with you guys to this other world!

Me: Okay. Lets get there and fast! Lisa deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix!

Lisa Loud: Affirmative!

We got the ship ready and we were on our way.

---

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was then flying through the depths of space.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2914.2: The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix is en route to an alternate Earth that has been rendered completely unstable and is due to explode in approximately 10 hours. Our mission is to rescue everyone on the planet and get them to our Earth to start a new life.

Nico: This is gonna be interesting. This must be a Post-Apocalyptic Earth. Sometimes we have encounters with a planet Earth that's going to explode.

Me: Yeah.

Lisa Loud: We arrived at our destination.

Me: On screen.

The screen came on and it showed that we arrived at an Earth that looked normal.

Carnivac: Is this the place?

Me: Yes it is.

Nico: It looks normal.

Me: Hmm. Lets head down.

We went down to the planet and we saw that it was a Post-Apocalyptic World and it had some cities that were in ruin.

Me: My God. What the hell happened here?

Lincoln: I don't know. I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Nico: I do too. I wonder what happened here.

We saw a huge maze and in the middle of it was a beautiful glade.

Me: Wow. Lets land here.

We landed and the ship was hovering above the maze.

Me: Wow. This maze is huge.

Nico: No kidding.

We saw a bunch of people.

Me: Excuse me?

They saw us.

Evil Lyn: Are you Thomas?

Thomas (Maze Runner): I am. At least that's what they call me. Who are all of you?

Me: We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We came to help you all out.

Teresa: Wow! I've heard so much about you all.

Nico: It's a pleasure to meet you. Are you Teresa?

Teresa (Maze Runner): I sure am. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here. What happened here?

Teresa (Maze Runner): W.C.K.D. did this. And it was also because of a deadly pandemic of a virus called Flare.

Me: The Flare Virus? (Gasp)

Laney: Oh wow! This is the world of The Maze Runner!

Nico: Oh wow! I love that book! It was awesome!

Me: That is a great book series.

Komba: Thomas, would you mind explaining to us WHAT THE HELL HAPPENED HERE?!

Thomas: I would be more than happy to.

He went over what went down to Earth and what caused this horrible fate to happen to the planet.

THE GREAT SOLAR FLARES OF 2136

The Sun Flares, officially the 2136 Solar Flares, also simply known as the Solar Flares and the Solar Storms, were an abnormal, apocalyptic event that occurred about 15 years before the events of The Maze Runner . Massive solar flares ravaged the planet and turned the area between the two Tropics, Cancer and Capricorn, into the wastelands known as the Scorch. The cataclysmic event devastated Human civilization and brought irrevocable changes to both Earth's climate and environment for centuries to come.

Prelude to the Apocalypse

Little information is known about the event that would come to be known as the Sun Flares. It can be assumed that the Sun Flares was an extremely powerful coronal mass ejection released from the Sun. No information is given on whether or not humanity was aware of the impending disaster and if so, made preparations to safeguard people in the lead up to it. From what is revealed about the event in The Maze Runner series, it seems that no major action was taken to prepare for the disaster. Thus, it is likely humanity was completely caught off guard when the Sun Flares impacted the Earth in October 2136. The population was greatly diminished due to this natural disaster.

Worlds End - The Solar Storm

When the solar flares impacted the Earth, the areas between the Tropic of Cancer and Capricorn, a region located both north and south of the equator, was directly impacted and thus the hardest-hit area. Approximately 4.5 billion people died within the first 15 minutes of the catastrophic event. Whole cities at or near the equator were all destroyed. Billions more would die in the subsequent firestorms, extreme heat, and tsunamis that ravaged the planet in the weeks to come. The Earth's magnetic field was greatly disrupted by the event, allowing for increased radiation to reach the surface.

The event brought about severely drastic changes in the Earth's climate and in turn its biosphere. The increase in radiation levels coupled with climate change leads to the extinction of most agricultural crops as well as countless other species of animals and plant life.

The region directly impacted by the Sun Flares became known as the Scorch, a barren, desert-like wasteland filled with the burnt-out remains of countless cities. Meanwhile, violent weather phenomena such as extreme lightning storms became common. The event caused rapid melting of the polar ice caps, leading to a rise in sea level. As a result, many parts of the world, including most of Europe, were inundated.

Aftermath

Human civilization was brought to the brink of collapse following the Sun Flares. A multitude of countries within the area directly affected by the solar storms, such as Mexico and India, were completely decimated. The many more countries that were not directly impacted suffered immense strain, if not outright collapsing, due to the subsequent natural and environmental disasters wrought by the solar storms. In addition, most forms of communication was disabled by the disaster.

Despite the cataclysmic event, humanity nonetheless persevered. There were a number of survivors in the Scorch, eking out an a meager existence in its barren waste. Meanwhile, the remnants of many former governments joined to form the Post-Flares Coalition (PFC), a supranational organization whose goal was to find solutions to the various problems in the world caused by the Sun Flares. Shortly after its formation, the PFC launched a survey to determine the state of the world following the Sun Flares.

Six months after the Sun Flares, the survey conducted by the PFC was completed. During a special resource conference, it was grimly revealed that there was insufficient amounts of food, drinkable water, and living space to effectively serve the remaining ~1.4 billion surviving people, with there being only enough sustainable resources left for about 70% of the remaining population (~980 million).

In the movie tie-in book The Scorch Trials Official Graphic Novel Prelude (which is canon with the movies but contradicts the original book series in many respects), Dr. Mary Cooper of the PFC Scientific Initiative proposed the institution of a rationing program of resources at the conference to be able to feed everyone. Ava Paige, a former city council member of Blackfoot, Idaho, however, disagreed. She believed this would only lead to civil unrest and ultimately war that would threatened to fracture the PFC. She instead proposed that the remaining 30% (~420 million) had to be eliminated in some manner. She made note that Dr. Cooper, prior to the Sun Flares, was studying a gene that randomly occurs in about 30% of the population, and she believed that she was necessary to finding a way to target this gene. While initially wanting no part in the effective genocide of a third of the remaining human population, Dr. Cooper was informed that the PFC will move forward with the plan without her. Ava Paige, however, convinced her that if she stayed, the PFC would do the population reduction right so that innocent lives were not needlessly killed. Dr. Cooper ultimately relented, revealing a virus would be needed.

Approximately two years later, as detailed in the book The Kill Order, the PFC released a deadly virus via airborne deployment into South Carolina for the purpose of population control. Because the virus was released shortly following the Sun Flares, people began to call it the Flare. Within months the Flare, being airborne, quickly spread and became a global pandemic, with occurrences in most major population centers within a year. The virus was originally thought to painlessly kill the victim in the brain, but it instead change the way that the individual thought and reacted for the worse, gradually turning people into Cranks. Once turned into a Crank, infected individuals were extremely violent and had a murderous rage to kill others, sometimes even clawing themselves when in isolation. WICKED was founded in the hope that a cure could be created, as mentioned in The Maze Runner Files .

W.I.C.K.E.D. or W.C.K.D.

World In Catastrophe: Killzone Experiment Department, generally abbreviated to WICKED ( WCKD in the film adaptation), is a flagitious organization that was originally formed to find a solution to the Flare Pandemic, and are shown as the central antagonistic faction of The Maze Runner book trilogy and film series.

History

After the Sun Flares, the remaining governments of the world combined their resources to set this organization up, for the world was in desperate need of a cure. For the purpose of experimenting, they selected about 100 children between the age of 12 and 17, many of whom were immune to the Flare. They passed them through The Trials, such as the Maze and the Scorch, which involved various variables which were designed to stimulate the killzone, their codeword for the brain and the worst bodily area of infection, so they could record specific patterns. They planned to use these killzone patterns to discover why these children's brains were able to co-exist with the Flare on a cellular level, hopefully allowing them to produce a cure. Thomas, Teresa, Aris, Rachel, Brenda, and Jorge are all WICKED members that went either experienced or worked in the trials as subjects and agents.

Throughout the series, Teresa Agnes and Ava Paige frequently mention that WICKED is good, implying that every action or intention WICKED does is justified. This oxymoron is a prime example of doublethink, and serves as a type of propaganda tool for WICKED. Of course, as seen throughout the series, WICKED is shown as immoral and nefarious, with the organization performing very few deeds that anyone but them would perceive as "good". Towards the end of the series Teresa eventually defects from the moral argument of WICKED but Chancellor Paige continued to cling to its principals until the final battle at WICKED Headquarters (book).

In the film series, Doctor Ava Paige, WCKD's Director of Operations, possesses a large character arc over WCKD's motives. In the beginning, she appears strong and confident in WCKD's efforts (and abuses, depending on your point of view), while she eventually defects from the original ideals of WCKD and up until just hours before the Last City's demise she had completely given up on the prospect of a cure to the Virus.

In The Maze Runner: The Kill Order, Mark reads messages between members of the Post-Flare Coalition, a governmental organization of sun flare survivors. He learns of a secret branch, the Population Control Committee who release the Flare due to limited resources and increased population. It can be assumed that these organizations are precursors to WCKD as Chancellor Paige admits WCKD released the Flare for means of population control.

WICKED's ultimate fate is unknown, although it is safe to assume that WICKED is destroyed by the Right Arm during their attack in Maze Runner: The Death Cure .

We gasped in shock!

Me: Oh man! Massive solar flares destroyed much of the planet!?

Teresa: Yeah.

Nico: Annihilating 95% of the human race. That's horrible.

Me: This world is set in the year 2480 in our time. Wow. That's 459 years into the future. Now this evil Organization named W.C.K.D. or World In Catastrophe: Killzone Experiment Department is out to kill the rest of the humans!? That's crazy!

Nico: It's like Resident Evil and The Hunger Games all over again.

Me: Yeah! And both took place on Post-Apocalyptic environments. And now the Human Race is teetering on the razors edge of extinction.

Thomas: That's right.

Me: I'm afraid it's worse than you think Thomas. This entire planet is going to explode.

The survivors gasped in shock!

Thomas: The whole planet is going to explode!?

Teresa: But how!?

Me: I think the solar flares in 2136 might have had something to do with it. They made the core of the planet unstable.

Beast Man: Are there any animals nearby? If there are, I can take control of them so they can help us out.

Thomas: We're not really sure.

Me: But I have a feeling there are. We have to take down WCKD and get everyone off of this planet before it explodes. But first we have to find all the survivors and cure them all.

Teresa: I can help you all. But I have a confession. I'm really a double agent. I was sent by WCKD to help with their goals. But after finding out what they are gonna do, I want nothing to do with them anymore.

Me: That's good you want to abandon them.

Then an earthquake was felt.

Me: WHOA! This planet is unstable.

Thomas: You're right. We got to get everyone out of here.

Me: Lets get to work.

Jesse Glenn: It seems that the stage has already been set for this performance.

Me: And the planet will explode after we take down W.C.K.D. Lets get to work!

We got to the ship and we were searching for survivors.

Mer Man: Shame there isn't any water for me to swim in.

Maria: I have plenty of water for this.

Maria had water form around Mer Man.

Mer Man: Perfect!

Nico: This is gonna be rough but lets find survivors.

Me: Right!

Snaptrap: Will any minions of the W.C.K.D. try to stop us?

Me: Not if the ship blasts them first. But the man we want to kill is Janson.

Nico: Oh yeah. He was a monster.

I went over his history.

---

Assistant Director Janson, also known as simply Janson or the " Rat Man " in the books, is the main antagonist from The Maze Runner trilogy. He serves as the secondary antagonist of Maze Runner: The Scorch Trials and the main antagonist of Maze Runner: The Death Cure .

He was the highest-ranking official in the organization WICKED under Chancellor Ava Paige's command. He initially appeared to want to help Thomas, before his true allegiances are revealed.

He was portrayed by Aidan Gillen, who also played Petyr Baelish in Game of Thrones, Miles Jackson in 12 Rounds, Nelson Rathbone in Shanghai Knights and Paul Serene in Quantum Break .

Maze Runner: The Death Cure

Rat Man releases Thomas from a four week isolation. He takes Thomas to regroup with his friends. He reveals the WICKED will be giving them their memories back. Before doing so, Rat Man tells the group about how such people like Newt were not immune to the Flare. Most of the people decide to get their memories back except for Thomas, Newt and Minho (It is here here where he reveals his name). Because of this, the trio are locked up and taken to get their memories back the next morning. Brenda attempts to sedate Thomas but instead, she sedates one of the guards, resulting in a breakout, wherein Janson is stunned by a Launcher gun. Later, a cop machine saves Thomas from a bounty hunter. A video feed of Janson appears and he asks Thomas to come back and help complete the cure for the Flare because he is the supposed Final Candidate. Thomas pretends to consider it. Janson tells Thomas (mainly because he thought this will influence his decision) that his friend, Newt was succumbing to the Flare more than average. Thomas considers it this time. Later, Thomas arrives at WICKED Complex after killing Newt. Janson tells Thomas that WICKED thinks that completing the cure involved the vivisection of Thomas. Thomas declines this just in time for the Right Arm to attack WICKED. He finds a letter from the chancellor. The letter tells him where the captured Immunes are and where the hidden MAINTENANCE Room is. In there, he will find a Flat Trans which shall transport him, his friends and the Immunes to a safe paradise. Janson assists one guard in subduing Thomas. Thomas however, kills the guard and while running away, he realizes that Janson has caught the Flare. Thomas, with the help of his friends finds the captured Immunes in the Group A Maze. They make it to the MAINTENANCE Room, but Janson and a bunch of guards find them. A fight ensues wherein Thomas tangles with Janson and strangles him to death, before arriving at the Safe Haven.

Films Maze Runner: The Scorch Trials

After the events of the first movie, Thomas and The Gladers meet Janson who explain that while they are with WCKD, they are safe from WCKD, The Flare and The Cranks. Janson promises them a cure and a safe haven where they can live in peace. The Gladers believe him, but Thomas is the only one who is suspicious of Janson's plans. Later on, during lunch break, Janson reads out names of Gladers including Teresa's, causing Thomas to become even suspicious. Janson even took Thomas into a cell and asks what side he is on. Thomas and a boy named Aris Jones crawl through the air vents and find fellow Gladers in comas. They also overhear Janson talking to the supposedly-dead WCKD Chancellor, Ava Paige who had shot herself in the first movie. Janson is also tracking down an organization in the mountains called the Right Arm Resistance. Thomas tells the other Group A Gladers about this and they stage a breakout from WCKD headquarters. Janson eventually hears of this and catches up to the Gladers who are trying to unlock the door. Janson tries to reason with Thomas and states what might kill them if they try to escape.

Janson tries to reason with Thomas to prevent him from escaping.

Aris and Winston open the main vault door from the outside and while the other Gladers escape, Thomas attacks Janson and the troopers with a stun-gun which he had obtaining earlier during the breakout. The stun-gun runs out and Thomas rushes towards the main vault door. WCKD security officers close the door, but Thomas just slides underneath. He points the middle-finger at Janson, enraging him even more. He sends out troops to find them in The Scorch. Later, WCKD attacks the survivors, forcing them to flee. Later, The Glader's find the Right Arm Resistance. There, Teresa believes that WCKD's deeds are good deeds (most possibly because of WCKD's quote, "WCKD is good") and as a result she alerts WCKD of their location. WCKD storms the facility and Janson shoots the doctor, Mary dead, they capture a bunch Gladers, including Minho.

Maze Runner: The Death Cure

Initially, after the attack of the right arm to the transport trains of WCKD, Janson appears to review the lost and the damages during the attack in that it is seen that Minho follows between which they possess later to it when Thomas and his group arrive at the The Last City.

Janson is called to analyze the situation and orders to activate the defenses of which are treated high-range guns, attacking the people who protested to enter and killing many of these, once Teresa tries to prove a cure, Janson comes with Ava Paige saying that if it applies to everyone, then they have a meeting with Ava Paige about what is necessary to find the cure.

Saying that he will do everything possible to find it, once Thomas manages to infiltrate The Last City in a moment this is discovered by Janson when they went with Teresa in an elevator, calling assault teams to capture them initiating a shooting and a persecution by the laboratories, finally do are almost caught these jump from building a swimming pool, Janson decides to go look but manages to find them, after Teresa told Thomas that is the cure, Ava decides to go with Paige to find out if that is true.

When he was about to convince Ava Paige, she gets killed by Janson with a shot in the back, and knocking out Thomas with a tranquilizer, once waking up in the laboratory to get his blood and create a cure. He then reveals to Thomas that he intends to exploit the cure and decide who and who won't receive treatment. Pulling up his sleeve, he reveals that he is infected from a long time ago and for that he needed the cure, but at the moment he is knocked out by Teresa hitting him with a glass, then he gets up and knocks Teresa off with the tables, and Thomas starts a brutal fist fight against Janson. After taking many heavy blows, Janson attempts to shoot before a missile of the people who attacked the last city hits where they were, making them fall.

Thomas takes the opportunity to escape with Teresa but a bullet hits him in the chest being seriously injured, Teresa takes him to a laboratory where they experimented with Cranks to cure him but Janson arrives and finds them, starting a conversation and looking for them while they are hiding. Upon finding Teresa, she offers to give him the tube containing Thomas' blood, but Janson refuses, demanding Thomas himself.

Thomas tells him not to do it but he says he did not have the courage to do it but he will do it, at that moment Thomas takes a tool and throws it towards the glass where were the Cranks. Janson is equivalent to saying "you miss", to which Thomas responds "No, I did not" as the window starts to break. Janson could only look in horror as the Cranks eventually break the window before jumping onto him, killing Janson as they savagely maul him to death whilst Thomas and Teresa manage to escape; though the latter would later be killed once the former is saved.

Powers and Abilities

High-Level Intelligence : As the second commander of WICKED, Janson had the position of all security protocols WCKD weapons/ gears, soldiers, testing immune children subjects in the Maze and taking them to headquarters for preparation in harvesting their blood for serum.

Expert Marksmanship : During the two films Janson was an expert in using armed weaponry for reckless situations in the Scorch Trials, he was shown to be skilled at shooting his pistol at a target which was Mary Cooper in cold blood without hesitation then attempted to shoot Thomas but was distorted by Brenda. In Death Cure, he aims and fires three rounds shots at Thomas and Newt but missed due to bulletproof glass covering them, then when spotting them on the 20th floor he then again shoots bullets at them but ended up missing because of their quickness, when Thomas returned to the building he shoots Ava Paige in the back of the spine killing her. Then after recovering from an RPG blast, he sees Thomas and Teresa heading to exit and points his gun directly at her to only had fired a hit on Thomas through the right side of his lower back.

Hand-to-hand combat Prowess : In the Maze Runner trilogy, Janson exhibited a few skills and coordinations in brawling with his fist during close quarter combat. In Maze Runner: Scorch Trials, he punched Thomas in the stomach and smacked him across the face, then Death Cure, he gets in battle against Thomas by punching his face twice, putting him in a chokehold, then punches him again. After he took a few attacks from Thomas, he reacted quickly to counter his punch by grabbing his arm, smacks him across the face, kicked his stomach, and tosses him to the floor.

Maximum Human Conditioning : Janson seemed to be a fit grown adult to possess maximum limits of his physical and mental peak attributes. He showed to be strong enough at tossing a person half his size across the floor few inches from his position, fast enough to have reflexes to dodge quick projectiles being aimed at him, and even endurable from being shot in the shoulder and hits from a peak human teenager.

Pain Suppression/Feral Mind : In The Death Cure, Janson was revealed to have been infected by the Flare virus which slowly began changing his psychological health and it also seemed to have granted him a form of suppression towards pain, as shown when Teresa bash a test tube in the back on his head which briefly knocked him out to have reemerge bleeding, then he managed to withstand many blows of brute strength from Thomas and an RPG without giving away any complaint, but after Thomas freed two Cranks from the chamber they attacked him where he gave out his worst.

Equipment

Glock 34/Walter PPQ : In Scorch trials, he wielded the Glock 34 and later in Death Cure was shown carry a PPQ against enemy personnel.

Everyone gasped!

Lola: He's a monster!

Lincoln: Yeah!

Me: Because of him this entire planet is doomed and we have to kill him.

Skalamander: Wait. Lets leave him here to die as the planet explodes.

Me: Ooh I like how you think Skalamander.

Biowulf went down and found a bunch of survivors and they were being attacked by a bunch of monsters. He slashed them all and killed the monsters.

Biowulf: (to a group of survivors) I know this line has been used a lot but… come with us if you want to live.

They agreed and they got on board the ship.

We got lots of survivors on board the ship.

Nico: We have a great number of survivors on board.

Laney: How much time till the planet explodes?

Me: We got 4 hours. Lets hurry.

Spectra: I'm saving Helios for the usual battles after this mission. So, to save the survivors, I'll just have to use my Bakugan Trap. Go, Metalfencer!

He summoned Metalfencer and he rescued the survivors with the Bakugan Traps.

Me: Oh that is so awesome!

Nico: Wow!

Eli: Bakugan Traps are cool.

Me: They sure are. There's bound to be more survivors at WCKD Headquarters. Lets go!

We went to the city and we found the headquarters of WCKD.

We went up to the building.

W.C.K.D. guard: Halt! Hands where we can see them!

Shade: (puts his hands up) Okay then.

But then, Shade smirks and took out his cane and shadows came out of it at the guards.

And he smashed their skulls in. I blasted a bunch of guards and killed them.

I then pinned a guard down.

Me: Where is Janson!?

Guard: I'll never tell you!

I grabbed him and Nico held a buzzsaw.

Me: Talk or you will lose your fucking head!

Guard: OKAY OKAY! I'LL TELL YOU! I'LL TELL YOU! He's upstairs in his office!

An earthquake hit again and it was stronger.

Me: We're running out of time. Lets hurry!

Lena Isis: What about the rest of the survivors?

Me: Nico, lead some of the team and get the survivors onto the ship.

Nico: Right!

Me: Lets go!

We went up the stairs and flew and ran and we went up to the door of his office.

Me: This is it.

Trap Jaw: (busts door open) Knock knock! Anyone home?!

A man turned around in a chair and it was ASSISTANT DIRECTOR JANSON!

Me: Janson so we meet at last.

Janson: Welcome Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I've been expecting you. Guards leave us.

They left.

Me: Do you have any idea what kind of peril you put the entire planet in?

Janson: I'm saving humanity! I'm doing everything I can to save it!

Me: BULLSHIT! Because of you this entire planet is doomed! It's going to explode any minute!

Janson: Then so be it! I will kill you all.

Lemon Zest: Even if you do manage to kill us, you still won't win. When this planet explodes, you'll go with it!

Me: That's right! We can breathe in space and you can't. If the planet goes then you will die anyway. And we will be victorious.

Nico: You're starting to sound like Frieza.

Me: Sorry. But we're not gonna waste any time pulverizing you when we kill you. In the name of Team Loud Phoenix Storm…

We went at him and pulverized the living shit out of him and made sure he paid for his crimes that left the planet teetering on the razors edge of extinction. We also blasted him and smashed him all over to kingdom come!

Ultra Magnus, Harry Potter, Undermine and Riku used the Autobot, Hogwarts, Animatron and Kingdom Hearts Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Ultra Magnus's Blue Missiles, Harry Potter's Magic, Undermine had a blade pop out of his sail on his back and Riku had his dark firaga powers enhanced 100-fold.

Ultra Magnus and Harry Potter: BLUE MAGIC MEGABLAST!

Ultra Magnus fired blue missiles and Harry Potter fired blasts of magic.

Undermine and Riku: BLAZING TYRANNO BLAST BLADE!

Undermine fired blade blasts and Riku fired blasts of dark fire.

Me: You will pay for your crimes! PLANET JUSTICE BLAST!

I fired a blast of energy in the shape of Earth.

Thomas: This is for making my life a nightmare! APOCALYPTIC MEGABLAST BURST!

Thomas fired a massive blast of energy.

Skalamander: CRYSTAL E.V.O. MEGABLAST!

He fired a massive blast of energy and crystals.

The blasts all hit Janson and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: J.D. we got all the survivors!

Me: Great!

Skalamander fired a crystal shard that hit Janson's throat, causing him to fall to the ground in pain.

May: Should we Hakai him now?

Skalamander: No. Let's let him suffer. Besides, we have to get off the planet now!

Me: Right! We only have 2 minutes! Come on!

We left and left Jansen for dead.

Torrents of lava exploded high into the sky and the skies darkened with storm clouds and lightning struck everywhere and mountains crumbled all over. The Water was being sucked all up.

We got into the ship.

Me: Get us out of here. Activate Hyperdrive.

Nico: Right!

We activated the Hyperdrive and left.

Then just as we got out of there at Faster Than Light speed, the entire planet exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The entire planet was completely obliterated in an incredibly massive and fiery explosion.

Me: WHOA! That was a close one!

Nico: Yeah! But that's the end of that Earth.

Thomas: It was never our home after everything that happened.

Teresa Agnes: Yeah.

Me: But at least you're all safe.

Thomas: Yep.

We went back home.

We landed on our Earth and we went back to the estate and grabbed some lunch.

Me: Wow! That was epic.

Griffin, Pinky & the Brain, Grizzly, Kite Man, Black Adam, Magneto and Cavalier then appeared.

Me: Griffin, Pinky & the Brain, Grizzly, Kite Man, Black Adam, Magneto and Cavalier.

Griffin: Wow you guys saved all those people.

Lincoln: We sure did. But most of the population of the planet was gone before we arrived.

William: Did you guys see the explosion from here?

Griffin: Of course we did.

Brain: We're just glad you guys are okay.

Grizzly: Also, we have a new recruit for you guys.

A figure came out and it was Steven Hudak A.K.A. SCORCHER!

---

Steven Hudak was a research chemist who was wrongfully accused of embezzlement by his employer. Swearing revenge, he created an armored suit containing flame-throwing equipment and taking the name "The Scorcher" he attacked his former place of employment. He ran afoul of Spider-Man on one of his first outings, and being defeated by the hero, he was sent to prison. Later, it was revealed that The Scorcher was not working alone but was an agent of Norman Osborn (who would later become the Green Goblin). Hudak eventually escaped prison to pursue an arson career but was defeated by Spider-Man a second time.

He once attacked Christmas shoppers, only to be stopped by Ben Reilly who was acting as Spider-Man at the time (Ben noting that encountering the Scorcher after so long left him feeling particularly old). Later, the second Crimson Cowl recruited Scorcher to join her incarnation of the Masters of Evil.

When Matt Murdock's identity as Daredevil was revealed, he and Diamondback II moved to confront Murdock, but were driven off by Daredevil and Spider-Man. The Scorcher encountered Daredevil again in the Secret War series when he was forced by Lucia von Bardas to band together with other supervillains and attack S.H.I.E.L.D. headquarters which was defended by a dozen of New York's superheroes including Daredevil. Daredevil was instrumental in the criminal's personal defeat. Soon afterwards, Hudak promised his ex-wife he would give up his criminal life soon.

The Savage Land Mutates tried hiring the Scorcher to break Sauron out of jail, but he refused. They weren't aware that Scorcher, trying to stay on the straight and narrow path after the Secret War, notified Wolverine about this contact (Due to the Avengers having recently disbanded). However, after some time Scorcher returned to the criminal life, but he was defeated by the She-Hulk.

During the Secret Invasion storyline, Scorcher appears as member of Hood's crime syndicate and attacked a Skrull force.

During the Dark Reign storyline, Scorcher, Living Laser, Griffin, and Razor Fist are sent by the Hood to retrieve Tigra and Gauntlet after they flee from Norman Osborn. They attack the heroes, who are ultimately saved by Counter Force. Scorcher was with the Hood during his gang war with Mister Negative.

Scorcher is seen to be among the new recruits for Camp H.A.M.M.E.R.. He was sent to take back the Negative Zone based prison and apprehend rogue team the Heavy Hitters. Later, he and several of his villainous teammates are deemed failures by Norman Osborn and the group's Drill Instructor Taskmaster.

During the Spider-Island storyline, Scorcher (alongside Chance and White Rabbit) is seen guarding an abandoned lab at Empire State University when Peter Parker and Carlie Cooper arrive. He ends up knocked down by Peter Parker using the moves he learned from Shang-Chi.

Boomerang and Owl hire Scorcher onto the Sinister Sixteen, assembled to distract the Chameleon's forces while Boomerang steals from him.

During the Avengers: Standoff! storyline, Scorcher was an inmate of Pleasant Hill, a gated community established by S.H.I.E.L.D. He had transformed him into firefighter with the help of Kobik.

During the Secret Empire storyline, Scorcher appears as a member of Baron Helmut Zemo's Army of Evil. He participated in the Army of Evil's attack on Manhattan to draw out as many superheroes as part of Hydra's plan to take out the opposition and take over the United States.

Powers and abilities

The Scorcher's powers derive from his flame-throwing equipment, which provides him the ability to produce large quantities of fire under his control. His costume provides him with protection against heat and flame as well as conventional forms of injury. Later, he added a jet pack to his armor, giving him the ability to fly and to hover in place.

---

Me: Steven Hudak A.K.A. Scorcher!

Scorcher: It's an honor to meet you all.

Spiderman: Didn't expect you to join the Masters of Evil, Steven. And you were part of the original Masters of Evil in the past.

Scorcher: That's true Web Head.

Me: Your fire suit is really amazing and very well built.

Scorcher: I know. I'm really hot to handle!

Me: You are a living thermonuclear flame.

Jason Lee Scott: But it will be a great honor having you as my archenemy.

Scorcher: Same here Jason.

?: This will be really cool.

2 Figures came out and it was the 4th member of the 10 Terrors MEGAHORN from episodes 27 of Mystic Force and KNIGHT BOT from episode 21 of RPM!

Megahorn

Megahorn first appeared in the episode "The Light" when Necrolai discovered the cave of Ten Terrors. Necrolai told them that Octomus was defeated again and Terrors now had to help Master conquer the world and destroy the Power Rangers. Megahorn was delighted of their mission. Terrors arrived in the human world and told people of Briarwood to give them Light, who is actually Nick Russell, the Red Ranger and leader of Mystic Rangers. They easily defeated Rangers's Manticore Megazord and left.

Megahorn, along with Serpentina, felt annoyed that the Terrors should follow the Rules of Darkness according to the Stone of Judgment. Believing that the Terrors should destroy their enemies at all costs, he is often frustrated by the Stone not picking him yet.

He broke the Rules of Darkness once already in the episode "The Hunter". Secretly going up to the surface without being chosen, he fought against Daggeron, who had been busy training with Jenji. Megahorn wanted to destroy Daggeron to impress the Master and become the main Terror. He nearly succeeded in destroying Daggeron but Itassis intervened and forced him to leave. Still, Megahorn vowed that he will face the Solaris Knight again.

At the end of the episode "Hard Heads", Serpentina claimed that Megahorn would avenge her defeat.

In the episode "The Snow Prince", Megahorn was at last selected by the Stone of Judgment to attack the Surface World. He happily went, even showing the arrogance to rub it in Gekkor's face, to which the Wavern-like Terror replied "Whatever". The Rangers had little success against him when they fought him at first but Nick managed to reveal a weak spot on the back of his neck when he repeatedly attacked him. Megahorn, however, was able to revert the Rangers from Titan form and Ranger form altogether and prepared to finish them off when the Snow Prince appeared and battled him. Surprisingly, even outside of his dimension the Snow Prince managed hold his own with Megahorn, though the dragon eventually overpowered him. The Snow Prince then transported Megahorn into his dimension and he, along with the Rangers, battled him amongst the snowy plains. Daggeron, however, was excluded because the Snow Prince did not feel he had learned what he needed to know. Megahorn, however, still could not be defeated, easily and defeated the Rangers once again, along with the Snow Prince, and broke free from the Snow Prince's dimension. This was when Daggeron arrived and battled Megahorn himself, repeatedly attacking Megahorn in both his Ranger form (Solaris Knight) and his Ancient Mystic Mode in the same fashion as Nick did. He managed to rediscover Megahorn's weak point, on the back of his neck, and targeted that area and temporarily defeated Megahorn. This did not stop the dragon-like Terror, however, and he grew to giant size to battle the Rangers once more. It was at this time Sculpin sent Black Lance to assist him since he believed two Terrors would be far more successful than one (and it was secretly to draw Leanbow out) much to Megahorn's dismay, thinking he could handle the Rangers on his own. Megahorn was first angry at Black Lance, telling the fellow Terror that he could handle it himself, but Black Lance told Megahorn that he was sent by Sculpin and they would fight the rangers together. Megahorn agreed and was now glad, saying that the two Terrors are better than one. Megahorn fought and attacked Solar Streak Megazord, while Black Lance battled Manticore Megazord. Black Lance was sent back to the Underworld by Leanbow and Daggeron continued fighting Megahorn in the Solar Streak Megazord. Then by holding Megahorn in place, the Manticore Megazord had the perfect opportunity to strike the back of Megahorn's neck with the Legend Striker Spin Attack, weakening him enough for Daggeron to finally finish him off by using the Furnace Blast to suck Megahorn in the Megazord's engine and destroy him, making him the fourth Terror to be destroyed, and the third Terror to be destroyed by the Power Rangers. Although Megahorn never got along very well with the other Terrors, they weren't shocked that the Mystic Rangers were able to defeat him, because the terrors said that he deserved the defeat.

Knight Bot

The Knight Bot is a knight-themed Attack Bot sent by the Venjix Virus.

General Shifter sent this robot and he took down ValveMax Megazord and Mach Megazord. Flynn wanted to power up the Megazords and used a modified Engine Cell that Doctor K did not approve of. It didn't help the Megazords, but Doctor K managed to fix them and they destroyed Knight Bot.

---

Nick Russell: Megahorn!

Scott Truman: And Knight Bot!

Me: I remember you both! Megahorn you hate the other Ten Terrors because of how you like to argue and all that and you reverted the Rangers back until the Snow Prince came and Knight Bot you were sent to attack Corrinth.

Megahorn: That's right. Good memory on you. You really are a formidable foe to the Ten Terrors.

Me: Your footsoldiers give us one helluva challenge.

Knight Bot: (Medieval Accent) Tis is a plasure to meet you all once again, Rangers.

Ziggy: Oh, cool! Vypra gave you a medieval accent!

Knight Bot: Indeed she did young peasant.

Me: It speaks really well for you.

Stygian: (British Medieval Accent) It sure does.

Xander: How come it took you guys a year to make your move?

Megahorn: Because after Octomus failed the first time, we had to wait until you all managed to dispose of him permanently.

Me: Well you are looking at his killer: Me.

Megahorn: And we owe you a very big debt of gratitude for that. Octomus was a nightmare.

Me: No kidding. Lets do it!

We went at them.

Griffin: (to Jimmy Neutron) Between you and Dexter, which of you is the smartest Boy Genius?

Twilight Sparkle: I've been pretty smart myself in all my studies and I think so too.

Luster Dawn: Same here. It's awesome.

Moondancer: I have been pretty smart myself too. But I'm not complaining.

Kite Man: (to Wonder Woman) The version of me from the Harley Quinn cartoon might have a thing for Poison Ivy. But I honestly don't.

Wonder Woman: I don't blame you. Pamela's kiss is venomous.

Rainbow Dash: But that's what makes her an awesome member for us.

Lightning Dust: It sure does. But if her old boss Jason Woodrue comes back he is gonna be in for a really rough time with us.

Spitfire: You said it. I've read so much about Woodroe and the pain he caused and all that. He deserves nothing more than to be banished to the Warp forever.

Scootaloo: You got that right Captain Spitfire!

Magma Gloom: You said it. He was a monster.

Vapor Trail: I've hated him for everything he did.

Scorcher: Wow! So it was Japan that created the Power Rangers.

Pinkie Pie: It sure was. They came out in 1975 and it is one of the most popular franchises EVER!

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) I think it's really something that a great show like that can be on for that long in 2 different countries.

Marble Pie: I do too. It's really amazing.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) It's amazing.

Scorcher: It sure is. Who was the toughest monster you all took down?

Jason Lee Scott: That's a really good question. I know so many of them. But I would say that the toughest monster of them all was TurbanShell.

Black Adam: Indeed. Quite frankly I never liked the Joker.

Moonlight Raven: I don't think anyone in either the Legion Of Doom or any part of the world did for that matter.

Tempest Shadow: Yeah I heard he killed over 2,000 people.

Black Adam: 2,000!? Whoa! Now I'm REALLY glad I don't like him.

Sweetie Belle: No kidding! Even the Mane-iac looked so much like him.

Thunder Terror: The Mane-iac from The Power Ponies!? WHOA! She's one of my favorite supervillains in the comics. She got her powers as a result of an accident in her Shampoo Factory. And it warped her mind and made her insane!

Batman: I saw that and it's exactly like what happened to The Joker.

Brittney: It's very coincidental. The Joker and Mane-iac both became the way they are because of chemical accidents.

Black Adam: That is coincidental.

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) Indeed it is.

Sapphire Shores: But I hope we'll be ready for her when the time comes.

Mistmane: We will and we must.

Sable Spirit: That's right!

Strawberry Sunrise: As long as I get to but some heads for hurting all of Equestria.

Blue Raspberry: Me too!

Black Adam: Yeah! Who is this with you?

Rarity: Oh this is my friend Blue Raspberry. She is a pegasus that likes blue raspberries and has really good taste.

Blue Raspberry: Pleasure to meet you.

Black Adam: Same here.

Alice: I think this is gonna be fun.

Alpha Hydranoid: I think so too!

Spectra Phantom: Me too.

Helios: Always up for a challenge.

Spectra: Awesome! Lets get it on! HELIOS MK2! ARISE FROM THE FLAMES!

In a massive fire vortex came out and out of it came HELIOS MK2!

Spectra: And you guys will love this!

He activated his watch and out came an Equip Bakugan!

Spectra: ZUKANATOR!

He equipped Zukanator to Helios and it formed a massive and huge energy cannon!

Me: WHOA! I never saw this before!

Nico: WHOA IS RIGHT! That cannon is humongous!

Spectra: Watch what it can do. BATTLE GEAR ABILITY ACTIVATE! ZUKANATOR!

It fired a huge blast of energy and it hit Black Adam and sent him crashing into the wall and it exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We were floored and we had never seen a cannon of such awesome power!

Me: WHOA! WHAT POWER!

Nico: WOW! That is cool!

Me: YEAH!

Magneto: I am Fluttershy, thank you.

Fluttershy: You're welcome.

Tree Hugger: What those monsters did to you was unforgivable.

Mage Meadowbrook: No kidding.

Discord: As the embodiment of chaos, normally I would love all wars great and small but after seeing the kind of pain they cause, I'm starting to rethink about all that.

Chan Lee: I know. War only brings death and destruction. It shook the world for eons.

Lena Isis: I can tell. It sure is awful.

Zenet: It sure is.

Contestir: Indeed.

Hawkgirl: Lets do it!

They went at him.

Hawkgirl, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Mage Meadowbrook, Discord, Chan Lee, Fourtress, Lena Isis, Phosphos, Zenet Surrow and Contestir: LIGHT FLAME STYLE FORMATION ART: FLAMES OF NATURES BIRDS!

Princess Cadance: His parents gave birth to a monster.

Princess Amore: All that and more.

Flurry Heart: I would never invite someone like that to my birthday.

Lilly Crystal: Me neither.

Cloud Star: Same here. He's a monster.

Indigo Zap: You got that right.

Sugarcoat: After everything he did, I would send him to death 1,000,000 times over.

Lemon Zest: Indeed.

Sunny Flare: Yeah.

Sour Sweet: Jock got what he deserved.

Frosty Orange: Definitely.

Cavalier: Indeed. Shall we get started?

He pulled out a white glove and slapped Luke's face with it.

Cloud Star: Why did he do that?

Flurry Heart: It's a custom that has been around for years. Whenever someone slaps your face with a white glove, It's their way of saying I challenge you to a Duel.

---

Me: AWESOME!

Kite Man: We really hope you enjoy this new Earth, Thomas.

Thomas: I have a feeling that I will.

Magneto: We're glad to hear it.

Sheila: Now, if you excuse us, me, Eric, and J.D. have something to take care of.

Cavalier: Would you like us to accompany you three on whatever you need to do?

Sheila: No. We'll be fine.

Black Adam: Well, call us if you need our help.

Me: Will do.

We were off to Germany.

Thomas: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure. I hope you liked it as much as I did.

Nico: Yep.

---

Over in Germany in the Bavarian Mountains, we were looking for another Black Ghost Base and it was located in the forest underground.

Sheila: You think maybe we should tell the others about our… side missions?

Me: When the time comes we will. But right now we don't want to arouse suspicion.

Eric Loud: J.D. is right. We have to be ready for anything Black Ghost has to throw at us. After we destroy the base I have something to ask you Sheila.

Me: Agreed.

I walked and then I hit something made of metal with my foot.

Me: Huh?

I blew the dirt off and we stumbled upon a metal door.

Me: I think this is it.

I scanned it and it showed that it was indeed part of the black ghost and it went deep underground.

Me: Lets do it.

Sheila: I'm going Shredlegs.

I covered my eyes and Shelia took off her clothes and turned into Shredlegs.

We opened the door and fired energy blasts and they went down into the base and we ran fast and a huge explosion went off underground and destroyed the base completely!

Me: YEAH!

Sheila reverted back and I grave her back her clothes and she put them back on.

Sheila: That's it for that base.

Eric: Yep. Now Sheila, I have something to ask you.

He faced her.

Eric: Sheila, you are the love of my life and I love you more than anything and I want to always be there for you. You showed me awesome fun and everything and I did the same for you after I got back from my tours of duty and joined Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

He got down on one knee and showed a beautiful sapphire wedding ring and Sheila gasped in shock and tried tears of joy.

Eric: Sheila, will you marry me?

Sheila: Oh Eric of course I will!

She hugged him and he put the ring on her finger and I cheered for them and they kissed.

Me: Way to go guys! Congratulations to you both!

Eric: Thank you J.D. It was awesome.

Me: We're gonna be really looking forward to the wedding.

Another awesome fanfic complete.

Maze Runner was a very strange and very amazing movie and book series. I never read or saw it but it looks awesome. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the biggest hunt of the Imakundi. We're gonna be the prey of the most deadliest hunters in the Galaxy like we were in The Brave 12 Samurai Jack Saga and it is gonna be awesome!

See you all tomorrow.

Hunt of the Lion Men

Trixie was heading down the street and she saw a woman with severe anger management issues and she didn't know the meaning of the word Humility. She scolded her and showed her that there is more than life than just being angry and more and for that she got the Key of Humility. It looked like her cutie mark.

Next we were helping Fluttershy with The Breezies. They were so adorable and they looked like pony versions of fairies and they had butterfly wings that were amazing.

Fluttershy : Oh, my. Maybe it's because there are too few of them. When they started their journey, there was more of them to face the breeze together.

Me: That could be the case. There was a lot of them when we first saw them.

Nico: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle : I've been studying an old spell book from the Castle of the Two Sisters. There's a spell that I think could help us! This is probably gonna feel a little funny at first, but you're gonna have to trust me.

Pinkie Pie : I love new ideas that make me feel funny at first!

Me: I have a feeling that this is gonna be interesting.

Twilight did a really cool spell that enveloped her pony friends in a ball of energy and she had them float and fired 8 beams of energy at them and she had the Breezies hit by it and then turned her friends into Breezies. It was so cool!

Fluttershy : [gasps]

Rarity : [gasps]

Pinkie Pie : [giggles]

Main cast : [excited noises]

Me: Oh wow!

Lincoln: You girls look so cute as Breezies!

I held my hands out and Twilight Sparkle landed in my hands.

Me: Twilight you all look so cute as Breezies.

Nico: You sure do.

Fluttershy : Maifo flai batendud! [high-pitched] Um, I mean, let's go!

Me: Here we go.

[wind blowing]

The pegasi were blowing a light breeze and I was flying underneath the Breezies and the girls. I was helping them keep afloat by flapping my wings lightly

Breezette : Marskin farskin.

Breezie : Metar.

Me: Hang on you'll be all right. We're almost there.

Seabreeze : (Swedish Accent) You can do this! I am sorry for how I treated you before! It was not right that I called you names! I did not even really believe those things I said! I was worried we would never get back to our home, and I lashed out… (Fluttershy Smiles) I know you can do this! I believe in you! Hold on to me, let us join the group!

Me: We're almost there. Just hang on.

[wind blowing]

We got to a cliff and I shrunk down and we saw an incredible sight.

Main cast : [gasps]

We saw the Breezie village and it was beautiful! It looked like a fairy version of The Smurfs village.

Rainbow Dash : [high-pitched] Holy mini-sized paradise!

Me: Wow. This reminds me of the Smurfs villages

Rarity : [high-pitched] This is simply beautiful! So much inspiration. Where's my sketchpad when I need it?

Pinkie Pie : [high-pitched] So… stinkin'… cute!

Me: They are so beautiful and cute.

Breezies : [commotion]

All the Breezies were reunited with their families and all that.

Fluttershy had tears in her eyes.

Applejack : [high-pitched] You okay, Fluttershy?

Fluttershy : [high-pitched] I'm just so very happy they got to be reunited with their family!

Me: We all are.

Breezies : [commotion]

They were all happy.

Rarity : [high-pitched] We'd better get going before the entrance- well, exit for us, closes.

Me: Good idea.

Fluttershy : [high-pitched] Goodbye, Breezies. I must go now.

Me: Seabreeze you are more than welcome to join the Knights of The Friendship Table if you want. It's up to you.

Seabreeze: Thank you J.D. I would be honored.

Fluttershy was given a blue flower and he came with us. We had the Breezie Village moved to our greenhouse.

And then the Key of Kindness appeared and it was awesome!

Me: How did it feel for you girls to be Breezies?

Fluttershy: It was amazing.

Twilight: I think it's awesome.

Me: Okay.

I went back to my normal size.

Me: Here we go.

I reverted them back to normal.

Me: That was amazing.

Seabreeze: Ja it was.

Me: Being of Swedish decent, I think it's really cool you do all that in the forests and your village.

Seabreeze: Thank you J.D.

Me: You're welcome.

---

Later we were heading out to Cozy Glow's house. After we brought her mom back and defeated Kronos, Cozy Glow had a lot of catching up to do with her mom and we got them an awesome house in the Estate Village as we call it. It was a beautiful place where anyone can live and afford awesome houses and more.

Poison Ivy: Are you happy your Mom's back, Cozy Glow?

Cozy Glow: I am more than just happy! I have my life all healed and my mind has been fixed.

Me: Well after everything Sunset Shimmer told me about what happened, we were first intending just to throw you in prison because killing kids is against our code. But after hearing about your tragic past, I wanted to bring back your mom to heal your mind and soul.

Cozy Glow: Thank you so much J.D.

Pinkie Pie: And J.D. Pinkie Promised he would do it.

Me: And I fulfilled that promise.

Pinkie Pie: You sure did J.D. and you were great at it.

Me: Because I never gave up hope. All is well now for Cozy Glow.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln: Wow.

We arrived at Cozy's mansion and it was nice.

Laney: Wow! Cozy Glow your house is amazing.

Cozy Glow: It sure is.

We went in and we saw that the house was ransacked.

William: Oh my God! Who did this?!

Maria: (looks in front of them) I think I know who.

We saw King Stefan standing over an unconscious Aurora Shine.

Nico: King Stefan?!

King Stefan: (Scottish Accent) Oh dear. This does not look good, does it? (chuckles) You want to know the joke here? I'm completely innocent this time.

Cyborg: (glares at him) Does it look like we're laughing right now?!

King Stefan: (disgusted) Good point That doesn't even sound right, does it?

Next thing King Stefan knew, Cozy Glow punched him in the face.

POW!

King Stefan: I swear to you all, I was in this house's basement until 5 minutes ago. I'm also looking for my guards. Have you seen them anywhere?

Cozy Glow: SHUT YOUR FUCKING MOUTH! (continues beating Stefan up mercilessly)

I grabbed Cozy Glow and held her.

Me: Cozy! He's telling the truth! Someone set him up like this!

Varie looked over Aurora Shine.

Varie: She's gonna be all right.

Me: Good. Also your majesty, I apologize for everything that happened in your kingdom but that was not Nico's doing. It was an old nemesis from his past that took control of him and smashed your guards and kingdom up.

King Stefan: Really?

Salem: He's telling the truth.

Salem told him everything and showed memories from Nico's mind that showed it.

Salem: Nico was not to blame for that. It was the Digimon Emperor.

Me: But you don't have to worry about him anymore. He and his followers have been Hakaied and destroyed.

King Stefan: Oh no. J.D. I'm sorry we accused you of everything the Digimon Emperor did.

Me: All is forgiven. But we still are coming at you later on.

King Stefan: I know.

Carol: I found his guards tied up in the basement.

They came out with Carol and they were dizzy and bruised.

Guard 1: (Groans)

Cozy Glow: Even though you didn't knock my Mom out, give me one reason why I shouldn't save J.D. and the others the trouble and kill you right now?!

King Stefan: Believe me. I want you, J.D., and the rest of your friends to get what's coming to you all eventually. But for something I ACTUALLY did.

Nico: I hate to admit it. But he's right. Both of our groups came to a truce when we were fighting Organization XIII.

Skullcruncher: Nico's right. You assault Stefan some more, the truce is gonna be broken, and innocent people will be caught in the crossfire. Is that what you want?

Cozy Glow: No you're right.

Me: Good. (To the guards) Sirs do you know who did this to you?

Guard 1: We don't really know what they were.

Guard 2: Yeah they looked like they were lion people.

Me: Lion people? (Gasp) Oh no! The Imakandi!

Samurai Jack: The Imakandi are here?

Nico: Who are the Imakandi?

Me: The greatest hunters in the Galaxy. They are lion humanoids that are great hunters and they are incredibly good at what they do. We encountered them during our adventures as the Brave 12 and they were relentless in their pursuit of us.

I went over their history.

The Imakandi first appeared in Episode XXII: Jack and The Hunters of the Animated Series, Samurai Jack.

Although they were only seen in one episode, the Imakandi were depicted as a proud and honorable as well as skillful people as seen in the Hunters' encounter with Samurai Jack. They hunted either for survival or for the thrill of it. They cared nothing for material wealth as shown when they turned down Aku's offer of treasure to capture Jack, stating that the hunt itself was rewarding enough.

The Imakandi are a leonine race that Aku had enlisted by promising to quench their thirst for the hunt, stating that Jack would be the greatest prey that they could ever find. Once the Imakandi had arrived on Earth, they quickly found a trace of Samurai Jack and caught him by surprise, easily incapacitating him. Disappointed at the lack of challenge, the Imakandi deemed Jack unworthy prey and decided to give him to Aku immediately. Upon hearing Aku's name, however, Jack quickly cut his bonds and escaped into the city, refusing to let Aku take him so easily. Impressed, the Imakandi continued their hunt. Jack attempted to outrun the hunters through different methods (e.g to lose them on a flying cycle only to find that they had easily gained on him without realizing it as well as trying to escape on an elevator that was about to close).

Eventually, after a long chase, the Imakandi had cornered Jack on a ledge high above the streets, finally one of the hunters ended the chase by firing what appeared to be an arrow at Jack, who caught it almost effortlessly, however he had found out too late that the arrow was, in fact, a snake-like creature that bit him and released a type of anesthetic into his blood. Once they had arrived at a balcony with Jack, Aku appeared before them and demanded that they hand him over, but instead they refused, stating that the Samurai was the greatest creature they had ever hunted and deserved to be free, and before Aku could capture them they teleported in a blinding light. They return Jack to where they found him, and when he regains consciousness a message they left him through a small torch activates. They explain why they released him, and tell him to run free Samurai.

When I was finished they gasped.

Nico: WHOA! So they are thrill-seekers.

Cody (OC): At least they aren't lethal hunters like the Yautja.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah. This is gonna be interesting.

Applejack: What are the Yautja?

Cody (OC): The most dangerous and most lethal hunters in the galaxy.

He went over their history.

---

The Yautja, more popularly known as the Predators, are an alien race and the main antagonists of the Predator film series. They also appear as anti-heroes in the Aliens vs. Predator franchise.

The Yautja species consists of mostly male Predators - the Predator females are a rare occurrence, and there are only a few known ones.

The Predators as a dangerous race are great hunters, with trophies from many species across the galaxy. They are attracted to war zones, as those hunted there would make for the more difficult trophies to acquire, as well as the ones with the most honor attached. Trophies can consist of skins or skulls with the spinal column still attached. They often wear masks, and their faces resemble large crustaceans. Their equipment includes invisibility technology, as well as an array of weapons, including powerful shoulder cannons. They also wear small but powerful bombs on their wrists in case of defeat.

Despite the Predators' ruthless and aggressive behavior when they hunt their prey down, they all have a great sense of honor and fight with it. They never kill innocent, sick, pregnant, or unarmed people, and they show great respect towards those who have defeated their own kind.

Biography and Culture

Predator culture revolves around the hunting and stalking of dangerous lifeforms. After making a kill, Predators typically skin or decapitate the carcass, converting it into a trophy. Failure in a hunt result in the Predator involved committing an honorable suicide. It often alludes to that the reason each Predator's hunt is not for sustenance or elimination of threats, but as entertainment or rite of passage, as they will only attack lifeforms that have the ability to provide them with a challenge. For that, they will travel huge distances - even across entire galaxies - in order to find and face opponents they consider a worthy challenge that would be hunted on the spot or transported them to a hunting ground of their choice. In Predators, they also shown established a planet with a controlled environment in which preys from different corners of the galaxy gathered to see how well they adapt with each other to further provide challenges, including hazardous plant lives for their prey to use in their advantages. Not surprisingly, this led to them making contact with various lifeforms, including humans, Space Jockeys (also known as Engineers, a race of white-skinned extraterrestrial humanoid who allegedly created Xenomorph race), and Xenomorphs. The contact with Space Jockeys is confirmed in the Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem movie's DVD commentary.

Predators possess a level of technological advancement far in excess of anything available to humans. For either combat or hunting, they are armed with an array of weaponry, ranging from highly advanced plasma cannons and stealth camouflage to more ancient weapons such as blades, spears, and nets. When hunting, they would switch to more traditional weapons for more honorable fights. While they are social race, most Predators hunt alone. Should they deployed in a group, the said group would always be comprised of 3 members. The small numbers in a hunt mostly to hone their skills on the field. Aside from hi-tech weaponry, Predators also possess a pack of spined, quadrupedal beasts used as flushing dogs, as shown in the case of "Super Predators" clan. Creature designer Gregory Nicotero used hyenas as a basis for the creature's physique, while the spines were added later by Chris Olivia.

While technologically advanced, the Yautja race proved to be resourceful when it comes to crafting armor and other hunting equipment out of anything they can find on the field. This is arguably hinted in Predator film where Jungle Hunter noticed a trap set up by Dutch as the human soldier attempted to provoke him to get close only to be struck by another, unseen trap. In five-issue limited comic book series Predator: Hunters, when a Yautja ship crashed and left its occupants stranded on an island, the survivors quickly fashion weapons and armor from the resources around them, making makeshift, primitive hunting tools. In Paul W.S. Anderson's Alien vs. Predator, Scar fashioned a spear and shield for Lex out of a nearby old shaft and some body parts of xenomorph Lex just killed.

The Predator society comprised of multiple Clans with Council of Ancients as the prime ruling authority of their race, comprised of the most skillful and exalted of the Clans. Predators movie introduces two different clans that are engaged in a long-lasting blood feud, which are "Jungle Hunter Clan" and "Super Predator Clan," where the latter arguably marked as Bad Blood judging from their dirty hunting style compared to their more honorable rival. In the recently released The Predator, two more Predator Clans are introduced: One which the Fugitive Predator happened to the member of and another is Assassin Predators. As with "Jungle Hunter Clan" and "Super Predator Clan," these two clans seemed to have a sort of rivalry against each other for quite some time. The status of both Clans in the said movie appeared to be debatable due to their questionable ways: A member of Fugitive Predator's Clan, the Fugitive Predator himself, shown to carry out a mission where he must deliver hi-tech armor called Predator Killer manufactured by his kind to humanity so they could fend off an oncoming invasion in spite of the obvious risk of exile, whereas Assassin Predator Clan have records of performing gene therapy to create super soldiers out of their members with the use of DNA taken from most formidable lifeforms in the galaxy (humans included).

When hunting humans, Predators normally avoid certain individuals such as children and some adults if they are unarmed, though they will spare armed ones if they happen to be pregnant or sickly. A human who has managed to kill a Predator in single combat or has fought alongside one is usually spared by the deceased hunter's comrades of his kind and given a gift (often a rare or exotic weapon) as a sign of respect. An example of the latter case is seen in the comic Predator: 1718, where a predator called Greyback aka. Golden Angel join forces with pirate captain Raphael Adolini after his hunt on the captain's crew went wrong with Adolini's crew turned against their leader. In the ensuing fight, the dying Adolini gave his flintlock gun to the Predator before succumbing to his wounds. Out of respect on his human ally, Greyback buried the captain and left him a gift in the form of his sword on his grave. Similarly, in Paul W.S. Anderson's Alien vs. Predator, the main protagonist named Alexa Woods was given an ornate combi stick spear by the leader of the hunting party after impressed by her and Scarface's teamwork in stopping another Xenomorph outbreak at Antarctica.

Predators feature prominently in the folklore of certain cultures as well as leaving a significant impact on human civilization through their space travels; some Latin American people refer to the species as, "El Demonio Que hace trofeos de los hombres" (Spanish for "The Demon who makes trophies of men"), while Jamaican superstition identifies Predators as demons from the spirit world. In Paul W.S. Anderson's Alien vs. Predator continuity, on the other hand, they made contact with early human civilizations such as the ancient Egyptians, the Khmer Empire of Cambodia, and the Aztecs of Mesoamerica, as well as a fictitious culture inhabiting what is now modern-day Bouvetøya. Upon arriving on Earth, the Predators were worshiped as gods by humans, and they taught many of the civilizations how to build pyramids (an explanation as to why many of these different ancient societies had distinctly similar cultures and architecture), but in return, expected sacrifices of humans for use as hosts for huntable Aliens. The Predators returned to Bouvetøya every century to consummate the bargain, until, at one point in the ritual, the Aliens spread out of control, resulting in the Predators detonating a bomb that obliterated the entire civilization overnight. Relations with humans and the Predators deteriorated from that time on; the Predators then viewed humans as little more than another quarry to hunt.

Out of formidable preys that Predators have encountered, Xenomorphs are regarded as ultimate prey due to the formidable challenge they pose to their kind. As such, the Predators apparently kept at least one Xenomorph Queen in captivity within their motherships in order to maintain a supply of eggs. In fact, these creatures were used for ritualistic hunt, as Predators had designed multiple pyramids specifically design as a controlled environment for xenomorphs to grow during the hunt. The pyramid also contains plasma casters as the ultimate prize for those who survive in participating in ritualistic Xenomorph Hunt. A learner's first successful Alien hunt is completed with the marking of his helmet and forehead with the blood of his kill.

Language

The script of the Predators is expressed in the films and other media through written patterns of dashes. These written symbols appear on the creatures' gauntlet displays, their helmets, architecture, and many other surfaces. The most common vocalizations of the Predators consists of a series of clicks, roars, snarls, and growls. Predators will mimic human language on occasion and have been stated or shown to be able to understand and speak human languages. Author Steve Perry designed a constructed language set for the Aliens vs. Predator novel series.

Technology

Predator technology is distinctive in many respects, not the least of which is its ornate, tribal appearance masking deadly, sophisticated weaponry. It is shown in Predator 2 that at least one Predator weapon uses a metal that does not correspond to any element on the periodic table, and some weapons are utterly resistant to the effects of acidic blood belonging to Xenomorphs. Also, several of these tools make use of thermal imaging to track prey.

The Predator's mask also houses a viewing system that fine-tunes the creature's infrared vision by filtering out ambient heat, and also allows it to view in different Spectrum completely. The Predator's technology is advanced enough that the mask enables it to see in specific levels of X-ray and identify diseases and cancers, as well as picking up on pulse and heartbeat signals to track targets, as seen in Alien vs. Predator and Predators, respectively. The Predator also makes use of a light-bending cloaking device. A flashback sequence in Alien vs. Predator indicates that some aspects of their technology have been in use for millennia.

Honor Code Worthy Hunting Game : Make sure the prey is considered game where it must fill the following criteria: Can defend itself and/or can kill the hunter himself, of age (killing children and the elderly is considered the height of bad manners), not linked to other lives (so that removing the prey will not doom another, e.g., pregnant women), and not weakened by diseases.

Failing in the hunt : Should you fail in your quest, take your own life instead of life in shame. However, some cowards prefer to live in obscurity rather than die. This is considered to be dishonorable, and suicide is then "assisted" by an Arbitrator.

Claiming the Kill of Another Hunter : Stealing the trophy belonged to your fellow hunter, living or dead, is considered to be a great insult.

Murder of Another Yautja : Killing another member of your kind intentionally (with an exception for self-defense and killing a foe in a wrestling match to settle a dispute) is the worst crime.

Never harm the innocent : Those who have done no harm should have no harm done to them. (It can be inferred that this rule must pertain only to harming other Yautja in their society since they hunt and kill members of many species one could call "innocent." It can also be inferred that Bad Blood Predators would ignore this rule either in part or in whole.)

Hunting for Food : When hunting for food, take only the weak. This is to purify the species' line.

Wounded Game : When coming upon game wounded by another hunter, and the prey is dying without sport, show honor to another's kill. If the game still shows sport, it is to be a joint trophy.

Joining Another Hunt : Do not join another's Hunt, or hunt in their territory, without their permission. All trophies taken in this manner are stolen trophies and shall be dealt with by the rightful owner.

Mercy: Those who defeat you in a fair Hunt, or who are the victors in more dangerous hunts (such as a battle with the Alien Queen), and show you mercy are to be considered our equals. You must either kill them and yourself or bestow them with a reward.

Code Violations : Those who break the code are renegades, and no longer considered to be a Yautja. They are to be destroyed when encountered.

Never Harm the Ill or Offspring : Do not harm the ill or those who pregnant with infants. Best spare either unless they pose a threat (only apply for the former).

When in a duel with an enemy, you must reveal yourself : In the novelization of first AVP movie, Lex Woods was about to be killed by a cloaked predator, however before it prepared to deliver the final blow, it deactivated its cloak. According to the book, it is "hunting ethic" to reveal yourself to your enemy at the climax of a fight.

We gasped in shock. But we were amazed that they have an amazing sense of honor.

Me: They have an amazing sense of honor and they live for the thrill of the hunt like the Imakandi do. But the Imakandi are the galaxy's greatest hunters that hunt for the thrill. They let their prey go in the end. The Yautja's are lethal and they slaughter their prey.

Nico: Whoa! Huge difference.

King Stefan: That is very interesting.

Warpath: (to Stefan) Look, we'll still fight you until the time comes. Until then, just go back to your castle.

Stefan: Fine. (to me) But you better not lose against the Imakandi, JD. Otherwise, I won't get the pleasure of defeating you and Maleficent myself!

Me: I never lose when it comes to a good fight.

I teleported him and his guards back to their castle.

Nico: Well lets clean this place up and help Aurora Shine before we fight the Imakandi.

Me: This is gonna be really good.

Jessie Bannon: Just like old times.

Sunset Shimmer: It's amazing that you faced these guys before.

Fu: They were a great challenge.

Rarity: But it's awful that they were hired to kill you.

Naruto: I know. But they hunt all for honor and the sheer thrill of it. That's why we spared them.

Me: Yep. But we're not gonna go after them. They will be coming after us. And I know just the spot for them to find us. The Serengeti Savanna in Africa.

Nico: Good spot.

We cleaned up all of the mansion and fixed everything.

Nightshade: Well, no point in worrying about the Imakandi for the moment, Right now, let's head on to Africa.

Me: Okay. But they will find us. They are just that good at tracking.

Fu: And they are really skilled at what they do.

Varie: It's true. They are amazing trackers and their teamwork and coordination are off the charts great.

Nico: Wow! This is gonna be interesting.

Laney: Yeah. They are a good challenge.

Scorcher, Pinky & the Brain, Magneto, Black Adam, Griffin, Grizzly, Kite Man and Cavalier appeared.

Scorcher: Can me, Pinky, Brain, Magneto, Black Adam, Griffin, Grizzly, Kite Man, and Cavalier go to Africa with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Pinky: Gee Brain, what do you want to do tonight?

Brain: Same thing we do every night Pinky: Try to take over the World.

Me: (Sternly) What was that?

Brain: Sorry force of habit.

Me: I figured. We've been watching you do all that for a long time and it's funny. We're going there to face and test the Imakandi.

Kite Man: I've read about the Imakandi in the book about the Brave 12's adventures and they really are that skilled.

Me: They sure are. And they are a great challenge.

Griffin: At least they aren't like the Yautja. From what I heard J.D. it was a Yautja that gave you that scar on your cheek.

Me: That's right.

Twilight Sparkle: I didn't know you got a scar from that?

Nico: So that's what those claw marks were from. Wow.

Cody (OC): Yep. He fought against a Yautja on the island of Sumatra during our Worldwide Adventure and won. He now has the respect of the galaxy's most lethal hunters.

Me: Yep. Lets head out.

We went to Africa.

---

SERENGETI SAVANNA, TANZANIA

---

We arrived in the Serengeti of Africa and it was beautiful.

Brawlrus: Isn't Africa just amazing?

Me: It always is beautiful and the Cradle of Good Hope is where all of humanity originated.

Nico: Yep.

Then a leopard came up to Griffin and he saw him.

Griffin: (sees a leopard) What are you looking at, furball?

The leopard growled at Griffin but he roared at it, scaring it off.

Me: Nice one Johnny.

Griffin: Thanks.

Rainbow Dash: J.D. what was it like for you to fight a Yautja?

Me: It was brutal. It happened shortly after we saw Lake Toba, the caldera of Supervolcano Toba that erupted 74,000 years ago.

FLASHBACK - CHAPTER 287

The Yautja and me were fairing well. He threw a Smart disk and I ducked and it came back to him. He threw it again and I caught it.

Me: This might be useful.

He fired his plasma caster and I deflected a shot at him and it hit him in the leg.

Me: Got him.

I saw his blood and it was glowing green.

Me: His blood is glowing and it's green.

Lisa: So all Yautja's have phosphorescent green blood.

Cody: That's right Lisa.

The Yautja saw that I was a worthy prey and he took off his plasma caster and his mask and revealed his true face.

Me: Like in the movie "Predator", you are one UGLY MOTHERFUCKER.

The Yautja roared and was ready to fight.

Me: Bring it on.

We both were punching and kicking at a vicious and ferocious level. The Yautja had the strength of 10 men and he was proving to be a powerful opponent even though my physical stature was that of 5 men. We were pretty much equally matched.

Hercules: Whoa! This is getting really brutal.

Aylene: They're both very strong and almost even.

Nicole: That's right. Dad is very powerful already without his powers and very strong too.

Allie: That's right.

Lola: I remember how strong he is too.

Lana: Come on J.D. you can do it!

Chione: Yeah! Get him!

I punched the Yautja in the face and he slashed my face and left 3 claw cut marks on my right cheek and I kick him in the face and punch him in the stomach and kick him in the chest.

Me: This is getting rough.

I fired a force blast and sent him crashing through 3 trees.

We saw that the Yautja was down and he was bleeding profusely.

I had won.

Me: Wow. That was a fierce fight. Even without my powers. You my friend have fought with honor and your testing of Cody was without a doubt the most amazing thing ever.

Yautja: That's right.

The Yautja activated his self-destruct device. We had 40 seconds till detonation.

Me: Uh oh!

I ran back over to my friends.

Me: Guys we have to get out of here now!

We all flew away and we saw the Yautja explode from 20 miles away.

KRAAAABOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We saw the huge mushroom cloud and it was incredible.

Lori: That was literally a close one.

Me: Unbelievable! That explosion possessed the power of a 5 Megaton nuclear bomb.

Luan: That was incredible!

Naruto: It sure was.

Me: Cody you were right. The Yautja's possessed incredible power and their technology can destroy everything within a 15 mile radius.

Cody: That's right J.D. Never underestimate the destructive capabilities of the Yautja's.

Lynn: We all believe it now.

Lucy: It's hard to imagine that they have so much destructive power like we do.

Laney: That was incredible guys. I can't believe that they have all that advanced technology which would all be beneficial for humanity and they wield so much destructive power.

Varie: They sure do.

Leni: Totes. It's all amazing.

Carol: But J.D. put up an amazing fight.

Cody: He sure did Carol.

Ronnie Anne: Way to go Lame-o.

Me: Thanks guys.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Vince: I remember that. That was intense.

Nico: Wait a minute. I remember seeing that explosion! That was all you guys after J.D. faced that Yautja?

Me: Yep. He blew himself up with as much power as Castle Bravo did back in 1954. Their Self-Destruct Devices are just that powerful.

Nico: WHOA! And he sure left his mark on you.

Me: I know. But it was awesome.

Cody (OC): And it helped him earn the respect of the Galaxy's most lethal hunters.

Nico: Wow.

Twilight Sparkle: How do they hunt?

Me: By heat. They hunt by infrared.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow.

Chomp Chest: Maybe we're being a little paranoid here. For all we know, Imakandi are probably hunting some other targets first.

Shanan: No they don't think that way. Once they set their sights on their prey, they stick to it hard.

Me: Yeah and that's what makes them really awesome hunters.

Nico: Wait. I hear something.

Nico used his senses and concentrated and he found 4 energy signals in the tall grass.

Nico: There are 4 signals. Powerful ones.

Lola: Is it the Imakandi?

Me: I have a feeling it is.

I used my infrared vision and looked around and I saw that it was them! THE IMAKANDI!

Me: It's them! Lets give them chase!

We ran fast and the Imakandi chased us!

They were chasing us fast at incredible speed and they were amazing. Just like before.

Kite Man: (gets out his kite) Let's see how they can hit a flying target!

He flew into the air and one of the Imakandi fired an arrow at him and he dodged it and flew at him and the Imakandi dodged and jumped down and the chase still continued.

Nico: Wow! You were right! They ARE relentless!

Coconuts: Wait. Let's pause the chase for a moment and get some answers about what happened this morning.

Me: Good idea Coconuts!

We stopped and skidded.

Me: Did you guys attack Cozy Glow's mother and set up King Stefan?

Imakandi 1: Indeed we did. It was to get your attention. Me and my brothers all got a good thrill from our greatest hunt with you all the first time and we wanted to relive that great hunt like we did all those years ago.

Me: That was almost 4 years ago. And we were just the Brave 12. Now we are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Imakandi 1: That's right. You are a most formidable force just like you were against Aku and his minions.

Me: So we have heard.

Brain: So, that's why you set up that situation this morning?

Imakandi 1: Indeed. We wanted to see if you all were going to beat the version of King Stefan to death regardless of what really happened.

Pinky: Me and Brain weren't even there this morning!

BONK!

Brain hit him on the head with a pencil.

Brain: Be quiet Pinky.

Pinky laughed.

Pinky: Zort!

Me: I knew this was all your doing from before and I figured it was not King Stefan that did it because we still have a truce.

Nico: That's right. Our truce is still in effect because of everything that happened when Organization XIII reared its ugly head.

Imakandi 1: I see.

Winter Soldier: (takes out gun) You realize some of us are capable of using weapons, right?

Imakandi 1: Yes and you are very skilled with them.

Me: We use more than just swords. We have powers that are strong. We're not the same as we were when we were the Brave 12.

We've gotten stronger and faced powerful enemies that possess enough power to destroy the entire universe.

Imakandi 1: That's what we heard. We heard you destroyed Thanos, Necrafa and many more like them.

Me: That's right. Aku was also one of them.

Twilight Sparkle: What was Aku like for you all when you faced him?

Me: He was a nightmare from 10,000,000,000 Hells. Aku is the ultimate embodiment of Pure Evil itself.

I went over his history.

---

Aku is the main antagonist of the Samurai Jack animated series. He is the ruthless, diabolical and manipulative demon king who is the father-in-law and arch-nemesis of Samurai Jack and the biological father of Ashi and her sisters. He is easily one of the most successful cartoon villains, as he managed to rule the world, and was unstoppable for years, as it took Samurai Jack 50+ years to defeat him. He is also the fragment of a black virus that is the true ultimate evil.

Aku tends to switch back and forth between being played for laughs, and being a truly threatening villain. He would either do something pettily villainous not to be taken too seriously, like telling stories to children to make them like him instead of Jack, or be extremely terrifying and dangerous, like causing genocide and enslaving innocents, depending on the episode.

In the first four seasons of Samurai Jack, he was voiced by the late Mako Iwamatsu, who also played Happy Cat in Duck Dodgers and Han Yu Kim in True Crime: Streets of L.A. . In the fifth and final season, he was voiced by Greg Baldwin, who also played Frank Fontaine in BioShock after Mako's untimely passing.

History

Originating long ago in the depths of space, a formless evil was vanquished by the three mighty gods Odin, Ra, and Vishnu in order to protect the universe from its influence - yet a small shard of the great shadow managed to survive and flew off into space - for many years this shard continued flying through space until it eventually landed on Earth, causing the extinction of the dinosaurs in the process.

Many years later, the site on which the shard landed would become the ancient island of Japan, which the shard infected like a horrible disease - creating vast forests of evil in the land and threatening to consume it. Eventually, the shard's threat became so great and impressive that the Emperor of Japanese kingdom decided to rid the land of the evil substance once and for all using magical-oil made by Buddhist monks. However, when he fired an arrow coated with this oil into the evil entity, it did not destroy it but rather gave it form and sentience, thus forming Aku as a humanoid threat of just unimaginable power. To make matters worse, no mortal weapon could harm Aku, making him completely invincible.

However, with aid from Odin, Ra, and Vishnu, the Emperor wielded a magical sword with the ability to harm Aku. Using the sword, the Emperor faced Aku in a showdown that resulted with Aku being sealed away in the form of a tree - yet, the imprisonment would not last much more than a decade before a solar eclipse freed Aku again.

Aku would then proceed to lay waste to the Japanese kingdom the Emperor once again ruled, this time capturing the Emperor before he could grab the sword. The empress ran away with the sword and her son so that he could be trained to be a samurai warrior. Years later the Emperor's son challenged Aku to a fight the Pit of Hate inside his towering castle - the Samurai very nearly killed Aku for good using the magical sword but Aku threw open a portal in time and transported him to a future-world in which Aku ruled supreme. The Samurai took the name "Jack" while trapped in the future and became Aku's archnemesis, as he still wields the only weapon capable of harming Aku.

For the rest of the series, Aku is portrayed as the tyrannical, omnipresent, all-powerful and manipulative ruler of the world and is an almost unstoppable force - yet he fears Jack, knowing very well that the warrior has the power to slay him, Aku has placed a high bounty on Jack's head and is always trying to dispose of him, whether it be with manipulation, cunning, force, or trickery.

Shadow of Aku

Jack encountered Aku yet again at the Pit of Hate, where Aku uses his fluid to attach to pieces of samurai armor before he can let Jack reach the time portal. Jack battled Aku but was too late to go to the time portal.

Samurai Jack (2017)

Aku returns in the new season and fights against Jack for the last time. In the series, it is also shown that Aku donated a small portion of himself to the Cult of Aku after seeing the statue they built in his likeness. Afterwards, the cult leader drank the potion which somehow impregnated her, creating the Daughters of Aku.

In Episode XCII, Jack fights an assassin named Scaramouche the Merciless who claims to be "Aku's favorite assassin". He tries to call Aku that Jack lost his sword, but Jack destroys his phone before he can get the chance, leading to a confrontation with Scaramouche where Jack seemingly destroys him.

In Episode XCIII, Aku wakes up from his long nap and becomes annoyed with his Royal subjects and minions as they come to his lair, bow down to him and give him gifts while he is trying to do his daily routine. When his minions mention that they built more robots to destroy Jack, Aku states that he doesn't care anymore. Aku then creates a clone of himself to serve as a psychiatrist who asks him about what has been troubling him lately. Aku tell the psychiatrist that it has been 50 years since he destroyed all of the time portals and that he hoped that Jack would have just died off the normal way, but, as a result of the time traveling process, not only has Jack not died from old age but he hasn't even aged a single day and has become biologically immortal, deeply frustrating him.

In Episode XCVI, Aku, after being informed by a henchman that the former's lair was under attack by an army lead by the Scotsman, decides to deal with them himself and flew out of his lair. Later, he transforms into a colossal giant ball and effortlessly slaughtered most of the army. After this, he was confronted by the Scotsman, with the latter insulting and ridiculing Aku, stating that Samurai Jack inspired many to oppose him. However, this leads to Aku killing the Scotsman by shooting him with his eye beams. Aku, with a bored tone, only wondered why the Scotsman brought up Jack before returning to his lair. However, unknown to Aku, the Scotsman returns as a ghost and instructs his army (who are all of his daughters as well) to continue to amass their forces and find Samurai Jack.

In Episode XCVII, Scaramouche (now only a head) tries to reach Aku in order to tell him that Jack is missing his sword and calls him from a phone booth on the boat he was riding, although Aku immediately hangs up after Scaramouche is thrown off the boat.

In Episode XCVIII, in a flashback, it is shown that Aku pulled Jack out of a time portal just as he was about to reach the past and then obliterated it, taunting Jack by telling him that said time portal was the last in existence. In his rage, Jack tried to destroy Aku once and for all. However, Aku backed out of the fight and transformed the Rams that had been helping Jack into mindless beasts that he soon killed, causing him to accidentally drop his sword into a pit in his horror.

In Episode C, Scaramouche finally reaches Aku's tower and manages to tell Aku about Jack's missing sword, not only causing the demon to snap out of his depression, but also give Scaramouche a new body out of gratitude and both dance in joy. Aku then flies over to Jack's location (in which it is shown that he also killed The Guardian) where he and Scaramouche then laugh at Jack for not having his sword, only to realize that he actually does. Aku then kills Scaramouche by destroying his head and prepares to leave, however, he stops when he realizes that there is a little bit of himself inside Ashi. Aku then has a flashback in which it is shown that he gave some of his essence to the Cult of Aku, and then comes to the conclusion that the High Priestess must have drank the essence and birthed the Daughters of Aku. He then remarks on how she is really a true daughter of his to her and Jack's collected shock and anger. As Jack tries to kill Aku, Aku begins controlling

Ashi and forcing her to fight Jack watching from the sidelines as they unwillingly do so while remarking on how his daughter fell for his sworn enemy. Eventually, Aku turns Ashi into a humanoid replica of himself, which Jack cannot bring himself to kill, laying his sword down in defeat. As Ashi is about to lay the final blow, Aku quickly orders for her to stop and grabs Jack's sword. He revels at finally besting Samurai Jack after 50 years.

In Episode CI, Aku broadcasts his victory over Samurai Jack to the entire world. Aku then tells everyone who opposes him that they have no hope as he prepares to kill Jack, however, he soon realizes that he does not know how he wants to kill Jack. After a period of indecision, Aku decides that it is best to let Ashi kill Jack. As Ashi readies to lay the final blow to Jack, almost everyone Jack has encountered (The Blind Archers, Rothchild and his Canine Companions, The Ravers, The Triseraquins, The Spartans, The "Jump Good" Monkey Man and his tribe and The Woolies) and saved came to his aid and attacked Aku. Aku begins to do a great battle with them while Jack fights the corrupted Ashi who is stopping him from taking back his sword, Aku finding amusement in the armies' attempts to save Jack since he is nearly untouchable and cannot be killed by them. Aku splats a great number of Woolies and Blind Archers corrupting them into an army of smaller copies of himself ordering them to attack the rebels. While the rebels are in great difficulty against Aku's army and Jack is unable to take the sword back the Scotsman arrives with his Daughters causing several damages to Aku's army. During the fight, Max and the Robots of Andromeda join the army of Jack's friends with their giant robot samurai. At the beginning, Aku mocks the robot only to be brutally beaten up by it and also have his horns torn off, at point Aku starts to get annoyed and furious and decides to change himself into a rain of spikes to kill all of his enemies. The rain kills many of Jack's friends but is stopped by the powers of the Scotsman. Then, he checks on his daughter Ashi to see if she has killed Samurai Jack, but thanks to Jack, Ashi frees herself from Aku's corruption and stands up against him. The furious Aku attacks her but is surprised to see that she has the exact same powers as he does. Without a second to lose, Jack and Ashi summon a portal and send themselves back to the past. The future Aku then looks in sorrow as he realizes that his destruction is imminent, realizing that all around him including himself are going to cease from existing.

Back in the past, after Jack's first battle against Aku, the demon has just sent Samurai Jack to the future. After he finishes his speech of meeting him again in the future, he was shocked to see that the future Jack and Ashi have returned on that same spot. As Aku tries to process why he is back so suddenly, Jack immediately charges and begins his short final showdown with Aku. Aku, still greatly weakened by his battle with the previous incarnation of Jack then transforms into a giant rhinoceros beetle-like form to fend him off, but the latter quickly slashes him in two halves with his sword. Jack then completely destroys one, while the other tries to retreat but does not go very far as Jack manages to stab his severed head with his sword and Aku merges into the sword before Jack slams his sword to the ground, finally destroying Aku once and for all as he and his lair begin to explode; avenging all of the deaths and suffering he has committed (or was going to commit) and ending his tyrannical and magisterial grasp forever. However, Aku's death came at a price as, since he was responsible for her existence, Ashi is erased from time as she was about to marry Jack. Jack then mourns the loss of Ashi, but sees a ladybug as a memory of Ashi and smiles, as the string of fate means that he will find someone who will fill the place Ashi left. Now in peace, Jack can live the rest of his life happy and serene, as the future seems bright considering that Aku and his tyranny are no longer there.

Samurai Jack: Battle Through Time

In the video game set during the finale of season 5, Samurai Jack and Ashi open a time portal and travel to the past. However, in attempt to prevent his destruction at the samurai's hand, Aku separates Jack and Ashi and transports Jack into a time pocket, a rift of time and space with no future or past. After facing numerous robots, demons, bounty hunters and the Daughters of Aku once again (involving tormenting Jack in killing the fake Ashi), Aku faces Jack and summons an entire army of robots to destroy him. However, The Scotsman, his daughters, Da Samurai and Sir Rothchild come to aid Jack by facing the army as they give Jack the opportunity to finally face Aku in his fortress. After the final fight, a defeated and overwhelmed Aku is confused of what is happening after a time portal opens. Jack told him that that the rift of time that he had created starts to collapse. Future Aku refuses to fail and declared that it's not over. After Jack and Ashi reunite and finally make it to the past, past Aku meets his end as Jack finally destroys the shapeshifting demon once and fall.

In the alternative ending, due to Ashi did not fade away from existence and finally got married to Jack, rather than what happened in Episode CI, Aku was now forever trapped in the time pocket version of the future and Ashi was already born in this future.

When it was done everyone was absolutely floored and shocked.

Nico: Wow!

Twilight Sparkle: Aku did all that!?

Rainbow Dash: And tormented and oppressed many races all over the universe!?

Applejack: That's terrible!

Nico: Yeah! I've read about Aku and he was awful.

Scotsman: (Scottish Accent) Aye. He was awful.

Me: Yeah. And he sent all of his minions after us. We fought everything. Robots, aliens, bounty hunters, monsters, interdimensional demons, supernatural horrors, everything.

Fluttershy: That's horrible.

Pepperdance: Yeah. Really bad.

Lincoln: It was awful.

Black Adam: (to the Imakandi) This is your last chance to back out. Some of us are too powerful for you to hunt.

Imakandi 1: Our race has existed for countless eons. The hunt is our way of life. It runs through our veins. It makes us rich. Rich beyond material wealth. We have accepted your challenge for the the sheer thrill of the Hunt. For we are… The Imakandi!

Me: I'm always up for a challenge. It'll be just like old times.

Imakandi 1: Indeed. Lets get it on.

Me: And we have frenemies coming for our usual battles. So there may be some others coming as well.

Imakandi 1: I see.

Me: Lets run!

We ran fast and the Imakandi followed.

The chase continued.

Skallox: You've got to admire how determined they are.

Me: Told you they were that relentless.

Fu: It's fun though.

Nico: Yeah!

Magneto: Are any of them using metal weapons?

I looked and saw that they had none.

Me: None!

Magneto: Damn!

I used a smoke bomb and we hid behind a tree.

Indigo Zap: Okay. We can hide behind this tree until this ends.

Me: Are you sure they won't? They are still gonna find us.

Nico: Yeah if they are as good as J.D. says then they will hunt us till the end of time.

Lincoln: Yeah they will.

Me: Hmm. I have an idea.

I beamed us to Overwatch Headquarters in Switzerland just as the Imakandi found us.

They saw that sonic ran fast to the north fast and they smirked.

Imakandi 1: We hunt my brothers.

They were coming for us.

---

We arrived at Overwatch Headquarters.

Lucio: Home sweet home!

Cavalier: Why have we teleported here?

Me: Because it will give us enough time to have our usual battles and get them done so we can face the Imakandi when they get here.

Nico: How long will that take?

Me: With their speed I would say 3 hours.

Nico: Purrfect.

We laughed at Nico's joke.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Nico!

Nico: Thanks Luan.

Plug Man: You think the Imakandi got teleported here with us?

Me: No their power doesn't work that way. They rely on their senses and their tracking skills to find their prey. They found us through sheer will and energy sensing.

Grizzly: Are they after me specifically because my suit looks like a bear?

Me: No. They go after anything be it animal or humanoid or anything like that. They are just that determined. Once they set their sights on their prey, or given a great challenge, they will not stop until they get it.

Nico: Wow. You got to love their spirit.

Lincoln: They are that good and that skilled.

Laney: Yeah and it's amazing that they are that good.

Lily: Yep.

Then Angel, Johnny 13, Trumbipulor, Dayu, Rojo, Deker, Stinky Butt the Foul and Vortex appeared.

Me: Angel, Johnny 13, Trumbipulor, Dayu, Rojo, Deker, Stinky Butt the Foul and Vortex.

Angel: Good seeing you guys here.

Rojo: Yeah.

William: How'd you guys find us?

Angel: Well, we thought you guys were in Africa.

Johnny 13: But there was no sign of you guys anywhere.

May: That still doesn't answer how you guys found us.

Trumbipulor: Well, Brain actually texted us where you were.

Dayu: So we teleported here. And here we are!

Me: Well it's good you did. The Imakandi are hunting us.

Trumbipulor: The Imakandi!? Oh man! I know them. They are the galaxy's greatest hunters.

Me: Yep and we faced them before as the Brave 12. Luckily, they are not merciless and lethal like the Yautja are.

Trumbipulor: That's right. The Yautja slaughter and butcher their prey. Where as the Imakandi hunt for the honor and thrill of the Hunt. Once they catch their prey they let it go.

Grizzly: Wow. Well that's a relief.

Griffin: It sure is. They are honorable thrill-seekers. What is their home planet?

Shanan: It's called Savana. It's a savanna planet that is home to a lush grassland that serves as the ultimate hunting grounds for the Imakandi.

Lincoln: Wow! Like the Savannas of Africa.

Me: It was like we were on their home planet.

Nico: Yeah.

?: Boy no kidding.

2 figures came out and they were HEKATOID from episodes 28 and 29 of Mystic Force and Tooya was back!

---

Hekatoid was one of the Ten Terrors. He was a gluttonous, turquoise toad-like monster that wielded a hammer that also functionned as a trumpet. He was the fifth Terror to fight the Rangers, he gets "fought" for the first time in the episode "Hard Heads" as the secondary antagonist, and gets fought the second time as the main antagonist in the two-part episode "Light Source".

In the episode "The Light", When Necrolai first met the Ten Terrors, Hekatoid used the trumpet function of his hammer to blow her away. Necrolai told them that the Master was defeated again, Imperious was destroyed, and now the Terrors had to help conquer the world. They listened to her and agreed to help conquer the Surface World. The Terrors arrived in the human world and introduced themselves to the people of Briarwood, when the sky turned dark. Sculpin told the people to give them the Light, who is actually Nick Russell, the Red Ranger and leader of Mystic Rangers. When the Rangers tried to intervene, the Terrors easily defeated the Rangers Manticore Megazord and left.

In the episode "Hard Heads", Hekatoid was tricked into fighting the Rangers by Serpentina since she knew that it would be her turn to be chosen by the Stone of Judgment. He arrived at Briarwood and battled Nick and Vida and squirted them with a special slime by squeezing one of his warts, making them unable to morph. When the other Rangers arrived, Hekatoid enlarged himself to battle the Manticore Megazord and Solar Streak Megazord. However, when the Selection Ceremony to choose Serpentina was underway, he was forced to retreat and return to the lair. Itassis was able to pry the information that Hekatoid was sent by Serpentina to give her an advantage in the next battle.

During the episode "The Snow Prince", he continually expressed his concern about how the Terrors that were dispatched seemed to have a disadvantage against the Rangers and was amazed that Megahorn was defeated. At the end of the episode "Snow Prince", he found Udonna and Claire at the Lake of Lament and attacked them, knocking Clare unconscious then using his long frog tongue to capture Udonna.

In the two-part episode "Light Source", he was the fifth chosen by the Stone of Judgment to attack the surface world. When Hekatoid was chosen, he disliked and complained about having to work, and Matoombo scolded him because of his gluttonous and sloppy habits. Black Lance expressed some concerns that he felt that Hekatoid was not ready because he was greatly out of shape. Hekatoid planned to lure the Power Rangers to him using the captured Udonna as bait. Hekatoid attacked Briarwood in giant size and battled the Titan Megazord and Solaris Streak Megazord. Then Hekatoid revealed to the Rangers that he prepared his children - poison toads, who were in Poisonous Tadpole Eggs and when they hatch out, they will poison the city. He teleported the Rangers to another dimension and challenged the heroes to a game where they had to battle a large group of Styxoids within a time limit, which they succeeded in doing. The Rangers were victorious, but Hekatoid cheated, by freezing the Rangers with a spell, and Nick summoned Fire Heart to defeat the Soldiers of Darkness. Next he sent them off to fight evil clones of the Rangers. The evil Red Ranger clone turned Nick, Vida and Xander into the dice. When Madison and Chip defeated the clones, the Rangers were victorious. The heroes went to Hekatoid's lair and their friends were freed. The Rangers got to fight Hekatoid himself to reclaim Udonna, but he refused to give up Udonna so easily and their battle took them from Hekatoid's lair back up to the surface. When it seemed that the Rangers finally got Udonna from Hekatoid's grasp, he used one of his sludge balls to send her away again. He also used his power to steal the Rangers' ability to morph, then fled back to his lair. Once there Hekatoid found out that Daggeron and Jenji were using the Solar Streak Megazord to suck up the Poisonous Tadpole eggs in the sky and went back to fight them as a giant. The Solar Streak Megazord used so much power in sucking up the eggs that it didn't have enough power to fight Hekatoid, and so, Hekatoid battled Daggeron on foot. Knowing Hekatoid was out of shape, the Rangers used their agility and endurance to tire out the toad and take back their Ranger powers. By this time the tadpoles had matured into frogs and began raining down from the sky, but before they could reach the ground, the newly revived Udonna used her ice magic to freeze and vaporize the frogs. When their powers were returned, Udonna and the Rangers combined their magic to finally destroy Hekatoid. This makes him the fifth Terror to be destroyed and the fourth to be destroyed by the Rangers.

Jayden: Tooya!

Udonna: And Hekatoid!

Me: I remember you Hekatoid! You attacked Claire and Udonna at the Lake of Lament and captured Udonna. And you cheated by freezing the rangers and challenge them to a game where they had to battle numerous Styxoids within a time limit. Then they fought evil clones of the rangers. You wouldn't give up Udonna without a fight.

Hekatoid: That's right! Good memory.

Simba: We want to thank you for helping against Scar.

Tooya: No problem. (to the rest of us) And thanks for suggesting which of my mosnters get reused for the usual battles.

Me: Anytime Tooya. It was fun.

Nico: And now Organization XIII has bitten the dust.

Me: Yep. Now both of us have all got members of Organization XIII.

Trumbipulor: Yep.

Hekatoid: (to Udonna) You won't defeat me so easily this time, White Ranger!

Udonna: We'll see about that Hekatoid.

Me: This time she'll have me with her to beat you.

?: And we can test our archenemies too.

5 more figures came out and they were an Alicorn named Raven, QUICKSAND, Mary McPheerson A.K.A. TITANIA, ASAJJ VENTRESS and WHITE LIGHTNING!

---

Quicksand

History

As revenge towards the world, Quicksand tried to meltdown the engine of an important nuclear plant. This led to a conflict between her and Thor. Thor could not defeat Quicksand, but saved the surrounding area by launching the nuclear plant to a different dimension. Quicksand retreated, not wanting to meet Thor in battle again.

Quicksand was then approached by Mongoose, an agent of the High Evolutionary. The Evolutionary wanted a tissue sample of Thor in order to create a species of super-gods. Mongoose promised Quicksand that the Evolutionary could restore her previous human form, if she could keep Thor busy for long enough for him to hit Thor with a ray and take the samples. However, Quicksand almost could not contain Thor, and she ran away the moment Mongoose finished his task.

Quicksand later showed up as a member of Superia's all-female criminal organization the Femizons. While on a cruise ship the Femizons were traveling to Superia's island on, Quicksand had a disagreement with fellow villainess Anaconda that turned to violence. Ananconda's constricting ability proved to be of little use against Quicksand's power, however, leaving Quicksand triumphant.

Quicksand and Mongoose were apprehended by the Thunderbolts. She has agreed to work with Baron Zemo.

Dark Reign

She later joined the Women Warriors, a female team part of the Initiative as the Delaware team.

In that team and along Constrictor, she confronted the R.A.I.D., and later participated to Osborn's attack on Asgard. She was among the squad to personally confront Thor.

Fear Itself

She was presumably captured and sent to the Raft, whom she seemingly escaped from during the Fear Itself events, when Kuurth (the Juggernaut) break out. She was seemingly contained by Justice on Long Island and handed over to the authorities, but was later defeated by Thor Girl and Cloud Nine in Philadelphia before she could go on mass murder, just before the two heroes were attacked by the Liberteens. She was presumably handed over by the Philadelphian heroes, and sent back to the Raft.

After the Avengers/X-Men conflict, the Raft was then damaged and numerous super-criminals were sent to another prison, unfit to store such individuals. A riot exploded, and Quicksand was a key in the brawl, until she was defeated by both Rogue and Mimic.

Titania

Mary McPheerson, mainly known as Titania, is a villain in the Marvel comics. She was a scrawny and timid girl who was constantly mocked and ignored by her classmates.

History

Her only friend was a girl named Marsha, who was also an outcast due to her being overweight. After an encounter with the second Spider-Woman, Marsha pointed out that both Mary and the superheroine had the same hair color. She then spread the rumor that Mary was Spider-Woman, causing them to become suddenly popular.

During a popular girl's party, the entire suburb was taken from Earth and teleported to the planet Battleworld by the Beyonder, who was seeking Spider-Woman instead to join in his cosmic battle arena of superheroes and villains. Mary and Marsha ended up near the supervillain's base, where they were taken in by Doctor Doom. They fitted perfectly with Doom's plans, and he offered to give them both superhuman powers. They accepted, and Doom used alien technology to alter their bodies and transform them. Marsha became the fiery Volcana, and Mary became the powerful Titania . The experiment had grown her body, making her very tall and muscular, and giving her great superhuman strength and durability.

Titania and Volcana joined the villain faction of the war, during which Titania devoloped a rivalry with She-Hulk and a romantic relationship with the Absorbing Man.

After Battleworld, Titania continued her career as a supervillain, having many battles with her arch-enemy, She-Hulk. She eventually married Absorbing Man, and they often worked together. She also joined the Wizard's Frightful Four and the Masters of Evil.

Recently Titania was chosen by The Serpent to wield one of the Seven Hammer's of the Worthy and became Skirn, Breaker of Men.

Asajj Ventress

Asajj Ventress is a Dark Jedi assassin and a major antagonist in both the Star Wars: The Clone Wars TV series and comics. She is a recurring antagonist in the Star Wars franchise, appearing as a prominent antagonist in both the Canon and Legends continuities. In both continuities, Ventress is a Dark Jedi who's the apprentice and assassin of Count Dooku, and a commander of the Droid Army of the Confederacy of Independent Systems. She is also the (former) arch-enemy of Ahsoka Tano.

Asajj Ventress serves as the secondary antagonist of both the 2008 film, Star Wars The Clone Wars, and Season 1 of the TV series; as an anti-heroine in Seasons 3-5, and as one of the two main protagonists (alongside Quinlan Vos) of the novel Dark Disciple . Ventress also serves as a major antagonist in Star Wars Legends, where she is a member of the Dark Acolytes, and is a recurring antagonist in Star Wars: Republic .

In the animated micro-series Star Wars: Clone Wars, she was voiced by Grey DeLisle, who also voiced Gramma Stuffum in Codename: Kids Next Door . In the film and TV series Star Wars: The Clone Wars, she was voiced by Nika Futterman, who also voiced Silhouette in Destroy All Humans!, Zira in Disney's The Lion Guard, Catwoman and Lashina in Batman: The Brave and the Bold .

Early life

Asajj Ventress was born on the planet Dathomir to the Nightsisters Clan, an order of Force-sensitive witches who wielded the dark side. While Asajj was still an infant, the matriarch leader of the Nightsisters, Mother Talzin, was forced to give Ventress up from her birth mother to a Siniteen criminal named Hal'Sted as payment for protection of the clan. Hal'Sted took Ventress back to his home planet of Rattatak to raise her for several years until she became a toddler.

A few years later, a gang of Weequay pirates attacked Rattatak and Hal'Sted was killed in the ensuing chaos. A young Ventress discovered her master's body and wept with pirates eventually cornering her. She was rescued by a Jedi Knight named Ky Narec who was battling the pirate forces. Asajj managed to save Narec by tapping into her own Force potential and threw a pirate into the air.

Ky sensed the Force was strong in her, and took her into his care to train the child as a Jedi Padawan.

Becoming a Jedi

For years, Narec trained Asajj in the ways of the Force into her late teens and tutored her in lightsaber combat. She was orphaned once again when Weequay pirates attacked Rattatak again. Ventress and Narec fought bravely, but one of the pirates shot Narec in the back, killing him. Enraged, Ventress took up her master's lightsaber and ignited her own lightsaber and began killing off the pirates, eventually causing them to call off their attack. Consumed with fury and a desire for vengeance and raw emotions that led her to the dark side of the Force.

Ventress rid her world of warmongers and pirates and ruled Rattatak claiming the planet as her own. Sensing her power in the dark side, the Count of Serenno Dooku came to her planet and recruited Ventress to join him after seeing her in a battle in the gladiatorial pit fight eliminating all the contenders, as an apprentice and personal assassin. She still blamed the Jedi for abandoning her master and ignoring the suffering on her homeworld, vowing to destroy them. Tyranus took Ventress as one of his most valuable servants and began training her in the ways of the Sith. The Count introduced her to his Sith Master Darth Sidious and he stated to his apprentice that he had found a worthy disciple in Ventress. On Serenno in the Count's palace, Ventress pledged herself to Tyranus and impressed him with her strength in the dark side of the Force. Dooku trained her in lightsaber combat and was given twin red-bladed lightsabers that she obtained in a ceremony.

Dooku's Apprentice

Tasked by Darth Sidious, Ventress' first assignment as Dooku's apprentice was to kill a Jedi Padawan named Anakin Skywalker. She piloted her fanblade starfighter to Muunilinst where Jedi Knight Obi-Wan Kenobi and Anakin were caught in a battle against the Separatists led by Durge. Ventress then attacked Anakin and lured him off-world to the jungle moon of Yavin 4. Once there, she destroyed Anakin's starfighter and killed the escort clone garrison and Ventress fought against Anakin on the planet Yavin 4. The young Jedi dueled Ventress though the jungles that led to the ancient Massassi temples. While she pushed Anakin to the dark side, the duel ended when he grabbed her arm and disarmed one of her lightsabers and overpowered her and sent her falling off a cliff into a ravine but she survived.

During an early mission of the war, Ventress bribed a clone named Slick into betraying his allies and commanded battle droids on planet Christophsis. She later encountered Anakin, now a Jedi Knight, and his master, Obi-Wan Kenobi, and dueled them. The duel was a trick of hers meant to keep the Jedi distracted while Slick destroyed valuable stores and weapons crucial to the Republic's defense of Christophsis. During the duel, Ventress taunted the Jedi and used the Force to throw objects at them. The two Jedi defeated her, but she was able to escape when she jumped out of a window and landed on a large tri-droid. Ventress ordered Whorm Loathsom to march his droid forces into the city and keep the Jedi occupied while she left the planet and headed to Tatooine in her starship the Trident .

Star Wars: The Clone Wars Film

In a plot to turn Jabba the Hutt against the Republic, Count Dooku ordered Ventress to kidnap Jabba's son Rotta and frame the Jedi for the crime so the Hutts would join the Separatists. Ventress first traveled to Tatooine and destroyed one of the skiffs that were protecting Rotta's sail barge and used one of the ship's tentacles to grab the sail barge and fled to an abandoned monastery on Teth. Ventress held Rotta hostage on the planet Teth locking him in the dungeon and made contact through hologram with Tyranus and Lord Sidious who praised her success.

The Republic sent Anakin Skywalker accompanied by his new Padawan Ahsoka Tano to Teth where Ventress waited and remained hidden allowing the Jedi to rescue the Huttlet. She had the protocol droid 4A-7 record Anakin and Ahsoka manhandling the child making it seem the Jedi were the culprits behind the kidnapping. When the recording was sent to her master, Dooku ordered Ventress to retrieve the Hutt and to ensure success a droid legion and a squad of vulture droids landed on the planet for the battle. The droid army began their attack on the small Republic unit and the Jedi and some clones were forced to retreat inside the monastery and Ventress believed they were trapped.

The Dathomirian sliced the control consoles on the hangar door entering the hangar of the monastery and killed several clones before encountering Captain Rex who subdued him with the Force demanding to know where Skywalker was. The clone refused her interrogation and Ventress used a Force mind-trick to make contact with Anakin but failed to learn his whereabouts. Eventually Ventress reached the Jedi who were attempting to flee from a landing platform and engaged Ahsoka in a brief duel. The Padawan managed to hold her ground against the Sith Acolyte for a few moments before falling to the ground. Anakin Skywalker later rescued Ahsoka and attacked Ventress with help from a flying can-cell. The two Jedi quickly escaped the mesa with Rotta and fled the planet on a derelict transport ship called the Twilight .

Ventress made contact with her master informing him of her failure before becoming distracted by the arrival of Obi-Wan Kenobi who led the reinforcements. Obi-Wan and his clone squadron helped retake the monastery and encountered Ventress in the darkness of the edifice. Both Ventress and Kenobi dueled throughout the monastery ending on a catwalk and Obi-wan was able to defeat Ventress disarming her of one of her lightsabers. The Dathomirian was forced to retreat and escaped by jumping onto a passing vulture droid starfighter. Continuing the scheme, Dooku met with Jabba in his throne room and presented a hologram of Ventress explaining that Anakin Skywalker was on his way and that he killed Rotta which angered the Hutt. Darth Tyranus told Ventress and Jabba that he would deal with the Jedi himself but stated to his acolyte she would pay for her failure.

Dark Side Assassin

On the moon of Rugosa, Dooku sent Ventress to Toydaria to negotiate an alliance between the Toydarian King Katuunko and the Separatists. King Kantuunko had a planned meeting with Grandmaster Yoda but Ventress sabotaged his starship and crash-landed on the coral moon with three clones accompanying him from Coruscant. The Dathomirian proposed a wager to the King that she would prove the Confederacy were more superior by capturing Master Yoda and if he escaped the King would join the Republic. Kantuunko allowed Ventress the wager against Master Yoda, pledging to side with whoever won.

Ventress remained by the King's side while she deployed the droid army to hunt and eliminate Yoda, monitoring his progress through hologram. Yoda managed to defeat Ventress and her forces easily, and rendezvoused with King Kantuunko who decided to join the Republic as the Dark Acolyte ignored the fair conditions of the wager. Dooku through hologram ordered Ventress to kill the king and replacing him with a Separatist installed leader, but Yoda stopped Ventress from assassinating the king using the Force to stop her lightsabers in mid-air. Ventress had no choice but to flee in her ship by detonating explosions near a rock ridge. Tyranus was disappointed with his acolyte and developed a grudge against the Toydarian King.

Later, Dooku sent Ventress to intercept the Republic warship Tranquility and rescue Trade Federation Viceroy Nute Gunray. She killed the first few clones on board, but was confronted by Ahsoka and Jedi Master Luminara Unduli. During the fight, she managed to blind Luminara in her left eye, and quickly fled. She regrouped with traitorous Senate Commando Captain Faro Argyus and freed Gunray. The trio made their way to an escape pod before the two Jedi caught up with Ventress, leaving the two Jedi to watch as their escape pod blasted off into space. Argyus then attempted to discredit Ventress, but Ventress quickly killed him and escaped with Gunray into space.

Ventress was later sent to the planet Kamino to spy on the cloning facilities from underwater as part of a plan for the cyborg General Grievous to invade Kamino and destroy the cloning facilities, thus preventing the Republic from producing more clones. Although Grievous failed the first part of the plan, he returned with Ventress and her droids emerged on squid-like vehicles out of the ocean attacking the facility. Grievous' mission was to destroy as many clones as possible to halt the production of new ones, while Asajj Ventress aimed to steal the original clone DNA sample of Jango Fett. They were met with Jedi resistance, however. While the 501st Legion prepare to fight, Grievous and his battle droids swarm Tipoca

City, while Ventress infiltrates the storage chamber and managed to steal the clone DNA but was confronted by Anakin and she clashed with him while Obi-Wan clashed with Grievous. Ventress was defeated by Anakin who took the DNA, but when she tried to Force pull it out of Anakin's hands, a clone quickly grabbed it as she was Force-pulling. Anakin and his troopers cornered Ventress and ordered the Clones to execute her, but Ventress Force pushed the clones away and jumped onto Grievous' passing escape pod and escaped Kamino.

Betrayed

As the Clone Wars drew to a close, Darth Sidious sensed Ventress growing more powerful in the Force and contacted his apprentice ordering him to kill his dark acolyte. During the battle, Asajj attacked a Republic warship over the planet Sullust, facing a vastly superior Republic fleet commanded by Anakin and Obi-Wan. The Jedi decimated her troops and shot her down, forcing her to crash-land in the Separatist flagship's hangar.

Injured, she contacts Dooku begging him for reinforcements, but he refused to assist her, claiming that she had failed him for the last time and that she was no longer his apprentice and now must die. Left alone to fend for herself against the Jedi, Ventress refused to surrender, battling Anakin and Obi-Wan at the same time. Unknown to the three of them, Dooku had ordered the nearest Separatist cruiser to fire upon the very ship they were on. In an act of desperation, injured by the crash, Ventress savagely Force choked both Anakin and Obi-Wan into submission. A nearby explosion broke her concentration, and the Jedi disarmed her. As a wrecked ship crashed into the hangar, Ventress was able to make an escape. When the cruiser exploded, Dooku assumed Ventress was dead.

In reality, Ventress narrowly escaped in her damaged ship just before the flagship exploded, though she was knocked unconscious. Her ship floated through a graveyard of ships when a scavenger ship picked her up. Ventress told them to take her to Dathomir, but they refused. In response, Ventress Force choked them to death and flew the ship to Dathomir. Upon arrival, she was surrounded by Nightsisters warriors, but was stopped by Mother Talzin, who recognized her and took her to the Nightsister village here she was born. Asajj collapsed into her arms and was carried inside by the sisters. Talzin read her mind, and Ventress relived her past up to the point of Dooku betraying her. Ventress then swore revenge on the Count, and Talzin enlisted two Nightsister warriors to help Ventress kill him. Talzin also gave Ventress and her partners a potion to make them invisible, as well as lightsabers and a poison dart. Ventress and her two warriors then left for the Separatist planet Serenno to kill Dooku.

The Nightsisters' attempt to destroy Dooku in his palace failed when he unleashed a blast of Force lightning, sending them through a window and off a cliff. Ventress recovered herself and was able to save her accomplices using the Force and she ordered a retreat - her revenge had to wait. The three survived and returned to Dathomir, where Ventress reported their failure to Talzin. But the Clan Mother saw an opportunity with Dooku vulnerable he would be eager to protect himself with a new apprentice. After Count Dooku visited Dathomir and instructed Talzin to bring him a new apprentice, the Nightsisters plot to find a Nightbrother from the same village that produced a former Sith Lord. Mother Talzin sent Ventress to the other side of the planet to find a member of the Nightbrother clan to act as Dooku's new apprentice. An apprentice that the sisters will control and unleash on the Count when the time was right.

To find a suitable candidate for Dooku's apprentice, Asajj tested the Nightbrothers. She faced their best warriors in brutal combat until only one remained a Nightbrother named Savage Opress. Ventress took him back to the fortress where the Nightsisters used their magics to empower him with the dark side of the Force, transforming him into a gigantic warrior and rippling with muscles. Savage reflexively clutched Ventress' throat surprising her but she used the Force to command him to release her. For his final test, Savage's brother Feral was brought in and Ventress ordered him to kill Feral and carried out the brutal act. The Nightsisters present Opress to Dooku, who took him back to Serreno with him.

Anakin and Obi-Wan discovered Savage Opress was from Dathomir and visited the Nightsisters where Mother Talzin told the Jedi where his next location would be. After the Jedi left, Talzin told Ventress that her plot to use Savage to kill Dooku must be put into effect immediately. Though Asajj felt he was not ready, she made her way to Dooku's Separatist frigate and touched Savage's forehead, recalling the memory of his allegiance to her. Together, they teamed up against Dooku. When Opress was wounded by Dooku's Force lightning, Ventress angrily told him to get up and kill Dooku, calling him a fool repeatedly. Opress refused, finding his strength and attacked Ventress and Dooku with a Force choke. The three battled until Dooku escaped down a hatch followed by Asajj but Savage was too big to follow. Ventress pursued Dooku and fought him again, but failed to defeat him and fled. Ventress quickly took advantage of the chaos on board the frigate and escaped by ejecting from the ship in an escape pod. Ventress glared at Dooku's frigate briefly before her escape pod jettisoned and vanished into space.

Having harbored a grudge against Ventress and Talzin since their attempt on his life, Dooku monitored his former apprentice's movements and learned of her return to Dathomir. Ventress formally rejoined her clan undergoing a Rebirth Ritual to signify her allegiance. Dooku targeted the Nightsisters and dispatched General Grevious and his droid army to massacre Ventress, Mother Talzin, and the Nightsisters. Despite their best efforts, Ventress and Mother Talzin were the only survivors with the Clan Mother telling Ventress to leave the planet and find her own path, believing she is the only remaining sister.

Bounty Hunter and Unexpected Alliances

Ventress decided to make a living as a bounty hunter and went to Tatooine. After killing Oked, Ventress took his place on a mission led by Boba Fett to protect a chest on a train which, when opened, reveals a young Kage girl held captive inside. Ventress double-crosses Fett and frees the girl named Pluma who was suppose to be delivered to the Belugan Lord Otua Blank, who wanted her as his bride. Ventress altered the deal when the girl served as an unexpected twist arose in a bounty hunter team-up with Boba Fett.

Later discovering a bounty on Savage Opress, Ventress hunts down the Nightbrother. Her search lead her to Opress and Darth Maul, who were holding Obi-Wan Kenobi hostage. She then rescued the Jedi from Maul and Savage. Ventress and Kenobi joined forces, barely escaping with their lives and Obi-Wan tried to enlist her, but Asajj refused. After making her way to the under levels of Coruscant, Ventress began once again taking up the profession of bounty hunter, sporting a new voice disfiguring helmet. After Ahsoka Tano's expulsion from the Jedi Order, Ventress encountered the fallen Padawan on Level 1213 of the underworld, capturing her and intent on turning her in after she escaped from a Republic prison. Ultimately, however, she decided to help Ahsoka, as she hated the Jedi more than she wanted the bounty. Ventress was later interrogated by Anakin, who thought she had framed Ahsoka. Ventress helped Anakin clear Ahsoka of treason charges by providing clues that lead to the true culprit's identity fallen Jedi Barriss Offee.

Final Unexpected Alliance and Redemption

Ventress partnered with pirate Lassa Rhayme to pull a job on a competing pirate, Hondo Ohnaka. The Jedi Order partnered former master Quinlan Vos with Ventress to assassinate Count Dooku. The two fell in love, and Ventress trained Vos in the ways of the dark side, but cautioned him only to use it as a weapon to kill Dooku. When Vos fell to the dark side completely under Dooku's influence, Ventress vowed to save him. With help from bounty hunter Boba Fett, she infiltrated Dooku's hideout, where she found that Dooku had brainwashed Vos and was using him as a minion. Vos accused Ventress of betrayal and engaged his former lover in a brutal duel from which she was forced to retreat. Left with no other options, she appealed to her old nemeses Anakin and Obi-Wan, who reluctantly agreed to help her in order to save Vos.

The trio infiltrated Dooku's hideout and managed to free Vos, who had repented of the dark side after reconnecting with Ventress. She appeared before the Jedi Council, who pardoned her war crimes in appreciation for rescuing Vos. She then resumed her relationship with Vos. He enlisted her in a plot to kill Dooku and his master Darth Sidious, but they were captured by the former before they could put their plan into action. When Dooku attacked Vos with Force lightning, Ventress shoved him away and jumped in the front of the blast, sacrificing her life so he could escape. Vos took her body back to Dathomir to be laid to rest with her sisters in the pools of her village.

White Lightning

History

White Lightning blazed into the town of Manchester, Alabama with a motorcycle, an attitude and a smile. Immediately, she set upon what would become a whirlwind of a crime spree. She established her own Internet website, which served as a recruiting station for those lucky enough to become members in her gang. She likewise held public rallies throughout the town, but they were always held at a secret location, and never at the same place twice. White Lightning recruited male underlings from the various high schools in the area, and there was never a shortage of agreeable young men who longed to ride in her shadow.

White Lightning's first mission in Manchester involved robbing a local public access television studio; she stormed onto the set in the middle of a Scooter the Funosaur telethon, and held the plush-filled children's host at gunpoint. The local super-hero known as Impulse used his super-speed and ran down to the studio, where he faced White Lightning and her goons. He managed to easily apprehend the untrained followers, but White Lightning succeeded in eluding his grasp.

Only a short time had passed before White Lightning met Impulse's alter ego, Bart Allen. White Lightning held a public rally at the Manchester Fairgrounds and beckoned several eager teens from Manchester Junior High School to join her gang. Dressed in civilian attire, Impulse attempted to infiltrate White Lightning's gang as a new recruit. Lightning liked the boy's energy and enthusiasm, but had reservations about his usefulness to her operation.

White Lightning's next criminal venture involved raiding the nearby Minhota Reservation Casino. She made a showy entrance by crashing her motorcycle through the window and landing in the center of the gambling hall; Bart Allen was present, and quickly changed into Impulse. One of the security guards withdrew his weapon and fired a shot towards the back of White Lightning's head. Impulse ran up to her and pushed Lightning out of harm's way, causing the entire hall to erupt into chaos. Impulse had to race around the room, protecting innocent gamblers from Lightning's goon-squad, allowing the sultry villainess time to make her getaway.

Deker: I can tell. Salem was just doing what she thought was right from her heart.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah she was and I felt bad for her. We didn't know she was doing that to bring Ozma back.

Cayenne: And the gods of Remnant punished her for it. How awful.

Nunnally: Are you like a Jekyll & Hyde pony?

Raven (MLP): That's a good way to describle it but yes I am very much a Jekyll and Hyde Pony. The side you see before you is my good side because of my sweet and loving nature. But my bad side is cruel and unrepentatent. So I'm just telling you.

Nunnally: A split-personality alicorn. That's really interesting. But thanks for warning me.

Elie: I heard so many big things about you Asajj. You did all kinds of things both as a Jedi and as a Sith.

Ventress: Indeed. They are the most amazing things I've ever done. But being a Sith is where it's at. I heard that Anakin was in the corruption of the Dark Side of the Force.

Elie: He was. And because of Palpatine he slaughtered most of the Jedi and brought the entire Jedi Order to the razors edge of extinction and the galaxy in total chaos.

Ventress: I see. So Palpatine turned on Dooku and all that.

Elie: He sure did and it was awful.

Ventress: I know. And Dooku turned on me.

Elie: Awful. By the way, what planet do you come from? I'm curious.

Ventress: I'm from the planet Dathomir.

Elie: I heard that's Darth Maul's planet.

Ventress: Indeed. (Ignites her red lightsabers)

Elie ignited her pink blade lightsaber.

Elie: I'm still learning all about this and the ways of the Force so go easy on me.

Ventress: As you wish.

They went at each other and clashed powerfully with incredible speed and swordsmanship skills. Even though Elie was not trained in the ways of the Jedi she was learning really well.

They were clashing all over and Elie was doing well and then she concentrated and held out her hand and blasted Ventress back with a Force blast.

Elie: WHOA! I'm learning fast.

Ventress: Amazing! The Force works in mysterious ways. But you are a really fast learner.

Elie: I'm not fully learned like you are. I still have a lot to learn about all this.

Ventress: Understood. But you did really well for your first time against me.

Elie: I sure did.

Frosta: You didn't have lightning powers or psychic powers when I read about you.

White Lightning: My powers have evolved a lot.

Frosta: Wow! That's awesome!

Frosta fired ice blasts and pinned White Lightning down.

Frosta: Yeah!

We got the battles done.

Me: That was awesome!

Nico: Yeah it was!

Tracer: I always get a good thrill out of all this.

The Overwatch alarm sounded.

Computer: Intruder detected at 180˚ South and moving at 175 miles per hour.

Me: Right on time. Lets go!

We went at out in the courtyard we saw The Imakandi.

Me: Knew you guys would be on your way here.

Orion: Sorry to keep you guys waiting.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Hyperjet Squad!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Jetman Rangers.

Me: The hunt is done!

Nico: Lets give them a good fight!

Samurai Jack: Lets do it!

We went at them and they went at us and we fought them with incredible speed and agility and more and all that and they did the same. Imakandi 2 fired a mosquito from a blowdart pipe and I grabbed it.

Me: Hmm. So this is how they knock out some of their prey. Very genius.

Kraven: (Russian Accent) Let us see who is the best hunter!

Stalker: And the hunt will begin.

Kraven: Lets do it!

They went at him and the Imakandi dodged their strikes with amazing speed and agility.

Imakandi 3 fired an arrow at me.

Me: Uh oh!

I grabbed the arrow and he smirked and I saw that it was a snake arrow!

I threw it away and blasted it.

Me: Nice try!

Imakandi 4 threw his spears and they landed in between Lincoln and activated an electric wall and he absorbed all the electricity.

Lincoln: Good try though.

Skullcruncher: Wow! Their teamwork is phenomenal! Lets see how they like our teamwork!

Poison Ivy: Lets do it!

Skullcruncher, Poison Ivy, Cyborg and Warpath all used the Animatron, Earth and Gigantion Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Skullcruncher's Demolecularization Gun, Poison Ivy's plant powers, Cyborg's powers and Warpath's Thermal Shells 100-fold.

Skullcruncher and Poison Ivy: PLANT MOLECULAR BLAST!

Skullcruncher fired his gun and Poison Ivy fired vines.

Cyborg and Warpath: THERMAL SONIC BLAST!

Cyborg fired a massive blast of sonic energy and Warpath fired thermal shells.

Kraven, Stalker, Me, Varie, Vince, Naruto, Sakura, Fu, Lincoln, Laney, Lisa, Lily, Samurai Jack and Jessie Bannon: HUNTERS OF JUSTICE BLAST!

We fired a powerful blast of energy and it hit the Imakandi and knocked them down and we tied them up.

Me: You guys gave us a great hunt the last time. We weren't called Team Loud Phoenix Storm back then and there was only 12 of us.

Imakandi 1: Yes. Like back then you all have given us the greatest hunt we have ever been on. It was one we will remember for many generations to come.

Me: It will always be great to us.

Nico: Yeah and it was fun.

I cut them free.

Imakandi 1: You are letting us go?

Samurai Jack: Why not? We did so the last time.

Rojo: Plus, you gave the others a fun time with that chase.

Deker: But before you guys go, we have a job for you.

Stinky Butt got out a picture of the Mean 6.

Stinky Butt: These are evil versions of Twilight and the others.

Vortex: If you see them, kill them on sight.

Imakandi 1: Normally that goes against our code for the thrill of the hunt but for you guys, we will gladly do it.

Me: We gave you guys a great hunt like last time and we gave you another one now. Besides, you are the greatest of all hunters in the galaxy.

Imakandi 1: Thank you J.D. Thank you.

We shook hands. And the Imakandi went back to Savana.

We made new friends.

Me: That was an awesome hunt.

Nico: Yes it was.

Stalker: That was a hunt worthy of remembrance.

Lincoln: It sure was.

Laney: I had a lot of fun on this.

Fluttershy: Thank goodness no creature died.

Me: You got that right.

Samurai Jack: (To the viewers) It's best to hunt on TV than in real life. That way no creatures can die. But I hope you all liked this one.

Me: I sure did.

---

Later me and Maxxine were over in Kenya to find another Black Ghost Base. We were flying towards Mount Kenya.

Maxxine: Thanks for inviting me here. It's not everyday me, Rice, Kendra, and Georgina help you on missions.

Me: Anytime Maxxine. It's also gonna be cool for us to destroy a Black Ghost base here in Kenya. My scans show that it's in a cave somewhere near Mount Kenya.

Maxxine: We should be just about there.

Me: I think I see the cave.

Maxxine: That's it.

I scanned it and it showed that it was the cave that went into a Black Ghost Base.

Me: Lets do it.

Maxxine: Going Queen Nail!

I covered my eyes and Maxxine took off her clothes and turned into Queen Nail.

We fired energy blasts and lasers and left and the base was destroyed in a huge explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The base was destroyed and dead. Maxxine reverted back and I gave her back her clothes.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

The Imakandi from the Samurai Jack episode Jack and the Hunters were some of the toughest and most formidable adversaries ever and they were awesome. Just like before during the Brave 12 Saga, we gave them a great hunt. But we weren't called Team Loud Phoenix Storm back then and there was only 12 of us and our powers and skills have increased a lot since then. But this was a great chapter and the episode aired on September 13th, 2002 and it was awesome. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe, Drako1234658 and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a major league dangerous and awesome aquatic adventure as we get word that the Tentacool and Tentacruel from Pokemon episode 19 are gonna be on a rampage because of that witch Nastina and we're gonna make sure she pays for her crimes big time. She messes with the rights of Pokemon and we will mess with her! BIG TIME!

See you all tomorrow.

Attack of the Killer Jellyfish Pokemon

We found the keys of Honesty and Justice for Applejack and Nico. Nico found his key when he was solving the case of one of the most dangerous serial killers ever known and he brought him to justice. Applejack got her key when she found out that when the Flim-Flam Brothers escaped from prison, they were selling a tonic that was really made with fruit juice, and thanks to her honest she exposed the Flim-Flam Brothers for their con and got their apprentice to turn on them as well as put them back in jail. We had 10 of the 12 keys. All that was left are Magic and Valor.

Later we were over in the famous Restaurant Row of Canterlot and it was a majorly bustling and very popular restaurant area. Lots of creatures from far and wide go there to eat and it's awesome. We even had them introduce foods from Earth and more. We were over at the Smokey Oat. It was a great barbecue restaurant and all that. I was having smoked ribs and vegetables. It was great.

Android 21: This is a nice restaurant.

Me: All the restaurants in Canterlot are nice from what I remember and the food is absolutely exquisite.

Mary K.: That's a great way to say it.

Rarity: Indeed. Glad you're feeling better Mary.

Mary K.: Thanks Rarity and it's great to be back in action. I'm still gonna be tasting chocolate pudding and fish for a while though.

Nico: Sorry you got sick though.

Mary K.: It's not your fault guys but thank you.

Nico: No problem.

War Machine: So, you've been here before, right?

Me: Many times actually. But the most amazing time was during a friendship mission we had here.

Mary K.: Me, dad, Rarity and Pinkie Pie were called in to Canterlot to figure out a Friendship Problem with the Tasty Treat Indian Restaurant. It was an awesome adventure.

Me: Oh yeah. That was a great mission. It was right after we took down Pazuzu.

---

Me: I wonder where the Map will call us too next.

Nico: We'll find out shortly.

Varie: I can't wait.

The map came on and it showed Fluttershy and Twilight in Appleoosa, then Rainbow Dash and Pinkie Pie in Las Pegasus, then Rainbow Dash and Twilight in Yakyakistan. Then Twilight and Twilight in her castle!? What!?

Pinkie Pie : Fluttershy and Twilight in Appleloosa! No, me and Rainbow Dash in Las Pegasus! No, Rainbow Dash and Twilight in Yakyakistan! No, Twilight and Twilight in Twilight's castle!

Me: There must still be a couple of bugs in it.

Varie: Yeah.

Then we saw Mary, Me, Pinkie Pie and Rarity's cutie marks.

Pinkie Pie: Oh. Me! Me! Oh, me… and Rarity!

Me: And me and Mary.

Mary K.: I'm going on a Friendship Mission!? WOW! The map never called me before.

Me: This is gonna be so awesome!

Mary's cutie mark looked like a Chef's hat with the Earth on it and a gold medal around it.

Pinkie Pie: Ooh! I hope it's some faraway place that nopony has gone before!

Me: Me too.

Rarity : [chuckles nervously] Well, maybe not too far away. An adventure somewhere that has modern conveniences would be preferable.

Our cutie marks were over Canterlot in our Estate!

Rarity: [gasps] Canterlot! This is wonderful! I can check the boutique! Perhaps there'll be some social events that we can attend! [gasps] I'll have to pack extra outfits! What will I wear?!

Pinkie Pie : Y'know, some ponies get excited about the silliest things.

Me: I know. But that's Rarity for you. She told us that she is a Canterlot Pony at heart. But that's cool.

Lori: Just like me. I've always been a city girl at heart.

Nico: That's cool.

---

Next we were over in Canterlot.

Rarity : [sighs] Now then, as far as finding a friendship problem, I suggest we start at the castle and begin to question the proper-

Pinkie Pie : Oh, Rarity, you don't find a friendship problem. It finds you . We just need to go with the flow, and eventually, kablam! We get friendship problem'd right between the eyes.

Me: That's right Rarity. When Starlight and me had our Friendship Problem with the Princesses, it was something we had to figure out. It was a challenge but we did it.

Mary K.: That was an awesome adventure from what I heard.

Nico: It sure was.

Rarity : Well, yes but this is a team effort, so if you feel we should go with the flow, then with the flow we shall go.

Me: Good idea.

Laney: This is gonna be interesting.

Rarity: But where's the flow saying we should go?

Pinkie Pie : You know Canterlot. What do you think we should do?

Me: Yeah you know this whole city pretty much like the back of your hand. Or hoof rather.

Rarity : Hm. Take your pick. Culture, couture, cuisine! [stomach rumbling]

Our stomachs were growling.

Me: Oh I guess we're really hungry.

Rarity : Oh, my. Well, it sounds like your stomach is saying we should flow towards some lunch?

Nico: Yeah it has been a while. I'm really hungry.

Rarity: I know just where to go.

Varie: We'll follow you.

We arrived at the most amazing fine dining strip in all of Equestria, Restaurant Row.

Rarity : Restaurant Row, the absolute best place for fine dining in all of Equestria!

Lola: Wow! Look at all the restaurants!

Lori: There's literally so many of them.

Overhaul: I've never seen so many restaurants lined up all like this.

Me: They're usually lined up like this in strip malls and all that. It's quite common.

Pinkie Pie : Ooh, so many choices! Where should we go? This one? That one? Those ones?

She pointed to a bunch of restaurants.

Rarity : Any establishments that have this - the three-hoof rating.

Me: Three Hoof Rating? I've heard of Three Stars but never that.

Pinkie Pie : Um, whose hooves?

Rarity : Why, Zesty Gourmand, the Queen of Cuisine. When it comes to food, she is the ultimate authority in Canterlot and thus all Equestria. She judges a restaurant on cuisine, decor, and presentation. Without her approval, a restaurant simply cannot survive.

Mary K.: That sounds just like the Zagat Survey Rating System.

Rarity: Zagat?

Me: Tim and Nina Zagat invented it. It's a rating system that shows how grand restaurants are.

Mary K.: They travel all over the planet and rate the best restaurants from 1 to 5 stars.

Mary went over their history.

---

The Zagat Survey , commonly referred to as Zagat, (stylized in all caps; /zəˈɡæt/, zə-GAT ) was established by Tim and Nina Zagat in 1979 as a way to collect and correlate the ratings of restaurants by diners; for their first guide, covering New York City, the Zagats surveyed their friends. At its height, ca. 2005, the Zagat Survey included 70 cities, with reviews based on the input of 250,000 individuals with the guides reporting on and rating restaurants, hotels, nightlife, shopping, zoos, museums, music, movies, theaters, golf courses, and airlines. The guides are sold in book form, and were formerly only available as a paid subscription on the Zagat website.

As part of its more than $150 million acquisition by Google in September 2011, Zagat 's offering of reviews and ratings became a part of Google's Geo and Commerce group, eventually to be tightly integrated into Google's services. Google relaunched Zagat 's website on July 29, 2013 with an improved interface, but cut down the site from 30 cities to nine. They released a searchable database of reviews from the other 21 cities in the following days while they worked on expanding to include more cities in the new site. In December 2012, Google announced that it would lay off most former full-time Zagat employees that had been extended as contractors at the time of the acquisition, leading to prophetic business reports describing the future of Zagat book production as bleak, and subsequent business news reports recording the contraction of their print businesses. Regardless, Google's acquisition and integration of Zagat provided it with a strong brand in local restaurant recommendations and ample content for location-based searches.

On March 6, 2018, Google sold the company to restaurant discovery platform The Infatuation for an undisclosed amount.

Rarity: Wow! That's interesting.

Pinkie Pie : What's so important about her approval?

Rarity : Zesty grew up around fine dining, and everypony hangs on her every word when it comes to cuisine.

Jared: That's interesting.

Mary K.: I've known all about culinary ratings and all that. I am a chef after all.

Pinkie Pie : Wow! Then the food here must be amazing! Lead the way, partner! Whee! [giggles]

We went into a restaurant.

We were presented a great dish of prime minister level cuisine.

Rarity : [gasps] Oh, my! Such presentation.

Me: Ooh very luxurious and exquisite.

He gave us our plates.

We ate them.

Me: Mmm.

Jared: Exquisite.

Rarity: Mm. Oh. [smacks lips] Ah. Yes. Very nice… [ploink!]

Pinkie Pie : Nom nom nom. [gulps, gags] Maybe, I'm not in the mood for… [whispers] whatever this is. Can we try someplace else?

Me: It's still good though.

We were at another restaurant and tried something else.

Pinkie Pie : Nom nom. Ugh. Maybe one more stop?

Me: Okay.

We were at another restaurant and tried something else.

Pinkie Pie : Blech! Nope.

We were outside.

Pinkie Pie : Maybe instead of trusting somepony else's hooves, I should pick the next place?

Me: I think that's a great idea.

Rarity : Ugh! Very well.

She was sniffing around and then she smelled something great.

Pinkie Pie : [sniffing, gasps]

Me: What is it Pinkie?

She had us follow her and we smelled it.

Me: (Sniffs) Ooh! I know that smell anywhere.

Mary K.: Me too dad. That's Indian Cuisine.

Nico: Oh boy.

Vince: This is gonna be interesting.

We went down an ally and we saw a restaurant called the Tasty Treat. It was an Authentic Indian Cuisine Restaurant.

Rarity : The Tasty Treat.

Me: Ooh this looks interesting.

Rarity: It's very… rustic. [whispers] It looks like it hasn't even been rated.

Me: Ah rating sometimes has no meaning as long as the food is good.

Pinkie Pie : Thank goodness! Hee-hee!

We went in and we saw that it was a 100% authentic Indian Restaurant.

[door closes]

[Middle Eastern music plays]

We saw that it was a beautiful restaurant that has an awesome Indian Flare.

Apu: (Indian Accent) Oh I feel like I am back in India.

Raj: (Indian Accent) Me too. This is one of the most authentic Indian Restaurants that I've ever seen.

Me: Makes me feel like we're back in Calcutta.

Lori: It literally does.

Rarity : Are we sure they're open?

Me: The sign said so.

Pinkie Pie : [sniffs deeply] Mmmm. It smells open.

[clattering]

Saffron Masala : (Indian Accent) Oh! Are you here for lunch?

Pinkie Pie : Yes, indeedy!

Me: (Speaking Indian) नमस्ते। हां हम यहां लंच के लिए हैं। (Hello there. Yes we are here for lunch.)

Saffron Masala : I'm Saffron Masala, the chef here at The Tasty Treat, the most exotic cuisine in Canterlot.

Me: Pleasure to meet you.

Saffron Masala: (Gasp) The famous J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor!

Mary K.: Pleasure is ours.

Saffron Masala: Would you like to hear about the specials?

Rarity : We're actually in a bit of a hur-

Pinkie Pie : Yes, please!

Saffron Masala : We have a curried oat cake.

Mary K.: Ooh! That sounds delicious.

Jared: I'll try one.

Pinkie Pie : We'll take one!

Saffron Masala : Uh, and a grass sandwich that has been marinated overnight in a mustard Dijon dressing.

Laney: Ooh! That sounds tasty.

Pinkie Pie : How can you say no to that ?

S affron Masala : A-And for you?

Rarity : Oh, me? Oh, I'm fine. Thank you. [aside, singsong, to Pinkie] No rating.

Me: Trust us Rarity. This food is good. We humans like it and so will you.

Nico: Trust us.

Pinkie Pie : [sighs]

Coriander Cumin : [sighs, grumbling in Hindi]

Pinkie Pie : Hiya! What's your name?

Coriander Cumin : (Indian Accent) Coriander Cumin.

Me: Hello good sir.

He saw me.

Coriander Cumin: Wow! The famous J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Pleasure is ours.

Pinkie Pie : Are you a chef here too?

Coriander Cumin : My daughter cooks. I host.

Pinkie Pie : Then why are you stacking chairs?

Coriander Cumin : Without customers, I have nopony to host for.

So I stack!

Me: Actually we're your customers.

Saffron Masala : Father, stop it! Don't close up the restaurant around our guests.

Coriander Cumin : What does it matter?! When they leave, nopony else will be coming in!

Saffron Masala : Well, your attitude isn't going to bring anyone in! Can't you at least pretend to be positive?!

Pinkie Pie ate her meal and it was really tasty!

Pinkie Pie : [slurps] So good!

I tried the bread and it was delicious!

Me: Mmm! So tasty.

We all tried it and it was amazing!

Nico: (Eating) Mmm! So delicious.

Coriander Cumin : You are doing enough pretending for the both of us. Nopony here wants to try anything new! I know when to throw in the towel!

Mary K.: Dad are you thinking what I'm thinking?

Me: Yeah I think so too.

Rarity : Um, Pinkie, perhaps we should excuse ourselves.

Pinkie Pie : [muffled speaking] Oh, Rarity, try this!

She gave her a part of her meal and it was tasty.

Rarity : [munches] Ooh!

Saffron Masala : Maybe if you would listen to my ideas for once…

Coriander Cumin : Oh, yes! I did not move halfway across Equestria for my daughter that I never listen to!

Pinkie Pie : [spits] Rarity, I think that friendship problem just kablammed us right between the eyes!

Me: Just what I was thinking. We found our Friendship Problem.

Nico: We sure did.

Rarity : These two? Oh, I don't know, darling. The food is excellent, but I'm not sure there's much you and I can do to help them.

Me: It's a father daughter relationship and that is a friendship problem.

Coriander Cumin : [scoffs] What would you have me do? We can't even get Zesty Gourmand to come to our restaurant. She took one look at how empty it was and said it wasn't even worth rating!

Me: That witch.

Nico: Hmm we're gonna have to have a very serious talk with this Zesty Gourmand later on.

Rarity : That's it!

Pinkie Pie : Yes! Uh, what's it?

Rarity : The flow has led us here! This is our mission! [to Saffron and Coriander] We are going to get you a three-hoof rating and save your restaurant! I can get Zesty Gourmand here!

Me: You can Rarity?

Pinkie Pie : [gasps] And I can pack this place with ponies!

Me: Cool!

Coriander Cumin : Hmph. And how do you intend to do such a thing?

Me: We're Team Loud Phoenix Storm. You know all about our adventures and we can do anything.

Pinkie Pie and Rarity : Just leave it to us!

Everyone: AND US!

He was packing plates.

Saffron Masala : Father, will you please stop packing things?!

Coriander Cumin : When the lovely pony comes back and says she couldn't convince Zesty Gourmand to come visit us, we will need to pack all this up. I am just getting a head start.

Nico: Sir just be patient.

Pinkie Pie : You really don't know Rarity.

Rarity : [singsong] I've done it!

Pinkie Pie : See?

Rarity : It took all of my charm and cajoling, but I was able to convince Zesty Gourmand to come and try the food!

Me: All right!

Coriander Cumin : What is the catch?

Rarity : Ah, yes. Well, um, there is a bit of a challenge. The only time she could make herself available is tonight.

Coriander Cumin : Pfft. Oh, yeah, right.

Saffron Masala : What is it?

Me: We're gonna be in for a challenge with this one.

Rarity : Zesty rates a restaurant on cuisine, decor, and presentation, and she has very specific tastes. If she's coming tonight, there is quite a bit of work that needs to get done.

Pinkie Pie : Like what?

Rarity : Oh, a tweak here, a tuck there, some slight modifications to the menu. [laughs nervously] We just need the place to feel more cosmopolitan.

Me: We have to give it a lot of thought. Is Zesty Gourmand is as sophisticated as I think she is, then this is gonna be a challenge.

Coriander Cumin : Pfft.

Saffron Masala : Father, after Rarity went to all of this trouble for us, can't we at least try?

Me: (Whispers to Saffron) Your father is really stubborn isn't he?

Saffron Masala: (Whispers to me) You have no idea.

Rarity : Why don't I stay behind with Coriander to get the restaurant ready for Zesty's arrival? You and Saffron can try and drum up some business.

Pinkie Pie : One packed restaurant, coming right up!

Lily: I can help with the menu items.

Saffron Masala: Really?

Mary K.: And so can I.

Mary got on her Chef uniform.

Mary K.: Chef Mary Alison Knudson at your service!

Saffron Masala: Amazing!

Rarity : Coriander, I understand your trepidation. But I promise you, we will get those hooves by making this place feel just like all of the other restaurants on Restaurant Row! [door shuts]

Saffron Masala : [sighs] I hope my father doesn't drive Rarity crazy.

Nico: Don't worry Saffron.

Pinkie Pie : It'll be fine. Rarity's gonna make sure that The Tasty

Treat is the most unique and beautiful restaurant in Canterlot!

Me: Rarity is a master at decoration and cleaning. She makes amazing clothes and makes all of us feel like we're in the lap of luxury.

Pinkie Pie: Yeah! Not like all of those stuffy places on Restaurant Row.

Me: Yeah!

[Rarity]

Here's what I know:

If you want to succeed

You must follow the trends, that's the key

(She showed a series of cards that had rating guidelines)

If you want to show

That you've got what it takes

You must be what they want you to be

(A bunch of professional decorators came in and they got to work right away.)

[Pinkie Pie]

Here's what I know:

Your food is so good

The flavor's so fancy and free

You just need to show

That unique sense of taste

Go on, be yourself, let them see

(They were doing advertising)

[Pinkie Pie and Rarity]

It's gonna work

I know it's gonna work

It's gonna work out just fine, trust me

It's gonna work

I swear it's gonna work

It's gonna work out just fine, you'll see!

(Pinkie Pie and Saffron Masala were handing out menus and advertisements.)

[Rarity]

You need to change

If you want to compete

But fear not, for I know what to do

(Rarity put Coriander Cumin in a fancy suit)

I know it feels strange

But trust me, when we're done

We'll make sure that you're a hit, too

(He tried some fancy Indian Horderves

[Pinkie Pie]

Don't ever change

Being different is good

Don't let what others do be your cue

Never rearrange

'Cause somepony said you should

Just trust your heart, it will know what to do

[Pinkie Pie and Rarity]

It's gonna work

I know it's gonna work

It's gonna work out just fine, trust me

It's gonna work

I swear it's gonna work

It's gonna work out just fine, you'll see!

[Pinkie Pie]

Be unique

[Rarity]

Just be the same

[Pinkie Pie]

Trust your heart

[Rarity]

You'll make your name

[Pinkie Pie and Rarity]

We'll help you every step of the way

Because we know what you need to do

And you should know it too

It's gonna work

I know it's gonna work

It's gonna work out just fine, trust me

It's gonna work

I swear it's gonna work

It's gonna work out just fine, you'll see!

The decorations and advertisements were done and the menus looked awesome.

Saffron Masala : [gasps] The day is almost over, and we haven't found any ponies! What will we do?

Me: Just give it some time. They will come. Patience is a virtue.

Pinkie Pie : Try harder! Fillies and gentlecolts! Check out the super stupendous and amazing cuisine of The Tasty Treat! Grand re-opening tonight!

"Citrus Blush" : How many hooves does it have?

Saffron Masala : No hooves yet, but hopefully soon!

"Cayenne" : Well, when it gets rated, let us know.

Me: Cayenne you're with us remember?

Cayenne: Oh right sorry.

Pinkie Pie : Rrrgh! Stupid hooves!

She threw the sign and it flew into the air.

[paper flapping]

It landed on the ground.

[thunk]

Chargrill Breadwinner : Oh, look at this, hun!

Orange Slice : Oh, The Tasty Treat! Do you think that's a restaurant, sugar?

Pinkie Pie : Yes! Yes, it is!

Chargrill Breadwinner : We came to Canterlot from Whinnyapolis to be adventurous. But so far, the food in all these hoity-toity places tastes like somepony cooked up nothin' with a side o' nothin'.

Me: Whew. You're telling me.

Saffron Masala : Well, please, come try the Tasty Treat. I think it's going to be exactly what you're looking for.

Me: I have a feeling that Rarity overdid it but lets go see.

[spraying]

She was cleaning the windows.

Rarity : [sighs] This is going to be exactly what Zesty is looking for! [door opens]

Saffron Masala : Father, we're ba- [gasps]

Pinkie Pie : Rarity, what did you do?

We saw that the restaurant is now a sophisticated diner.

Coriander Cumin : [unenthusiastic] Welcome to The Tasty Treat. You can eat here if you want. Or not. Who cares?

Rarity : I know. Isn't it perfect? Zesty is sure to love it.

Pinkie Pie : I thought we were trying to make this the most unique and beautiful restaurant in Canterlot! Not make it exactly like every other restaurant!

Me: Uh yeah!

Rarity : [short laugh] We want to help our friends by getting them three hooves. That will only happen if this is like every other restaurant.

Saffron Masala : Father, what is this ?!

We saw horderves.

Pinkie Pie : Not that! Anything but that!

Coriander Cumin : This is what we must cook if we want to succeed here!

Saffron Masala : This isn't what I wanted! I wanted Canterlot to like us for us!

Pinkie Pie : Rarity, how could you ruin the restaurant?!

Rarity : Oh, pff. Kch. Ts! We helped save the restaurant. Now, where are the other guests? How many other ponies are coming?

Pinkie Pie and Saffron Masala : Two.

Me: Yeah two.

Rarity : Just two?! I thought you said you could pack the place with ponies no matter what!

Pinkie Pie : You said you would make the restaurant better…

Rarity : [gasps]

Pinkie Pie :… so I guess we both didn't know what we were talking about! [knocking]

Rarity : [gasps] Zesty Gourmand! Everypony, places !

Me: Lets just go with the flow for now.

Mary K.: Okay.

We got in our places.

[door opens]

The door opened and in came the luxuriously exquisite Queen of Cuisine herself, ZESTY GOURMAND!

---

Zesty Gourmand is a female unicorn pony and representative of Canterlot high society who appears in the season six episode Spice Up Your Life. She is a critic whose particular tastes and harsh ratings pressure the restaurateurs of Canterlot to accommodate her at the cost of their individuality.

Zesty Gourmand, called the "Queen of Cuisine" by Rarity, is mentioned before she is seen. Canterlot society holds her three-hoof rating system-whereby she judges a restaurant for its cuisine, decor, and presentation-in such high esteem that Rarity and later other ponies refuse to give their patronage to any unrated establishment. Pinkie Pie starts to question Zesty Gourmand's authority when she discovers that that all of the restaurants which have received scores of three from her are virtually identical.

Coriander Cumin and Saffron Masala struggle to keep their restaurant, The Tasty Treat, open in Canterlot because Zesty Gourmand refuses to dignify their exotic establishment with a visit. This prompts Rarity and Coriander to renovate the restaurant to conform to Zesty's three-hoof standard. Zesty Gourmand agrees to evaluate the restaurant at Rarity's insistence.

When the restaurant reopens, Zesty is unimpressed. After being stricken in the face by one of the dishes, she rises to leave, advising Rarity as a friend to keep her opinions within her own field of work. Further conversation spurs Zesty to explain some of her philosophy: that subtle tastes, not quality of flavor, are the true hallmark of culinary art.

When the restaurant seems to be succeeding in spite of her unpleasant evaluation, Zesty Gourmand appears once more at the scene to rebuke the citizens of Canterlot for ignoring her judgment. The following suggestion that she cannot dictate the behavior of these ponies offends the critic. After a brief pause, she harrumphs and storms outside.

Rarity : [gulps]

Me: Hello Zesty and it's an honor to meet you.

Zesty Gourmand: (Posh Accent) Ah J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here ma'am.

Coriander Cumin : [unenthusiastic] Welcome to The Tasty Treat. What can I get you this evening?

Zesty Gourmand : I hardly think it matters, but by all means, try your best to impress.

Orange Slice : Well, we'll both try the special this evening. Maybe with a little kick to it, eh? Yeah, we've been craving some food with actual taste.

Zesty shoved him away.

Coriander Cumin : Saffron Masala, what are you doing?!

She was making the right meals.

Saffron Masala : I'm trying to save our reputations! [sips] I've given it at least a little bit of flavor.

Rarity : No-no-n-n-no, but that's not what Zesty wants!

Pinkie Pie : What kind of food expert doesn't want flavor?! That's insane!

Qin: Uh oh. Get ready for some tension.

Mary K. tasted the soup and it was delicious.

Mary K.: Mmm! Perfect.

[pouring]

She put the soup into a bowl

Pinkie Pie : I'm taking this out there!

Rarity : No! Zesty will hate it! You are going to ruin this for them!

Me: Rarity what's gotten into you?

Pinkie Pie : No, I'm trying to fix it after you ruined it!

Me: What the?!

Nico: Huh?

Rarity stepped on her tail and the soup went flying

[thunk]

Pinkie Pie and Rarity : Noooooo!

[splat]

Me and everyone were watching them from the shadows. The soup landed on Zesty.

Me: Oh no.

Zesty Gourmand : I think we are done here.

She got up and put her coat on and left.

Rarity : Zesty! Please wait! Allow me to explain!

Zesty Gourmand : Rarity, when it comes to fashion, you are adequate. But take some advice from a friend - keep your opinions out of restaurants. Substandard food, laughable service, and I would think even you could recognize that the decor here is trying desperately while desperately failing. Recommending a disreputable place such as this could do serious damage to your social standing.

Pinkie Pie : Disreputable?! You mean a place with food that actually tastes good?

Zesty Gourmand : Any pony can throw ingredients together and create an obvious taste that uncultured ponies like those two can register.

Chargrill Breadwinner : Hey!

Ryan Holland: (British Accent) Now see here you old buzzard! All food is good no matter how awful it looks. And the food here is tasty and delicious. I don't care what you think!

Zesty Gourmand : But it takes a true culinary artist to create a subtle taste, the barest hint of a sensation. That's what I bring to Canterlot. That's art. [door closes]

Trixie: That woman needs a serious lesson in humility.

Mary K.: Yeah. She wouldn't know good culinary art if it hit her in the face and smashed her eye in.

Varie: That's right! No one disrespects a good restaurant.

Pinkie Pie : I'm so embarrassed.

Rarity : I don't know that there are words to adequately express how truly sorry we are.

Coriander Cumin : The worst has happened. No use crying over spilt food now.

Saffron Masala : Here. This always cheered me up when I was younger.

Coriander Cumin : [gasps] My spicy flat-noodle soup!

Me: Ooh!

I tasted it and it was good.

Me: Ooh delicious.

Nico: Very tasty.

Pinkie Pie, Rarity, and Coriander Cumin : [sipping]

Rarity : Oh, my! This is truly delightful!

Pinkie Pie : Mmm, this is the best thing you've made so far! And I thought the food before was the best!

Saffron Masala : That's all I've ever wanted to do, father! Make food for the ponies of Canterlot like the food we made together when I was younger!

Coriander Cumin : It has been so long since we cooked together. Heh. Remember how you used to hide the ingredients you did not like?

Coriander Cumin and Saffron Masala : [laughing]

Mary K.: As a world famous chef, I know how you feel. I didn't go to cooking classes to learn how to make great food. I traveled the planet and learned from great cooking masters and cooked for some of the most famous people all over. I make great food that comes from my heart.

Lincoln: It's true. Mary is a great chef. Just like our dad.

Me: Mr. Lynn makes great food just like you two do. And I don't care what Zesty thinks, you are great restaurant owners and all that and I don't care what some critic has to say.

Mary K.: Me neither.

Rarity : You know what? Who cares what some stuffy unicorn thinks of the food here? It's exquisite.

Pinkie Pie : That's true.

Rarity : And you don't need three silly hooves in your window to prove it.

She crumpled up the paper of the ratings.

Pinkie Pie : That's double true!

Rarity : You just need ponies in here to give it a chance! Ponies that will tell everypony else in Canterlot that The Tasty Treat has the best food in the city!

Me: That's right!

Pinkie Pie : That's true times three!

Saffron Masala : But without Zesty's approval, nopony will even try our food!

Rarity : Ohhhh, yes, they will. Pinkie, we are the perfect team for this! We were just doing the wrong jobs! I will go out and bring the crowd! You stay here and make sure this place is every bit as unique and rustic as it was the moment we walked in!

Vince: And I called in just the ponies to help us all out.

Twilight Sparkle and Princess Celestia came in.

Saffron Masala and Coriander Cumin gasped.

Saffron Masala: Twilight Sparkle and Princess Celestia.

Me: Hello Princess and hello Twilight.

Princess Celestia: We got your call as quick as we could guys.

Twilight Sparkle: We will gladly help you all with everything we can guys.

Me: Thank you.

Rarity: Pinkie Pie, You stay here and make sure this place is every bit as unique and rustic as it was the moment we walked in!"

Coriander Cumin : And? What about us?

Rarity : You two? You two and Mary are going to cook! Make whatever you want, and make a lot of it! I intend to bring a crowd!

Me: That's right.

Twilight Sparkle: This is gonna be so cool!

Coriander Cumin: We would like your professional opinion, your majesty, I apologize for my earlier remark to your friends. I had already given up. That is why I said their opinion wouldn't have mattered. I know of their culinary expertise and would like to see if you can help me, help us and Mary, refine our recipes.

Twilight Sparkle: Very well, Coriander.

Mary K.: But from this point forward, I would rather you address me as either Chef or Chef Mary.

Mary then made a curtain appeared from above. When it disappeared, she was now wearing a light blue iron chef shirt and hat.

Mary K.: "The Iron Chef has returned!"

Moondancer: Thank goodness!

We then faced the front door. There was Moon Dancer and the rest of the Canterlot group.

Twilight Sparkle: Minuette, Moondancer, everypony! What… what are you girls doing here?

Twinkleshine: Vince and Moondancer filled us in on what happened.

Minuette: And you're right, just because a restaurant isn't rated doesn't mean that it's not worth giving a try.

Lemon Hearts: So we've come to help out, If you want our help…

Lyra Heartstrings: We are more than happy to help you all.

Twilight Sparkle's reply was pulling the five girls into a group hug.

Twilight Sparkle: Okay, so here's the plan, everypony.

Me: Follow Mary's lead girls. It's gonna be good.

Canterlot Girls: YES SIR!

Mary K.: Twinkleshine, you were the one who encouraged most of us to cook a lot of food. You can help me perfect their family recipes.

Twinkleshine: Yes, chef!

Mary K.: Lemon Hearts, you've got some influence with your party planning at the castle, You can help Rarity bring in a crowd.

Lemon Hearts: Yes, chef!

Mary K.: Minuette and Moondancer can help Pinkie restore the decor.

Minuette and Moondancer: Yes, chef!

Then Mary extended a hand to the center of the group, the others did the same.

Mary K.: Alright everypony and everyone Let's do this!

All: Yeah!

Me: Lets get to work!

[instrumental of "It's Gonna Work" plays]

Rarity : Would the owner of one of the premier boutiques in Canterlot put a stamp of approval on something that wasn't fabulous?

Rarity guided a bunch of great restaurant owners to the Tasty Treat.

Lemon Hearts: Would the head cater and planner of social events at the Castle put her stamp of approval anything that wasn't worthy of royalty?

Trying to be as charming as Rarity. Even more ponies started to follow them. Rarity and Lemon Hearts smirked to each other and shared a hoof-bump with each other. Back at The Tasty Treat, Pinkie, Minuette, and Moondancer were hard at work removing the stuffy decor items Rarity had put out. Pinkie had also gotten back the working crew so they could bring back the original items. Then the three ponies, with help from the working crew, started reassembling the original decor while adding a few more authentic improvements as well. Pinkie then hung up a picture of an elephant and smiled in approval.

Back in the kitchen, Coriander and Saffron were busy working together in the kitchen. Twinkleshine and Mary were there to taste and sample while giving their constructive opinions while asking the two ponies what kind of flavor they wanted to present to their customer. The two ponies then tasted another soup. Coriander or Saffron would explain their ideas. Mary and Twinkleshine pondered before Mary got an idea and grabbed a little shaker that had a spice in it and added it to the soup. Coriander then tasted the soup with the additional ingredient. A small tear appeared in his left eye as he smiled excitedly. Saffron then took a taste and smiled in approval.

Mary K.: Perfect !

Mary and the four ponies shared a hoof-bump together.

Soon the decor was completed and restored as Rarity, Pinkie, and Mary smiled at they looked around the area.

We really did a great job.

Mary K.: Great job everyone.

Twilight Sparkle: I can't thank you girls enough for all the help.

Moondancer: Anytime, Twilight. We're always here for you.

Minuette: And we won't let peer pressure stop us from doing so either.

Mary and the five girls shared a group hug before he walked up to Rarity.

Rarity : It's almost time! Is everypony ready for the grand re-re-opening?

Me: We sure are.

Saffron Masala : Before we open, my father and I just wanted to say… Thank you for all of your help. We've both been so stressed about the restaurant succeeding that we forgot what it was we loved about it in the first place.

Me: You're welcome Saffron.

Lynn Sr.: I know just how you all feel. I was so stressed about that as well when I opened my own restaurant.

Me: Yeah.

Coriander Cumin : Cooking is something we used to love to do together. No matter what happens next, thank you for reminding us of that.

Pinkie Pie : Oh, you guys! Group hug!

We hugged.

Pinkie Pie and Coriander Cumin : [laughing]

Pinkie Pie : Now come on! We've got a party to throw!

Me: Lets do it!

[door opens]

The ponies all came in.

[ponies chattering]

Coriander Cumin : Welcome to The Tasty Treat! Make yourselves comfortable! [muffled chattering]

Minuette tasted her soup.

Minuette: This is the best thing I've ever tasted!

Twinkleshine: Yeah!

Lemon Hearts: Totally!

Moondancer: Thanks for recommending the place, Vince. I know for sure I'll be coming back here again.

It was then we heard a whistle. Twilight turned to the direction the whistle came from and gasped excitedly. There was Night Light and Twilight Velvet, Twilight Sparkle's mom and dad sitting at a nearby booth. The latter waved to get her attention.

Twilight Sparkle: Mom, Dad, I didn't know Rarity told you about this place.

Twilight Velvet: Actually, it was Moon Dancer who told us about what you and your friends were trying to do, As an adventurer at heart, there was just no way I was gonna pass up a place like this, especially if it means I can cheer on our great daughter and her friends.

Saffron Masala : Please, feel free to sample the food! [door opens]

Just then Zesty came in and she was angry

Zesty Gourmand : What's this?! What is everypony doing here?! This place has no hooves! It is not in keeping with the level of cuisine that I have set for Canterlot! Nopony told you this place was acceptable!

"Sweet Biscuit" : Uh, Rarity, Princess Twilight, and her friends and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm said it was good? They told us!

Zesty Gourmand : They told you? And who are they to tell you anything? Rarity can tell you what hats to wear with which skirts. Her friend can tell you how to maintain a tragic look for a frizzy mane. They can't tell you what food you can eat!

Rarity : No, we can't, and neither can you! Nopony has the right to tell these ponies what to think! You have no right to condemn a restaurant before even trying to rate it properly. Or at least actually taste the food."

Zesty Gourmand: If a restaurant isn't worth my time…

Mary K.: If a restaurant wasn't worth your time, then you shouldn't even care if ponies are dining here or not. You're not trying to save them from what you think is bad cuisine! You're just trying to drive away that restaurant's business simply because they made a conscious choice to make their cuisine and decor that is different from what you want. You only give ratings to restaurants who want to do things your way, not because you think others would enjoy eating there!"

Me: That's right Zesty! We have traveled all over the planet and tried foods that are amazing and you don't like certain foods.

Rarity: Mary is right! Zesty, you have very… specific…

Pinkie Pie : And very strange!

Rarity : Yes, and very strange opinions about food, and that's your right. But just because you like your food a certain way, there is no reason to tell these ponies that they need to do the same!

Burly Unicorn : Rarity and Mary are right! I for one think the food here is delicious! I own The Smoked Oat on Restaurant Row; I hate the food we make! From now on, it's all smoked, basted, and grilled!

Matronly Pony : This food is an inspiration! I own The Bake Stop. I'm going to bake my mother's bundt cake the way she made it - full of flavor! [crowd chattering and agreeing]

Mary K.: It is one thing to be raised around dining, Zesty Gourmand, Even I can make a claim to that. When I was here for a week with dad, Princess Celestia took me all over Equestria when dad formed the Knights of the Friendship Table, showing me the culture and cuisine that existed all over the country. Clearly my culinary opinions differ from yours, but I don't go telling others whose opinions are different from my own that their culinary point of views are wrong. True food critics are open minded to different types of cuisine and they rate restaurants on how well those flavor combinations are executed. While decor and presentation are also important, a true food critic rates in the same manner. Unlike your critiques, they aren't supposed to be biased to our own personal opinions! You can't just walk in here like you did this evening and openly condemn a restaurant when you haven't even made any effort to follow your own critique standards and guidelines! (The other ponies started murmuring in agreement as Zesty bit her lower lip and avoid losing her temper.) At the end of the day, any food critic with any standards can only express and share their personal opinions and recommendations to other ponies, but you've crossed the line thinking you have the right to boss and bully ponies into making the same culinary choices as you! No food critic can force others ponies and humans to agree with their opinions. No matter how much influence or expertise they claim to have! Nor do you have any business telling ponies and humans how to cook and prepare their cuisine. And most importantly, you have no right to drive any pony or anyone who disagrees with you out of business!

Me: That's right! Food is made from the heart and it comes from many different countries and we went all over the world and tried many kinds of great foods and they are all delicious. We even have been to restaurants that are down in the dumps and they still make amazing food.

Nico: Yeah! And we helped them become a huge success. Even Homer loves all food no matter what.

Homer: You tell her guys!

Twilight Velvet: That's telling her Mary!

Restaurant Owner: Mary and Team Loud Phoenix Storm are right, You don't have any right in telling us how to run our restaurants. You're only meant to rate the quality of our food and decor!

Lemon Hearts: And you have no right telling us where to eat! I can't tell you how many restaurants that I enjoyed dining in were forced to close up because you had to march in and destroy everything they had worked so hard to build!

Mary K.: Lots of restaurants were closed down because of you and I have seen ponies on the streets because of it. You robbed them of everything they worked so hard for and that shows that you have no good taste. I saw how they felt and they were miserable. After everything that happened today, I will make sure you never get your hooves on another restaurant again!

Everyone: YEAH!

Upper Crust: Even we can admit that when it comes to cuisine, Mary is a genius in her own right. Her culinary opinions have far more value that yours ever will Zesty Gourmand!

Rarity : Zesty, are you sure you wouldn't like to try the food? Ignoring a unique and fresh establishment such as this could do serious damage to your social standing.

Zesty Gourmand : Hmph!

She left.

[door slams]

[beat]

[crowd cheers]

We high five.

Saffron Masala : Thank you so much!

Coriander Cumin : You are all truly amazing.

Me: You're all welcome. And Saffron, you're more than welcome to join the Knights of The Friendship Table if you want.

Saffron Masala: I would be honored.

[cutie marks ringing]

Me: Our work here is done.

Pinkie Pie : Nothing can stop the dynamic duo of Pinkie and Rarity! [crowd chattering]

Me: And us.

We cheered.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Me: And that's how it went.

Nico: Wow! I remember that.

Saffron Masala: That was so amazing.

Lola: It sure was. We had fun with that one.

William: We sure did.

Rainbow Dash: And the food is more awesome than ever now.

---

Later we were walking around when suddenly we heard a crash.

CRASH!

Chef: YOU STUPID MORANIC DISHWASHERS!

Me: Uh oh. Is that Mandee and Jackie not holding down a job again?

Chef: How stupid can you be!? GET OUT! GET OUT!

We saw three ponies come out and they looked like Pony Versions of the Three Stooges.

Me: Is that?

Luan: It can't be!

Curly: Moe, I think we got fired again.

The Chef was infuriated and he came out with a cleaver.

They ran.

Chef: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) YOU CLUMSY CLODS! I'LL DO MORE THAN JUST FIRE YOU! I'LL MURDER YOU!

He chased the 3 Stooges Ponies.

Me: Not on OUR watch.

They came to us.

Chef: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) YOU IDIOTS YOU! I'LL CHOP YOU INTO PIECES AND EAT YOU! I'LL MURDER YOU! I'LL MURDER YOU!

Then…

POW!

I punched him and sent him crashing into a bunch of trash cans.

The Royal Guards came and arrested him.

Me: That guy is a jerk.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: You three all right?

Moe: We sure are.

Curly: Yeah I hope they send that guy to the Frozen North. Nyuk nyuk nyuk nyuk.

HONK!

Moe honked Curly in his nose.

Octopunch: You three remind me of the 3 Stooges.

Moe: As a matter of fact we are the Three Stooges!

Me: (Gasp) Oh man! Wow! It's great to see you guys again. Its been over 80 years.

Curly: It sure has been a while hasn't it? Nyuk nyuk nyuk nyuk.

BONK!

Moe bonked Curly on his head with his hoof!

Luan: Wow! My heroes in pony form! It's awesome to see you all again!

Larry Fine: Same here Luan.

Nico: How do you guys know the Three Stooges?

Me: We were watching them long before we became Team Loud Phoenix Storm and we went into our simulator and met them and we did all kinds of crazy fun with them.

Nico: But they have been dead for almost 70 years now.

Me: I know. But they must've been reincarnated as ponies.

Moe: That is a good theory.

Me: But even after all those years you still crack us up. Can't say the same for that pony that tried to turn you into sausage.

Curly: He sure wanted to turn us into horsemeat. Nyuk nyuk nyuk nyuk.

BOOF BONK!

Moe hit Curly in his stomach and bonked him on the head.

We laughed at that.

Me: That's so funny! Even after all these years you all still crack us up.

Seaspray: This is actually my first time meeting you three.

Larry Fine: I know we know how to get around.

Me: And most of your episodes were made during the Great Depression and the war.

Curly: What war?

Me: World War II. You were widely known during the 1930's and 40's.

Curly: Oh that war. Too bad we didn't destroy all the German's back then. Nyuk nyuk nyuk nyuk.

POINK!

Curly got poked in his eyes.

We laughed at them for that.

Hunter: (German Accent) Oh they crack me up!

Me: They sure do!

Eli: Yeah they are funny!

Varie: Yeah!

Me: Lets head home.

We went back home and this time the Three Stooges were now as ponies in the 21st Century.

---

We were getting ready.

Laserbeak: Where are we going this time?

Me: Porta Vista. I heard that this is the city that Ash and team wound up at when they got sucked up into a vortex made by Gyarados that made them land on an island.

Misty: You guys will love this place. It's beautiful.

Laney: Where is it located?

Curly: Maybe it's located in Moe's head. Nyuk nyuk nyuk nyuk.

SLAP!

Nico slapped Curly.

Moe: Thanks.

Nico: You're welcome. My dad likes the Three Stooges too.

Larry Fine: He sure must get a good laugh out of us.

BOOF! BONK!

Moe boofed Larry in the stomach and bonked him on the head.

We laughed some more!

Me: (Laughs) You guys will always split our sides. Lets see here. Ah here it is.

I found Porta Vista and it was located near Bangkok, Thailand.

Me: It's near Bangkok, Thailand.

Mindy Chan: Not far from where I killed M. Bison.

Nico: Wow.

Me: This is gonna be interesting. I'm looking forward to this.

Stinky Butt, Rojo, Johnny 13, Angel, Deker, Vortex, Dayu and Trumbipulor then appeared.

Stinky Butt: Can me, Rojo, Johnny 13, Angel, Deker, Vortex, Dayu, and Trumbipulor go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Rojo: Whoa is that the Three Stooges!?

Me: That's them. Reincarnated as ponies after almost 70 years. Even though they died years apart.

Rojo: Whoa! You guys were awesome!

Angel: I loved watching you guys on TV and you were funny.

Moe: Oh thank you very much.

Curly: Do you know any other three stooges?

SLAP!

Moe slapped Curly in his face.

Moe: Get outta here.

They laughed.

Deker: So funny!

Trumbipulor: Yeah!

Me: Lets head out!

We were off to Porta Vista.

---

PORTA VISTA, THAILAND

---

We arrived in Porta Vista and it was a beautiful tropical city.

Cybertron Scourge: Such beautiful ocean. We don't have this on the Jungle Planet.

Lori Jimenez: I know but it's still a beautiful sight to see.

Varie: And it's the second home of the Neptune Crusaders.

Twilight Sparkle: It's so beautiful.

Saffron Masala: It sure is. I think it's a beautiful sight.

Princess Celestia: Yes it is.

Apu: (Indian Accent) The view of the ocean is most beautiful. It was like this before I left India I N.

Me: I know. Breathtaking.

Nico: Wow. the crystal blue waters of the ocean is amazing.

Lily: It sure is. I think so too.

Deker: What's that in the water?

Me: Hmm.

I looked at it and it jumped out and landed in my arms. It was a Tentacool.

Me: Whoa! A Tentacool.

Nico: Wow! What is one doing here?

Me: Good question.

Misty: It's so cute and beautiful.

Tentacool: Tenta.

Me: Wow.

Brock: I'm getting a sense of déjà vu.

Eartha: What do you mean?

Brock: This happened when we were here the first time but an old woman named Nastina tried to kill numerous Tentacool and they hired Team Rocket to do it. They used a powerful poison to try and do it but they ended up making a gigantic Tentacruel.

We gasped and glared at them.

Me: Obviously you two didn't know that Tentacool and Tentacruel are Water and Poison Type.

Jessie (Pokemon): We didn't know they would grow to that size!

Johnny 13: Horsea, why don't you communicate with the Tentacool so we can find out why it's here.

Horsea: Good idea. (to the Tentacool) Can you understand me?

Tentacool: Tentacool.

Me: I can use my Pokemon Translator device. I've always wanted to try this thing.

I activated it and it was ready.

Tentacool: An old lady is terrorizing our home and is provoking us and bombing it with torpedoes. She is destroying it and I overheard everything our boss Tentacruel was gonna do. I came to warn you all about the huge attack coming.

We gasped in shock and horror!

Me: OH MAN! We got to evacuate this whole city and get everyone to safety. But first we got to find this Nastina.

Ash: I'll lead you to her.

Me: Okay.

We followed Ash and we got to her mansion building and knocked on her door.

Wolfgang: (bangs on the door) (Australian Accent) Nastina, you open the Hell up right now! You're in serious trouble!

Me: Yeah we know you're in there!

She came out!

Nastina: What do you want!

Me: You have a lot of explaining to do!

Ash: Yeah! You are destroying the Tentacool's home. Haven't you learned your lesson from before?!

Nastina: Oh great! It's you again! And Team Loud Phoenix Storm is with you all!?

Me: Yeah.

Misty: Why can't you leave the Tentacool and Tentacruel alone you old hag!?

Nico: Yeah what have they ever done to you that would cause you to hate them so much!?

Nastina: I am building that resort over there! And they are in my way and you can't eat them!

Me: You are disgusting!

Nastina: How would you all like to help me get rid of them?

Me: Not gonna happen you old witch.

Nastina: So you all won't destroy the Tentacool for me even if I plan to reward you with all this money? (Shows briefcase full of money)

Rojo: How about I take the money instead of killing the Tentacool for you?!

Me: No. We won't do it for even a cent.

Nastina: Even if you did it like how you hurt all those people at Beast's Castle and more.

Me: First off that was self defense and second we will not kill Pokemon ever!

Eli: You old lady have no love for Pokemon.

Me: That's right. So you can take your money and leave us out of it. We'll stop the Tentacool our way.

Swindle: (points blaster at Nastina) I might like money like Eddy and Mr. Krabs do. But there's no way we're killing Pokemon!

Carmen: (stops Swindle) Don't waste your ammo, Swindle. We're done here.

Me: Yeah.

Nastina: Good. Get them boys!

Her chipndale henchmen came at us.

Eli blew them back with a massive Force Blast and sent them crashing into the walls.

Me: We're not playing games with you Nastina! We will fight you if you provoke us. And we will not kill the Tentacool and Tentacruel.

We left.

We came back outside.

Trumbipulor: Nastina can provoke the Tentacool and Tentacruel all she likes. But we're going to calm them down peacefully!

Octane: Where did we put the Tentacool that warned us?

Varie: He's with me in this ball of water I made for him.

Octane: Okay.

Me: Good thinking Varie. How many Tentacool are we about to face?

Tentacool: 17,293.

We gasped in shock.

Me: We're gonna need a LOT of Pokeballs.

Nico: Yeah.

Gary Oak: I can call grandpa to deliver that many.

Deker: What is it that the Tentacool and Tentacruel are gonna do?

Tentacool: Destroy everyone and everything here.

We gasped.

Me: Oh man!

Brock: Now it's really big déjà-vu. They warned us that if this happened again they wouldn't stop.

Nico: Oh man!

Lincoln: We are gonna be in for a deadly fight.

Me: Yeah. With thousands of Tentacool and a ginormous Tentacruel.

Dayu: (to the Tentacool) Why didn't you go along with what your friends are planning to do?

Tentacool: Because unlike all the rest of my friends I was against this horrible plan of theirs. They are gonna flood the entire world and destroy all humans in an act of vengeance.

Me: This is terrible.

Lincoln: We're gonna be in for a huge battle.

Me: I'll call Vypra and have her and everyone help us.

Nico: Awesome.

I called Vypra and all the Masters of Evil.

Slash Man: (to Tentacool) Misty's Horsea was actually in your position of warning Ash, Misty, and Brock so many years ago.

Tentacool: Wow.

Vypra and all the Masters of Evil came.

Vypra: We got here as fast as we could.

Me: Awesome. We're gonna need all the help we can get.

Nico went over everything that's going on.

They gasped in shock.

Vypra: This is bad.

Dark Spicer: Oh man. We're gonna be in for a huge fight.

Lord Drakkon: But we can do it. Just don't kill them.

Angel: I'll fly over to where the rest of our happy Water and Poison Pokemon friends are to see if I can delay them.

Me: Okay. Be careful.

Angel flew over to where Nastina's crew were constructing the hotel and resort and sure enough she saw thousands of Tentacool!

Angel: WHOA! There's more of them than we thought.

She flew down and a Tentacool fired an energy laser at her and she dodged it.

They fired lasers at her and she dodged them all over.

She flew back and she landed.

Me: Anything?

Angel: Nothing. There are more of them than we first thought. They are really pissed off.

Me: How many are there?

Angel: I don't know. Hundreds of thousands.

Misty: Oh man. This is bad. There wasn't that many when they first came.

Lincoln: Whoa.

Me: Oh boy. We're gonna need a lot of help.

Eli: I can call Godzilla and some of the kaiju to help.

Me: Awesome.

Roman Goodwin: The Earthbound Immortals can help too.

Lincoln: Awesome.

Junk Man: (to Tentacool) When this is over, you're going to be the Pokemon of one of us. Consider it as thanks for warning us.

Tentacool: Anytime.

Me: All right. We have to evacuate the city and get everyone to safety.

Nico: Right.

Nico went to the Mayor's office and warned the Mayor about the Tentacool and Tentacruel coming and she warned the citizens to get out fast. But Nastina refused to leave and she was gonna make sure all of the Tentacool and Tentacruel are destroyed.

Vortex: It might be a few hours before the Tentacool get here. But when they do, I'll make sure they face a storm!

Me: And they will be swept out with the tide.

Nico: This is gonna be good.

Vypra: But we're always ready for anything.

Dark Spicer: Yeah!

Gizmo: While we're waiting for the Tentacool, let's have the usual battles now.

Maria: You sure about that?

Pete: Of course. We can't just spend the next few hours sitting here.

Kyd Wykkyd: Plus, it'll give any watching Tentacool a demonstration of what they're up against.

Bonz: (to Tentacool) No, you can't ask Horsea out on a date. She already has a boyfriend.

Tentacool: That's all right. I'm a girl anyway.

Bonz: Good.

Me: But this is gonna be a wicked battle. And it will be cool for us to show our new swimsuits.

I pulled my clothes off and revealed that I had a white shirt with black swim trunks with red and white flames on them and I had awesome shades.

Carly Atlas: Nice trunks.

Me: Thanks Carly.

Carly showed her swimsuit and it was an orange bikini with hummingbirds on it.

Jack Atlas: Love the bikini Carly.

Carly Atlas: (Strikes a pose) Like what you see Jack?

Jack Atlas: I sure do.

Misty Tredwell: Check me out.

Misty showed a green Bikini with Lizards on it.

Me: Wow! Looking beautiful Misty.

We all had awesome swim clothes on.

?: This is gonna be good.

Two figures came out and it was Yuffo of Megaforce and GEKKOR from Episode 30 of Mystic Force!

---

Gekkor was a spear-wielding Wyvern/Gecko creature that wore a visor and was one of the Ten Terrors. He was the sixth (technically the seventh) Terror to fight the Rangers, and fought in the penultimate episode of Power Rangers Mystic Force "The Return". Gekkor serves as a major antagonist in the final episodes of Mystic Force. He serves as the main antagonist of the episodes "Light Source" and "The Return". In Power Rangers Beast Morphers, Gekkor has a brief cameo in the archive footage in the villains' special episode "Making Bad".

In the episode "The Light", when Necrolai found the cave of the Ten Terrors after the Master was again defeated, Gekkor, willing to lend her an ear, stopped Oculous from shooting Necrolai with his rifle. The Terrors listened to Necrolai and agreed to help conquer the world. They arrived in the Surface World and told the people of Briarwood to give them the Light, who is actually Nick Russell, the Red Ranger and leader of the Mystic Rangers. The Terrors easily defeated Rangers's Manticore Megazord and then left. Gekkor was also with Necrolai on the surface, watching the battle between Magma and the Rangers. Gekkor seems to be the fastest of the Terrors, able to move at lightning speed in battle. He is also able to shoot a barrage of needle-like projectiles and summon forth fiery green energy blasts from his spear. Gekkor witnessed along with Necrolai how Magma lost the battle with rangers in his own game and was destroyed. Gekkor was the first to mention that the Master was going to return.

When Oculous was chosen to be the next to attack by the Stone of Judgment, Gekkor was curious (and seemed somewhat annoyed) that he himself was not chosen to carry out the punishment and was reminded by Matoombo that the Stone of Judgment is never wrong.

In the two-part episode "Light Source", Sculpin took Gekkor and Matoombo with him to get the Master's spirit from Leanbow. Gekkor battled Leanbow, using his lightning speed to his advantage against the knight. Gekkor ordered Leanbow to give the Master to them, but Koragg said that Terrors would never obtain the Master. However, Leanbow was able to severely injury Gekkor by striking him in the stomach with his sword then using a fire attack on him. Gekkor claimed that he still could fight, but Sculpin stopped him and ordered Matoombo to fight. Gekkor was irritated and jealous that Matoombo got to fight Leanbow. He considered Matoombo weak, but Sculpin answered that Matoombo was powerful and not weaker than Gekkor. When Sculpin extracted the Master's spirit from Leanbow's body, Sculpin gave Gekkor the Master's spirit to take care of.

In the penultimate episode "The Return", Gekkor was the most zealous in punishing the traitorous Matoombo; he was dispatched to deal with Matoombo, who managed to elude him with the help of Vida and Xander. Gekkor was desperate in his chase, following Vida and Matoombo on board the Solar Streak Megazord and into the Dawn Woods, demonstrating his great speed. However, when he finally caught up with Xander and Matoombo, it turned out that Vida transformed into Matoombo to distract him. Gekkor (now highly enraged from being tricked so easily) fought the six main Rangers and nearly defeated them with a large sphere of green energy. However, Leanbow arrived (saved by Udonna) and helped his friends. Gekkor was finally killed by the restored Leanbow with a Blazing Storm Slash. This made him the sixth Terror to be destroyed and the fifth to be destroyed by the Rangers. He was also the first Terror to be destroyed by the Rangers before being chosen to do so by the Stone of Judgment.

Troy Burrows: Yuffo!

Leanbow: And Gekkor!

Me: I remember you Gekkor! You were zealously in persuit of punishing Matoombo here and you were gonna try to get the Master's Spirit from Leanbow.

Gekkor: That's right J.D. You really do have a great memory.

Vypra: Told ya he does.

Noah Carver: Before we fight, any idea on how Team Rocket's poison merged the Tentacool into a giant Tentacruel?

Yuffo: Well, since Tentacool are part Poison Type, that must've allowed them to absorb the poison in order to merge into the giant Tentacruel you see today. I'm surprised you're not calling your Megazord to fight it.

Me: That is a very good assumption.

Twilight Sparkle: I was just about to think the exact same thing.

Me: I don't think the Megazords would do squat. The monsters of Godzilla would.

Eli: That's right. Godzilla Jr. can help us.

Nunnally: Good idea.

Gekkor: (to Leanbow and Koragg) Are you kidding me?! There's two of you now?!

Me: Well one is the corrupted version that served Octomus and the other is the purified version. Sounds confusing doesn't it? But Leanbow here and Koragg are both one in the same. Koragg is the dark version of Leanbow.

Koragg: That's right.

Leanbow: He and I are now separate.

Nick Russell: That's right dad.

Gekkor: What the? Did he call you dad?

Me: Leanbow and Udonna are both his parents. It was a huge revelation we saw when we watched them on TV.

Nico: Yeah.

Gekkor: Wow.

Me: The Dino Fury Rangers begin their journey right now. And we have to be ready for a new villain called The Void Knight. But we're gonna have to wait for about a year to two years for us to meet them.

Nico: Yeah.

Vypra: This is gonna be interesting.

Me: Yep. But we don't know much about them so we're gonna have to watch as the show goes.

Vypra: Yeah.

Me: Lets get it on.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah. Someone should throw her in a nuthouse.

Luster Dawn: Or in a box floating down the river.

Princess Celestia: Really?

Luster Dawn: Lily told me that's what Plankton said to an old lady when she, SpongeBob and Patrick were in charge of a traveling restaurant.

Princess Luna: Wow! That must be something.

Princess Cadance: Yeah I bet it was fun.

Flurry Heart: From the way it sounds I would say yes.

Lilly Crystal: I agree.

Cloud Star: Me too.

Snowdrop: Lily will have to tell us all about it when she has the chance.

Gari: Look forward to that.

Minuette: So is Karen and everyone else in Bikini Bottom.

Twinkleshine: Yeah and thank goodness.

Lemon Hearts: But I do love Krabby Patties.

Tree Hugger: You said it Fluttershy. It's not cool.

Zecora: Nastina will have to learn the hard way for those around her to have their say.

Gia Moran: Well we have no way of knowing except for Nidoking and Nidoqueen and other Pokemon how they look in terms of genders. It's hard to tell.

Bonz: Good point.

Ink Rose: But we got here just in time to warn everyone about the upcoming invasion of the Tentacool and Tentacruel.

Moonlight Raven: We sure did.

Brittney: Thank goodness. Otherwise this whole tough would've been destroyed and engulfed in a sea of fire.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah after what happened at the Tasty Treat, Mary turned all of Restaurant Row into a much better place for everyone and everypony and everycreature. Check it out.

She showed him an article in the Equestria Press and it showed Mary Knudson on with a Chef Hero award and he read it.

"Mary Alison Knudson: the new leader of fine cuisine! Ever since ponies experienced the marvelous cuisine offered at the Tasty Treat, a whole new renovation of Canterlot Cuisine has occurred. Restaurants are now unique with their decor and their food is not only visually appealing but also full of flavor! Tourists from all over Equestria, Earth and the Universe are coming to sample the newest trends and flavors found at Restaurant Row! Canterlot has truly become one of Equestria's greatest locations for ponies seeking the finest cuisine! Equestria now has a new "Queen of Cuisine" and that is Mary Alison Knudson, the Daughter and chef of The World Famous J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm! And that's not all, Zesty Gourmand, now the "former" Queen of Cuisine, has expressed her distaste for the changes to Restaurant Row, even revoking all her three hoof ratings. But ponies can agree that Zesty Gourmand's opinions and ratings regarding fine cuisine are dull, bland, and most importantly, outdated. Mary Knudson's new "M" rating system had become far superior and judges a restaurant according to the quality and presentation of a restaurant's individual decor, cuisine, and the execution of their culinary point of view. Restaurant owners agree the new rating system is not only fair, but also constructive, allowing owners with less than three M's room for improvement and to expand on their culinary expertise. And ponies no longer feel pressured to eat at restaurants with three M's over others with one or two Ms. No matter where you dine, the cuisine on Restaurant Row is MMM-MMM delicious!"

Mammoth: Wow! That is amazing! Mary totally refined all of Restaurant Row and made it better than ever.

Lightning Dust: She sure did. And it's not just popular for everyone in Equestria but also all over the world and the universe too.

Scootaloo: Yeah and the food is amazing. It's not just for ponies but it's also for humans too as well as creatures from all over the universe.

Then Nastina and her henchmen fired blasts at us.

We dodged the blasts.

Me: You are an honorless slimeball Nastina!

We had her teleported to the Neptune Prison Pokemon Abuser Section.

Horsea: I'm sure glad that's over.

Mammoth: All the Tentacool are happy now.

Professor XXXL: And Nastina's about to go to jail where she belongs.

See More: Now, to give the Tentacool that warned us a trainer.

Moonstone: (to Tentacool) Who do you want to be your trainer? Choose wisely. You can only choose 1 one of us.

Tentacool chose Varie.

Tentacool: I choose Varie. She is understanding to us all.

Varie: Thanks Tentacool. I'm honored.

Me: As long as we're here lets have some fun and relaxation.

Nico: Good idea.

Horsea: (To the viewers) Hope you all learned a huge lesson from this. Pokemon are people too and they are full of love and respect.

Maria: You said it.

We got to having fun.

---

Later, me and Rice were over in China. We found another Black Ghost Base there in the mountains of the Sichuan Province.

Rice: You think me and Sean can go here on a date one of these days?

Me: You all sure can. The whole world has so much to share with everyone in terms of anything.

Rice: That's true.

Me: I found the base.

Rice: I see it. Going Razorfist!

I covered my eyes and she took off her clothes and turned into Razorfist!

We fired energy blasts and left and the whole base exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

It was destroyed in an instant. Rice reverted back and I gave her clothes back. Nastina and her cohorts were sentenced to 17,293 years in prison plus 12,023 more years for her crimes to pokemon. And ordered to pay millions of dollars in restitution.

THE END

---

Another awesome chapter done.

The episode of Pokemon, the 1st season Tentacool & Tentacruel was one that was really epic. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a non-combat friendship mission as we help figure out what has caused a massive and bitter feud with the Hoofields and McColts. We're going to be caught in the crossfire of a bitter feud of Hatfields and McCoys caliber as we stop two feuding neighbors from fighting over food and animals. This is gonna be a peaceful approach and we have to think about this very carefully and non-recklessly.

See you all tomorrow.

MLP 3- The Hooffields and McColts Feud

Twilight Sparkle found the Key of Magic by showing her power of friendship in all of us and also Eli found the Key of Valor by saving Maria at the risk of his life by saving her from a blast from a gun and that shows true valor. His key looked like his Cutie Mark. We had all 12 keys. We would open the Chest later on.

Over in England, me and Georgina were searching for another Black Ghost base. We found the base and it was in a cave the forests of Northern England.

Georgina: Is this the place?

Me: Yep. It's in the forests of Northern England.

Georgina: Wow.

Me: I've always liked England because of how it has so much history.

Georgina: Yep.

We went into the cave. Water was dripping as we went down into the cave.

Georgina: I bet you want to know about the backgrounds of me, Rice, Maxxine, and Kendra.

Me: I sure do. I don't know hardly anything about you all.

Georgina: Well my story is good. I was born into a beautiful family in Mississippi. I have my mom Andrea and my father Logan and my awesome little sisters Cienna and Wendy. My family was always the perfect normal family. I later went off to college and after what happened with my ordeal, I never saw my family.

Me: Oh man. I'm sorry Georgina. We'll see them eventually.

Georgina told me all about Rice's family. Rice came from a beautiful rich family with her mom Kira and her father Owen and her three little brothers Mike, Sheldon and Lane. She was aspiring to become a beautiful dancer star. But Paradigm's deeds ruined it.

Kendra came from a poor family. She and her family composed of her mom Olivia, her father Sam and her little sisters Ophelia, Naomi, Gina and Diana were forced to live on the streets and Kendra was kidnapped by Paradigm and she mutated her.

And Maxxine was born to her mother when her mother, Francine, was in prison for espionage charges and she was raised by her parents. She grew up to be a great girl and visited her mother in Federal Prison from time to time. But Paradigm stopped those visits.

Me: Whoa. That's awful.

Georgina: I know. I miss my family so much.

Me: We'll reunite with them.

We got to the base and we saw that it was a big one.

We got in and just as a guard was walking by, we hid.

A guard was walking by when he saw me and Georgina making out.

Georgina: Do you mind?

Guard: Oh sorry ma'am. You two are good lovebirds.

He left.

When he was gone we broke away.

Me: I liked that.

Georgina: Me too.

Me: Yeah.

Georgina: Looks like this is the core of the base. (concentrates and groans in pain)

I covered my eyes and Georgina gave me her clothes and she turned into STONEBITER!

Me: Show no mercy.

Stonebiter: With pleasure.

She smashed and pulverized the guards and everything all over and really smashed them all to pulp before they could call headquarters.

Stonebiter: Yeah!

Me: That takes care of them.

Stonebiter: I should probably revert back now. (concentrates again and groans)

She reverted back to Georgina and I had my eyes covered and gave her clothes back.

Georgina: Thanks.

She went to put them back on.

Georgina: Thanks J.D.

Me: You're welcome. Lets blow this popsicle stand.

We left and fired a blast of energy into the base and it hit it and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Another base was destroyed.

Me: Awesome.

We went back home.

---

Back at the estate, we were watching TV and playing card games. I was reading Twilight's book.

Me: Hmm. Interesting.

I saw a glow.

Me: Huh?

I looked and saw my Cutie Mark Glowing.

Me: (Gasp) My Cutie Mark is glowing.

Nico: Mine too!

Me: The map is calling us. Lets get ready for an awesome Friendship Mission everyone!

We got ready.

Maria: Where are we going this time?

Me: We'll know when we get to Twilight's Castle.

Nico: I wonder who we're gonna help out next.

Lincoln: We're gonna find out later.

Dark Spicer, Robo-Blaze, Snake, Shiv, Electro and Firefly appeared.

Robo Blaze: Can me, Dark, Snake, Shiv, Electro, and Firefly go with you guys?

Me: Absolutely. Lets head for the castle. We'll have to use our version of the Map later.

Mine and Nico's cutie marks formed outside and we followed them to Twilight's Castle.

Coincidentally, at Fluttershy's cottage, she was getting every animal she knows ready for her awesome book club.

Fluttershy : Does everyanimal have their copy of Wuthering Hooves ? Hooray! I love Furry Friends Book Club! Now, let's discuss the theme of nature as it applies to Hoofcliff's love.

Her Cutie Mark then started ringing.

[cutie mark ringing]

Fluttershy : Did somepony leave a light on? (Angel points to her Cutie Mark) Oh, it's me. Oh! It's me!

[shimmering and whooshing]

Her Cutie Mark appeared and she went to follow it.

Fluttershy : We'll continue this discussion when I get back!

She left.

[door closes]

Animals : [chattering]

The animals did the book club.

Fluttershy was flying to Twilight's Castle and we arrived with her.

Me: Oh Fluttershy. Looks like we're not the only ones who were called.

Fluttershy: Thank goodness. I wonder what our Friendship Problem will be.

Nico: We'll find out when we get there.

[shimmering and whooshing]

We followed our Cutie Marks and got to the castle and the door opened and Twilight came out.

Twilight Sparkle : You're here!

[teleportation zap]

We were teleported in.

Twilight Sparkle : Isn't this exciting?!

Her cutie mark was ringing too.

[cutie mark ringing]

Fluttershy : Oh! You were called, too! Thank goodness. I feel so much better going with a friend.

Me: Looks like all 4 of us were called.

Nico: Yeah we sure were.

Me and Nico showed our Cutie Marks glowing.

Twilight Sparkle : I was about to come and get you guys, but then I got distracted.

[doors open]

She opened the door and there were lots of books all over the place as well as charts.

Fluttershy : Oh.

May: So, what's going on this time?

Twilight Sparkle: Well believe it or not I want to be fully prepared for this mission.

Me: Boy we can see that. You piled on a lot of research in this.

Fluttershy: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle : I know. Ever since the map called us, I've been doing a ton of research.

[teleportation zap]

She teleported to a chalkboard and there was an equation on it.

Twilight Sparkle : Testing out potential friendship problems.

[teleportation zap]

She teleported back to us.

Twilight Sparkle : Diversifying my solution portfolio.

She showed us a book she made.

Me: Interesting.

Fluttershy : Ever since the map called us? But that happened five minutes ago.

Twilight Sparkle : I know! But I wanna be one hundred percent prepared! I mean, I'm the Princess of Friendship. How would it look if I couldn't solve a friendship problem?

Me: That's true.

Applejack: This is gonna be interesting.

Fluttershy : Oh, I'm so lucky I'm being sent with you.

Me: All of us are.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah.

Fluttershy: Speaking of which, where are we going?

Pinkie Pie: Yeah! Where is the Friendship Mission at?

Twilight Sparkle : The Smokey Mountains!

We saw that our Cutie Marks were above a valley area.

Me: That's interesting.

Fluttershy : Oh, I've never been there before.

Twilight Sparkle : Neither have I.

Me: All of us haven't.

Twilight Sparkle: And there isn't a lot of information on them. (She lifts up a lot of books and Spike was underneath them) All I could find was this. (She showed us a beautiful valley in between two mountains that had two different kinds of forests.) The Smokey Mountains harbor the most beautiful valley in all of Equestria between its two majestic mountain peaks.

Me: Ooh those are beautiful.

Nico: They sure are. It would make a great vacation spot.

Laney: It sure would.

Fluttershy : That's gorgeous. And where there's nature, there's a ton of animal friends!

Twilight Sparkle : I can't wait to get started! I'm a little nervous since that's all I could find. I usually like to be a bit more prepared.

Me: Well we'll find out what's going going on when we get there.

Fluttershy : You seem pretty prepared to me. (We saw our backpacks and saddle bags) Are those for us?

Twilight Sparkle : Yep! I've prepared our things. Snacks, books, blankets, books.

Fluttershy : You said "books" twice.

Twilight Sparkle : There are a lot of books.

Me: This is gonna be fun.

I lifted up my backpack and it weighed over 300 pounds!

Me: WHOA! Geez this is heavy!

Nico lifted up his and it wasn't heavy at all.

Nico: Nothing I can't handle.

Fluttershy had hers on her and it was heavy.

Fluttershy : Ooh!

Me: You guys are gonna love my new Friendship Mission Transport that we built just for Friendship Missions.

Twilight Sparkle: Really?

Me: To the Garage!

We went to the garage and we saw an M19 Steampunk Airship and it had our cutie marks on it as well as the symbols for Team Loud Phoenix Storm and the Knights of the Friendship Table.

Me: Say Hello to the TLPS S.S. Harmony!

Twilight Sparkle: Wow!

Fluttershy: Wow! What an airship.

Rainbow Dash: This is awesome!

Applejack: Hoowee! Wow that is mighty impressive!

Starlight Glimmer: Wow! That is amazing that you all built an airship for friendship missions.

Me: I know. Me and Dark Spicer have been working on it for this. You'll love the inside.

We went inside and it looked like the inside of an awesome castle and it had an awesome holographic globe in the middle and it showed our Cutie Marks over the Smokey Mountains and the steering wheel was like an old pirate ship steering wheel but with our cutie marks on the handle.

Twilight Sparkle: WOW! J.D. this is so cool!

Laney: Wow! You guys have a lot of free time.

Dark Spicer: We get things done very quick.

Lincoln: Wow!

Me: The holographic globe is like our navigation device and it's honed in to the Cutie Map and where we need to go and it will show us where we are. This ship also has all the comforts of home for a great journey.

Nico: Wow! This is amazing.

Me: Lets shove off!

We got the ship ready and the roof of the Garage opened up and the ship lifted up and we were off to the Smokey Mountains.

Twilight Sparkle : What do ya think our friendship problem's gonna be?

Me: We'll know when we get there.

Fluttershy : [struggling] I don't know. [grunts] But I'm sure we'll figure it out. [grunting, panting]

She put her bags on the sofa.

Twilight Sparkle : Do you think it'll be a problem about lying?

Fluttershy : [grunts] I'm sure we'll find out when we get there.

She sat down.

Twilight Sparkle : You're right.

We were flying over the land and it was beautiful.

Fluttershy: Wow. It's so beautiful from up here.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Earth: Wow. You can see everything from up here.

Nico: You guys have thought of everything.

Twilight Sparkle : Ooh! Could it be about when two friends just randomly decide to do something together, but they forget to invite the third friend, and the third friend feels left out?

Me: That might be the case.

We landed and hooked the ship up.

Twilight Sparkle : Or where one friend tells another friend's secret after they asked them not to?

Fluttershy : [exhausted] We'll know very, very soon. Since we're almost there.

Me: Yeah.

We flew into the air and Fluttershy was struggling because the bag she had was too heavy.

Fluttershy : [groans]

Twilight Sparkle : Here. Lemme get that.

She took her bag.

Fluttershy : [sighs] Thank you.

Twilight Sparkle : Sorry I've been a little skiddly-bopty-boo. I just can't believe this is finally happening!

Me: Someone is sure excited.

[pumpkins firing]

I saw a pumpkin.

Me: HEADS UP!

We ducked.

Fluttershy : Whoa!

A pumpkin flew and hit at a fort.

Twilight Sparkle : Whoa! What in Equestria is happening?

[pumpkin firing]

We dodged a bunch of pumpkins.

Fluttershy : It's nothing like your book said it would be!

Me: Looks like we stumbled on to a feud of some kind.

Shiv: Can you explain who these feuding groups are?

Me: I honestly have no idea. But from the looks of things, I think we might have stumbled upon a Hatfield's & McCoy's caliber feud.

Nico: Oh boy.

Twilight Sparkle: Hatfield's & McCoys?

Me: They were hillbillies that lived in the Ozarks back in the late 19th Century that were famous for having the most brutal family feud ever known in history.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa man!

Applejack: Yeah J.D. and Jared told us all about that when we told them about the feud with us and the Pears.

Lincoln: That feud was terrible. Worse than the Apples and the Pears.

Apple Bloom: It sure was.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, boy. I'm feeling very unprepared. Where do we even start?

[pumpkin firing]

Fluttershy : Maybe by figuring out where the flying pumpkins are coming from?

Poromon: Who do we find first?

Me: Lets head down to where the pumpkins are being fired from.

Nico: I was just about to suggest that.

Fluttershy: Same here.

They loaded a pumpkin into a cannon.

Ma Hooffield : Ready… Aim… Fire!

[pumpkin firing]

SPLAT!

Twilight Sparkle : Um, hi. Hello. Excuse us, but what are you doing?

Ma Hooffield : We're pumpkinin' our neighbors!

Fluttershy : Yes, but, um, why are you… "pumpkining" your neighbors?

Me: That's what we want to know.

Ma Hooffield : Well, because the McColts are just plain rotten. Hey, wait a tick. Who are all of you?! You're not spies for the McColts, are ya?

Me: No we are not spies.

Twilight Sparkle : I am Twilight Sparkle, the Princess of Friendship. And I am here to solve your friendship problem.

Fluttershy : I'm Fluttershy, and… um… I'm here, too.

Me: I'm J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: I'm Nico Chan, 2nd in Command of the team.

Me: And this is all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

They waved.

Ma Hooffield : Ma Hooffield. Pleased to meet ya and it's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Buzzard Hooffield: We heard so much about all your adventures and they are amazing.

Me: We get that all the time.

Ma Hooffield: but you're wastin' your time. We don't have a friendship problem. We have… a McColt problem.

"Buzzard Hooffield" : And there's absolutely no friendship there.

Twilight Sparkle : Well, maybe there could be if we figure out what the McColts did to make you so mad.

Me: That's right. we have to find out why this feud started and how. Every feud has a cause.

Ma Hooffield : That's true. But they done so many things. Why, just today, they shot pebbles at our farmhouse an' wrecked it.

We saw that the farm was destroyed and gone.

Ma Hooffield: See, we're not very good at buildin', so all it took was a little pebble. But still!

Fluttershy saw a pumpkin full of mice being loaded.

Mice : [squeaking]

Fluttershy : Oh, no!

She grabbed the pumpkin and saved the mice.

Twilight Sparkle : I know what to do. We're gonna talk with these McColts and hear their side of the story. Once we have all the facts, we can put an end to this using reason and rationale.

Me: It's worth a shot.

Fluttershy : Good plan. [to mice] That's why she's the princess.

Twilight Sparkle : In the meantime, could you please call off the pumpkining?

Ma Hooffield : Oh, alright.

Twilight Sparkle : Thanks. C'mon, Fluttershy. C'mon everyone.

Me: Right behind you.

Dark: I'll turn into Dirtdrive to cover more ground.

Me: Okay.

We flew and Dark turned into Dirtdrive and ran fast.

We went to the McColt's fort.

Horsea: (to Tentacool) Are you enjoying being with us so far?

Tentacool: You bet I am. It's awesome.

Lincoln: It's awesome and more.

We arrived and knocked on the door.

[knock on door]

Manaphy: Is anyone here?

Me: I think so. [knock on door]

"Steel Bolts": State your business!

"Rosy Riveter": Don't even bother. They're probably spies for the Hooffields.

"Steel Bolts": Hey, wait! You're an Alicorn! I thought just the three princesses were Alicorns.

Twilight Sparkle: There are 9 Alicorn princesses in Equestria now. I am Twilight Sparkle, the Princess of Friendship.

Fluttershy: And I'm Fluttershy.

Me: I'm J.D. Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: I'm Nico Chan, 2nd in Command.

Me: And my entire team is here too.

They waved.

Steel Bolts: Wow! It's a huge honor. And who are the 5 new princesses?

Me: 1 of them is a Princess from the Past, Princess Amore of the Crystal Empire.

Nico: And the 4 new ones are Applejack's little sister Apple Bloom, Twilight's Nieces, Flurry Heart, Lilly Crystal and Cloud Star.

Me: It's a long history.

Steel Bolts: Wow! We'll have to hear it later on. But how did the Hooffields get a Princess Spy?

Twilight Sparkle: We are not spies?

Me: I assure you we are not spies.

Twilight Sparkle: Why does everypony assume we're spies?

Me: Well it's a feud and both sides are really paranoid and weary about their surroundings in times of violence like this.

Twilight Sparkle: I see.

[gate unlocking]

The door opened.

Big Daddy McColt : Because we don't get a lot of visitors. I'm Big Daddy McColt. You caught us at a weird time.

Me: Yeah we can see that. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Big Daddy McColt: Same here. It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We heard so much about all your adventures. As you can see we're in the middle of a giant feud with our… Terrible neighbors!

[echoes]

The echo was powerful enough to drive the birds away and destroy the Hooffields barn.

[birds squawking] [farmhouse collapses]

Me: Whoa! Nice echo.

Twilight Sparkle : Well, actually, that's why we're here - to solve your problem with the Hooffields.

Me: Yeah.

Big Daddy McColt : So you're here to help us get rid of 'em.

McColts : [whooping, hollering]

Twilight Sparkle : No! That's not what I meant at all!

Me: We're not gonna kill them. They are innocent and our code prohibits us from killing the innocent.

Big Daddy McColt : Well, if you ain't fer us, you're agin' us.

Me: You mean against?

Big Daddy McColt: Yeah sorry.

Poliwag: Can you guys please stop fighting each other? (Does puppy eyes)

Nico: Poliwag I don't think your puppy eyes are gonna work.

Me: We need to figure out why they are fighting. Every feud had to have a motive and why it's going on.

Big Daddy McColt: There is no reason. The Hooffield's are JUST ROTTEN NEIGHBORS!

Me: That is not a good excuse. There has to be a more logical reason as to why you all are in this feud in the first place.

Twilight Sparkle : We are not on anypony's side. We're here to help you become friends again.

Me: That's right. There has to be a reason why you all are fighting in the first place. Is it because of land disputes, anger problems or anything like that?

Big Daddy McColt : Well, we're not really sure but that's gon' be hard. I don't believe we've ever been friends with the Hooffields !

Twilight Sparkle : But you could be! They're just really upset you ruined their farmhouse.

Me: I think it goes deeper than that.

Big Daddy McColt : Wait a hog-wogglin' minute! We only did that because the Hooffields pulled the pin out of our wagon wheel!

The wagon fell.

[wagon collapses]

Me: I got this.

I fixed their wagon for them.

Big Daddy McColt : Oh thank you kindly. A whole week's worth of food rollin' down the mountain. Us McColts are mighty fine builders, but we don't know the first thing about farmin'.

McColts : [whickering]

Big Daddy McColt : We have to travel a ways away to buy our food. Now, we'll be stuck eatin' the pumpkins the Hooffields launched at us. Pumpkin bread, pumpkin soup, pumpkin [mispronounced] quesadillas, pumpkin paella, pumpkin cheese, pumpkin pie, pumpkin frittatas… Actually, that all sounds pretty good. But it'll get old!

Laney: I can give you guys more food.

Laney used her plant powers and grew lots of fruit trees and bushes for them.

Big Daddy McColt: Wow! That's amazing.

Me: But everything you said is good too.

Laney: That's right.

We saw the pumpkins all over the place.

Me: What a mess.

[squirrel squeaking]

Fluttershy gave a piece of food to a squirrel.

Twilight Sparkle : Have you tried meeting at a neutral location, talking about your problems, and really listening to each other?

Big Daddy McColt : What?! No! They'd sooner launch their dinners at us than listen to us .

Me: Really?

Twilight Sparkle : Well, they'll listen to me. I'm an impartial third party.

Me: We all are. We'll go with you.

We went with Twilight.

She used her magic to have her voice turned into like speaking through a megaphone.

Twilight Sparkle : [voice amplified] Attention, Hooffields and McColts! I'm not on anypony's side, but I can see you're both wasting time and resources on being mean to each other. Ponies are supposed to help each other and be kind. So let's stop this senseless fighting!

Me: Wow. Who needs a megaphone when you can just do that.

Twilight Sparkle: It's a spell I recently learned.

Me: Cool.

We flew back.

Twilight Sparkle: [speaking normally] There. That should do it. Ready to go home, Fluttershy?

Fluttershy : I'd love to. But if we solved the problem already, shouldn't our cutie marks be glowing again?

Me: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, yeah. They should be glowing any minute now…

[beat]

Me: Nothing. Our work is not done.

[kersplut]

A tomato hit Twilight's Cutie Mark.

We looked at the other hill.

[kaboom]

A massive bunch of tomatoes were fired at us.

Me: INCOMING!

[whistling]

Twilight Sparkle : Or not.

[tomatoes splatting]

We ducked.

Twilight Sparkle : So much for potential friendship solution number twenty-eight.

Fluttershy : I guess we should find out why the Hooffields are launching tomatoes now.

Me: Lets do my method: Negotiation.

Snake: Just what I was thinking.

Me: They won't go for it. But we'll see.

We went to the Hooffield house and we saw that they were firing tomatoes from slingshots.

Ma Hooffield : One at a time, Greenhoof. If you smoosh them tomaters in the slingshot, they won't break on the McColts.

Me: What the heck is going on here!?

Twilight Sparkle : What are you doing? I asked you to stop fighting.

Ma Hooffield : Oh, is that what you were hollerin' about? We thought the McColts rubbed ya the wrong way. So we tomatered them for ya. My mistake. [to Hooffields] Stop the tomater slingshots!

Snake: Will you guys stop fighting if we pay you all a million dollars?

Ma Hooffield: No thanks. We don't need money.

Me: Told you they wouldn't go for it.

[hay bales falling]

We saw Hay Bales flying at us.

Me: HAY BALES INCOMING!

Ma Hooffield : Reload the tomater slingshots! We're gonna paint their mountaintop red!

Fluttershy : Bleh!

Me: (Spits) Yuck! Sorry Twilight but I don't like hay.

Twilight Sparkle : No worries. Well, that didn't work. I was so sure it would.

Me: Yeah me too.

[hay bales falling]

Fluttershy : [gasps] (Picks up a turtle) It was a good plan. We need to think of another one. And soon. This fight is really affecting the animals around here.

Chione: It sure is.

Twilight Sparkle : Not to worry. I'll just, uh…

[pages flipping]

Twilight Sparkle :… find the root of the problem and work from there.

A hay bale destroyed their farm again.

[kaboom]

Twilight Sparkle : Pardon us, Ma, but do you remember what started this whole feud in the first place?

Ma Hooffield : They know what they did.

Big Daddy McColt : They know what they did!

Me: We don't.

Twilight Sparkle : I'm starting to think neither of you know what either of you have done.

Big Daddy McColt : Sure, we do. Them Hooffields did us a grave injustice some time ago for some reason.

McColts : Hear, hear!

Firefly: (to the McColts) You know what? I'll just fly over to the Hooffields and ask their side of the story!

Big Daddy McColt: You're wasting your time.

Twilight Sparkle : Okay, backup plan to the backup plan. Maybe we can find some common ground that you can bond over. What do you do when you're not fighting?

Big Daddy McColt : That's easy. Gettin' ready to fight.

Me: Okay that is not right.

Fluttershy : What do you hope to get out of fighting?

Ma Hooffield : The satisfaction of winnin'!

Twilight Sparkle : Of winning what?

[hammering]

Big Daddy McColt : The fight, of course! To prove our family is the best!

Fluttershy : The best at what?

Ma Hooffield : Winnin'! Haven't you been listenin'?!

Twilight Sparkle : So the only thing they have in common is that they both want to win a fight, and neither of them know what it's over. How can I end this feud if I don't know what it's about?

Electro: This is getting us nowhere.

Me: I know. But we'll think of something.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: Yeah there has to be a reason behind this whole feud and why.

Fluttershy : Ooh! Maybe somepony just needs to say they're sorry.

Twilight Sparkle : That's a good idea. And friendship solution number forty-eight. But we can move it up.

Me: Well lets do it.

We made an awesome apology cake and it looked amazing.

Twilight Sparkle : I'm so glad you agreed to do this. This apology cake will go a long way to making amends between you two. Which part of my argument changed your mind? The part where I said the benefits of friendship outweigh the cost of war, or the part where I said forgiveness is an investment in happiness?

Ma Hooffield : Yeah, yeah. All of it.

Twilight Sparkle : Wait. Are you even listening to me?

What we didn't know however is that the cake was really a Trojan Horse that hid all the Hooffields inside it for an ambush strike.

We arrived at the McColt fort.

"Steel Bolts" : Who goes there?!

Ma Hooffield : It's Ma Hooffield.

"Steel Bolts" : Hooffield alert! Arm the cannons!

They had cannons ready to fire.

Ma Hooffield : With an apology cake!

"Steel Bolts" : Did you say "cake"? As in… [slurps] cake?

Me: Uh yeah she did. With a little help from Pinkie Pie here.

Ma Hooffield : Consider it a gesture of goodwill from us to you.

McColt Guards : [slurping]

"Rosy Riveter" : I haven't had cake in ages.

Me: Tantalizing isn't it?

"Steel Bolts" : Open the gates!

[gates open]

"Hacksaw McColt" : [sniffles] Oh, it's such a bee-utiful cake.

Me: All cakes are beautiful.

Twilight Sparkle : Think of this as more than just a cake. It's the first step in the long road to forgiveness.

Fluttershy : Nothing says "let's be friends" like a cake that says, "Let's be friends!" [hushed] I wrote that in icing on the top.

Me: Cute.

[cracking]

Me: Uh oh, tell me that this is not what I think it is.

The Hooffields bursted out of the top!

Hooffields : For glory!

They threw cake at them!

A net trap caught them.

Hooffields: Whoa!

Big Daddy McColt : McColts! Assume Delta Force formation!

Nico: Uh oh! That's a Delta symbol charge formation.

McColts : Yah!

They went at them.

They charged down the hill.

[both families shouting]

Ma Hooffield : Ready… aim… fire!

[sproing]

They fired carrots, watermelons and cupcakes at the McColts.

[food falling]

They had shields ready

Twilight Sparkle : Ma Hooffield, you planted ponies in that cake?!

Me: You turned that cake into a Trojan Horse!?

Ma Hooffield : Yeah! [laughing] Wait. What's a Trojan Horse?

Me: It was an old ambush method we humans that used thousands of years ago.

Ma Hooffield: Really? Didn't know that. Wait, Were you serious about apologizin'? Why in Equestria would we do that?

Massive fight clouds broke out and the Hooffields and McColts were beating the living shit out of each other.

Ma Hooffield: We didn't do anythin' wrong!

Carrots hit the shields.

Big Daddy McColt : What're you talkin' about?! You done so many things wrong!

Ma Hooffield : Not as many as you!

Ma Hooffield and Big Daddy McColt : [growling]

[both families fighting]

They were FEROCIOUSLY BEATING THE FUCKING CRAP OUT OF EACH OTHER WITH INCREDIBLE FEROCITY!

Me: This just went from bad to worse!

The whole valley turned into a warzone as the families were brutally pulverizing and pounding each other.

Fluttershy : Um, if you could just not yell so much or maybe stop saying words altogether…

[sounds of fighting]

Carrots stuck around her.

Fluttershy : Wah! Twilight?

Me: Huh? Twilight?

She pulled out her book and was ripping pages out.

[pages ripping, magic zaps]

Twilight Sparkle : [sighs]

Fluttershy : Um, Twilight? We should probably get back there. I mean, if you need a break, that's fine, but I really can't do this without you.

Me: Neither can all of us.

Twilight Sparkle : I don't know if we can do this at all. Even if I make things right, they're just gonna fight again.

[critters chittering]

The animals were heard and Fluttershy saw them.

Fluttershy : Hey, little fellas. Oh, that's okay, you can come out.

[various critters chittering]

The animals came.

[groan]

Twilight Sparkle : What was that?

[critter stomachs rumbling]

Me: Sounds like they are hungry.

Fluttershy : Oh, you poor things! There isn't enough food here for you! Oh, brrr, and you're freezing! I'm gonna take you all home with me and get you all hot cocoas. How do you feel about book clubs?

Twilight Sparkle : I don't get it. This was supposed to be the most beautiful valley in all of Equestria. What happened?

Me: Yeah this whole valley turned into a battlefield.

[squirrel chittering]

A squirrel talked to Fluttershy.

Fluttershy : What's that? Oh! Uh-huh… Twilight, everyone! They know what happened here!

Twilight Sparkle : What?

Me: The animals do?

[sounds of fighting]

Twilight Sparkle : Stop! You have to listen to me!

[splat]

A cupcake hit her.

Me: EVERYONE SHUT THE HELL UP!

I fired a blast of Equestian Magic and froze them in place.

Nico: That oughta hold them long enough.

Me: Alright! Fluttershy has something to say to all of you!

Nico: That's right!

Me: Now listen. Please. Go ahead Fluttershy.

Fluttershy: [raised voice] Before you keep fighting, there is something you should know! Long ago, there were two best friends…

FLASHBACK SHOWS THE ANCESTORS OF THE HOOFFIELDS AND MCCOLTS

Fluttershy: [voiceover]… Grub Hooffield and Piles McColt.

(They were the ancestors of the Hooffield's and McColt's.)

Fluttershy: When they found the valley between the Smokey Mountains, they knew it was something special. So they made a promise to each other to protect and preserve the valley for all its adorable furry inhabitants. But they disagreed on how to go about it. Grub wanted to start by planting crops so that everypony would have something to eat. But Piles thought it would be better to start by building a shelter to protect them against the cold and wind. The two ponies were unable to come to an understanding, so Piles went ahead and built a shelter anyway, exactly where Grub was gonna start his farm! Grub was upset, so he tore down Piles' shelter so he could plant his crops!

(He destroyed his shelter.)

[crash]

Fluttershy: [voiceover] They kept fighting back and forth, until it turned into a feud!

The feud was raging on back and forth.

Fluttershy: [voiceover] The valley suffered from the constant destruction, until finally the Hooffields and McColts moved to separate mountains.

It was getting worse and worse by the day, month by month, year after year.

FLASHBACK ENDS.

Fluttershy: Even then, the valley and all the animals in it continued to be caught in the crossfire. You see? By fighting, you're destroying the very thing that brought you here in the first place! So it's time you both put your differences aside and come together! If not for yourselves, then for the sake of these cute and cuddly guys!

Me: That's right! This feud has to stop now! You are letting a stupid and unreasonable feud get out of hand and it's hurting all the animals here and starving them and you're freezing them! And it's not just them but it's also you guys. You're starving too and using food as weapons and depriving the animals and yourselves of your good health and livelihoods! End this feud! NOW!

They realized that we were right.

Big Daddy McColt : Aw, shucks, we never meant to hurt you little critters.

Ma Hooffield : Yeah, we're sorry!

[squirrel chittering]

Fluttershy : They say they accept your apology.

[beat]

Big Daddy McColt : Uh, J.D.? You can unfreeze us now.

Me: Oh sorry.

Everyone came down.

Me: Now Brittney has something to say.

Brittney: Right. And this feud has to end. Because hatred only breeds more hatred and if you keep this up, this is the future you are heading to. You know about the Windigos?

Ma Hooffield: What about them? They are a myth.

Brittney: No they are all too real. And I am the Empress of Darkness and their master. This is where you are heading if you let hatred and fighting rule over your lives for far too long.

Brittney transformed and showed the dark future coming.

Brittney: (Singing Divinely in a Transylvanian Accent)

I see a cold wind blowing through

I see days neither fun nor free

I see a future caused by you

I see a path not meant to be

The future should be filled with magic

Dreams and wishes brought to life

But the days ahead are dark and tragic

No time for hope when all is strife

Whatever might have been

All the dreams that ponies share

Because of you and your families

Now the future is a cold nightmare

They saw the Windigos with Brittney. The whole Smokey Mountains were engulfed in eternal winter and the Hooffield's and McColt's were no where to be seen as their home and hearts were frozen in ice in a Frozen Hell.

Brittney: This is what will happen if you keep fighting like this. The Windigos feed on hatred and fighting and more you fight, the colder your hearts will become. And you will be forever frozen in ice. Forever trapped in the cold of Cocytus. Your hearts will be as dark and cold as the voids of space. Do you want that?

Ma Hooffield: No we don't.

Brittney snapped her fingers and reverted everything back and she powered down.

Big Daddy McColt : Ma Hooffield? We promise we won't fight you no more.

Ma Hooffield : Us too, except we promise not to fight you. I suppose it doesn't matter who's right. We're both wrong.

Big Daddy McColt : That's one thing we can agree on.

Big Daddy McColt and Ma Hooffield : [spits]

They spit in the hooves and shook.

[critters chittering]

The critters cheered.

[teleportation zap]

Twilight Sparkle : This is wonderful! I am so proud of you two!

Me: We all are.

Ma Hooffield : Aw, thanks, princess. And Thanks Team Loud Phoenix Storm though I would just like to point out that I was the, uh, first to admit I was wrong.

Big Daddy McColt : That may be, but I promised not to fight first. That counts for more!

Ma Hooffield : Oh, yeah?!

[critters chittering]

The critters were telling them to stop and we glared at them.

Brittney had a blue flame in her hands and it showed the future again.

Ma Hooffield : Oh, all right. We don't have to speak animal to know what y'all are sayin'. Truce?

Big Daddy McColt : Truce.

We smiled.

[sounds of work and critters chittering]

Me: Log of Friendship entry #114: The Old Textbook Family Feud Scenario… And even though there is a textbook solution to it, sometimes when a feud gets out of hand, it's best to show them the future and reveal what will happen.

Nico: Yep.

Laney helped repair the damage done to the valley and all that and Varie gave them new water and all that.

Big Daddy McColt : Woo-hoo! Ain't that a pretty sight?

Me: It sure is. That fountain is beautiful.

Ma Hooffield : Sure is! The McColts are gonna help us rebuild our homes! Good ones this time.

Big Daddy McColt : And the Hooffields are gonna help us grow some crops!

"Steel Bolts" : Not pumpkins.

Me: Don't worry we'll have plenty of fruits and vegetables for you.

Ma Hooffield : Thanks for teachin' us that friendship is so much better than winnin' a silly argument.

Me: Aw you're welcome Ma.

Nico: Friendship has many rewards. Especially when you all work together.

[cutie marks ringing]

Me: Looks like our work here is done.

Fluttershy : Yay! I told you we'd figure it out.

Twilight Sparkle : We did, and we didn't need my friendship portfolio to do it. We just needed each other.

Me: Absolutely.

We hugged.

Twilight Sparkle: So, what do you think will happen next? We've all been called by the map now.

She gave us our backpacks and we all went back to the ship.

Fluttershy : Oof! [straining] I'm sure we'll find out when we get home…

Me: Here I'll take those for you Fluttershy.

Fluttershy: Thanks J.D.

Twilight Sparkle : What if it summons all six of us to another place? Or another pony we weren't expecting? [gasps] What if it wants us to solve other kinds of problems, like quantum physics, or why the apple doesn't fall far from the tree?

Me: Lets head home.

* * *

Later at the Supreme Grand Tree of Harmony we were gathered and we were at the Chest of Harmony.

Me: Well here we go guys. It's time to see what's in the chest.

The Chest glowed and the keys all went in it.

Nico: Now what?

Twilight Sparkle: We have to turn all the keys at the same time.

Me: All right.

We grabbed the handles.

Me: On my mark. 3… 2… 1… Mark.

We all turned all the keys at the same time and the chest opened and released a massive surge of rainbow energy that shot out of the chest and it hit the Grand Tree and supercharged and energized it and we were entombed in huge pillars of light and we transformed. We all were now in SUPER ANGEL 100,000,000 POWER! IT WAS INCREDIBLE! OUR POWER WAS SO MINDBLOWINGLY STRONG AND POWERFUL THAT IT WAS FELT ALL OVER THE ENTIRE UNIVERSE! AND WE NOW HAD RAINBOW HIGHLIGHTS IN OUR HAIR! All over Equestria all our friends were supercharged and the power they got was exponentially greater than anything! All the 23 Villains all over Equestria and in Tartarus felt the immense power and they screamed in excruciating pain as the power of the 12 Elements of Harmony was damaging them beyond all forms of recognition and all their dark powers were being stripped from them and more. Even the Dark Orb that brought Tirek, Evil Cozy Glow and Chrysalis back was destroyed! King Sombra was stripped of his darkness powers and more and the villains were all powerless. They were now easy targets for us to take down when the war comes on April 12th. Then we saw a pillar of rainbow energy go high into the sky and it hit the estate and we felt a massive earthquake and then a massive tree exploded out of the ground and it had a trunk made of rainbow crystal and leaves of rainbow colors and the tree turned all of the estate into a huge World Tree and it was overflowing with fruit and amazing power and it had transformed into a massive ultra-city tree and it was incredible! The tree was over 100 miles tall and it was 1,000 miles wide at the foliage and the trunk was over 100 miles wide and it was incredible!

We gasped in pure amazement and shock!

Me: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) WHOA! Look at the size of that tree!

Nico: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) Wow! That tree is incredible!

Eli: (Divine Echoing Elemental Voice) WOW! I think this tree is our new home!

We went up to the tree and saw that it was MASSIVE!

Me: Wow!

Varie: Wow! It's like the World Tree of Friendship!

Princess Celestia: That's because it IS the World Tree of Friendship and it's your new Estate.

Princess Luna: Your dream lead you all to the 12 keys and helped you all achieve a great and powerful force. This force helped you all in more ways than ever.

Princess Cadance: And that force is friendship.

Me: Wow.

We went in and checked out the awesome city at the top of the World Tree of Friendship. We looked outside and we saw that it had a huge and tremendously incredible view of the Earth as well as a massive watch over all the continent. We saw that there was enough room for not just us but many friends all over the universe and even the Masters of Evil. We were awestruck that it had so much. And this was the beginning of an incredible new home and an incredible new adventure and the next level of our adventures.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic complete.

The Hooffields and McColts episode of My Little Pony was a fierce episode and it reminded me of the Hatfields and McCoys feud from over 140 years ago and that was a dark time that will forever haunt the Ozarks for generations. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Next up is where we finally meet the Cyborg 00 team and help them destroy the Black Ghost Organization once and for all. We're going to make those terrorists pay for their crimes 1,000-fold. They will be the first to feel the power of the new and improoved Team Loud Phoenix Storm and it won't be pretty.

See you all tomorrow.

Death to a Machine Terrorist Group

After we settled in to our new World Tree of Friendship estate, we saw that it was a massive metropolis size estate and filled with many roomed and more and all that. There was a bigger arcade, a massive library, a massive and larger simulator and all that and more. It just went on and on and on and it was amazing! Life all over the planet was stronger and most abundant than ever and it was unbelievable as animals and birds and fish were stronger and all over the place. Trees were grown all over and more and all the cities were stronger and cleaner and more. We discovered that our tree was also a massive tree of life. It was amazing! And there was still more to see in the tree.

Later, me and Kendra went outside only to see Armada Cyclonus, Powerglide, Vegeta, and Bodhi there.

Vegeta: Hey, guys. Where are you going?

Kendra: Me and J.D. are going out for a walk.

Vegeta: Funny. Because that's what J.D.'s been doing with the rest of the Underground Girls the past week.

Me: Kendra I think it's time we told them. Master Vegeta, everyone, I formulated a plan with Joe Shimamura of the Cyborg 00 Team to blow up a bunch of bases of Black Ghost.

They gasped.

Me: Yeah. We wanted to minimize their forces so they wouldn't make anymore weapons. Manaphy told us that she met the Cyborg 00 team during the battle with the Sullen 6 and she was told not to tell us she met them. But I got a call from Joe in my room and he and I formulated a plan to weaken the forces of Black Skull which will give us a major fighting chance. Me and the Underground Girls have been blowing up their bases in secret to minimize their forces for us to have a fighting advantage and make sure they don't come after us in the future.

Bodhi: That's genius.

Powerglide: Yeah that's really well thought out. I got to admit that's genius.

Vegeta: Which bases have been destroyed so far?

Me: We destroyed their bases in China, Russia, England, Germany, France, here in the USA and Kenya. We're heading out to Japan to destroy the next one.

Bodhi: The 4 of us will help you two get rid of the next base. But after that, we're telling everyone about this.

Me: Understood. It's time everyone knows. Because after this, we're going after the main Black Ghost base to destroy them once and for all.

Vegeta: Count me in.

Powerglide: Where is their main base located?

Me: It's located in the Philippines under a dormant volcano.

Powerglide: In Nico's old neck of the woods. This is gonna be interesting to see where he used to live if he can show us.

Me: Yeah.

Vegeta: But I'm still getting used to this tree. It's like a massive version of the Lookout.

Me: That's just what I was thinking Master Vegeta. It sure feels like it. It's like we can watch and protect the entire planet from up here at this height.

Powerglide: Just what I was thinking.

Me: Lets fly.

We were off to Japan.

NORTHERN HOKAIDO FOREST, JAPAN

---

We arrived in the Northern Hokaido Forests of Japan and we found the base.

Armada Cyclonus: Is this the place?

Me: Yep. It was located in the forests of northern Hokaido in Japan.

Kendra: Lets do it. Boys cover your eyes.

We did so and Kendra took off her clothes and concentrated and turned into ARMORSIGHT!

Me: Lets do it.

We went into the base and blasted and smashed and destroyed everything all over. Armorsight was smashing and blasting numerous guards and more and blowing them apart and blasting the base into oblivion. We fired a massive energy blast and blew the base to kingdom come.

Me: YEAH!

Powerglide: (to Armorsight) Nice job!

Armorsight: Thanks guys. They sure had it coming!

Me: You did a great job. Everyone cover your eyes.

We did so and Kendra reverted back and I gave her back her clothes.

Kendra: Thanks J.D. This was awesome.

Me: It always is. I'm sorry I kept all this from you but it was a top secret mission.

Vegeta: We understand J.D.

Me: Lets head home. We got to round everyone up and head out to meet Joe and Cyborg 00.

They agreed and we headed back.

We told everyone about what happened over the last few days and how we were crippling Black Ghost's operations and all that.

Rabeeder: Why didn't you tell us about Black Ghost?

Me: Because I was sworn to secrecy until the time came. It was part of my plan and secret.

Vegeta: But it was a genius one. J.D. and Joe thought about everything. We managed to cripple their weapons production and forces by 95%.

Nico: Wow! That's very strategically well played out.

Me: It was. And I'm sorry I kept this from you and I'll make it all up to you all.

Natilee and Princess Luna came.

Natilee: Dad! Everyone, Lori, Lynn and Lola had horrible nightmares!

We gasped and went to their rooms and saw Lori being comforted by Bobby and her kids, Lynn being comforted by Lightning and Lola being comforted by Winston and Rita.

Lori: (CRYING HARD) Oh Boo Boo Bear, it was literally horrible!

Bobby: Oh Babe, it was just a nightmare.

Roxanne: Yeah mom it's not real. Everyone has them.

Lydia: Yeah even we literally do.

Me: Oh Lori. What was your nightmare about?

Natilee: It's this dad.

She showed us a picture on her sketchpad that she drew and it was a picture of Lori, Lynn and Lola being shot and killed after the public turned on them for all the things we did and they showed their thanks by killing them and they shouted horrible words that are so horrible that they are not even allowed to be shown. They shouted racial slurs, death words, hate words, everything. It was awful. They pumped their guts full of lead and all that and killed them over and over and over again.

We gasped in shock and horror!

Nico: Oh man! That is worst than my nightmares!

Lincoln: No kidding!

Me: Yeah! Girls this is not real. It was just a nightmare. They never happen. We would never let that happen to you. Everyone would never do that. Not after everything we went through these last few days.

Lola: (Crying) BUT WHAT IF IT'S TRUE!?

Winston: Oh Lols I would never do that to you.

Lightning: Yeah and I would never do that to the greatest sports star I know. I would never do all that to you Lynn.

Me: Me neither.

We all agreed that we would never do that to them.

Bobby: Yeah babe. You are very important to me and I would never do that to you.

Lori: (Crying) Oh Boo Boo Bear! (CRYING)

Seeing them cry like that made our hearts all hurt and it was horrible.

Rita: Oh sweetie. I know it hurts but nightmares never happen. It will be all right.

We waited for them to calm down. When they were done we got ready.

Professor XXXL, See-More, Gizmo, Mammoth, Kyd Wykkyd, Pete, Bonz, and Moonstone

Professor XXXL: Can me, See-More, Gizmo, Mammoth, Kyd Wykkyd, Pete, Bonz, and Moonstone go with you guys to stop Black Ghost?

Me: You all sure can. And the other Masters of Evil might as well come too. We're gonna need all the help we can get if we're gonna be able to take them down once and for all.

Nico: Right. And you said that their main headquarters is located under a dormant volcano in the Philippines?

Me: Yep. That's what the scans said.

Nico: Wow! I can show you all where I used to live as long as we're there in the Philippines. You'll love my old village.

Me: Awesome. Lets head out!

We were off to Cyborg 00's mansion.

CYBORG 00 MANSION, LIECHTENSTEIN

Babs Seed: Are you sure this is where Joe lives?

Me: This is where we were told to meet him.

We were at an awesome mansion hidden in the Alps of Liechtenstein.

Me: Nice mansion though.

Nico: It sure is.

I went up and knocked on the door and it opened and out came Joe

Shimamura A.K.A. Cyborg 009.

Joe Shimamura: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

See More: (to Joe) Are you Joe?

Joe Shimamura: I sure am and wow Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here Joe. It's a pleasure to meet you in person.

Nico: And we owe you one for helping us deal with the Sullen 6.

Joe Shimamura: Think nothing of it. The Sullen 6 were nothing but a bunch of Pathological Liars and I didn't believe anything they said.

Me: None of us did.

Joe Shimamura: I can tell. Come on in guys.

We went in and saw how nice their mansion headquarters was and it was amazing.

Me: Wow.

Princess Rose: Your headquarters is really nice.

Joe Shimamura: Thanks Princess.

Me: It sure is awesome.

Nico: It's nice as ours too.

Joe Shimamura: I heard your headquarters turned into a massive and ginormous tree.

Me: Yep. We call it the World Tree of Friendship. It's huge.

We saw the entire Cyborg 00 team.

Joe Shimamura (島村ジョー, Shimamura Jō ) - Cyborg 009, and the main character/leader

He is super-humanly strong, resistant to damage, can leap large distances, and can breathe underwater. His most prominent ability is the power to move at a speed so fast that everything else looks like a statue to him, this is triggered by a switch embedded in his teeth. Shimamura is unable to touch any living creatures, such as humans, when he's in this state, as the high speeds would kill or otherwise seriously maim the creature through air friction. During each of the series, he acts as the field leader and first line attack of the 00 Cyborgs.

Joe is originally from Japan, although he is actually half-Japanese whose unknown father was presumably a soldier in the US Army stationed in Japan after World War II. A delinquent youth who was shunned by his peers because he was a half-breed, he escaped from a juvenile detention facility before being captured by Black Ghost. In the 2001 anime, after his father disappeared and his mother died on the steps at his childbirth, he was an orphan taken in by a Catholic priest from Kanazawa along with their street friends, Mary Onodera (perhaps a tribute to Shotaro Ishinomori, his birth name being Shotaro Onodera), Shin'ichi Ibaraki, and Masaru Oyamada. When he turned 18, his mentor was killed by Black Ghost members after they used a group of children that he raised in the church as guinea pigs for the Cyborg project; Joe was wrongfully blamed, then captured by the priest's killers and made into a cyborg. In the 1960 and 1980 film versions, Joe was a famous racer, nicknamed "Hurricane Joe", who gets into a crash and is recovered by Black Ghost (similar to 004's origin), who then adds several body enhancements during the process of being turned into a cyborg.

Ivan Whisky (イワン·ウイスキー, Iwan Uisukī) - Cyborg 001

Originally from Russia, Ivan was born with a severe illness which his father Gamo, a famous brain surgeon, tried to cure but went mad trying to do so. Gamo performed numerous brain enhancement processes on Ivan in his attempt to cure him which granted the young child a mental capacity far exceeding that of a normal human. However, the implants were inserted against the wishes of Ivan's mother, Erika (whom, Gamo killed in the manga). Ivan's enhanced brain gives him several psychic powers, including, telepathy, telekinesis, and extrasensory perception. However, he sometimes falls asleep at inopportune times due to still being a baby and his body not being able to handle such powers.

Ivan would later fell into the custody of Black Ghost, who dubbed him the first member of the organization's 00-Cyborg program. He was one of the 00 Cyborgs who were frozen until more advanced technology and procedures were developed. While still a pacifier-sucking infant, he is talented in scientific analysis and can telepathically converse at an adult level. He acts as the 00 Cyborgs central command and emergency psychokinetic defense.

Jet Link (ジェット·リンク, Jetto Rinku ) - Cyborg 002

Unmistakable with his swept-back hair, confident smile and longer-than-real-life nose, Jet has thrusters built into his feet, allowing him to fly at speeds of up to Mach 5. Jet is also equipped with an earlier, less powerful acceleration mode, later refined in 009.

In the 2001 anime continuity, Jet was originally 001, but was replaced by Ivan. Jet comes from New York City in the United States and was the leader of the Jets gang on Manhattan's West Side. (In the manga, his character is introduced in a scene which parodies the opening scenes of the movie West Side Story ). He was intercepted by Black Ghost members when he stabbed a Puerto Rican gang member to death, who took him away from the scene to be made into a cyborg later. He has a brash personality which often conflicts with his peers, but he's a loyal, good-hearted member of the team. He provides air support and rescue.

Françoise Arnoul (フランソワーズ·アルヌール, Furansowāzu Arunūru ) - Cyborg 003

She has enhanced vision and hearing, allowing her to see through walls and sense objects an enormous distance away; and is also an excellent pilot, technician, and a machine whiz.

Françoise was originally a ballet dancer from France. Her brother Jean ( Jean-Paul in the English dub), a member of the French Air Force returning to Paris on a one-week leave, was to meet Françoise at the train station. However, she was kidnapped by Black

Ghost operatives, despite repeated attempts by her brother to save her along the way. In the third anime series, Black Ghost offers a fake professional dancing career so they can kidnap her. She is the only female member of the team, 003 rarely fights though she will when needed and she's often seen either directing the battle under Gilmore's guidance or caring for 001. In the 2001 anime, she was one of the 00 Cyborgs who were frozen until more advanced technology and procedures were developed; she's chronologically in her 50s, being 19 when captured. Her jobs include reconnaissance, advance warning, and caring for 001. She and Joe seem to have a romantic relationship.

Albert Heinrich (アルベルト·ハインリヒ, Aruberuto Hainrihi ) - Cyborg 004

Albert was originally from Germany (specifically, East Berlin). He and his fiancée, Hilda attempted to escape to West Berlin in the guise of circus performers. When Albert forgot to retrieve his forged identification from a guard, he panicked and sped off. The border guards opened fire on the truck, injuring Albert and killing Hilda in the process. Black Ghost agents arrived on the scene and lied to Albert, telling him they'd take him to a hospital.

004 often has a gruff exterior which belies his friendly personality and disgust with war, and he is also a skilled combat tactician. He was the last of the 00 Cyborgs you were then frozen until more advanced technology and procedures were made and is chronologically the oldest of the group, being already 30 years old when captured. The extent of his injuries also resulted in him receiving the most extensive cyborg modifications: the fingertips on his right hand conceal machine gun barrels, his left hand has razor-sharp edges, and he has missiles hidden in his knees. In the 2001 series, upon waking up as a cyborg, Albert was stricken with despair and developed suicidal tendencies, aggravated by the side effects of his modifications which caused him additional physical pain and strain. This ultimately forced Black Ghost to halt the cyborg program for decades, and put the existing cyborgs in suspended animation until technology developed sufficiently to make future cyborg soldiers more stable. He is most often frontline advance and anti-personnel.

Geronimo Jr. (ジェロニモ·ジュニア, Jeronimo Junia ) - Cyborg 005

Also called "G-Junior" for short, he was originally from an undisclosed part of the southwest United States (either Arizona or New Mexico). G-Junior is a Native American who was unable to find work because of widespread racism. He was approached to be a Native American chief in a sideshow, but G-Junior simply punched the sideshow owner in the face, refusing to further the stereotypes about his culture. Black Ghost agents overheard the conversation and offered G-Junior a job far from home. G-Junior accepted, admitting that he really had no home anymore (In the 2001 series he was a freelance construction worker bribed into accepting a very promising job offer by disguised Black Ghost agents). Geronimo was the first created when Black Ghost resumed its cyborg soldier program. His principal job is line defense and artillery, typically using boulders as missiles against aggressors.

Physically, he is the strongest as well as the biggest of the 00 Cyborgs; he also has heavily armored skin. He is a quiet, reserved man with a deep reverence for nature and life, and it's speculated that he may have a sort of sixth sense that allows him to sense changes in the nature and possibly other people's thoughts.

Chang Changku (張々湖, Chanchanko ) - Cyborg 006

Chang was originally from China. He was an impoverished Chinese farmer who once owned a pig farm; almost all of his pigs ran away and he was starving and suffering under heavy taxes. Hopeless, Chang decided to end his misery by hanging himself, but was "saved" by a bullet from Black Ghost which cut the noose. Chang fainted and was later delivered to the Black Ghost laboratory (In the 2001 series, he owned a restaurant, thus explaining why he's such a good cook, but accidentally burned it down after doing a fire-breathing trick, which resulted in him losing everything. Black Ghost agents then abducted him after he fainted from the shock). He's a jovial fellow who is well-versed in the ways of cooking; his refined cuisine and happy personality always manage to bring his teammates back to good spirits. His role, aside from food preparation, is anti-personnel and line advance.

Chang's power allows him to breathe huge flames which he uses to create tunnels in the earth and attack enemies with underground explosions.

Sir Great Britain (グレート·ブリテン, Gurēto Buriten ) - Cyborg 007

007 has the incredible ability to reshape his cellular structure at will, allowing him to take the form of any object, creature, or person he wishes. With his superb acting skills, he can also blend in with the enemy to use sneaky maneuvers and attacks. His powers make 007 a master of infiltration/espionage; by morphing into a dangerous animal or gigantic form he can also be very useful in field combat.

Great Britain, whose real name is unknown, was originally from the United Kingdom. He was once a famous and talented stage actor with a broad knowledge of famous shows but a weakness for Alcohol caused his downfall. In the 2001 TV series, Great Britain was in love with an actress named Sophie, who worked with him. Later he became more famous and gradually ignored his past love. One financial problem after another arose, and the once great thespian was reduced over time to a penniless nobody who would do anything for a drink or a smoke. Black Ghost agents, noticing his plight, easily lured Great Britain into their vehicle with an alcoholic beverage. Later when he escapes with the other cyborgs he returns to the United Kingdom and finds out that his ex-girlfriend had a daughter, Rosa. With the possibility that she might be his child, Great Britain tries to talk to her but is unfortunately rejected and scorned for his past actions (Rosa believed him to have betrayed Sophie), to be redeemed only in the end when he replaces a main actor in Rosa's theatrical play and manages to befriend her. Great Britain is very lighthearted and is a very amiable guy to boot. Giving credence to his personality as a comic relief, there is a running gag where Great Britain often takes the form of a precocious, almost super deformed, spoiled child fearing for his own life.

In the 1960s anime versions, he is a child rather than an adult, in an attempt by the producers to appeal to a younger audience. Though Ishinomori initially disapproved of this, he later temporarily mirrored it in the manga version by having Gilmore alter 007's body to make the child form his standard form in a one-shot titled "The Man in the High Castle" (though this change was quickly discarded soon after).

Pyunma (ピュンマ) - Cyborg 008

Pyunma, the only member of the team with real combat training, has mechanical lungs that allow him to survive for very long periods of time underwater.

Pyunma was originally from an undisclosed part of Africa (eventually revealed to be Kenya in 1992). Originally, Pyunma was to have been made a slave along with the people of his tribe, but he escaped from his chains and ran off. Cornered by the slave drivers, all seemed lost until the slave drivers were shot dead by Black Ghost agents from out of nowhere. Holding Pyunma at gunpoint, they led him to their plane so he could be taken to the cybernetics laboratory. In the 2001 series, Pyunma was a guerilla fighter who fought against the tyrant ruling his land along with his friends Kabore and Mamado, but was caught in the crossfire during a nocturnal fight, and then Black Ghost people kidnapped him. Pyunma is a serious fighter and decision-maker when the situation demands it. His talents include guerrilla-style land maneuvers plus undersea recon and demolition. Near the end of the 2001 series, he is given an unwanted rebuild that leaves him with a silver-scaled fishlike body; he is initially horrified by it, but after a talk with 004 he accepts it and even gives his new parts an effective and ingenious use in a fight. In the original 1960s and 1970's incarnations, Pyuma's body design was inspired in the darky iconography of older American cartoons. This is in contrast to the seriousness of the character's no-nonsense, battle-trained personality. In the 80s movie Chou Ginga Densetsu, Pyunma was redesigned as less caricatured and more naturalistic; this same revamped design was updated for the 2001 series.

Françoise: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Pyunma: It's great to see you all again.

Me: Same to you guys and it's an honor to meet you all. We can't thank you all enough for helping us take down the Sullen 6.

Jet Link: No problem. They were monsters that needed to be destroyed.

Sir Great Britain: You got that right.

Geronimo Jr.: We heard that you all were destroying bases belonging to Black Ghost.

Me: We sure have. It was part of our plan. We blew up bases in USA, Germany, England, France, Kenya, China and Japan. We destroyed 95% of their bases.

Albert Heinrich: Wow! You guys have been busy.

Me: We sure have.

Kyd Wykkyd: How about telling us everything you know about Black Ghost?

Françoise: We would be more than happy to.

Ivan: You guys are gonna hate them.

They went over their history.

---

Black Ghost is an enigmatic arms-dealing organization serving as the main antagonists of the Cyborg 009 franchise. Their technology is among the most advanced on Earth. They seek to start wars around the globe so they can make money selling their weapons to both sides of the conflict.

They are responsible for abducting the people who would eventually become the 00 Cyborgs. However, the cyborgs were able to escape with help from Dr. Gilmore, a former Black Ghost scientist who turned against the organization, and from then on dedicated themselves to fighting it.

Black Ghost has existed since World War II, though its exact foundation is unknown and it likely has been active prior. Cyborg 009 vs. Devilman suggests that Black Ghost was formed from the merging of multiple multinational corporations post-World War I. It is even hinted that Black Ghost may have played a role in the Holocaust.

Since its inception, Black Ghost has enticed many scientists to come work for it. While some, like Dr. Gilmore, were deceived into joining it, others, like Dr. Gaia, became members of the organization for power. The organization garnered massive profit from selling weapons to rival sides of a conflict, forcing the other side to also buy their weapons in order to match up. With the dawn of the Cold War, Black Ghost was able to exploit the tensions between the two countries to sell its advanced weaponry, expanding its influence across the globe.

Black Ghost would soon begin development of its 00 Cyborg line, planning to bring about a new age of warfare fought exclusively by cyborg soldiers. To gather test subjects for the line, Skull sent operatives of Black Ghost across the globe to kidnap people. These included Ivan Whisky, the voluntarily given up infant child of Black Ghost researcher Gamo Whisky, Jet Link, a New York gang member and fugitive, Francoise Arnoul, a French ballerina, Albert Heinrich an East German citizen who attempted to flee to West Germany, Geronimo Jr., a Native American laborer sold out by his boss, Chang Changku, a Chinese chef who attempted suicide, Great Britain, an actor from England, Pyunma, a slave in Africa, and Joe Shimamura, an orphaned boy framed for the murder of a Catholic priest. In the Cyborg Soldier anime, it is specified that a time gap existed between the creation of the first five cyborgs and the later four models in the 00 line. Cyborgs 001-005, produced in the 1960s, possessed design flaws that Black Ghost was unable to fix with their current technology at the time, and were put in stasis until technology became more advanced. They were thawed out in 2001, and Cyborgs 006-009 were added to the 00 line.

However, it was by this point that one of the scientists working on the project, Dr. Gilmore, had a change of heart and decided to help the cyborgs break out of the Black Ghost laboratories. Ivan used his psychic powers to have 009 awaken prematurely and guide him out of Black Ghost's base to join the rest of the cyborgs. From then on, Black Ghost began dedicating their efforts to either recovering or killing the 00 Cyborgs, sending out several of their newer cyborgs to fight them.

In the 2001 anime, the organization was seemingly brought to an end when the 00 Cyborgs infiltrated one of Black Ghost's main bases and defeated Skull before blowing the base up. Despite this, the 00 Cyborgs would encounter remnants of the organization from time to time, such as Dr. Gaia and his Mythos Cyborgs or the Monster Island Scientists. Eventually, the 00 Cyborgs discovered that they had not defeated the organization, but simply pushed it farther underground, both figuratively and literally, as the Black Ghost had set up shop in the underground Yomi Kingdom, using the kingdom's people and resources to further the completion of their ultimate weapon, the Demon Statue. The previous rulers of Yomi were a race of lizardmen called the Zattan, who had enslaved Yomi's other native race the Pu'Awak, but Black Ghost were easily able to drive them out and reduce them to near extinction with their army of robotic infantry.

After encountering Helen, Princess of the Pu'Awak, the 00 Cyborgs discovered Black Ghost's operations and were led underground by Helen and her sister Vena. The 00 Cyborgs defeated Van Vogt, the Black Ghost operative overseeing the development of the weapon, but were unable to prevent the statue's takeoff. However, Cyborg 001 was able to teleport 009 inside the statue. The heroic cyborg found himself face-to-face with Skull, who had somehow managed to survive his previous encounter with the cyborgs, and the true leaders of Black Ghost, three gigantic brains. 009 and Skull engaged in a brutal and combative battle that ultimately ended when the brains killed Skull to prevent him from causing any internal damage to the statue with his ultimate attack. This didn't stop 009 from shooting the interior and causing the statue to begin to explode. However, the Black Ghost brains told 009 that they were only a "cell" in a network of Black Ghost and that, as long as there is evil, Black Ghost would continue to exist in the universe.

When they were done we gasped and we were shocked and horrified!

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Whoa is right! This is awful!

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. They are worse than Al-Qaeda!

Me: No shit. What they did to you all is terrible.

I clenched my fist tight and blood poured out from between my knuckles and dripped onto the floor and burned a hole through it.

Nico: Easy J.D. Easy.

Me: Sorry. But I can't believe they would do all that to you. That is just downright fucking despicable!

Chang Changku: Indeed it is.

Laney: Those monsters have no honor.

Lana: And they will pay for their crimes big time.

Lily: Yeah!

Lori, Lynn and Lola got up.

Lori: You guys can go without us. We're leaving and moving to Akira's Earth.

We gasped.

Maria: What do you three mean you're leaving our Earth for Akira's?!

Lola: Well, the public have made it clear that they don't want us around anymore. Sure, they apologized to us. But what's to stop them from turning on us again?

Lincoln: Well, the rest of us want to stay here!

Lynn: Well, if you guys want to, that's fine. But the three of us hae made our decision.

Drag Strip: What about your families and loved ones? And we shouldn't forget the war in April!

Lori: I'm sorry, guys. We'll literally stick around to take down Black Ghost. But after that, we're done fighting for this Earth.

And with that, Lynn, Lori, and Lola walked away.

Joe Shimamura: I'll go stop them.

Me: Okay Joe. In the meantime we can find out more on what happened to cause your team to become this way.

Joe Shimamura: Okay.

Joe left.

Me: Sorry guys. They had really bad nightmares about everyone turning against them and killing them.

Françoise: Oh man. Pour girls.

Jet Link: I hope they get better.

Me: They will. Joe will talk some sense into them. If anything from what I heard it's that Joe is a great leader like me.

Albert Heinrich: That's true.

Bonz: While Joe talks some sense into Lori, Lynn, and Lola, why don't we show the rest of you the usual battles for today?

Me: Good idea. We have a lot of fun with a lot of great usual battles.

Ivan: That's what we heard.

Varie: You're more than welcome to join us in the fun. It'll give us a chance to see what you all can do.

Jet Link: Sure.

Albert Heinrich: We would be honored.

Me: Awesome. Black Ghost's main base of operations is located in the Philippines. We're gonna head over there to take them down.

Françoise: Great! It's time to end this once and for all.

Nico: Agreed. And I can show you guys where I used to live while were there.

Me: Awesome.

We headed out and I told Joe where we were gonna be for the final showdown and he understood.

SIQUIJOR, PHILIPPINES

We arrived at a small village on the island of Siquijor in the Philippines. It was home to a huge mansion and a bunch of small huts and houses.

Me: Wow.

Nico: Here we are guys. This is my old village.

May: Wow! Nico your village is amazing.

Nico: Yep. This is where I used to live long before I joined you guys. And that big house up there is where I used to live.

Laney: Wow! I didn't know your dad was rich there.

Nico: My dad is a missionary. Before he retired, he would travel around the planet and help people that are sick and hurt. He helped a lot of poor people around the world.

May: That's amazing.

Nico: It sure is. I'll show you around.

We walked around Nico's village and all the natives were greeting him and us and we waved to them and greeted them in Filipino and it was awesome. Nico showed us his old mansion and it was amazing and beautiful. He showed us his old room and where he lived in it and all that. It was cool.

We went to the village square and out came The Top, Evilseed, Red X, Bronze Kneecap, Private H.I.V.E., Onyx, Goliath and Nergal.

The Top, Evilseed, Red X, Bronze Kneecap, Private H.I.V.E., Onyx, Goliath and Nergal appeared.

Me: The Top, Evilseed, Red X, Bronze Kneecap, Private H.I.V.E., Onyx, Goliath and Nergal.

Nergal: Great to see you all here.

Bronze Kneecap: Yeah.

Evilseed: It took the 8 of us some time to find where you guys were.

Nico: Sorry about that. But what do you think of my old home?

Red X: It's actually pretty nice.

Bronze Kneecap: I hope you guys can convince Lori, Lola, and Lynn not to abandon us.

May: Don't worry. Joe's all over it.

Private H.I.V.E.: (to Joe's team) Those Black Ghost assholes have got some nerve drying to draft you guys into their army!

Jet Link: They sure do and they will pay for it!

Me: Big time!

Private H.I.V.E.: Permission to speak to you sir!

Me: Granted soldier!

Private H.I.V.E.: Can you give my condolences to Lori, Lynn and Lola for having a bad nightmare?

Me: I will be happy to.

?: I hope they will be all right.

2 figures came out and one was Matacore from episode 5 of Super Megaforce and the other was IMPERIOUS, The Traitorous Mummy Monster!

---

Imperious was the second leading general of the Morlocks and was one of the two major antagonists of Power Rangers Mystic Force . He was once Calindor, a friend of Daggeron, Leanbow and Udonna, until the dark forces turned him into the Mummy-like wizard.

Not much was known about Imperious until the two-part episode "Heir Apparent." He was originally a human named Calindor who was once a kind friend of Udonna's and was trained beside Daggeron by Leanbow. However, he became corrupted by dark magic and discarded Leanbow's teachings, having grown tired of constantly hearing about honor and having to play by the rules. During the Great Battle he betrayed his fellow Mystics and ambushed Daggeron, who was escorting Leanbow and Udonna's infant son Bowen away from the battle. Calindor demanded baby Bowen be handed to him, but Daggeron refused, and the two former friends engaged in a battle that ultimately led to them being magically sealed within a cave. Since that day Calindor laid mummified within the cave, having been cursed during his struggle with Daggeron, until he was revived and reborn in a new body as the mummy-like Imperious.

Years later, Necrolai tricked the Rangers into breaking the seal preventing her to enter the cave and retrieved the mummified Calindor. Octomus brought him back to life as Imperious to serve as the new leader of the Underworld, a role Imperious took an immediate liking to. He refers to himself as the "Dark Wizard". Imperious only sees magic as a way to grant his own selfish desires. Imperious was easily annoyed by Leelee's complaining, turning her into a bug with the ability to summon and free monsters (including himself) from the Underworld. Imperious wasn't hindered by a goal on escaping the Underworld like Morticon was, and focused more on direct attacks on the civilians of Briarwood. In his first encounter, Imperious easily defeated the Rangers, and only Jenji's surprise attack and the fact his magic hadn't yet returned to full strength (due to being stuck in the cave) drove him back.

Imperious briefly reasumed his previous identity as Calindor to gain Udonna and the other Rangers' trust, intending to poison Udonna, frame Daggeron as the traitor and steal the Xenotome. Luckily, Clare was distrustful of him and found out from Phineas he was the true traitor just in time to stop Imperious from poisoning Udonna, and Daggeron prevented him from gaining the Xenotome. After that, Imperious began seeing Daggeron as a rival.

Imperious has also clashed numerous times with Koragg, and even dared Koragg to fight without magic, relying on only his physical strength. Koragg agreed, and his magic was turned into a purple dark Mystic Morpher that was given to Necrolai.

Unbeknownst to Koragg, this was just the first step in a much larger plan - to destroy the Master and rule the world on his own. In the next step of Imperious' plan, he released the four Barbarian Beasts. Warmax and Shrieker were sent to battle the Rangers first, wearing them down, while he secretly dispatched both Fightoe and 50-Below to take out Koragg so he couldn't interfere. Imperious then sent them to battle the Rangers, knowing that their laziness and battle fatigue would cause them to summon Jenji - at which point Fightoe captured him and took him to the Underworld, where Imperious used Jenji's power to wish for a world where the Mystic Force Power Rangers never existed, rendering the Rangers powerless. This allowed the forces of darkness to conquer the world - Rootcore was reduced to rubble and the Rock Porium vanished, color and good magic were nonexistent, humanity was enslaved and music was outlawed. One thing Imperious hadn't counted on was that Koragg had survived and plotted against them, helping the Rangers to reach the Tribunal of Magic and reverse Jenji's wish, after which 50-Below was destroyed. After the battle, Imperious scolded Fightoe for fleeing from battle and destroyed his body and then used Fightoe's soul to power the war machine monster, Ursus, which was also destroyed.

Imperious later attempted to convince the Master that Koragg had committed treason against the forces of evil. However, after proving himself to be honorable, the Master let Koragg keep his magic. It's now Imperious that should be wary of The Master, since it has been proved that Imperious cannot be trusted and has no honor.

Realizing he was unable to destroy Octomus as long as Koragg was around and scared of his treachery being found out, he decided to get into Octomus' good side instead by raising him out of the Underworld with the Ranger's Legend powers. To that end, he formulated a plan by separating Daggeron from the Rangers and destroying him, while using his power to create the Chimera to help drag the Rangers down into the Underworld; Udonna's interference and Koragg's transformation back into Leanbow freed the Rangers, but the Master was still rising. Imperious was on the verge of triumph when it was discovered Daggeron had in fact survived. Imperious challenged him to a bound battle - the two, in their Ancient Mystic Modes, would be chained together and fight with only swords. Imperious cheated, snatching the Solaris Laser Lamp for use and mocking the idea of fighting with honor. Despite this, Daggeron was able to win and mortally wounded his enemy. Imperious regressed back to Calindor and then into the mummified shell of himself before dissolving to dust as he made a cryptic remark about the coming of the Ten Terrors.

Imperious: Daggeron, my old friend. It's been a very long time.

Daggeron: (British Accent) Imperious. Don't think all is forgotten after everything you did.

Me: And I remember that you are the most notorious traitor to Octomus the Master.

Imperious: Yes indeed J.D. Knudson.

Me: Well all your treachery didn't pay off. Octomus is dead and you're looking at his killer: Me.

Imperious: A lowly human like you killed The Master!?

Me: Oh I am more powerful than I look Imperious.

Troy Burrows: And Matacore you are doing well.

Matacore: It's about time I get to fight you Rangers. And this time, Medusa's not in the way.

Troy Burrows: Thank goodness.

Me: But it's good she has a counterpart in prison and one that's dead.

Nico: Yeah!

Penny: That monster deserved it for murdering my parents.

Bronze Kneecap: By the way guys we saw the Estate and is it true that it turned into a massive tree?

Me: It sure is. It's called the World Tree of Friendship. It's a tree that's 100 miles high, the trunk is 100 miles wide and the foliage is 1,000 miles wide.

Bronze Kneecap: WHOA!

Red X: That tree is massive!

Evilseed: No kidding! That's unbelievable!

Me: Yeah and it's amazing! The view of Earth is amazing.

Nico: It sure is.

Me: Me and Daggeron will face Imperious. Obviously he has an old score to settle with him.

Nico: Awesome. Lets give them a good show.

Me: Lets do it.

We went at them.

Battle 1: Ant Man, Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle, Scootaloo, Diamond

Tiara, Silver Spoon, Frozen Fright, Thunder Terror, Magma Gloom, Toxic Horror, Louie Poisonsea, Runo, Cyborg 002, Runo, Octopunch and Radeeder VS The Top

---

The Top was first.

Top: (to Ant Man) So, is it true that you can talk to ants?

Ant Man: It sure is. My suit gives me the ability to not only shrink and grow in size but also communicate with ants.

Apple Bloom: Wow! That is amazing!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it is!

Ant Man: Thanks girls.

Scootaloo: I think it's neat too.

The Top: It sure is. Nico's village is really nice too. I heard he used to live here before he joined up with you all.

Diamond Tiara: He sure did and it's really amazing.

Silver Spoon: It sure is. And he has been helping us without even knowing it. He travelled all over the world as much as we have.

Frozen Fright: That's so cool.

The Top: Wow! It sure is.

Thunder Terror: I think so too.

Magma Gloom: Yeah and I've been doing a lot of research on the islands of the Philippines and they have a lot of volcanoes and history here. Like when Mount Pinatubo erupted here in 1991.

The Top: I remember reading about that too.

Toxic Horror: Wow. That's something.

Louie PoisonSea: Yeah it is.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) It's what happens when you live on the Ring of Fire here. It's always active.

Runo: Yes it is. And it's dangerous too.

The Top: It sure is. What can you do as a Cyborg, Jet?

Jet Link: I have rockets built into my feet and they enable me to fly at mach 5.

They gasped.

---

Evilseed was next.

Evilseed: (to Mallow) I'm not mad that J.D. hid Black Ghost's existence from us. But we would've gladly helped him if he told us.

Mallow: I know but it was all part of J.D.'s mission to minimize their forces so they would be easier to destroy.

Fluttershy: It was a big job and it was very important before we met the Cyborg 00 Team.

Tree Hugger: It was heavy dudes.

Nuova Shenron: It sure is. Most impressive.

Red X: That sure is.

Hunter then saw an old symbol of Germany. It was the emblem of East Germany that was disbanded when the Berlin Wall was destroyed.

Hunter: That's the symbol of East Germany. Are you from East Germany?

Albert Heinrich: I sure am.

Red X: East Germany disbanded in 1990 when the Berlin Wall was destroyed.

Albert Heinrich: Yes that's right. I'm gonna get the new Germany Flag later.

Hunter: Wunderbar!

Hunter: With pleasure.

Private H.I.V.E. was next.

Private H.I.V.E.: (to Emerald Sustrai) Normally, I'd court martial Lori, Lynn, and Lola for abandoning their unit. But I understand their reasons.

Emerald: Well I agree with you on that too. But they've been having bad nightmares like this for the last couple of days and they think that the entirety of the world is out to kill them. Not that we can't die anyway.

Pinkie Pie: Yeah I can't believe they would think that! We did so much for this world and everyone would never turn against us like that.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) I agree with you on that Pinkie. But fear has a nasty way of clouding peoples minds like J.D. says.

Chang Changku: It is most dishonorable to think like that as fear is your strongest enemy.

Clay Bailey: I think after they are dead we'll leave them like they are. Black Ghost gave them great power and like J.D. always says, With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility. They got their abilities for a reason and that reason is to fight the forces of evil like we do.

Onyx: That's a good point.

Applejack: Indeed it is. I think Joe and all his friends would be a most amazing and valuable part of the entire team.

Apple Fritter: I think so too.

Sir Great Britain: I'm glad you all think that.

Onyx: Awesome. What can you do as a Cyborg, Sir Great Britain?

Sir Great Britain: I have the ability to transform into anything just by pressing my belly button. Watch.

Trixie: It's called the TLPS S.S. Harmony. It's amazing ship.

Nergal: I saw what it looked like on the blueprints. That's amazing.

Blake Belladonna: It sure is.

Cyborg: I think so too.

Nergal: Indeed. Cyborg you were made a different way than Cyborg 00 right?

Cyborg: As a matter of fact I was. Unlike Cyborg 00, I got my cybernetic powers and all that from being blown up in an accident and my entire body was replaced with all this. Cyborg 00 got their powers and all that from Black Ghost and they took them against their will and turned them into Cyborgs so they would be used as weapons.

Nergal: That is awful!

Blake: Hugely awful! That's why we're gonna make sure they pay dearly for their crimes.

Nergal: I can tell. Lets get it on!

---

Meanwhile, Joe was talking to Lori, Lynn and Lola. He was telling them to not leave.

Joe: (to Lori) When you, Lola, and Lynn said you were done fighting for this Earth, you girls didn't mean that, did you?

Lori: Joe, do you literally know how many times the people that we protected with our lives ended up turning against us?

Lola: How many more times do we have to be punished because of our own fellow humans' mistakes?

Joe: Well, what do you think being human means? That's what we do. We make me and my friends got kidnapped by the Black Ghost and made into who we were, that was a mistake. But from that mistake, we received the greatest treasure we could ever ask for. Friendships with each other. What I'm trying to say is that we all make mistakes, girls. But sometimes from those mistakes, come the greatest rewards. Sometimes you just need to have faith, in yourself and in others. Isn't that what you girls have for J.D. and the others? I'm not going to say that I've been with you guys since the beginning, or that I fully understand what you're going through. But I do know, that after seeing everything you guys have done for us, I still have faith in you. So even if you got no faith in us, I'm asking you girls to do what I do. I'm asking you to look at all the junk and see the treasure. All I'm asking is you to have a little faith in me and the rest of this Earth in who we can be.

With that, Joe went to rejoin us, leaving Lynn, Lori, and Lola to think about what he said.

Lynn: Have a little faith, huh?

Lori: Faith…

Lola: Faith…

Those words echoed in their minds and then they realized what they were doing.

Lori: What are we doing!? We can't leave! We are part of this world and the team!

Lynn: Yeah! We were fools to think everyone would turn against us!

Lola: Yeah! Lets head back to the others.

They went to the Philippines.

---

Joe came back.

Me: Hey Joe. How did it go?

Joe: They are thinking about it.

Long John Silver: (to Joe) Lad, if those three still decide to leave, we should respect their descision.

Akira: But at least me and my team will make sure they're okay.

Me: That's true. But Lori thinks that because we do mistakes, it makes them worthless persons. I for one would think that and would never have them be persecuted like that. Not after everything we went through these last few days.

Ivan: I know how you feel J.D. But I for one would never think that you are a mistake. Not after everything you did to help us and the entire planet. You and your team are the greatest heroes of all time and numerous people all over the universe look up to you.

R.D. Me: That's right. And if it weren't for you and how you stopped my team when they were corrupted, I would've never been set free. You saved numerous people not just in this universe but in my universe as well.

Nico: And you helped save me from my past and freed me from my inner demons.

Lisa Loud: You have done so much for us and everyone all over.

Me: Thank you guys. Thank you.

Lori, Lynn and Lola came.

Lori: Hey guys!

Lola: We're staying!

We cheered!

Pete: It's good that you three decided to stay. I was starting to think that I would've had to beat some sense into you.

Lori: We literally had a good talking to.

Bobby: Oh babe!

He hugged her.

Roxanne: Mommy!

Her kids hugged her too.

Lightning: Glad you are staying babe! SHA-BLAM!

Lynn: YEAH! SHA-BLAM!

Winston: Thank goodness Lola.

Lola: Yeah we were fools.

All the Masters of Evil all appeared.

Me: Awesome you guys got our call.

Vypra: We're ready for anything.

Me: Cool.

Sinnertwin: Now, let's prepare for the battle against Black Ghost.

Me: With pleasure. Vypra, would you like to provide the entrance this time?

Vypra: I would be honored J.D. You are gonna love it.

Me: Can't wait.

Mammoth: While we're getting ready, do you guys have something to eat around here?

Nico: Well the Philippines are known for having lots of fruit trees.

Laney: I think I can help with that.

Laney touched the ground and chanted an incantation and a bunch of pizza trees and burger trees and meat trees grew!

Nico: (JAWDROP)

Lincoln: Pizza Trees!?

Linka: Burger Trees!?

Rolf: And meat trees!?

Laney: I finally figured out how to make different foods appear on trees.

Me: That's so cool!

Mammoth started eating. Same with Shiv and they were stuffed later on.

Gyro Man: Now we can head out.

Me: Okay. Look out Black Ghost. (Eyes Glow Red) We're coming for you and you will pay for your crimes.

Nico: (Eyes glow blue) Big time.

We were off to Mount Alu.

We later arrived at Mount Alu. It was a volcano located on the island of Sulu and it was laying dormant since 2500 BC.

Moonstone: Is this the place?

Me: Yep. Scans show that the base is right underneath.

Nicole: This is Mount Alu. It's a dormant volcano. It last erupted in 2500 B.C.

Me: It's long overdue for an eruption. Lets do it.

We flew down and we went into the lair and we saw that the true leaders of the entire organization were really called GENERALISSIMO! They were really a machine with 3 Disembodied brains in a jar!

The Generalissimo, also referred to as the Emperor or the Demon God, are a trio of brains residing in the Demon Statue and the true leaders of Black Ghost. Their origin is unknown, but they claim to be the result of "bio-cell technology" and a representation of the evil in the hearts of humankind. The center brain has the voice of a man, the brain to the left has the voice of a woman, and the brain to the right has the voice of a child. They are the overarching antagonists of the Cyborg 009 series.

In the 2001 anime, the male brain is voiced by the late Kenji Utsumi (who also voiced Alien Empera), the female brain is voiced by Ryoko Kinomiya and the child brain is voiced by Yusho Uemara. In the English dub, the brains are respectively voiced by Jamieson Price, Mari Devon and Barbara Goodson. In their (brief) flashback appearance in Cyborg 009: Call of Justice, they were all voiced by Shozo Iizuka, who also voiced numerous Toku villains.

When 009 boarded the Demon Statue, the center brain notified Skull of the intruder, prompting Skull to go deal with the 00 cyborg.

While fighting 009, Skull decided to show 009 the "true form of Black Ghost", and revealed to him that the three brains were the true leaders of Black Ghost. When Skull attempted to use his ultimate attack against 009, the Generalissimo canceled it out and executed Skull for almost destroying them.

They attempted to kill 009 too, but he moves out of the way of their electricity blasts. 009 tried to shoot the brains, but his blasts are blocked by a forcefield. The brains then armed all of their weapons across the globe, setting the stage for another world war. The brains mock 009, declaring themselves to be the embodiment of the evils of mankind and that they represent only a small component in a Black Ghost network that spans across the universe.

009 then began blasting the interior of the statue, eventually destroying the machine generating the forcefield and blowing up the statue. However, as the interior of the statue collapses, the brains deliver one last taunt to 009 and state that the Black Ghost organization is universal and that they are just the leaders of the Earth branch of Black Ghost, as well as that Black Ghost will exist as long there's evil in men's heart. The Demon Statue then exploded, presumably destroying the brains and blasting 009 out into space.

---

Totally Spies Alice: No wonder the Black Ghost hate all humans. The leaders don't have bodies!

Me: They're disembodied brains.

Nico: Gross. And I thought Hector Con Carne was crazy.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Lola: But lets get ready for a fight unlike any other.

Me: Yeah.

The Generalissimo was watching. Suddenly 2 swirling waves of elements came. One was made of fire and the other was made of darkness. They converged and swirled around and went up in a helix formation and they separated and the fire formed into a sun and the darkness formed into a moon. They came together and formed into an eclipse. Then…

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Eclipse exploded in a massive fiery explosion and a phoenix cry was heard and we came out of the explosion ready for a fight!

Me: Your reign of terror is over Black Ghost!

Generalissimo: Who the hell are you!?

Me: Your worst fucking nightmare!

Vypra: We came to destroy you and make you pay for your crimes.

Joe Shimamura: You took away our humanity and you will pay for it!

Nico: Pig time!

Gizmo: You barfbrains have some nerve messing with people's bodies! What do you have to say for yourselves?!

Generallisimo: We are destroying all humanity by provoking World War III!

We gasped!

Me: World War III is a Nuclear Holocaust!

Nico: You are all out of your fucking minds! Not that you had them!

Lincoln: You are monsters! We will not let you destroy the human race!

Twilight Sparkle: Wha you have done to these 9 people is completely unforgivable! And we will not let you get away with your crimes!

Me: And another thing, we blew up most of your bases! It's just you guys left! Now you all well die!

Out came Black Ghost's most dangerous members: DR. GAMO WHISKY, DR. GAIA, CYBORG HERA, CYBORG ARTEMIS and ACHILLES!

Me: You guys are not Hera, Artemis and Achilles.

J.D. 3: That's right! I knew Achilles! He lived over 3,200 years ago and he was a true warrior!

Hera and Artemis then appeared.

Hera: Let us help you all.

Achilles was next.

Me: You're 3,000 years overdue with death Achilles!

I fired an energy blast and blew his right heal off.

Eli slashed him all over and Crow, Trip, Greiger, Roman, Noriko and D.W. Iron Man blasted him all over with energy blasts and lightning and all that and blew him apart.

Trip: CHRONO SABER! TIME STRIKE!

He formed into 8:00 and slashed him and he exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

---

We were blasting all the Black Ghost terrorists all over the place with incredible fury.

Then out of the Shadows, Petra Fina jumped out to ambush us and just as she was about to hit, she was hit by a group of kids and they knocked her down! It was the kids of the show GET ED!

Burn: (to Petra Fina) Who are you? One of Bedlam's goons?

Petra Fina: I am Petra Fina, the greatest villain this world will ever know!

Deets: Greatest villain? I highly doubt that.

Ed (Get Ed): All I got from that is that you're a bad guy and that you've gotta go down!

They punched and pulverized Petra Fina and smashed her brains out and knocked her down.

Burn: Take that you witch!

But Petra wasn't through.

Petra Fina: This isn't over! I'll be back! (runs off)

Loogie: That was easy! (through Dr. Pinch) Yep! It sure was!

They then saw Horsea nearby, who saw the whole thing.

Fizz (to Horsea): Horsea, right? Is it ok if you keep our involvement a secret until the right time?

Horsea: I can try but it's an honor to meet you.

Burn: Same here.

Fizz: See you around.

Burn: (To the viewers) See you all on March 13th.

They left.

We regrouped an we were facing the Generalissimo!

Me: It's over for you all! Prepare to die!

Troy: Time for you guys to see a new Legendary Mode!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! SPARKLING MACHINE FORCE!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the 2020 Japanese Rangers called the Mashin Sentai Kiramager or Machine Squadron Sparkling Ranger! It was really cool!

Nico: Wow! Never saw that one before.

Me: That's 2020's Japanese Power Rangers.

Nico: Cool!

Me: ATTACK!

We went at Generalissimo and fired energy blasts and more at it and blew apart its machines and more in massive fiery explosions and really smashed them all over the place in explosions of intense fire.

Me: Take this one! FIRE STYLE: NICOLAUS COPERNICUS'S UNIVERSAL CRUSH!

I fired a massive shower of stars and they formed all around the Generalissimo and I had them converge and they slammed into them and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Powerglide: Time for some teamwork!

Vegeta: Lets do it!

Powerglide, Bodhi, Cyclonis and Vegeta used the Earth, Decepticon and Vegeta Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Powerglide's thermal beam, Bodhi's Chakra Powers, Cyclonis's lasers and Vegeta's techniques 100-fold.

Powerglide and Bodhi: THERMAL CHAKRA RAINBOW BLAST!

Powerglide fired a thermal blast and Bodhi fired waves of rainbow chakra blasts.

Armada Cyclonus and Vegeta: FINAL LASER SHINE!

Vegeta fired a Final Shine Blast and Cyclonis fired a massive laser blast and the blasts all hit Generalissimo and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Wes: Lets summon the Vortex Cannon!

The Time Force Rangers summoned the Vortex Blasters and put them together to form the Vortex Cannon!

They locked the Generalissimo on target.

Wes: FIRE!

They fired.

Me: FINAL FLASH ULTRA BLAST!

I fired a massive blast of energy.

Autobots, Decepticons, Maximals, Predacons, Mega Man Robots and the Cyborg 00 Team: ROBOT MAXIMUM ULTRA SUPER BLAST!

They all fired a massive blast of energy.

Lincoln, Sam, Entrapta, Twilight Sparkle, Sunset Shimmer and Starlight Glimmer: FINAL SMASH: VENGEANCE OF SCIENCE!

They fired a massive energy blast and the blasts all hit Generalissimo and obliterated it in an instant with incredible power and it exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Generalissimo was destroyed and gone!

Powerglide: Now, what to do with this base?

Double D: There has to be a self destruct button somewhere.

Ed: Is this it right here?

Ed found a big red button for VEI 7 Eruption Self Destruct!

Eddy: Lumpy. (smirks) Push the button!

Ed: Got it Eddy!

He pushed the button and the alarm sounded and the ground rumbled.

Me: LETS GET OUTTA HERE!

We flew and ran fast.

We got out and we felt the ground rumble.

Nico: Wait! If that whole volcano explodes because of 4,500 years of dormancy, it will blow this whole island to smithereens!

Me: I have an idea!

I formed a force field around the whole volcano and just as it finished forming, the whole volcano exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The deafening massive blast from the volcano was so powerful that it shook the entire island and area with the massive force 10 Mount Tambora's and it was incredible! Luckily the force field held and it subsided 45 minutes later. All of Black Ghost was forever banished to the Warp.

Me: WHOA!

Lincoln: WOW! That was intense!

Joe: Now, the Black Ghost will never hurt anyone again.

Top: They sure won't.

Nergal: Those side missions J.D. and the Underground Girls went on were worth it.

Onyx: (to Joe and his team) I talked with Clay and we both agreed that you guys should stay the way you are.

Goliath: But it's your decision in the end.

Joe: Thanks guys.

Ivan: And you're right about everything. We were made this way to save the world from the monsters like Black Ghost and it's a huge responsibility.

Jet Link: And after everything that happened to us we want to make sure no one goes through the same thing like we did.

Android 18: You aren't the only ones that were turned into Cyborgs. Me and my brother were found by Dr. Gero and turned into Androids.

Android 16: The same thing happened to me. Me, 18 and 21 here were all created and programmed for the sole purpose of killing

Goku.

Android 21: But thanks to J.D. and all his friends we went against that mission and overwritten it.

Me: It took a lot of doing but it was worth it.

Joe: But we can't thank you all enough for saving us and the world from Black Ghost.

Me: You're welcome Joe.

We shook hands. It was the beginning of an awesome friendship.

Me: Lets go home guys.

Joe: (To the viewers) Terrorist Organizations all better beware because Team Loud Phoenix Storm is coming for you.

Me: Yeah we are. There's one reason why you lost Black Ghost, you pissed us off.

We went back home. Black Ghost was forever destroyed and it will never terrorize the world again.

Another awesome fanfiction done.

Cyborg 009 was a great anime series and it was so awesome and action packed and amazingly explosive! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Get ready to laugh your heads off as we see the Loud Kids going through some funny and crazy personality changes as a magic boomerang turns them into the polar opposite personalities of who they are.

See you all tomorrow.

Hand Me Down Loud's

This is a Parody of Hand Me Down Ed's from Ed Edd N Eddy

---

We were out of the estate for a few hours to go to a special meeting at the United Nations to establish new laws to prevent the lies of people that are like the Sullen 6 from ever being heard from and listened to again. After everything we dealt with during the 20 days of darkness, we wanted to take every necessary precaution. We left our 5 mascots in charge of the estate while we were gone.

Poromon: We finally have the Estate to ourselves.

Tentacool: Yeah we do!

Poliwag: LETS PARTY!

Pinkie Pie: (Pops out of nowhere) Did someone say Party!?

Manaphy: YEAH WE DID!

Tentacool: Wait. Pinkie Pie, I thought you were with the others.

Pinkie Pie: Oh you know how much I love parties and whenever there's a party, I know there's a party.

Poliwag: She always has a habit of doing that. She pops up out of nowhere like that and she loves parties.

Tentacool: Wow!

Poromon: They don't call her the greatest party planner in all of Equestria.

Poliwag: Cool.

Poromon: First, let's count who's here.

Poliwag: Do you guys hear something?

They nodded.

They went into the stairs and found 2 burglars prowling around.

Horsea: (Whispers) Burglars.

Manaphy: If they think they can get away with invading the house, they have another thing coming!

Pinkie Pie: Lets get those party-poopers!

Tentacool: Yeah!

The mascots set traps for the Burglers.

And they were very methodically set. They put extendo-boxing gloves, glue traps, bear traps and more and all that. They were set up and ready.

One of the burglars activated the first trap.

And got a bear trap snapped onto his leg and he screamed in pain and he tripped back and hit a shelf and a bucket of pigs blood fell on him and a bunch of raccoons came and mauled him!

The second Burglar opened a closet and then a baseball bat smashed his crotch!

SICKENING CRUNCH!

He screamed in an opera note.

The traps all went off on them and they were really brutally pulverized, burned, mangled, shot, blasted, tarred, feathered, glued, slipped and more and it was brutal. When we got home hours later we saw that Poromon, Poliwag, Tentacool, Horsea and Manaphy and Pinkie Pie all captured the burglars.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Wow! Who are these guys.

Me: Well I don't believe it! It's Louise Santiago and his partner Pedro Luiz. These two are the most notorious cat burglars in the whole country.

Nico: I remember these guys.

Twilight Sparkle: Who are they?

Me: We busted them over a year ago for a massive string of burglaries in the city. They got out totally undetected over the years. But one slip up lead them to being caught by us. We had them sentenced to 150 years in federal prison for their crimes. But they escaped from prison over 5 months ago.

Laney: Geez!

Sunset Shimmer went over to them and touched their heads and saw into their pasts. They were horribly abused by their parents and hooked on cocaine and heroin and they were stealing to get money to get more and more.

Sunset Shimmer: You two don't need all that money to get drugs or drugs for anything to make you happy.

They started crying.

Me: How did you 6 do it?

Manaphy: We saw them prowling around and we set up traps and smashed them around and tied them up.

Megan McAllister: Wow! That's genius!

Kevin McAllister: You set up traps like how I did? Wow!

Me: Genius!

Horsea: Are you guys proud of us?

Me: We sure are. Because we've been after these burglars for months.

Nico: They busted out of prison last year and reoffended all over and did it all.

Laney: Yeah and they were caught thanks to you guys.

Lola: Too bad a certain scatterbrained fashion designer forgot to turn on the security!

Rarity: (Gasp) HOW DARE YOU!?

Me: She was talking about Leni, Rarity.

Rarity: Oh. Sorry.

SMASH!

Eddy smashed Leni on her head with a huge fish and gave her a nasty lump on her head that hurt like hell.

Eddy: LENI YOU IDIOT!

Edd: EDDY! You stop right there mister!

Leni was gonna be feeling that in the morning.

---

Later we were watching TV and playing card games. The beautiful view of the stars from above the planet was amazing.

Laney was reading a book and Lily was coloring a picture.

Me: What a beautiful day.

Linka: It sure is.

Lena: Yeah. And no hallucinations or delusions to ruin it.

Laney: It's great that you're cured sis.

Lena: Same here.

Then Lori came down and she was tidying up the room.

Lori: Hey guys. Mind if I clean up everything here?

Me: Go for it Lori.

She was tidying everything up and was nice? This was an unusual and peculiar change for her.

I then noticed that she had a boomerang in her pocket.

Me: Hmm.

Some of the Loud Kids came down and I saw that Leni had smart glasses on and Lola was covered in mud and Lana was in a dress and Lucy was happy!? WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON HERE!?

Robo-Blaze: (sees the Loud Kids with boomerang in their pockets) Oh, dear God. What happened now?

Me: Oh no. This doesn't look good.

We saw the Loud Kids acting weird. We saw Lori acting all clean and tidy as we have seen, Leni was smart and intelligent, Luna was quiet and playing classical music, Luan was a goth and depressing, Lynn was timid and a wimpy coward, Lincoln was dressed like a thugish brute, Lucy was happy and exciting, Lana was clean and a princess, Lola was filthy and tomboyish and Lisa was stupid and dimwitted like she has no brain!

Leni: [using a typewriter] "Chasing Phantoms: A Dissertation on Unifying Field Theory and its Effect on Leptons and Quasars. By Leni."

Lori: (Sprays the living room windows)

Luna was playing the Nutcracker Suite.

Luan: We all live in a meaningless universe.

Raven: Hey! That's usually what I say.

Lynn was hiding under the sofa.

Me: Lynn what's wrong? You should be playing sports.

Lynn: (Timidly) Sports are dangerous and scary.

POW!

Lincoln then punched me in the face and I spit out a tooth and some blood!

Me: WHAT THE HELL WAS THAT FOR YOU FUCKING JERK!?

Lincoln: Because I hate you and everything you fucking moron!

My aura flared up with incredible power and I saw Lucy jumping and dancing and she had a huge smile.

Lucy: WEE! I'M SO HAPPY!

Lana: EW! LOLA! YOU ARE DISGUSTING!

Lola: Aw it's not so bad!

Lisa: (Stupidly) Duh you are funny.

Me: Either I'm starting to lose my marbles, or everyone is starting to act like polar opposites of themselves!

Lincoln grabbed my face and smashed it with powerful headbutts!

I punched Lincoln and knocked him away!

Nico: Man Lincoln is brutal!

Firefly: (to Lola) You know what, Lola? If you're going to let a boomerang get the best of you after all the missions we've been on, then maybe you really are ugly.

Lola: Thank you for that compliment Garfield.

Firefly: WHAT!? THAT WASN'T A COMPLIMENT! THAT WAS AN INSULT!

Brittney: Boomerang?

Brittney saw the boomerang they all had.

Brittney: I think I know what's going on!

Brittney pulled out her book on Supernatural Objects and Cursed Artifacts.

Brittney: Lets see here.

She scrolled through the pages and she found something of interesting.

Brittney: (Gasp) Here it is! The Boomerang of Bamapana!

Me: The Boomerang of who?

Valon: (Australian Accent) That's the God of Discord in Aboriginal Mythology mate.

Me: Whoa!

Brittney: The Boomerang of Bamapana is a mystical Boomerang that is said to have been cursed by the trickster god Bamapana himself. Whoever the boomerang touches will have their personalities changed into the exact opposite of who they are.

We saw a picture of the Boomerang and it looked just like the boomerang that we see the Loud Kids with.

Edd: That's the Boomerang that we had an encounter with!

Eddy: That's the exact same one!

Me: You guys had an encounter with this boomerang before?

Jimmy: We sure did and it made us into people we are not. I was turned into a bruiser and thrashed Kevin.

Sarah: I was turned into a loving and kind girl.

Rolf: Rolf remembers this. It made Rolf into an opera singer that sang gibberish.

Kevin: I was a nerd.

Nazz: I was a rebellious monster.

Ed: I was made a genius.

Edd: I was laid back and a hippie.

Eddy: And I was a mother.

Snake: (to Jonny) What did the Boomerang turn you into, dude?

Jonny 2X4: I was turned into a social butterfly.

Me: Wow. Did the boomerang affect you Marie?

Marie K.L.: No me and my former sisters were unaffected.

Nico: Wow.

Maria: How about I see what the Boomerang turns me into?

Nico: Be careful Maria.

Maria went over and grabbed the Boomerang and took it from Lori.

Lori then reverted back but she had a splitting headache.

Lori: (Groans) What happened?

The Boomerang wasn't affecting Maria at all.

Maria: It's not affecting me at all.

Me: Hmm. I think some of our powers are too strong for us to be affected.

Lincoln then strangled me and I punched him off me again.

Nico: You know what? Let's keep the Loud Kids like this.

William: Nico, you can't be serious!

Nico: I'm dead serious, William. If we keep the Loud Kids like this, they'll never be reckless again. And then, incidents like nearly everyone in Paris getting Akumatized won't happen again.

Carmen: Nico actually has a good point.

Brittney: Sorry but I'm against this Nico. It says here that these Boomerangs are also bombs.

We gasped.

Brittney: Bamapana is said to have cursed these boomerangs to explode after 15 minutes when they come into contact with whoever they change.

Me: We got to get those boomerangs off of them and fast!

Shiv: (to Eddy) Did your boomerang explode as well back then?

Eddy: No the show ended after we were stuck to a tree branch with a Naked Double D!

Ed: (Laughs)

Edd: I don't know how it happened!

Me: Right now we got to get those boomerangs out of here!

Brittney: We got 13 minutes! Lets go!

We sprang into action!

May: Well, we might as well face facts, guys. The Loud Kids that we know are gone forever. So, we might as well change the looks of their rooms.

Nico: May we need your help!

May: What's wrong!?

Nico: I don't have time to explain. Come on!

We got to Leni and removed her Boomerang and removed it and she reverted back.

Next was Luna and we removed the Boomerang she had.

Dark Spicer: Maybe I can turn into Widowchimp and use a web to throw the boomerangs somewhere far away!

Me: The Boomerangs will come back Dark.

I grabbed Lola and Lana's Boomerangs and Lola screamed when she saw that she was covered in mud and Lana laughed at her!

Lana: You look good in mud Lola!

Lola: WHY YOU LITTLE!?

She pounced onto Lana and they got in a fight cloud.

Eli: Excuse me you two but I must discipline the nanny-goats.

Eli grabbed them and then…

SMASH!

He smashed them together and knocked them down.

Nico: Nice one Eli.

Me: Guess I should've thought of that before.

Electro: Maybe I can use my electricity to destroy the Boomerangs!

Brittney: No that won't work. According to this, the boomerangs are indestructible and will be destroyed when they explode.

Me: How much time do we have?

Brittney: (Looks at watch) 4 minutes and 15 seconds.

Me: Lets go!

We got the boomerangs off of Lisa, Lucy and Lynn.

And they reverted back.

We got all the Boomerangs off.

Ben: Maybe I can turn into Alien X and erase the boomerangs out of existence!

Brittney looked at her watch and there was 20 seconds left.

Brittney: NO TIME! We have to throw them into space!

Me: I'll do it!

I took the boomerangs and flew into space.

5 seconds.

I threw them far.

---

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Boomerangs exploded with incredible power and they were destroyed.

I went back and everyone cheered for me.

Nico: Way to go J.D.!

Lincoln: That was awesome! J.D. I'm so sorry I punched you and strangled you..

Me: It's not your fault buddy.

But the Loud Kids all had tremendous headaches the size of Texas.

Eddy: Did someone send those boomerangs to us?

Me: I don't think so. But maybe someone did, maybe someone did. Who knows?

Little did we know that someone was looking at our tree from far away and it was the mischievous trickster imp from the 5th Dimension, MR. MXYZPTLK!

---

Mister Mxyzptlk (/mɪksjɛzˈpɪtəlɪk/, /ˈmɪksɪlplɪk/), sometimes called Mxy, is a character who appears in DC Comics' Superman comic books. He is usually presented as a trickster deity in the classical mythological sense. Mxyzptlk possesses reality-warping powers with which he enjoys tormenting Superman or making life difficult. His portrayal has varied, with him being an outright supervillain in some media, and an antihero in others.

Mr. Mxyzptlk was created to appear in Superman #30 (September / October 1944), in the story "The Mysterious Mr. Mxyztplk" (the original spelling), by writer Jerry Siegel and artist Ira Yarborough. Due to publishing lag time, the character saw print first in the Superman daily comic strip by writer Whitney Ellsworth and artist Wayne Boring.

In most of Mxyzptlk's appearances in DC Comics, he can be stopped only by tricking him into saying or spelling his own name backwards (Kltpzyxm - "kel-tip-zix-um" ), which will return him to his home in the fifth dimension and keep him there for a minimum of 90 days. This limitation of the character was modified in the 1986 Crisis on Infinite Earths reboot, upon which Mxyzptlk changes his condition to leave to a new requirement each story, such as having Superman succeed in getting Mxyzptlk to paint his own face blue.

Mxyzptlk has appeared in various television adaptations of Superman. He appeared in the 1993 television series Lois & Clark: The New Adventures of Superman, portrayed by Howie Mandel. Mxyzptlk also appeared in the 2001 television series Smallville played by Trent Ford. Mxyzptlk appears in the television series Supergirl played by Peter Gadiot in the second season and by Thomas Lennon in the fifth season.

---

Mr. Mxyzptlk: They sure had fun with my prank boomerangs. I can tell that they had a lot of fun. Hope they like all my mischief.

It was gonna be a humorous time with him.

The Murderous Insane Chihuahua

It was chaos in The Underworld as Hades, Pain and Panic were kicked out of their home by a mysterious and more powerful force that was more evil and more dangerous than they are.

Pain: What are we gonna do, Hades?!

Hades: (sighs) We're gonna ask help from the one group of heroes that I never thought I'd be asking for help.

Panic: You don't mean…

Hades: Yeah I'm afraid so. Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

(WOMAN SCREAMS)

Pain: BUT YOU CAN'T ASK THEM!

Panic: NOT AFTER EVERYTHING THEY DID TO YOU!

Hades: (ANGRY) I KNOW! (Fire explodes out!) I know we aren't on good terms but it's the only choice we have.

Pain: Okay.

Panic: Lets do it.

---

Later we were at the park and we were having a great time. The World Tree of Friendship has powerful magic that gives light and life and nourishment to all the nature and all plants and farms under its foliage umbrella and more.

Elena: Today's a lovely day. Right, guys?

Me: It sure is. Perfect for a great day of fun. Nothing can go wrong today.

Nico: Lets enjoy all this while we can.

Vakama: Absolutely.

Nokama: This is gonna be fun.

Ren Hoek: I'm always up for something that's fun.

Nico: Me too. And it's amazing how the World Tree of Friendship can give all sorts of life to everything.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Lincoln smelled a flower but then suddenly it twitched and then it bursted into flames and flames. But then out of a vortex of blue fire and skulls came HADES, PAIN AND PANIC!

We gasped!

Me: HADES!

Nico: HADES!

Eli: HADES!

Me: What are you doing here!?

Hades: Well the reason I'm here guys is because we got kicked out of our home. And this isn't something that I would normally do but..

Thor: Wait. Are you saying that you, the Lord of the Dead, need our help?

Hades: (sighs) I know. I can't believe I'm asking for your help either.

Panic: Me and Pain told him that you guys wouldn't believe us.

Lola: You're right. We don't believe you!

Lynn: But since we're in a good mood today, we're going to give you a 1 minute headstart.

Lori: If you three aren't gone by that time, we're literally sending you to the Warp!

Me: Quiet girls! Hades is serious. Something big must be going on in the underworld.

Nico: He is a God after all and he is a deity of his word. He does make deals.

Meg (Hercules): Nico is right. I did make a deal with him and saved my boyfriend. But the deal went south there big time after that. Something is going on in the Underworld and it obviously must not be good.

Hades: My little Nut-Meg is right.

Me: All right Hades we'll help you. But until we face you for real in the future lets call a truce.

Hades: You got it J.D.

Me and Hades shook hands.

Eli: But if you go back on your word, blowing your hair out will be the least of your worries.

Hades: Fine, fine, fine.

Then we saw something coming down the street. It was a man wobbling and he was all mutilated and badly hurt. Blood was all over his white clothes and they were torn up.

Me: Oh man!

We went over to him as he fell down and I caught him.

Me: Sir are you okay!?

Varie: What happened to you?

Man: (Weakly) We had an escaped mental patient break out and he…

Me: What happened?

Man: He killed everyone and all the patients. Blood and bodies everywhere.

We gasped!

Lincoln: Whoa! Something big must've happened!

Nico: No kidding. Sir do you remember what he looked like?

Man: He looked… (Fainted)

Varie: He's gonna be all right. He's just exhausted and weak from the long journey here.

Beachcomber: Hades, who exactly do you need our help against?

Hades: (looks at Ren) Would you guys believe that it's a psycho version of him?

We looked at Ren.

Ren Hoëk: (SHOCKED) A PSYCHO VERSION OF ME!?

Stimpy: But that can't be right! Ren was committed to Shady Brain Farm ages ago. Unless… (GASP) OH MY GOD!

Nico: What's wrong Stimpy?

Stimpy: It's the 2003 version of Ren!

Me: Wait a second. You mean like the one from that infamous episode of your Adult Party Cartoon from 18 years ago!?

Stimpy: That's the very one!

Lori: I literally remember that! That was a dark and scary episode! They made Ren into a monster that killed a psychologist!

Nico: WHOA! I remember that one too. That episode received so many bad reviews on the internet for its dark and gruesome nature.

Lincoln: Geez!

Me: Tell us all that you can Stimpy.

Stimpy: Okay.

He told us all about it.

Ren Höek is one of the two main protagonists in the Ren & Stimpy Adult Party series, the events of "Adult Party" can be considered an alternative reality - since it portrays both Ren and Stimpy in ways that are at odds with their original series.

In the "adult-only" version of Ren & Stimpy (known as Adult Party) the abusive nature of Ren is even more evident - due to being geared towards older audiences, the already dark and disturbing traits of Ren were able to be portrayed in even more graphic detail than in the original show.

Stimpy's Pregnant

In the episode "Stimpy's Pregnant", Ren is repulsed by the idea of Stimpy being pregnant with his child (which was impossible, since both are male) - to the point he was going to use a coat-hanger to abort the child, however he stopped after Stimpy stood up to him: eventually Stimpy persuaded Ren to let him keep the child.

Ren proceeded to abuse Stimpy, forcing him to do all the chores in the house (per usual) while he bragged to his own mother about how he (and he alone) had got Stimpy pregnant - ultimately it was discovered Stimpy was not pregnant at all but rather suffering from constipation.

Ren Seeks Help

In the episode "Ren Seeks Help", we witness one of Ren's most disturbing and villainous moments as he visits Mr. Horse working a psychologist after a major quarrel with Stimpy over his abusive nature (one of the few episodes where Stimpy stands up to Ren). Ren recalls in graphic detail how as a child he experienced the trauma of being born and feeling pain for the first time, installing in him a hatred for all living things - he tortured small animals and killed them, until he tortured a frog that begged for him to kill it, Ren refused to do so in order to let the frog suffer a life of agonizing pain.

Ren then told the psychologist about how he first met Stimpy and how he hit him continually, eventually Mr. Horse goes insane himself - utterly agonizingly repulsed by Ren's sadistic insanity - he and Ren engage in an extremely graphic fight that is fatal to Mr. Horse as Ren becomes a rabid beast who beats the psychologist to death before being taken away by psychiatric doctors with dog-poles (but not before biting one of their hands off and eating it).

This episode and stands out as showing Ren in one of his darkest and most insane roles, even by "Adult Party" standards, and is likely the most infamous episode of the Adult Party revival.

We gasped in shock and horror when he was done!

Hades: Ooh Chihuahua! (To Ren) No offense.

Ren Hoëk: None taken.

Me: That version of you is a fucking crazy fuckpot monster Ren!

Nico: No kidding!

Laney: He needs to be stopped!

Lola: Big time! He was dangerous!

Lori: No kidding! I remember seeing at the near end of the episode that he was taken to a funny farm.

Me: Did you get a good look of the name of the Funny Farm?

Lori: Hmm. I think it was Shady Happy Farm Maximum Security Insane Asylum.

Nico: Oh man! I know where that is! That's not far from the sight where we met Ren & Stimpy.

Me: We better get over there! Varie you take him to the infirmary. Meet up with us on the way there.

Varie: Right!

Me: Lets fly!

Private H.I.V.E. Evilseed, The Top, Onyx, Goliath, Nergal, Red X and Bronze Kneecap then appeared.

Private H.I.V.E.: Permission for me, Evilseed, Top, Onyx, Goliath, Nergal, Red X, and Bronze Kneecap to come with you to stop this lunatic, sir?

Me: Granted soldier!

Nico: When we go to the Underworld, Grim and Nergal can help us down there.

Nergal: I know the Underworld as much as Grim does. We can follow him too.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) Lets go mon.

Me: Okay we're all ready.

We were off to the Asylum where Psycho Ren escaped from.

---

HAPPY BRAIN FARM MAXIMUM SECURITY INSANE ASYLUM, NEW MEXICO

---

Varie met up with us and we arrived at the asylum in New Mexico and we walked in and we were greeted by a really horrifying and gruesome sight. The whole asylum was a total bloodbath. Bodies and mutilated corpses of patients and staff were strewn everywhere and pieces of limbs and organs were splattered all over.

Me: Oh my god!

Nico: This is Carnage City!

Varie: I can't believe that a little chihuahua could cause all this blood and gore.

Hades: No kidding. It's hard to imagine

Top Man: (sees the carnage in the Asylum) My God. It's a massacre.

Me: This is worse than that.

Nico: No kidding. I can't believe Psycho Ren would kill so many people.

Ren Hoëk: Me neither. This version of me is a nightmare!

Stimpy: No kidding.

?: Hello?

We heard a knock and it was coming from the Janitors closet.

Me: Uh oh.

I opened the door and we found the warden of the Asylum.

Me: Mr. Warden are you okay?

Warden: I sure am. Thank goodness you all came.

I helped him up.

Weirdwolf: (to the Warden) What happened here?

Warden: Ren Hoek escaped. He ripped the door of his cell down with his teeth and killed all the patients and doctors. I hid myself in the janitors closest.

Me: Oh man. This is awful. This is 2003's version of Ren Hoëk.

Warden: You mean from that infamous dark episode of Ren and Stimpy's Adult Party Cartoon?

Ren Hoëk: That's right Mr. Warden. That is my evil twin version.

Warden: Oh man. I used to watch Ren and Stimpy all the time ages ago. Good times back then. And I do know the difference with that Ren and the Ren you all know and love.

Lincoln: Wow.

Ren Hoëk: I am honored that you are a fan of the show.

Warden: I loved your shows for years. They are a big part of my childhood and it's awesome.

Stimpy: We're honored.

Apeface: We need to find a way to clear Ren's name or he's going to jail!

Me: I know. And the only way we can do that is to capture Psycho Ren. It's not gonna be easy but we can do it.

Nico: Yeah!

Lola: Lets make that cur pay!

Me: Big time!

Warden: I'll gladly help clear Ren's name for you guys. Just kill that bastard cur!

Me: With pleasure.

Hades: Lets head to the underworld.

He snapped his fingers and we went to the Underworld.

---

We arrived in The Underworld and it was a dark and scary and foreboding place.

Nergal: The Underworld. Just as dark as I remember it.

Grim: Good times we had here.

Me: Yep. We'll follow his trail with this.

Announcer: FOOTPRINT MAGISWORD!

I used said Magisword and shined a beam of purple light and it showed white chihuahua size pawprints.

Me: Bingo.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow. That is cool.

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is awesome though.

Me: And it's also amazing that the Equestria Tartarus and our Tartarus are connected.

Nico: It sure is. Wow.

Lola: Hard to imagine that we didn't know that.

Nico: Yeah.

Hades: It sure is amazing huh? It's like we have a huge planet of the dead all over the place.

Laney: It does feel that way.

Me: Lets follow the prints.

We follow the footprints deep into the Underworld.

Evilseed: (To Hades) Why don't you get your Titans to take out Psycho Ren?

Hades: Why should I? So that maniac can end up destroying them?!

Me: It'll take more than a chihuahua to destroy them. Besides they are imprisoned in the depths of the Earth until later on this year.

Hades: He's right.

Nico: Yep.

We continued on and it was getting scarier and scarier as souls of the dead were moaning and screaming all over.

Lucy Loud: I feel like I'm home with the denizens of the dead.

Brittney: Me too. It's dark and magical.

Lincoln: Wow.

Top: Psycho Ren could be anywhere in the Underworld by now.

Me: We'll find him. The Footprint Magisword shows that we're on the right track. Just got to follow the Chihuahua pawprints.

Vambre: (British Accent) Very good.

Nico: Oh boy.

We continued on and we got to a valley and went down it.

Marah: Psycho Ren is crazy. But he can't be stupid. He's probably left some traps for us.

Eli: I'll use the force to flush them out.

Eli fired Force blasts and a bunch of bear traps snapped on the floor and a bunch of logs swung and the vines broke.

Nico: He sure is crafty.

Me: Nice save though bro.

Eli: Thanks.

We went down and dodged all kinds of traps and more.

Red X teleported out of the way of a knife that was flying towards him hit the wall.

Red X: That was a close one!

Me: No kidding!

Nico: Now it's turning into an obstacle course of doom.

Lola: Yeah!

Splat: But we've faced many courses like this when we were fighting Kaos and the Darkness.

Torch: We sure did and they were challenging and epic.

Spotlight: Yeah they were.

Onslaught saw a pie heading his way and used his sonic stun-gun on it. But the pie exploded!

Onslaught: Great! Now he's hurling explosive pies at us!

Me: Explosively delicious.

Luan laughed.

Hades: That was a good one.

A boulder went towards us but Goliath grew giant and punched it, smashing it to pieces.

Goliath: Do I even want to know how he managed to push that boulder?!

Me: I don't think that's from him.

Ren Hoek: This eediot is making ME look like an eediot!

Napalm Man saw webs.

Napalm Man: Great! Now he's spinning webs somehow!

Jeff the Spider came.

Jeff the Spider: Hey guys.

Billy (Billy & Mandy): (SCREAMS IN FRIGHT!)

He hid behind Mandy.

Me: Jeff. Boy are we glad to see you dude.

Jeff the Spider: Same here guys. Didn't expect to see you all here.

Me: Small Underworld huh?

We laughed.

Onyx: (sees several spiders) You didn't tell me you brought some friends over, Jeff.

Jeff: Oh yeah and I also have a friend with me that Grim knows.

Velma Green the Spider Queen then came!

Velma Green: Grim! It's so good to see you again. I missed you at the 100,000 year reunion.

Grim: Velma you are looking really good.

Velma Green: Indeed. And Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same to you Velma. Grim told us a lot about you.

Velma Green: I'm glad you sent that monster Boogey into the River of Fire.

Me: And lets hope he stays there for good this time. He terrorized you and your entire class for far too long.

Twilight Sparkle: I've heard about the Boogeyman. He was an absolute monster! Metaphorically speaking of course.

Sunset Shimmer: I heard he was a worse bully than me, Diamond Tiara, Silver Spoon and Babs all combined together.

Grim: He was.

Lincoln: One of the worst ever. Makes even Hawk and Hank look like a joke.

Nico: If he does come back he will be banished to the Warp.

Naruto: And he can stay there.

Lincoln: Yep.

Dirge: (sees several other spiders with spinners on their backs) Hey, Jeff. I didn't know spiders can have spinners on their backs.

Jeff: It's kinda kooky but spiders have their own ways of spinning webs.

Me: I can see that. Did you and Velma by any chance see…

Velma Green: A little chihuahua that was all crazy and malevolently crazy? Yeah he went down that tunnel.

She pointed to a dark and malevolent looking tunnel.

Me: Thanks Velma.

Velma Green: I'll come with you all so we can get that little monster.

Me: Lets get him!

We went down the tunnel and we heard loud ferocious breathing getting closer and closer and closer. We came to a circular room and we saw a figure in the middle of the floor growling ferociously and looking at us with red eyes!

It was PSYCHO REN!

Me: WHOA!

Ren Hoëk: WOW! I can't believe that this is the monster I would turn into!

Bronze Kneecap: (to Psycho Ren) What's the big idea trying to run Ren's good name?!

Psycho Ren was totally feral and rabid and he was roaring like a demonic freak of nature!

Nico: He's totally feral!

Varie: GEEZ!

Hades: Man he is worse than Cerberus when he has a bad case of the scoots.

Grim: My Cerberus or yours?

Hades: Mine I'm sorry I should've been specific.

Grim: No worries.

Me: You are not going back to the pound Psycho Ren! It's time for you to be EUTHANIZED!

I pulled out a syringe full of a chemical!

Eris, Pyro, Tar Pit, Kitty, Artie Ziff, Box Ghost, Anti-Wanda and Electrocutioner appeared.

Me: Eris, Pyro, Tar Pit, Kitty, Artie Ziff, Box Ghost, Anti-Wanda and Electrocutioner.

Eris: Ahoy there! Fancy seeing all of you down here.

Pyro: It's weird seeing you all down here.

Nico: We've been through worse.

Eris: Glad we managed to find you all here.

Maria: I take it you guys found the traps?

Pyro: Or what's left of them.

Tar Pit: It's a good thing you guys destroyed the traps for us.

Kitty got a good look at several of the spiders near us.

Kitty: Jeff, quick question. Do you know any spiders that are non organic?

Jeff: I don't think so why?

We turned and we saw 7 spiders jump and they landed and they were THE VISORAK!

---

The Visorak are the spider-like Rahi who appeared in the BIONICLE series and served as the main enemies in the 2005 storyline. They are also the minions that served the Brotherhood of Makuta for military purpose.

Later during the event in the 2005 storyline, the Visorak along with their leaders; Sidorak and Roodaka were summoned by Makuta Teridax, who instructed them to conquer Metru Nui, which they suceeded. However, the Visorak were eventually defeated by the Toa Hordika and Rahaga along with their ally, Keetongu and were then disbanded following Sidorak's death until they were once again reformed by the Brotherhood to assist them in the quest of conquering the Matoran Universe.

The Visorak were once created by Chirox in the island of Destral following the Brotherhood of Makuta's corruption. After he named them, the Visorak created their own language, attributing the meanings; "stealers of life" and "poisonous scourge" to the species' names. Following their creation, the Visorak were then unleashed on Tobduk's island to test their ability.

---

Nokama: The Visorak!

Vakama: What are they doing here?!

Nico: They must've terrorized Metru-Nui ages ago!

Vakama: That's right and we defeated them by inadvertantly turning into the Toa Hordika.

Matau: I forgot to mention that we have the ability to transform into our Toa Hordika forms at well.

Me: Really?

Vakama: Yep. Watch.

They were enveloped in vortexes of Fire, Water, Air, Earth, Stone and Ice and they turned into the TOA HORDIKA!

Lola: WOW! Vakama, you all look incredible!

Maria: You sure do! Your Hordika forms are awesome!

Pyro: I remember playing with toy versions of them ages ago.

Lincoln: Good times.

Vakama: (Beastly Voice) We sure look cool huh?

Nokama: (Beastly Voice) It's amazing.

Me: That sure is amazing! Wow!

?: It sure is.

4 figures came out and 1 was the 1st leading general of the Morlock Army, MORTICON of Mystic Force and the others were ICEAGE, METEOR AND STINGRAGE from episodes 1, 17 and 7 of Dino Charge!

---

Morticon

Morticon was the first leading general of the Morlock army and is one of the two major antagonists of Power Rangers Mystic Force.

Morticon appears to be an undead cyborg, with the machinery that comprises the bulk of his body fused to what remains of his blue skin. He is known to use a mystical portal to view the world and wields a sword called the "Fang of the Master" .

He initially couldn't leave the Pit because Koragg's magic wasn't strong enough to free him, although he briefly broke through to the surface when Koragg robbed the Mystic Titans of their Megazord power and used it to free him. He land a meager beat down on the Mystic Dragon and was about to make the final strike on Nick, but before he could however, Nick quickly broke free and used a counter-spell to imprison Morticon once more.

Morticon has also been seen vanishing a Styxoid in thin air.

Morticon was soon freed again to battle after the Gargoyle of the Gates knocked the Titan Megazord into the Gates of the Underworld. He proved very powerful and was once again in his giant form when he appeared, easily defeating the Titan Megazord uses his own form of the Dark Magic Strike . He batted away the Mystic Dragon with his sword while Nick went to rescue Clare. Once Nick did that, he arrived on Catastros (summoned by Clare) and formed the Centaurus Phoenix Megazord which overpowered Morticon very easily. They then formed the Titan Megazord. He tried his Dark Magic Strike but his sword was frozen and the Rangers realised that Udonna was with them. With Morticon helpless, the Rangers and Udonna combined thier powers and destroyed the villain once and for all with the Mystic swore that Octomus would win in the end even with him gone before exploding, marking the end of the first nemesis of the Rangers. All that remained after that was his sword, which Koragg found and claimed for himself. He would later reforge it into another Wolf Saber (the original having been destroyed by Nick during thier battle).

He is mentioned posthumously in "Long Ago" by Imperious, his successor. Long Ago Morticon is also mentioned posthumouly by Koragg in Soul Specter, when Koragg created his new Knight Saber from Morticon's sword.

Iceage

Iceage is an impact winter-theme monster and is the first monster of Power Rangers Dino Charge (also the first monster of Power Rangers Dino Super Charge ) and overall, the very first monster in the entire Power Rangers Dino Charge series.

Iceage was one of Sledge's captives in prehistoric times, he is the very first outlaw to descend to the planet after Sledge returns to Earth and is the first monster to be both encountered and fought by the Dino Charge Rangers .

In modern times, he reappears hunting the Energems Sledge had been after. He disguises himself as a cloaked thief and manages to take the crate carrying the Pink Energem, due to Kendall, Chase and Koda accidentally leaving it in the back of the truck (which made it easy to steal). Shelby follows him and steals the box before Tyler appears, enraging Iceage and leading him to encase both humans in ice. Fortunately, they managed to come into contact with the present Energems before freezing, the resulting transfer of energy shattering the ice and subsequently morphing them into the Red and Pink Rangers. After a brief fight, the T-Rex Zord, attracted by the Rangers, arrives and sends Iceage flying.

Meteor

Meteor is a meteoroid-themed monster who first appears in the episode "World Famous! (In New Zealand)".

Meteor was sent by Sledge to find the Purple Energem in New Zealand. After the Rangers forced him into a retreat, Wrench used his Reanimator to revive Iceage and Stingrage to aid Meteor in his mission, and the trio attacked downtown Auckland. During the battle, they used a combination attack against the Rangers, only to be knocked back when it was reflected at them. Subsequently, Sledge activated the Magnabeam to enlarge Meteor, who was soon destroyed by the Dino Charge Megazord Ankylo-Pachy Formation with its Wrecking Ball Final Strike.

Stingrage

Stingrage is an virus/devil-themed monster sent by Poisandra to obtain the Ankylo Zord.

When Poisandra stumbled across the location of the Ankylo Zord, she released Stingrage so he could infect the recently discovered Zord with his stingers.

He first fought the Dino Charge Rangers after they arrived at the sight of the Ankylo Zord while on the trail of the Aqua Energem. He retreated after infecting Koda with his stinger, forcing him to fight his own friends until it was removed from his back.

Later, Stingrage, Curio, and Poisandra ambushed Kendall and Shelby when they came to recover the Ankylo Zord, blasting the latter into the hole created by the Ankylo Zord and over-matching the former with Vivix. The other Rangers arrived to defend their friend and fight the trio until the Pink Ranger, having managed to tame their rampaging ally, made a reappearance and quickly dispatched Stingrage with her Tricera Drill.

Stingrage was swiftly revived by the Magna Beam, only to find himself at the mercy of the Rangers' Zords. Shelby then called upon the Ankylo Zord to create the Dino Charge Megazord: Tri-Ankylo Formation, which promptly crushed the monster.

---

Nick Russell: Morticon!

Tyler Navarro: Iceage!

Koda: Meteor!

Kendrix Morgan: And Stingrage!

Me: I remember you guys! Morticon is the general of the Morlock Army, Iceage was the first monster sent by Sledge to get the Energems, Meteor was sent by Sledge to get the Purple Energem in New Zealand and Stingrage was sent by Poisandra to get the Ankylo Zord.

Morticon: That's right J.D. You do have a good memory on you.

Tyler Nevarro: There are 3 of you guys this time?

Iceage: Yep. Vypra brought us back because she always thought of me, Stringrage, and Meteor as a trio.

Stingrage: And she even suggested archenemies for us.

Meteor: (to Heckyl) How come you never brought me back with Wrench's Reanimator when you took command of Sledge's ship?

Heckyl: Because I didn't want to.

Meteor: (Sarcastically) Thanks a lot!

Me: Who are your archenemies gonna be?

Stingrage: We chose Samus Aran, Janeen Aran and Gandrayda as our archenemies.

Samus: Wow!

Janeen: This is gonna be awesome!

Gandrayda: It sure is. I haven't gotten to fight an archenemy in a long time.

Me: Cool! What is the name of your trio gonna be called?

Iceage: We are calling ourselves…

Iceage, Meteor and Stingrage: THE CHICXULUB TRIO!

Iceage: ICEAGE THE COLD AND BRUTAL!

Meteor: METEOR THE STRONG AND FIERY!

Stingrage: AND STINGRAGE, THE FAST AND DEADLY!

Iceage, Meteor and Stingrage: ALL OF US TOGETHER ARE THE CHICXULUB TRIO!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive black fire explosion went off behind them and it was awesome!

Me: Nice roll call!

Vegeta: Just like it was with the Ginyu Force.

Goku: Good times.

Me: Yep and Morticon, you and Imperious took Matoombo and

Itassis's places as the 2 members of the 10 terrors that will face us.

Morticon: That's right.

Me: I had a strong feeling.

Morticon: (to me) Don't expect me and the rest of the Ten Terrors to fight you and the Rangers all at once right away, J.D. We prefer a more… epic battlefield for that.

Me: I'm always up for a great challenge. You guys better come at us with everything you got.

Morticon: With pleasure.

Claire: Bring it on!

Me: Lets power up and take them down!

We did so and went at them.

---

Battle 1: Lane, Twilight Sparkle, Star Swirl the Bearded, Magic Skylanders, Cyborg 009, Runo, Centaur Man and Flame Man VS Eris

---

Eris the Goddess of Discord and Chaos was first.

Eris: (to Lane) I may like Chaos but what Psycho Ren does is too much, even for me!

Lane: Psycho Ren's crimes down here are nothing compared to what he did earlier this morning at the Happy Brains Insane Asylum. He slaughtered and butchered all of the staff and patients all there except for the Warden and a man in our infirmary!

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah there was blood, severed limbs, bodies and organs splattered all over the place.

Star Swirl: It was awful. It was a total bloodbath.

Eris: Oh man! That's worse than anything I've done with my golden apples.

Spyro: You're not kidding Eris. It was horrible.

Ninjini: It sure was. And it was terrible that Psycho Ren could do all this.

Star Strike: Yeah it sure was.

Joe: I hope that Psycho Ren gets what's coming to him in the end.

Runo: Me too. He gives the Ren Hoëk we all know a really bad name.

Eris: Indeed he does. Lets do it then!

They went at him.

Lane, Twilight Sparkle, Star Swirl the Bearded, Magic Skylanders, Cyborg 009, Runo, Centaur Man and Flame Man: MAGIC FIRESTORM STYLE FORMATION ART: MYSTIC LIGHTNING THUNDERSTRIKE BLAST!

They spun in a Tricontagon formation and fired a massive blast of mystic lightning and knocked Eris down.

Lane: All right! That was MAGICALLY fun! (Laughs to rimshot)

They laughed!

Twilight Sparkle: That was funny!

Star Swirl: But that was a good one.

---

Battle 2: Vakama, Sunset Shimmer, Gusty the Great, Fire Skylanders, Cyborg 002, Dan, Top Man and Shadow Man VS Pyro

---

Pyro was next.

Pyro: (to Vakama) I think you look awesome as a Hordika.

Vakama: Thanks Pyro. It's what happened to us when we were encased in the Visorak Web after they caught us.

Sunset Shimmer: But it sure is cool though.

Gusty: I think so too. But what's that Propeller on your back?

Vakama: It's called the Rhotuka Spinner. It fires powerful beams of elemental energy we have at our target in swirling form.

Ignitor: Wow! That is most impressive.

Sunburn: Can't wait to see that in action.

Hot Head: Yeah it looks awesome!

Jet Link: It sure does. This is gonna be awesome.

Dan: Yeah it is!

Pyro: Yeah! (Sees Bowser) Bowser? I didn't know you were a Skylander.

Bowser: It was for the 30th anniversary of my game series that I have been on as a villain. I was made in 1985 and for the 30th anniversary of my introduction I decided to be part of the action as a guest for Skylanders.

Spitfire: That's right and it's awesome!

Torch: It sure is. I think having Bowser with us as a Fire Skylander is awesome.

Blast Zone: Yeah it is.

Pyro: Wow! I didn't know that. But it's great that you get to show us what you can do as a Skylander. Lets get it on then!

Bowser: With pleasure John!

They went at him.

Vakama, Sunset Shimmer, Gusty the Great, Fire Skylanders, Cyborg 002, Dan, Top Man and Shadow Man: FIRESTORM BLADE STYLE FORMATION ART: FIREBLADE INFERNO SLASH BARRAGE!

They spun in a triacontakaidigon formation and fired a massive barrage of fire blades and they hit Pyro and knocked him down!

Vakama: ALL RIGHT!

Sunset Shimmer: That was fiery and awesome!

Gusty: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 3: Onua, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Earth Skylanders, Cyborg 003, Julie, Skullcruncher and Weirdwolf VS Tar Pit

---

Tar Pit was next.

Tar Pit: (to Onua) Is this your first time seeing the Visorak?

Onua: As a matter of fact it is. We never saw the Visorak before except in Legends.

Applejack: They are just as terrifying as Star Spiders at their biggest.

Apple Bloom: They sure are. I would not want one of them as a pet.

Frozen Fright: Me neither. I heard they pack a punch like the Bohrok and Bohrok Kal did.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Tis true.

Françoise: But they will be destroyed one way or another by us.

Julie: They sure will.

Flashwing: Yep. If anyone can make those ugly spiders pay it's the Toa and Toa Hordika.

Dino Rang: (Australian Accent) That's right mate.

Crusher: They will hammer them home.

Tar Pit: Nicely put! Lets do it!

They went at him.

Onua, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Rockhoof, Earth Skylanders, Cyborg 003, Julie, Skullcruncher and Weirdwolf: EARTHQUAKE APPLE VALKNUT STYLE FORMATION ART: FURIOUS SMASHING TRINITY BLAST!

They spun in a tricontekaitrigon formation and fired a massive wave of earth and apples and they formed into a deadly Valknut of Earth and Apples and it smashed into Tar Pit and knocked him down.

Onua: YEAH! EARTH WINS!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was awesome!

Apple Bloom: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 4: Lewa, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Shun, Air Skylanders, Cyborg 004, Apeface and Snapdragon VS Kitty

---

Kitty was next.

Kitty: (to Lewa) What are your thoughts on the Toa Metru's Hordika forms?

Lewa: A very amazing and very awesome Metamorphosis. The Visorak gave them an incredible power and it was with them all the time even when Team Loud Phoenix Storm met all of us.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah and it is so awesome!

Scootaloo: It sure is! I think that it's amazing!

Magma Gloom: Yeah it is. I'm amazed they have this kind of power.

Flash Magnus: Me too. It sure is neat.

Shun: I'll say.

Whirlwind: I think that they have amazing gifts in this kind of power.

Free Ranger: I think so too.

Thunderbolt: Same here.

Kitty: Agreed. Lets do it shall we?

Lewa: Lets!

They went at her.

Lewa, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Shun, Air Skylanders, Cyborg 004, Apeface and Snapdragon: HURRICANE WONDERBOLT STYLE FORMATION ART: MAYSAK THUNDERSTRIKE BARRAGE!

They spun in a triacontakaidigon formation and fired a wave of wind and lightning and it smashed into Kitty and knocked her down.

Lewa: All right!

Rainbow Dash: THAT WAS AWESOME!

Scootaloo: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 5: Leon, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Water Skylanders, Cyborg 005, Marucho, Marah and Kapri VS Artie Ziff

---

Artie Ziff was next.

Artie Ziff: (to Leon) Why was Psycho Ren's episode even aired in the first place?

Leon: I wasn't born when it came out. But I heard from so many internet ratings and critiques that it was one of the most infamous episode in any cartoon series. It's hard to imagine that John Kricfalusi can make such a dark and terribly made episode. That episode showed Ren at his most maniacal.

Rarity: It sure did and it was just awful that he would butcher a Psychologist like that!

Sweetie Belle: He is a monster! And he butchered an entire insane asylum full of staff and patients!

Thunder Terror: Yeah it was awful! You should've seen it Artie.

Artie Ziff: Boy I can tell that must've been awful!

Mistmane: It was. It was the worst massacre we've ever seen.

Sable Spirit: Yeah.

Chill: (Russian Accent) It was awful. But J.D. has seen worse massacres than that.

Zap: He sure has and they are not pretty.

Gill Grunt: Yeah.

Geronimo Jr.: But when we deal with Psycho Ren it will be for justice.

Marucho: Definitely!

Leon: Absolutely. And when we are done here you need to give a few choice words for Marge. I think Skinner needs to have a few choice words with his so-called mother too.

Artie Ziff: Great idea. Lets do it!

They went at him!

Leon, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Water Skylanders, Cyborg 005, Marucho, Marah and Kapri: MAELSTROM OF NEPTUNE STYLE FORMATION ART: JEWELS OF POSEIDON STRIKE!

They spun in a Tricontakaihexagon formation and fired a massive blast of water and it formed into a jewel shower and knocked down Artie.

Leon: All right!

Rarity: Rapture darling! That was grand!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it was!

---

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

The episode Ren Seeks Help got a lot of infamy for its dark and brutal version of Ren and all that and it was horrible. I wanted to do a chapter for that and show that no matter how crazy people can get, they still need to face justice for their crimes. Regardless of their condition. They still need to be punished for their crimes. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, XP4Universe, Omegahatchiyak12 and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Get ready for an awesome adventure in the stars and sky as we head to the planet Chrysalis for an epic and awesome battle with our starships as we take down the Squoomians from the Samurai Jack episode Jack and the Flying Prince and Princess. It will be a deadly and awesome air battle with our planes and ships.

See you all tomorrow.

An Alien Dogfight on Chrystallis

In the Gotham Royal York Maximum Security Insane Asylum, we were there to talk some sense into Marge and Agnes. Agnes and Marge were both sentenced to spend the remainder of their lives there without possibility of parole. Marge was forever bound to a wheelchair because of having her legs shot off.

Skinner: Hello Mother.

Homer: (Resentful) Marge.

Nico: Hello.

Agnes Skinner: What the Hell do you want?

Nico: (sighs) Well, I want to apologize for what happened to you.

Agnes Skinner: Say what?

Nico: It wasn't J.D. who beat you up. It was me. The Digimon Emperor took control of my body when I was sleeping, used Madame Rouge's powers to shapeshift into J.D., and beat you up that night. And for that, I'm very sorry. I don't expect you to forgive me. But I just want you to understand.

Skinner: Mother, despite how you've treated me over the years, Nico would like to extend an olive branch, so to speak.

Elec Man: He's trying to make peace with you. And honestly, I think that's an apology worth forgiving.

Fluttershy: (cries tears of joy while holding Angel) You guys are going to make Angel cry!

Agnes: You think all is forgiven after what happened!? You are just a poisonous thug that turned my son against me!

Nico: Agnes what is wrong with you!?

Poromon grabbed her cane.

Nico: I'm apologizing to you for everything that happened.

Tory: (Pokemon) Look, if you don't believe us, Salem can show you from Nico's memories!

Nico: Yeah!

Salem: It's true Agnes.

Salem showed a holographic image from her emblem of what happened during that time and how it all went down.

Agnes was shocked.

Me: See?

Agnes: So that wasn't you Nico? It was all because of this Digimon Emperor?

Nico: Yes.

Me: It's an ugly story.

Mindwipe: So, what do you have to say to that?

Marge: I'm still here, you know!

Me: We know Marge!

Nico: Marge what is your problem?

Lincoln: Yeah why do you want Homer so badly!?

Marge: BECAUSE I LOVE HIM!

Me: Oh really? If you love him then why did you gamble uncontrollably and help Mr. Burns who is now Super Hakaied and gone forever? Hmm? Answer to that.

Marge growled ferociously.

Maria: Marge, will you shut your mouth? Nico's is trying to make an honest apology to Skinner's mom!

Cosmos: (to Agnes Skinner) Look, even if you don't forgive Nico, he still apologized to you.

Sheila: And that makes him a good person.

Me: That's right Agnes.

Skinner: Yeah mother ever since Springfield was destroyed because of Burns and everyone, you have been worse than you were before. What the Hell is wrong with you?

Agnes: I HATE EVERYTHING! I HATE EVERYTHING ABOUT YOU SEYMOUR! YOU ARE THE WORST MISTAKE AND THE WORST EVER DISAPPOINTMENT THAT EVER LIVED!

We gasped!

Me: How can you be so cruel to your own son!? Are you that delusional!? Are you so content with making his life miserable that you have the nerve to say he's a disappointment!?

Nico: YEAH!

Eddy (to Kevin (Ed Edd N Eddy)): And I thought you had problems making peace with me in "From Here to Ed".

Kevin (Ed Edd N Eddy): I know, right? (to Nico) Don't feel bad, dude. At least you apologized for what the Digimon Emperor did. Wanna get some Jawbreakers together to get your mind off of this?

Nico: Thanks guys.

Selma: Marge what happened to you? What happened that caused the sweet girl that loved Homer to turn into a monster and hurt so many others and abuse her own children?

Patty: And what happened to you that would cause you to hate Bart, Lisa and Maggie and all that?

Lincoln: Yeah!

Marge: Because they had beliefs that I was always against! I hated Bart for being a menace, I hated Lisa for being a vegetarian, Buddhist and environment loving girl and Maggie well I got nothing.

Me: Marge, it's the 1st Amendment of the United States Constitution: Freedom of Choice. They have the right to speak, choose their religion, press, assembly and petition. It's part of the rights of the country. When are you gonna get that through that thick blue pillar of hair of yours that it's part of what it is and you can't change that no matter what happened. It's the law and there's nothing you can do about it.

Homer: Yeah Marge! When are you gonna learn?

Ed: Pass the mustard.

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

Me: Marge, I hope you realize that through your time in here. You have all the time in the world to think about it.

Laney: That's right Marge. You need a lot of professional help and you need to learn that your actions all have consequences.

Lincoln: That's right.

Zuko: Lots of them.

Nico: I'm sorry it has to be this way for you Marge but the law is the law.

We left and went to the candy store and Poromon gave Agnes back her cane.

---

Back at the World Tree of Friendship Estate we were watching TV and reading books and even enjoying the great view of the planet.

Spinister: So, what mission are we going on now?

Me: We haven't gotten it yet. So far things have been very quiet.

But Nicole was watching things from the observatory. She was looking at the planets we have in orbit.

Nicole: Hmm. No problems on Atmos. But it looks like they are doing great now that all their major enemies have been destroyed.

Atmos was at the very pinnacle of prosperity and all that. But some of the minor enemies are still at large and we'll deal with them later. Nicole looked at planet Chrystallis and she saw the Lebidopterins enjoying peace and tranquility.

Nicole: Chrystallis is doing well. Wait.

Nicole saw some activity in the clouds.

Nicole: Uh oh.

She saw Squoomian Gunships on the attack and they were blasting the villages of the Lebidopterins all over to kingdom-come!

Nicole: Oh man!

Nicole went over and pressed a red button and the alarm sounded.

Me: Uh oh!

We went to Nicole's room.

Me: What's wrong!?

Nicole: The Lebidopterins of Chrystallis are under attack!

Me: Oh no! The Squoomians are back!

Nico: The Squoomians!? Oh man!

Rainbow Dash: Who are the Squoomians?

Me: We encountered them as the Brave 12 when we first went to Chrystallis.

I went over their history and what we did to stop them.

* * *

The Squoomians are the enemies of the Lebidopterins. They had not been seen by the Lebidopterins for ten years before their assault in Episode XLVII: Jack and the Flying Prince and Princess, and attacked them while the Lebidopterin navy was off system. They use fighter jets that resemble sharks, armed with rotating machine guns, piloted by Sqoomians who appear to have a stocky build, black fur, pink pointed ears, red goggles, and breathing masks, as well as sidearm laser guns for fighting in closer quarters.

* * *

When I was done, everyone was shocked!

Nico: Whoa man! Looks like we're gonna need to engage them in an epic dogfight!

Me: That's right!

Artie Ziff, Eris, Tar Pit, Box Ghost, Electrocutioner, Kitty, Pyro and Anti-Wanda appeared.

Artie Ziff: Now that me and Skinner got done reprimanding Agnes and Marge, can me, Eris, Tar Pit, Box Ghost, Electrocutioner, Kitty, Pyro, and Anti-Wanda go on this mission with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. But we're gonna need all the Masters of Evil to come with us. We got ourselves an awesome Starfighter fight coming. This will be a perfect opportunity for you guys to test out our awesome starfighter ships for us.

Pyro: Why what's going on?

Me: The Squoomians are attacking our friends on Chrystallis and they need us to destroy them.

Lincoln: It's a long story but we helped them as the Brave 12 and saved their kingdoms from total destruction.

Laney: It's true.

Box Ghost: Oh man!

Eris: I'll call everyone.

Eris called everyone in the Masters of Evil.

Me: Lisa, Deploy the U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix!

Lisa Loud: Affirmative!

We were off to Chrystallis.

* * *

The U.S.S. Valorous Phoenix was flying through the skies of Chrystallis.

Me: Captain's Log, Stardate 2917.7: We are en route to help the Lebidopterins take down their hated foes that they have been in battle with for many years, the Squoomians. They are a dangerous race of raccoon creatures that are deadly pilots as well. Our mission is to destroy the Squoomians once and for all in an awesome starfighter dogfight and save our friends the Lebidopterins.

Nico: This is gonna be so cool!

Tomahawk Man: These Squoomians sound like they're squirrels.

Me: They sure do. But their gunships are deadly.

Artie Ziff: Yep. But you are are gonna love all our ships when they get here.

Nico: Can't wait.

Laney: Coming up to the Lebidopterin village now.

Me: On screen.

The screen came on and it showed that the village was under attack bad.

Me: Red Alert!

The alarms sounded.

Me: Everyone to the ships, Nathaniel you have the con.

Nathaniel: Roger grandpa.

Me: Lets move!

We went to the docks for our starfighters.

---

We got in our starfighters and we were getting ready.

Box Ghost: I can actually fly since I'm a ghost. So, I can fight these guys in the air.

Me: Awesome! That's what I remember. Lets get them.

Most of us all got into our ships and we flew out of the ship and towards the battlefield.

Vypra: Looks like the battle is getting started.

Nathaniel: Squad Leaders, we've picked up a new group of signals. Enemy fighters coming your way.

I looked up and saw that they were Ci-Kat-A's from SWAT KATS and with them was DR. HARLEY STREET who is now a Ci-Kat-A!

---

Ci-Kat-A

A pregnant female member of the Ci-Kat-A species who came to the kat planet encased in a sticky slime that had somehow become attached to the Kat Sat 1 during its deep space exploration. Upon being examined in a MASA laboratory, she immediately bit Dr. Harley Street and a guard, bringing them under her direct control and also slowly turning them into Ci-Kat-A themselves. She laid several eggs in the space center's nuclear reactor, so that her children would have food when they hatched. When Ann Gora and her cameraman Jonny K., snooping around after being snubbed by Street despite being promised an interview about the Kat Sat 1 the previous evening, found the nest in the reactor, they were pursued first by the Ci-Kat-A-controlled guard and then attacked by the queen herself.

Her swiftly-hatching offspring began biting and converting all the guards at the space center, trapping Ann and Jonny, as the queen complained to an increasingly more and more transformed Street that there wasn't enough radioactive material for her ever-growing brood. He promised her he'd see to it that she and her kind were taken care of. When the SWAT Kats and the Enforcers attacked the space center to rescue Ann and Jonny, neutralizing all of the queen's natural offspring and killing or knocking out everyone they'd bitten, Street escaped in a van with the queen in back, driving her to the Megakat Nuclear Plant. The SWAT Kats gave chase.

At the nuclear plant, the queen was opposed first by the guards, who she disabled using her piercing shriek, and then by Razor, who she cocooned. She would've bitten him had not Street urged her to get inside. After breaking into the reactor, the queen ate several nuclear fuel rods, causing her to grow to gargantuan proportions. Grabbing a by now almost fully-transformed Street, she flew away with him, and he directed her to the reopened Megakat Tower, which is where she made her new nest in the penthouse. However, a visiting Callie Briggs found the nest, alerting the city's protectors.

After the SWAT Kats took care of a completely transformed Street using an Octopus Missile, the Enforcers moved in, using their choppers' flamethrowers to set fire to the penthouse, burning all the unhatched eggs. Commander Feral's attempt to kill the queen herself using bugspray failed, so the SWAT Kats used grappling lines to tie up her wings so she couldn't fly. As she fell, she grabbed Razor from the Turbokat cockpit, intending to drag him down with her, but her fired a grappling hook from his Glovatrix, pulling himself out of the alien insect's grip, and she fell down to the Megakat Tower courtyard alone, landing hard but unharmed on the cement just as Mayor Manx's limousine pulled up with him and Mr. Young inside.

As the queen crawled towards the limo, though, a burning section of the penthouse fell down on her from above, crushing her, splattering Manx, Young and their chauffeur in her slimy innards, ending the alien threat.

Dr. Harley Street

Dr. Street is a brilliant astronomer working for MASA. He was in charge of the Kat Sat 1 project. Unfortunately for him, when his satellite returned, it was coated with a sticky slime containing an alien Ci-Kat-A, which bit him, taking control of his mind and eventually mutating him into a Ci-Kat-A-like creature himself. Dr. Harley Street tried to help the alien queen to achieve its full power by letting her eat the radioactive material from Megakat Nuclear Power Plant. He was supposedly killed when he was thrown out of the Megakat Tower by Razor. He only appeared in The Ci-Kat-A," but was supopsed to appear in the unfinished episode "Doctors of Doom" where Dr. Harley Street resurfaces and teams up with Dr. Viper to create havoc in Megakat City. He was voiced by the late Robert Ridgely in the original English version.

Aylene C.: The Ci-Kat-A's and Dr. Harley Street!

T-Bone: How did he find us!?

Me: Watch it guys you got one on your tail!

A Ci-Kat-A fired slime and they dodged it and Lola flew behind it and burned it all over.

Me: He was long overdue for showing up and he was supposed to be next on our hit list. But after everything Aylene told us about what happened to him, we can cure him.

Scrap Shooter: (to Harley Street) How the Hell did you get here, see?!

Harley Street: (Mutated voice) I followed you here and we heard all about you killing my friends and fellow villains and now you will meet their fate.

Me: Don't count on it Street! You are not yourself and must be cured.

I fired a bunch of laser blasts and blew his brood apart. Splattering guts and slime all over the place.

Me: Lily he's coming your way! Octopus Missile, away!

I fired an Octopus Missile and it opened and grabbed Harley Street and latched him onto Lily's starfighter.

Lily: Roger that. Switching to autopilot.

Lily activated autopilot and opened her cockpit dome and went onto the wing of her ship.

Harley Street: You will not stop me and my brood.

Lily: Sorry doc but Aylene says it's time for you to be cured.

Lily used her water wings and enveloped him in a ball of water and it removed the evil venom of the Ci-Kat-A and he reverted back to the notable research scientist that everyone in Megakat City all loved.

Lily grabbed him and put him in the back seat of her ship and Lily got in and closed the cockpit cover.

She resumed control.

Lily: Don't worry Dr. Street. We'll get you to the hospital when we're done here.

Me: Great job Lily.

Nico: Well done kid.

Lily: Thanks guys.

T-Bone: Well done Lily! You did a great job!

Electrocutioner called Commander Feral.

Electrocutioner: (to Commander Feral) Feral, I don't know if you and the Enforcers are busy or not. But we've got some old friends of yours with us! And we could really use backup from you guys!

Feral: We're on our way guys.

Me: It's the Ci-Kat-A brood. We're fighting them on Chrystallis.

Feral: Roger that.

Lily: I cured Dr. Harley Street. He was under the influence of the Ci-Kat-A Leader. That's why he had his nest up in Megakat Towers a while back. He was doing all the that stuff against his will.

Felina Feral: Lily's right uncle. And we have Dr. Street back to his old self.

Feral: Excellent job.

Me: We pretty much have the Ci-Kat-A Brood all cleaned up. But our radar is showing a huge Squoomian Mothership coming in. It's a really huge blip.

Feral: On our way.

We blasted Squoomian Ships all over to kingdom come and blew them apart and then a huge MOTHERSHIP! It looked like a City Destroyer from Independence Day and it was huge!

Lincoln: WHOA! Look at the size of that mothership!

Nico: Wow! It's massive!

Bruiser Cruiser: We should get the civilians out of here!

Me: Roger that. Nathaniel can you open channels to the King and Queen?

Nathaniel: Already on it grandpa.

Nathaniel patched me in.

Nathaniel: Channel open.

Me: J.D. Knudson calling King and Queen of Chrystallis.

King of Chrystallis: It's good to see you again J.D. Thank you for helping us out in our time of need.

Me: Our pleasure your majesty. The Squoomians are still coming but there's a huge mothership heading your way. We analyzed the ship and the best way to destroy it is through a small thermal exhaust port at the end of a trench that goes through the middle of the ship.

King of Chrystallis: Understood.

Me: But the explosion from when the ship blows up will have a strong enough force to blow up the entire kingdom. Once we fire proton torpedoes we only have about 5 seconds before it blows.

King of Chrystallis: Understood. We'll begin our evacuation.

Me: We have rescue ships evacuating your people as we speak.

King of Chrystallis: Excellent. We'll get everyone onto your ship.

Me: Great.

Pyro: Time to burn these motherfuckers!

Vakama: With pleasure!

Me: Lets give them coverfire!

Waspinator: Waspinator get them!

Terrorsaur: Lets do it!

Waspinator: Waspinator, TERRORIZE!

He transformed.

Terrorsaur: Terrorsaur, TERRORIZE!

He transformed.

They fired energy and laser blasts at a bunch of the Squoomian Gunships and blew them apart in fiery explosions!

* * *

Nico: Taste this insane spice! SPICY FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: CAROLINA REAPER TORPEDO STORM!

Nico fired a massive barrage of Carolina Reaper Blade Torpedoes and they slashed and burned a bunch of Squoomians in fiery explosions.

Me: Nice shooting buddy!

Nico: Yeah!

Razorclaw: Anti Wanda, do you still grant wishes?

Anti Wanda: Why do you ask?

Razorclaw: Because I wish for the civilians to be protected by force fields!

Anti-Wanda: You got it partner!

She used her wand and it protected the civilians in black force field bubbles.

Me: Nice job Anti-Wanda!

Jonny 2x4: Watch this guys! KNUCKLE CRACK STYLE NINJA ART: CRUNCH OF JONNY THE PEST!

Jonny cracked his knuckles really loudly.

CRUNCH!

Ed: WHAT A PEST!

Edd: That's disgusting!

Ed: MAKE HIM STOP!

The shockwaves from the knuckle crunch blew a bunch of Squoomian ships apart.

He smashed a Squoomian Ship with his guitar.

KRABBBBLLLLLOOOOOOOOOONNNNGGGGGGGG!

He swung and left as the ship exploded! He left.

Varie: J.D. this is Mermaid Leader. We're starting our attack run.

Me: I copy Mermaid Leader. Move into position.

Varie: The exhaust port is marked and locked in.

Terrorsaur: Why did El Kabong leave? We didn't even get to talk to him yet.

Me: I guess he'll meet up with us later on.

Nico: This is loaded with surprises.

Me: Yep.

Entrapta fired a wave of gears and energy and it formed into the B-29 Superfortress plane that dropped the Atomic Bomb on Hiroshima and Nagasaki in 1945.

The techniques hit numerous Squoomian's and blew them apart all over.

Varie, Eli and Maria flew into the into the trench of the huge mothership, Varie, Maria and Eli were flying down the trench towards the thermal exhaust port as lasers were blasting at them.

Varie: Switch all power to front deflector screen. Switch all power to front deflector screen.

Lasers were firing at them like bats out of hell.

Varie: How many guns do you think Maria.

Maria: I'd say about 20 guns. Some on the surface and some on the tower.

They flew fast.

Varie: Switch to targeting computer.

The computer came to her and it showed when ready to fire and they were flying fast.

Eli: Computer's locked. Getting the signal.

The guns then stopped.

Eli: The guns. They've stopped.

Maria: Stabilize your rear deflectors. Watch for Squoomian fighters.

Me: I see them coming in guys!

Nico: Three marks at 210˚!

Me: Lets blow them apart with teamwork!

Cosmos: You got it!

Me: Go Kitty!

Johnny 13: Show them no mercy babe!

Kitty: I plan not to! GHOST FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: KISS OF DEATH!

She fired a kiss blast and it hit a bunch of Squoomians and they were gone.

Eli: YEAH!

Varie: AWESOME!

Ren Krawler: (to Linehalt) Linehalt, see if there are still any Squoomians around.

Linehalt: Affirmative.

He scanned the area and concluded that ther was none left. The entirety of the Squoomian fleet was completely destroyed.

Linehalt: Scans show that there are no more Squoomians left. They are all destroyed.

Me: It's over guys! We won!

Nico: Yeah!

We cheered wildly.

Verbina: But where will we go now? We don't have a home.

Aster: That's right. All is lost.

Me: All is not lost guys. You still have all your friends and family and they still have you and you still have us as your friends too after everything we did to save you all the first time.

Varie: That's right. We saved you before and we saved you now.

Queen of Chrystallis: That's right. And we are forever grateful to all of you.

Me: It was our pleasure your highness.

Eris: Wait. Can't you just snap your fingers to restore their home?

Me: Yes I can.

I snapped my fingers and restored their homes back to normal.

Nico: Awesome!

Me: But the great news is we have no Lebidopterin casualties.

Lily: And we helped bring Dr. Harley Street back to his normal self.

Razor: Yeah we sure did.

Felina Feral: But that Ci-Kat-A must've really done a number on him to cause him to become like that.

Feral: Not just him. The Ci-Kat-A's all got some of my best men.

Me: Well if we do find them, Lily can cure them. Lets go home so we can have our usual battles.

We went back home to Earth and all the Lebidopterin's cheered wildly for all of us.

Abra Kadabra: We saw what happened out there.

Motor Ed: You guys showed those Squoomians. Seriously!

William: (laughs) We sure did.

Mr. Mittens: And no Lebidopterins were killed.

Billy Numerous: Not even my powers could've dealt with all those Squoomians.

Me: Well we also had a view surprises a long the way. But it was like an awesome Star Wars fight out there.

Mr. Mittens: Boy it sure was. Thank goodness you're all okay.

Me: Thanks Mr. Mittens. How's Albert doing?

Mr. Mittens: He's doing good thank you.

Me: You're welcome.

Dark Donny: We heard a lot about what happened to Dr. Harvey Street. We're just lucky he's gonna be all right.

Nico: Yeah. Lily is a life saver.

Lily: Thanks guys.

Me: But the whole battle was like a Star Wars battle for Star Wars Day.

Syd Chang: It sure was. It was awesome!

Captain Boomerang laughed.

Captain Boomerang: Yeah it sure felt like it.

?: I'll say!

2 figures came out and one was BLACK LANCE from episodes 31 and 32 of Mystic Force and HACKTRACK from episode 7 of Ninja Steel!

---

Black Lance

Black Lance was one of the Ten Terrors and the hidden tertiary antagonist of Power Rangers Mystic Force. He was a black knight-like Terror that seemed to act as a war advisor to Sculpin, as well as his right hand man.

When the Master was defeated again, Necrolai found the Sanctuary of the Ten Terrors. Black Lance and others met her and agreed to help conquer the surface world. They arrived in the human world, when the sky turned dark, and introduced themselves to the people of Briarwood. They told people to give them Light, who is actually Nick Russell, the Red Ranger and leader of Mystic Rangers. When the Rangers tried to intervene, Black Lance struck the Manticore Megazord with his Lance. Then they left.

Sculpin broke the Rules of Darkness and ordered Black Lance to go to the surface world to help Megahorn battle the Rangers. Black Lance was delighted, saying that his stallions needed a little exercise, despite Megahorn not wanting his help. The Terror attacked the Manticore Megazord using his chariot, and again nearly defeated them.

When it seemed that Black Lance would emerge victorious, Leanbow arrived in the form of Koragg's Knight Wolf Centaur and began attacking Black Lance. The knight accused the former Koragg of being a traitor and used the spikes on the wheels of his chariot to injure him. Leanbow managed to crash the chariot, and as the two fought, Necrolai planted Sculpin's fish scale on one of the wolf figureheads on his right shoulder. Leanbow then overpowered Black Lance and used a teleportation spell to drag Black Lance down into the Underworld, where the Knight-like terror vowed that he would get his revenge on Leanbow.

Later, he expressed concern about Hekatoid being sent to fight since he was out of shape.

In the final battle, Black Lance assisted Sculpin in destroying Itassis for her betrayal, then, with a new chariot, began attacking the surface world. Engaging the Manticore Megazord, he overwhelmed it again, and was on the verge of victory before Nick and Fire Heart beat him back. The Rangers soon used their version of the Mystic Spell Seal to finish off Black Lance for good, making him the seventh Terror to be destroyed, as well as the sixth and final Terror to be destroyed by the Rangers.

Hacktrack

Hacktrack was a robotic satellite dish-themed Galaxy Warrior.

Hacktrack is sent to steal Sarah's technology. He encounters all five Ninja Steel Rangers in a forest with an army of Kudabots. While the other Rangers battle the Kudabots, the Pink Ranger personally battles Hacktrack, but gets overpowered. She then starts to phase out and disappears into a Holo-Projector, revealing it was really a holographic clone of Sarah. The monster snatches the device and teleports away. He then returns to a city and uses an Antennae Dish club to absorb the Holo-Projector, and uses it to make eight giant holo-clones of Galvanax, which begin attacking the city.

He later returns and attacks the Rangers, he then steals the Pink Ranger's Techno-Gadget that can "make the clones stronger." However, this turns out to be a trick, as the Techno-Gadget is actually a computer virus which short-circuits Hacktrack, causing all eight of the giant Galvanax clones to shut down. Hacktrack reboots himself to recover from the virus. He fires energy rings, but they get deflected by the Blue Ranger's Element Star Ninja Water Attack, and the water itself short-circuits Hacktrack again, allowing the Yellow and White Rangers to use the Ninja Earth Attack on him. He is then destroyed by the Five Ranger Ninja Strike, Steel Slash Final Attack.

He is Gigantified by Cosmo and the Rangers summon the Ninja Steel Zords to battle him. Hacktrack flies, prompting the Rangers to form the Ninja Steel Megazord Dragon Formation, but the Megazord can't reach into space, so Mick creates and gives the Rangers a Ninja Star that allows them to summon the new Astro Zord. They combine with it to form the Astro Ninja Steel Megazord. They battle Hacktrack on the moon and destroy him with the Astro Ninja Steel Megazord's Cosmic Blast Final Attack.

---

Nick Russell: Black Lance!

Brody Romero: And Hacktrack!

Me: I remember you two. Black Lance you assisted Sculpin in destroying Itasis and used that awesome new chariot to destroy the world. And Hacktrack you were sent to steal Sarah's technology.

Hacktrack: Wow! Good memory on you!

Black Lance: And you are correct on that one.

Itassis: I will never forgive you for betraying me Black Lance.

Black Lance: You betrayed us. You were gonna get what you deserved.

Me: No you will get what you deserve just like Octomus the Master did when I killed him.

Black Lance: WHAT!? You killed the Master?

Me: Yep and I show no remorse for everything he did. He got what he deserved.

Black Lance: You are a monster J.D.!

Me: I've been called worse.

Black Lance: (to Nick Russell) I knew I was going to end up fight you, Red Ranger. Sculpin already called dibs on fighting J.D.

Nick Russell: This is gonna be good.

Me: I had a feeling Sculpin was gonna be coming after me. This is gonna be good.

We saw that Hacktrack had the signature weapons of the Talon Members Doomfist, Reaper, Moira, Sombra, and Widowmaker.

Maria: Are those the weapons of the Talon members?

Hacktrack: Yep. Mistress Vypra let me absorb them after Talon was defeated. Say what you want about them but their weapons are very badass!

Me: Well as long as you don't use them like when the contingency plans were turned against us it will work out.

Hacktrack: Cool!

Nico: Awesome!

Salem: I've seen all that and Nico, I'm so sorry that happened to you.

Nico: Thanks Salem.

Me: Lets head to the gym for our battles and let the show begin!

Nico: YEAH!

We went into the Gym.

* * *

We got to the gym and we were ready.

Me: This is gonna be awesome. Yang, you and your group and Motor Ed can use our race track to have your battle.

Yang: Cool!

Motor Ed: Awesome!

Rainbow Dash: YEAH!

?: This is gonna be awesome!

4 more figures came out and they were COMRADE RED, TIGRESS, LADY VIPER and NYSSA AL GHUL!

---

Comrade Red

Comrade Red is Major Glory's arch nemesis on Dexter's Laboratory . Like Major Glory represents the USA, Comrade Red represents the Soviet Union with their relationship being a parody of the conflicts that occurred during the Cold War between the Soviet Union and the USA. Major Glory represents most aspects of the Western World such as democracy, the free world and heroism. Comrade Red represents communism and the Soviet Union, and also believes that the world should be crushed. He dresses in Russian attire and like Major Glory (who decorates his costume like his country's flag) he decorates his costumes with the designs of the former Russian flag of the Soviet Union used prior to 1991. He also uses a hammer and sickle as weapons.

As Major Glory is a parody of Captain America, Comrade Red is a parody of Red Skull.

He made a cameo appearance in The Powerpuff Girls episode "Members Only", as one of the members of the Association of World Super Men.

Tigress

Tigress is the name of three different comic book supervillains, all of whom have appeared in various series published by DC Comics.

In live action, Tigress debuted as original character Tabitha Galavan starting in the second season of the series Gotham, played by Jessica Lucas. Paula Brooks Tigress appears on the DC Universe streaming service show Stargirl played by Joy Osmanski. The show also appears on The CW Network.

The original Tigress appeared as Zatara's primary foe throughout twelve issues of Action Comics, including issues 1, 3, 6, 7, 9, 10, 22, 23, 25, 30, 35 and 42. In her initial appearance, she battles Zatara and his assistant Tong while attempting to rob a freight train. She escapes and later resurfaces in stories using various methods in attempts to kill wealthy men, including using an attacking airplane, poisoning their drinks and infecting them with a disease from a rare South American insect. She also uses her influence as a mob boss to pressure other criminals into assisting her in crime sprees, which usually involve bank robberies and thefts of other valuables.

The Artemis entry in Who's Who Update '87 #1 states that the Golden Age Tigress is the mother of Paula Brooks (the second Tigress and original Huntress) and the grandmother of Artemis Crock (the third Tigress). However, Who's Who Update '87 #5 included a retraction of that information and stated that neither Paula Brooks nor Artemis Crock is related to her.

Madame Viper

Ophelia Sarkissian, also known as Madame Viper, Madame Hydra, or Viper, is a villain from Marvel Comics and one of the leaders of the terrorist organization known as HYDRA. She is an enemy of Captain America, the X-Men, Spider-Woman, and the Avengers.

Ophelia Sarkissian was born to unnamed parents and was orphaned, and was eventually recruited into Hydra. She became the student of the Kraken, and became a well-respected agent of the organization, earning the title "Viper". She gained a position in Hydra's inner circle, became a mercenary for a time, and pupil of Seraph. Later on, Viper and Seraph rescued the mutant Wolverine from Sabretooth, and Seraph died of his wounds.

Nyssa Al Ghul

Nyssa Raatko, better known as Nyssa al Ghul (Arabic: نيسا رعتكو ) is an anti-heroine/antagonist appearing in the CW superhero TV series Arrow, as an anti-heroine in Seasons 2, 4, 5 and 6 and a supporting antagonist in Season 3. She is the daughter of Ra's al Ghul, sister of Talia al Ghul and a high-ranking member of the League of Assassins. She was also a close friend and ex-lover of Sara Lance. Nyssa later becomes the wife of Oliver Queen, who has joined the league in the attempt to defeat Ra's.

She is portrayed by Katrina Law.

Origins

Born in May 10, 1985, Nyssa was raised in the League of Assassins by her father Ra's al Ghul. He'd always told her that her mother's name was Amina Raatko when in reality, her name is Lourdes, one of Malcolm Merlyn's lovers. By 8 years old she became a skilled swordswoman. However, she loathed her father greatly and sought to kill him for the way he's treated her. Despite this, she was proud to be his daughter. She also had a half-sister named Talia al Ghul, but she left the League at some point to pursue her own path.

She brought in Malcolm Merlyn in 1993 to be trained in the League. She gave him the name "Al Sa-Her" (Arabic for "Magician") after he pulled a coin from her as a magic trick. Another League member she'd known of was a sorcerer named Damien Darhk, who'd also left the League. Many years later, she met a girl named Sara Lance after she was swept away from a ship called the Amazo, after trying to escape the island of Lian Yu. She took her to Nanda Parbat and nursed her back to health and eventually fell in love with her. However, Ra's didn't approve of their relationship, knowing that Sara wouldn't stay for long and viewing her as a potential threat to them. Even still, Sara was given a League title and was taught to fight, earning the nickname "Ta-er al-Usfar" (Arabic for "Yellow Bird", which is supposed to mean "The Canary")

In 2013, following Malcolm Merlyn's Undertaking scheme in Starling City, which saw the Glades district mostly-destroyed by an artificially-triggered earthquake, Ra's decided that Malcolm had broken the League's code, given that he'd done it simply for his own selfish desire. Sara left Nanda Parbat to check on her family but failed to return after several weeks and Nyssa eventually learned that she'd refused to return home. Following this, Nyssa set out to find Sara and use any means to find her beloved and bring her back.

Season 2

Sara eventually arrived in Starling City, where he After many Assassins failed to catch her, she had one of the Assassins who was in Starling City poison her sister Laurel Lance and eventually came to Starling City to find her. After reuniting with Sara, Nyssa tried to talk her into coming home but she refused. She then kidnapped Sara's mother and threatened to kill her if she didn't come with her. As Sara and Oliver Queen/The Arrow came to rescue her mother, Sara then poisoned herself. Nyssa then fought Oliver and was overpowered by him. Just as Oliver overpowered her, Sara begged him not to kill her. Nyssa then released Sara from the League on Ra's behalf.

Later, Sara visited the League and asked for their help as Slade Wilson and his Mirakuru-enhanced army was attacking the city. Nyssa agreed to help only if Sara returned to the League. However, even though Nyssa and her crew helped Oliver and his team take down Slade's army, Oliver didn't approve of her methods, especially since he wasn't a killer anymore, such as when she killed Slade's right-hand woman Isabel Rochev. Nonetheless, her help proved valuable against the attack and Oliver managed to defeat Slade and have him sent to an A.R.G.U.S. prison on Lian Yu.

Season 3 War with Malcolm Merlyn and Oliver Queen

The League once again turned their attention to hunting down Malcolm Merlyn and had sent Sara to Starling City to find him. However, she was assassinated by an unknown person, and after not hearing from her, Nyssa once again came to Starling City to find her. Nyssa storms into the Arrowcave, aiming an arrow at Oliver. Oliver informed her of Sara's death. Shocked with grief, she revealed that Malcolm Merlyn was still alive and that Sara had come to Starling City to trace a rumor that he was here. She visited Sara's grave, where she meets Laurel. She swears a blood oath to avenge Sara's life using the Arabic words "أقسم بحياتي", which means "I swear on my life", the rest of the oath is indistinguishable. She went to Sara's safehouse where she and Oliver found pictures and notes Sara had made while investigating Malcolm. Team Arrow and Nyssa found out Merlyn was hiding in a Buddhist temple. Infiltrating the temple, she confronted the leader, who was meditating (unaware it was Merlyn, as the leader had passed away years ago).

Realizing it was Malcolm, she tried to kill him; however, he incapacitated her easily and fled the scene. Oliver managed to put a tracker on him. Nyssa was angry at Oliver that he did not attempt to kill him. After learning Oliver had talked to Malcolm and did not believe he killed Sara she became furious at him. Learning Thea was actually his daughter, she kidnapped Thea. Trying to lure Malcolm in, Oliver freed Thea and the two started a fight. Merlyn showed up and a wild melee started in which Malcolm managed to overpower Nyssa and told her he did not kill Sara and suspected her own father Ra's al Ghul to be the killer. After a discussion, Oliver refused to kill Malcolm, and told Nyssa he would not allow the League of Assassins to come near him. Angered by Oliver she shared her thoughts with Laurel and encouraged in her training to become stronger before leaving Starling City. She was later shown informing her father, who assured her Malcolm would face justice. She did appear to have doubts about Malcolm's guilt in Sara's death, especially when her father stated that Sara "was never truly one of us". Upon hearing of Oliver's decision to protect Malcolm, he declared war.

She returned to Starling City with a group of assassins and captured Oliver. She informed him that he had 48 hours to find Sara's killer or the League would start killing civilians. After this, she was present when the deadline had passed and her father talked with Oliver. Oliver said he had killed Sara, which made her react in disbelief. Oliver lied that he killed her because she begged him, as she did not want to return to the League. He then challenged her father for a trial by combat, which he accepted. She was present on the mountain where Oliver and her father would have the duel. She said she envied Oliver, as he would see Sara soon (in death). Her father engaged Oliver in combat. Being unarmed, Ra's easily dodged Oliver's sword strikes; he manages to stab Oliver through the chest and throw him off the mountain. Unbeknownst to them at first, he was found and nursed back to health by Tatsu Yamashiro.

Nyssa later confronted her father about how Oliver is still alive. Her father said he was aware and that Oliver did not kill Sara after all. Nyssa questions if he ever approved of her relationship with Sara; he said he knew their love would only end in heartbreak. Nyssa mentioned that even if Oliver did not kill Sara, he still deserves to die for defying him. Nyssa and a group of assassins went to Starling City as they looked for Malcolm Merlyn. They are later contacted by Thea, who offers them Malcolm Merlyn in return for safety. Nyssa agreed and Thea tells them where Malcolm is. Nyssa and her team find Malcolm as he is getting attacked by Laurel. He easily fended her off and took her baton, after which she pulled a gun on him. Her assassins quickly disarmed Laurel and surrounded Malcolm. Nyssa faced Malcolm in a duel while she used her scimitar and he used the baton of Laurel. After a short fight, she managed to overpower him and knocked him out. Preparing to leave by helicopter, Nyssa told Malcolm he would suffer for what he did. Malcolm replied that her father only wanted to punish him for the undertaking and he never cared for Sara. Malcolm said her love for Sara made her unable to take the place of her father. Oliver Queen came to his rescue. Nyssa ordered her men to leave with Malcolm while she prepared to hold Oliver off. She fought Oliver; however, he managed to tie her up with a trick arrow and capture her. As the helicopter flew Malcolm away, she mentioned to Oliver that he'll never be seen again. Nyssa is then locked up in a cage in the Arrowcave. She spends her time meditating as Oliver and his team discussed what to do about her.

Oliver send the rest away as he asked her where Nanda Parbat is. Nyssa explained that every action of him had frustrated the vengeance for the death of Sara, and she tells him the location as she is certain he will die there. Laurel later brought her water and Nyssa said Malcolm will get tortured by her father, but Laurel does not seem please now the killer will be punished. Laurel said she hated Merlyn and that he was like a piece of Sara that still existed. However, now he is gone, she can not even remember the sound of Sara's laugh. Nyssa told her that the first time Sara was brought to her father, she was the witness of a demonstration of his power; however, she simply laughed, as she was completely innocent. It was that moment that Nyssa fell in love with her. A touched Laurel thanks her for sharing this. Thea later visited her at her cage as she explains she can not live with the guilt of what she did. Thea explained to Nyssa that she lied to her and that she was the one who killed Sara. Thea then opens the cage door and hands Nyssa her scimitar as she says she can have her revenge.

Nyssa took the scimitar but refused to kill Thea. A frustrated Thea explained how she killed Sara while being drugged. Nyssa said that the murder will be revenged with the death of Malcolm. Laurel and Roy came in and attacked Nyssa as they believed she had escaped. Nyssa knocked them both down but was shot with an anesthetic and passed out. Locked up in the cage she was surprised when Oliver returned and set her free. She demanded an explanation as she refused to believe her father had let Malcolm go. Oliver told her to just go home.

When she arrived at Nanda Parbat, her father said coldly he was happy to see her again. She demanded to know why he had let Malcolm go. Her father explained it was a favor to Oliver as he would become his heir. Nyssa said it was because he did not approve of her relationship with Sara. Her father explained how she was unfit to be his heir as she had allowed weakness to come into her life which had made her emotional in her judgement. Nyssa attempted to kill him with a sword strike which he easily blocked. Nyssa said she would not watch her legacy being given to an outsider and left.

Leaving the League

Nyssa later came back to Starling City and saved Laurel as the police station was under attack by Murmur. Killing multiple gunmen she then left the scene. Nyssa later talked to Laurel and told her Laurel reminded her of Sara. Nyssa asked Laurel if she would like to talk about her father as they both had some issues with their fathers. Laurel agreed and they went to dinner while Nyssa complimented her fighting skills and offered to train her as she would stay in Starling City for a while.

She met with Oliver in an alley as he asked for her help. She refused to betray her father which resulted in him bringing up Sara. She then gave Team Arrow the location of a building that the league has been using as a staging ground. Nyssa then showed up and helped Laurel when she was cornered by her father.

Nyssa continued training Laurel. She made Laurel track a criminal. When Laurel and the criminal fought and he started to overpower her Nyssa swiftly intervened and took him out. Nyssa showed Laurel that the criminal was carrying two knives and the two then went to get a milkshake. While drinking their milkshake, Nyssa was surprised with the fries and they talked about how they enjoyed spending their time together. Nyssa mentioned she enjoyed the last few weeks and thanked Laurel for being kind to her after being subjected by her father. Laurel mentioned she had to tell Nyssa of how Oliver was now with the League. Nyssa mentioned that Laurel should not have hidden that from her and angrily left the restaurant.

Laurel met Nyssa at her hideout and told her she was sorry for not telling her however she did not want to upset her while she seemed so happy these last two weeks. Nyssa told Laurel she should not keep secrets especially after her relationship with her father suffered because of her secrets. Nyssa told Laurel she should stay away from her as Oliver and the League will come for her now that he has become the heir.

Nyssa and Laurel went to John and Felicity and told them that Oliver was brainwashed and is no longer the person they knew him to be. John and Felicity mentioned they could not believe it and Nyssa told them she was damaging the memory they had of him. She told them she would not hide and she would face him and accept her destiny.

Nyssa went to the rooftop where Sara got killed. Oliver showed up and she asked him if he still remembered her or if his memory of her had been destroyed by her father. Oliver told her she had to come to Nanda Parbat. The two attempted to shoot each other, however, both managed to dodge and block the arrows. Nyssa and Oliver then fought each other using their bows and swords. After a short fight, Oliver quickly disarmed her and knocked her down. Before he could kill her Laurel and John stopped him. As they told him to back off Oliver quickly escaped the scene by jumping off the roof.

At her hideout, Nyssa nurtured her wounds and told Laurel she should not have intervened. Laurel mentioned she did not want to lose her as well after all the people she lost. Nyssa mentioned that the last few weeks she realized there was a life outside of the league however as the daughter of the Demon that life would never be for her. Laurel mentioned that she did not recognize Oliver when he fought Nyssa. Nyssa mentioned he has changed, however, Laurel mentioned that she could change as well.

John and Felicity visited them and told them Lyla had been captured to force them to surrender Nyssa. Furious, John scolded Nyssa and the League for their lack of honor. Laurel tried to calm him down however he wanted Nyssa to surrender to the League. Nyssa told them she will give herself up however Laurel told them they would lose their soul if they would surrender her to get Lyla back. Nyssa, Laurel, John and Felicty met with Oliver and the Assassins. Oliver ordered Maseo Yamashiro to search them for weapons. Felicity refused to be touched and Oliver made Maseo back off. Oliver ordered Nyssa to be bound and then released Lyla. Maseo ordered Nyssa to kneel before Oliver however she refused. Lyla grabbed two guns hidden on Felicty and quickly shot two assassins. In the ensuing fight, Nyssa took out two guards and managed to break her bonds after which she took a sword. She fought Maseo in single combat while Team Arrow quickly got overpowered by the Assassins. When Laurel got overwhelmed Maseo quickly subdued the distracted Nyssa and captured her. Nyssa then got dragged away by the assassins.

Being Wedded to Oliver Queen

When brought before her father, he told her about how she used to steal during meals but that he always found out. He then unlocked her sword and found the Omega virus. Ra's told her he would try to remember her as she was before she left the League. Nyssa mentioned that her whole life she had been afraid of him but she was not scared of him anymore. Ra's ordered Oliver to kill her but stopped him at the last second. He congratulated Oliver for overcoming her and said that her death would serve no purpose. Learning he wanted her to marry Oliver, Nyssa mentioned she would rather die. However, Ra's said she had no choice in the matter. He told her that she will marry Oliver and she would become Bride of the Demon.

Later, she was brought before her father and Oliver for dinner, Ra's decided that he wanted the title Ra's to be in the family line and so he wanted a grandchild so he told Nyssa that she must bear Oliver's children, a decision that she was visibly displeased by. Later, her father met her in her room and told her to be respectful to him, but instead, she scoffed at him. Her father had brought in a necklace that belonged to her mother and told her about how he met her. When she refused to marry Oliver, he held her face in a threatening matter and forced her to go through with it. After Oliver's team was captured and infected with the Alpha Omega virus, she married Oliver and the "union is sealed", as said by the Priestess.

Betrayal

When Ra's put his plan into motion which was to infect Starling City with the Bio-weapon, she was put on the plane and guarded by several members of the League. The plane was later sabotaged and Nyssa looked confused, Ra's was about to kill his own daughter when Oliver revealed his deception, he gave his sword to Nyssa and she killed the majority of the men on the plane. Ra's, unfortunately, escaped with the canister and the only parachute, and they landed the plane safely in the forest. They infiltrated Palmer Technologies and gave the group a scare; she held the group at bow-point but was brought down by Oliver. Oliver was later knocked down by Diggle and she raised her bow at him again to protect her new husband but was again brought down by Oliver.

Later when the group formed a plan, she went with Laurel to take down another member of the League and despite not being inoculated, she went along with the plan saying "This is my father's doing, I will see it undone". After this, she parted ways with Oliver to Nanda Parbat. Nyssa returned to Nanda Parbat where she discovered Malcolm had become the next Ra's al Ghul, with his proof of ascension is that he was tortured by Ra's sword and he survived also stating that he wanted to escape Ra's just like she wanted, Nyssa stated she hadn't forgiven him for what he had done and vowed that she would have justice. Malcolm welcomed her to try and she was forced to kneel in front of him along with the other dozen members in the room.

Season 4 Coup against Malcolm

Malcolm and Nyssa were sparring before Laurel and Thea arrived in Nanda Parbat to try and convince Malcolm to use the Lazarus Pit to resurrect Sara which Malcolm refused and Nyssa agreed to with his decision. Nyssa later explained to Laurel that using the pit has serious consequences and her father paid a dark price for using the pit and she didn't want to see Sara go through that pain. After Malcolm finally agreed to use the pit on Sara, Nyssa furiously barged in and told Laurel that all that was happening to Sara was her responsibility. Nyssa later destroyed the pit and was taken away by Malcolm.

After she was held prisoner, she refused to eat anything, only waiting for the correct time to strike against Malcolm and his men, all the while asking League member Talibah to assist her in gathering loyalists for her war against Malcolm.

Nyssa escaped from Nanda Parbat with the help of an assassin Talibah, who slipped a key to her via a hollowed-out pepper in her dinner. The pair searched for the Lotus in Kyushu, guarded by Tatsu Yamashiro. Tatsu and Nyssa found their skills to be too evenly matched for an outcome and Nyssa gave the option to keep fighting or give up and listen to the news she had on a situation concerning Oliver.

Later that night, Nyssa showed up at Thea's hospital room offering Oliver the Lotus elixir, which counters the effects of the Lazarus Pit, on the condition he kills Malcolm; he told her that he had no intention of doing so, but Nyssa promised that the deal still stood. Ultimately, however, Oliver arrived on a rooftop in the city and defeated Malcolm in sword combat for Nyssa and other members of the League to see, with Oliver removing his opponent's hand, but choosing not to kill him. Oliver removes the Ra's ring from Malcolm's severed hand and gives it to Nyssa, telling her to disband the League, which she said would be difficult. She then departed with the other Assassins while Malcolm fled and joined H.I.V.E., seeking revenge on Oliver.

Doomworld Reality

After the time-travelling supervillain Eobard Thawne obtained the Spear of Destiny with the help of Malcolm, Damien Darhk and Leonard Snart, they altered reality to suit their own purposes. In this new reality, Nyssa is mentioned as living a "miserable closeted life" in Ohio.

Billy Numerous: (to Ben) Which alien are you going to sue this time?

Ben: I'm in the mood for some diamonds today so Diamondhead is gonna be my choice for you today.

Billy Numerous: Awesome choice for you pardner. Diamonds against Clones.

Naruto: Good analogy.

Rarity: I hope I get some good jewels out of all this.

Sweetie Belle: But this is gonna be so awesome. I always love facing bad guys and fight in our usual battles.

Thunder Terror: Me too! It's awesome!

Billy Numerous: It sure is. But what really has me concerned for CatDog is that the Greasers might get out of prison. But if they do get out I think we have the perfect archenemy for them.

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) Who is your choice?

Billy Numerous: Yugito Nii.

Sapphire Shores: A most grand choice. 2-Tailed Cat VS Dog Thugs.

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) It sure is. I think so too.

Mistmane: Me too. But the Greasers are better than that stupid cheapskate con man rabbit Rancid Rabbit. He was a long-earred creep!

Sable Spirit: Worse than Mr. Krabs from what I heard.

Marucho: Yeah.

Preyas: But if he does get out he will be going to a place worse than jail.

Geronimo Jr.: Big time.

Billy Numerous: You said it. Lets do it. I hope there's enough room for us.

Billy Numerous made 150 clones.

Naruto: MULTI SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

He made 150 Clones.

Ben turned into Diamondhead.

Ben: DIAMONDHEAD!

Rarity: Rapture Darling! That was grand!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it was!

Julie Yamamoto: Oh yeah. By the way does Equestria have a Renaissance Fair like that?

Babs: Hmm. You know I'm not really sure.

Applejack: As a matter of fact it does. It's called the Canterlot Medieval Fair. It's a special traditional fair that comes around every Summer till fall and it makes everyone feel like they went back in time to long before the founding of Equestria.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye. Good times lads. Before I joined the Mighty Helm, I would go there every time to have fun with my fellow Pillars.

Sunset Shimmer: (Crying) MOM! DAD! I'M SORRY! (CRYING)

I went over.

Me: Sunset? What's wrong?

She was crying hard.

Me: I have to figure this out.

Bunny: Yeah. I was made from Artificial Sweetener, Dirt and Twigs and various things and I blew up as a result. I was unstable.

Nyssa: Oh man. But I'm glad that J.D. brought you back.

Bunny: J.D. didn't bring me back. The Heavens did. They heard my sisters and some of us crying and brought me and a younger version of myself back. But this time we were made the right way.

Nyssa: Wow. That's amazing. But that must've been really heartwrenching for them to lose you like that.

Bunny: It was. But I was given a second chance.

Nyssa: Wow. From darkness comes light. Lets get it on.

They went at each other and punched and kicked each other all over the place and Bunny was dodging all her strikes like no problem. And Bunny was blocking all of Nyssa's strikes.

Eddy: (to Sunset) And don't worry, Sunset. We'll help you reconcile with your parents. (smirks) One way or another.

Eddy turns his blaster on, giving us a pretty good idea on what he meant.

Captain Underpants And Team Loud Phoenix Storm And The Unscrupulous Revenge Of Captain Blunderpants

---

It was another beautiful day at the World Tree of Friendship Estate and the views of Earth and the Stars were incredible.

I was looking up Robot Chicken Sketches. But this Robot Chicken Sketch was for Captain Planet. But this one was NOT funny. None of us found it very funny at all.

Wheeler: So, is this a Robot Chicken sketch of us, right?

Shrapnel: It is. None of us found this one funny. But we want to hear your thoughts.

Me: Yep. Here we go.

I played the clip and it showed static to start like always.

Kwame: EARTH!

Wheeler: FIRE!

Linka: WIND!

Gi: WATER!

Ma-Ti: HEART! (Captain Planet is formed)

Captain Planet: By your powers combined, I am Captain Planet!

Planeteers: (Bored tones) Go, Planet!

Captain Planet: Whoa, really not feeling the love today, kids. It's not my abs, is it? I've switched trainers, I've just gotta rehire Jenny.

Wheeler: No, Cap, today's mission is gonna be kinda' intense.

Captain Planet: Has Hoggish Greedly reunited the Eco-Villains again?

Gi: No, Captain Planet.

Captain Planet: So, who is this villain in need of a good sound thrashing? (Planeteers point at The White House) Oh, no! Have Eco-Terrorists taken over the capital?

Gi: You might say that. The United States is the second largest polluter on Earth behind China.

Ma-Ti: To truly make a difference…

Linka: We MUST overthrow the United States government!

Captain Planet: (Laughs in amusement) Is Ashton Kutcher around here somewhere? (Laughs)… We're not waging war on America.

Gi: Not just America. Once we command the US military, we'll fight China to the death!

Wheeler: This is SO important, Gi will fight her own people!

Gi: I'm from Thailand.

Wheeler: The capital of China!

Captain Planet: I won't let you! (Gi spouts Captain Planet in the air with water powers)

Linka: (Holds Captain Planet in the air with wind powers, and hits him with multiple objects, then drops him to the ground)

Captain Planet: OOF! (Wheeler sets the area on fire) WHY?! AHH! AAHHHH! (Wheeler walks through the fire) You leave me no choice! (Kwame summons vines from the ground to trap Captain Planet) Ma-Ti! I thought you were the power of heart!

Ma-Ti: Hearts were made to be broken. (Takes out a knife, and the Planeteers put on Guy Fawkes masks)

Captain Planet: Whoa, this just took a dark turn. (Ma-Ti kills Captain Planet with knife) News

News Anchor: In the news tonight, the famous ecological heroes the Planeteers attacked the US capital today.

Reporter: Bob, the Planeteers showed no mercy for approximately 5 to 10 seconds before they were all shot in the back by an overweight security guard here at the very first checkpoint.

News Anchor: We're hearing from the families that the bodies will not be cremated due to environmental concerns… they'll be mulched.

When it was done the Planeteers and Captain Planet were shocked.

Wheeler: That was crazy!

Kwame: And so not funny!

Me: Told you guys.

Captain Planet Linka: (Russian Accent) We would never attack the government like that!

Chiaotzu: Well, in an alternate reality, you guys probably would.

Me: That is a strong possibility. Considering that we have been to many parallel universes several times before.

RD Me: And that we were essentially turned into mirror versions of you guys because of Sindri Myr.

Nico: Yeah.

Varie: That was really crazy.

Gi: I can't believe we would do all that.

Linka (Captain Planet): Yeah! We would never attack the Capital like that.

Kwame: That would be no way to solve the pollution crisis.

Me: No it wouldn't. It would make things worse. Besides, all your major enemies are all dead.

Gi: I think us going bad did happen before.

Thunderblast: Really? When?

Ma-Ti: It was because of Zarm.

Me: Zarm?

Kwame: You would not like this guy J.D. He is the polar opposite of Gaia.

Me: Hmm. Let me see here.

I pulled up his information and what it revealed was horrifying.

* * *

Zarm is the main antagonist of Captain Planet and the Planeteers. As the archenemy of Gaia, Zarm comes into conflict numerous times with the Planeteers.

He was voiced by Sting in the 1st and 2nd Seasons, David Warner in the 3rd Season, and Malcolm McDowell in the 4th and 5th seasons.

Past

Zarm is the antithesis of Gaia being the spirit of war and destruction. He was originally a spirit of the Earth alongside his foe, but for unknown reasons, Zarm left the Earth in search of other planets after being exiled by Gaia. At an uncertain time, Zarm came into contact with an extraterrestrial world, and he presented them with technological advances. However, the inhabitants of the planet eventually wiped itself out through nuclear warfare, and Zarm continued his immortal existence trying to destroy everything that Gaia cherished.

Captain Planet and the Planeteers

Zarm makes his first appearance in the episode "The Conqueror" in which he pretended to be a benevolent alien who gives the Planeteers gauntlets that amplify their powers. Not trusting the stranger, Ma Ti goes to consult Gaia about him. In the mean time, the gauntlets began to corrupt the Planeteers, and Zarm suggests to them that they destroy a military base in order to prove who was more powerful. Unbeknownst to them, once they did, it would incite a nuclear war. Ma Ti arrives with Gaia, and they free the others of the gauntlets' corruption. Zarm attempts to destroy the military base anyway only to be stopped.

His next major appearance was "Summit to Save Earth", Zarm coerces the Eco-Villains to his side, and they infiltrate a summit. They proceed to kidnap members of the summit and take their place.

The Planeteers are made aware of their plan, and they try to stop them. When the Planeteers are caught in a tornado made of pollution, Zarm forces Gaia to choose either to save the Planeteers and let the planet die, or let the Planeteers die while the planet survives.

With her guard down, Zarm transforms Gaia into an elderly mortal woman, and traps her and the Planeteers in his ship for 10 years. The Eco-Villains rule over the world during the decade, making the planet a cesspool. With Gaia being near death and that the Earth would die when she does, Zarm decides to torment her more by allowing the Planeteers a futile chance to defeat him. However, his plan goes awry, and Captain Planet manages to stop him and sends him back into space with a trash-filled ship.

Zarm returns in "Scorched Earth" in which he takes possession of a dictator of Pacifica, and tries to goad him into enacting "Scorched Earth" a strategy in which the dictator's homeland is burnt to a crisp. Even after being defeated, Zarm still tries to cause trouble by possessing another potential dictator. Zarm also brags that he was the mastermind behind several different rulers in recorded history.

In his next appearance "The Dream Machine", Zarm disguises himself as an entity known as the Dream Maker. As the Dream Maker, Zarm exploits an impoverished young man named Carlos, and grants his wishes to impress a girl he liked. As more and more people became aware of the Dream Machine, Zarm causes their resources to dwindle, eventually trying to coerce the town to attack another town for their resources.

Having been defeated yet again by Captain Planet and the Planeteers, Zarm's next course of action is to go to an alternate timeline where the Eco-Villains' descendants rule over a polluted Earth. He informs them that due to some unforeseen circumstances, their timeline was erased from existence, and gives them the chance to avert this by going back in time and eliminating whatever caused the end of that timeline. The future Eco-Villains proceed to destroy several businesses as well as a dam, which threatens to flood an entire city. A young girl is almost swept away by the water, but Ma Ti saved her. Realizing that this girl was the reason as to why the future timeline disappeared, Zarm demands the future Eco-Villains to eliminate her. Unfortunately for them, Ma Ti takes the shot for the girl, and the future Eco-Villains disappear along with their timeline. Zarm is last seen scoffing at the idea of love being a powerful weapon before retreating.

In his last canonical appearance, Zarm makes a bet with Gi when two children were about to be ran over by a truck. If it was true that people aren't born bad but become so because of experience, both children would be saved. However, if Zarm would be proven correct, Gi would work for him. Gi begrudgingly takes his offer, and both children are taken into a virtual world where they could manifest anything that was in their minds. However, Zarm begins to sabotage the game by making the two children nearly kill each other when they see that their parents were fighting each other. However, the day gets saved by the Planeteers, and the parents of both kids apologize to each other.

When it was done we were shocked!

Me: So he wants to destroy the Earth and kill you guys!?

Kwame: Yes he does.

Wheeler: He is a monster. I remember now! He brainwashed us and turned us against the world.

Gi: He gave us these really deadly gauntlets that had the powers of our rings amplified 100 times.

We gasped in shock!

Me: That's crazy!

Laney: No kidding!

Nico: But how did you resist his control Ma-Ti?

Ma-Ti: Because the Heart Ring stopped it.

Me: Wow. You are too strong willed to be controlled by a monster like Zarm. In my opinion, Zarm is a coward that forces others to do his dirty work.

Lincoln: You got that right.

Nico: I agree. But when the time comes we will kill him.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Captain Planet: Well, I'm glad you guys will never do what those Robot Chicken versions of you did.

Outback: (Australian Accent) But at least you guys can be able to stop Captain Planet if he ends up being the one to turn evil.

Kwame: Thank you Outback.

Me: But knowing that Captain Planet is the Earth's defender and champion, that probably won't ever happen.

Nico: No it won't.

Me: Yeah.

Captain Planet: J.D. is right. As long as you all have good in your hearts nothing can stop you from doing the right thing.

Lincoln: That's right!

Me: Yeah! But wait a second. I wonder. Kwame do you guys still have those gauntlets?

Kwame: I think so yeah.

Me: Maybe we can use those gauntlets and the Rings of Destruction on bad guys. It's a longshot but it's worth a try.

Nico: Not a bad idea.

Kwame: I'll go see if I can get them.

Me: Okay.

He went to his room and got the Gauntlets and Rings.

Harold Hutchins: Boy that sketch reminds me of the time me and George went to a mirror universe and saw an evil Version of Captain Underpants.

Me: Really? When did that happen?

George Beard: A while back. It was crazy.

Cree Lincoln: Let me get this straight. There's this world where Captain Underpants is evil?

George Beard: Yeah and it's a crazy place.

Harold Hutchins: Except he's called Captain Blunderpants.

Me: Captain Blunderpants. That's interesting and unusual. What can you guys tell us about him?

George Beard: It's not pretty.

They went over his history.

---

Captain Blunderpants is the evil twin of Captain Underpants in the Captain Underpants novel franchise. He is from the Purple Potty dimension. He was defeated by George and Harold. When he is Mr. Krupp, he is nice. But when he is Captain Blunderpants, he is mean and evil. When water is poured on his head, he becomes Captain Blunderpants. But, when someone snaps their fingers, he turns back into Mr. Krupp. Also, when Captain Blunderpants is in his bad form, he has a toupee. But when he's in Mr. Krupp form, he doesn't wear a toupee.

After giving the evil twins the punishment they deserve and George and Harold's grandparents fly off for a romantic dinner, the duo dehypnotize and shrink Sulu to normal. They then take Evil George, Evil Harold, and Captain Blunderpants back into the Purple Potty and then they kick them back to their universe.

---

We gasped in shock when they were done!

Me: WHOA MAN!

Twilight Sparkle: We know this kind of situation all too well.

Me: We sure do. So you two met the evil mirror universe version of Captain Underpants.

George Beard: Yeah we sure did.

Me: And when he gets water poured on him he turns into Captain Blunderpants and when someone snaps their fingers he reverts back to a good Krupp.

Nico: Where in OUR universe whenever someone snaps their fingers Krupp turns into Captain Underpants and when he gets wet he reverts back.

Me: Strange.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: But we've all been to mirror universes many times before.

Numbuh 1: That's right. The Kids Next Door went to a Mirror Universe where our names are all backwards and we're evil. The KND were called the DNK or Destructively Nefarious Kids.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh man!

Spyro: We've encountered a mirror universe in Skylands. The Skylanders, Flynn, Cali, Persephone, the Mabu and Master Eon were evil and Kaos, Glumshanks and the trolls were good.

Mab Labs: That's right and I was one of the evil Mabu. Take it from me because I was one of those Mabu.

Me: Whoa!

Gill Grunt: And Eon was really called Evil-On in that universe.

Me: Whoa! That's freaky!

Tori Hanson: It sure is. And there was a time where I went to a mirror universe where I met the mirror versions of my friends.

Me: I remember seeing that. That was freaky!

Tori Hanson: It sure was.

Earthworm Jim: I have an evil doppelganger of me from another universe.

T-Bone: And we know the feeling too. We met evil versions of us called the Dark Kats.

Razor: And Callie was evil too.

Aylene C.: That's right I remember watching that. That was freaky.

Me: Whoa! We all have evil versions of us all across the board.

Goku: No kidding.

Me: Looks like we've been given our next mission and it takes us to a mirror universe where heroes are evil and villains are good.

Varie: What a huge twist.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Abra Kadabra, Ragdoll, the Dark Turtles, Billy Numerous, Captain Boomerang, Mr. Mittens, Motor Ed, and Ssserpent appeared.

Abra Kadabra: Can me, Ragdoll, the Dark Turtles, Billy Numerous, Captain Boomerang, Mr. Mittens, Motor Ed, and Ssserpent come with you all on this other world?

Me: You all sure can. But this world is gonna be dangerous. It's a mirror universe and we're going after Captain Blunderpants.

Nico: Yep. It's gonna be awesome and we're gonna make that bastard pay.

Lincoln: Yep.

Ssserpent: How is Harley Street doing?

Me: Still exhausted. That Ci-Kat-A really did a number on him.

Eli: No kidding.

Nico: Yeah. But he'll get better soon.

Me: He will.

Sunny Flare: George, how did you and Harold get to that world the first time?

George Beard: We got there with one of Melvin's inventions. But the invention was destroyed.

Lucy Loud: I can get us there with my sword.

Harold Hutchins: Wow! I forgot about that. But that cool.

Me: It sure is. Captain Blunderpants better watch out because I'm gonna give him the worst wedgie ever known to humanity. (Eyes glow red)

Nico: Yeah!

Lucy Loud cut a portal and we went to the mirror universe and we went in and we arrived in the mirror world.

Motor Ed: (looks around) Dude, this world looks pretty normal to me. Seriously.

Me: It sure does doesn't it? It feels like we haven't left. But this world is a mirror universe. Don't lets its appearance deceive you all. Everything here is the opposite. Heroes are villains and villains are heroes. Luckily my scans show that we don't have evil counterparts here.

Nico: That's a relief.

Vince: Yeah thank goodness.

Eli: Lets hope it stays that way.

Me: Yeah.

Mr. Mittens: How about I pretend to be the cat that belongs to you guys while we're in this world?

Johnny Test: Good thinking Mr. Mittens.

Mr. Mittens jumped into Fluttershy's arms.

Mr. Mittens: Meow.

Fluttershy: Oh aren't you just the cutest kitty.

Me: Aww. Lets walk around.

We walked around and we found the opposite Melvin Sneedly.

Cloud Man: (to Good Melvin) Are you Melvin Sneedly?

Good Melvin Sneedly: I sure am. (Sees us) Who are all of you?

Me: We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Good Melvin: Wow! It's an honor to meet you all.

Nico: Same here. We're looking for Captain Blunderpants. We're going to destroy him once and for all.

Good Melvin: Great! I will gladly help you all take him down. And I can tell that those two and your Krupp are your versions from your universe.

Me: That's right.

George Beard: Yep.

Harold Hutchins: And we would never be like this worlds counterparts of us.

Frenzy: Speaking from experience, one of us should go to Evil George and Harold's treehouse to find out more information from their comics.

Me: Good idea Frenzy. But we have to be careful. Evil George and Harold are crafty from what I heard.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: And the best place to start is in their treehouse.

Billy Numerous: I'll send one of my clones to infiltrate their treehouse.

Me: Okay.

He made a clone and it went to his treehouse.

He went into it and saw numerous comic books and they showed Captain Blunderpants doing all kinds of horrible and unspeakable crimes like robbing banks, burning buildings down, destroying public property and even littering by s on the ground with his bad underwear!

Billy's clone gasped and he picked up all the comics and took them to us.

Thrust: I'll take to the air to keep an eye out for Blunderpants, as well as Evil George and Harold.

Me: Thrust he only shows up from when this universe's version of Krupp gets splashed with water. We have to wait for the right moment.

Thrust: Oh right.

Nico: Just be patient.

Billy came back.

Ragdoll (to Billy Numerous): What did you find?

Billy Numerous: It's not good.

He showed us the comics and we saw what they showed and it was awful!

Nico: Whoa this is not good.

Salem: These kids here have lots of problems.

Laney: Big time. They are evil to the core.

Good Melvin: And they need the best re-education anyone can muster.

Me: Big time.

Clown Man: This is too evil to be used as a kids drawing!

Me: It sure is. Too graphic and bloody for the eyes of kids.

Matoombo: We need to go hide and plan our next move. There's no telling how dangerous the Evil George and Harold will be when they find out we stole from them.

Me: Agreed.

We went and hid in an abandoned building to formulate a plan.

Me: Okay we'll use this abandoned building as our base of operations till we're done here.

Nico: Good idea.

Me: So we know that Evil George and Evil Harold are responsible for unleashing a monster like Blunderpants.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: And our code won't let us kill those 2. So it's best if we send them to a maximum security reform school.

Nico: The Jupiter Prison has one.

Naruto: Yeah.

Dark Raph: Those two kids are lucky we can't kill them!

Dark Mikey: At least we can give them spankings.

Me: Or the worst beatdown ever. They give the George and Harold we all know and love a really bad name.

Nico: Yeah. They may be lucky but their luck is about to run out.

Varie: You said it.

Nico: Yep.

Me: But in order for them to come to us, we have to find this worlds version of Mr. Krupp.

Nico: Yep.

Krupp: This is gonna be interesting.

Me: Lets get going to find the Mirror Krupp.

Nico: Okay.

We went to find him. We found him smelling flowers in the park.

He was enjoying all life and all that and it was awesome seeing him so happy.

Captain Boomerang (to Alternate Krupp): You Mr. Krupp?

Alternate Krupp: I sure am and it's a beautiful day. I love everything.

Me: Wow. You are a lot nicer than what Mr. Krupp was like in our universe.

Mr. Krupp: He sure is.

Alternate Krupp: Wow. I didn't know there was another me.

Me: He's our version of you. We came to help you all get rid of Captain Blunderpants.

Alternate Krupp: Great!

Me: Boy you are sure the happiest I've ever seen you be.

Alternate Krupp: Yeah.

Me: We are actually from another universe and we are heroes in our universe. Luckily versions of us are not here in this universe.

Laney: Thank goodness.

?: You're gonna wish there were by the time we're done with you!

We saw EVIL HAROLD HUTCHINS AND EVIL GEORGE BEARD!

Me: Just the two kids we were looking for. It's time for you two to get the worst ever beatdown known to man.

Nico: Yeah! You two have caused so many problems with Captain Blunderpants and you need a lesson in tough love.

Rainbow Dash: (Cracks Knuckles) REALLY tough love!

Evil George: Oh I don't think so!

The Evil Harold splashed water on the Alternate Krupp, turning him into Captain Blunderpants.

Veon: Oh crap.

Blunderpants: La-La-Traaaaaaaaa! (grabs Veon by the throat and slams him into the ground)

KROW!

I smashed Captain Blunderpants in his face and sent him crashing into a building.

Me: You need a serious attitude adjustment!

I fired a beam of light and it separated the Alternate Krupp from Captain Blunderpants! Now they were separate beings!

Captain Blunderpants: NO! You ruined everything!

Nico: And we show no remorse for it!

Me: Now it's time to give all three of you the worst beatdown ever!

I went behind Blunderpants and gave him the worst ever shitfilled wedgie ever!

Nico: YEAH!

Naruto: That was funny!

Lola: YEAH IT WAS!

George Beard: But you will not like this! (SNAPS FINGERS)

Krupp then turned into CAPTAIN UNDERPANTS!

Captain Underpants: TRA-LA-LAAAAAAAAAAA!

Me: YEAH!

Evil George: Let's see how you idiots fare without Captain Underpants! (pours water onto Captain Underpants' head)

But nothing happened.

Ssserpent: Sorry. But Captain Underpants is staying right here.

Evil Harold: (grabs Harold by the throat) What. Did. You. Do?!

Harold: J.D. used his powers to make Captain Underpants immune to water. Have fun turning him into Mr. Krupp now!

Blunderpants: At least the three of us can finally get rid of you fools! I wonder how it's going to be with so many people dead!

Maria: (glares at him) Time to find out!

Maria kicked Blunderpants in the face and smashed him in his eyes and knocked him down.

Eli: (Grabs Evil Harold and George) Time for me to discipline the nanny-goats!

SMASH!

He bashed their heads together.

And knocked them out.

Blizzard, Speed Demon, Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind, Avalanche, KGBeast, Chemistro, Raven Branwen and 2016's Morbucks appeared.

Me: Blizzard, Speed Demon, Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind, Avalanche, KGBeast, Chemistro, Raven Branwen and 2016's Morbucks.

Speed Demon: Yep it's us.

Bai Tza: How have you been brother?

Xiao Fung: Doing well sister. Things have been really good.

Tso Lan: Glad they are.

Blizzard: It's hard to believe that this is a mirror world.

Speed Demon: It looks pretty happy to me.

May: Well, don't be fooled. This is actually the home of Blunderpants over there.

Xiao Fung: We can actually see that.

Avalanche: I hope he's not as strong as Superman.

Me: No not nearly as strong as Superman. No offense Kal.

Superman: None taken.

Me: But he gives all superheroes everywhere a bad name!

Nico: Big time!

Xiao Fung: You said it.

?: I agree.

2 figures came out and one was SHOVELTRON from episode 4 of Beast Morphers and the leader of the 10 Terrors, SCULPIN from Mystic Force!

---

Shoveltron

Shoveltron is an excavator/shovel-themed Robotron created by Roxy from an excevator in Power Rangers Beast Morphers .

Shoveltron was created by Avatar Roxy when she infected an excavator. He was tasked to assist Roxy in her to manipulate Ravi into thinking she is still good so she can obtain the Neural Aligner. During the battle against Ravi, Roxy threw some objects causing him to fall. Roxy then started her plan by pretending to protect Ravi and called Shoveltron back. He was later seen holding Ravi in his grasp while Roxy attempted to use the stolen Neural Aligner to create an evil avatar of Ravi. But Roxy's plan had failed after Zoey and Devon came to his aid. Then, Scrozzle says to Roxy to come back to the Cyber Dimension with the Neural Aligner saying that it will be useful to him. In the meantime, Shoveltron summoned some Tronics and attacked the Rangers, overpowering them with little effort due to his incredible strength and armor. Later on, Scrozzle used Shoveltron's data and a Beta Gigadrone to create Shoveldrone. Finally, Shoveltron was destroyed by Zoey and Ravi with thier Beast X Cannons while the Shoveldrone was destroyed by the Racer Zord Battle Mode.

Sculpin

Sculpin was a trident wielding fish man-like leader of the Ten Terrors and the hidden secondary antagonist of Power Rangers Mystic Force .

When the Master was defeated again, Necrolai found the Sanctum of Ten Terrors. Sculpin and othe Terrors first appeared when Necrolai first entered their secret lair. Necrolai told them that Master was defeated again, and Imperious was destroyed, and the Terrors had to help conquer the world. They listened to her and agreed to help conquer the surface world. They introduced themselves to the people of Briarwood when the sky turned dark. Sculpin told the people to give them Light, who is actually Nick Russell, the Red Ranger and leader of the Mystic Rangers. They easily defeated Rangers's Manticore Megazord and left.

When Magma failed to destroy the Rangers before the flame he lit burnt out, Sculpin hurled his trident through the portal created by the Stone of Judgment and destroyed Magma.

When Sculpin noticed that the Master showed no signs of returning, he became suspicious and went to investigate. He scried using the Lake of Lament to find out what had happened, and realized that Leanbow was preventing the Master from being resurrected. Although this was a major hindrance to the Terrors's plans, Sculpin found the aspect "fun." He plotted ways to lure Leanbow out in the open. Hard HeadsReturning to the Lake of Lament, he called Leanbow and showed him Megahorn's rampage, how strong he was against the Rangers.

When Leanbow refused to help, Sculpin resorted to drastic measures. He deliberately broke the Rules of Darkness by sending

Black Lance to the surface in order to assist Megahorn, feeling that two Terrors were far more difficult to handle than one. This strategy proved successful when Leanbow did appear on the Surface World. It was then that Sculpin gave Necrolai one of his fish scales to plant on Leanbow when he was battling Black Lance. After Black Lance was sent back to the Underworld and Megahorn was destroyed, he described Megahorn as a "hot-head that deserved to lose," and proceeded with his next plan to find Leanbow.

Sculpin gave Necrolai another one of his fish scales for her (and them) to use to track down Leanbow. When she found him, he brought along Gekkor and Matoombo to personally battle Leanbow. He first allowed Gekkor to fight the knight, but when Gekkor was weakened, sent Matoombo to take his place. After Matoombo shattered Leanbow's shield, this left him open for Sculpin to use his trident to extract the Master's spirit from Leanbow's body. Once Leanbow was "exorcised," Sculpin used his trident to create a fissure in the ground and send Leanbow plummeting into it.

Sculpin's immediate goal of restoring the Master was realized after he personally slew his Master's chosen vessel, Matoombo, thus restoring the Master to a physical form.

In the end, Sculpin, with some assistance from Black Lance, destroyed Itassis for her disloyalty.

Alongside Black Lance, he fought the Rangers viciously, kidnapping Udonna and temporarily killing Jenji. In the Underworld, however, he was confronted by Itassis, who was brought back to life by Necrolai. The two fought, but Sculpin was ultimately killed, unable to stand against her new sense of courage. In his last breath, Sculpin vowed that the Master would avenge him and that the forces of darkness would be victorious, this makes him the eighth and final Terror to be destroyed.

---

Nick Russell: Sculpin!

Devon Daniels: And Shoveltron!

Me: I remember both of you! Shoveltron you were made from an Excavator and you were sent to help get the Neural Aligner for Roxy while she was manipulating Ravi.

Shoveltron: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Yep. And Sculpin you are the leader of the 10 Terrors and the last member of the 10 Terrors left to face. You destroyed Matoombo by sacrificing him to become the vessel for Octomus and you and Black Lance killed Itassis.

Sculpin: That's right! Good memory.

Scrapper: You could actually make a good Constructicon.

Shoveltron: (laughs) I bet I could. Too bad I can't turn into an excavater.

Me: Yeah but you would still be a great helping hand to a lot of people in the construction business.

Nico: Definitely.

Shoveltron: Definitely.

Sculpin: I've been waiting for this moment. Me, the leader of the Ten Terrors, vs you, the leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: This is gonna be good. The leader of the 10 Terrors.

Matoombo: And I will never forgive you for destroying me and Itassis, Sculpin! You're a monster!

Me: Big time.

We powered up and went at them.

Battle 1: Troy Burrows, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Marucho, Cyborg 009, Donkey Kong, Cree Lincoln and Ravager VS Blizzard

Blizzard was first.

Blizzard: (to Troy) When did your team get new Legendary Modes?

Troy Burrows: We got them last month. Eli showed them to us and made the keys for them. He knows his Power Rangers from America and Japan.

Blizzard: Wow! That's amazing.

Rarity: It sure is. I think he is very gifted for someone his age.

Sweetie Belle: He sure is. I think it's really awesome that he has all that knowledge of so many shows and all that.

Thunder Terror: It sure is.

Mistmane: Yeah it is. It's like he has 1,000 years of experiences.

Sable Spirit: More than that actually. J.D. said he has over 75,000 years of skills and teachings.

Marucho: Wow! That is so cool!

Joe Shimamura: Yeah it is!

Blizzard: Wow! That's incredible! That's amazing that Eli has that much experience for a little guy like him.

Donkey Kong: It sure is.

Blizzard: Yep and I see Donkey Kong is with you all.

Troy Burrows: He and the DK Crew want to get in on the action and practice for the usual battles.

Blizzard: Nice!

Troy Burrows: Lets get this party started! LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! BEAST MORPHER!

Troy turned into the Red Beast Morpher Ranger!

Blizzard: Lets do it!

Donkey Kong: HERE COMES DONKEY KONG!

Donkey Kong pulled out his Coconut Shooter and they went at him.

Donkey Kong fired a bunch of coconuts and they hit Blizzard.

CLUNK CLUNK CLUNK CLUNK CLUNK CLUNK!

Patrick Star: (Offscreen) DA HA HA HA! That guy got hit in the head with a coconut!

Troy Burrows, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Marucho, Cyborg 009, Donkey Kong, Cree Lincoln and Ravager: CRYSTAL COCONUT STYLE FORMATION ART: DIAMOND COCONUT BARRAGE!

They spun in a hendecagon formation and fired a massive shower of Crystal Coconuts and they hit Blizzard all over the place and knocked him down and buried him in a huge pile of them.

Troy Burrows: That was a Super Mega Win!

Donkey Kong: (HOWLS AND BEATS HIS CHEST)

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it was!

Rarity saw the diamond crystal coconuts and they were beautiful and she got a new fashion idea for them.

Rarity: (Gasp) (Sing-song) IDEA!

She took a bunch of them and stored them for her fashions and she drew a design for a magnificent dress and it was gonna be beautiful.

---

Battle 2: Jaden, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Mage Meadowbrook, Cyborg 002, Shun, Sour Sweet, Sunny Flare and Diddy Kong VS Speed Demon

---

Speed Demon was next.

Speed Demon: (to Jaden) Did you watch a new Robot Chicken sketch this morning?

Jaden: We sure did and it was for Captain Planet and the Planeteers were attacking the capital building.

Speed Demon: That one!? Oh man! I did not like that one at all. The Planeteers would never attack the capital building like that.

Fluttershy: No they wouldn't. They are too kind and giving to the planet to be turned evil like that.

Tree Hugger: But it happened to them before dudes.

Speed Demon: That's right. I remember watching Captain Planet when I was a kid and they were corrupted by Zarm and used those deadly gauntlets.

Mage Meadowbrook: Yeah that was crazy.

Jet Link: Yeah it sure was.

Shun: I can't believe Zarm is that evil. I thought we had dealt with all of their major enemies. But it looks like we missed one.

Sour Sweet: But we'll have to worry about it later in the future.

Sunny Flare: Yeah.

Diddy Kong: But it's gonna be so cool helping out in the usual battles. I am gonna love this.

Speed Demon: Cool Diddy. Lets do it!

Jaden: GET YOUR GAME ON!

Diddy Kong pulled out his Peanut Shooters and fired peanuts at Speed Demon and they hit him all over and it hurt.

Fluttershy: So fun!

Tree Hugger: Far Out dudes.

Diddy Kong: Rock on!

---

Battle 3: Ulrich, Rainbow Dash, Lightning Dust, Spitfire, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Flash Magnus, Cyborg 003, Dan, Dixie Kong, Burst Man and Cloud Man VS Xiao Fung

---

Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind was next.

Xiao Fung: (to Ulrich) You think there are good version of Captain Underpants' enemies here as well?

Ulrich: That is a strong possibility. This is a mirror universe and it's likely.

Rainbow Dash: I heard about all of Captain Underpants's villains and they were nuts. Especially that one guy that was insane that was made of Avocado seeds.

Lightning Dust: Yeah he was nuts. But also I can tell that all the kids lives at Jerome Horwitz Elementary were a living nightmare.

Spitfire: Yeah it's like the staff hates kids.

Xiao Fung: What a bunch of evil scumbags.

Scootaloo: That's putting it mildly.

Magma Gloom: Yeah. They have no honor when it comes to kids and their futures. It's like they cared about only themselves and money. They should be TEACHING kids and instead they were destroying their futures by taking away their fun and making their lives miserable.

Françoise: They are disgusting.

Xiao Fung: What monsters.

Dixie Kong: You got that right. It's like they have no honor at all.

Xiao Fung: Indeed. Lets get it on!

They went at him.

Dixie pulled out her Bubblegum Popper and she fired gumballs and they hit Xiao Fung all over the place.

---

Avalanche was next.

Avalanche: (to Pohatu) Can you imagine if there are mirror versions of the X Men?

Pohatu: I can only speculate. But that would be really freaky seeing that.

Applejack: Yeah. But seeing good versions of Magneto and all their enemies would be really cool.

Apple Bloom: I read about the Phoenix Force and it's power and I think it's possible that it might have destroyed the entire universe in a universe like that.

Frozen Terror: I think so too.

Avalanche: That would not be good. I saw the Phoenix Force in action and it was terrible that she was capable of doing all that. And it was all because of the Hellfire Club that they made her that way.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Awful lads.

Julie: No kidding.

Albert Heinrich: No kidding.

Lanky Kong: I have that same feeling as well. But this is gonna be so awesome.

Avalanche: It sure is. Lets get it on!

KGBeast: (to Onewa) (Russian Accent) I'm very glad that Comrade Red will be in the Masters of Evil in the future.

Onewa: We all are. And lets not forget Boris, Numbuh 4's archenemy. Our friends in Russia would mostly agree on that.

Zarya (Overwatch): (Russian Accent) I agree on that comrade Onewa.

Chill: (Russian Accent) Comrade Red is an amazing villain and Major Glory put up a really good fight with him all the time.

Cross Crow: (Russian Accent) He sure did comrades.

Zangief: (Russian Accent) He most certainly did.

KGBeast: Indeed he did Comrade Zangief.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) This group sure has a lot of comrades from Russia.

Golova: (Russian Accent) Indeed cousin.

Pinkie Pie: Russia is really cool! I love all the buildings and history.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) The rocks and minerals there are really amazing.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) They sure are. I think it's all really amazing.

Geronimo Jr.: I think so too. Even though I'm from America.

Runo: I think Russia is a most amazing country. With hundreds of years of history and lots of things to learn from.

Anastasia: And the Faberge eggs are amazing too.

Tiny Kong: They sure are. They have lots of amazing jewels and are beautiful.

KGBeast was knocked down with incredible force.

Onewa: WHOA! That was powerful.

Zarya: No kidding. But that was awesome!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

Maud Pie: That was enjoyable.

Tiny Kong: It sure was.

---

Battle 6: Matau, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Gusty the Great, Cyborg 006, Chunky Kong, Clown Man and Frost Man VS Chemistro

---

Chemistro was next.

Chemistro: (to Matau) You guys should get rid of Blunderpants before he reaches the main dimension.

Matau: That's what we plan to do. We're gonna destroy him and make sure he pays for his crimes.

Sunset Shimmer: That's right! He deserves it after all the pain he caused.

Chemistro: I agree. And Sunset, I'm so sorry about what happened with you and your parents. But J.D. promised he would bring them back to you.

Sunset Shimmer: Thanks Curtis. J.D. has been a man that keeps his promises.

Pepperdance: He sure is and he will come through for you.

Gusty: That's right. He will do it.

Chang: (Chinese Accent) Most honorable.

They spun in an octagon formation and fired a massive deluge of pineapple ghost chili salsa and it slammed into Chemistro and knocked him down.

Matau: That was a spicy victory!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah!

Pepperdance: It sure was!

Chunky Kong: Chunky loved it!

Sunset Shimmer: Anyone bring any chips?

Gusty: I did. (Pulls out a bag of chips)

They had the salsa and it was spicy and tasty.

---

Battle 7: Lars, Twilight Sparkle, Goths of Darkness, Ink Rose, Moonlight Raven, Mystic Force Rangers (Minus me), Alice, Cyborg 007, Matoombo and Itasis VS Raven Branwen

---

Raven Branwen was next.

Raven Branwen: (to Lars) Speaking from personal experience, the sooner Sunset Shimmer reconciles with her parents, the better.

Lars Loud: Yeah. Her heart needs to be fixed.

Twilight Sparkle: She needs this after everything that happened to her both in Equestria and Earth.

Brittney: Absolutely. I may be the Empress of Darkness but even I still have a heart when it comes to stuff like this. Sunset Shimmer needs her parents.

Lucy Loud: Absolutely. She sure does need her parents.

Haiku: And no family should be without parents.

Maggie: I just wish our former mom and dad could've realized that.

Ink Rose: Yeah. But it's too late for that.

Moonlight Raven: Yeah.

Starlight Glimmer: A stellar victory!

Princess Celestia: It sure was!

Me: YEAH! That's all 10 Terrors we all have officially faced. Later on comes the fun part. Facing all 10 of them at once.

Devon: VIRUS ELIMINATED!

Snowdrop: Like Nico would say, Shoveltron you have failed this universe!

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

---

We regrouped and we were facing Captain Blunderpants.

Me: It's over for you Blunderpants.

Troy: Time to use one of our new Legendary Modes on this guy!

Me: In that case, Lola, Lana, Lori, Leni, Luna and Lincoln, you'll need these!

I gave them 6 new keys.

Me: There's 12 Rangers in that group so you'll need them.

Lori: Thanks J.D.!

Megaforce Rangers, Lincoln, Luna, Leni, Lori, Lana and Lola: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! SPACE SQUAD NINE!

They all turned into the Uchu Sentai Kyurangers or Space Squadron Nine Ranger from 2017 to 2018! There were 12 Rangers in that entire team!

Nico: Oh wow!

Laney: So awesome! This is a new one.

Me: This is 2017 to 2018's Japanese Ranger team.

Eli: It's called the Kyurangers.

Me: Yep. Lets get him!

We went at Blunderpants and mercilessly thrashed and pulverized him all over with incredible fury.

Captain Underpants (to Blunderpants): Never again will you ruin my good name!

Captain Underpants farted in Blunderpants's face with incredible atomic force and I lit it on fire and burned him all over the place like a deadly flamethrower.

Ronnie Anne: Take this wedgie! STRENGTH STYLE: EXTREME ATOMIC WEDGIE!

Ronnie Anne grabbed his underwear and pulled it so hard that he screamed like a little girl.

Girl Jordan: And this! FOOD STYLE: SLOPPY JOE IN YOUR

UNDERPANTS!

Girl Jordan shoved many sloppy joe sandwiches into his underwear!

Luan: And this! COMEDY STYLE: NUTSHOT PUNCH BITER!

Luan pulverized him and bit his crotch in the same manner as Jim Carrey did from Dumb and Dumber.

Eddy: And this! COMEDY STYLE: WHOOPEE CUSHION BOMB BARRAGE!

Eddy threw a bunch of whoopee cushions and they hit Captain Blunderpants and farted and exploded in his face.

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT MENACING POOPEATING UNDERWEAR VILLAIN! (BLASTS CAPTAIN BLUNDERPANTS ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT SHITFILLED SEWAGE BREATH MONSTER! (BLASTS CAPTAIN BLUNDERPANTS ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Shrapnel: Lets tear him apart!

Shrapnel, Thunderblast, Outback and Chiaotzu all used the Animatron, Earth, Velocitron and Gigantion Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Shrapnel's lightning powers, turned Thunderblast's rocket launcher into an energy cannon, Enhanced Outback's Mortar Cannon and Chiaotzu's techniques 100-fold.

Shrapnel and Thunderblast: LIGHTNING MISSILE BLAST!

Shrapnel fired a massive blast of lightning and Thunderblast fired a wave of energy.

Outback and Chiaotzu: DODON MORTAR BLAST!

Chiaotzu fired a Dodon Ray blast and Outback fired a Mortar Cannon blast.

Luan: You've Soiled Captain Underpant's name for the last time!

(Laughs) Get it? But seriously! It's time for you to die!

Derpy Hooves: You said it Luan!

Captain Underpants: YEAH!

Captain Underpants, Harold, George, Lincoln and Ronnie Anne: FINAL SMASH: MEGA WEDGIE OF PAIN!

They grabbed his underwear and flew into the air and Captain Blunderpants screamed like a little girl as they flew into space and snapped his underwear and bisected him!

Captain Underpants, Derpy Hooves, George Beard, Harold Hutchins and Luan: COMEDY UNDERWEAR ULTRA BOMB DESTROYER!

They fired a massive blast of energy and it formed into a huge pair of underwear and the blasts all slammed into Captain Blunderpants and obliterated him in an instant in a huge explosion!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was dead and all that was left of him was his red cape. He was also banished to the warp.

Nico: Good riddance.

Derpy Hooves: Well, that takes care of him.

KGBeast: I'm glad that Captain Underpants didn't turn back into Mr. Krupp in this important moment.

Chemistro: And Blunderpants is out of the other Krupp.

Raven Branwen: I bet the people of this world are grateful for what we've done.

2016 Morbucks: (glares at Evil George and Harold) Now, what to do with you two?

Me: I think a nice long stay in our Jupiter Prison will be perfect for you 2.

Nico: Definitely.

Evil Harold: You will pay for this!

We beamed them to the Jupiter Prison and everyone came and cheered wildly for us.

Me: Awesome!

Captain Underpants: (To the viewers) Be careful when you enter mirror universes. You never know what you might find.

Me: That's a fact.

We later went back home. Another Captain Underpants enemy was destroyed.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic complete.

Captain Blunderpants was a deadly foe to Captain Underpants and it was awful that he would be able to do so many terrible things to the city. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, XP4Universe, ninjakingofhearts and Omegahatchiyak12 all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a clash of art as the evil doodle from the SpongeBob Squarepants episode Frankendoodle, DoodleBob returns for revenge on Spongebob and friends and we're gonna make sure that poorly drawn doodle gets erased forever.

See you all tomorrow.

Revenge of the Menacing DoodleBob

In the training yards on the very top of the World Tree of Friendship, I was meditating and in a deep state of thought.

Me: (Sighs) I have come so far on my journeys. And with the War with Equestria's most dangerous enemies looming closer and closer by the day it's gonna take every ounce of all of our power to take them down.

Then the spirit of the Tree in the form of Twilight Sparkle appeared.

Spirit of the Tree: You are ready for the next level of your ascension J.D.

Me: Next level? I don't understand.

Spirit of the Tree: The Elements of Harmony have gotten stronger ever since you spread the joys of friendship to many parts of Earth and all of Equestria. The time has come for you to learn all about the 12 Spirits of Friendship.

Me: The 12 Spirits of Friendship? What are they?

Spirit of the Tree: They are the living embodiments of the Elements of Harmony. The power they have is 100 times greater than than everything you have learned in the journeys that you have gone on. Their power is inside you J.D. And you are ready to receive their power. The purity in your heart shows that you are ready for this.

Me: I understand.

(Escaflowne Fox Kids Intro Song Plays)

I unsheathed the Sword of Harmony and held it up to the sky as I concentrated and my aura glowed and rainbow fire swirled around me.

Me: I, James Dean Knudson, Leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, sworn by the sacred light of good and light am ready for the power of the 12 Spirits of Harmony. Thou Sleeping Champions of Friendship, Arise!

Suddenly I was enveloped in a massive pillar of rainbow fire and energy and it exploded high into the sky and formed into a massive vortex of rainbow fire as my power was rising at an astronomical level! the vortex of rainbow fire went far into the universe and ever star and planet in many galaxies glowed as they felt the power from me. The rainbow vortex turned into several creatures and they were a Phoenix, A Mermaid, A Fairy, Unicorn, Minotaur, Gryphon, Elf, Centaur, Dragon, Pegasus, Angel and Leprechaun. The energies of stars and the universe flowed in as well as the power and energy of the souls of good and all that. 75% of the Dark Orbs all over the Virgo Supercluster were destroyed and their power flowed in. In Equestria, all the enemies of Equestria were screaming and feeling the unbelievable fury and strength of my power as it was too much for them to handle and it was causing them excruciating pain! Tirek looked far more older than ever. The vortex faded and went back to Earth and everyone came out and saw me emerge from the Vortex forever changed! I looked the same at Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 100,000,000 except I had rainbow fire armbands and leg bands and I had a symbol on my shirt that looked like a 12-Pointed Star with the symbols of the 12 Elements of Harmony and when I opened my eyes they were all now completely rainbow color. My pupils were glowing in a spectrum of colors and the power I had was unbelievable! I was now a SUPER ANGEL-EBONWU-PHOENIX-HARMONY 500,000,000 ELEMENTAL FRIENDSHIP HARMONY!

Everyone gasped as they saw my ultimate new transformation!

Nico: J.D.? Is that really you!?

Me: (Divine Echoing Voice of Light) Yes Nico it's still me. I have achieved a new level of power from the 12 Spirits of the Elements of Harmony.

Twilight Sparkle: The 12 Spirits of Harmony?

Princess Celestia: I've heard legends about them. They are the 12 powerful embodiments of the Elements of Harmony and govern the very Magic of Friendship. They chose you to be their wielder.

Nico: Wow! J.D.'s power is unreal!

Goku: It's incredible! I can't believe that this level of power is amazing!

Gohan: No kidding dad! It's amazing!

Gine: Wow!

Me: It sure is amazing Master Goku. But I can tell just by the sheer feel of this power that it's strong enough to endanger anything. So I must only use this power when needed.

Nico: A very wise decision. And like you say, With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility.

Laney: Yeah. But J.D. you look incredible. It's like you've become a whole new different person.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Lola: It's amazing.

I powered down and I was weak and disoriented.

Me: Whoa! What a rush!

Nico came to me and held on to me as I was about to fall.

Nico: You're not used to it yet. But you will be.

Me: Yeah I will.

Nico: Lets get you to the sofa to rest.

Me: Okay.

We went to the Living Room.

* * *

Later in the Crystal Empire, A mail pony was making his deliveries.

[knocking on door]

He gave a pony a letter and she gave him a carrot and tipped his hat and left as he ate it.

He then got to Sunburst's house

Mail Pony : [sighs]

He knew Sunburst was a nervous guy but he had to grin and bear it.

He went up to the door and knocked.

[knocking on door]

He then pounded on it.

[pounding on door]

The door opened.

[door opens]

Sunburst was reading a book.

Mail Pony : [clears throat] Morning, Sunburst.

Sunburst : What? Oh! Hi! [chuckles nervously] You know, no matter how many times I read it, Houyhnhnm's Guide to Magical Arcana never gets boring.

Mail Pony : If you say so. I've got another letter for you. From Sire's Hollow.

He gave him a letter.

Sunburst : Mm-hmm. Sure thing.

[door closes]

Mail Pony : [groans]

Sunburst got a lot of letters from his home town of Sire's Hallow. He didn't pay attention and hit a desk.

[thud]

His Cutie Mark then started glowing.

[shimmering sounds]

Sunburst : What's this? Could I be experiencing the cerebration transmogrification effect described in chapter seventeen-?

[thud]

He fell to the ground and saw his cutie mark glowing.

Sunburst : Oh. My cutie mark is glowing. My cutie mark is glowing! I know what this means! Why am I yelling?!

He was excited because he was being summoned by the map. A first for a pony not from Ponyville or Gotham Royal York.

---

In the living room at the World Tree Estate, I was watching TV and reading a book with everyone.

Me: So far things have been quiet.

Then my cutie mark glowed.

Me: Huh?

I saw my Cutie Mark glow.

Me: (Gasp) My cutie mark is glowing!

Nico: Mine too! The Map is calling us.

Me: Yep and I have a feeling I know what the Friendship Problem is. Lets head for the map.

The doorbell rang.

Me: Oh.

I went to the elevator and saw Sunburst come out.

Me: Oh Sunburst. You were called too?

Sunburst: I sure was.

Me: Wow. This is a first. The Map has never called a member of the Crystal Empire before.

Sunburst: I know.

Me: Lets head to the Map Room.

We went to the Map Room. Twilight Sparkle and all of us went with.

Sunburst : Princess Twilight, what an honor this is! I-I mean, it is, right? I'm called for a friendship mission?

Twilight Sparkle : You sure are. And it must be a special one. Nopony outside of Ponyville has ever been called before.

Me: That's what I said. It's gonna be so cool having you on one.

Spike : If you need some pointers, let me know. I've been on my fair share of missions.

Twilight Sparkle : You've been on one, Spike.

Spike : And that's my fair share.

Me: Still this is gonna be cool.

I opened the door and we saw that Starlight Glimmer was called too.

[door opens]

Sunburst : Starlight! You mean we've both been called? This is great!

Me: Boy it sure is.

Starlight Glimmer : [depressed] Yeah… Great…

Me: What's wrong?

Sunburst : Aren't you excited? You and me on a mission together!

Starlight Glimmer : [groans]

Sunburst : I'm… sorry. Are you not excited to go on a mission with me?

Starlight Glimmer : No. Uh, no! I mean, yes. Heh. Totally excited about us going together. Just… not so excited about where .

Me: Lets see where we're going.

We looked at the map and saw that our cutie marks were floating and orbiting over Sire's Hollow .

Sunburst : Sire's Hollow?

Starlight Glimmer : Yep. Home.

Sunburst : [deflated] Oh. Great.

Me: This is perfect! And I have a very strong feeling I know what me and Nico are needed for there.

Nico: Yep.

Me and Nico: Sunset Shimmer's Parents!

Starlight Glimmer: That's right! You're trying to have Sunset reconcile with her parents.

Me: Yep. And this is very coincidental. You two have your own Friendship Mission and we have ours.

Twilight Sparkle: That's a first. Two separate friendship missions at the same place.

Me: Yeah. That's why our cutie marks are stacked on top of each other.

Spike : You know, I can go if you two don't want to. I am kind of an expert.

Twilight Sparkle, Starlight Glimmer, and Sunburst : [groans]

Me: Well anyway lets get over there.

At the same time, Stewie and Titania were in Stewie's car as they drove to a hardware store.

Titania: Remind me why you and I are driving to a hardware store?

Stewie: Because if we're going to solve the two friendship problems today, we're going to need some muscle.

As soon as they saw Grodd, Scorpion, Doctor Octopus, Pied Piper, Sportsmaster, Juggernaut, and Count Vertigo near the hardware store, Stewie stopped the car.

Stewie: Alright. I'm paying the 7 of you and Titania 10 bucks each for the day. Get in.

Juggernaut: Will that car even fit all of us?

Stewie: Relax. J.D. made some adjustments to it so it was enough space.

After the 7 villains got into the car, Stewie turned on the radio.

Stewie: Anyone who doesn't like the music of Josh Groban can get out of the fucking car.

Titania: I like Josh Groban. He is one of my favorites.

Stewie: Mine too.

Grodd: Relax Stewie, we love Josh Groban.

Juggernaut: A very great singer. Hear him all the time in the Mariana Trench Prison.

Titania: I love all of his songs. They are so soothing.

Sportsmaster: They sure are.

Count Vertigo: A most grand singer.

Scorpion: Yeah. And it's great to be back.

Doc Ock: Same here.

Stewie: By the way Grodd, how was your time on Tatooine?

Grodd: It was good Stewie, thank you.

They got into the car and went to Sire's Hollow.

---

We were on the Friendship Express as it left our station in the World Tree of Friendship. The Train Station we have is right inside the base of the World Tree of Friendship.

Me: So what is your home town like you two?

Nico: Yeah can you gives us more details?

Starlight Glimmer: Sure.

Starlight and Sunburst told us all about Sire's Hollow.

---

Sire's Hollow is Starlight Glimmer and Sunburst's old hometown first featured in The Cutie Re-Mark - Part 2. It also appears in The Crystalling - Part 1 and The Parent Map. Starlight's father Firelight is the head of the town's Preservation Society, and Sunburst's mother Stellar Flare is the head of its Development Committee. It is named similarly to Stars Hollow, the fictional setting of Gilmore Girls .

---

Me: Wow! Your home town sounds nice.

Starlight Glimmer: It's home.

Sunburst: Yeah.

Starlight Glimmer : [sighs] It's not that I don't want to go home. It's just that whenever I do, my dad treats me like a filly. Like nothing's changed since I was a foal.

Sunburst : Huh.

Starlight Glimmer : I know. I'm a horrible daughter.

Me: We don't think that at all and that's just your father's way of showing he loves you. I'm sure he has missed you so much.

Nico: Yeah.

Sunset Shimmer: I'm just really scared about seeing my mom and dad.

Me: I know Sunset. But we'll gladly be with you to help you out.

Sunset Shimmer: Thanks guys.

Sunburst : My mom actually does kind of the same thing.

Starlight Glimmer : Really?

Me: Does she really?

Sunburst : I don't even have to go home. She sends me letters constantly asking about my plans for the future. [imitating Stellar Flare] "You're a grown-up pony, Sunburst! You need a plan!" [sighs] I haven't been home in a while either.

Me: Wow. Sounds like you guys are being treated like children.

Starlight Glimmer : Hmph. We'll just have to explain to our parents that we're on an important friendship mission so they can't bother us.

Sunburst : Do you really think that will work?

Starlight Glimmer : Nope!

Me: Oh boy.

The train stopped at our stop and we were at Sires Hollow, Starlight Glimmer's and Sunburst's home town.

Sunburst: Here we are guys.

We went to the town.

Sunburst : [sniffs, sighs] The great thing about home is it always stays just how you le-

[thud]

Sunburst hit a huge metal gate.

Sunburst : Augh!

Starlight Glimmer : Where did that come from?

Me: This gate must be brand new.

We opened it.

[gate creaking]

Automated voice : Welcome to Sire's Hollow!

Me: Wow. Nice greeting.

Nico: Very friendly.

We went in and a mare held up a bottle of essence to me.

"Ever Essence" : Essence?

Me: Oh uh sure.

Sunburst : Essence of what?

"Ever Essence" : You tell me.

[spritz]

She sprayed it in my face and I smelled it and it tasted like chocolate.

Sunburst : [coughing]

Starlight Glimmer : What is it?

Sunburst : Uh… chocolate maybe?

Me: Mmm! (Smacks lips) Mmm. Tastes like chocolate.

"Ever Essence" : Not chocolate maybe. Chocolate definitely! And all of the benefits with none of the drawbacks.

Me: That's cool! Chocolate in essence form.

We saw that there was a perfume store where a fruit stand was.

Sunburst : Didn't this used to be a fruit stand?

"Ever Essence" : I don't know what it used to be . The Sire's Hollow Development Committee determined what it is .

Me: Hmm.

Sunburst : The Sire's Hollow Development what? Where do ponies buy fruit?

"Ever Essence" : You can get a fruit smoothie two doors down.

Leni: Ooh! I totes love smoothies.

We walked around and saw that the town has changed a lot.

Sunburst : All the shops are different. Everything's changed!

Starlight Glimmer : Not everything. That's the same as it ever was.

The homes and shops were still the same. We looked at the Book Store and saw that the books were cool.

[door opens]

"Raspberry Latte" : Sorry. Our bookstore's been declared a site of historical significance by the Sire's Hollow Preservation Society.

"Minty Mocha" : You'll have to experience the books from here. (Puts up a barricade) That's why windows are see-through.

[door slams]

Sunburst : What?!

Starlight Glimmer : Preservation Society? What is happening around here?

Me: Boy I don't know but I don't like it.

Starlight Glimmer: Me neither.

Firelight : I'll explain it to you, sugarplum! [chuckles] (Grabs her cheeks) You are just as cutesy-wutesy as ever!

Starlight Glimmer : [muffled] Dad! [normally] Quit it! What is going on?

Me: Are you Starlight's father?

Firelight: I most certainly am and it's an honor to meet you J.D. My name is Firelight and I have heard so many great things about you and all your adventures.

Me: We don't like to brag but it's a pleasure to meet you.

Firelight : Same here and just a father wanting to preserve our town's rich history for his little pumpky-wumpkin! [chuckles]

Starlight Glimmer : Dad, you promised no "pumpky-wumpkin"'s in public!

Most of us snickered. I glared at them.

Nico: Sorry.

Sunburst : [stifled laughter]

Firelight : [whispering] Sorry, chipmunk cheeks.

[smack!]

Starlight Glimmer : Don't. You're preserving the whole town? That's crazy!

Me: This town looks like it has a lot of historical value. But preserving all of it is nuts.

Stellar Flare : That's exactly what I told him! I said, "Firelight, you're crazy!"

Sunburst : Mom?

Me: Are you Sunburst's mom Stellar Flare?

Stellar Flare: I sure am and it's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too.

Stellar Flare : Our village needs the same thing you do, Sunburst - a clear plan for the future.

[snip!]

She tried to snip his beard.

Stellar Flare : That's why I started the Sire's Hollow Development Committee. And I've got plans for this little town. Big plans!

We read what she had planned and all that and it was a TON of things.

Me: Whoa! That's a lot of plans.

Firelight : Listen here, Stellar Flare! I'm not gonna let you turn our historical heritage into Las Pegasus!

Stellar Flare : And I'm not gonna let you turn it into a museum!

Firelight and Stellar Flare : [growling]

Me: Uh oh. I think Starlight and Sunburst found their friendship problem.

I broke them up.

Me: All right you two that's enough!

Nico: Yeah fighting won't solve this.

Me: Yep. And Stellar before Starlight and Sunburst help you and Firelight out, we need to talk to you. Me and Nico do.

Stellar Flare: Sure.

Me: It concerns your daughter Sunset Shimmer.

Stellar Flare: (Gasp) Oh no. I was afraid of this.

Me: Sunset has changed so much for the better Stellar. She has turned into a better person.

Stellar Flare: Follow me.

Starlight Glimmer: We'll be back later dad.

We went to Sunburst and Sunset's house and we saw a black pony with a fiery color mane and it was Sunset's dad Eclipse deSol.

Stellar Flare: Honey. I have guests with us.

Me: Hello sir.

Eclipse deSol: (Sees us) Ah. J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet you. I'm Eclipse deSol.

Me: Pleasure to meet you sir. We actually came to talk to you and Stellar Flare.

Eclipse deSol: What can we do for you?

Me: I know this is a sore subject but…

Sunset Shimmer came out and Eclipse growled in fury.

Eclipse: WHAT IS SHE DOING HERE!?

Me: That's what we want to talk to you about. She wants to reconcile with you.

Stewie and the 8 new recruits came in. We saw that he had Mary MacPherron A.K.A. TITANIA, GORILLA GRODD, Mac Gargen A.K.A. SCORPION, Dr. Otto Octavius A.K.A. DOCTOR OCTOPUS, Hartley Rathaway A.K.A. PIED PIPER, Lawrence "Crusher" Crock A.K.A. SPORTSMASTER, Cain Marko A.K.A. JUGGERNAUT, and Count Werner Vertigo A.K.A. COUNT VERTIGO!

Spiderman: Scorpion, Doc Ock!

Me: Grodd, Juggernaut!

Flash: Pied Piper!

Hulk: Titania!

Stargirl: Sportsmaster!

Batman: And Count Vertigo!

Twilight Sparkle: (eyes wide) Stewie, what have you done?!

Stewie: Would you believe that I just helped solve our friendship problems?

Pied Piper: Stewie paid us 10 bucks each for the day.

Lori: I think I literally know what he paid you guys for.

Sunset Shimmer's dad: What the Hell is this?!

Chomp Chest: (nervously) Well, basically, if you guys don't reconcile with your daughters, the villains that Stewie hired are going to beat you up.

Me: Everyone calm down. Otto and Mac while we are thrilled you 2 are back and Cain it's great you're out of prison and you're all gonna join the Masters of Evil but please let us handle it. This is a very delicate matter we're dealing with and Sunset Shimmer needs her parents back after everything that has happened to her.

Nico: That's right. But also Starlight Glimmer's father and Sunset Shimmer's mother are also the Friendship Problem for Starlight and Sunburst.

Grodd: I see.

Me: Grodd we also can't thank you enough for helping us out in the battles with Thanos and the Royal Defenders.

Grodd: I was glad to help.

Me: While you were gone we found out a really incredible discovery.

RD Me came and they gasped.

Me: It's all right guys. This is my Royal Defenders version of me. Let him explain himself.

RD Me: Yeah. I didn't show up during the war because I was imprisoned in a power neutralization crystal prison and my friends of the Royal Defenders were corrupted by the evil Chaos Sorcerer, Sindri Myr.

Me: It's a really ugly story.

I revealed everything and they were shocked and horrified.

Grodd: Whoa! That's terrible.

Nico: Yeah it sure was.

Scorpion: That is awful.

Grodd: No kidding.

Me: Eclipse sorry about this. But we came to tell you that it's time to bury the hatchet and get Sunset back into your lives. Sunset has changed in a whole different way.

Eclipse: I'll believe that when I see it.

Scorpion: I've had enough of this. (shoves a newspaper into Sunset Shimmer's dad's hands)

Eclipse: What's this?

Scorpion: A newspaper showing Sunset Shimmer helping to kill Bill Cipher. And that's just one of her good deeds.

Rose (MLP): It's true. Twilight even told me about Sunset's good deeds even before J.D. and the others came to Equestria.

Me: Well we're not ones to brag.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah.

Me: But Eclipse this is just one of Sunset's many good deeds she did.

Twilight Sparkle: Your daughter has done so much not just for Team Loud Phoenix Storm but also for all of Earth as well.

Nico: Yeah. She helped save Earth's version of Twilight Sparkle from herself and exposed Abacus Cinch's crimes.

Me: And she helped Wallflower here become a better person.

Laney: She sure did.

Wallflower: It's true.

Grodd: If you want more proof, I can use my powers to show you personally.

Headstrong: You sure you won't end up mind controlling them?

Grodd: Relax. This is just to show some memories.

Me: But you weren't even here when all that happened Grodd.

Grodd: My psychic powers have gotten stronger since we last saw each other and the universe tells me all.

Me: Wow. Okay. Go for it.

He used his psychic powers and showed him everything that Sunset did and more and how she has changed into a better person and was forgiven by Princess Celestia and the Canterlot Girls. And also has done lots of great performances with the Rainbooms and all that. As well as did all sorts of awesome adventures with all of us that made her one of the representatives of the Elements of Harmony.

Eclipse was shocked! Same with Stellar Flare. They didn't know that Sunset would become a great force of good and all that.

Pipes: So, can you guys please forgive your daughters before Stewie's hired villains pummel you senseless?

Doctor Octopus: If I were you all, I'd make the smart decision.

Eclipse: Oh you're right. Sunset, I'm so sorry. I was just really upset that you would turn into what you were before. I was just not thinking straight. I was just so overwhelmed with pride that I didn't see how much you were hurting on the inside. When you got accepted as Princess Celestia's student I was bursting with so much joy. But after everything that happened, I had no idea how much you were going through even without us. Sunset, I'm so sorry.

Stellar Flare: Me too Sunset. Can you ever forgive us for everything?

Sunset Shimmer: (Crying) Oh mom and dad of course I forgive you!

She hugged them both.

It was a great reunion and mine and Nico's Cutie Marks glowed.

Me: Well part one of our friendship problem is done.

Nico: Yep.

We high five!

Later we solved Firelight and Stellar Flare's friendship problem.

Sportsmaster: So, what do we do now? Stewie paid us for the entire day.

SpongeBob: We should go to Glove Universe!

Chan Lee: Wasn't that Glove World before?

SpongeBob: It was. But Glove Universe took it's place.

Patrick: Yeah. Glove World shut down so that Glove Universe could take it's place.

Varie: You guys should see it. It's awesome. It's like our Phoenix Land Amusement Park.

Lily: It sure is and I also helped the owner of Glove Universe come up with new ride ideas for it.

Me: Wow! That's cool! This is gonna be fun.

2016 Morbucks, Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind, Speed Demon, Raven Branwen, Blizzard, KGBeast, Avalanche and Chemistro appeared.

2016 Morbucks: Can me, Xiao Fung, Speed Demon, Raven Branwen, Blizzard, KGBeast, Avalanche, and Chemistro go to Glove Universe with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. And the rides and everything there are awesome.

Lily: Yeah. Even the Krusty Krab sponsors Glove Universe. It's really successful.

Nico: Cool!

Lola: I can't wait to have fun at Glove Universe.

Varie: Me too. It's awesome.

Me: Lets head out!

We were off to Bikini Bottom for Glove Universe.

We arrived at Glove Universe and it was amazing!

Sunstorm: Here we are in Glove Universe.

Count Vertigo: I see. It's bigger than Glove World.

Varie: Ten times bigger and has much better rides. Look at Glove World.

We looked and saw Glove World are rusted, beaten up, abandoned and dilapidated.

Nico: Wow. It really kicked the bucket.

Lola: That is an understatement.

Grodd: I heard it was doing so well too.

Lana: Yeah I tried fixing some of the rides and all that but they were all too broken.

Varie: But thanks to the Neptune Crusaders for helping in constructing Glove Universe we were given lifetime passes to it.

Me: Wow!

Nico: That's cool!

Lincoln: Yeah it is!

We went into Glove Universe and it was amazing. We went on all kinds of rides and more. First we went onto the Fiery Fist O Pain II and we were hurling our guts out all over and more and then the Clam Dunk, the Hammer Slammer and more. And we also when on a scary new Roller Coaster called THE CONCUSSION SMASHER! It was a scary roller coaster that is said to shake your brain into pulp and send it flushing out of your nose. It was so fast and it goes at 175 miles per hour and it really is an adrenaline rush. We rode it 10 times and it was awesome. It was fun.

Later we had lots of great food and more. Xiao Fung then saw something in the shadows.

Xiao Fung: (sees someone in the shadows) SpongeBob? Is that you?

But the figure came out and it was SpongeBob's old animated drawing version of himself, DOODLEBOB!

---

DoodleBob is the main antagonist of the SpongeBob SquarePants episodes "Frankendoodle" and "Doodle Dimension", and the former's videogame sequel Drawn to Life: SpongeBob Edition for the Nintendo DS. He is an evil drawing of SpongeBob SquarePants created by the "Magic Pencil" who seeks to replace his original counterpart.

He was voiced by Paul Tibbitt, who is also a supervising producer and writer of SpongeBob SquarePants.

Despite having a limited grasp of language and being quite chaotic in his mannerisms, DoodleBob demonstrates a desire to possess a life like SpongeBob. He also demonstrates some super-abilities, such as effortlessly swinging a decent-sized rock over Patrick's head. During his confrontation with SpongeBob which resulted in the pencil snapping in two, DoodleBob transformed his mouth into a pencil sharpener.

"Frankendoodle"

The episode starts off showing an artist at sea working on a new piece when he drops his pencil into the ocean. His pencil lands near SpongeBob's house, causing SpongeBob and Patrick to panic.

SpongeBob examines the pencil and begins to doodle with it. After experimenting with drawings that come to life, such as a jellyfish and Patrick's crude rendition of Squidward, the two decide to play a prank on Squidward by having a crude doodle of SpongeBob knock on his door. The prank goes awry as DoodleBob swings Squidward around and then runs off with the pencil. SpongeBob and Patrick find DoodleBob in a poorly drawn sketch of SpongeBob's pineapple house.

When the two approaches, DoodleBob delays them with a pit trap and runs off again. They come across DoodleBob babbling and brandishing the pencil in an empty field, likely in the midst of it trying to recreate something else. DoodleBob throws SpongeBob to the side and conks Patrick on the head with a rock. However, SpongeBob manages to get a hold of the pencil and violently erases DoodleBob when the drawing runs into a rock during his attempt to flee.

In his fury, SpongeBob overlooks an arm that inches towards SpongeBob's house. Climbing up the stairs, it reaches his bedroom and reclaims the pencil to redraw its body. DoodleBob then declares his intention of taking SpongeBob's life for his own and pursues SpongeBob while erasing portions of his house. While DoodleBob does succeed in erasing half of SpongeBob, the sea sponge grabs the pencil and causes it to break. He redraws himself, but clumsily loses his half of the pencil when he flings it. However, DoodleBob is foiled when SpongeBob notices the doodle's foot fusing to a sheet of paper and uses another within a book to entrap DoodleBob. Returned to his original two-dimensional form, DoodleBob smiles and SpongeBob hangs the drawing in his living room.

"Doodle Dimension"

When SpongeBob and Patrick accidentally cause Sandy's portal machine to warp them to a blank white dimension, the duo discovers everything they draw with the magic pencil comes to life, and have fun with it until Patrick draws a doodle of SpongeBob, which is revealed to be DoodleBob. He terrorizes them once he grabs the magic pencil. He turns SpongeBob and Patrick's doodles against them by drawing angry eyebrows and mustaches on them.

DoodleBob later kidnaps Patrick and ties him to flagpole of a doodle castle. SpongeBob attempts to charge into the castle but is attacked by DoodleBob's Mini Doodles. SpongeBob and Patrick draw a doodle balloon and attempt to float away, but DoodleBob grabs the balloon. The two manage to cut the string, with DoodleBob floating into the void of the blank dimension with his miniature clones.

---

Xiao Fung: You aren't SpongeBob!

He blew him into a wall with a powerful blast of wind and ran. Then DoodleBob made weird and crazy sentences.

Xiao Fung came back to us.

Xiao Fung: Guys we've got problems. There's a SpongeBob impostor running around.

Gus Grav: (to Xiao Fung) It's probably just some prankster having a laugh.

Vulcan: Should I go after him?

Gus Grav: No. I'm saving you for the usual battles. So, I'll send Hexados out for this.

Vulcan: Good thing J.D. brought him back after Barodius was dealt with.

Gus Grav: Hexados, track down our mystery prankster!

He summoned Hexados and he obeyed.

Nico: So awesome!

Grodd: It sure is. Wow.

Donkey Kong: Yeah!

Hexados later came back.

Hexados: We got problems.

We followed Hexados and saw some of fish badly beaten up!

Me: Oh man! These fish have all been pulverized!

KGBeast: Comrade SpongeBob, do you know who could be doing this?

SpongeBob: Hmm.

But then we heard weird babbling and stupid speech.

DoodleBob: ME HOY MINOY! MI MINOY MOY MOY MOY!

We saw him!

SpongeBob: DOODLEBOB!

Me: You know that poorly created version of you?

SpongeBob: I sure do. A magic pencil fell from the sky and it had this crazy power to make pictures come to life.

Lily: Wait a second! I remember him! I saw a picture on him hanging up on your wall SpongeBob!

Varie: I remember seeing that too!

Girl Jordan: Yeah!

My Dark Orb Detector went off and it showed that there was a Dark Orb nearby!

Me: There's a dark orb somewhere.

DoodleBob yelled and turned and we saw the Dark Orb imbedded in his back!

Me: It's imbedded in his back!

Horri Bull: I'm gonna flatten you like a pancake!

Juggernaut: Save some for me!

Horri Bull transformed into his Bull Form as he and Juggernaut charged at DoodleBob.

But he landed on the ground and they went over him and he was unharmed!

Me: He's a 2-Dimensional Living Image!

Horri Bull: What the!?

Juggernaut: Wow! We did not expect that!

Lincoln: Yeah!

But then…

BLONG!

A huge wrench hit me right on my head!

DoodleBob: (Babbling menacingly)

I had a nasty lump on my head.

Me: (Stupid talk) Where's the leak ma'am?

Nico: Ouch!

Then DoodleBob rolled a huge bowling ball.

[Patrick's head turns into a bowling pin in surprise]

CRASH!

Patrick: Yurrgh! [Hits Patrick and he turns into some pink bowling pins and a "strike" symbol appears.]

SpongeBob: You okay Patrick?

Patrick: FINLAND!

Chemistro: After everything we've been through, this guy should be easy!

Scorpion and Chemistro fired acid from their tail and gun respectively at DoodleBob.

The blasts hit him but instead of melting him into nothing or killing him, he was unharmed and mad.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: This guy is tough!

Laney: Really tough!

Overkill: Let's hide in the Krusty Krab! It's the one place DoodleBob hasn't been to yet!

Me: Right! Fall back!

We retreated to the Krusty Krab and Misty Tredwell was tending to my lump on my head.

Misty Tredwell: That renegade doodle hit you hard.

Me: OW! No kidding. He hit me on the head with a big wrench.

Vince: No kidding. SpongeBob what were you thinking making a doodle like that.

SpongeBob: It was for a prank I thought would be funny. I wanted to draw me and when Squidward would answer his door he would see it wasn't me. But the prank backfired and he beat the living crap out of Squidward.

Me: OW! Man that prank REALLY backfired big time.

Nico: No kidding.

Raven Branwen: Let's just stay in the Krusty Krab until this blows over.

SpongeBob: Okay.

Me: (Detector Beeps) Uh oh. He's heading this way.

Nico: Here we go!

Naruto: Stand ready guys!

Acid Storm: How did he even find us?!

Me: It's like he can smell fear.

Nico: Weird for a doodle.

Me: I've had it with this 2-Dimension Abomination!

Lily: Me too!

Laney: Same here!

Pinkie Pie: It's time for us to make this freakish party pooper pay!

Sunset Shimmer: And I like painting so I'm going to fight him with paints!

Nico: YEAH!

Laney: Same here!

DoodleBob came in and yelled maniacally.

Blizzard froze DoodleBob solid.

Blizzard: That won't hold him for long!

Maria: Let's head to Sandy's Treedome! No way that crazy drawing will be able to follow us there!

Me: Right!

Mr. Krabs: As long as it can't breathe air lads!

We went to Sandy's Treedome and went in.

Sandy: Man that doodle is after you worse than a Coyote chasing a road-runner!

Nico: Now's not the time for Looney Tunes Allusions.

Me: But yeah he is after us worse than a Caped Stalker swarm after a Skywhale.

Twilight Sparkle: What does that mean?

Me: It's an alien planet thing we saw long before you all joined us.

Sandy: Well this will hopefully hold him off.

Sandy activated the metal defense dome.

Sandy: That oughta hold him.

Battletrap: How are we even going to be able to defeat him?

Me: Hmm. SpongeBob how did you defeat him the first time?

SpongeBob: I used notebook paper to trap him in a page of paper.

Me: Then we'll have to do so again. But we'll have to use the power of our imaginations to take him down.

Speed Demon: I'll use my super speed to grab all the paper we can find!

Me: Awesome! Hop to it.

Speed Demon used his speed and went to get some paper.

Me: Lets see. The Powers of the Imagination is endless so. Lets test to see if we can utilize such a power.

Nico: Okay.

Nico thought of something and then he fired a beam of energy from his forehead and it turned May into a smoking hot swimsuit model. She was wearing a red bikini with pokeballs on it.

Nico: Yowza!

May: Wow! It works! (Strikes a pose) Like what you see Nico?

Nico tooted like a steam horn and hearts spiraled around his head.

Me: Wow! That was great! Lets see here.

I looked at a flower and fired a beam of energy and the flower turned into a Krabby Patty tree.

Mr. Krabs: Wow! A Krabby Patty Tree? That was very well thought up lad.

Me: Thanks Mr. Krabs. Give it a shot.

Mr. Krabs: Okay. Here's something I always thought of as a lad.

He thought of something and looked at another flower and fired a beam of energy and the flower turned into a money tree.

Laney: Wow! A Money tree!

Me: Cool!

Eddy: Chaching!

Bitstream: Let me try.

Bitstream managed to imagine the loyal versions of Megatron from G1, Robots in Disguise 2001, Beast Wars, Armada, Energon, and Cybertron.

Maria: So, these won't turn against us, right?

Bitstream: Nope! I'd like to see Doodle Bob get past these.

Me: Nice! Megatron's from over the years. You made G1 Megatron, 2001's Robots In Disguise Megatron, Beast Wars Megatron as a Tyrannosaurus, Transmetal and Transmetal 2, and Armada, Energon & Cybertron's Megatron's and the Megatron's from the Live Action Movies.

Nico: So awesome!

Me: Yeah!

Optimus Prime: That's impressive.

Optimus Primal: That sure is impressive.

Me: Yeah and this gives me an idea for your archenemy 21.

Android 21: Really?

Me: Yep. You can try having Megatron from Beast Wars as your Archenemy.

Android 21: Awesome!

Me: Lets get that poorly drawn freak of nature!

We went outside and we saw him coming.

Avalanche: (To Doodle Bob) Do your worst, you crazy drawing!

Me: BRING IT ON!

DoodleBob: (Babbling menacingly)

Me: You are a freak!

Nico: Yeah!

Then Jet, Swordsman, Melter, Jack O Lantern, Batroc the Leaper, Mole Man and Trapster appeared.

Me: Jet, Swordsman, Melter, Jack O Lantern, Batroc the Leaper, Mole Man and Trapster.

Melter: Strange seeing you all down here.

Jet: I take it you guys discovered the power of imagination, right?

Maria: We sure did.

Swordsman: That's actually pretty awesome.

Melter: By the way, we have a new recruit for you guys.

Me: Yep. And so do we for you guys. Megatron of Beast Wars.

Megatron: It's gonna be an honor.

Jet: COOL!

Me: Yep.

Jet: Oops sorry J.D. We meant that we have a new recruit ourselves.

Me: Oh sorry.

Jet: No worries.

A figure came out and it was Danton Black A.K.A MULTIPLEX!

---

Even before he became a supervillain, Danton Black was a cruel and arrogant man. The assistant of Professor Martin Stein, Black was fired when Stein caught him stealing lab materials. But Black twisted everything and said that Stein was the one who stole HIS work, placing a legal junction on Stein's dream project of a nuclear reactor. But Stein wouldn't let his corrupt ex-assistant to ruin his chance, and activated the reactor, which was then blown up by terrorist Ernie Earhart, and fused Stein with high school senior Ronnie Raymond, thus creating the superhero Firestorm. But Black was also caught in the explosion, and gained the power to create duplicates of himself, thus turning into Firestorm's archenemy Multiplex. Multiplex is the greatest thorn in the Nuclear Man's side, and will not rest until he's snuffed out Firestorm's flaming head.

---

Me: Danton Black A.K.A. Multiplex!

Multiplex: It's an honor to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here. What really amazes me is that you survived a nuclear explosion and lived to tell the tale.

Multiplex: Yeah that was big.

Nico: You are one lucky guy. A Dirty Bomb like that would've killed you in an instant.

Naruto: Yeah.

Multiplex: I might not be a ninja. But my duplicates still pack a punch.

Me: That's so cool! But you are also really lucky to survive a Nuclear Explosion and live to tell the tale. That shows that you are one tough cookie.

Multiplex: I know. I'm a lucky guy.

Me: Yeah.

?: Yeah he is.

A figure came out and it was THE FRANKENSTEIN MONSTER from episode 25 of Mighty Morphin Power Rangers!

---

The Frankenstein Monster was a humanoid monster who served as the main antagonist of the episode "Life's a Masquerade".

Finster created this monster in infiltrate the Halloween party at the Youth Center. Rita found a new special clay for Finster to create more powerful monsters and Putties. He blends in with the crowd at the costume party in Angel Grove Youth Center in an attempt to seek out the Rangers. They even confused him with Tommy, who wanted to dress like a Frankenstein on a costume party. After the Rangers confronted the Frankenstein Monster, they were promptly overpowered.

After the Frankenstein Monster grows to giant size, the Rangers in their Megazord struggle with him until Tommy joins the battle with his Dragonzord. Early on in the battle, the Rangers call for the Power Sword but it bounces harmlessly off of Frankie's chest. For a while, things appear grim as the Frankenstein Monster is able to handle both the Dragonzord and Megazord simultaneously. The Megazord then disassembles and they form the Dragonzord Battle Mode. Initially, the Frankenstein Monster still has the upper hand, as he continues to clobber the Dragonzord Battle Mode like he did the Megazord and Dragonzord, even blocking and then returning its crest blast. While laughing mockingly at the Rangers, they use the opportunity to obliterate the monster with the Power Staff. The Frankenstein Monster explodes in a strange way with cracks appearing all over his body before being torn apart. Tommy later showed up to the party dressed as the monster.

---

Tommy Oliver: The Frankenstein Monster!

Frankenstein: Long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! Based off of the iconic monster by Mary Shelley, you were made by Rita and sent to infiltrate a costume party on Halloween.

Nico: I remember that! That was cool and awesome!

Laney: Yeah it was!

Brittney: I think so too.

May: You look like a human in a Frankenstein costume.

Frankenstein's monster: It sure looks that way, doesn't it?

Me: Boy I will never forget seeing how you fought the rangers in the Halloween Special. That was so awesome!

Nico: It sure was.

Brittney: And Frankenstein is one of my favorite horror movie monsters.

Lucy Loud: Mine too even though I mostly like vampires.

Haiku: All monsters are really cool.

Ink Rose: They sure are.

Me: Lets get them.

We went at them.

Jet was first.

Jet: (to Green Lantern) I know this is pushing it. But is it possible for me and the other Masters of Evil members to get Lantern Rings as well?

Hal Jordan: I'm not really sure it works that way. The rules of the Green Lantern Corps are really strict and we have a lot of guidelines on Oa.

John Stewart: Yeah it's a really big bunch of hard work.

Kilowog: You got that right.

Rex Mason: That's right. And my pal has been part of it for as long as I can remember.

---

Jack O Lantern was next.

Jack O Lantern: (to Green Arrow) Hard to imagine that one cartoon drawing can cause so much damage.

Green Arrow: No kidding. SpongeBob may have a great imagination but it has to be used for the right purpose. Like playing with toys and all that.

Razr: I agree with you on that.

Bleez: Me too.

Ratchet (Red Lantern): Same here.

Vice: Agreed.

Sunset Shimmer: It's awful that a doodle SpongeBob made could hurt J.D. like that. But the coolest part is that during this whole adventure we discovered that our imagination is one of the strongest powers we have.

Pepperdance: It sure is. It's really cool.

Cayenne: Yeah it is! I think so too.

Gusty: Yeah.

Shun: I agree.

Storm Skyress: Same here.

Albert Heinrich: It's fun.

Jack O Lantern: Boy I'll say. Lets see what you can do with it.

Sunset Shimmer used her imagination and turned herself into a mermaid with an orange tail and fire angel wings.

Jack O Lantern: Wow! That is amazing! I never saw a fire-winged mermaid before.

Sunset Shimmer: In a volcano you might but not here.

Another awesome fanfic done.

The Power of Imagination is a great thing and the episode of SpongeBob Frankendoodle is one of my favorites. It aired on January 21st, 2002 and it was funny. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the 5th Time Squad Chapter and we're going to get the Hatfields and McCoys hating each other again like they did in the episode. But be warned, there's gonna be a lot of violence in that one. Hope you brought your army supplies because you'll need them.

See ya tomorrow.

The Blood-Spilling Appalachians Feud

We were over in Moscow, Russia and we were there to meet the Russian DigiDestined that Nico befriended on his journeys all over the world as Digimon appeared all over the world.

Me: That's because it's close to the Arctic Circle.

Lincoln: Yep.

Eli: But it's amazing here.

Earthworm Jim: We're after another Number Card, right?

Me: Yes we are. But scans shows that there are three of them.

Eli: Wow! This is gonna be big.

Nico: But I can't wait for you guys to meet the Russian Digidestined. Me, Sora and Yolei went to help them when Digimon were appearing all over the world.

Lola: Wow!

Sora T.: That was amazing.

Anastasia: This is gonna be interesting. What are their names?

Nico: Anna, Sonnya and Yuri. They don't speak English so we'll need to speak Russian with them.

Me: Leave that to me. What Partner Digimon do they have?

Nico: Sonnya has Snimon, Yuri has Kuwagamon and Anna has Unimon.

Lori: Wow! That's literally so cool!

Me: It sure is.

Nico: I think so too.

Apple Bloom: It's great that J.D. knows how to speak Russia.

Applejack: It sure is sugarcube.

We saw three kids and they had a Kuwagamon, Snimon and a Unimon.

Nico: There they are.

Swerve: (to Anna, Sonnya, and Yuri) Privyet, comrades. (to us) That's Hello in Russian, right?

Me: Privet is how it's pronounced. (To Sonnya, Anna and Yuri) (Speaking Russian) Привет вам троим. Вы Соня, Юрий и Анна? (Hello to you three. Are you Sonnya, Yuri and Anna?)

Sonnya: (Speaking Russian) Мы такие, и для меня большая честь познакомиться с вами, J.D . (We are and it's an honor to meet you all J.D.)

Yuri: (Speaking Russian) Нико, рада снова тебя видеть. Мы узнали о том, что с тобой случилось, от Йолей. У тебя все в порядке? (Nico it's great to see you again. We heard about what happened to you from Yolei. Are you doing all right?

Nico: (Speaking Russian) Да, Юрий, мне намного лучше, когда с моим прошлым покончено. Спасибо. (Yes Yuri, I'm much better now that my past has been dealt with. Thank you.)

Anna: (Speaking Russian) Какое облегчение. Нико был для всех нас как брат с тех пор, как мы встретились в его кругосветном путешествии. (That's a relief. Nico has been like a brother to all of us ever since we met on his journey around the world.)

Me: Я вижу. Но приятно познакомиться с вами троими. Вы трое знаете об опасных картах, которые оказывались в руках людей? (I can see that. But it's a pleasure to meet you three. Do you three know about dangerous cards that appeared in peoples hands?)

Sonnya: да (Yes.)

They pulled out three Number Cards and they were NUMBERS 97, 90 and 89!

We gasped.

Eli: Number 97: Draglubion, Number 90: Galaxy-Eyes Photon Lord and Number 89: Diabolisis the Mind Hacker!

Me: Как вы трое получили эти карточки? (How did you three get these cards?)

Yuri: Мы победили троих, у которых они были, и они создавали проблемы в Екатерининском дворце. Мы не знали, зачем они все это делали. (We defeated three people that had them and they were causing trouble over at the Catherine Palace. We didn't know why they were doing all that.)

Me: Ух ты! Вы все избавили нас от необходимости их победить. (Wow! You all saved us the trouble of having to defeat them.)

Cybertron Menasor: (Irish Accent) Lads, we need those Number Cards of yours.

Me: They don't speak English Menasor.

Menasor: Oh sorry.

Me: Нам нужны эти карты. Они опасны и являются частью злой инопланетной силы из другого измерения, которая стремится уничтожить нас. (We need those Cards. They are dangerous and are part of an evil alien force from another dimension out to destroy us.)

Sonnya: Это ужасно. Мы с радостью передадим их вам всем. (That's terrible. We'll gladly give them to you all.)

Me: Большое спасибо. (Thank you very much)

They gave them to us. Yuri, Anna and Sonnya and their partners came with us and they were gonna learn English so we can understand them.

Me: They sure were that famous and dangerous.

Applejack: Yeah we learned all about them from you and Jared, J.D.

Nico: Yeah they were dangerous. It's hard to imagine it was that brutal.

Applejack: Before we go can you tell us more about the feud?

Me: I sure can. What you're about to hear is brutal.

I went over the full details of the feud.

---

The Hatfield-McCoy feud, also described by journalists as the Hatfield-McCoy war, involved two rural American families of the West Virginia-Kentucky area along the Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River in the years 1863-1891. The Hatfields of West Virginia were led by William Anderson "Devil Anse" Hatfield, while the McCoys of Kentucky were under the leadership of Randolph "Ole Ran'l" McCoy. Those involved in the feud were descended from Joseph Hatfield and William McCoy (born c. 1750). The feud has entered the American folklore lexicon as a metonym for any bitterly feuding rival parties.

The McCoy family lived mostly on the Kentucky side of the Tug Fork; the Hatfields lived mostly on the West Virginia side. The majority of the Hatfields, although living in Mingo County (then part of Logan County) fought for the Confederacy in the American Civil War; most McCoys also fought for the Confederates, with the exception of Asa Harmon McCoy, who fought for the Union. The first real violence in the feud was the death of Asa as he returned from the war, murdered by a group of Confederate Home Guards called the Logan Wildcats. Devil Anse Hatfield was a suspect at first, but was later confirmed to have been sick at home at the time of the murder. It was widely believed that his uncle, Jim Vance, a member of the Wildcats, committed the murder.

The Hatfields were more affluent than the McCoys and politically well-connected. Anse's timbering operation was a source of wealth for his family, while the McCoys were more of a lower-middle-class family. Ole Ran'l owned a 300-acre (120 ha) farm. Both families had also been involved in the manufacturing and selling of illegal moonshine, a popular commodity at the time.

Asa Harmon McCoy joined the 45th Kentucky Infantry on October 20, 1863. According to his Compiled Service Records, he was "captured by Rebels" on December 5, 1863, and was released four months later to a Union hospital in Maryland. At the time of his capture, he was recovering from a gunshot wound to the chest. During the early months of the Civil War, Asa joined a company of the Pike County Home Guards, under the command of Uriah Runyon, and it is thought he sustained the wound while serving in this unit. William Francis also led a company of Pike County Guards during 1862, a group of which attacked and shot Mose Christian Cline, a friend of Devil Anse Hatfield. Although Cline survived his wounds, Anse vowed to retaliate against the responsible parties. Some time in 1863, a group of Confederate Home Guards ambushed and killed Francis as he was leaving his house, and Anse took credit for the deed. Runyon later joined the 39th Kentucky Infantry and was killed on May 7, 1864, in Pike County, Kentucky. His Compiled Service Records say "Killed by Rebels".

On muster rolls beginning on May 6, 1864, Asa is reported in a Lexington hospital, suffering from a leg fracture. Beginning in December 1864, the 45th Kentucky Infantry began mustering its regiments out of service. Asa's Company E was mustered out on December 24, 1864, in Ashland. He was killed near his home on January 7, 1865, just thirteen days after leaving the Union Army. A group of Confederate guerillas took credit for the killing and his wife's pension application states that he was "killed by Rebels". There are no existing records pertaining to his death and no warrants were issued in connection with the murder. McCoy family tradition points to James "Jim" Vance, an uncle of Anse and a member of a West Virginia Militia group, as the culprit.

The second recorded instance of violence in the feud occurred thirteen years later, in 1878, after a dispute about the ownership of a hog: Floyd Hatfield, a cousin of Anse's, had the hog, but Randolph McCoy claimed it was his, saying that the notches on the pig's ears were McCoy, not Hatfield, marks. The matter was taken to the local Justice of the Peace, Anderson "Preacher Anse" Hatfield, who ruled for the Hatfields by the testimony of Bill Staton, a relative of both families. In June 1880, Staton was killed by two McCoy brothers, Sam and Paris, who were later acquitted on the grounds of self-defense.

The feud escalated after Roseanna McCoy entered a relationship with Devil Anse's son Johnson, known as "Johnse" (spelled "Jonce" in some sources), leaving her family to live with the Hatfields in West Virginia. Roseanna eventually returned to the McCoys, but when the couple tried to resume their relationship, Johnse was arrested by the McCoys on outstanding Kentucky bootlegging warrants. He was freed from McCoy custody only when Roseanna made a desperate midnight ride to alert Anse, who organized a rescue party. The Hatfield party surrounded the McCoys and took Johnse back to West Virginia before he could be transported the next day to the county seat in Pikeville, Kentucky. Despite what was seen as her betrayal of her own family on his behalf, Johnse thereafter abandoned the pregnant Roseanna for her cousin, Nancy McCoy, whom he wed in 1881.

The feud continued in 1882 when Ellison Hatfield, brother of Anse, was killed by three of Roseanna's younger brothers: Tolbert, Phamer (Pharmer), and Bud. On an election day in Kentucky, the three McCoy brothers fought a drunken Ellison and his other brother; Ellison was stabbed 26 times and finished off with a gunshot. The McCoy brothers were initially arrested by Hatfield constables and were taken to Pikeville for trial. Secretly, Anse organized a large group of followers and intercepted the constables and their McCoy prisoners before they reached Pikeville. The brothers were taken by force to West Virginia. When Ellison died from his injuries, the McCoy brothers were killed by the Hatfields' vigilante justice in turn: being tied to pawpaw bushes, where each was shot numerous times with a total of fifty shots fired. Their bodies were described as "bullet-riddled".

Even though the Hatfields and most inhabitants of the area believed their revenge was warranted, up to about twenty men, including Anse, were indicted. All of the Hatfields eluded arrest; this angered the McCoy family, who took their cause up with Perry Cline. Cline, who was married to Martha McCoy, is believed to have used his political connections to reinstate the charges and announced rewards for the Hatfields' arrest as an act of revenge. A few years prior, Cline lost a lawsuit against Anse over the deed to thousands of acres of land, subsequently increasing the hatred between the two families. In 1886, Jeff McCoy killed a mail carrier named Fred Wolford, and the man who went to pursue him for his crime was acting constable Cap Hatfield. Cap and a friend named Tom Wallace shot him while on the run on the banks of the Tug Fork. Tom Wallace was soon found dead in the spring of 1887.

New Year Massacre

The feud reached its peak during the 1888 New Year's Night Massacre. Cap and Vance led several members of the Hatfield clan to surround the McCoy cabin and opened fire on the sleeping family. The cabin was set on fire in an effort to drive Randolph McCoy into the open. He escaped by making a break for it, but two of his children were shot and his wife was beaten and almost killed. With his house burning, Randolph and his remaining family members were able to escape to the woods; his children, unprepared for the elements, suffered frostbite. The remaining McCoys moved to Pikeville to escape the West Virginia raiding parties. Randolph's son Calvin and daughter Allaphare were killed during the raid.

Between 1880 and 1891, the feud claimed more than a dozen members of the two families. On one occasion, the governors of West Virginia and Kentucky even threatened to have their militias invade each other's states. In response, Kentucky Governor S. B. Buckner sent his Adjutant General Sam Hill to Pike County to investigate the situation. A few days after the New Year's Massacre, a posse led by Pike County Deputy Sheriff Frank Philipps rode out to track down Anse's group across the border into West Virginia. Two McCoys were members of Philipps' posse, Bud and one of Randolph's sons, James "Jim" McCoy.

The posse's first victim was Vance, who was killed in the woods after he refused to be arrested. Philipps then made other successive raids on Hatfield homes and supporters, capturing many and killing another three Hatfield supporters, before cornering the rest in Grapevine Creek on January 19. Unfortunately for Philipps, Anse and other Hatfields were waiting for them with an armed group of their own. A battle ensued between the two parties, and the Hatfields were eventually apprehended. A deputy, Bill Dempsey, was wounded and executed by Frank Philipps after they surrendered. On August 24, 1888, eight of the Hatfields and their friends were indicted for the murder of Alfair McCoy (sometimes spelled Allaphare, Randolph's young daughter) killed during the New Year Massacre. They included Cap, Johnse, Robert and Eliiot Hatfield, Ellison Mounts, French Ellis, Charles Gillespie, and Thomas Chambers.

Trial

Because of issues of due process and illegal extradition, the United States Supreme Court became involved ( Mahon v. Justice, 127 U.S. 700 (1888)). The Supreme Court ruled 7-2 in favor of Kentucky, holding that, even if a fugitive is returned from the asylum state illegally instead of through lawful extradition procedure, no federal law prevents him from being tried. Eventually, the men were tried in Kentucky and all were found guilty. Seven received life imprisonment, while the eighth, Ellison "Cottontop" Mounts, was executed by hanging and buried in an unmarked grave within sight of the gallows.

Ellison had tried to retract his confession, stating that he was innocent, and that he had only confessed because he expected leniency - but his retraction was denied. Thousands attended his hanging in Pikeville, but though the scaffold was in the open, its base was fenced in to comply with laws that had been passed which prohibited public executions. The hanging site is the current location of a classroom building of the present day University of Pikeville. With his last words, Ellison claimed that; "The Hatfields made me do it. " No one had been sent to the gallows in Pike County for forty years, and after Ellison, no one ever was again.

Of those sent to prison:

Valentine "Uncle Wall" Hatfield, elder brother of Anse, was overshadowed by Anse's ambitions but was one of the eight convicted, dying in prison of unknown causes. He had petitioned his brothers to assist in his emancipation from jail, but none came for fear of being captured and brought to trial. He was buried in the prison cemetery, which has since been paved over.

Doc D. Mahon, son-in-law of Valentine and brother of Pliant, one of the eight Hatfields convicted, served 14 years in prison before returning home to live with his son, Melvin.

Pliant Mahon, son-in-law of Valentine, served fourteen years in prison before returning home to rejoin his ex-wife, who had remarried but left her second husband to live with Pliant again.

Fighting between the families eased following the hanging of Mounts. Trials continued for years until the 1901 trial of Johnse, the last of the feud trials.

---

When I was finished, everyone was shocked!

Lincoln: Man that's horrible!

Nico: No kidding. I can't believe that the Hatfields and the McCoys were all fighting over something so petty as land.

Fluttershy: The Hooffield's and The McCoy's were like that.

Me: But they didn't get people killed.

Twilight Sparkle: That's right.

Me: But it was horrible that all of that happened back in the 1800's to the early 20th Century.

Applejack: Boy no kidding. I just can't believe that all that happened back then.

Apple Bloom: Me neither. That was awful.

Frozen Fright: No kidding. It's awful.

Me: It sure was. It was awful that all that happened all those years ago. And look what happened to them. Most of them ended up getting killed either by gunshots or capital punishment and some of them got sent to prison for the rest of their lives.

Apple Fritter: That is really awful.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Me: Yeah. At least the Apple-Pear Feud wasn't that bad.

Pear Butter: That is a good thing.

Bright Mac: It sure was.

Me: Yeah. And I was wrong earlier. It's not the Ozarks they lived in. The Ozarks are part of Missouri and Arkansas. The Hatfield's and McCoy's lived in the Appalachian Mountains.

Nico: That makes sense.

Applejack: That's okay J.D.

Me: Anyway lets get ready and head out.

Jet, Melter, Multiplex, Swordsman, Batroc, Mole Man, Jack O Lantern, and Trapster then appeared.

Jet: Can me, Melter, Multiplex, Swordsman, Batroc, Mole Man, Jack O Lantern, and Trapster go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. But this is not just an ordinary mission. This is a time travel mission and we're all going to meet The Hatfield's and McCoy's.

Swordsman: Oh man! That feud has haunted the Appalachians for years.

Trapster: And no one came out of that feud victorious.

Me: No they didn't. So be ready for anything.

Natilee pulled out a scroll and unsealed its contents and she gave us a bunch of shotguns and pistols.

Natilee: Here guys you'll need these.

Me: Good thinking.

We got some guns.

Molly Hale: Why do we need these guns?

Me: We had an encounter with a family feud of this kind of caliber before and not with the Hooffield's and McColt's. This feud had a lot of death, violence and murder in it. Alabama went through the same thing when we went to get Shaggy's inheritance from his Ancestral Uncle that he collected from the American Civil War.

Shaggy: Like yeah I remember that!

Lincoln: That was brutal.

Nico: It sure was. But that was an awesome treasure hunt.

Nicole: It sure was and we got to learn more about J.D. and Shaggy's ancestry.

Nico: We sure did.

Fluttershy: That sure is interesting.

Laney: It was scary but it was really fun.

Lola: Yeah it was!

Jet: Cool!

Me: Yep.

Jack O Lantern: Is that why we need these guns?

Me: Better to be ready to defend yourself rather than get shot.

Nico: Good thinking.

Lincoln: Yep.

Jack O Lantern: I see what you mean.

Me: Yep. Lets get going.

We got went to the year 1878.

WEST VIRGINIA-KENTUCKY BORDER, 1878

BOOM!

We arrived in the year 1878.

Bomb Burst: Alright. We're here. Now what?

We looked down and saw that we were over a pig pen.

Me: Uh we fall in the mud.

We fell.

SPLAT!

Nico: Oh yuck!

Larry 3000: This happened the last time we did a mission like this!

Me: Really?

BANG!

Bullets hit the mud.

Me: Huh?

Kid Hatfield: Hey Pa, Them McCoy's is trying to steal our pigs!

He fired at us!

BANG!

Me: Suck on Lead!

BANG!

I hit him in the leg!

Me: HA!

Nico: Nice shot!

Melter: (to Kid Hatfield) Let's see how tough you are when your leg is melted!

He fired a blast and melted the leg off.

Me: Good thing this isn't part of our timeline.

Nico: Yeah!

Me: See I told you the guns would come in handy.

Nico: Yep. Nice shot though.

Batroc: So, how are we going to solve this mess?

Lincoln: Yeah they're gonna be blasting us all over the place at this rate.

Me: Right lets fall back and come up with a plan.

We went into hiding in the forest.

Me: Okay this should be good enough.

Skullgrin: Does anyone have a plan?

Me: Larry, Otto, Tuddrussel, how did you guys help them the last time?

Larry 3000: Well I once gave them advice on how to be neighborly and friendly from a book. It's called Busting the Barrier by Thor Robertson.

Me: The Famous 1980's Motivational Speaker?

Larry 3000: That's him. Yes. I used his methods to help the McCoy's and Hatfield's become friends and assert themselves.

Me: That's interesting.

Otto: But they were supposed to be fighting and not loving. So me and Tuddrussel used pranks and had them blame them both for it.

Me: Clever. Maybe we can use the same method like we did before. Luan, Connor, Eddy, that's where you three come in.

Luan: You can count on us.

Connor Chan: You got it J.D.

Eddy: Lets do it.

Multiplex: I can use my clones to help out with the pranks.

Me: Nice. Tuddrussel how did you and Otto do the pranks?

Otto: Me and Tuddrussel cemented their water well.

Tuddrussel: I snapped their Scarecrow and made the crows eat their corn.

Otto: Me and Tuddrussel painted Hatfield's Rule on the McCoy's house and McCoy's Rock on the Hatfield's house.

Tuddrussel: And I put a cherry bomb in their outhouse.

Rainbow Dash: Those are awesome pranks!

Luan: Good ones!

Iguanus: Alright. Let's get to work!

Me: Lets do it!

We got to work on the pranks. We put cement in the well, had crows eat their crops and put a sign up that said McCoy's were here. The well had a note that said Hatfield's were here.

I put a cherry bomb in the outhouse and there was a note on it that said McCoy's were here.

We sabotaged the Hatfield's house destroyed their buggy and put notes all over it that said McCoy's were here. Etc, etc, etc.

Birdbrain: Let's throw water balloons at them now!

Me: Wait till they come out.

The water balloons were filled with raw sewage.

We saw the McCoy's come out

Me: Fire!

We fired the balloons and pelted them all over the place and they smelled horrible.

There was a note on a balloon that said Hatfield's did this.

Trapster: Next, I'll shoot at them with glue from my pistol!

Me: Go for it.

He saw the Hatfield's come out and got some of them with his Glue Gun and it stuck them good.

Woody Woodpecker pecked holes in the McCoy's house and smashed it down and flew back after leaving a note that said Hatfield's Rule!

Mole Man: I'll have my Moliods help with the pranks.

Me: Great.

He called his Moliods and they dug up all the Hatfield's vegetables and destroyed them and left a note said McCoy's were here.

Me: Stanley, do your stuff.

Stanley Ipkiss: With pleasure.

He put on the mask and got ready. He was dressed like a hillbilly.

Mask: (Imitating William Hatfield) Y'all be ready for a show.

He zoomed over to Randolph McCoy.

Mask William: I have something you should see.

He showed him a picture of William Hatfield and Randolph McCoy's wife Sarah sleeping together!

Randolph: Sarah! YOU SON OF A BITCH!

Mask: Geez and I thought you'd have a sense of humor, after all, YOU MARRIED HER!

Randolph: (ROARS)

SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP!

He slapped Randolph's face 13 times.

Mask: (Whispers in his ear) That's gotta hurt! EYEYEYEYE! (ZOOM!)

He ran fast without him even seeing him!

The McCoy's were wedgied afterwards and it was funny!

Scowl: We're really doing a lot of pranks today.

Me: We sure are and the Hatfield's and McCoy's are pissed. Big time.

Nico: Yeah they are.

Cassandra: Now, if nothing goes wrong, we can actually solve this conflict peacefully.

Me: No this is the feud with the Hatfield's and the McCoy's. They had the most brutal family feud ever known. Look.

We held up our binoculars and we saw Randolph McMoy ready a message on his house.

Randolph: "Fuck you Randolph McCoy - Signed William Hatfield." (INFURIATED ROAR) THOSE FUCKING DIRTY HATFIELD'S!

William Hatfield had a message on his house too.

William: "Eat Shit William Hatfield - Signed Randolph McCoy." WHY THAT FUCKER! (INFURIATED ROAR) THEY'RE GONNA GET IT!

He went back into his house.

William: It's Feudenin Time!

They all went and got their guns and they fired at the McCoy's and the McCoy's did the same thing. Bullets were flying everywhere.

Me: Yeah!

Nico: That did it!

Otto: They are really going at each other.

Lincoln: Yeah!

Otto: Mission accomplished.

Me: Yep. But I have a feeling something is missing.

A figure came out and it was Petra Fina!

Petra Fina: You all are dead!

Me: Petra Fina!

We saw that she had a nasty black eye.

Me: (Whistles) Nice shiner.

Swordsman: (sees Petra Fina's black eye) What's with the black eye? We haven't even beaten you up yet.

Petra Fina: (Horsea gives her a warning glare) I fell down some stairs.

Horsea: (smugly) You should be more careful around stairs. Otherwise, you'll end up killing yourself before we get the chance.

Carol: I'm not buying it! (PUNCHES PETRA IN THE FACE AND KNOCKS OUT A TOOTH!)

Madame Masque then appeared.

Me: Madame Masque.

May: Just you today?

Madame Masque: Nope. 7 new recruits are coming as well.

Me: Oh wow.

Nico: This oughta be fun.

7 figures came out and they were Jack Taggert A.K.A. FIREPOWER, Jamie Madrox A.K.A. MULTIPLE MAN, Boris Bullski A.K.A. TITANIUM MAN, Gary Gilbert A.K.A. FIREBRAND, OVERDRIVE, Fred Myers A.K.A. BOOMERANG and Ivan Kragoff A.K.A. RED GHOST!

Iron Man: Firepower, Titanium Man, Firebrand!

Cyclops: Multiple Man!

Mr. Fantastic: Red Ghost!

Spiderman: Boomerang and Overdrive!

Firepower: It's been a while since we last fought, Iron Man.

Iron Man: It sure has been a while Jack. I was beginning to think you have forgotten me.

Firepower: Never have. But it's an honor to meet the famous J.D. Knudson.

Me: Pleasure is mine Jack. Your armor suit is amazing.

Firepower: Thank you kindly.

Multiple Man: (to the X Men) I laid low the last few years and I find out that you guys ended most of the hostiles involving mutants.

Cyclops: Well yeah we sure have.

Me: Trask is now in the Neptune Prison and we also finally helped people put aside their hatred towards Mutants. He was the main source of all the hatred and disdain with Mutants. Mutants are people too like everyone else and if people have a problem with that then they can go fuck themselves into oblivion!

Nico: YEAH!

Noriko: That's right. I'm a mutant and I know what it felt like to be hated. But thanks to J.D. and all his friends I am now viewed as a normal human.

Hikaru: It's true.

Multiple Man: Wow. That's amazing. But thank you for helping us mutants be recognized as normal people.

Me: Just as long as they follow the most important rule: With Great Power Comes Great Responsibility.

Titanium Man: (Russian Accent) It's an honor to meet you, J.D.

Me: Same to you Boris. It's a pleasure to meet you as well.

Zarya (Overwatch): Pleasure to meet another fellow comrade from Russia.

Me: The Masters of Evil have lots of people from Russia now.

Titanium Man: They sure do.

Firebrand: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Gary. You know there's a DC Comics version of you as a hero.

Firebrand: That is very coincidental.

Overdrive: (to Spiderman) Hey, Web Head. Miss me?

Spiderman: As a matter of fact yes I have James. Things have been very lonely without you fighting me.

Me: But it's a pleasure to meet you James. You and I both have James as our first name.

Overdrive: That is interesting.

Boomerang: (Australian Accent) I know. Me and Captain Boomerang are similar. But trust me. He and I are separate people.

Me: I believe it. But that is so cool Fred. Boomerangs are really cool though.

Boomerang: They sure are. I heard you all had an encounter with a supernatural boomerang.

Brittney: We sure did. That was crazy.

Red Ghost: (Russian Accent) Fantastic Four. How have you all been?

Mr. Fantastic: Starting to think that you forgot us.

The Thing: Yeah we're hurt.

Invisible Woman: But we haven't forgotten you.

Human Torch: Yeah.

Zarya (Overwatch): We have lots of people from Russia now. Always a pleasure to have a fellow comrade with the Masters of Evil.

Red Ghost: Same here Comrade Zarya.

?: Interesting huh?

A figure came out and it was GUITARDO from episode 5 of Season 2.

---

The Guitardo was a guitar-playing cicada monster who served as the eponymous main antagonist of the episode "The Song of Guitardo."

Lord Zedd wanted a guitar monster since he had seen Kimberly practicing her song making but had to choose an insect after Goldar reminded him that he could not create monsters from inanimate objects alone which contradicted a previous episode. A cicada was subsequently chosen after Baboo started to list off insects with a cicada being the first so Zedd chose that insect as Guitardo's basis. The next day, a cicada subsequently landed on Bulk's shoulder whilst he and Skull were posing as a princess and a damsel respectively to lure out the Power Rangers. Zedd then made it into the Guitardo who was heavy enough to flatten Bulk to the ground whilst Skull just gawked at him and he got off, happy at the crushing. Bulk demanded to know what he was doing (thinking Skull was messing around) when he got the helmet off that was stuck on him. Guitardo then asked if he had a problem with the fact that he wanted to do it for kicks which prompted Bulk and Skull to freak out and flee.

The Guitardo later either lost Bulk and Skull or gave up the chase willingly to get his instrument. As the Rangers watched him on the Viewing Globe, he took Kimberly's guitar and corrupted it into a disfigured evil red electric guitar. The Guitardo played rock tunes and hypnotized his victims with the music, lifting them into the air and rendering them useless. Despite this oddity, the plan was to brainwash the Power Rangers into serving Zedd. The Guitardo encountered the Power Rangers and tried to brainwash them with his music but they were able to concentrate their own thoughts and thus his music was useless. However, he was able to capture Zack after he asked why he should obey by hitting him with literal notes from his guitar. This subsequently made him levitate into the air because that is how hypnosis works. He then did the same to Trini, Billy, and Jason when they charged at him, making their concentrated thoughts useless. Only Kimberly was left and he recognized her as the songwriter of the team so started playing his music. However, she was saved in the nick of time by Tommy, who had remained at the Command Center due to his weakening powers and decided to take on the monster. He fought the Guitardo but Tommy had taken a great risk by taking him on, easily being slashed to the ground by the monster's guitar although he quickly blocked it when the Guitardo tried to bisect him, managing to kick him in the head and take him down. Kimberly and Tommy regrouped and demanded that he surrender but he just left for an "intermission" but told them to meet him at the Angel Grove fairgrounds.

Tommy went to the fair alone confronted the Guitardo who entered by having (presumably a Putty) open some curtains so that he could dramatically confront Tommy. Tommy managed to take the Guitardo down, but Guitardo's musical mayhem prevailed when he starts releasing his tunes yet again. Tommy initially didn't see him (despite the monster loudly announcing his presence) and Guitardo planned to play his new song ("Green is a Goner") to his "adoring fans." Tommy temporarily retaliated with his Dragon Dagger but was soon smacked down and the Guitardo started playing his song. Tommy began to levitate like his friends but managed to temporarily hold off the music with his Dagger's flute music when he forced it close to his helmet's mouth, learning that the key to winning was to literally fight music with music. However, the Guitardo switched to a different type of music which eventually overpowered Tommy's music and made him sink into the ground.

The Guitardo advanced to make this his swan song but Kimberly showed up which angered the monster since she interrupted him so played his rock music. However, she countered it by strumming her Power Bow string like a harp which blasted down the Guitardo and forced him to drop his guitar. She then helped Tommy out of the sinkhole only to be attacked by the Guitardo who cut them down with his pincers and then blasted them down by the Guitardo's eyebeams. He declared that this would be a dual finale but Tommy had the idea to combine Kimberly's Power Bow with his Dragon Dagger strung into it like an arrow. After Tommy told Guitardo to "check out this tune," Kimberly fired the Dragon Dagger straight into Guitardo, delivering massive damage and causing massive sparky explosions. All Guitardo could do was cry out in pain as he spewed sparks and fell on his face before exploding. Kimberly's guitar was then returned to normal and the Rangers dropped out of the sky and onto the ground. The most likely reason that he wasn't turned into a giant was because his hypnotic magic would be completely useless against the non-sentient Thunder Megazord.

Four years later, Guitardo was one of the many monsters that aided Divatox in conquering Gratha. He was presumably re-created by Finster and given to Divatox as an act of good will. Although he was not seen when the United Alliance of Evil was wiped out, Guitardo seemingly survived Zordon's Energy Wave.

Guitardo was later seen bidding on the pink Quasar Saber on Onyx. It is possible that his love of music as well as happy go lucky and playful nature made him redeemable enough for Zordon's ultimate move to spare him.

---

Kimberly: Oh no! Guitardo!

Me: I remember you! You were made from Kimberly's guitar and sent to hypnotize victims with your music. But also brainwash the rangers to serve Lord Zedd.

Guitardo: That's right J.D. Great memory on you.

Me: So I have been told.

Guitardo: (to Luna) So, you have a guitar too?

Luna: You bet I do dude!

Sam S.L.: Same with me!

Me: And so does Trent.

Pear Butter: And me too.

Guitardo: Cool!

?: Don't forget me.

Another figure came out and it was BUZZ BUZZARD!

---

Buzz Buzzard is the main villain from the Woody Woodpecker Show and in many ways the most popular, replacing Wally Walrus as Woody's arch-nemesis. He was originally voiced by the late Lionel Stander and later by the late Dallas McKennon. Buzz Buzzard also appears as the main antagonist in the New Woody Woodpecker Show ahead of Wally Walrus and Miss Meany.

He is voiced by Mark Hamill in the aforementioned series. In the 2018 YouTube series, he is voiced by Kevin Michael Richardson.

Buzz Buzzard is the show's character with the most consistent portrayal, acting as a antagonist in all of his appearances. He was the first antagonist in the show to be portrayed as full blown villain and is in many ways a polar opposite to Woody, having being created by director Dick Lundy in an attempt to make Woody a more sympathetic character.

His visual design is the one which changed the most during the show's run, often going alongside his different portrayals. He originally appearead as very tall and imposing with his body fully covered in black feathers, with an unshaved beard on his lower beak.

Subsequent appearances dropped some of those features, making him slimmer and less imposing (though still taller than Woody) and losing the unshaved beard as well as his black feathers, which were changed into a more brown/red color. His new design from NWWS harkens back to his original design, with the full black feathers and tall, imposing stature.

Buzz has had many varied roles, including a Wild West outlaw, pirate, mugger and sometimes as a rival co-worker of Woody. His most recurring role is that of a burglar/con artist, often out to make easy money by selling fake or very bad products, forcing people to sign contracts with him, though he can also appeal to common theft. He is shown to have a very imaginative mind when it comes to swindling people, being the one antagonist in the show to not be portrayed as a dimwit.

---

Buzz Buzzard: Woody Woodpecker. It's been a while.

Woody Woodpecker: Buzz Buzzard!

Lincoln: Nice to see that you are part of the Masters of Evil. Just watch yourself or you're gonna be a cooked chicken!

Buzz Buzzard: I'm a buzzard kid.

Lincoln: Whatever. Just watch it.

Me: Lets get it on.

We went at them.

---

Firepower was first.

Firepower: (to Aurico) What's it like on Aquitar?

Aurico: (Alien Voice) It's an ocean planet. It's a world covered in water and the water is beautiful and crystal clear. One of these days we'll have to show you what it looks like.

Twilight Sparke: That would be interesting to see. And seeing all kinds of alien planets is really cool.

Star Swirl: It sure is.

Joe Shimamura: I heard so many things about all the adventures of seeing many planets and all that. It's so cool that you all have been to many planets all over the universe.

Sonata Dusk: And we've only begun to scratch the surface of how many planets there are.

Dan: Yeah it's amazing.

Firepower: Indeed. Lets get it on.

He had his lasers and missile cannons pop out and he fired at them and they dodged the blasts and went at them.

Madame Masque: (to Timmy) I'm actually not surprised that Crocker would end up stabbing Evil Mandarin in the back.

Timmy Turner: Me neither. Crocker was a crazy monster since 1973.

Madame Masque: For 48 years!? That's insane!

Wanda: Well coincidentally, Almost 48 years ago we too were his Fairy Godparents. Until that day on March 15th, 1973 he blabbed about us being real and we were taken away from him.

Sunset Shimmer: So it was because of Jorgen that lead to Crocker becoming the insane nutjob we all hated.

Cosmo: Pretty much.

Gusty: Geez. He must've been really stupid.

Jet Link: I think that's putting it mildly.

Runo: Yeah.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Aye they sure are.

Marucho: I think so too.

Multiple Man: I think so as well. By the way Scott, Vypra filled us in on what happened on your version of Earth. That must've been a huge shock to see that you lived in an Apocalyptic Wasteland.

Scott Truman: It was. But what was even more shocking is that Venjix, the mortal enemy of the R.P.M. Rangers would return as the reincarnation of itself and attack the Beast Morpher Rangers.

Bomb Burst: Yeah we still can't get over that. That was awful!

Doubledealer: Yeah.

Françoise: No kidding.

Multiple Man: Boy I can tell. Lets get it on.

He made a bunch of clones and they went at them and fought them all over the place and knocked them down and they went at Multiple

Andros: It's a cool one.

Rainbow Dash: Just as awesome as mine.

Rainbow Dash pulled out a Dyna-Cap and pressed it and threw it and it exploded.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Her Motorcycle came out.

Flash Magnus: Nice wheels.

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT UGLY FREAK OF NATURE! (BLASTS PETRA FINA ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Carol: How do you like them apples you old clod!

Petra Fina was shocked and then she snapped!

Petra Fina: WHA? WHAT DID YOU JUST CALL ME! (INFURIATED ROAR!)

She went at Carol and Carol punched and kicked her all over the place and brutally smashed her face in.

Jessie (Pokemon): And I thought I was the only that hated being called old.

Menasor: Lets take this lass down!

Gulper: Gulper Ready!

Cybertron Menasor, Gulper, Swerve and Earthworm Jim all used the Gigantion, Skylands and Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Menasor's drill, Gulper's Powers, Swerve's speed and Earthworm Jim's blaster 100-fold.

Vince: Nice one!

Petra: I Will be back!

Me: And we'll be ready.

Petra went back.

Nico: I'm glad we succeeded in another time mission. But there's still one thing I'm wondering.

Thing: What's that?

Nico: Who gave Petra Fina that black eye?

Horsea: (coming up with a lie) Let's not think about that too much. For now, let's celebrate this win!

I was suspicious. I saw this kind of situation happen before and I had a strong feeling that Horsea met a future group that we're going to meet on a future mission.

Me: Okay then!

We went back home and we went to Nergal's Pizzeria.

Flint Hammerhead: (To the viewers) This was an awesome and funny adventure! Hope you all liked it.

Me: I sure did.

We had a great pizza.

Nightmare of the Crystal Empire Tyrant

It was another awesome day and we had just gotten back from our awesome meal at the Krusty Krab and it was awesome.

Maria: Another nice meal at the Krusty Krab.

Me: You said it Maria and it's awesome that Plankton will now never get his hands on the Krabby Patty Secret Formula ever again.

Nico: No kidding. But we still have that Streaker Krabs to deal with at the Crab Net.

Linka: Yeah he is a freak.

Lola: Yep.

Nico: Yeah that guy needs to show some decency.

Lola: And lots of it.

Twilight Sparkle: Can I ask you all something?

Me: Sure Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: Didn't you guys fight Jelliens one time?

Slammu: Yep. They were Jellyfish aliens. Hence the name.

Me: Yeah and that whole adventure reminded me of an old movie from my dads past.

Sunset Shimmer: Which one was that?

Me: Invasion of The Body Snatchers.

Nico: The one from 1956.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! What happened during that one?

Me: It was a freaky adventure.

I went over the events of Chapter 1128 and went over the history of the Jelliens.

---

Jelliens are a hostile race of aliens created by and working for their Jellien Overlord. They appear alongside their leader as the main antagonists of the episode Planet of the Jellyfish in SpongeBob SquarePants.

In the beginning of the episode, the Jellien Overlord is seen eating jellyfish and producing Jellien Jellyfish en masse to begin his plan to invade Bikini Bottom. Patrick is one of the first Bikini Bottomites to be caught by this wave of Jellien Jellyfish, as he was napping in Jellyfish fields when the invasion began. His clone, Jellien Patrick, encourages SpongeBob to help him capture Jellien Jellyfish and give them to everyone in town. SpongeBob, oblivious to his friend's condition, happily obliges, and almost everyone in Bikini Bottom is replaced with a Jellien Clone as a result.

The next day, SpongeBob remains completely unaware of what's been happening to everyone else, but he does notice that something is amiss when Jellien Krabs insists that there is no mayo at the Krusty Krab even though they just got a new shipment ot it yesterday. He then finds Jellien Patrick working the grill, and he gives the sponge a foreboding message: he's here to replace SpongeBob and all of his kind. Despite this, as well as some other behaviors that clearly aren't normal, SpongeBob doesn't notice the Jellien epidemic and goes into the freezer to find some mayo. He finds the mayo, but then sees the Jellien Overlord and finally realizes what happened to all his friends. Panicked, SpongeBob sneaks out of the Krusty Krab and gets chased by a horde of Jellien Clones, but is rescued by Sandy.

Sandy explains to SpongeBob that all they need to defeat the Jelliens is to find their weakness. SpongeBob points out that the Jelliens seem to hate mayonnaise, so Sandy suggests they try that. SpongeBob tells her that the Krusty Krab has plenty of mayo, but the path is blocked by Jellien Clones. Sandy, knowing that the Jelliens are simple-minded creatures, has SpongeBob and herself don sunglasses to cover their eyes so they look like Jellien Clones. They manage to blend in and get into the Krusty Krab without any trouble, but then SpongeBob accidentally blows their cover and the duo is forced to fight. SpongeBob grabs a bottle of mayo and squirts some at Jellian Krabs, instantly melting him. Excited and relieved that the mayo is indeed the Jelliens' weakness, SpongeBob keeps squirting the mayo and melting more Jellian Clones.

After melting the last of the Clones, SpongeBob and Sandy venture the freezer to deal with the Jellien Overlord and his Jellien Jellyfish. They manage to melt most of the Jellien Jellyfish, but the mayo freezes before they can melt the Jellien Overlord himself. Thinking fast, SpongeBob throws the mayo onto the Jellien Overlord and Sandy turns up the heat so it melts on him. Thus, the Jellien Overlord dies and all the Jellien Jellyfish die with him, ending the Jellien invasion permanently.

---

When I was finished they gasped in shock!

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! That's awful! But thank goodness you all stopped them from taking the world.

Me: Yeah thank goodness.

Rainbow Dash: Were the Jelliens out to kill all the fish?

Me: No. Replace them. They were there to replace all of the ocean with Jelliens.

Nico: Yeah it was weird and freaky.

Lola: Yeah it was.

Demolishor: I think one of the Jelliens managed to capture Gary as well.

Me: Yeah they did but he was sleeping right next to a plant pot and he turned out wrong.

Nico: Weird. But I remember that.

Me: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle: And Mayonnaise was the only thing that was strong enough to kill them?

Me: Yeah it's weird. When they ordered Krabby Patties they said hold the mayonnaise every time.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow.

Blue Raspberry: What is mayonnaise usually made with?

Me: Lets see, eggs, lemon juice or vinegar and spices and flavorings.

Nico: I think it might be vinegar that lead to their deaths.

Lisa Loud: A most brilliant theory Nico. I did get some of the remnants of the Jelliens for study after we destroyed them and you are indeed correct about that Nico. It was indeed fermented ethanol; street name Vinegar in Mayonnaise that destroyed them.

Me: That's weird. But Ketchup has vinegar in it too.

Nico: It sure does.

Laney: I don't like Vinegar all by itself.

Me: Me neither. It tastes awful.

Tailgate: The remains of the Jelliens probably wouldn't have gone well with Krabby Patties.

Me: No they wouldn't either. I tasted it and it tasted like puke. Blech! My tongue still burns from that.

Trunks: That was pretty disgusting stuff. You weren't kidding on that.

Nico: No kidding. It tasted horrible.

Lily: Not to Patrick though. He liked it.

Lana: I did too.

Me: Well that's okay.

But then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

The computer showed us that KING SOMBRA HAS RETURNED!

Me: (Gasp) GREAT FUCKBUCKETS! King Sombra is back!

We all gasped.

Runo: Who?

Me: Oh right some of you don't know about this. King Sombra is a malevolent tyrant that ruled over the Crystal Empire back over 1,000 years ago. He was a unicorn who had a heart that was Black as Night. Anyone with a heart like that is called PURE EVIL INCARNATE.

I went over King Sombra's history.

---

King Sombra is a major antagonist in My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic . He appears as the main antagonist of the season 3 premiere "The Crystal Empire" and the season 9 premiere "The Beginning of the End". He is also the supporting antagonist in the season five finale "The Cutie Re-Mark", and a posthumous antagonist in the season six premiere "The Crystalling" and the rest of season 9.

He is a dark and tyrannical unicorn and the former ruler of the Crystal Empire who is bent on taking it back and later all of Equestria. Sombra cast a curse that made the empire disappear for a thousand years. He returned the same time it did and is determined to regain the empire, so he can regain his physical form and conquer Equestria with his army of mind-controlled pony slaves. However, his plans were thwarted by Cadance, Spike, the Mane Six, and the Crystal Ponies, and he was defeated and destroyed. In Season 9, Sombra was restored by Grogar (who is Discord in disguise) to join his team of villains so they can take Equestria together. However, Sombra arrogantly refused his offer and he goes out to conquer Equestria on his own. He managed to destroy the Tree and Elements of Harmony and succeeded in taking over Ponyville and Canterlot. However, he was defeated once again by the Mane Six.

In the IDW MLP comics, he appears as the secondary antagonist in the 13th story arc Siege Of The Crystal Empire ; the real main antagonist being his "mother" Rabia. In the IDW comics, it is stated that Sombra is actually an Umbrum created to destroy the Crystal Heart and release the Umbrum army trapped underneath the Crystal Empire; although this is considered to be non-canonical to the series.

He was voiced by Jim Miller in Season 3, and was voiced by Alvin Sanders in Season 9.

Past

King Sombra's early life is left completely unknown in the TV series (unlike the comics). It can be speculated that Sombra was once a normal unicorn, possibly a resident of the Crystal Empire, until he began studying dark magic, and had delved so deep in it that it mutated him into the tyrannical abomination he is today. It is also implied that Sombra murdered the previous Queen of the Crystal Empire so he can take over the Empire.

What is known is that King Sombra was a powerful unicorn whose heart is said to be as black as night. He took control of the Crystal Empire and enslaved the crystal ponies, and most likely planned to do the same with the rest of Equestria. Fortunately, Celestia and Luna arrived and used their combined magic to depose him, turning him to shadow and banishing him to the Arctic North, ultimately sealing him into a crevice of ice which closed up. However, he foresaw this and placed a curse upon the Crystal Empire that caused it to disappear for a thousand years out of spite.

The Crystal Empire

The Crystal Empire reappears, but the crystal ponies have no memory of their kingdom before Sombra took over, and the mere memory of him causes them pain. Sombra returns along with the Crystal Empire and tries to conquer it again, but Princess Cadance was able to cast a protection spell around it which kept him out. When Twilight Sparkle and her friends came to the Crystal Empire to protect it, Sombra chased after them in shadow form, but they got through the barrier, although he attacked Shining Armor he survived, his horn was cursed so that he could not use his magic.

When Cadance began to run out of power to perform the spell, the barrier briefly deactivated, allowing Sombra to invade. Sombra's horn was broken off as the barrier reactivated, and he transformed it into a dark crystal that began to create more dark crystals in the Crystal Empire.

Twilight and Spike searched for the Crystal Heart, the key to protecting the empire, inside the castle, where nobody would dare to look. They ran into a door enchanted by Sombra to hypnotize them into confronting their worst fears. In Twilight's case, she thought Celestia told her that she failed her test and wouldn't continue her studies, only for Spike to snap her out of the trance. Spike gets brainwashed too and thought Twilight was banishing him, but Twilight saw through the enchanted door's purpose and shuts it, releasing Spike from the spell and comforting him about his fear.

Eventually, they reached the Crystal Heart, but Sombra, was finally able to enter once Cadance was no longer able to perform her spell, trapping Twilight in a wall of dark crystals, keeping her from the Crystal Heart once she triggers a trap.

With no way out, Twilight entrusts Spike to take the Crystal Heart to Cadance. Returning to his physical form, Sombra tried to spear Spike with a dark crystal, but Cadance saved him from the attack. She then returned the Crystal Heart, and together with the crystal ponies used its power to unleash a wave of magic that restored the Crystal Empire and destroyed Sombra, shattering him to pieces.

King Sombra was briefly referenced in the episode, " Games Ponies Play ". Twilight also briefly uses his magic in " Princess Twilight Sparkle ".

The Cutie Re-Mark

The first of many alternate timelines temporarily created by Starlight Glimmer, King Sombra is in power and ruling over the Crystal Empire with the iron hoof, having never been killed by Princess Cadance due to the change in the timeline, he made the crystal ponies fight for him against the rest of Equestria, fighting a war with Celestia. He was winning the war as he managed to take half of Equestria.

The Crystalling

King Sombra was mentioned again a couple of times in the Season 6 premiere " The Crystallising ". Spike mentions King Sombra while telling the Crystal Ponies about how he was defeated. Twilight later reveals the reason that King Sombra merely hid the Crystal Heart in his castle is to prevent the Frozen North's weather from breaching the Empire. This explains why Sombra never destroyed the Crystal Heart in the first place.

Shadow Play

Pinkie Pie mentions Sombra while recounting the threats Equestria has faced over the last thousand years to Star Swirl the Bearded.

The Beginning of the End

King Sombra is revived by Discord (who was in the form of the ancient tyrant Grogar) and is summoned to his lair, where Queen Chrysalis, Lord Tirek, and Cozy Glow accuse him of being the one who summoned them there. However, "Grogar" reveals himself as being the one to summon them, much to the villains' astonishment, as they had all thought he was a legend (except for Cozy Glow, who had never heard of him before). "Grogar" proceeds to tell the group of his plans to eliminate Twilight Sparkle and her friends and demonstrates his power by giving Tirek enough magic to partially revive his strength, also causing him to tell Cozy Glow of the stories that he had heard of "Grogar" when he was younger and for Sombra to do the same afterwards. "Grogar" goes on to state that he's been watching over all of them and asks them why they think that they've always been beaten by the same six ponies, Chrysalis interrupting

Sombra before he can respond. "Grogar" rebuffs all of their answers and points out that the Mane 6 have always won because they work as a team, and demands that they all do the same in order to take over Equestria.

However, Sombra refuses to join "Grogar", claiming that he will take the Crystal Empire back for himself and destroy anyone who gets in his way. Unphased by this, "Grogar" tells Sombra to go and try to take over the Empire again, even offering to transport him there on the conditions that he can keep it if he succeeds, but will serve him once he fails, claiming he will destroy him again if he refuses to abide by his terms. Sombra agrees and proceeds to arrogantly proclaim how he will overtake the Empire, before an annoyed "Grogar" whisks him away. Sombra proceeds to lay siege to the Crystal Empire with ease, brainwashing the crystal ponies and royal guards into serving him as he approaches the castle. Inside, Princess Cadence sends out a message to Twilight before she and Shining Armor notice that Flurry Heart is missing and find her in Sombra's clutches. Sombra then forces Shining Armor and Cadence to surrender, capturing the Crystal Heart and fully taking over the Crystal Empire afterwards.

Upon receiving Cadence's message and summoning her friends, Twilight decides to retrieve the Elements of Harmony from the Tree of Harmony to defeat Sombra. Back at the Empire, Sombra is seen relaxing on his throne, amused by Flurry Heart's attempts at attacking him, only for the Mane 6 to arrive to challenge him. Unconcerned, Sombra forces his opponents to endure their own worst fears (making Twilight see a vision of all of her friends being controlled by Sombra while Princess Celestia and Luna show disappointment in her, turning them into Nightmare Moon and Daybreaker as a result), and suggests that they should surrender, as nothing can beat their own fears. However, Twilight and the others overpower Sombra's visions with the Elements, revealing that they were only facing their fears long enough for Spike to free his captives.

Cadence then reclaims the Crystal Heart and uses it to dispel Sombra's influence from the Empire, freeing everyone from his control. In spite of this, Sombra proclaims that he will win in the end, before being seemingly destroyed by the Elements. Having saved the Empire again, Twilight and the Mane 6 return the Elements to the tree, only for Sombra to appear and destroy both.

Sombra reveals that his supposed demise back at the Crystal Empire was merely a ruse to fool the Mane 6 in so that he could trace them back to their source of power and destroy it; and now that he has done so, they will be unable to stop him. Despite this, the Mane 6, minus a disheartened Twilight, try to fight back against him, only for Sombra to imprison them all, realizing that, with them out of the way, he can conquer all of Equestria for himself, planning to overtake Ponyville first. Sombra then considers using his magic to brainwash the Mane 6 as well, but decides against it, as he is already forcing them to endure their worst fear by taking control of Equestria anyway before leaving. Sombra goes on to brainwash all of Ponyville - including Spike, Starlight Glimmer, the Cutie Mark Crusaders and the Mane 6's other friends-into becoming his slaves and takes them to conquer Canterlot, while the Mane 6 are forced to deal with the Everfree Forest's overgrowth thanks to the Tree's destruction.

Sombra storms Canterlot with ease thanks to his brainwashed army, and barges into the Princess' throne room, only to find that it is empty, making him believe that Celestia and Luna had run away from him in fear. Soon, the Mane 6 arrive in the Princess' throne room with Discord (back in his true form) and engages Sombra, who attempts to blast them with magic. However, Discord dispels all of Sombra's attacks with ease while commenting that, even though he expected Twilight and the others to handle things by themselves, they still win because he is their friend, though in doing so he accidentally prompts Sombra to target Fluttershy instead, making Discord take the blast for her. Sombra gloats at his victory and begins to decide how he will eliminate the rest of his enemies, while, at the same time, Discord gives his friends a heartfelt speech about how they don't need him or the Elements to beat Sombra since all they have ever needed to win is each other.

Disregarding Discord's claims, Sombra attacks the Mane 6, who, now inspired, begin to fight back, generating more magic than ever. Baffled, Sombra demands to know how the Mane 6 have the ability to stand up to him even when he destroyed the source of their power, although Twilight claims that he never did, with her and the others reminding him that friendship is magic, before using their power to destroy him once again and remove his influence from Equestria. Due to how powerful the Mane 6's magic was, Sombra's skin was tearing itself apart while he quickly turns to dust as well and disappears into the light, destroying him once and for all.

Later, Celestia and Luna return from fending off the Everfree Forest and state that they will hold off on making Twilight and her friends the new rulers of Equestria until Twilight feels she is ready, causing Discord to reveal that he faked his injuries in an effort to push Twilight to become the great leader he knows she is, additionally revealing that he could have defeated Sombra any time he wanted. Back at "Grogar's" lair, Tirek and Chrysalis ask him about how Sombra's plan went, and "Grogar" shows them that he had been defeated yet again. Choosing not to revive him a second time, Discord (back in his Grogar disguise) uses Sombra's destruction as an example to the others of what happens when they try to abandon his plans, making them nervously agree to serve him.

Legacy

King Sombra is mentioned a few times in the episode, " Uprooted ".

He is also mentioned in " Sparkle's Seven ", where it is shown that Princesses Celestia and Luna decided to have Shining Armor increase security in Canterlot following Sombra's previous attack on it.

In " She's All Yak ", Sandbar lists King Sombra and Cozy Glow as two ponies worse than Yona.

He is briefly mentioned in " The Last Crusade " by Mane Allgood, who lists him as one of the main reasons why she and her husband Snap Shutter decided to come to Ponyville and spend time with their daughter, Scootaloo.

In " The Ending of the End - Part 1 ", Sombra is mentioned a number of times when it is revealed that Discord had been posing as Grogar and was using him and the other villains to create a threat that would push Twilight and her friends into becoming confident rulers of Equestria. In " Part 2 ", Twilight has a picture of Sombra included in a thought chart when trying to come up with a way to defeat Tirek, Queen Chrysalis and Cozy Glow.

Reflections

King Sombra of a parallel world appears in the seventh arc (Issues 17-20) of the comics. He is the polar opposite of the Sombra from the show, as he is a good ruler of the parallel world where Celestia and Luna are evil. He is in love with Celestia of Prime Equestria.

However, this version of Sombra would suffer a terrible fate in allowing himself to be taken by evil to protect his beloved Celestia and both their worlds from destruction, becoming just like the King Sombra from Celestia's world. But even after being taken by evil, this Sombra mourns his beloved Celestia, now lost to him, possibly forever.

In Friends Forever #4, it is shown how King Sombra captured a Crystal Bard and enslaved him, making him read books for him after the Crystal Bard escaped King Sombra with his royal guards trying to recapture him but the Crystal Bard became smarter than him.

Fiendship is Magic

In Issue 1, Sombra's backstory (at least in comic canon, in which Amore has a different cutie mark than described in the Journal of the Two Sisters) is revealed; he was an Umbrum disguised as a pony to enter Equestria and release the other Umbrum, who were imprisoned in another dimension. Sombra initially didn't want to turn evil, and was friends with Radiant Hope, and was affected by the power of the Crystal Heart, but after a talk with the Umbrum, he embraced his dark side. He turned Princess Amore to crystal and shattered her to pieces, before being banished by Celestia and Luna, but he threw Radiant Hope outside of the Crystal Empire. In the present, it is shown that Sombra is now a ghost tied to his horn.

Siege of the Crystal Empire

In Issue #34, Radiant Hope recruits Queen Chrysalis, Lightning

Dust, Iron Will, and the Flim Flam Brothers to attack the Crystal Empire as a distraction while she finds Sombra's spirit and horn, and uses her healing magic to bring him back to life.

In Issue #35, Sombra releases the imprisoned villains, and he encrusts Twilight's horn with dark crystals, allowing Chrysalis to defeat her. Celestia and Luna arrive to fight Sombra and Chrysalis, but due to Hope's intervention, Sombra turns Celestia and Luna to stone.

In Issue #36, Sombra and Chrysalis get into an argument when Chrysalis is against Sombra's plan to release the Umbrum, knowing they will cause despair, thus preventing her from feeding off love. Threatened with being turned to stone, Chrysalis retreats with her Changelings. After Princess Cadance and Hope discover what the Umbrum are really like, Hope tries to convince Sombra not to release them. Twilight arrives, having been restored by the other Mane 5 with the power of friendship, and shoots a magic beam at Sombra, but Hope jumps in front of him and takes the hit. Sombra then releases the Umbrum.

In Issue #37, Sombra, now emperor, turns Shining Armor to stone at the command of Lady Rabia in a reference to Governor Tarkin destroying Alderaan. He is about to do the same to Twilight and Cadance when Twilight tells them to do this at the dais where the Crystal Heart is so everypony can see it happen. Sombra goes to take Hope with him, to which she reveals that her supposed destiny of becoming a princess did not come true because she left her training to look for him. Sombra was affected by the realization that not only was the Crystal Heart's prediction not true, but she chose him over becoming a princess. When the "rebels" attack the Umbrum, Rabia tells Sombra to eliminate Twilight and Cadance and Hope takes out the Crystal Heart. Rabia tells Sombra to smash it, but instead, he unleashes its power, re-imprisoning the Umbrum and saving the Crystal Empire. Sombra is disintegrated by the Crystal Heart's power, but before he can be completely destroyed, Hope saves him with her magic, and together she and all four princesses restore him to physical form, turning him into an actual pony similar in appearance to his mirror-world counterpart. Together, Sombra and Hope decide to restore Princess Amore.

Everyone gasped in shock and horror!

Nico: That still infuriates me that he is that evil!

Varie: I know and he killed Princess Amore in cold blood!

Radiant Hope: He is a monster! He used to be my friend. But now he is nothing but a monster that I never want to see again.

Lincoln: Not to mention that he's also one of the bad guys we have to face during the War on April 12th.

Me: I know. He's pure evil and we have to make sure he pays for his crimes.

Nico then got a call and it was from Commissioner Gordon.

Nico: Yes sir Commissioner. We'll be right over.

He hung up.

Nico: Guys, we need to get to G.C.P.D. Commissioner Gordon's reported that Jack Ryder's gone missing.

Me: Not this time.

May: Say what?!

Lori: Look, the war involving the Equestria villains is literally going to happen soon. And we have to spend all of our free time preparing for it.

Maria: Even if it means ignoring other crimes?!

Lola: Well, there are other heroes who can find Jack Ryder, right?

Block Man: Well, you guys might not want to help find Jack Ryder. But we will.

With that, the rest of us went out. All except for William.

Lynn: William, you don't understand. The crimes of King Sombra and the other Equestrian bad guys are unforgiveable.

William: (to me and the Loud Kids) We're aware of that. But with Great Power Comes Great Responsibility. You know, it's this kind of attitude that drove Nico away in the first place. (walks out the door)

Brittney: Me and the Goths of Darkness and the Dark Signers will all go after King Sombra.

Me: Are you sure Brittney?

Brittney: I'm positive dad. You got your shot in to kill him on your birthday. Let me the Goths and Dark Signers handle this. I want to show him the ultimate power of the forces of darkness.

Me: Well okay Brittney. Nico, we're coming with.

Nico: AWESOME!

Me: Be careful guys. King Sombra is a ruthless and malevolent monster.

Brittney: I know. King Sombra is Pure Evil Incarnate and he will answer for his crimes.

Red Ghost, Multiple Man, Madame Masque, Boomerang, Firepower, Firebrand, Titanium Man and Overdrive then appeared.

Red Ghost: (Russian Accent) Can me, Multiple Man, Madame Masque, Boomerang, Firepower, Firebrand, Titanium Man, and Overdrive come with you all? Even if J.D. and the others are not going on this mission?

Me: You all sure can. But I decided to go with Nico and everyone. Brittney and the Goths and Dark Signers all have the situation with King Sombra under control.

Bonz: I'll go with them too.

Webstor: Same with me and Raven here.

Raven Branwen: Lars is my archenemy so that technically makes me part of the Goths of Darkness. So I'll go with them too.

Me: Okay. Be careful guys.

Red Ghost: Great!

The Goths of Darkness went out to face King Sombra.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to Gotham P.D.

Magma Man: (to me and the Loud Kids) I thought you guys were going to obsess over training for the War in April.

Me: When two missions surface we have to split up evenly to take them on. That's why I made a bunch of branch teams in case this kind of thing arises.

Nico: Good thinking.

Lincoln: Yeah. Brittney and the Goths of Darkness will handle King Sombra.

Laney: Lucy will be fine.

Lola: Yep.

We arrived at G.R.Y.P.D. Headquarters.

Madame Masque: Sorry we're late, Commissioner. We had a brief disagreement over priorities.

Me: Yeah there's a ruthless tyrant that we're supposed to take down on April 12th terrorizing the world. But Brittney and the Goths of Darkness are in pursuit of him right now.

Commissioner Gordon: That's all right. But thank you all for coming.

Me: You're welcome. We've been so busy saving the universe and all that. And we haven't gone after any of Gotham's villains in a while.

Commissioner Gordon: I know. But thank goodness you all came. Jack Ryder my chief interrogator has gone missing.

Me: Uh oh.

Solar Man: So, you're saying that Jack Ryder has gone missing?

Commissioner Gordon: I'm afraid so and we don't know where he went to or who might be responsible.

Me: Weird.

Nico: Yeah.

Boomerang: Wasn't Ryder doing some work in the interrogation room?

Commissioner Gordon: Yes he was.

Me: We can take a look at the security cameras. Every Interrogation Room has one.

Nico: Good idea.

Fu: Hopefully we can find out more from there.

We looked at the security cameras and saw him working on something in the interrogating room. But the images were too blurry to get a clear view. But whatever it was it was important.

Me: I can't make it out. This image is too blurry to make a clear description.

Bullock: I don't know if this will help. But Ryder said he was looking into a story involving some nutjob named Deacon Blackfire.

Manterror: Who's Deacon Blackfire?

Me: Oh man! I know Deacon Blackfire! He's the leader of an incredibly diabolical Satanic cult called the Order of St. Dumas

Nico: I've heard of them! They are a dangerous Sacrificial Cult.

Me: Their history is just as dangerous as the Project at Eden's Gate.

I went over Deacon Blackfire and the Cult's history.

---

Deacon Blackfire

A power-crazed priest, charismatic conman and cult leader, Deacon Blackfire used his skills in religion and conmanship to indoctrinate and brainwash the impoverished and homeless population of Gotham City to serve as members and followers in his cult and aid him in his quest to control Gotham City and beyond. Blackfire personally claimed to be over a hundred years old and to be a Native American shaman who was entombed alive after being found guilty of killing a tribal chief and committing heresy. Blackfire claimed the secret to his eternal youth was bathing in buckets of human blood, and he used his charm and powers of manipulation to brainwash Gotham's impoverished and homeless into an army of cultists, religious fanatics and devout followers to serve his will and provide victims for his sacrifices. He was the main antagonist of Gotham's Most Wanted Mission: Lamb to the Slaughter.

Early Life

Joseph Blackfire was a priest who at one point in time owned an orphanage and a poor house, as evidenced by a series of record tapes from his followers.

According to Jack Ryder's final research tape, Deacon Blackfire was known with the early Miagani people as well, who shot him with arrows and sealed him in a cave; one of the police records that Aaron Cash found revealed that Blackfire was wanted for, among other things, multiple counts of tax evasion and fraud with one file even dating all the way back to the 1920s.

Lamb to the Slaughter

After Batman rescued Oracle, Jack Ryder went to investigate the Lady of Gotham for his story, but he was captured by Deacon Blackfire and his followers and strapped up for sacrifice at an altar surrounded by an electrical fence. Blackfire prepared to sacrifice Ryder, but he was interrupted by Batman. Blackfire promptly ordered his cultists to attack Batman using a variety of weapons ranging from melee weapons to guns. Despite the cultists' best efforts to try to kill Batman, Batman soundly defeated them all after which he proceeded to destroy the electrical generator for the fence and grapple up to Blackfire and knock him out. Blackfire was locked up in the GCPD Lockup along with the villains that Batman defeated, where he would continue to preach his word and beliefs, much to the chagrin of the other high-profile inmates. Blackfire's sacrificial knife and prayer book were placed in the GCPD Evidence Room in a display case.

The Order of St. Dumas

Before Arkham City

At some point before Batman Arkham City, Batman would face a man named Michael Lane whom was a former police officer who was subjected to experiments to make him into a super-human. Sadly, as is often the case in these situations, Michael Lane would grow corrupted by his power and went on a crusade to challenge Batman in a fight to the death to finally prove who the better lawman was.

After being humiliatingly beaten by the Batman, Michael Lane grew ashamed of his past behavior and fled before he could be captured. Michael Lane would eventually be found by the Order. Seeing it as an opportunity to redeem himself for his past, Michael Lane willingly took up the title of Azrael and devoted himself to the Order and their goals, not realizing that they were secretly stripping him of his free will in order to make him into the perfect weapon.

During Arkham City

The Order of St. Dumas had long wanted to be the guiding force against crime and corruption in Gotham. When news came that Bruce Wayne/Batman was rumored to be currently in Arkham City, the Order jumped at the opportunity. Sending Azrael out to earn Batman's trust. The Order provided the Dark Knight with a cryptic message that would come true one year later.

During Arkham Knight

On the night of Scarecrow's revenge, amongst all the chaos, the Order finally decided to make their move. Sending Azrael to trick and kill Batman, so that they could take his place. But Batman, whom had grown suspicious of Azrael and the Orders motives, discovered the truth, and, depending on the choice, either beat Azrael unconsious and left for the police or freed Azrael from his mind control.

If the latter option is chosen, then Azrael, freed of his mind control, will vow revenge against the Order for what they have done to him.

Behavior

To date, not much has been revealed about this shadowy organizations methods. However, it can be safely assumed that they share similar views as the League of Assassins. They appear to believe that Gotham's savior has to be willing and relentless to the point where they will do anything, including kill, to get the desired result. Since Batman was clearly unwilling to go that far in his crusade, the Order decided that another would have to take his place.

---

When I was finished everyone gasped in shock!

Nico: WHOA!

Laney: That is sick!

Lori: Literally disgusting!

Me: Yeah! But the difference with Project At Eden's Gate and the Order of St. Dumas is that P.A.E.G. was a Doomsday Cult. This is a Satanic Sacrificial Cult.

Blackout: Let's look over the notes in Ryder's desk so we can learn more.

Me: Got it.

We looked at Ryder's notes and found something rather interesting.

Nico: Hmm.

Titanium Man: Did you find anything, Nico?

Nico: As a matter of fact I did and it's not good. Ryder was doing some investigating on them and they found out that they were gonna look for him and sacrifice him to their so-called god so that Blackfire and his followers can get immortality.

We gasped.

Me: HOW FUCKED UP IS THIS JERK!?

Nico: Obviously fucked up to the brink.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Darkwing: Knowing Ryder, he probably went looking for Deacon Blackfire anyway to get a good story.

Bullock: Hey, I tried to stop him. But he started shouting at me about "The Freedom of Press". More like "The Freedom of Getting Killed".

Me: Oh man! He must have some kind of death wish. I've read about all kinds of cults like this from over the centuries and they are not good.

Batman: He must be a fool to go after the Order of St. Dumas alone!

Me: We got to find him and destroy that entire cult. But something is telling me that this cult is heavily guarded.

Nico: No it's not. They are not terroristic like the Phineas Priesthood or Al-Qaeda. But they are dangerous.

Me: Well that's a relief.

Firebrand: First, we need to find out where Deacon Blackfire and his cult are.

Me: Let me see here.

I pulled up a satellite scan of the city and found their hideout in an abandoned recreational yard on the north side of the city.

Me: He's in an abandoned Recreational Yard.

Nico: I know where that is. It's the old Royal Woods Rec Center. It was shut down after it was moved to another building when the city was expanding.

Me: Then that's where we're heading. We're going to kill Blackfire and throw all of his followers in prison.

Varie: He's a monster.

Bullock: Make sure you guys come back with Ryder safe and sound.

Wingspan: Any specific reason?

Bullock: When Ryder comes back, I want to be waiting for him with a big heaping bowl of 'I-Told-You-So'.

Me: Noted Harvey. Come on guys. It's time for us to disband a cult! (Eyes glow red)

Nico: YEAH!

Me: Lets roll!

We went to the north side of the city.

Me: Okay we're gonna come in and take them by surprise.

Nico: I can do the entrance this time.

Me: Cool!

Overdrive: (sees a nearby car) I'll use my powers on that car so we can get there faster!

Me: Great! Go for it.

He brought the car over to us and they got in and we were flying too.

In the abandoned rec center yard, The Order of St. Dumas was getting Jack Ryder ready for sacrifice.

Deacon Blackfire: My children let us sacrifice this heathen so that we may be blessed with immortality!

They cheered.

But then the Dragonballs appeared and glowed with the elemental forces of nature of the Shadow Dragons and they spun around and then…

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off and a phoenix cry was heard and we came out.

Deacon Blackfire: Who dares disrupt this ritual?

Maria: We do, you Frollo copycat!

Me: Deacon Blackfire, your angel of death has come. We've come to kill you!

Deacon Blackfire: This is sacred ground, heathens. You all do not belong here! But God has sent you all so that I may bathe in your blood too!

Wildly: That's the least of your problems!

Wildly goes over to where Jack Ryder was tied up and ripped off a skin patch from him.

Jack Ryder turned into THE CREEPER!

Lincoln: He's also the Creeper!? WOW!

The Creeper: (Laughing Crazily) And I will make him pay!

Me: Get in line Jack. It's time for us to kill this Satan-Worshiping Fuckmonger!

Deacon Blackfire was infuriated that I would accuse him of worshiping the Devil!

Me: You are nothing more than a filthy heratic Blackfire!

I teleported and kicked him in the face and knocked him into the wall.

May: Time to make sure you die, Deacon!

Deacon Blackfire: You and what army, infidels?!

Multiple Man: Us and THIS army!

Multiple Man made 24 copies of himself.

Me: And THIS ARMY!

All the Masters of Evil and Naruto made shadow clones as well!

Me: You will pay for your crimes Blackfire! HELL AWAITS!

Eli: And the Devil will love eating you!

Nico: You and your followers have failed this universe!

Spymaster then appeared.

Nico: Just you this time, Spymaster?

Spymaster: Nope. I brought 7 new recruits with me.

7 figures came out and they were Guy Pompton A.K.A. EVIL STAR, Harry Key A.K.A. THE KEY, Paul Booker A.K.A. MAJOR DISASTER, Jai West A.K.A. THE TURTLE, June Moone A.K.A. ENCHANTRESS, Eric Needham A.K.A. BLACK SPIDER and Kenuichio Harada A.K.A. SILVER SAMURAI!

Me: Guy Pompton A.K.A. EVIL STAR, Harry Key A.K.A. THE KEY, Paul Booker A.K.A. MAJOR DISASTER, Jai West A.K.A. THE TURTLE, June Moone A.K.A. ENCHANTRESS, Eric Needham A.K.A. BLACK SPIDER and Kenuichio Harada A.K.A. SILVER SAMURAI!

Evil Star: That's right.

Silver Samurai: It's an honor to meet you all.

Evil Star: I just want to thank you guys for getting rid of Luthor. The guy was an asshole.

Me: He was worse than that Guy. He was practically the worst ever monster ever known. He made practically everyone believe that he was a nice and charitable guy. But in reality he was a Wolf in Sheep's Clothing that would stop at nothing to destroy the Justice League and kill them.

Evil Star: That's a good way to put it.

The Key: It's an honor to meet you, J.D.

Major Disaster: (To Green Lantern Hal Jordan) Hey, Green Lantern. It's been a long time since I last saw you.

Hal Jordan: It sure has been a while Paul. Last time we fought I was fighting Parallax.

Major Disaster: I remember that. That was amazing seeing you fight the Embodiment of Fear.

Nico: That was awesome.

Me: It sure was.

Sinestro: And it was great that Hal put up a great fight with the very embodiment of fear itself.

Me: It sure was.

Turtle: I know I might look like a turtle. But I'm not really one.

Me: That's all right Jai. But you would love fighting the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles.

Leo: That's right dude!

Donny: Yeah you look awesome as one of us.

Raph: It's gnarly!

Mikey: Awesome!

Enchantress: (to the Mystic Force Rangers) It's an honor meeting fellow magic users like myself.

Nick Russell: Same here.

Vida Rocca: We use the power of light magic and use it to fight evil.

Me: That's right and I am the one that killed Octomus the Master.

Enchantress: Wow! That is amazing! I heard from Vypra that he was dangerous.

Me: All that and more. He was a ruthless monster and I banished him to the Warp for his crimes.

Madison Rocca: He sure did and he got all our magic back to full power.

Me: Not to brag but that was one of our most amazing adventures.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow.

Black Spider: (to Spiderman) It's kind of weird that we're both similar.

Spiderman: It sure does doesn't it?

Nico: I'll say.

Silver Samurai: Is it true that my Disk Wars counterpart helped you all before?

Me: He sure did and he helped us take down the Celebrity 5.

Twilight Sparkle: That was an amazing adventure.

Lincoln: It sure was.

Vince: It'll be awesome seeing you fight in one of our usual battles.

Like with fellow Samurai and I am a descendent of Samurai from Japan.

Silver Samurai: Indeed it will Vince.

?: Don't forget me in the mix.

3 figures came out. 1 was INCISERATOR from episodes 19, 20 and 21 of Mighty Morphin and with him were Rebecca Jones A.K.A. NEW WAVE and BUI!

---

Inciserator

A monster created by Lord Zedd, the Inciserator blasted at the rangers with his wand and was a distraction as Kimberly Ann Hart was kidnapped by Goldar. Lord Zedd later withdrew Inciserator after Goldar succeeded in his mission.

New Wave

New-Wave was the leader of the mercenary group called the Masters of Disaster. Each member of this group controlled a natural force from nature. Their main opponents over the years have been the Outsiders.

They first appeared when they were hired by a Mrs. Shelton to exact revenge upon Black Lightning for the death of her daughter, Trina Shelton. The death had been an accident but Mrs. Shelton paid New Wave and her team to capture and kill Black Lightning. The Masters blackmailed the Outsiders into handing Black Lightning over whereupon they took him to a secret offshore oil rig. The Outsiders followed and succeeded in freeing Black Lightning before the sentence could be carried out.

The Outsiders fought New Wave and the Masters of Disaster on many occasions, including during an overthrow attempt in Markovia. Baron Bedlam had hired the Masters to counter any superhero intervention. In the end, the attempt failed and New Wave encountered an additional casualty when her younger sister Windfall defected to the Outsiders.

More recently, New Wave and Shakedown teamed up in a kidnapping scheme. The kidnapping attempt went awry due to the two of them misunderstanding the financial ability of the parent. New Wave drowned her partner in a rage, but enough clues were left behind that the JSA was able to track her down and capture her in a large test tube before the child could be harmed.

Bui

Bui (武威, Bui ) was a member of Team Toguro during the events of the Dark Tournament Saga and a villain in Yu Yu Hakusho .

He was voiced by Tetsuo Kaneo in the Japanese version and by Vic Mignogna in the FUNimation dub.

Prior to the Dark Tournament finals, Bui had never spoken during the tournament. Instead he was only shown breathing heavily through his thick, heavy-armored helmet. It wasn't until when Hiei fought him that Bui spoke for the first time in the Tournament. Removing his armor, which is what keeps his immense energy contained, is considered to be the highest compliment Bui gives.

As a person, Bui is calm and seems very peaceful. He rarely displays emotion, never seeming angry or sad. He is polite, speaking formally when addressing others. Unlike Karasu or Elder Toguro, Bui does not like to torture his opponents and relish in their pain and suffering. He tries to finish his battles as quickly as possible. He has a code of honor, never fighting using dishonest means.

Both Bui and Karasu had an equal hatred for Toguro, as both of them where defeated by him a long time ago before the events of the last Dark Tournament. This became the motivation for which the two of them kept training and improving their skills, so that one of them might some day be able to get back at Younger Toguro, and ultimately kill him. Bui had never openly mentioned this motive until his fight against Hiei.

Bui and Karasu have a different relationship from the Toguro Brothers. Unlike the Toguro Brothers, who are very close, Bui and Karasu seem detatched from each other. They respect each other but when Karasu was killed by Kurama, Bui remained stoic and did not shed a tear for him. It can be assumed that if Bui had died first, Karasu would react the same way.

---

Tommy Oliver: Inciserator!

Inciserator: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to distract the Rangers while Goldar kidnaps Kimberly.

Inciserator: That's right J.D. Good memory.

Vypra: Told you it was that sharp.

Inciserator: (to the Mighty Morphin Rangers) You Rangers never did get a chance to destroy me the first time.

Tommy Oliver: Well this time we will finish that job.

Me: And you better start praying.

Lincoln: Yeah!

Me: Rebecca Jones A.K.A. New Wave!

Hiei: And Bui.

New Wave: (to Maria) It's an honor to fight the second in command of the Redemption Squad.

Maria: And it will be an honor to fight a fellow water user.

New Wave: I won't disappoint you Aquamaria.

Maria: Haven't been called that name in a long time. This is gonna be fun.

Bui: (to Goku) It's an honor to fight you, Master Goku.

Goku: Bui it's good to see you again.

Bui: Same to you and J.D. it's been a long time.

Me: It sure has Bui. You put up an amazing fight when me and Hiei fought you the last time and it was awesome.

Nico: I'll never forget seeing that. That was awesome.

Lincoln: Yeah it was.

Bui: I owe you all one for taking down Toguro.

Me: He was a very worthy adversary and he gave it everything he got.

Nico: He sure did.

Lola: Yeah.

Nico: I have a feeling this battle will get intense.

Me: Me too. Lets take this to another planet so people don't get hurt.

Vypra: Good idea. I have just the planet.

She snapped her fingers and we were on a volcanic world. We were on Goop's home planet VISCOSIA!

---

Viscosia is an igneous rock-encrusted, volcanic planet and the home planet of the Polymorphs.

Molten magma flows freely on Viscosia, constantly shaping and reshaping the jagged planetary surface in its path. Lava weeps out from fissures in the ever-changing landscape.

Viscosia has a lighter gravitational force than Earth.

History

When their original home planet was destroyed under mysterious circumstances, the Polymorphs' scientific community sent explorers out into the universe to find a suitable planet to relocate their species. Viscosia was an uninhabited planet, it is here in the intense heat, among the unstable solids, that Polymorphs made it their new home planet.

* * *

Me: Whoa!

Nico: Wow! Look at this planet.

Lola: Wow!

Laney: This planet is incredible.

Vypra: This is Goop's home planet, Viscosia.

Me: Whoa! So this is Viscosia! I was kind of thinking it would be a gelatinous planet.

Nico: Yeah me too! I didn't think it would be a volcanic world.

Ben: Me neither.

Riley: But it's really cool seeing Goop's home planet.

Julie Yamamoto: It sure is. I think so too.

Shanan: It sure is neat and we're 7,200 light years away from Earth.

Lightning: Yeah.

Me: Lets get it on.

We went at them.

Tommy Oliver: It was awesome. That was one of the most epic battle we've ever had over the course of 20 years.

Twilight Sparkle: It sure was. The Power Rangers from over the course of 20 years from 1993 to 2013 teamed up in one of the most awesome fights ever.

Luster Dawn: They sure did and it was an unforgettable sight.

Princess Celestia: That was so much fun to watch.

Evil Star: Boy I can tell. Princess Luna, I heard that J.D. helped find your Children of the Night for you.

Princess Luna: He sure did. Thanks to visions of the past he had in his dreams.

Princess Cadance: Dreams have sometimes been viewed as visions into the past and the future.

Snowdrop: They sure have. J.D. found me frozen in a block of ice after 1,000 years. He and Laney helped bring me back after 1,000 years.

Gari: And on the first Wolf Moon of the Year, J.D. found me and my siblings in mother's mansion and moved us to the estate.

Evil Star: That's amazing!

Flurry Heart: It sure is.

Lilly Crystal: You said it.

Cloud Star: Yeah it is.

Evil Star: I heard that Brittney and the Goths of Darkness are heading out to fight King Sombra.

Minuette: They sure are and it is gonna be a powerful fight.

Twinkleshine: King Sombra is gonna pay the ultimate price for his crimes.

Evil Star: I've read all about King Sombra and how dangerous he was all those years ago. He's pure evil incarnate.

Princess Amore: That's the right term to call him. He killed me and J.D. brought be back to life.

Radiant Hope: The creature I once called my friend is now nothing but a monster. A Devil in pony form.

---

The Key was next.

Key: (to T.J. Johnson) Between your Red Turbo powers and your Blue In Space powers, which do you prefer?

T.J. Johnson: Oh gosh that's a tough one. But I like both powers.

Sunset Shimmer: They are awesome though. It's hard to decided which series of Power Rangers is one of my favorites. I've watched all the series with Nico and everyone and it's awesome!

Key: It sure is. I've been a huge Power Rangers fan too. The worst villain I think in my opinion is Master Org.

Cayenne: Boy he REALLY was the worst.

Pepperdance: Master Org killed Cole's parents in Cold Blood.

Wallflower: Yeah he was a monster. And I'm glad he was banished to the Warp when everyone fasted him.

Key: I bet. He has no honor.

Apple Bloom: No he doesn't. And he deserved to be destroyed for everything he did.

Sweetie Belle: Also you probably know about this but did you know that Vypra hates Queen Bansheera with a vengeance?

Key: I sure do. Bansheera double-crossed her and had her merge with her to become whole again. What a monster!

Scootaloo: No kidding! I'm glad she tortured and banished her to the Warp.

Diamond Tiara: Absolutely! She was worse than Rita.

Frozen Fright: No monster is worse than Rita Repulsa, Diamond Tiara.

Silver Spoon: Yeah she was an absolute nightmare.

Thunder Terror: You got that right. She has no honor just like ALL the Power Rangers Villains.

Magma Gloom: Yeah they are the worst.

Key: No kidding. But I know that Equestria has had it's share of villains but who do you think is the worst of them all?

Toxic Horror: Oh that's a tough one but I would have to say that Queen Chrysalis was the worst.

Louie PoisonSea: She turned into Princess Cadance so that she could bring down the defenses of Canterlot and have the Changelings destroy it.

Gusty: She is a monster. I'm glad J.D. killed her.

Dan: Me too.

Drago: Same here!

Jet Link: Yeah!

Key: I'm glad too. Lets get it on!

---

Major Disaster was next.

Major Disaster: (to Tyler Nevarro) The new Dino Fury Rangers are similar to your team.

Tyler Navarro: I remember seeing that. That is so cool. But we're gonna have to wait about a year to a year and a half before we meet them.

Fluttershy: It took about that long for everyone to meet the Beast

Morpher Rangers from what I heard. But the wait was worth it.

Tree Hugger: It was a groovy wait for them dudes.

Mage Meadowbrook: The Dino Fury series started last week and it was really epic so far.

Seabreeze: (Swedish Accent) Ja I think so too. It's most amazing.

Major Disaster: I think so too. But that Void Knight looks like someone I would not want to mess around with.

Tyler Navarro: Me neither. But it's still too early into the series to find out if he is the main villain or not.

Zecora: Indeed. The show has yet to begun and all things can have their fun.

Shun: But the new rangers are all cool so far.

Storm Skyress: They sure are.

Françoise: I think so too.

Major Disaster: Indeed. Lets get it on!

Major Disaster sent massive showers of meteors and they dodged them all.

Goku: That's true. But I'm not fighting for myself to be famous. I fight just to test my limits. And I fight to protect my loved ones.

Bui: That is a powerful drive. Lets see how strong you are.

He formed a huge axe and swung it at him and Goku kicked it away.

Bui: That was impressive. Now lets see how you like this. I will remove my armor.

He started removing his armor.

Bui: You should know two things Goku, I normally save this for very worthy adversaries and this is the highest compliment I can give.

Goku: I'm honored.

He threw his arm band away and it crashed through the ground with incredible force.

THUD!

Goku: WHOA! Piccolo and Pikkon both wear weighted clothes like you do. It's great.

Bui: I'm honored. But most fighters wear armor to protect themselves from their opponent. (Takes off his helmet) But I'm the opposite. (Takes off face plate) I actually wear this armor to protect my opponent from myself. (Scar glows) You see, my powers are so great I can't control them on my own.

His eyes glowed and a massive neon green aura exploded out of him and the level of power it emitted was incredible!

Goku: WHOA! Your power is incredible! You've gotten stronger since the last time you fought J.D. and Hiei.

Bui: I sure have. Now I'd like to see you top it.

Nico took Blackfire's knife and threw it at him but he dodged it at the last second.

Nico: DAMMIT! I MISSED!

Me: But I won't.

I pulled out a dagger slashed my wrist and coated the blade with my blood and threw it and it stabbed Blackfire in his black heart. He then disintegrated into a pile of dust and he was erased from existence forever.

Me: Good riddance.

We were back on Earth and Harvey and all of Gotham Police arrested all of his followers. We counted over 104 of them.

Me: You guys are getting life for all this.

Harvey Bullock: Hey, Ryder.

Jack Ryder: Yeah?

Harvey Bullock: (smirks) I told you so!

Rhinox: (laughs) Sorry, Mr. Ryder. But he did try to tell you.

Me: Yep.

We laughed.

Me: Wait! Now we head over and see if Brittney needs help with dealing with King Sombra.

Nico: Right! Lets go!

---

Earlier with Brittney and her group, the Goths were all looking for King Sombra. Knowing how malevolent he was and how he was full of surprises as a shadow and more, he was gonna be difficult to catch and all that.

Brittney: You might as well show yourself Sombra.

Then a vortex of shadow came and out of it came KING SOMBRA HIMSELF! His eyes were overflowing with PURE EVIL!

King Sombra: So the Goths of Team Loud Phoenix Storm have come to die.

Brittney: You're the one that's going to die Sombra. You're going to pay for your crimes.

Lucy Loud: You have terrorized the lands with your hatred.

Lars: And you ruined so many lives with your tyranny.

Carly Atlas: And so many ponies all suffered because of it!

Roman Goodwin: Your hatred and tyranny ends now!

Bonz: Yeah!

King Sombra laughed malevolently!

Brittney snapped her fingers and they were on the home planet of the Sith, MORABAND!

---

Moraband, known in antiquity as Korriban, was an Outer Rim planet that was home to the ancient Sith. The desolate and mountainous world was abandoned after many ancient wars. The Valley of the Dark Lords on the planet's surface was the final resting place of Darth Bane, the Sith Lord who created the Rule of Two. During the Clone Wars, Yoda ventured to the abandoned world as part of his journey to discover the secrets of eternal consciousness.

Moraband, known as Korriban in ancient times, was the homeworld of the Sith. It once had a fertile habitat, much like Exegol, Ziost, and Asog, though the worlds fell to the dominion of the Sith and Moraband was left an abandoned wasteland after their many wars. Despite this, its existence was never forgotten by the Sith. Darth Bane, who created the Rule of Two a millennium before the rise of the Galactic Empire, was the last Sith Lord to be buried at Moraband's Valley of the Dark Lords.

During the Clone Wars, Yoda was sent to Moraband by the Force Priestesses as part of his journey to discover the secrets of eternal consciousness. Once there, he encountered a number of Sith spirits, including that of Darth Bane himself. As he ventured further into the Valley of the Dark Lords, he encountered visions created by Darth Sidious, the reigning Dark Lord of the Sith who attempted to corrupt Yoda to help win the Clone Wars. The plan failed, and Yoda left Moraband behind. During one of his first visits to Moraband, Sidious discovered and stole a huge Sith holocron, which he later stored in his secret lair in the Grand Republic Medical Facility.

Some time after the end of the Galactic Civil War, Luke Skywalker traveled to Moraband to investigate about the Force.

---

Brittney was ready to face him.

Brittney: You have terrorized the world for far too long King Sombra.

She had a ring of darkness appear around her feet.

Brittney: It's time I show you just how powerful the Empress of Darkness can be when I unleash my full power.

Then a massive vortex of darkness exploded out and enveloped Brittney and she it went high into the sky and into space. It turned into her cutie mark and the massive energies of stars and all that flowed into it. The ground of Moraband shook violently and lightning struck all over as Brittney's power was rising astronomically at an accelerated rate! Her power could be felt all over the entire universe and she was absorbing Negative Energy from all over as she was powering up. The symbol went back and the vortex faded and in the middle of a ring of darkness stood Brittney and she was forever changed! She had longer black hair in a braid, but it now had crimson red highlights in it and she had visible vampire fangs and her eyes had pitch black sclera and her pupils were glowing blue and she had a vampire bat with the kanji for Empress of Darkness embladed in the middle of it. She had earrings in the shape of the kanji for dark. She was now wearing a black dress made of pure black fire and she had a crimson red and black sleeveless trench coat with a castle of darkness, bats and blood on it and it had the kanji for Brittney Raven Knudson - Ultimate Empress of Darkness and Master of the Night on it. She also had a sword of powerful darkness. She had transformed into a SUPER ANGEL 100,000,000 VAMPIRIC COLD NIGHT DARKNESS!

Battle with Super Android 13

It was morning at the World Tree Estate and our favorite mascots were getting up.

Poromon and Poliwag woke up.

Poromon: Good morning, Poliwag.

Poliwag: Huh? Morning. (Burps) Oh pardon me.

Poromon laughed.

Poliwag laughed too.

It was funny.

In Sheila's room, she was getting ready for work and having some donuts.

Poliwag: Good morning, Sheila!

Sheila: Oh morning Poliwag.

Poliwag: What are you doing?

Sheila: Got to get ready for work. I got a call about some burglaries that have been happening over the last few days.

Poliwag: Good luck with getting them.

Sheila: Won't need it but thank you.

Poliwag: You're welcome.

In the kitchen, Nanette was getting her breakfast ready.

Poromon: Good morning, Nanette!

Nanette: Oh morning Poromon. Just making my breakfast.

Poromon: What are you having?

Nanette: I'm having pancakes.

Poromon: Yummy.

In the indoor skate park, Stacy was doing some awesome moves in skating.

Poliwag: Good morning, Stacy!

Stacy Bolton: Yahoo! (Lands) Morning Poliwag.

Poliwag: Nice moves.

Stacy Bolton: Thanks. Practicing a bunch of awesome new moves for an awesome tournament later this week.

Poliwag: Cool!

Later I was reading the paper.

Me: Hmm. Looks like nothing is going down.

Lincoln: Things have been very quiet.

Me: Yep.

Twilight Sparkle: Hey J.D. I heard that you all faced and took down the legendary Godzilla King of The Monsters.

Me: We sure did. And that is a really awesome and amazing adventure. But let me tell you what happened when Godzilla made his first appearance.

I had the computer appear and I pulled up an image of Godzilla's Rampage from 1954. The damage that Godzilla caused back then all those years ago was incomprehensible.

Me: These videos were made 67 years ago in 1954. Godzilla made his first appearance and he caught the entire world and all of Japan completely off guard. Most of the entire city of Tokyo was completely destroyed. Thousands of people died and not many people that

Godzilla up close lived to tell about it.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa man. That is horrible!

Me: It was. Damage during his visit back then all those years ago was in the billions. Today it would be trillions of dollars.

Rainbow Dash: That's awful!

Applejack: No kidding. I can't believe that Godzilla would cause so much destruction.

Lincoln: No kidding.

Twilight Sparkle: How was Godzilla even made?

Me: Nuclear Bombs. We were in the Age of Weapons of Mass Destruction back then and the most powerful nuclear bomb ever detonated by the USA made Godzilla.

I pulled up an image of Castle Bravo.

Me: Castle Bravo.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa.

Sunset Shimmer: That's intense.

Lola: It sure is.

Lana: Yeah it is.

Me: Yep. Godzilla has terrorized the world for a long time. Ever since 1954.

Twilight Sparkle: Did they kill Godzilla back then?

Me: They sure did and my grandpa Dean on my dad's side of the family helped kill Godzilla back then. He had a great friend back then. His name was Dr. Daisuke Serizawa. He was a molecular physicist and he invented the one weapon that was capable of killing Godzilla: The Oxygen Destroyer.

Fluttershy: Goodness. What does that do?

Me: It's a deadly weapon that destroys all the oxygen in the water. It suffocated Godzilla and killed him.

I went over what the Oxygen Destroyer was capable of doing and all that and it was shocking.

---

The Oxygen Destroyer (オキシジェン・デストロイヤ Okishijen Desutoroiyā ?) is a weapon of mass destruction used to kill Godzilla in the 1954 Godzilla film, Godzilla .

While the Oxygen Destroyer made its first major appearance in the 1954 film, it has made several appearances in numerous other Godzilla films after its initial appearance.

Origins

The Oxygen Destroyer was the invention of Dr. Daisuke Serizawa. Having devoted his studies to the element oxygen, Serizawa accidentally stumbled upon a volatile and deadly chemical reaction. Though horrified by the destructive potential of his discovery, he nonetheless continued his research, optimistic that some beneficial outcome could be produced from it.

Function

The device works by activating a chemical stored within its spherical center, which causes the center to split in half and open. Once released, the chemical (later dubbed Micro-Oxygen by Kensaku Ijuin) reacts violently with the water, isolating oxygen molecules and splitting them. The molecules are then liquefied. This means that any organism exposed to the chemical will first suffocate from the lack of oxygen, and then disintegrate.

Depending on the amount of the oxygen destroying chemical released, the body of the victim will either be eaten down to the bone or destroyed completely. When used to its full potential, the Oxygen Destroyer will leave no remains. According to Dr. Ijuin, if the Oxygen Destroyer had been used on land, it would have turned Tokyo into a cemetery.

Creatures that thrive in anaerobic environments, however, such as the Precambrian crustaceans that became Destoroyah, can be empowered by the Oxygen Destroyer's chemical reactions and mutate to incorporate Micro-Oxygen within their bodily processes.

In the MonsterVerse, the Oxygen Destroyer is ineffective against organisms that do not require oxygen to survive, such as King Ghidorah. While the Oxygen Destroyer was designed to destroy Titans including Godzilla, the fact the Oxygen Destroyer was only able to grievously injure Godzilla suggests that the larger the organism affected by it, the less of an effect it would have.

History Showa era Godzilla

The weapon was first revealed to Emiko Yamane by Daisuke Serizawa when they were in his lab. He demonstrated it on a tank of fish, which were instantly reduced to skeletons, much to Emiko's horror.

After Godzilla destroys Tokyo, Serizawa reluctantly agreed to allow the Oxygen Destroyer's raw form to be used against the kaiju, but only after destroying his research documents and materials. The formula was still in his memory however, and fearing that it would lead to another arms race, the doctor sacrificed himself as he detonated his device underwater, killing both Godzilla and the chance that his device would become a weapon.

Godzilla, King of the Monsters!

The use of the weapon in this film was almost identical to the 1954 film's, however, Steve Martin is the one to convince Emiko and Ogata to talk to Serizawa about its use.

Heisei era Godzilla vs. Biollante

The Oxygen Destroyer in Godzilla vs. Biollante

For a brief moment, the Oxygen Destroyer appears alongside a statue of the KingGoji suit in Colonel Gondo's office, resting against the wall.

Godzilla vs. Destoroyah

In 1996, Dr. Kensaku Ijuin unveiled an invention he called micro-oxygen, which he intended to benefit humanity, like Serizawa before him. Ijuin confessed that he referred to Serizawa's surviving work when working on micro-oxygen, but never intended to recreate the Oxygen Destroyer after he analyzed the soil where the weapon was fired, determining that it would have "turned Tokyo into a cemetery" if it were used on the ground. Emiko Yamane saw Ijuin being interviewed about the invention by her niece Yukari, and became concerned that Ijuin's invention was dangerously similar to the Oxygen Destroyer.

Emiko begged Yukari and Kenichi Yamane to convince Ijuin to shelve the project, since Serizawa had given up his life to ensure that the Oxygen Destroyer could never be used again for any purpose because of how dangerous it was. Despite their aunt's pleas, Yukari and Kenichi attempted to convince Ijuin to recreate the Oxygen Destroyer, believing it was the only way to stop Godzilla's impending meltdown and save the world. However, Dr. Ijuin revealed another concern, a lifeform had escaped from a soil sample recovered from the site where the Oxygen Destroyer was detonated to kill the first Godzilla in 1954.

Soon, Ijuin was called to investigate when all of the fish in a local aquarium were mysteriously killed. Ijuin determined that the fish were killed by several microscopic creatures that had been mutated by the Oxygen Destroyer and were coming ashore due to the presence of micro-oxygen. These creatures began combining into larger and more fearsome forms and wreaking havoc, eventually combining into a gigantic living incarnation of the Oxygen Destroyer, which Ijuin named Destoroyah. G-Force determined that their best option was to lure Godzilla to Tokyo and have him fight Destoroyah and hopefully be killed before he melted down.

G-Force had Miki Saegusa and Meru Ozawa use their telepathy to lure Godzilla Junior to Tokyo, knowing Godzilla would follow. Junior was attacked by Destoroyah and managed to defeat him after a brutal battle. While Godzilla and his adopted son tried to reunite near Haneda Airport, they were attacked by Destoroyah in his final form, who killed Godzilla Junior and battled Godzilla.

When Godzilla's temperature reached critical, Destoroyah tried to fly away, but was shot down by G-Force's freezer weapons and collided with the superheated ground, vaporizing him and ending the Oxygen Destroyer's destructive legacy once and for all.

Millennium series Godzilla, Mothra and King Ghidorah: Giant Monsters All-Out Attack

In the continuity of Godzilla, Mothra and King Ghidorah it is established that the use of the Oxygen Destroyer against Godzilla was kept a national secret. It was feared that the military would face ridicule over its inability to defeat Godzilla and thus the Japanese Self-Defense Forces were officially credited with the monster's defeat.

Godzilla Against Mechagodzilla

In Godzilla Against Mechagodzilla, the Oxygen Destroyer didn't dissolve Godzilla's skeleton, and Mechagodzilla's blueprints incorporated the original Godzilla's skeleton within it to make the design process and construction less strenuous.

MonsterVerse Godzilla: King of the Monsters

Since the first appearance of Godzilla, the US military had been developing the Oxygen Destroyer as a weapon capable of destroying Titans. After Rodan surfaced in Mexico, Ghidorah was brought to Isla de Mara, Mexico, by the usage of the ORCA used to awaken Rodan. Godzilla followed Ghidorah and engaged his arch-rival as Adrimal Stenz revealed the military had fired a missile containing the Oxygen Destroyer at Godzilla and Ghidorah, despite Dr. Ishiro Serizawa's objections. When the missile hit, Godzilla was grievously injured but Ghidorah emerged unscathed, minus a temporarily missing head. The fallout of the Oxygen Destroyer also killed countless marine life around Isla de Mara, making the water unsuitable for local fishermen.

Video games Godzilla Generations (1998 video game)

One of the playable characters in the game is a giant robotic version of Daisuke Serizawa, who uses a giant version of the Oxygen

Destroyer as his special fighting move. Once activated, the Oxygen Destroyer shoots out bolts of energy that demolish all military vehicles and buildings surrounding Serizawa.

Godzilla (2014 video game)

The Oxygen Destroyer is briefly mentioned in the tutorial level for Godzilla: The Game . The G-Force Operator says that Godzilla was only driven away from Japan back in 1954 because of "Dr. Serizawa's sacrifice."

---

They were shocked and more.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! That's amazing and terrible!

Me: Yeah it was. Dr. Serizara made a powerful capable of killing Godzilla. But to make sure it didn't fall into the wrong hands, Dr. Serizawa destroyed his research papers and sacrificed himself. Taking all of his research and secrets to the grave. But when Godzilla resurfaced in 2018 we used the Oxygen Destroyer to fight Godzilla and kill him like we did 65 years ago.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow!

Rarity: But wait a second. If Dr. Serizawa destroyed his papers how did you make an Oxygen Destroyer?

Me: My grandpa took his papers and he gave them to my dad for safe keeping.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow.

Sunset Shimmer: But I heard that over the course of all those years, Godzilla just kept coming back.

Me: Yep. For over 64 years there has been one Godzilla after another.

I went over his history.

Godzilla (in Japanese: ゴジラ, Gojira ) is the titular main protagonist of the Godzilla franchise, including the movie series, comics, cartoons, and video games, most often serving as an on-and-off villain.

Godzilla is a famous daikaijū, or a Giant movie monster, who first appeared as the titular main antagonist of Ishirō Honda's 1954 classic giant monster film, Godzilla . Since then, Godzilla has gone on to become a worldwide pop culture icon starring in over thirty-two Japanese films produced by Toho Co., Ltd., and three American films; one film released in 1998, produced by TriStar Pictures and featuring Zilla and two films released in 2014 and 2019 by Legendary Pictures and Warner Bros. with a remake to King Kong vs. Godzilla to be released in 2021. The 1998 version is widely disfavored and is not considered a real Godzilla film whilst the 2014/2019 version was generally positively received and is considered to be a real Godzilla film.

With the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki still fresh within the Japanese consciousness, Godzilla was conceived as a monster created by nuclear detonations and a metaphor for nuclear weapons in general. As the film series expanded, the stories took on less serious undertones portraying Godzilla in the role of a hero or an ally of humans, but only when facing a common foe or to protect planet Earth. Sometimes he is admired by children, but even in these depictions, most humans still fear Godzilla. In some films, Godzilla has even teamed up with fellow monsters to save the world or themselves, usually teaming with Anguirus, Rodan and Mothra. Godzilla's most famous enemies are known to be King Ghidorah and Mechagodzilla.

Despite being the main protagonist of the series and normally an anti-hero, Godzilla has committed numerous villainous acts of destroying cities, attacking humanity, and wrecking havoc on the world.

Origin Story

Over the years, Godzilla's origin has been rewritten at least 5 times. However, the only thing that remained consistent was his eventual transformation into a nuclear-enhanced reptilian kaiju.

Showa Era

Dr. Yamane stated that Godzilla was an amphibious reptile of a prehistoric origin that had its habitat destroyed by an American H-bomb, which not only killed its family but also mutated him into a 50-foot kaiju. Consumed by grief and rage over the death of his companions, Godzilla used his newfound powers to destroy humanity and avenge his family until Serizawa's Oxygen Destroyer ultimately killed him. Though this Godzilla did indeed die, Dr. Yamane feared that nuclear weaponry would've inevitably created another Godzilla. His fears turned into reality when a second Godzilla emerged one year later.

In the Millennium Series, the original Godzilla had a greater impact as a posthumous antagonist than in the Heisei and Showa Eras as:

In Godzilla, Mothra and King Ghidorah: Giant Monster All-Out Attack, the original Godzilla was reanimated into a monstrous revenant possessed by the souls of those who died in World War II.

In Godzilla Against Mechagodzilla, the first Godzilla's skeletal remains were used to create Kiryu (the third MechaGodzilla), for the purpose of combating a second Godzilla. As it's creation also involved using the first Godzilla's DNA to enhance Kiryu's movements, Godzilla's memories were unexpectedly integrated into its programming and made it go berserk whenever the second Godzilla roared in pain.

Heisei Era

In the Heisei Era, the species that Godzilla originally was prior to his mutation was re-established as Godzillasaurus, a huge dinosaur mutated by nuclear tests performed on a nearby island called Rongerik in the 1950s. In Godzilla vs. King Ghidorah, the Futurians tried to prevent this by removing the said Godzillasaurus away from Lagos Island and frozen him in the Bering Sea, only for him to actually become Godzilla by being mutated by a crashed nuclear submarine. It was revealed that the Godzilla that the Futurians tried to erase from history and 1954 Godzilla are separate individuals, true to Dr. Yamane's fear that other prehistoric beasts may have survived to the present day and could be transformed into nuclear-enhanced kaiju by nuclear tests.

MonsterVerse series

While his previous incarnations were mutated into nuclear-enhanced kaiju due to nuclear testing, the Legendary incarnation of Godzilla came from a species of prehistoric reptiles known as Titanus Gojira that were naturally evolved to consume nuclear radiation during the Permian period. During the Permian period, Earth was more radioactive than it was today. Because of it, Godzilla's physiology allowed him to manipulate the nuclear energy within him to fire a beam of atomic energy.

There, his species were the absolute strongest Predators of the ancient world. The realm changed forever, however, when the Permian-Triassic extinction event wiped out 95% of all life. With the radioactivity of Earth vastly diminished, Godzilla retreated closer to the Earth's core to absorb radiation from there. Over the course of the next couple hundred million years, Godzilla emerged many times during history, becoming a figure in various cultures around the world as a towering and powerful monster.

In 1954, Godzilla was awakened by a human's nuclear submarine and out of curiosity, caused it to crash. This motivated humanity to study him, while researching methods to kill him by using nuclear weaponry under the guise of the Castle Bravo tests. Though Godzilla was not killed by these tests, he gained awareness of humanity's presence and Godzilla returned to the depths of the earth, believed dead by humanity.

Reiwa Era

Godzilla's origin in Reiwa Era films was greatly altered, though the only thing that remained consistent is his nature as radioactive kaiju.

Godzilla: Resurgence

In Godzilla: Resurgence, Godzilla was proposed to be evolved from a prehistoric marine animal that was surrounded by nuclear waste at the seafloor during the 1950s and rapidly adapted to withstand it. As the creature evolved and began feeding on radioactive materials, it gradually grew over a period of 60 years before taking on a form capable of moving around on land. After coming ashore, the creature evolved further as means of adjusting its physiology until it sprouted arms and adopted an upright stance.

An essay included in The Art of Shin Godzilla theorizes that Godzilla's original form must have possessed large claws and fangs to feed on the canisters of radioactive waste. This was supported by damaged canisters uncovered from the bottom of the sea, as most of those canisters had been partially chewed and bitten by a reptilian creature bigger than a shark. The essay also theorizes that the creature must have spent its entire life underwater and its species was closely related to prehistoric marine reptiles which first emerged in the Paleozoic Era, whose physiology was more primitive than that of the Heisei Godzillasauruses.

Godzilla Anime Series

Rather being than an irradiated ancient reptile or prehistoric marine creature, promotional materials state this incarnation of Godzilla was the ultimate product of evolution on Earth and originated as a plant that acquired new abilities via horizontal gene transfer. While he was still portrayed as a radioactive kaiju due to giving off radioactive pollutants, he was also endowed with electromagnetic abilities that allowed him to produce powerful electromagnetic pulses.

Showa Era (1954-1975)

The Showa Era Godzilla films were among the first of the entire film series. In total, there are fifteen Showa-era films, amounting to over half the total Godzilla movies currently in existence. The first film, made in 1954, was simply titled Godzilla . In the original film, Godzilla was portrayed as a terrible and destructive monster. Following the success of Godzilla, Toho started filming a quickie sequel called Godzilla Raids Again . In this film, a new Godzilla was set up to fight another dinosaur-like creature, Anguirus. This second film started a trend for Godzilla films, where Godzilla would fight other giant monsters. In the 1962 film King Kong vs. Godzilla, Godzilla battles King Kong, and ends on a draw. In the film Mothra vs. Godzilla, Godzilla battles Mothra, killing her, and then her two offspring, only to be cocooned in webbing by them and defeated.

In his fifth film, Ghidorah, the Three-Headed Monster, Godzilla took the role of a hero. From that point on to the end of the Showa series, Godzilla stayed a hero, protecting Japan against attacks from other monsters, aliens, etc. At one point, Godzilla even adopted a son, Minilla, in Son of Godzilla, who would make appearances in later Showa-era films. The Showa-era movies played on a lot of fears and interests of people during the period in which they were made. For instance, the original Godzilla film was a movie designed to warn people about the use and testing of nuclear weapons. Likewise, Godzilla vs. Hedorah was designed to carry a message about the dangers of pollution. As space exploration and the Space Age were extremely popular in the late 1960s and early 1970s, many of Godzilla's films revolved around Godzilla fighting alien monsters or involved an alien invasion in some shape or form. For instance, in the movie Destroy All Monsters, an alien race had managed to take control of all of Earth's monsters, who were eventually freed from their control, and destroyed the aliens who had put them under control.

Godzilla serves as the titular main antagonist of Godzilla, Godzilla Raids Again, King Kong vs. Godzilla, and Mothra vs. Godzilla .

Heisei Era (1984-1995)

The Heisei Era Godzilla films were the second of the film series. In total, there were seven Heisei-era films, making them amount to one-fourth of the total Godzilla movies in existence. The Heisei-era films differed drastically from the Showa-era films in a variety of ways. The most prominent difference is that Toho did away with Godzilla being the hero of the films. While occasionally Godzilla would take the role of an antihero, he was still consistently portrayed as hazardous to humanity throughout the films. The Godzilla outfit was updated to look more realistic and much more intimidating than previous suits. Another significant difference is that the series was given an overall plotline with story arcs. Each movie happened in some sort of sequence, and generally referenced previous movies to further the plot of the series. As in the Showa era, in the first Godzilla movie of the Heisei era, The Return of Godzilla, Godzilla was the only monster to make an appearance. All succeeding Heisei-era movies would have Godzilla fight other giant monsters.

Like the Showa series, Godzilla adopted a son, Baby Godzilla, as his own child. In the final Heisei-era movie, Godzilla vs. Destoroyah, Godzilla dies after undergoing a nuclear meltdown, and his son (by that point almost half as tall as his father and called Godzilla Junior) absorbs the radiation and quickly matures to become the new King of the Monsters. In much the same way that the Showa-era played on fears and interests of people during the time period of production, Heisei-era Godzilla films made some attempts at making statements on popular topics for their time period. One good example would be Godzilla vs. Biollante, which made explicit warnings against research involving genetic engineering. Godzilla vs. King Ghidorah touched on US-Japanese relations stemming from World War II and introduced a time-travel plot. Other themes in the movies included commenting on research into hazardous material and making environmental statements. He serves as the main antagonist of The Return Of Godzilla & Godzilla Vs. Mothra. He was the main antagonist of the second half of Godzilla vs. King Ghidorah and a supporting antagonist in Godzilla vs. Biollante.

Millennium Era (1999-2004)

The Millennium Era of Godzilla films are the third of the film series. There are six of these films, making them slightly under a fourth the total of the series. The Millennium series attempted to bring Godzilla back to his roots by eliminating a few of the things that the Heisei-era films had done. The most notable of these changes are, with one exception, the lack of any real continuity in the movies. Godzilla is, however, still a hazard in the Millennium series and is always a destructive force. He serves as the main antagonist of Godzilla, Mothra, and King Ghidorah: Giant Monsters All-Out Attack, Godzilla Against Mechagodzilla, and Godzilla: Tokyo S.O.S.

Reiwa Era (2016-present) Shin Godzilla

The Reiwa Era starts with the 2016 film Shin Godzilla (also known as Godzilla: Resurgence outside of Japan). The film was written and directed by Hideaki Anno with special effects by Shinji Higuchi. Godzilla served as the main antagonist of the film. The film was released in Japanese theaters on July 29, 2016. It will not be connected to the Legendary series, marking the first time two individual Godzilla film series have been in progress at the same time. The film is notable for its use of "hybrid" special effects, a combination of traditional tokusatsu effects techniques and CGI. It is also the first and currently only Toho Godzilla movie to have no connections with the original 1954 film whatsoever.

In the 1950s, when humanity dumped their nuclear waste into the ocean, they unknowingly poured the waste around a prehistoric marine animal in its habitat that happened to be within the site where nuclear waste being dumped at. As a result, the creature, who later becomes Godzilla, irradiated by the waste, and mutates where he rapidly adapted to withstand it. As the Godzilla evolved and began feeding on radioactive material, he gradually grew over a period of 60 years, and eventually, become the nuclear-powered kaiju that began to approach the mainland.

When the Japanese coast guard investigated a small yacht floating in Tokyo Bay, it discovered that the craft was completely abandoned with no sign of a struggle or the owner's whereabouts. Suddenly, the water began to erupt and steam, causing the Tokyo Bay Aqua-Line to collapse and become flooded by a strange red liquid. The Japanese government concluded that the disaster was due to an underwater volcanic eruption, but assistant cabinet secretary Rando Yaguchi proposed the incident was caused by a gigantic living creature. Yaguchi's claims were dismissed until a huge tail breaking the ocean surface not far from Tokyo Bay. The government assured the citizens that the creature would not surface, only for it crawl out of the bay and into Tokyo with it's evolved form that enables it to walk on land. Stumbling around on its hind legs and pushing itself forward with its tail, the monster destroyed everything in its path while secreting the red liquid from its gills and pouring it onto the streets. The Prime Minister deployed a squadron of helicopters to attack the beast, but when they approached, the monster suddenly evolved again, where the evolution enables it to stood up on two enlarged legs and sprouted arms. The attack was called off when the Prime Minister learned civilians were still evacuating the area, while the still-evolving monster, whom for an unknown reason, sprints off for the ocean.

Kayoko Ann Patterson, the representative of the American ambassador, revealed that the abandoned yacht at Tokyo Bay belonged to a zoologist named Goro Maki, who was researching a huge living creature moving on the seafloor that he named "Gojira" after a legend in his hometown on Odo Island. The said living creature is the same Kaiju that attacked Tokyo earlier. His research later learned by the American Department of Energy whom dubbed the monster "Godzilla" instead. Based on this information, the researchers concluded that Godzilla was feeding on nuclear waste on the seafloor, and sustained himself through nuclear fission in his body that explained how he leaves a trail of radiation in his wake during the rampage in Tokyo, but also made him overheat and forced him to return to the ocean to cool off just as he evolved to the point of sprouted developing arms and having his legs enlarged for better locomotion.

Godzilla once again emerged shortly afterward at Kamakura, with new, better form after cooling himself off in the ocean. The J.S.D.F. scrambled its forces to engage Godzilla, with the Prime Minister finally giving the order to fire. Unfortunately, the J.S.D.F.'s weaponry had absolutely no effect on Godzilla thanks to the kaiju's nigh-impenetrable hide. Godzilla himself, on the other hand, ignore the assault and proceed to Tokyo due to him not seeing them as a threat, right toward the government's current meeting location. Once Prime Minister allowed United States to deployed several B-2 Spirit Stealth Bombers, however, that was the moment Godzilla decided to fight back: Their bombs successfully penetrate and injured his hide, enraging him that he released his atomic breath that also obliterating three districts of Tokyo. The stray atomic breath unexpectedly downing the helicopter holding the Prime Minister and the high-ranking government officials. After expending such a huge amount of energy from counterattack, Godzilla stopped moving and entered a state of hibernation.

The attempt to study his physiology by both Japanese and American forces once he becomes incapacitated proved difficult with nuclear radiation that emitted from his body would be threatened to damage their equipment should they went too close. At the same time, Yaguchi and the other members of his research team uncovered the rest of the zoologist's research on Godzilla's physiology. The combined research led to the conclusion that Godzilla expelled so much radiation (which worsened with him exhausted his powers) that he would be unable to move again for approximately fifteen days. It was also determined that Godzilla came about as a result of prehistoric marine animal feeding on nuclear waste on the seafloor evolving into a superorganism he has become now. Aside from nuclear fission in his body that becomes a source of his powers, Godzilla is capable to survive as long as air and water are available as additional sustenance for his survival. Also, due to nature of his creation, Godzilla's healing factor was so potent that not only he able to regenerate his wounds in an instant, but any pieces of his flesh that broken off from his body (whether it was due to injuries from his enemies' attack or self-mutilation) can continue to live on their own and evolve and regenerate into entire creatures in the same manner with starfishes, becoming new Godzillas. In this scenario, Earth could be overrun by rapidly-evolving progenies of Godzilla if Godzilla himself was not stopped.

The UN, headed by the US government and unaware of this weakness, informs Japan that the use of thermonuclear weapons against Godzilla is inevitable after learned the Godzilla's physiology. Unwilling to see nuclear weapons detonated in Japan again, Patterson decides to use her political connections to buy Yaguchi's team as much time as possible to finish the better plan in handling the kaiju, even if it puts her own career at stake. Fortunately for her and Yaguchi, they discovered that Godzilla's blood and dorsal plates acted as a natural cooling system for his body. With it, Yaguchi had his team worked on a blood coagulant that would cause Godzilla to overheat and die as Patterson convinced the French government to make the U.S., China, and Russia to postpone the nuclear strike until the day Godzilla was to awaken.

On the day Godzilla was to awaken, Yaguchi officially began Operation Yashiori, the name given to his plan to use blood coagulant against Godzilla. To render Godzilla incapacitated once again, Yaguchi provoke Godzilla to waste his own energy with trains laden with explosives that sent to attack him. Predictably, Godzilla becomes enraged and retaliate by attacking the approaching enemies on sight with his atomic beams that fired from his back, mouth, and dorsal plates. Once Godzilla become weakened after realized that he wasted too much energy, skyscraper buildings near him detonated by Yaguchi's men, pinned him underground and render him helpless as the operatives force-fed Godzilla the blood coagulant. Realizing that the coagulant's effect would stop the blood flow in his body, Godzilla attempted to resist by fires his atomic breath on the trucks that fed him the coagulant before rose and continue the counterattack. Unfortunately, a small ounce of coagulant that entered Godzilla's body weakened him that allowed Yaguchi's team pinned him again with bombs that carried by unmanned trains and force-feed the kaiju with the whole remaining coagulant. Yaguchi's team believed Godzilla was defeated after they force-fed the kaiju with the rest of the coagulant, but Godzilla, with the last of his strengths, manipulate remaining nuclear energy in his body that made him freeze himself solid to prevent himself from overheating, leaving him in a state of suspended animation. In spite of his unexpected last resort defense to save his life, the operation was declared a success, and the American nuclear strike was called off. Scientists concluded that the half-life of Godzilla's radiation was only 20 days, allowing Tokyo to recover quickly from the nuclear fallout. The Americans warned that if Godzilla were to reawaken, they would not hesitate to use the H-bomb against him. Yaguchi, meanwhile, expressed his desire to rebuild the Japanese government to be better prepared to combat Godzilla should he reawaken.

As Godzilla stood frozen in the streets of Tokyo, several humanoid skeleton-like creatures with Godzilla's dorsal plates on their backs were seen sprouting from the end of his tail, reaching out to the sky. This indicated that when Godzilla reawakened, he would likely break into smaller, numerous Godzillas that had better and stronger forms.

Godzilla: Planet of the Monsters

The second film in the Reiwa series was Godzilla: Monster Planet (otherwise known as Godzilla: Planet of the Monsters ), which was released in November 2017 in Japanese theaters and worldwide through Netflix. He also served as the overarching antagonist in Godzilla: Monster Planet, and the false main antagonist in the second film, City at the Edge of Battle and the anti-heroic deuteragonist of the third film, The Planet Eater. Set in a post-apocalyptic world 20,000 years in the future, Godzilla and his progenies have dominated the Earth, leading the surviving humans, along with their alien allies the Exif and Bilusaldo, to clash against the kaiju forces in order to reclaim their planet. It was the first animated film of the franchise.

Once the humans finally destroyed Godzilla, one of them put forth a theory that the Godzilla they killed might not be the only one left on Earth, given that the 20, 000 years that have passed should logically have allowed Godzilla to grow larger than the last time they saw him. Unfortunately, this was proven true as the original Godzilla, now standing at a whopping 318 meters tall (over 1000 feet), emerged from the ground, causing the survivors to stare in awe before attempting to evacuate. However, Godzilla proceeded to destroy their ships using his new abilities such as the Super Oscillatory Wave and his Plasma Cutter.

Godzilla: City on the Edge of Battle

Godzilla Earth appears once again in the next installment. When the survivors discovered Mechagodzilla City, a gigantic hidden area that had been assimilated by Nanometal by the original Mechagodzilla's head (whose body had been destroyed by Godzilla in the 21st Century), they decided to use its technology to set a trap for Godzilla and destroy him with a similar strategy to how they destroyed Filius. After making preparations, they proceeded to lure Godzilla to a gigantic hole within the city with three smaller robots called Vultures, where they proceeded to pour and harden some nanometal to trap him. They then proceeded to rapidly fire at him, tricking him into putting up his electromagnetic shield. When the shield went down, they proceeded to destroy his dorsal plates and fire several charged harpoons into his back, expecting him to blow up like Godzilla Filius did. However, Godzilla began to convert the excess energy into heat, causing him to become so hot that the surrounding area began to melt, along with the harpoons on his back.

With the Vultures unable to reach Godzilla due to the heat being dangerous to their pilots, the assimilated Bilusaludo aliens proposed another plan: the Vultures would dive into Godzilla to destroy him, but only after repairing another part that would be susceptible to heat. The statement turned out to mean assimilating their pilots with nanometal and integrating them into the City, with Haruo and Yuko refusing. However, while Haruo was immune due to the treatment given by the Houtua villagers, Yuko tried to resist and was almost killed. Haruo then faced a choice: go through with the plan and kill Godzilla, but let Mechagodzilla's nanometal consume the Earth, or prevent Mechagodzilla's spread and save Yuko, but let Godzilla live. With guidance from Metphies, Haruo ultimately decided to fire at the control center of the city, stopping the spread of the nanometal but freeing Godzilla. He then proceeded to destroy the rest of the city with two blasts, ending Mechagodzilla.

Godzilla: The Planet Eater

Godzilla returns in the final installment of the AniGoji trilogy as a lesser evil. When Ghidorah is summoned to destroy Earth, Godzilla awakens and tries to attack Ghidorah, who he perceives as a threat. However, he soon finds that none of his attacks are able to hit Ghidorah, but due to his reality-warping abilities, Ghidorah can hit him. Soon, Ghidorah circles around Godzilla and bites him, passing through his shield effortlessly and shocking him with electricity. Godzilla heats up again, trying to have Ghidorah release him, but the Lovecraftian god simply absorbs the energy. Godzilla then makes several futile attacks that simply pass through Ghidorah, leaving him in a one-sided fight.

When Haruo shatters the golden bead in Metphies's eye that allows him to guide Ghidorah on Earth, Ghidorah releases Godzilla due to him losing his reality-warping abilities in this dimension. Godzilla then swipes at Ghidorah, finding that he can now make contact with him. Taking advantage of this, Godzilla proceeds to slice one of Ghidorah's heads off with a Plasma Cutter, disintegrating it, ripping the jaw off of another head, and destroying the last head in a blast that also destroys the portal it came from. Godzilla then destroys the other two portals, finally ending the threat of Ghidorah.

Godzilla last appears when Haruo approaches him in the last Vulture with the comatose nanometal-infected Yuko, shouting at Godzilla to destroy him, Yuko and the Vulture so that Mechagodzilla or Ghidorah cannot use them again to come back. Godzilla obliges (though he most likely did not hear Haruo), blasting the Vulture into bits and making it crash beside him. It is inferred that after this, Godzilla did not seek out the remnants humanity anymore or he simply is unaware that they are still around. The surviving humans and the Houtua now treat Godzilla as a Necessary Evil, no worse than any natural disaster.

TriStar Pictures remake

In 1998, TriStar Pictures produced a remake set in New York City, directed by Roland Emmerich and starring Matthew Broderick; the film's name was simply 'Godzilla'. Despite negative reviews from film critics and negative reception from the fans of the original Japanese Godzilla, the film made over $379 million at the box office and spawned an animated television series called Godzilla: The Series, which drew much better reception all-around. However, the 1998 film was still a weak leak in the franchise and being a complete flop, all sequels were canceled. Toho classifies the monster in this movie as Zilla, and it was featured briefly in their film Godzilla: Final Wars . Makers of this film stated in cinematic magazine interviews that the American incarnation of the monster did not merit having "God" in his name. Zilla's roars were partly by Frank Welker.

---

They gasped in shock.

Me: Yeah very shocking.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! That's incredible!

Rarity: Hard to imagine that Godzilla would cause so much destruction and mayhem over so many years.

Laney: No kidding. But the worst he has ever done was in the future in 20,000 years.

Twilight Sparkle: 20,000 years!?

Sunset Shimmer: What happened in that time?

Me: It was a really weird time.

I went over what happened back during the events of 184 and what the Godzilla of that time was like.

Godzilla Earth (ゴジラ・アース Gojira Āsu ?), also simply known as Godzilla (ゴジラ Gojira ?), and Scarlet Godzilla Earth (緋色のゴジラ・アース Hiiro no Gojira Āsu ?) is the first Godzilla of the Ani Goji continuity, and the second Godzilla within the Reiwa era of films.

This Godzilla made his first formal appearance in the prequel novel, Godzilla: Monster Apocalypse, where it's detailed how Godzilla arose in 2030 and proceeded to lay waste to both humanity and the planet's monster population over the course of 18 years.

He appeared again in the sequel novel, Godzilla: Project Mechagodzilla, where the aftermath of Monster Apocalypse is explored. During the events of this novel, Godzilla also came into contact with Battra, Mothra, Gigan, and even destroyed an incoming celestial body.

Godzilla Earth then appeared in the 2017 film, Godzilla: Planet of the Monsters, where he acted as the overarching antagonist, having been awoken in the film's ending moments.

He appeared in the film's 2018 sequel, Godzilla: City on the Edge of Battle as the false antagonist, where he encountered Mechagodzilla in city form, and those who built it.

He made his final appearance in the 2018 film, Godzilla: The Planet Eater as the deuteragonist, where he came into contact with King Ghidorah.

This Godzilla spawned Godzilla Filius, a smaller, nearly identical, cell-divided clone of itself, which acted as the primary antagonist of the 2017 film, Godzilla: Planet of the Monsters .

While other monsters have been recognized by humanity since 1999, Godzilla didn't make any formal appearance until 2030.

Godzilla: Monster Apocalypse 2030

Kamoebas IV's corpse was found on Odo Island on May 29, 2030, and this was the first cross between humanity and Godzilla. Kyohei Yamane, a professor of Strategic Biology named the monster Gojira after 呉爾羅, legendary dragon god of the island.

Later, an increasing number of missing vessels were reported, including a nuclear submarine of the US Army. Frequent occurrences of unidentified underwater eruption-like phenomenon were reported, reports of "horizontal lighting" and "mysterious lights" gradually moving east and approaching the continent of North America were spoken of, and reports of corpses of monsters had been recorded in the Pacific Ocean. Vessels reporting the above-mentioned reports also disappeared.

One night, Anguirus, along with Varan and Baragon emerged on the coasts of Los Angeles, but all were escaping out of desperate fears that were obvious even from the viewpoint of mankind. Another gigantic monster appeared and followed the three; this was the first official visual confirmation of Godzilla to humanity.

At that time, US Army situated strong anti-kaiju defense lines on Los Angeles, but a charged particle beam Godzilla shot on Varan produced a powerful EMP, crushing all of the city's weaponry and electronic functionality.

After killing all the three monsters, Godzilla started attacking humanity, destroying Los Angeles with casualties rising to 8.7 million people. Raids of bunker busters by the US Army didn't affect him at all, and humanity couldn't stop but watch the monster destroy San Francisco and burn down the city. The US Army with all its technology tried to search for Godzilla, who disappeared into the Pacific Ocean after the incident in San Francisco, but failed to locate the target due to his stealthy nature. Three nuclear submarines were lost during the search efforts.

A video taken by Andy A. Antonio from Los Angeles became the first official footage to capture Godzilla and later became the most viewed video in history. Andy was filming to earn money for his mother, who was suffering from cancer. Andy instantly became rich for his efforts, and was able to educate his children, while also getting a ticket for the space ship Oratio to evacuate the planet with his elderly son. He was also able to receive medical treatment for severe radioactive exposure due to Godzilla's arrival and actions, and passed away two weeks after Akira Sakaki's interview with him. However, he was regretful that he wasn't able to save his mother, as she was instantly killed by a radioactive beam which hit the underground shelter she was evacuating to.

Godzilla emerged and destroyed a Carrier Strike Group near Washington, and then attacked the west coast of North America again, destroying Colorado Springs even though the city was thoroughly fortified against Godzilla. The Defense Line which the US Army concentrated all of its strength was easily broken, and the final operation to throw one hundred and fifty 21 kiloton nuclear bombs didn't affect it at all. During the live broadcast, the President of the US began to go insane, claimed that Godzilla was the Beast of Revelation, and put a gun into his mouth and shot himself. It then crossed the continent into the Gulf of Mexico, disappearing into the Atlantic Ocean.

The west coast was totally destroyed, and the eastern side of the nation was divided, including safer regions. Around this time, the Godzilla/Nuclear Cult formed, resulting in mass suicides using nuclear bombs and executions in inner continental regions, with death tolls counting up in the tens of thousands. This continued until the Exifs' visit.

2034

Godzilla attacked western Europe (including Paris as it was shown), and forced humanity to abandon Europe. Total casualties were estimated to be up to 6 million. It then disappeared into Arctic Sea.

Furthermore, other monsters in Europe fled to the east to avoid Godzilla, causing severe damages to refugees heading the same way, while damaging land and ecosystems.

2042 - 2044

This was the most intense period in terms of Godzilla's activity according to Project Mechagodzilla .

The monster appeared 8 times during a period of two years on a global scale, and total casualties were estimated to be more than 300 million. Humanity had to abandon all over the east coast of North America, northern parts of Africa, and half of the Eurasian continent.

Even though the formation of the Global Union with the Exifs and Bilusaludos dramatically improved anti-monster technologies of Earthlings, none of those were effective against Godzilla.

2045

"Operation Great Wall" was conducted by the UNHCR to bury Godzilla alive, utilizing about 2,000 nuclear bombs, which sealed the monster under the Himalayas, and Godzilla temporarily ceased its activity.

2046

Godzilla destroyed the bedrock of the mountain range with its beam and resumed its activity. It broke through the defense line in India and kept moving, killing about 200 million people in the Eurasian continent and about 100 million in Japan. The final battle against the monster on Hamamatsu in Japan became a total loss, and included the loss of Mechagodzilla.

The global population had decreased to about 522 million, confirmed by the Global/Earth Union and estimated to be 700 million in total in the 16 years since Godzilla's first appearance. Humanity was totally cornered in terms of both potentially habitable areas and population density. Thus, with their population dwindling in less than the twenty thousands, humanity was forced to abandon the planet even if leaving the majority of the planet's population, around 700 million people, behind.

2048

Latin America, the last stronghold for humanity, was finally attacked by Godzilla.

The final defense line of UNHCR was destroyed, and the HQ of the UNHCR in Rio de Janeiro was taken down as well. It then attacked the space port where passengers and crew were about to ride on Aratrum . When the ship was about to depart, one of transporters were shot down by Godzilla's beam, and the resulting crash and explosion involved several buses, resulting in the loss of many crew members, originally including Akira Sakaki and his wife. However, they survived but were left behind on Earth with Godzilla.

Akira himself was returning to the HQ to erase the Aratrum's data on Godzilla, alongside other monsters, claiming the remainders and descendants of humanity wouldn't need the history of loss, and put amusements in the database instead.

When I was finished again, they were shocked.

Nico: WHOA! That was awful!

Lincoln: Yeah it was terrible.

Twilight Sparkle: No kidding. I can't believe that Godzilla turned Earth into a radioactive world.

Me: I know. It was terrible.

Yuko Tani: That time was a nightmare for all of us. If J.D. hadn't saved us all back then we would all be dead.

Carol: I remember that. That was terrible.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: And I'm glad we all did. That adventure showed that we had enough power to kill Godzilla no matter how powerful he is.

Eli: That's incredible. I didn't know you killed the Godzilla in this world.

Nico: It was an epic adventure.

Gari: Wow.

Me: I know. It was incredible.

Runo: It sure was. I can't believe Godzilla would be that lethal.

Me: No kidding. (Watch beeps) Oh it's time for our mission.

William: What mission are we going on this time?

Me: It's one for Nico but he, Maria, May, William and some of the Masters of Evil are gonna head into the Simulator and destroy Dr. Gero's supercomputer as well as Android 13, 14 and 15.

Goku: Oh wow. I remember that battle. That was rough.

Me: It sure was. Here's what I found out about him.

I went over his history.

---

Android 13 is the thirteenth android designed by Dr. Gero and the main antagonist of the 1992 film Super Android 13!. He also appears as a playable character in various video games with some having him serve as a boss.

He was voiced by Chuck Huber.

Android 13 was created by a super computer that Gero had left behind to finish 13, Android 14, and Android 15 He was finished after Android 14 and 15, who had already engaged Goku and his allies. Upon his arrival, 13 engaged Goku, while Trunks and Vegeta battled 14 and 15. Eventually the two androids met their end at the hands of the two, upon their transformation into Super Saiyans. However this worked in 13's favor as he proceeded to absorb components from the destroyed androids and became Super Android 13.

Vegeta was the first to attempt to fight the new super android, but found himself easily beaten by Super 13. Goku, Future Trunks, and Piccolo were the next to attempt to fight him, only to find themselves all defeated. Goku was forced to gather energy for a Spirit Bomb, while Gohan, Trunks, Vegeta, and Piccolo distracted Super 13. While gathering energy, Goku enhanced the process by transforming into a Super Saiyan. He then absorbed some of the energy from the Spirit Bomb and when Super 13 lunged at Goku, the Saiyan punched him into the depths of the Spirit Bomb, destroying him.

* * *

When I was done they gasped.

Nico: Whoa! He sounds lethal.

Me: He was. And according to these schematics I found on Dr. Gero's Supercomputer that I found, he and Androids 14 and 15 were built by it.

Nico: Man even in death Dr. Gero just won't take a hint.

Me: No he won't. Even after Lapis and Lazuli killed him his hatred and lust for vengeance still lives on.

Nico: He just won't learn.

Lola: No he won't.

Lana: No kidding.

Lily: What a monster.

Me: Lets get ready.

We went to the Simulator.

* * *

We got ready for a great fight and I was gonna take a group with me to get information on the plans and designs of Dr. Gero and his androids and dark goals.

The Simulator activated and we were in the polar regions.

Vulture: Is this the place?

Nico: This is the place.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

We saw a vicious battle take place as explosions were blasting the area all over.

Me: Looks like the battle is getting underway.

Nico: Yep.

Me: I'll take my group to Dr. Gero's destroyed lab. You guys show no mercy on the Androids.

Nico: With pleasure.

Me, Laney, Lisa, Varie and Lazuli and my group went to the mountains where Dr. Gero's destroyed lab was.

Nico: Okay here we go.

Nico and his group went to assist Goku.

They arrived a fired energy blasts and they hit 2 androids and they saw ANDROID 13 and with him were ANDROIDS 14 & 15!

Goku: You're an android too? How many of you did Dr. Gero create?

Android: Well not that it's any of your business city boy, but the Good Doctor met his end some time ago. We were created by Dr. Gero's computer.

Goku: Now his computer's trying to kill me?

Android 13: That's right. This particular computer has been programmed to think that it IS Dr. Gero. It's down there scheming and planning, trying to realize its number 1 ambition which is to see you dead.

Nico: Shit. Even in death Dr. Gero just won't take a hint.

Goku: Yeah he will never learn.

Android 13: I know, I know, we should all just let bygones be bygones, but that ain't the way it's gonna be. I was programmed to kill your ass and that's exactly what I'm gonna do. Ya hear?

Nico: Why can't you just leave Kakarot alone? All you are to him is nothing but a pawn with no free will.

Android 13: Free will. Pitiful humans! War, segregation, hatred! Is that what you've done with your free will, boy? Don't you lecture me with your $30 haircut, Goku dies!

Nico: We'll see about that you Red Ribbon Redneck.

Nico fired energy blasts and blew Androids 14 & 15 to pieces.

May: Take that!

Nico: Lets get this robotic piece of shit!

Nico snapped his fingers and took the fight to a mountainous planet.

Nico: Lets get it on.

They went at Android 13.

---

Me and my group arrived at the site of Dr. Gero's old lab where Androids 16, 17 & 18 were awakened and we looked in the rubble.

Doctor Octopus: Let me see if I can salvage some data from the supercomputer.

Me: First we got to find it. According to the blueprints of Dr. Gero's lab the Supercomputer is right underneath this lab.

Laney: Lets see.

Laney looked around and she saw a hatch on the floor.

Laney: I think I found it.

Laney opened it and we saw her open it and there was a ladder.

Me: Awesome. Good work Laney.

We climbed down the ladder and got to a hallway.

Mysterio: I'll summon some Dusk Nobody robots to guard us.

Me: Good thinking.

He did so and we went down a hall into a room and we turned on the lights and we saw DR. GERO'S SUPERCOMPUTER!

Me: Whoa!

Laney: This is the Supercomputer all right.

Lisa Loud: A really fascinating piece of machinery.

Doc Ock: Yeah a very well created one too.

Me: Lets take a look around.

We looked around and Lisa saw something.

Lisa Loud: I think I found the capsules where Androids 13, 14 and 15 came out of.

Me: Yep these are them. It's hard to imagine that Dr. Gero's hatred toward would go to such incredible lengths.

Trunks: No kidding. He's a monster hellbent on Killing Goku.

Me: And all because Master Goku destroyed his entire Red Ribbon Army.

Laney: His revenge is preposterous.

Lily: No kidding.

Sandman: What should we do with the capsules?

Me: We'll have to think about that after our search.

Laney: That's not all that's here guys! Look at this!

We went over to Laney and we saw in a tank none other than an embryonic Cell!

Me: Oh man! It's Cell in his embryonic state.

Lily: This little thing will become Cell?

Me: Yeah. Hard to imagine that a little thing like this would become one of the deadliest foes that Goku and the Z-Fighters ever faced.

Trunks: No kidding. It's awful.

Me: Dr. Gero was really playing with fire.

Electro: I'll overload the tank to kill Cell while he's inside.

Me: That works too. But the version of Cell that me and Nico faced was from Trunks' time which was set in an alternate future.

Lisa Loud: J.D. is correct about that. The Hakai technique won't erase the Cell that he and Nico destroyed the first time. Only in this time.

Laney: I can never understand how time travel works.

Me: It's very complicated but very dangerous business.

Maria: Here we go.

Maria held her hand out to Cell's tank.

Maria: HAKAI!

She obliterated him from existence and banished him to the Warp.

Me: So much for Cell.

Kraven: That was easy. But our real prey is still out there.

Me: I know. Lets gather the information from the Supercomputer.

Lisa Loud: Already on it.

Lisa was using her technological expertise and getting all its info to a USB Drive and Disk to be used for us. It was very interesting info.

Lisa Loud: All copied and loaded.

Me: All now lets blow this place to smithereens!

Trunks: Yeah!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Massive fiery explosions rang out all over the place as we were firing energy blasts all over and destroying the entire lab.

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!

Trunks: Payback time for all the suffering you've caused!

Me: And for all the countless people you've destroyed!

We fired energy blasts at the computer.

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!

We fired a huge blast at the computer and destroyed it in a huge fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM
KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: This place is coming down! Lets go!

We left as the whole place went up in flames!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMM!

We left the way we came and floated into the air.

Me: WOO! That was awesome!

Varie: YEAH! Now for the grand finale!

She fired an energy blast into the lair and it exploded in a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The entire lab and lair was reduced to a flaming crater.

---

Back on the planet they were fighting on, Nico and his group were overwhelming Android 13. Android 13 teleported and May sensed for him.

May: There you are!

She fired energy blasts at him and grabbed him and slammed him into a mountain.

Scorpion: Have some of this!

Scorpion stabbed Android 13 in the shoulder with his stinger. Just like what he did to Paul.

Nico then punched 13 in the face and sent him flying.

Nico: Nice one Mac.

Android 13: S.S. Deadly Bomber!

Android 13 formed a huge Energy Ball.

Nico: Try this! S.S. Deadly Bomber!

Nico did the same thing and they both fired the blasts and they hit at the same time and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was really intense.

Rhino: My turn!

Rhino charged at Android 13 and tackled him to the ground.

And May grabbed 13 and threw him into the air.

Android 13 fired red energy blasts at Nico and he deflected them back at him.

Nico: You are just a monster and a freak!

Android 13: You are the freak! S.S. Deadly Bomber!

He formed a massive red energy ball!

Nico formed a pitch black energy ball with lots of lightning.

Nico: ELECTRO ECLIPSE BOMB!

Nico fired the energy ball and 13 fired the red ball and the blasts collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
OOO OO
OOOMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMM

The explosion was so massive and so powerful that it shook much of the planet.

Android 13: You are good. But I'm better.

Android 13 then had Android 14 & 15's chips and bombs go into his head and the bombs went into his chest.

Android 13: Life is sweet! (LAUGHS)

He then transformed and grew bulkier and his skin turned blue and his hair went from grey to red and his eyes turned yellow and his shirt ripped as he grew to hulk proportions! He had silver chest parts and sholder blades HE WAS NOW SUPER ANDROID 13!

Nico: WHOA MAN! HE'S MASSIVE!

Super Android 13: (Deeper Voice) I feel great!

Nico: Well you aren't the only one that has a Super Transformation!

Nico then went Super Saiyan-Angel 3!

Nico: Now you will see the true power of the Saiyans!

Goku: Whoa! Nico your power is incredible!

Nico: And I'm gonna show him what I can do.

Nico teleported and kicked 13 in the face and smashed him down and fired a massive blast of energy and it hit him in the chest and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Now lets see you face this.

Nico flew at him as he got up.

Nico: DRAGON FIST!

Nico exploded in a massive explosion of fire as he swung his fist forward and fired a massive blast of fire and energy and it formed into Shenron and it went through 13 with devastating force! 13 was dying.

Super Android 13: GOKU MUST DIE! GOKU MUST DIE!

He exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

ANDROID 13 WAS DEAD!

Nico: YEAH!

They were back in the Arctic.

Me and my group arrived.

Me: We got the info. Looks like you guys did it.

Nico: We sure did.

Laney: Wow! You guys reduced these androids to scrap metal.

Maria: They deserved it. Android 13 transformed after absorbing 14 and 15's parts but he was totally helpless against Nico as a Super Saiyan 3.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Wow. You really made him suffer. At the same time we blew up Dr. Gero's lab. Great job!

Nico: Thanks guys.

Laney: You're welcome.

Me: Lets get home and show what we found.

Nico: Okay.

We went back home and I looked at all the info we found and we saw that Dr. Gero has been watching Goku from the shadows. He was watching his fighting styles, techniques, knows where his home is, everything.

Me: Whoa! Dr. Gero has REALLY been watching him.

Lola: No kidding!

Nico: Dr. Gero was totally hellbent on killing Goku.

Vince: He would stop at nothing till he did so.

Twilight Sparkle: He was that obsessed with vengeance? His heart must've been as black as night.

Nico: Pure Evil Incarnate.

Lola: Yeah.

We had a nice break.

It was a beautiful morning in the World Tree Estate. It was time for another awesome morning.

Manaphy: It sure is!

In the living room, I was reading today's paper while watching TV and eating cereal.

Me: Hmm. So far nothing of interest.

I looked it all over.

Me: Nope nothing.

I put the paper in the blue recycling basket.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

I went to the computer and I looked up what is going on and it showed that NIGHTMARE MOON IS BACK!

---

Nightmare Moon is a major antagonist of My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic . She appears as the main antagonist of the Season 1 premiere, "Friendship is Magic", and as the secondary antagonist in the Season 5 finale, "The Cutie Re-Mark" and the Season 7 episode, "A Royal Problem". She also appeared as a flashback antagonist in the Season 4 premiere, "Princess Twilight Sparkle" and a minor antagonist in the Season 9 premiere, "The Beginning of the End".

She is the corrupted form of Princess Luna, the younger sister of Princess Celestia who was consumed by her own jealousy toward her older sister. As Nightmare Moon, she acted as Celestia's archenemy until she was restored to her normal form by the Mane Six.

It is unclear if "Nightmare Moon" is an entity that possessed Luna or not; the show seems to lean that Nightmare Moon is Luna's alternate personality but the comics state that Luna was corrupted during her time on the moon.

Past

Long ago, Luna and Celestia were both the rulers of Equestria, a land inhabited by ponies. Every morning, Celestia would raise the sun, and every evening, Luna would raise the moon. Together, they kept the balance perfectly. However, as time went on, Luna grew jealous: the ponies would be awake to enjoy the day and love, admire, and appreciate Celestia's work, but would always "shun" Luna's night by sleeping through it.

One day, Luna finally became fed up with Celestia's success. Not only did she refuse to lower the moon, but also challenged Celestia for the sole rulership of Equestria. At that moment, the bitterness in Luna's heart manifested and consumed her, transforming her into Nightmare Moon, a black mare of pure darkness. Celestia did not want to fight Nightmare Moon and begged her to lower the moon, but Nightmare Moon said her only royal duty was to destroy Celestia, and shot at her elder sister with magic beams, eventually knocking her down. Seeing no other way, Celestia reluctantly used the Elements of Harmony to overpower Nightmare Moon and banish her into the moon, creating the phenomenon known as "the Mare in the Moon" (a unicorn's face imprinted upon the surface of the moon).

Since then, Celestia took full responsibility of raising the sun and the moon, and a holiday was created to celebrate Celestia's victory over Nightmare Moon called the Summer Sun Celebration. However, Celestia only felt loneliness and regret for having to send her own sister away. In addition, it was prophesied that in a thousand years, on the longest day of that year, Nightmare Moon would be free of her imprisonment to seek her revenge.

Season 1

Upon reading an ancient legend, Twilight Sparkle realized Nightmare Moon is about to return, however her mentor, Princess Celestia, encouraged her to make friends instead of worrying about the supposed "old pony's tale". Unfortunately, Twilight turned out to be right and Nightmare Moon was released during the Summer Sun Celebration, replacing Celestia who was supposed to attend it. Twilight and her soon-to-be friends chased Nightmare Moon into the forbidden Everfree Forest.

After conquering many obstacles left by Nightmare Moon in their path, they finally found the twisted mare herself along with the ancient Elements of Harmony, now reduced to inert stones. As Nightmare Moon whisked the Elements away, Twilight followed her into the portal and confronted her alone. She tried to use the Elements of Harmony as Celestia did, but for that, she had to find the "spark" that would make a sixth Element appear. However, no matter how hard she tried, she couldn't make the spark, and Nightmare Moon destroyed the Elements.

Fortunately, when Twilight heard her new pony friends calling for her, she felt a different spark in her heart; making her realize that the real Elements are not just some stones: they exist in the hearts of her friends. That spark triggered the final element: Magic (also known, of course, as Friendship), and reanimated the shattered Elements, converting them into jewels for the six friends to bear. Using the Elements of Harmony, Twilight activated a spell that struck Nightmare Moon, exorcising the darkness from her and transforming her back into Princess Luna.

Princess Luna reverted back from Nightmare Moon

Celestia arrived in the ruins where the battle took place, admitting that she knew of Nightmare Moon's return, but knew the only way to defeat her was for Twilight to understand the importance of friendship. Celestia walked over to a cowering Luna, who apologized in tears for her actions, and was granted forgiveness. Later at the celebration (held by Pinkie Pie), even the other ponies forgave Luna, gifting her with a flower necklace.

Season 2

In the season 2 episode "Luna Eclipsed", Princess Luna, now uncorrupted (And with a new look. Lauren Faust, the show's creator, stated that this was because when Nightmare Moon was defeated, Luna was reborn with very low magic levels, and she transformed after getting her good powers back), returns to Ponyville during the holiday Nightmare Night, a holiday dedicated to Nightmare Moon depicting her as a scary bogeyman. Luna, with Twilight's help, tries to change her image from that of the terrifying Nightmare Moon, to a favorable one as Princess. Unfortunately, the nature of the holiday, combined with Luna's outdated mannerisms and flair for the dramatic, make her subjects more scared of her than ever. Her first attempts end disastrously, prompting her to decree Nightmare Night canceled, but Twilight persuades her to give Ponyville another chance. When Luna discovers that the residents actually enjoy being scared as part of the night's festivities, she uses the Nightmare Moon persona to help them have fun and thus gains their trust and friendship, particular that of a colt named Pipsqueak.

Season 4

During the Season 4 premiere two-parter, "Princess Twilight Sparkle", Twilight attempts to figure out the source of the chaos seizing Equestria by drinking a potion which gives her flashbacks of the past. One of the flashbacks she experiences is of Luna becoming Nightmare Moon and assaulting Princess Celestia. At first, Celestia is reluctant to fight her sister, but Nightmare Moon assaults her with dark beams and eventually wounds her, sending her plummeting to the ground. However, Celestia promptly recovers and arms herself with the Elements of Harmony, the power of which she channels into a powerful beam that overwhelms Nightmare Moon's defenses and seals her inside the moon.

Season 5

In the episode "Do Princesses Dream of Magic Sheep?", it is revealed that Luna never truly forgave herself for her transformation into Nightmare Moon and created a creature known as the Tantabus to punish her by turning her dreams into nightmares about Nightmare Moon. However, when the Mane 6 mysteriously show up and try to defeat the Tantabus, it becomes aware of their existence and leaves Luna to infiltrate their dreams. Luna and the Mane 6 try to fight off the monster, but the problem becomes worse when Pinkie Pie dreams of sharing a giant ice cream sundae with all the ponies in the entire town, giving the monster knowledge of all the residents of Ponyville. Luna uses her power to bring all of the citizens of Ponyville into the same dream and they try to use their dream abilities to bring down the Tantabus and prevent it from reaching the real world. Despite their best efforts, the monster becomes too powerful for them to fight off and it heads for the real world. Twilight realizes that Luna's guilt is what's fueling the monster and causing it to grow bigger. Twilight and her friends make her see that she and Nightmare Moon are not the same, that Luna is doing everything she can to save Equestria from the Tantabus at her own risk and that she is not alone, that everyone from the Mane 6 to all of Ponyville and beyond trust her completely and implore her to trust them on this. A tearful Luna finally lets go of the past and is now able to finally forgive herself, destroying the Tantabus, and sleeping happily and peacefully for the first time in a millennium.

In the third of many alternate timelines created by Starlight Glimmer in the season finale "The Cutie Re-Mark", Nightmare Moon is in power, having imprisoned Celestia in the moon for years and with Rarity and Rainbow Dash working for her. When Twilight mentions time travel, Nightmare Moon tries to force her to lead her back in time to stop the Elements of Harmony from being found, threatening Spike. She shatters the Timberwolves that attacked Twilight and Spike, but with teleportation, Twilight gets Spike away from Nightmare Moon and travels back in time again in another attempt to fix the timeline.

Season 7

In "A Royal Problem", Starlight Glimmer has a nightmare in which her fears of accidentally driving Celestia and Luna farther apart by switching their cutie-marks result in Luna transforming back into Nightmare Moon. As Celestia (having taken over Luna's duties) prepares to fight Nightmare Moon, Daybreaker, an evil version of Celestia, emerges, stating that, if Luna can turn into Nightmare Moon, Celestia can turn into Daybreaker. Daybreaker then states that Celestia doesn't need Luna and then engages Nightmare soon in battle, stating that she shouldn't have banished her, but destroyed her instead. Celestia tries to stop the fight, however, Daybreaker refuses and continues trying to destroy Nightmare Moon, forcing Celestia to visit Luna's dream and get her help. As Celestia and Luna return to Starlight's dream and reconcile, Daybreaker manages to overpower Nightmare Moon and begins blasting at her again, however, Celestia teleports between their beams, and erases both of them from Starlight's dream.

Season 9

In "The Beginning of the End - Part 1", Nightmare Moon appears briefly alongside Daybreaker in Twilight's vision caused by King Sombra's fear spell. This brief scene is also Nightmare Moon's final appearance in the series.

Other appearances

Luna becomes a recurring heroic character in the series. At the beginning of Seasons 2 and 3, it's revealed that Luna, alongside Celestia, turned Discord to stone with the Elements of Harmony and imprisoned King Sombra in ice while turning him to shadow, about a thousand years ago sometime before her transformation into Nightmare Moon.

Nightmare Moon in comics

In Issue 6 (Part 2 of the second arc), Nightmare Moon is depicted as a separate entity from Luna, originating from the moon (as evidenced by her speaking to Rarity while possessing her, and speaking as if she were the original Nightmare Moon). It is said she convinced Luna to let her possess her (Luna also says "the Nightmare Forces" told her what to do to make ponies fear her), and that she promised the Nightmare Forces a kingdom of their own. When the Mane 6 restored Luna, Nightmare died, but was revived through the cycle of the new moon, and corrupted the inhabitants of the moon into new Nightmare Forces.

Nightmare herself convinced Rarity to let her possess her, becoming Nightmare Rarity.

In Issue 7, Nightmare Rarity imprisons the ponies in her dungeon once the Nightmare Forces defeat them, and resists Spike's attempts to get through to her. She tries to trick him with an illusion, but he realizes her deception. She has Shadowfright and his sidekick capture him and says the nightmare has only begun.

In Issue 8, the ponies escape the dungeon and de-corrupt Shadowfright's sidekick, Jerome, with the power of friendship. Luna does the same to Shadowfright and his army, turning them back into the denizens of the moon. The ponies then use this power of friendship on Nightmare Rarity to weaken her, and with this, them thinking of memories of Rarity, and Spike's love for her along with his restored Fire Ruby, the Nightmare Energy and spirit of Nightmare Moon are destroyed, releasing Rarity from their control.

Luna appears in the comics as well, though not as Nightmare Moon, and with her mane and tail the way they were after she was restored.

In issue 32, moon rocks from the battle between Celestia and Nightmare fall down to the planet and cause some apples to come to life.

FIENDship is magic issue 4 explains what Nightmare Moon did on the moon. She came across some creatures who make ponies' dreams. She tried to invade Celestia's dream to haunt her, but it was too strong. So she invades other ponies' dreams to spread rumors about Celestia. Celestia quickly put a stop to this. When Nightmare finally reaches her dream, Celestia banishes her permanently. Nightmare then turns the creatures into the nightmare forces.

Theories

There are several theories about Nightmare Moon and Luna which say they're not the same entity. This was confirmed by Lauren Faust herself (though she also gave a speech in an interview about Nightmare Moon's "reformation"). Nightmare Moon could be in fact an embodiment of dark magic possessing Luna and keeping her prisoner under her evil influence till she was finally released by the Elements of Harmony. However, this theory has been debunked by the episode "Do Princesses Dream of Magic Sheep?".

As King Sombra made the Crystal Empire disappear for a thousand years, it was speculated that he had something to do with Luna's transformation into Nightmare Moon. He could have magnified her existing jealousy and bitterness into a dark transformation, or, in accordance with the above theory, a manifestation that possessed her. This theory may have been proven wrong as it was revealed that Celestia and Luna defeated Sombra in the past and imprisoned him, though that does leave the possibility that Sombra only started a more gradual transformation from Luna into Nightmare Moon. This theory was expressed in the youtube video, Fall of the Crystal Empire.

It has also been speculated by G1 fans that Tirac exists in Friendship is Magic and was the one behind Nightmare Moon's transformation, since Nightmare Moon shared Tirac's motivation of bringing the night that never ends. However, when Lord Tirek finally appeared he displayed no such power or interesting in a neverending night.

It has been said that there was an outside force behind Luna's transformation into Nightmare Moon, who also might have had a hand in Discord's escape. In the comics it is implied that this force was the Nightmare Forces, directly possessing her while exploiting the bitterness in her heart to get her to accept them (although it also could be that the Nightmare Forces in the comics are the spirit of Nightmare Moon since she still seems to be Luna, or at least a part of her).

Some believe Nightmare Moon to be an apocalyptic villain since eternal night would cause the world to freeze. Lauren Faust has said that eternal night was Nightmare Moon's first step to a plan to "usher in an era of evil".

It has also been speculated that she is now a ghost and that she is the mysterious Shadow Pony haunting Celestia and Luna's old castle in the Season 4 episode "Castle Mane-ia", although recent comments have made this figure more likely to be Tirek.

Due to Stygian having a similar backstory and transformation into the Pony of Shadows, which occurred through him merging with a sort of "Shadow" strongly resembling a symbiote, it is possible (and, aside from the Nightmare Rarity comics, it is implied by the Legends of Magic comics) that Luna similarly merged with a "Nightmare" symbiote (though one weaker than the Shadow, as the Pony of Shadows was not purified by the Elements of Harmony while Nightmare Moon easily was), which she would have let in out of jealousy, to become Nightmare Moon.

Reception

Nightmare Moon received a mostly positive reception from critics and fans of the series. As the first antagonist of the series, she is praised for her actions, personality, backstory, and her motives. Her alter-ego, Princess Luna, became one of the show's most beloved and popular characters of the series and the Brony Fandom. Her voice actress, Tabitha St. Germain, received praise for her performance as Nightmare Moon.

Me: Nightmare Moon! Oh man!

Twilight Sparkle: Oh man! Nightmare Moon is back!

May: What's the mission this time?

Me: We're going on two of them. I am gonna go after Nightmare Moon.

Everyone gasped.

Nico: Nightmare Moon has returned?

Me: Yep.

Twilight Sparkle: But that can't be right.

Princess Luna: Yeah Nightmare Moon is gone.

Me: No she is still alive. After me and Nico killed Shadowfright it separated Nightmare Moon from Princess Luna and made her a separate being. Now she is at large.

Nico: Oh man. And what's the second mission?

Me: Nico you will take the rest of the team and go after Simon Stagg.

John Stewart: That monster that turned Rex into Metamorpho?

Me: Yep. It's time to deliver some well deserved justice on him for his crimes.

Twilight Sparkle: Who is Simon Stagg?

Me: He is the owner and president and C.E.O. of Stagg Enterprises.

I went over his history.

---

Simon Stagg is the C.E.O. of Stagg Enterprises, who transformed Rex Mason into Metamorpho to keep his daughter, Sapphire, from him.

Simon Stagg attempted to create the ultimate miner-'Metamorpho'. Stagg used his Stagg Enterprises Chemical Division to create a formula capable of turning a human into a shape-shifting soldier. He intended to then sell this being to companies working in dangerous conditions, to lower their insurance costs and make money for himself.

The mutagen was delivered to Stagg from his laboratories by his bodyguard, Java. In transit, however, a test tube of the chemical fell out of the briefcase carrying the samples, which melted the axle of the train, causing a train wreck which Green Lantern failed to avert. Stagg blamed Java for the loss of the chemical sample-which Batman picked up upon investigating the crash site. Rex Mason, an employee of Stagg's, then discovered the illegal mutagen project and threatened to blow the whistle on Stagg.

Visiting his daughter, Sapphire, later that evening, Stagg learned that she was engaged to Mason. Enraged by this, Stagg decided to test the chemical on Mason by tricking him into the laboratory as he was cleaning out his desk. The mutagen turned Mason into a shape shifting mutant, with a distinctly non-human appearance. Enraged by this, as well as confused by the changes to his body, Mason, dubbing himself Metamorpho, decided to carry out revenge against Stagg, until Stagg tricked him into believing that Sapphire was dating another man-John Stewart. Metamorpho, mad with anger, turned his sights on destroying Stewart while Stagg enjoyed the show, taping every minute of the conflict in order to prove to his clients what Metamorpho could do.

However, when Metamorpho learned that Sapphire wasn't cheating on him, he went back after Stagg. Upon arriving at Stagg Enterprises, Metamorpho confronted Stagg about why he was chosen to be transformed. After Metamorpho mentioned Sapphire, Stagg told him he would never let him touch his daughter again. Metamorpho was then frozen by Java. Back at Stagg Labs, Stagg attempted to create a new version of the formula, until Metamorpho-who had unfrozen and escaped-intervened. In the tussle, the system Stagg was linked to short-circuited, thus Stagg's mind was transferred into the formula, which became a giant, semi-sentient slime creature. His mind trapped in the monster's form, Stagg's unconscious body was found by the Justice League.

With part of his mind trapped in the beast, Stagg rampaged through Metropolis trying to find his daughter. After a battle with the Justice League, Stagg found Sapphire at her apartment and took her before battling the Justice League again as well as Metamorpho. Easily defeating them, Stagg then took his daughter and climbed the tallest building he could find. At the last moment, Batman discovered that the way to stop Stagg was by forming a polypeptide that would dissolve the creature. Metamorpho demanded that the creature let Sapphire go, but taking on Stagg's face, the creature refused. Metamorpho morphed into the chemical and dived inside the creature's monstrous form. As a result, the creature was completely destroyed and its mind returned to Stagg, while Metamorpho regenerated and came back to Sapphire.

---

Everyone gasped in shock!

Nico: I can't believe he would do all that!

John Stewart: No kidding! That monster has no honor. He took away my best friends humanity and all that.

Rex Mason: I know pal. But he will pay for it.

Me: In Jail.

Nico: Yeah!

King Stefan then appeared.

King Stefan: (Scottish Accent) I will gladly help you deal with Nightmare Moon, J.D.

Me: King Stefan. This is a surprise.

William: (to Stefan) I'm surprised you're helping us, Stefan. I thought you would be preparing for our battle against you in April.

Stefan: There won't be a battle in April if Nightmare Moon wins.

Me: That's understandable. But Nightmare Moon has one goal and that is to plunge the entire world into eternal night.

Stefan: That's bad.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Me: It's worse than you think. Eternal Night would not just plunge the world into eternal darkness, but also it would freeze the entire planet. Nightmare Moon would kill everyone.

Everyone gasped.

Princess Luna: That's terrible!

Princess Celestia: It sure is!

Hades then appeared.

Sora: (to Hades) You're helping us as well?

Hades: Well, you guys helped me take out Psycho Ren. So, it's only fair if I help you all out with this.

Me: That's fair enough Hades.

Anna Knudson: Awesome.

Lightning: Sha-Blam!

Me: Okay we'll go in two teams. I'll take a group with me to go after Nightmare Moon. Nico you take the rest of the team and a group with you to go after Simon Stagg.

Nico: Got it.

Me: This is gonna be awesome.

Nico: Against Stagg, I'll take Myotismon, Maria, New Wave, May, Loki, Batman, Black Adan, Kite Man, Wonder Woman, Aquaman, Melter, Flash, Golden Glider, Green Lantern, Jet, Martian Manhunter, Mole Man, Green Arrow, Jack O Lantern, Hawkgirl, Magneto, Superman, Pinky, and Brain.

Me: And I'll take Jinx, Lord Drakkon, See More, Hades, Gizmo, Mammoth, Kyd Wykkyd, Billy Numerous, Angel, and Private HIVE with me.

Nico: Cool. Where is Nightmare Moon gonna show up?

Me: Scans show that she is over in Čachtice Castle in Hungary.

Vince: I remember going there. That was so cool seeing that.

Hunter: (German) Wunderbar! You all saw Čachtice Castle?

Me: We sure did Hunter. It was on our Worldwide Adventure. We found the skeleton corpse of Countess Elizabeth Báthory lock and chained in a dungeon cell after 400 years when we were there.

Apple Bloom: Wow! That's amazing!

Sweetie Belle: What was she known for back then?

Lola: You would not like her Sweetie Belle. Elizabeth Báthory was called the Blood Countess and the worst ever female serial killer that ever lived. Back in the 17th Century she was responsible for the deaths of over 650 people.

They gasped.

Scootaloo: That's horrible!

Apple Bloom: No kidding! I can't believe she was that deranged!

Applejack: Hoowee! No kidding!

Me: I know. It's horrible she did all that over 400 years ago.

Nico: No kidding.

Hunter: Mein Gott. That's awful.

Lola: It sure was Hunter.

Svilen: (Bulgarian Accent) I know all about Elizabeth Báthory. She has been a really terrible monster for centuries.

Chloe Nicholson: No kidding. She was awful.

Me: I know. She got what she deserved all those centuries ago. Anyway lets head out.

Nico: Right! Lets do it!

We were off. I took my group to Hungary and Nico took his group to the heart of the city.

---

GOTHAM ROYAL YORK

---

In the heart of the City, Nico and his group were walking around.

Kite Man: I'll fly over to see where Stagg is.

Nico: He's not gonna be that hard to find. His headquarters is in the heart of the city.

Stalker: Indeed.

Superman: It's that building over there.

They saw a building with a logo on it that said Stagg Enterprises.

Lola: That's it all right.

Nico: Not very surprising that it sticks out like a sore thumb like that.

Green Lantern: (to John Stewart) Sorry I wasn't there to help you against Stagg the first time, John.

John Stewart: It's not your fault Hal. If anyone is to blame for all this it's Stagg.

Nico: Yeah he ruined Rex's humanity. And he will pay for it in prison.

They got to the top of a nearby building and looked over the Stagg Enterprises building.

Lola: Looks like it's guarded.

Lana: I don't see anything.

Jet: Let me sneak in the building to see if there's any security.

Nico: Okay.

Jet snuck into the building and went through the air vents and he crawled through them. He got into the Security Room and disabled the systems and knocked the guards out.

Jet: (On the radio) Security Disabled.

Myotismon: Great. Also I will make the entrance this time.

Nico: Lets go.

They flew down and went into the building and took the elevator.

They took the elevator to the top floor and went in.

Eddy: Top floor. Drier lint, pain cans, moldy socks and mildew.

They laughed.

Nico: (Laughs) Good one Eddy.

Luan: (Laughs) Funny!

The elevator opened and they went down a hall.

Loki: Wait? Isn't that Stagg's bodyguard Java heading towards us?

Nico: It sure is. I got this.

Nico teleported and kicked him in the face and smashed him into the ground and knocked him out. He was babbling stupidly.

Nico: That oughta keep this stupid caveman at bay.

Vince: Nice one.

Lana froze him in a block of ice to keep him frozen till the time came for them to throw him in prison.

Martian Manhunter: Before we do the entrance, I'll use my powers to sense what room Stagg is hiding in.

Nico: Okay J'onn.

He sensed the building and found him in the conference room.

Martian Manhunter: He's in the conference room.

Nico: Looks like we're gonna have to cut that meeting short.

Myotismon: Time to do the entrance.

Nico: Lets do it.

Stagg: And the Metamorpho Project has been a big success.

Suddenly massive waves of crimson red lightning and bats swirled around in the middle of the table and demonic laughter was heard as it formed into a devil head and then the head exploded and out of the flames came Nico and team.

Nico: YEAH!

Myotismon: Not a bad entrance.

Nico: Sorry to burst in like this everyone but we're here for Stagg.

Stagg: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? What the hell are you doing here!?

Nico: Simon Stagg, you're under arrest.

Stagg: On what charges!?

Nico: Illegal experimentation, false claims, attempted murder and destruction of city property!

The Board Members gasped and Stagg was sweating nervously.

Board member: Do you even have proof of these accusations?

Batman: Of course we do. And evidence that Stagg tried to kill some of us when he was found out the first time!

Nico: Yep.

Nico showed photos of the destruction of some of the city, holding Sapphire hostage, turning Rex Mason into Metamorpho, and the forged photo of John Stewart "Cheating" with Sapphire and all that.

Nico: And the icing on the cake.

Rex Mason A.K.A. Metamorpho came in!

Rex Mason: You did this to me Stagg!

Board Member 2: Rex Mason!? What happened to you?

Nico: He wasn't like this before.

Nico showed him a photo of Rex before he was exposed the Metamorpho Mutagen.

Nico: Thanks to Stagg here he turned Rex into Metamorpho and gave him Elemental Manipulation Powers and he was gonna be turned into a weapon as well as a major cash cow. Also he didn't want Sapphire Stagg to be in Rex's life.

Wonder Woman: But don't take our word for it! Let's hear it from Stagg himself! (ties Stagg up with Lasso of Truth)

Stagg: All right you got me! I turned Mason into Metamorpho so I can make my project a success as well as frame John for cheating with my daughter so I can make sure she can't be with Rex and I made him attack the Justice League and prove that he is far more superior than the Justice League. I also wanted to enhance the Mutagen. But Rex stopped me and turned me into a giant blob of goo and destroyed the city. I did it all. I also stole billions to make the Metamorpho Project!

The Board was shocked.

Lola: You're through Stagg!

Stagg broke free of the lasso held one of the Board members at gunpoint.

Stagg: Take one move and this hostage dies!

Flash: I don't think so!

He ran fast and grabbed the hostage away from him. Nico then shot Stags in the leg and he was down.

Laney: You're a heartless monster Stagg!

Nico: You make me sick Stagg! You don't care about anyone but yourself. (To the board members) Everyone you better get to safety. This is gonna get really ugly.

The Board Members ran.

Stagg: (chuckles) I still have one last trick up my sleeve!

Golden Glider: And that is?

Stagg: But lets take this outside first.

They went to the courtyard and he summoned a massive army of POWER RANGERS FOOTSOLDIERS from over the course of 28+ Years!

Nico: WHOA!

Jean Grey: He has no idea just how powerful I can be.

Black Adam: Stagg's getting away!

Metamorpho: As much as I want to go after him right now, we have to deal with these guys first!

Nico: Don't worry!

Nico snapped his fingers and a force field appeared and cut off Stagg's escape. But because he was shot in the leg, he was limping and wasn't gonna get very far.

Nico: He's not going anywhere. Lets get them!

Tommy Oliver: IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

The Rangers all transformed and they all went at the footsoldiers.

Stagg ran back inside the building.

Brain: (to Pinky) Pinky, are you pondering what I'm pondering?

Pinky: That there are a lot of footsoldiers right now?!

Brain: No you idiot.

BLAM!

He bashed his head in with a pencil.

Pinky: (Laughs) ZORT! (LAUGHS)

Brain: Lets cut off his escape route and make sure he doesn't get away.

Pinky: EGAD Brain! Lets do it! Narf!

Massive fiery explosions went off all over the place with incredible power.

Nico: YEAH!

Aquaman: Let me call some of my ocean friends for backup.

Maria: We'll both do it.

The Neptune Crusades called the ocean creatures from The Great Lakes and they went at a bunch of Foot Soldiers and spun in a tornado of water and sucked them up and sharks and fish mauled them all over.

Melter: Have some of this! (fires melting beam at foot soldiers)

He melted them into puddles of slop.

Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and electrocuted the Footsoldiers all over the place.

Hilda unsheathed her sword and slashed them all over the place.

Hilda: (British Accent) Take that you monsters!

Hawkgirl: Where did Stag even get these?! (bashes foot soldiers with her mace)

Rainbow Dash: No idea Shayera. But they are all over the place! (BLASTS A BUNCH OF FOOT SOLDIERS WITH RAINBOW ENERGY!) But fighting these guys is awesome!

Lola fired blasts of fire and incinerated them.

Magneto: (to Krybots) Foolish robots. Thinking you can take on the Master of Magnetism.

New Wave: The longer we fight these guys, the more likely Stagg will get away!

Nico: Don't worry about it. (Blasts numerous Putties with fire blasts.) Pinky and The Brain are taking care of it.

Vypra slashes numerous Hideons and Styxians with her sword and blasts them with lightning blasts.

Luan blasts them with light blasts.

The Hideons and Styxians fired energy blasts at Luan and she flew into the air as all their blasts missed and exploded all over with incredible power.

She fired many blasts of light and hit them all over and the Footsoldiers kept firing and many more explosions rang out and turned much of the area into a warzone!

Maria: Are Pinky and Brain close to catching Stagg yet?!

BOOM!

The Helicopter that Stagg was about to fly in had its tail blown off courtesy of a bomb put on it by Pinky & The Brain nand it crashed onto the ground.

Stagg got out just in time as the Helicopter exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: I think that answers your question.

Nico and Rex and John went up to him.

Nico: It's over Stagg.

Stagg: It will never be over!

POW!

Nico, Rex and John smashed their fists into his face and knocked him out.

Nico: You have a lot to answer for Stagg.

Nico tied him up.

Earlier in Hungary, it was night and I was ready for anything. At the old ruins of the Castle of the Blood Countess, I was ready for Nightmare Moon.

Me: Stay close everyone. Also be careful.

Stefan: We will.

I sensed for her evil.

Me: Nightmare Moon! Come out! We know you're here!

A vortex of Darkness came out and it was followed by a blue sparkly mane. It was NIGHTMARE MOON!

Nightmare Moon: So you all have come.

Me: To destroy you. The only way you will be plunging the entire planet into eternal night is over my cold dead body!

Nightmare Moon: That can be arranged.

Me: And you will be dead. I'll rough her up and you guys come in for the kill later on.

Lord Drakkon: Right.

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet where the final battle with Emperor Palpatine took place: EXEGOL!

---

Exegol (also spelled Ixigul in ancient texts) was a dark desert planet located within the Unknown Regions that, according to legend, was the hidden redoubt world of the Sith. It was occupied by the Sith Lord Darth Sidious and the Sith Eternal by 35 ABY. It was also the birthplace of Supreme Leader Snoke, whom Sidious created to rule the First Order while concealing himself in the shadows. Exegol was used to hide the Final Order, which was a fleet amassed by Sidious and the Sith Eternal, from where they planned to deploy their Star Destroyers and establish a new Sith Empire. Exegol was the site of a battle during the war between the First Order and the Resistance, which saw the defeat of the Sith loyalists.

Early history

As mentioned by the Jedi writer Kli the Elder in the Rammahgon, Exegol (or Ixigul, as Kli wrote it) once had a fertile environment, until the Sith established their presence there and laid waste to the planet just as they did with Korriban, Ziost, and Asog. Among the changes the Sith made was the creation of massive underground shipyard forges.

Exegol was one of the oldest Sith bastions. Under the Sith, the Sith Citadel was built on Exegol for meetings and rituals to be conducted within, and Sith loyalists excavated the world's large and deep planetary fissures in hopes of reaching a transportive vergence believed to lie beneath the planet surface.

According to legend, two Sith Lords, Darth Noctyss and Darth Sanguis, reached Exegol in their quest for immortality, which the former hoped to learn from the latter. Unknown to Noctyss, Sanguis had achieved immortality by transforming himself into a horrendous creature. Tricking Noctyss by not revealing himself as Darth Sanguis, Sanguis managed to be killed by Noctyss in a ritual to acquire immortality, leading Noctyss to conclude too late that Sanguis had tricked her into becoming a creature like him and freeing him from his miserable existence.

Darth Sidious

By the era of the Galactic Empire, the last Sith Lords, Darth Sidious and Darth Vader, possessed the only two Sith wayfinders leading the way to Exegol. During his reign, Sidious created a base of power within Exegol, meant to become his permanent seat of power. Seeking ways of unlocking the secrets of immortality, his underlings began to experiment with cloning technology in a bid to extend his lifespan.[8] After Sidious' death at the Battle of Endor, the Sith Eternal cult chose Exegol as their base because it was completely hidden from even the most studious of galactic historians, some of whom knew about Korriban/Moraband and the other Sith worlds. Sidious also proceeded to modernize the ancient shipyards, including making them highly automated.

The Sith loyalists then proceeded to construct the Final Order, a massive fleet of warships. This was comprised of hundreds of Xyston -class Star Destroyers, which were intended for the Sith's reconquest of the galaxy. As threats of their return to the wider galaxy loomed, the Resistance mustered its forces and fought a desperate battle against the Sith. Ultimately, with the help of the citizens' fleet, the Resistance was able to destroy the Sith Star Destroyers and kill Emperor Darth Sidious.

Lord Drakkon: Exegol! Awesome!

Gizmo: So awesome! Go get this barfbrain J.D.

Me: With pleasure.

I went up to Nightmare Moon.

Me: You have no love for anyone but yourself Nightmare Moon. You were supposed to be there for Princess Celestia and help her out and your let your hatred and jealousy turn you into this monster. I will make sure you never terrorize the night again.

I then had a vortex of rainbow fire form around me and then when it faded I turned into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 500,000,000 form!

Me: (Divine Echoing Voice of Light) Justice is calling for you!

Lord Drakkon: Whoa! J.D.'s power is incredible!

Nightmare Moon: I WILL NEVER BOW TO YOU!

(Within Temptation's Forsaken Plays)

She fired a beam of magic at me and I flew into the air and fired a beam of rainbow energy and she flew into the air as the blast hit the ground and exploded with incredible power!

Some of the explosions were powerful enough to blow up small moons.

Angel: Unbelievable!

Stefan: J.D.'s power has gotten stronger! There's no way I could last against him now.

Hades: No kidding! Wow! What a battle!

Nightmare Moon was blown into a mountain and she crashed into it.

SMAAAAASSSSHHH!

She got up.

Nightmare Moon: HE'S SO DEAD!

She flew at me.

Nightmare Moon: Try this on! DARK MOON STYLE: THOUSAND MOON BLADES!

She fired a massive blast of energy and it formed into a thousand blades of dark crescent moons.

Me: This will hurt just as much. SOLAR FLAME STYLE: THOUSAND SUN BLASTS!

I fired a massive blast of sunlight and fire and it formed into a huge barrage of suns and the suns all destroyed her attack and hit Nightmare Moon all over and exploded with incredible power in a massive blast of fire.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

But Nightmare Moon was far from finished.

Nightmare Moon charged up a black blast.

Me: You are nothing compared to the love and power of friendship!

I cupped my hands to the side.

Me: SOLAR FLAME STYLE: HYPERFLARE KAMEHAMEHA!

Nightmare Moon: DARK MOON STYLE: DARKNESS MOON MEGABLAST!

I fired a massive Kamehameha Wave made of pure Solar Fire and Nightmare Moon fired a massive pitch black blast of moonlight and energy and the blasts all collided and exploded with incredible and unbelievable power!

The explosion was so massive, so powerful and so devastating that it shook much of the entire planet and much of the universe to the core. When the smoke cleared, Nightmare Moon was in a crater and she was down.

Kyd Wykkyd: Holy mackerel! That was unbelievable!

Billy Numerous: No kidding! What power!

Stefan: Amazing!

Nightmare Moon got up and she wasn't finished yet.

Hades: She still has a lot of fight left in her.

Private HIVE: Got to admire her spirit!

I landed by her and Nightmare Moon was enraged. But that blast that hit her drained her of most of her energy. She was getting exhausted.

Me: It's over Nightmare Moon. You will never terrorize the world of dreams or Equestria again.

Nightmare Moon: I'm not done yet!

Hades: You are done.

I looked at them and nodded for them to deliver the killing blow.

They fired a massive blast of energy and Nightmare Moon saw it coming and she didn't have enough energy to get out of the line of fire.

Me: Hasta la vista Nightmare Moon.

I teleported away.

Nightmare Moon:
NOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The blast hit her and obliterated her in an instant and it hit the ground and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Yeah!

But then the ground started quaking.

Me: Uh oh! The planet's going to explode!

Lord Drakkon: Lets get outta here!

We teleported and went back to Earth just in time as the planet exploded with incredible power.

Me: That's it for Exegol and Nightmare Moon. But she will be back for the war on April 12th.

Lord Drakkon: Yep. But that was so awesome!

Hades: It sure was! You were awesome J.D.

Me: Thanks Hades. Lets head back.

I powered down and we went back.

We got back with everyone and we saw a warzone.

Superman: (to me) I take it Nightmare Moon has been dealt with?

Me: Yes she has but she will be back for the April 12th War. Knowing how dangerous Nightmare Moon is, she will be back.

Nico: And we'll be ready for her.

Me: Yep.

I saw the destruction and wreckage all over as well as the number of dead Power Rangers Footsoldiers.

Me: Wow! You guys have been busy.

Myotismon: Stag was tougher to deal with than we thought.

Laney: Yeah he sure was.

Me: Boy I can tell. But how did he have so many Power Rangers Footsoldiers with him?

Nico: He had this on him.

Nico showed me a Dark Orb.

Me: A Dark Orb. No wonder.

I grabbed it and crushed it and we got a power boost.

Me: Great job though guys.

Hades: You should've seen J.D.'s power though!

Lord Drakkon: Yeah it was awesome!

Gizmo: It sure was!

Nico: I'll have to hear all about it later.

Me: You're in for a fun adventure. But great job to all of you.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Me: (To the viewers) Hope you all had fun on a great adventure like this. It was awesome. But the adventures where we took on King Sombra and Nightmare Moon were to prepare for the war coming up on April 12th.

Nico: They sure were awesome.

Eli: Yeah they were!

We went back home.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

Nightmare Moon is one of the most popular villains in all of My Little Pony. This is the 5th adventure of My Little Pony. I hope you all liked this one. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a great mystery where we face the Ship of Ghouls and go after a great treasure worth a King's Ransom from the show Archie's Weird Mysteries and it's gonna be awesome as we help Archie and his friends take the pirates down.

See you all tomorrow.

Mystery of The Ghost Pirate Treasure

We were flying over the beaches of San Diego, California and everyone saw us and cheered wildly for us. It was like we were doing a fly over with F16 Fighter Jets and it was cool. We waved to everyone.

Stone Man: What's the situation this time?

We were flying over the ocean.

Me: Scans show that there's a massive spike in Gamma Radiation here in the Eastern Pacific Ocean.

Nico: Oh man! Is it terrorists dumping radioactive waste?

Me: I don't think so. According to my scans it shows that the radiation is moving underwater.

Laney: That's really strange.

Lola: How can a spike in radiation move like that?

Starfire: Is it another Xenothium Creature?

Me: I don't think so. But we'll find out shortly.

We were flying until we reached to an area near an uncharted island and we saw a boat out near the island. We then saw a rather very unusual sight in the water. We saw a shark and it was glowing a neon red color and it was causing some of the water around it to turn to steam.

Tori: Is that a shark?!

Me: It sure is!

Lola: It's glowing red!

Nico: But sharks can't glow. (To the Bolton Siblings) No offense guys.

John Bolton: None taken but yeah.

Then my Geiger Counter was going haywire.

Me: WHOA! Guys that shark is emitting gamma radiation levels that are off the scale!

Laney: That shark is radioactive!?

Lisa Loud: How is that possible!?

Lana: Oh man!

Scowl: Someone must've experimented on this shark!

Me: No I don't think so. According to my ocean topography scans there's a sunken Soviet Union nuclear powered submarine right here in this area.

Nico: It must've been exposed to the radiation from the submarine!

Lincoln: Oh man! If we blast that shark it will be a deadly dirty bomb!

Lola: Big time!

Me: Lets see how hot that shark is.

I turned on my infrared vision and it was showing that the shark was emitting a temperature of over 2,000˚ Fahrenheit!

Me: WHOA! That shark is over 2,000˚ Fahrenheit!

Nico: That shark hot to handle!

Me: Look there.

We saw a woman beach the shark and it was setting some of the island plants on fire. I then sensed that the shark was gonna explode and there was a man on a boat in the area too!

Me: Oh no! Eli come on!

Eli: Right!

Me and Eli flew down and I got the woman and Eli got the man.

Me: Everyone lets go!

We got away just in time as the shark exploded in a massive nuclear explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The flash of light it had was as bright as 100 suns and the mushroom cloud was huge. The island it was on was completely destroyed. We saw the Mushroom Cloud from the explosion form a shark mouth.

Me: Whoa. That was intense!

Eli: No kidding! Wow!

Broadside: Well, that's one nuclear crisis avoided.

Me: No kidding. Are you two okay?

Gina: Thanks to you J.D.

Me: Think nothing of it.

Lola: But that was intense.

Maria: We still have to get rid of the Submarine that was responsible for making that shark radioactive in the first place.

Bai Tza: That's a good idea.

Nico: Get to it girls.

Maria and Bai Tza used their powers to lift the Submarine out of the water and they brought it to the beaches of San Diego, California.

Me: Well I'll be. It's a Soviet Union K-19 Submarine.

Nico: We stopped using these right at the end of the Cold War.

Lily: We sure did.

Me: I better call the E.P.A. and the D.N.F.S.B.

Lola: D.N.F.S.B.?

Me: Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board.

Lola: Oh.

I called them and they got the waste and nuclear energy of the sub out.

Lifeguard: Are you all okay? We saw the explosion.

Me: We're fine. Gamma radiation doesn't hurt us.

Nico: Yeah we'll be all right.

Russ Cargill: Thank goodness you're all okay.

Me: Thanks Russ. But you wouldn't believe what we saw. We saw a Radioactive Shark.

We went over what we saw and it was crazy.

Laney showed pictures of the shark and how it was glowing neon red and all that and how it was writhing in agony from the intense radiation it had and more.

Russ Cargill: Oh man! That's crazy. And this Soviet Union Submarine was responsible?

Me: Yep. It ate some of the nuclear materials in it and turned it into a radioactive creature.

Nico: Yeah no kidding.

Lily: At least no one got hurt.

Lucy Loud: Thank goodness.

Me: Yeah.

Russ Cargill: Geez.

We got the radioactive materials out of the sub and destroyed it and made sure it can never hurt anyone else.

---

Later we were back home at the World Tree Estate and we were getting ready for an awesome treasure hunt. It was at a sunken ship located off the coast of Florida.

Tania: First, a nuclear shark? And now, a sunken ship?

Nicole: Not just any sunken ship. This is a 17th century pirate ship that is said to carry a treasure that's priceless. But legends say that there is a mysterious force that's guarding it.

Nico: Wow! This is gonna be neat.

Lola: It sure is!

Spiderman: I can't wait to see that treasure. Where is it located?

Nicole: It's located off the coast of Riverdale, Florida.

Brittney: Oh wow! We're gonna go meet Archie and his friends!

Laney: Archie?

Brittney: You guys will love him. He and his friends all solve these awesome mysteries and they also have encounters with incredible monsters that are like the ones from b-movies.

Nico: Cool!

Lola: Whoa! That's neat!

Nico: It sure is!

Black Spider, Spymaster, The Key, Evil Star, Turtle, Major Disaster, Silver Samurai and Enchantress appeared.

Black Spider: Can me, Spymaster, Key, Evil Star, Turtle, Major

Disaster, Silver Samurai, and Enchantress go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Varie: How do you know Archie, Brittney?

Brittney: Well mom me and Archie solved numerous mysteries and brought most of his enemies to justice. Most of those enemies were vampires.

Lucy Loud: Vampires? Really?

Brittney: Yep and they were no pushover. But they were like every other vampire. Allergic to garlic and EDTA and hate silver and sunlight.

Laney: Wow!

Me: Lets get over there and help him out.

We were off to Florida!

---

RIVERDALE, FLORIDA

---

We arrived in Riverdale, Florida and it was a beautiful place and loaded with all kinds of awesome buildings and more.

Gravity Man: This must be the place.

Me: It sure is a nice place.

Nicole: It sure is. But this place from what I was told and read had lots of encounters with monsters that are like ones from grandpa's past.

Nico: I know those monsters all too well.

Me: Wow. This is gonna be so cool.

We arrived at the beach and we saw Archie digging.

We landed and walked up to him.

The Key: (to Archie) Are you Archie?

Archie: I sure am. (Sees Brittney) Brittney!

Brittney: Archie!

They hugged.

Archie: It's awesome to see you again! And wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's such an honor to meet you.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Archie. Brittney told us so much about you and all the adventures you faced.

Archie: They were awesome.

Nico: They sure were.

Kitten: It's an honor to meet you, Archie.

Archie: Same here. It's such an honor.

Nicole: We're here to help find an awesome treasure for you all.

Archie: Awesome. Follow me to the library.

We arrived at the library and we met his friends Betty Cooper, Veronica Lodge, Jughead Jones, Reggie Mantle and Dilton Doiley.

Veronica: It's such an honor to meet you all!

Betty: We love all your adventures.

Me: We get that a lot but it's awesome to meet you.

Brittney: And it's great to see you all again.

Jughead: Same here. It's awesome having you all back.

Brittney, Archie, Betty, Veronica, Jughead, Reggie and Dilton: THE MYSTERY CREW OF DARKNESS IS BACK!

They high-fived!

Me: The Mystery Crew of Darkness?

Brittney: It was a team I formed before we became part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and I made the Goths of Darkness. We solved lots of great mysteries and it was awesome.

Me: That's so cool!

Nico: We didn't know about that.

Brittney: You didn't ask.

Me: Touché.

Evil Star: (to Archie) Brittney really has accomplished a lot since you last saw her. Just ask King Sombra. Or what would be left of him if he wasn't coming back in April.

Archie: She sure has. I can see that.

Veronica: This treasure is a dangerous one though.

Me: How so?

Veronica: It's connected to this medallion that was given to me.

Me: Archie what can you tell us about this treasure and how it's connected to that medallion?

Archie: It's a key. (Shows us a book about it) To a royal treasure and king's ransom that was stolen by Murderous Pirates in the year 1700. Their ship, the treasure and the key were lost at sea in a hurricane.

Me: The Rising Sun Hurricane of 1700.

Archie: That could be it. Unfortunately the Pirates were also cursed by their own greed.

Laney: Cursed?

Larfleeze: By their own greed? And I thought my greed was bad.

Me: What else does it say?

Archie: Apparently the pirates were forbidden from entering the afterlife. Now as malevolent ghouls, they will roam the ocean floor guarding their sunken treasure for all eternity!

Nicole: So we're dealing with undead pirates that want all that treasure all for themselves even in death.

Nico: Geez!

Barbossa: That's terrible lads.

Jack Sparrow: No kidding mate.

Blade Man: Let's head to that sunken ship now. We need to get get that treasure before anyone else does. Mainly, villains like the Mean 6.

Me: I don't think the Mean 6 are after this treasure. They were mostly created to destroy Twilight and her friends because of Chrysalis's revenge on Starlight Glimmer and all her friends.

Nico: That's right and in the end they turned on Chrysalis.

Twilight Sparkle: It's true. That was a big twist of events.

Lola: No kidding.

Archie: But here's more. During the 1800s, this treasure was the most sought after treasure in the world. But the pirates curse kept it so well protected that all who sought it perished.

We gasped in shock!

Me: Then we need to set up a trap.

Maria: Leave that to me and Bai Tza. We can bring that treasure over to us and kill those pirates.

Me: Lets head out there.

We got our trap ready and Bai Tza and Maria went down into the water and searched for the ship. We had our radios on. They found the ship.

Maria: Guys, me and Bai Tza are at the ship.

Turtle: Do you see the treasure yet?

Bai Tza: We sure do. Our X-Ray binoculars show that the treasure is huge! There's gold, jewels, treasure chests and sceptors and even swords with jewels on them all over.

Me: Wow! That IS a King's Ransom. Now I see why those pirates want it so badly.

Maria: No kidding.

Me: Get ready girls.

Luxord: Maria, don't let your guard down. It could be a trap.

Maria: I know. Here we go guys. We're bringing the ship to the surface.

Me: Okay.

Maria and Bai Tza used their powers to lift the ship up onto the water and bring it onto the beach.

Me: Awesome!

Maria and Bai Tza were on the ship.

Bai Tza: That was easy.

Brittney: Not quite. The pirates are coming. We have to kill them before we get the treasure.

Archie: But how are we gonna do that? You can't kill ghosts!

Me: Actually believe it or not, we CAN kill ghosts. We're gonna banish these pirates to the Warp.

Veronica: The Warp?

Jughead: You mean like hyperdrive?

Me: No this is different. The Warp is an interdimensional plane of psychic energy.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja, und it has psychic energies that are so strong und powerful that nothing can escape it.

Vince: We banished many of our most dangerous enemies to the Warp and they are stuck there now for all eternity.

Archie: WHOA! That's incredible!

Lola: It sure is.

Varie: I think so too.

Silver Samurai: Now, let's see what this treasure looks like.

Brittney: The Pirates will be coming any second.

Me: Lets go.

We went into the ship and we saw a locked door to the treasure room.

Me: Here we go.

I used the Medallion and unlocked it and it showed a huge stash of treasure worth a fortune.

Everyone: WHOA!

Nico: WOW! Look at all this!

Storm Shadow: (to Barbossa) Look at all this gold!

Barbossa: Aye! Enough to make us pirates happy forever.

Me: And enough to make the world as we know it rich forever. This is a priceless 300 year old treasure.

Nicole: I've been searching for this treasure since I was a little girl and we've found it at last.

I then sensed something.

Me: Uh oh. We've got company.

We went out and saw THE PIRATES!

Me: Time for a battle on the seven seas!

We went at the pirates and unsheathed our swords and clashed with them.

Brittney kicked the pirates away and knocked them down.

Major Disaster: Before we have the usual battles, we need to Hakai at least half of these pirates!

Me: Good idea.

I held out my hand to the pirate crew.

Me: HAKAI!

The crew of the pirates were banished to the Warp and the Captain was left!

Pirate Captain: ME CREW!

Nicole: Wait a second! I know you! You're the infamous evil dread pirate Captain Dreadscar!

Captain Dreadscar: That's right lass!

Me: Captain Dreadscar!? But how is that possible!? He disappeared 321 years ago!

Laney: It looks like the curse made him stay here.

Jack Sparrow: They are pirates that will never follow the code.

Gibbs: No they won't Captain.

Sora: These guys are monsters.

Me: Yeah they are.

James (Pokemon): Why do I get the feeling that those pirates weren't even all of the crew?

Just like James said, a massive army of pirates as well as all the victims who sought out the treasure that were slaughtered by the pirates came!

Me: Way to open your big mouth James.

Nico: Oh shit on me sideways.

Me: Looks like we're in for a battle on the high seas!

Lincoln: YEAH!

Spymaster: Why are the pirates' victims fighting us?!

Brittney: It's part of the curse! We have to kill Captain Dreadscar before they can rest in peace!

Me: Then that's what we're gonna have to do.

?: Tronics! Get them!

Dr. Light, Dark Laser, Robo Blaze, Robo Roxy, Eccentro, Skulker, Toiletnator and Demyx and a massive army of Tronics jumped out from on the ship and landed beside us and the Tronics went at the pirates and victims.

Me: Dr. Light, Dark Laser, Robo-Blaze, Robo-Roxy, Eccentro, Skulker and Toiletnator.

Commander Mars: Are we glad to see you guys!

Robo-Roxy: Well, we saw a large army of ghosts heading towards the ship.

Dr. Light: And we followed them to find you guys as well as Britney's old friends.

Robo-Blaze: Me and Robo-Roxy summoned several Tronics to take care of them for you guys.

Enchantress: I'll help the Tronics fight the ghosts just to be on the safe side.

Dark Laser: (to Archie) You're Archie, right? Great to finally meet you!

Archie: Same here. It's an honor to meet more members of the Masters of Evil.

Dr. Light: Same here.

The Dark Signers then appeared.

Carly Atlas: We'll gladly help you guys take down the pirates.

Nicole: These aren't just any pirates Carly. This is Captain Dreadscar and his crew. They are pirates from back in the year 1700 and they were cursed for stealing a treasure that's worth a King's Ransom. I've been searching for this treasure since I was a little girl.

Misty Tredwell: Wow! That's amazing!

?: It sure is.

9 figures came out and they were CRUEL CHROME from episode 41 of Zeo and also FENGHUANG of the Predecessor Furious 5, Margaret Pye A.K.A. MAGPIE, Iris Phelios A.K.A. HARPY, Dr. Grace Balin A.K.A. ORCA, Veronica Sinclair A.K.A. ROULETTE, GATE, MALCHIOR and CANDLE JACK!

Cruel Chrome

Cruel Chrome was created by Prince Gasket from Detective Jerome Stone's waverunner. He was able to fire a hazardous water-like substance on the Rangers from a hose-like weapon. The Rangers received an antidote, they delivered a pounding to the monster, whose watery substance this time had no effect on the Rangers. The Rangers then unleashed a massive beatdown on the monster, with a punch from Jason finally taking him down by backflipping over him and kicking him in the smalls of his back. Cruel Chrome was then grown into a giant and had spikes from his hands and feet. The Rangers called on their Super Zeo Zords (Red's was piloted by Alpha 5 via remote control rather than directly). Cruel Chrome had the upper hand for a bit until Jason arrived in Pyramidas. The Super Zeo Megazord was formed and. although it was tied up and electrocuted, managed to smash his boomerang and the chain. However, he still had a devastating attack from the cannon in his back to use which forced them to form the Super Zeo Ultrazord which destroyed him. Alpha replaced the wave runner, unbeknownst to Bulk, Skull and Stone. Prince Gasket was extremely dismayed by this defeat, saying he should've been king by now.

Fenghuang

Fenghuang is a character from the Nickelodeon television series Kung Fu Panda: Legends of Awesomeness and the online game Kung Fu Panda: Tales of Po . She served as one of the primary recurring villains of the series.

Fenghuang was once part of the Former Furious Five, but after being dubbed the most powerful out of the quintet, she challenged Oogway and lost, fleeing to the Northern Mountains for refuge. Many years later, she attempted and failed multiple times to take vengeance upon the Jade Palace, resulting in her repeated incarceration at Chorh-Gom Prison. Her final attempt on revenge resulted in her banishment to oblivion by the Shuyong Tree. However she somehow escaped, possibly from the Shuyong seed Po missed at the end of the episode, and is now planning her next move.

Fenghuang was once one of Oogway's students at the Jade Palace and part of the Former Furious Five. Oogway had recognized special skills within Fenghuang, which he then refined in his mentoring sessions with her. As she trained, she gradually grew stronger and stronger until she was the most powerful of the Five. It was most likely this recognition that caused her heart to grow dark and change.

One day, Fenghuang approached Oogway and challenged him to a fight, believing that she deserved to be the new master of the Jade Palace. Oogway had anticipated this (having built an inescapable owl-shaped cage just for her), but he still had to fight and defeat her in order to get her inside it. After a long and fierce battle, Fenghuang found that she couldn't defeat Oogway. But before he could contain her, she flew away from the palace.

A rumor eventually sparked that she had made refuge in the Northern Mountains, too afraid of Oogway to return to the Jade Palace.

One day during a battle, Po's unexpected use of the Thundering Wind Hammer, one of the Seven Impossible Moves, unnerved Shifu and the Five. When Po inquired why they were afraid, Shifu took him to the archives and showed him a picture of the past Furious Five. Fenghuang was shown as one of them, but was crossed out, and Shifu explained to Po that she had become "twisted and dark", as all of the most powerful members of the Five had before her. During a talk with Monkey, Po learned more about Fenghuang's past, and grew worried that he would become evil as well, as he was the most powerful.

Po eventually left the Valley of Peace in order to protect his friends, who feared that he would become evil, and he traveled into the Northern Mountains. When he nearly fell to his death, Fenghuang unexpectedly appeared, grabbed him and carried him to her lair. She correctly guessed that he was from the Jade Palace, recognizing the scent of the sandalwood incense she disliked. Upon meeting her, Po asked the owl what it was like being evil. Curious, Fenghuang asked Po who told him she was evil, and mentioned Oogway. Po told her Oogway was gone, news which excited Fenghuang, who was convinced that with Oogway out of the way, nothing could stop her from conquering the Valley of Peace. She attempted to entice Po to join her, but the panda refused and they two briefly fought before Fenghuang took off and left Po in her lair, promising that he would eventually come around to her way of thinking.

Returning to the Jade Palace, she first confronted Shifu (who at the moment held the same incense she disliked), and the two engaged in combat. Fenghuang's sharp and swift kung fu skills overwhelmed both Shifu and the Furious Five, and just as she had Shifu at her mercy, Po came crashing in on a hang-glider made out of Fenghuang's feathers, collected from her lair. As they fought, Fenghuang asked Po why would he fight for friends who had wanted him gone. Though this affected Po momentarily, he used the Thundering Wind Hammer technique to attack the owl, but surprisingly she blocked the move, slyly commenting, "What you cannot absorb, you deflect."

Once again, Fenghuang tried to sway Po to her side, and offered to show him another of the Seven Impossible Moves, and Po displayed more and more interest in joining her. After she taught him the Mongolian Fireball, Fenghuang ordered Po to kill Shifu. Po, seeming willing to do so, took a sword and struck, and Shifu gasped and closed his eyes. While put off guard in her supposed triumph, Fenghuang was trapped in the owl-shaped cage Oogway had designed for her by Po, who had only been pretending to be evil, and had stabbed Shifu with a fake sword he had gotten earlier from Tang the Toy Vendor. Outraged, she was then towed away to Chorh-Gom Prison, swearing that she would have her revenge on Po.

In "Crane on a Wire" she returned to the Valley of Peace, having escaped prison and destroyed the owl-shaped cage that once held her, and crashed Mr. Ping's charity auction for the new Children's Hospital. She fought Po and the Furious Five, publicly humiliating Crane by throwing him into a wall. But her attacks soon failed due to Po and the Five using iron to shield against her talons, which became damaged, and she fled back to the mountains again to heal. Crane stayed behind while Po and the rest of the Furious Five went after her. While climbing the mountain, Po and the others again fought the owl, who now had new steel talons. Fenghuang soon defeated them, however, Crane showed up and helped his comrades, challenging Fenghuang in an aerial battle with help from

Po. Their fight led into the Valley of Peace, where Po was knocked out, leaving Crane to fight Fenghuang alone. Seeing him panic, Fenghuang proceeded to laugh at Crane, who took her on and managed to defeat the owl himself.

In "The Spirit Orbs of Master Ding", Fenghuang made a cameo in a flashback where she and the other Furious Five members of her generation stopped Master Ding from taking over the Valley of Peace.

In "The First Five", Fenghuang was revealed to be safely locked away in Chorh-Gom Prison (with no mention of how she escaped from oblivion, possibly from the seed Po missed at the end of the episode). She was called in by the First Five after Po invites them to Shifu's anniversary of becoming a Kung Fu Master. To prevent her evil from getting in the way, they place a manacle on her to keep her from flying far as they defeat the last enemy the First Furious Five with Shifu defeated, Xi'an, when the demon turns up, and promising to free her as soon as she uses the technique she used to protect the team from Xi'an during their last fight against the demon.

But later on when Fenghuang manages to protect the possession shockwave emitted from the sword, they manage to remove the sword, but Fenghuang reveals that she wants the sword. Though things turn bad when Elephant gets possessed by Xi'an after holding the sword for too long, and attacks the heroes. They manage to save Elephant, but Fenghuang surprises the team by disposing of the sword in the volcano. Fenghuang is released from her manacle as per the agreement, much to the First Five's skepticism, and she ends up leaving on them, vowing to make her next move.

In "A Stitch in Time", Fenghuang has mastered five additional Impossible Moves and used them to defeat Shifu and the Furious Five in the Jade Palace, saving the fifth new one (the Flying Ring of Energy) just for Po, then Po uses the Shuyong Seeds to learn how to avoid the new Fenghuang's move, but she managed to go back in time with him and finds out about the Shuyong seeds that Po had found. After managing to steal one of them she grows her own Shuyong Tree and eats its fruit giving her complete mastery over time. Fenghuang then returned to the palace and started going back in time to prevent the birth (presumably, even their mere conception, as well) of Shifu and the Furious Five.

When she planned to go back in time to prevent Po's birth, Po grabbed onto Fenghuang with the resulting battle causing the Shuyong seeds to fall and send both of them back to the beginning of time where they find themselves before the Shuyong Tree.

Upon the Shuyong Tree judging Po and Fenghuang even after they bested the Shuyong Tree's guardians, the Shuyong Tree deemed Po worthy of using its fruit and the Shuyong Tree used its powers to send Fenghuang into oblivion.

Magpie

Origin

Margaret Pye always had an obsessive fascination with shiny objects. As a child, she was teased for her obsession and given the nickname Magpie; a bird that is known to collect shiny things. Years later, Margaret became a curator at the Gotham City Museum where she was constantly surrounded by shining displays that she could not have. Driven mad by the fact she wasn't able to obtain the displays, Margaret began a life of crime as the thief Magpie.

Modern Age

Magpie is the first villain to be defeated by Batman and Superman together. She later tried to escape Arkham Asylum with her cellmate Poison Ivy. Magpie was eventually killed by the second Tally Man who was working with Great White Shark.

Blackest Night

After her death, Magpie was later resurrected by Black Hand as a member of the Black Lanturn corps but was later defeated.

New 52

Margaret Pye is revived during the New 52 . In this continuity, she still committed crimes as the villainess Magpie until she was caught and incarcerated in Arkham Asylum, where she somehow got a job as a receptionist. Margaret continued doing this job for awhile but her villainous behavior slowly resurfaced and she eventually resumed her activities as Magpie once again.

Harpy

Harpy is a comic book supervillain in DC Comics.

Publication history

Iris Phelios is the girlfriend of Maxie Zeus. Iris donned a winged costume to battle Batman in defense of Zeus. Iris Phelios first appeared in Batman #481 (July, 1992) and was created by Doug Moench and Jim Aparo.

Fictional character biography

Iris Phelios is the girlfriend of Batman villain Maxie Zeus. After aiding in the robbery of an ancient funerary urn she suspects Zeus' men of a double cross and dons a bird themed costume to punish them as the Harpy only to be interrupted by Batman.

Orca

Dr. Grace Balin, or better known as Orca, is a villainess in DC Comics and an enemy of Batman. She is a marine biologist who (after being paralyzed) experimented with the idea of regenerative spinal cord tissue using the tissue of an Orca whale. Eventually, she created a formula from the Orca tissue that ended up turned herself into a giant humanoid Orca.

As Grace Balin

Prior to becoming Orca, Grace Balin attended Gotham Gate college and quickly became fascinated with the ocean and sea life. After graduating college, she received a PhD in marine biology and Bio-Medicine and took a job at the Gotham Aquarium and later helped fund an after-school program involving the ocean for underprivileged youths and volunteered at a soup shelter.

Unfortunately, Dr. Balin is later involved in an (unspecified) accident that leaves her paralyzed, leaving her dependent on a wheelchair for mobility. Balin attempts to continue her normal life without the use of her legs, but but soon becomes desperate to cure her paralysis after the Gotham Aquarium is supposed to be closed for lack of funding. Dr. Balin then experiments with spinal cord tissue regeneration using the spinal cord tissue of an Orca from the aquarium, but her funding is cut by her superiors due to her gene therapy sessions and human experimentation becoming far too controversial. It is later implied that Dr. Balin created a formula to repair her spinal cord using the Orca tissue, but ended up turning herself into Orca as a result. Unfortunately, although she can transform between her human and Orca forms at will, while her Orca form is completely mobile, her human self still remained paralyzed.

As Orca

After Balin's transformation, Orca begins a crime spree by stealing a valuable diamond called the Flame of Persia from rogue millionaire Camille Baden-Smyther, resulting in Batman getting involved. Orca then tries to sell the diamond back to Camille and use the money to help fund multiple projects designed to help Gotham's underprivileged population, however, her plan falls apart when she realizes that Camille had stolen the diamond originally and attempts to kill her. During the ensuing fight, Orca is shot multiple times and mortally wounded by Camille's security forces and she attempts to escape, but is pursued by Batman. After a lengthy underwater chase, Orca begins changing back into Dr. Balin in an underwater cavern and starts to succumb to her injuries, telling Batman that she will die unless he gives her the rest of the formula that turned her into Orca, although this would permanently transform her. Camille tries to talk Batman out of giving her the formula, arguing that Batman would be responsible for every crime she would commit afterwords, but Batman counters her argument, stating that everyone is responsible for their own actions, as well as that he refuses to allow anyone to die. Having ingested the formula, Orca swims away, and it is later shown that she sold the diamond to its original owner and that she used the money she earned to create a new recreation center near the aquarium as well as to "… gentrify a derelict waterfront tenement.".

Much later, during the Joker's "Last Laugh" riots, Orca appears as a prisoner of The Slab. Orca is later seen escaping the prison with King Shark.

During One Year Later, Orca is found dead in the sewers under Gotham City, having been fatally shot in the head by what seem to be Harvey Dent's guns and partially eaten by Killer Croc. During Jason Bard's interrogation of Orca's husband Terry, he is murdered by theTally Man. During the investigation of the murder, it is revealed that Orca, along with KGBeast, Magpie and the Ventriloquist and Scarface had all been associates of the Penguin and someone had contracted them to turn on The Penguin and rob one of his storage facilities. It is later shown that Tally Man was hired by the Great White Shark to assassinate Orca and the other villains and frame Harvey Dent in an elaborate plot to destroy his life.

DC Rebirth

In the DC Rebirth reboot universe, Orca is mentioned by Copperhead and Cheshire as one of the numerous villains who tried and failed to kill Batman for Two-Face.

Orca makes her first physical appearance Nightwing #11, where she is a part of a criminal group in Bludhaven called the Whale's Enders and is ordered to kill Nightwing. As mentioned early into the story, Grace was formerly a member of the Run-Offs, a rehab group for former Gotham supervillains, but left because she considered herself too much of a monster to relate to them, implying that her transformation is permanent. When Nightwing and the Run-Offs try to interrogate Carter Forsyth, Orca and the Whale's Enders attack Carter's trailer and begin to fight them. After Nightwing and the Run-Offs defeat her by having Giz's squirrel put headphones playing an airhorn blowing at 300 decibels in her ears, Orca reveals she and the Whale's Enders were just a distraction so Carter Forsyth to be killed by the False Face Society.

Roulette

Roulette is a supervillainess in the DC comics and the conniving entrepreneur who ran an illegal no-halt cage fighting league known as the Meta-Brawl.

Roulette's grandmother was a Golden Age villain of the same name, who ran a conventional casino and fought Mister Terrific (Terry Sloane). The current Roulette believes Terry Sloane to be her grandfather, but it is indicated that her grandfather was actually Terry's brother Ned. Both Roulette and Ned have been added into Mr. Terrific's history, and do not appear in the original stories. Having encountered the second Mister Terrific during one of her schemes, she has come to view him as an unworthy successor to Sloane.

Her casino ("The House") is a superhuman gladiatorial arena, capturing heroes with teleporter technology similar to Holt's T-Spheres, and pitting them against each other, while various supervillains bet on the outcome.

In her debut, she captured most of the current Justice Society and forced them to fight each other; Mr. Terrific and Dr. Mid-Nite were forced to play a chess game where the loser would be electrocuted, Sand and Hawkman had to reach Hawkgirl while infected with a fast-acting lethal virus (of which Kendra had enough of the cure for one) while Black Adam clashed with Atom Smasher.

However, all managed to escape their traps; Black Adam and Atom Smasher's fight lasted so long that the mind-controlling drugs used on them to heighten their hostility towards each other wore off, Sand remained in his earth form to slow the spread of the virus until another cure could be found by Dr. Mid-Nite, and Mr. Terrific and Dr. Mid-Nite managed to reach a draw in their chess game, destroying the electronic board while the game re-set itself. Roulette teleported them away before they could capture her, however.

A wall of fallen heroes was the only indication of the many DC Comics heroes who had been killed in battle in "The House." The names include Firebrand, Impala, Maxi-Man, Ram of the New Guardians, Flyboy and the Hybrid (minus Pteradon).

Roulette and the House reappear in Formerly Known As The Justice League, in which she captures the Super Buddies. The subliminal programming which prevented heroes escaping fails to work on Fire because her native language is Portuguese, and she releases the others. When this is followed by Mary Marvel shorting out her aggressor chip due to extreme stress, Roulette decides they have won and orders them teleported away.

Post Infinite Crisis/One Year Later

She has appeared in JSA Classified (#19, Jan 2007). Dr. Mid-Nite had infiltrated her current fight club location in search of information regarding purported organ-napping. She agreed to give him information only if he beat her bodyguard in a game of arm wrestling. He did so, using his knowledge of nerves and their debilitation, and though she felt he had "cheated" she gave him the name of a model who had surgically implanted wings. After Dr. Mid-Nite left, she called the owner of the surgical clinic, who later proved to be Delores Winters, and told her of the hero's investigation into the implants and operations.

Roulette also appears in The Brave and the Bold #1 (2007), with Firebug's gauntlets, attempting to destroy the fabled Book of Destiny, until an alien villain with a probability-based weapon steals it from her; it transpires she had been dating the thief of the book, and that she had read the book. This took a serious blow to her sanity, as she saw too much of the future to withstand the information.

In the Justice League of America vol. 2, #35 (September 2009) story Royal Pain, Roulette has a game going with Amos Fortune. They each play with cards that represent the JLA and the Royal Flush Gang; in turn, they each bet that one can beat the other, respectively. Eventually, though, it is revealed that Roulette was merely gathering data on the JLA, Fortune and his Gang. She is shown to be working-perhaps against her will-under the Key, and his as-yet-unknown master.

Gate

Gate is the main antagonist of Mega Man X6 .

He was voiced by the late Keiji Fujiwara, who also voiced Mewtwo in Pokemon and Ali Al-Saachez.

Biography

Gate was a renowned Reploid researcher. He created various Reploids to help people. However, some of his creations were misunderstood and were forcefully deactivated. Others failed their purposes and were also deactivated. This deeply angered Gate, who grew a grudge against those who did not appreciate his work. He decided to become a recluse and focus solely on his research.

After the Eurasia Incident, he investigated the area where the space colony crashed, discovering a small piece of scrap. After analyzing the thing, he discovers that it was actually a fragment from Zero, who had died in the Eurasia Incident. Amazed by his discovery, Gate researches Zero's DNA. He manages to reverse engineer it almost completely. Driven by madness and his newfound knowledge, he decided to take revenge on the world that rejected him and his creations. He began a project to create a perfect utopia for himself and his Reploids only.

By using Zero's DNA and being aided his loyal assistant Isoc, he creates High Max and the Nightmare Phenomenon. He then starts his plan to retire all weak Reploids. This involves spreading the Nightmare and tricking all Reploids to help investigate the areas affected by the Nightmare. He even reconstructs and reactivates his old Reploids, who take the guise of Nightmare Investigators.

X is sent to the affected areas to investigate the situation. He is forced to defeat the Nightmare Investigators and High Max. Gate invites him to his secret lab, where he shows X the magnificence of his plan. X only replies that he is crazy. X makes his way into the lab where he destroys High Max. He also must face Gate, who had infused himself with Zero's DNA. After a hard battle, X defeats Gate, who reveals his last resort plan. He had been creating a new body for Sigma, but it was still incomplete. Sigma, who was in a demented state due to overspreading his virus during the Eurasia Incident, kills Gate. After Sigma is defeated, Gate's body is taken by the Maverick Hunters and given to Alia. Alia was a friend of Gate and wishes to find a way of reviving her old friend. He is, however, believed to be too damaged to repair.

Malchior

Malchior is an antagonist from the Teen Titans animated series. He is a powerful dragon and a special enemy of Raven.

He was voiced by Greg Ellis, who also voiced Punk Rocket in the series as well.

Malchior is first mentioned in a book read by Raven. In the book, Malchior faces the wizard, Rorek of Nol. The dragon was more superior to Rorek, so Rorek trapped Malchior inside his spellbook with a powerful curse. Raven later owned the book sometime ago. When Raven wanted to stay alone to read the book, Malchior made his move. He tricked Raven into believing that the roles in the battle were reversed, that he was the wizard and Rorek was the dragon. He told Raven that he could empathize with her nature. He gained Raven's trust and affection and manipulated her in freeing him from his imprisonment in the book first, then he taught her his full knowledge of his magic to ensure that he will be fully freed.

Raven succeeded in breaking the curse, but to her horror she realized what she unleashed. When the Titans were unable to take Malchior down in combat, Raven trapped Malchior in the book again and locked it away.

Some time later, Malchior was somehow freed and was recruited into the Brotherhood of Evil in his paper form, but he can turn into a dragon at will. During the final battle with the Titans, Malchior planned to burn Melvin, Timmy Tantrum, and Teether that Raven recruited in the battle, but his attack was foiled by Herald who blew his horn and sucked in the fire and then Malchior himself to another dimension.

It is unknown what happened to Malchior afterwards.

Candle Jack

Candlejack, also known as " Candle Jack ", is one of the main villains in the Freakazoid cartoon series.

He is a supernatural villain with a burlap sack over his head and looks like a real ghost. He floats, carries a candle with him and speaks in a low ghastly voice. Kids call him "the boogeyman, the for-real one". He appears whenever someone says his name and he ties them up. He has a weakness for pie and loves the western sitcom F Troop .

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett, who also voiced Bendy in Foster's Home for Imaginary Friends .

Soon everyone starts saying his name and he appears and captures them. Freakazoid ran off to hang with Cosgrove and Cosgrove breaks the fourth wall and tells Freakazoid that Steph and the kids were in danger. Freakazoid goes to save the kids but says Jack's name and gets tied up as well. He remembers an F Troop episode and Jack starts laughing with him. Freakazoid then distracted Jack with pie and defeated the supernatural villain.

Candle Jack did not appear again until halfway through the second season in the episode "The Island of Dr. Mystico". Freakazoid, Cosgrove, and Steph were transporting the Lobe, Longhorn, Cave Guy, Cobra Queen and Candle Jack to a prison in Paris. Over the Atlantic, Dr. Mystico spots the airplane and makes it crash into the ocean, washing everyone up on the island. Longhorn gets captured by one of Dr. Mystico's henchmen and Freakazoid splits up the group. Cobra Queen and Steph were in charge of fixing the plane while the others went to find Longhorn.

Candle Jack was not given an assignment and asks Freakazoid what to do. He suggests that he should scare Professor Jones, to which he gladly accepts. For the remainder of the episode, Candle Jack is seen chasing the frightened professor all around the beach. When Freakazoid and others are running from Mystico's henchmen, they all board the plane and leave. Candle Jack is last seen in the series finale as one of the villains invited to the Lobe's party. Freakazoid crashes the party, foils their plan and sends them all away. Jack, along with the other villains, and the rest of the cast join together in song and sing farewell to the audience.

Tommy Oliver: Cruel Chrome!

Batman: Orca, Harpy and Magpie!

Raven: Malchior!

Mega Man: Gate!

Hawkgirl: Roulette!

Po: Fenghuang!

Freakazoid: And Candle Jack!

Malchior: Didn't expect us to be part of the Masters of Evil didn't you?

Me: Aren't you the sorcerer that taught Raven all that she knew about dark magic?

Malchior: As a matter of fact I am J.D.

Orca: It's an honor to meet you all.

Candle Jack: We heard many great things about you all.

Me: You're a freaky version of the Boogeyman from what I was told.

Grim: (Jamaican Accent) Thank goodness he's not like the one I know mon.

Me: Thank goodness.

Po: This is awesome! I didn't know you were part of the Masters of Evil now Fenghuang.

Fenghuang: I decided to become a frenemy and Kung Fu instructor to them.

Me: Cool! And Cruel Chrome, I remember you. You were sent by Prince Gasket to destroy the rangers with your poison.

Cruel Chrome: That's right J.D. Good memory on you.

Me: Thanks. Never missed an episode.

Cruel Chrome: (to the Zeo Rangers) You Rangers might be immune to my gas now. But I still have my boomerang!

Tommy Oliver: We'll always be ready for anything.

Nico: You got that right.

Katherine Hillard: (Australian Accent) Right on!

Another figure came out and it was the LORD HIGH EXECUTIONER from A NIGHT IN TERROR TOWER!

---

The Lord High Executioner is the main antagonist in the twenty-seventh Goosebumps book, A Night in Terror Tower, and the secondary villain in its gamebook sequel, Return to Terror Tower .

A Night in Terror Tower

In A Night in Terror Tower, The Lord High Executioner is the head of the prison tower that was originally a walled fort built by Romans where prisoners were cruelly treated. Some of these prisoners were imprisoned for just being unable to pay their taxes. The Lord High Executioner was always ready to do away with whomever was sentenced to death. One day, King Robert took reign of the kingdom and ordered his nephew and niece Edward and Susannah of York to the tower after the deaths of their parents. The Lord High Executioner and his men were ordered to smother the two children. Before they could do so, the real king's sorcerer Morgred used some magic stones to send Susannah and Edward to the future to save them. The Lord High Executioner was spying on Morgred, so he stole the stones and teleported to the future himself.

In the future, the Lord High Executioner caught up with Susannah and Edward (now calling themselves Sue and Eddie) in Terror Tower when they got lost from their tour group. He attempted to persuade the two children to come with him, telling them that he will have no choice but to hurt them if they don't come quietly. He didn't realize that Sue and Eddie had their memories erased by Morgred, so they thought he was a staff for the tour. They eventually realized the Lord High Executioner was for real and he pursued the children throughout the Tower and had eventually had them cornered in a sewer. He almost had Sue in his grasp, but ended up being chased away by rats.

The Lord High Executioner eventually escaped the rats and located Sue and Eddie at The Barclay. There, he ordered Eddie to give the three stones back to him as Eddie pick-pocketed them from him. Eddie attempted to bargain with the Executioner to let them go if he got them back, but the Executioner teleported all three of them back to their real time. Later, he grabbed Eddie while he and Sue were looking around in the village. The Lord High Executioner eventually caught up with Sue and told her that she cannot delay her fate. Sue declined defiantly and tried to hide from him in a peasant's cottage, only to have the peasant give her away. The Lord High Executioner then took Sue back to Terror Tower with Eddie.

At the tower, the Lord High Executioner once again got ready to execute the young prince and princess. But before he could carry out his duties, Sue and Eddie, who got their memories back after being told by Morgred what had happened managed to teleport themselves and the sorcerer into the future.

---

Me: The Lord High Executioner!

Wolfcastle: (to Lord High Executioner) (Arnold Schwarzenegger Accent) I remember you all too well.

Qin: Me too! You are the monster that plagued my life for far too long and I was scared out of my mind because of you!

Captain Cold: This was the monster that scared you Qin?

Qin: That's right Leonard. Back when I was a little girl, I read the Goosebumps book A Night in Terror Tower and that was one of the scariest stories I've ever seen.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh Man!

Me: But how did he come back?

He pulled out a card and it was NUMBER 60: DUGARES THE TIMELESS!

We gasped.

Eli: Number 60: Dugares the Timeless!

Nico: He has a Number on him.

Me: Lets get them!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Akiza, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Celestia, Minuette, Twinkleshine, Lemon Hearts, Lyra Heartstrings, Moondancer, Star Swirl, Me, Alice, Alpha Hydranoid, Joe Shimamura, Valon and Tania VS Robo-Roxy

---

Robo-Roxy was first.

Robo-Roxy: (to Akiza) You're gonna think I'm crazy for suggesting this but- (sighs)- I think Deadshot, David Cain, Killer Croc, Black Manta, Slipknot, Bronze Tiger, Parasite, and the Shrapnel that the Justice League are familiar with should join the Masters of evil.

Akiza: I wasn't around during most of Team Loud Phoenix Storm's adventures but I heard that everyone hated Deadshot and Killer Croc. Parasite we had arrested and we haven't met the rest yet.

Twilight Sparkle: No we haven't. Black Manta from what I heard is one of the original members of the Legion Of Doom.

Luster Dawn: That's right but those are all great ideas. But why was Deadshot hated so much?

Princess Celestia: From what I heard he was a great marksman and he killed a number of people and hurt his daughter Zoe. Villains have been accusing us that they think we hurt Zoe.

Minuette: But it was actually the opposite Princess. Zoe hated her father for everything he did.

Twinkleshine: Yeah he was a monster.

Lemon Hearts: He sure was. And I would hate someone like Deadshot forever for that.

Lyra Heartstrings: Me too!

Moondancer: Same here.

Star Swirl: I agree. Deadshot is a monster with no honor. I'm against Deadshot being part of the Masters of Evil.

Alice: I am too. I've heard about all the crimes Deadshot did and he is ruthless.

Alpha Hydranoid: Same here. He has no heart.

Joe Shimamura: No he doesn't.

Me: Yeah I'm against Deadshot being in the Masters of Evil myself. After all the pain and suffering he caused and all the pain he inflicted to his daughter Zoe and all the hurt villains caused to us by saying we hurt Zoe by killing him there's no way in hell I would consider letting him join the Masters of Evil.

Valon: (Australian Accent) Yeah he has no heart mates. Deadshot is a monster that got what he deserved.

Tania: Big time.

Robo-Roxy: You guys have a really bad history with Deadshot don't you?

Me: You got that right. That's a huge understatement.

Robo-Roxy: I'll have to hear about it later. But how come you are with this group J.D.?

Me: Well the Planeteers want to get in on the action and get some practice in because they will get archenemies too. So they want to get some practice in. And I'm a Planeteer myself.

I showed my purple Ring of Lightning.

Robo-Roxy: Wow! That's amazing. But you already have an archenemy.

Me: I know but I want to get some practice in with it.

Robo-Roxy: That's understandable. Lets get it on.

We went at her.

Akiza, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Celestia, Minuette, Twinkleshine, Lemon Hearts, Lyra Heartstrings, Moondancer, Star Swirl, Me, Alice, Alpha Hydranoid, Joe Shimamura, Valon and Tania: MAGIC LIGHTNING THUNDERSTRIKE STYLE FORMATION ART: THUNDERSTORM OF FURY!

We spun in a Hexadecagon formation and fired a massive blast of purple lightning and it hit Robo-Roxy and knocked her down.

Akiza: That was awesome!

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah it was!

Me: WOW! That was great!

---

Dr. Light was next.

Dr. Light: (to Kairi) It must've been nice for BRitney to reunite with Archie.

Kairi: It sure was and we had no idea that Brittney was part of a mystery solving gang back then.

Sunset Shimmer: That is so cool! I think it's really cool that Brittney faced all sorts of monsters and solved mysteries and all that.

Cayenne: I think so too.

Wallflower: Me too! So awesome.

Dr. Light: It sure is. I heard that you guys found a Radioactive Shark earlier.

Gusty: We sure did and it was scary!

Apple Bloom: It was awful. It was emitting an incredible level of radiation.

Sweetie Belle: And it had a temperature of over 2,000˚ Fahrenheit!

Scootaloo: Yeah!

Dr. Light: Whoa! That's intense!

Diamond Tiara: It sure was. But thankfully no one got hurt.

Silver Spoon: Thank goodness.

Frozen Fright: Yeah the creature was just too hot to handle. I tried cooling it down with my ice but its heat was that intense.

Thunder Terror: It sure was. It was awful.

Magma Gloom: Yeah.

Toxic Horror: Its radiation was 100 times greater than mine.

Louie PoisonSea: Yeah.

Mati: (South American Accent) But we're glad we got rid of the creature.

Jet Link: Yeah.

Runo: And the submarine that made it that way.

Blade Tigrerra: Yeah.

Dr. Light: Thank goodness. Lets get it on!

They went at him.

Kairi, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Wallflower, Gusty the Great, Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle, Scootaloo, Diamond Tiara, Silver Spoon, Frozen Fright, Thunder Terror, Magma Gloom, Toxic Horror, Louie PoisonSea, Mati, Jet Link, Runo, Blade Tigrerra, Magnet Man and Gravity Man: LIGHT FIRE HEART STYLE FORMATION ART: LIGHT HEART FLAME BLAST!

---

Dark Laser was next.

Dark Laser: (to Sabrina) I honestly don't know what I saw in Crocker as a teammate.

Sabrina: I don't think anyone understood him. But he was always like that ever since March 15th, 1973.

Anakin: It sure was crazy. Even though I'm from Tatooine, I find Earth's customs interesting. As well as finding that Crocker was that dangerous.

Ahsoka: I know Master Skywalker. It's just awful that he was that dangerous and all that. It's like his mind was gone and messed up the moment he revealed his fairies back then.

Padme: That is an interesting way to describe it.

Aayla: (French Accent) Indeed. And what he did was awful.

Obi-Wan: Even everyone on the Jedi council agreed.

Yoda: Smart Crocker was but sane he was not. Emotions and mind keep in check one must.

Dark Laser: Indeed. Elie how does it feel mastering the ways of the Force?

Elie: It feels incredible. Ever since Asajj Ventress became my archenemy I have had a lot of teachings under Master Windu as well as Master Anakin and Master Obi-Wan. I've learned so much.

Rarity: And she is learning really well might I add.

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) Indeed she is.

Sapphire Shores: Elie is learning everything fast and catching up great.

Dark Laser: Lets not give her a swollen head. By the way what was dealing with that radioactive shark like?

Mistmane: It was terrible! It got that way because of radiation from a Soviet Union Submarine that sunk in the area.

Sable Spirit: It sunk before the Cold War ended.

Princess Luna: But thank goodness no one got hurt from the Radiation.

Snowdrop: Yeah thank goodness.

Gari: And it was roaring like it was out of its mind with pain.

Gi: And it had a temperature of over 2,000˚. It was intensely hot!

Françoise: Yeah no kidding!

Marucho: It was brutal.

Preyas: Yeah.

Dark Laser: That sure IS intense. Lets get it on.

(DUEL OF THE FATES PLAYS)

They ignited their lightsabers.

Sabrina Mason: Lets do it!

They went at Dark Laser and slashed him all over the place with incredible fury and fired blasts of Force Waves and Force Lightning at him all over him.

Sabrina Mason, Anakin, Ahsoka, Padme, Aayla, Obi-Wan, Yoda, Elie, Rarity, Sassy Saddles, Sapphire Shores, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Princess Luna, Snowdrop, Children of The Night, Gi, Françoise, Marucho, Preyas, Kitten and Jinx: FORCE LIGHTNING PLANET STYLE FORMATION ART: POWER OF THE TWILIGHT FORCE!

Sora: I most certainly am and Nico is now all better and relieved of his past and all that.

Fluttershy: We all are. Those 20 days were a nightmare for all of us.

Tree Hugger: They were not groovy dudes.

Robo-Blaze: No they weren't. But thank goodness Nico now has Salem to protect him.

Zecora: Salem is on the path to redemption and we all see, for we all believe from her evil she is free.

Seabreeze: (Swedish Accent) Ja. And she is glad to be protecting Nico from it.

Mage Meadowbrook: We all are very glad that Nico is better.

Robo-Blaze: We sure are.

Eccentro: That's a very wise choice.

Applejack: Indeed it is. (To Linka) That's a very honest and good choice Sugarcube.

Linka Loud: Thanks Applejack.

Apple Fritter: But that treasure is amazing. Nicole said she was looking for that treasure ever since she was a little girl.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Granny Smith: Nicole is just as adventurous as Daring Do is.

Princess Amore: She sure is and she has amazing skills in hunting for treasure.

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) She sure is gifted.

Autumn Blaze: It's so cool!

Eccentro: It sure is! I like treasure hunts too. To tell you the truth, I wanted to be a treasure hunter instead of an evil prince.

Coloratura: Wow! That's really cool.

Batch: We didn't know about that.

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) That's really good dream lad.

Kwame: It sure is. I think it's really amazing.

Geronimo Jr.: I think so too.

Julie: Definitely.

Pinkie Pie: But thank goodness we can put those awful days behind us.

I banished the pirates to the Warp. But in doing so I freed all the victims of the pirates.

Nico: WHOA!

Me: Their spirits have been avenged. They can now finally rest in peace.

They disintegrated and went to the afterlife.

Me: All right!

Archie: That… was… AWESOME!

Me: Glad you liked it Archie. You all did a great job.

Brittney: You sure did. You all did great.

Archie: It really was good to see you again, Brittney.

Eccentro: Now, hold on. Who said this is goodbye?

Archie: What do you mean?

Skulker: Well, you and your friends are part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm now. That means you can see BRittney whenever you'd like.

Toiletnator: Now, let's get this treasure out of here.

Demyx: And let's take Jim's suggestion on making this ship even more wrecked.

Another awesome adventure done.

Archie's Weird Mysteries was an awesome show! I don't know the full extent of it like some people do but I heard it's really awesome! I hope you all liked this. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the second Supernoobs chapter and we're going after a treasure and meet a mermaid that Roach has a crush on and we're also going to take down Sir Elton. He is a bad man that must be stopped. Get Ready Sir Elton, IT'S BUTT KICKING TIME!

See you all tomorrow.

An Old Treasure Hunter Villain Returns

In the middle of the forests of Australia, we were flying and riding through the trees. I was on my Rapidash and the hover carriage was being pulled by it and in it was Eli and Nunnally.

Me: YEAH!

Nico: So awesome! I didn't know the Galar Region was in Australia.

Me: This is so cool!

We arrived in a place called Hulbury.

Maria: So this is Galar?

Me: Yep. Hard to imagine it's located right in the heart of the forests of Australia.

Laney: It sure is amazing. Wow! I think this is amazing.

Me: It sure is. This is our first time here in the Galar Region. Hard to imagine that there are Galar variants of Pokemon here.

Lola: Yeah it's so cool!

We heard a scream.

Me: Uh oh!

We went to the source of the scream and we saw a girl being attacked by Remnants of Team Aqua.

Me: Uh oh! Come on!

We went over and blasted them all over and saved the Girl. The girl was Nessa, the gym leader of Hulbury Gym.

May: (to Nessa): You okay? Did those creeps hurt you?

Nessa: No I'm fine but thank you all. (See's us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's such an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too.

Nessa: My name is Nessa and I'm the Gym Leader of the Hulbury Gym.

Me: Wow! It's a pleasure to meet you Nessa.

Nessa: I love all your adventures and they are so awesome!

Nico: We get that all the time.

Me: Not to brag but we've had a lot of adventures.

Nico: Ash told us all about you.

Nessa: I can tell he did and Ash it's great to see you again.

Ash: Same here Nessa. It's great to see you again as well.

May: The Galar Region is so beautiful.

Nessa: It sure is.

Me: We caught some Pokemon from Galar and they are amazing.

I showed her my Galar Moltres.

Nessa: You… Caught… THE GALAR MOLTRES!? WOW!

Me: Yeah it was a great sight. We never saw a Dark Version of Moltres before.

Nico: Neither have we ever seen a Fighting Version of Zapdos.

Nico showed his Fighting Zapdos.

Nessa: OH MY GOSH!

Lincoln: It's so cool! We haven't seen the Galar Version of Articuno yet.

Nessa: That's so cool! The Galar Articuno is a Psychic Type. You'll catch it one day.

Nico: Cool.

Nessa decided to come with us and we later went back home.

---

Later we were flying over Cornbury and we were seeing how the city was doing after Jock Jockerson and The Virus were killed and Mr. Wertz is back in prison forever.

Poromon: Cornbury looks very peaceful now.

Kevin Reynolds: You said it. Especially since Wertz is stuck in jail while Jock is gone for good.

Me: And lets not forget the Virus and its creators being destroyed.

Shope: That's right. But being a superhero is never done.

Nico: That's right.

Me: But if Wertz gets out he will die.

Nico: And I'll mount his head on a pike.

Nessa: I've heard about how dangerous the Sullen 6 were to all of you and all that. I didn't buy their lies for a second.

Lola: We're glad Nessa.

Robo-Blaze: So… anything to do next around here?

Me: Hmm.

Roach: Lets go on an awesome treasure hunt. I know where to find an awesome treasure.

Nicole: Ooh! A treasure hunt!? Now you are speaking my language Roach!

Lola: Cool!

Shiv: Where do we find this treasure?

Shope: We'll show you.

We followed the Superdudes to the beach and we went out to the middle of Lake Michigan and found an abandoned research station.

Shope: This is the spot. The treasure is right next to it underneath the station.

Me: Wow! First we found a treasure worth a King's Ransom in Florida and now a treasure underneath this research station in Lake Michigan.

Dark Spicer: Deathbite could be useful for this.

Me: Good idea Dark. Lets find that treasure!

?: (British Accent) Not if I find it first for myself!

We turned and we saw a face I had not seen for 10 years. It was none other than my former Treasure Hunting Partner turned archnemesis SIR ELTON!

Me: Elton! Sir Elton!

I walked up to him and I had a look on my face that said "I'm Going to Kill You" and my eyes were filled with hate over him.

Sir Elton: Well if it isn't my old partner James Dean Knudson.

Me: I knew you were up to your old tricks again Elton!

Sir Elton: It's Sir Elton now!

Me: I only give titles to those who earn it. Apparently you still haven't learned after we fought the last time you went after treasure.

Firefly: You know this fucker?

Me: Know him? I was his partner and best friend in treasure hunting.

We did it all together.

Nico: What did you do?

Me: 10 years ago we went all over the planet and searched the world for the most valuable treasure. We searched the deepest of the oceans and lakes, trekked through the jungles, searched through the hottest of the deserts and climbed the highest mountains to find the most elusive and most priceless of treasures. But the last treasure hunt I was on with him showed his true colors. We found the most valuable and largest Emerald in Colombia called the Emerald of the Incan Goddess Mama Pacha and it was a huge emerald as big as your head. Elton wanted to get the emerald and sell on the worlds black market. But I wouldn't let that happen. Me and Elton fought and I won and sent him to prison.

Nico: WHOA!

Varie: What happened to the Emerald?

Me: It's on display in the Smithsonian Institution in Washington D.C.

Sir Elton: And I would've been rich if it weren't for you J.D.!

Me: You brought all that on yourself Elton! Also for the record, I'm not the same kid that was under your wing all those years ago. I'm now the leader of the most powerful force ever known.

Sir Elton: So I have seen. Treasure is worth only one thing and that is for money!

Me: You're wrong Elton. Treasure is worth more than just a lot of money. It has a lot of historical and educational value that needs to be shared with the world. Why can't you see that?

Sir Elton: Because to me money is everything.

Me: You always did care more about money than anyone else. And that shows how black your heart is.

BANG!

Snake just shot Elton in the shoulder, causing him to fall to the ground.

Snake: Dudes, let's get a move on. He's gonna get up any minute now!

Me: Right! Nice shot though Snake. (To Sir Elton) We're not letting you get that treasure!

We jumped and dove into the water.

As we swam down my mermaid sense was going off.

Me: My Mermaid Sense is going.

Roach: I know what's going on! The Mermaid is here!

Shope: Mermaid?

Roach: Yeah she's here.

We swam and we saw a beautiful mermaid with a pink tail and a pink shirt and she had red hair and blue eyes.

Poliwag: (to the mermaid) Hello. What's your name?

Mermaid: I'm Marina. But you can just call me Mermaid.

Roach: Mermaid!

Roach and Mermaid hugged.

Mermaid: Roach it's great to see you again.

Roach: Same here.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you. We're Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Mermaid: It's an honor.

Nessa: We're searching for a treasure that a mad treasure hunter is after.

Mermaid: You mean Sir Elton.

Me: Yeah. He was my treasure partner from 10 years ago. He and I traveled the world and searched for awesome treasure. But his greed made him a monster and we're also here to stop him.

Mermaid: I see. I know which one you're talking about. Follow me.

We followed her and we found a sunken ship!

Me: Wow. A sunken ship.

Lily: I don't remember seeing this when we were down here.

Lola: It's amazing.

Roach: It sure is.

Horsea: (to Roach) You didn't tell us that your girlfriend was a mermaid.

Mermaid: I actually saved him a while back.

Roach: It's true.

Me: Wow.

Nico: What else can you tell us about Sir Elton?

Me: Well he is filthy rich and he calls himself a "Gazillionaire."

Nico: That's not even a real term.

Me: I know. And we have more money than he does. But he also uses that money to hire his own band of mercenaries.

Nico: WHAT!? We got to be ready for him.

Lola: And we will!

Laney was looking up his info on her mobile arm computer.

Laney: Whoa man! Look at this guys. It says here that Sir Elton is also a wanted international fugitive. 6 years ago he escaped from a maximum security prison in England. He was serving a Whole Life Order for killing numerous wealthy English Businessmen and stealing all their money!

We gasped in shock!

Me: Elton you're a monster!

Nico: His greed has taken him to a whole new level of evil.

Shope: He is the Devil Incarnate.

Electro: Sir Elton must've waited until Wertz, the Virus, and Jock were out of the way to go after us.

Me: No I don't think so. I know Sir Elton all too well. He wants all that treasure all for himself. But I always outsmarted him in the end like how Daring Do always outsmarts Ahuizotl and Dr. Cabelleron.

Daring Do: That's true and J.D. and Nicole are the greatest treasure hunters I know next to me and Indiana Jones.

Lana: They are awesome!

Nico: Yeah they are!

Mermaid: I think so too. But we have to stop Sir Elton once and for all.

Me: We will and he'll get a one way ticket to our space prisons.

Nicole: You got that right dad. And according to this it says here that he hasn't gotten any treasures in a while because I always be him to the punch.

Lola: Wow!

Twilight Sparkle: Smart.

Manaphy: Is that the treasure over there?

We saw the treasure and it was a massive King's Ransom like the one in Florida!

Nicole: That's it!

Me: Sir Elton is gonna be coming for it any second.

Nicole: Leave this to me.

Nicole fired a capsule teleporter beam and she put all the treasure in a capsule for safety.

Me: AWESOME! Way to go Nicole.

Nicole: Thanks dad. Never underestimate the brilliant mind of a treasure hunter.

Me: Well said. Now it's time for us to go get that clod.

Nico: Lets get him!

Roach: Mermaid you want to come with us and face him?

Mermaid: It will be an honor.

We went up to the surface and Varie formed a ball of water for the mermaid. We jumped up to the research base and we were facing Sir Elton and his mercenaries.

Me: Your treasure stealing days are through Elton!

Then 10 figures came out and it was ALL OF THE TEN TERRORS!

Me: All of the 10 Terrors!

Nick Russell: So you guys were looking for the treasure as well?

Sculpin: We wanted to see if it was real.

Black Lance: And we wanted to have that battle we were promised.

Me: Well you're in luck because we knew this day was coming and it's gonna be awesome!

Serpentina: Cool!

Megahorn: This is gonna be fun.

Imperious: Just like old times Daggeron.

Nico: This is gonna be fun!

Me: Yeah it is! Lets do it guys!

Me and the Mystic Force Rangers: LEGENDARY SOURCE! MYSTIC FORCE!

We transformed into our Legendary Forms!

Me: (Echoing) FURY OF THE STARS! LEGENDARY STELLAR WARRIOR!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind us.

Nessa: So awesome!

Xander Bly: GAIA HEART! GREEN GOLEM EARTH RANGER! (SNAPS FINGERS)

Me: This is gonna be awesome!

Cole Evans: Wow! That is awesome! I can't believe the Mystic Force Rangers now have 10 Rangers with Battlizers.

Nico: It sure is!

Sculpin: (to Takuya) Considering that you're the leader of your Digidestined Team, I'm not surprised that you're my archenemy.

Takuya: I figured a leader would be perfect for you. And I represent the Spirits of Fire. It's gonna be an honor to fight you Sculpin.

Sculpin: I won't disappoint you.

Takuya: I know you won't.

Black Lance: (to Jimmy) So… anything interesting you can do?

Jimmy: I like all kinds of beautiful moisturizing shampoos and I thrashed Kevin with a mailbox.

Black Lance: Impressive.

Megahorn: (to Koichi) You remind me of Leanbow back when he was Koragg.

Koichi: I was corrupted by the corrupted spirits of Darkness long ago before I was saved by myself. Now I have the true Spirits of Darkness. But I also have the ability to turn into the Corrupted Spirits of Darkness as well. But they were purified too.

Megahorn: That's cool!

Koichi: It sure is!

Magma: (to Koji) I'm just glad I get to stick around unlike my first battle.

Koji: That's true but that was awesome. And also I have the Spirits of Light so you will love having me as an archenemy.

Magma: Looking forward to it.

Serpentina: (to J.P.) Since Itasis left us, I'm pretty much the only female member of the Ten Terrors.

J.P.: That's all right with me and as the master of the Spirits of Thunder I think this is gonna be so awesome!

Serpentina: I am really looking forward to this.

Oculous: (to Tommy) It's good that Deadshot won't be joining the Masters of Evil anytime soon. That means I'll be the only sharpshooter around!

Tommy: (Digimon) You got that right! And I'm also a great sharpshooter too. I am the master of the Spirits of Ice.

Oculous: Awesome! J.D. and Chip put up a great fight with the Hideons and Styxians and me and it was epic.

Tommy: Boy it sure was! All the fights with the 10 Terrors were awesome!

Imperious: (to Kevin) I bet you can do even more damage to me in your WarKevin suit.

Kevin: (EENE) OH MAN! I totally forgot about that suit. But thank you for reminding me.

Imperious: You're welcome. Does your dad really work at the Jawbreaker Factory?

Kevin: He sure does and why do you think I always have a room full of jawbreakers back home?

Imperious: Awesome! And Eddy and Luan love that I'll bet.

Kevin: They sure do.

Hekatoid: (to Nazz) You don't mind frogs, do you?

Nazz: Not at all and Lana loves frogs and they are awesome. Also I forgot about my Iron Girl Suit. This is gonna be so awesome!

Hekatoid: It sure will be.

Gekkor: (to Sarah) You guys can have the treasure. We were never going to have a use for it anyway.

Sarah: (EENE) Thanks Gekkor. This is gonna be so awesome!

Gekkor: I can see that.

Morticon: (to Rolf) I have to admit. For a someone that's not a Ranger, you're pretty strong.

Rolf: Thank you zombie dark terror.

Morticon: Huh?

Rolf: That's how I call people. I call the Ed Boys nick names. It's part of who Rolf is.

Morticon: I see.

A man came out and it was the renowned exorcist and master of the arts of the Afterlife, JOHN CONSTANTINE!

Me: John Constantine!

John Constantine: That's right J.D. and it's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here John. I heard about all your exploits in both Heaven and Hell and they are ones that even the Devil himself fears.

John Constantine: That's right. And I heard you killed the Antichrist.

We grabbed him and arrested him and he was sent to the Neptune Prison in Solitary Confinement.

All of the money he stole was seized and he had his mansion and everything repossessed and more. He was now broke and penniless. He was also not gonna be getting out of prison alive. If he escapes again they will kill him on sight. We got the treasure to a museum and some of the treasure was given to the Superdudes and they now live in an awesome part of the World Tree of Friendship.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic complete.

20,000 Noobs Under The Sea is one of my favorites and it was so cool how the Superdudes found an awesome treasure and stopped Sir Elton. No I am not a treasure hunter for real. But it's cool to dream that. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is where we all journey through the awesome adventure of the awesome 2001 movie Atlantis The Lost Empire and we're gonna make sure that Rourke pays for his crimes as well as help Atlantis get back to its amazing glory as it was back 10,000 years ago.

See you all tomorrow.

The Legendary Lost City of Atlantis

At the World Tree Estate we were resting and reading books and watching TV.

Sheila then came in.

Magma: Hey, Sheila. Have you seen Nico? We haven't heard from him in hours.

Sheila: (sadly) That's what I want to talk to you about. Nico's… dead.

May: (shocked) WHAT?!

We Gasped in Shock!

Me: NO! He can't be gone!

Sam Sharp Loud: (sees tears in my eyes) J.D., it's okay for you to cry. We're all grieving for Nico right now.

Me: (Crying) Nico! NO!

We were crying hard.

Meanwhile in the city, Sid the Squid was in front of the evil, nefarious and ruthless mob boss Roman Sionis A.K.A. BLACK MASK!

---

Roman Sionis, better known as Black Mask, is a major antagonist from DC Comics, and is mainly an antagonist for Batman and Catwoman. He is a ruthless, greedy, and egotistical crime lord and mafioso. He is also the son of a very wealthy couple, that died in a fire, which he caused intentionally. He got their money and their company, but went bankrupt. His company was saved by Bruce Wayne, and Sionis hates him for taking everything he had, resulting in him becoming one of Gotham City's most ruthless crime lords. His mask is carved out of the black coffin of his father. Despite being sent to Arkham Asylum, his mild insanity is overshadowed by his greed that he was often reconsidered to be relocated to a regular prison instead of an institution due to knowingly and competently committing his crimes.

Past

Roman Sionis was born to a rich and influential family in Gotham City, his father being a very successful industrialist. His parents were narcissistic egotists who only cared about maintaining their social standing and public image; when a doctor dropped Roman on his head after his birth, they were more concerned about covering it up from their high society friends than their son's well being. During his childhood, Sionis was attacked by a rabid raccoon at the family's country estate, but his parents forbade him from telling anyone about the incident. They frequently dragged him around to parties and would force him to become friends with the children of other wealthy families in Gotham City, including the young Bruce Wayne. In reality, his parents hated social climbing nouveau riche types like the Waynes, but they continued affiliating themselves with them to preserve their public image. Sionis was deeply affected by his parent's hypocrisy, and he grew to despise them and the "masks" that they wore in public. After his high school graduation, Sionis was given a high ranking position in his father's company, the prosperous Janus Cosmetics, where he fell in love with a working class model named Circe. However, he was outraged when his parents disapproved and demanded that he break off his relationship with her. This proved to be the last straw for Sionis, who proceeded to burn down the family mansion, killing his parents.

With his parent's deaths, Sionis was free to propose to Circe and inherited his family's fortune and Janus Cosmetics, but lacked the business acumen needed to successfully run the company, running it into the ground by funding a failed line of face-paint makeup. In an act of desperation, he poured his money and resources into an experimental waterproof makeup, which he quickly released to the public without proper testing; the makeup turned out to be a deadly toxin that left hundreds of women disfigured. Following the incident, Circe broke up with Sionis in front of his entire company staff.

Afterward, Bruce Wayne, now head of Wayne Enterprises, bought out Janus Cosmetics, relinquishing control from Sionis and appointing his own Board of Directors,

The Mask, Roman Sionis made from his father's coffin.

Sionis was driven mad from losing everything he had; unable to admit to his own mistakes that ruined his life, he turned his hatred towards Bruce Wayne. Donning a mask carved from his father's ebony coffin, he murdered three Wayne Foundation executives, planning to eventually assassinate Bruce himself to fulfill his revenge. In the ensuing battle with Batman, Sionis' mask became permanently burnt into his face as a living death mask, ironically granting his wish of removing all traces of his former identity. In the following years, he would become one of Gotham City's most ruthless and sadistic crime lords, commanding the False Face Society, an army of masked henchmen. With each loss to Batman, his empire shrank and his sadism grew.

During No man's land, Black Mask forgoed masks and the false facers, he instead carved up his own burnt face to resemble a human skull.

Among his many crimes were the destruction of a community center on Gotham's East End, the painstaking murder of Catwoman's brother-in-law, and driving her sister Maggie insane.

War Games

Believed to be dead at Catwoman's hands, Black Mask survived, and when Gotham City's gang wars erupted, part of a "war game" created by Batman that went horribly wrong. They created a power vacuum in the underworld that he could exploit to build a criminal empire. He murdered Orpheus, a costumed gang leader secretly working with Batman to end the unrest in Gotham, and he took the tragic hero's identity and gained the trust of the teen hero Spoiler. This way he learned information vital to his cause before he betrayed and tortured her. Following Batman's plans, the fake Orpheus rallied all the factions, revealed his true identity and initiated a spree of carnage. Black Mask became the undisputed ruler of the entire Gotham City underworld.

The End

Deathstroke later approached Black Mask offering him a place within the Society. Black Mask was eager to strengthen his increasingly tenuous grip on the underworld since Batman was targeting his operations. He accepted the offer and Captain Nazi and Count Vertigo were sent after Batman. However, these villains were defeated, and Batman ultimately prevented the Society from securing a foothold in Gotham.

In an attempt to "improve himself" after this debacle, Black Mask threatened the most important people in Catwoman's life, from Slam Bradley to Holly Robinson. Still thinking that Catwoman adhered to a strict no-kill rule, Black Mask was caught by surprise when Catwoman took revenge by shooting him in the head and blowing his jaw off. After the shooting, Selina Kyle passed the mantle of Catwoman to her friend Holly Robinson. Not long after, Holly was arrested for the murder of Black Mask.

In the "Battle For The Cowl" storyline, a new Black Mask surfaces. He has drugged several of Arkham Asylum's inmate, including the Great White Shark, Poison Ivy, Killer Croc, Victor Zsasz, Jane Doe and the Scarecrow, with a substance that can kill when triggered. Black Mask is quickly acknowledged as the leader of the group when he blows up much of Arkham Asylum. He then prepares for his ascension by destroying Two face and Penguins reign and becoming Gotham City's crime lord again. Eventually, the new Black Mask is revealed to be Jeremiah Arkham, administrator of Arkham Asylum. After being defeated by Batman, he is imprisoned in the rebuilt Arkham Asylum.

Blackest Night

During the Blackest Night event, Roman Sionis was reanimated as a member of the Black Lantern Corps and intended to hunt down and kill Selina Kyle. However, when Selina refused to show him any fear, Roman decided to provoke her by torturing her traumatized sister Maggie. Although Black Mask was eventually stopped, the experience proved too much for Maggie who later becomes an adversary of Catwoman.

New 52

Black Mask's history was altered for the New 52 continuity. Roman Sionis managed to survive being shot by Catwoman and eventually turned himself in at Arkham Asylum in exchange for medical treatment. Jeremiah Arkham only became Roman's brief successor while Roman himself recovered from his injuries. It soon becomes evident that Sionis is also more unhinged than before, as he now believes his iconic mask to be sentient and is compelled to carry out its wishes.

It's later revealed that Black Mask's origin had been changed for this continuity as well. Roman was the son of Richard Sionis, a powerful crime lord who founded the False Face Society and was known by the criminal underworld as "The Mask". With the help of his right hand David Franco (a.k.a. White Mask), Richard lorded over a large criminal empire that spanned across America and Europe. However, the False Face Society eventually split into two halves. One half remained loyal to The Mask while the other half accepted White Mask as their new leader. Roman Sionis desired to reunite the splintered society by taking control of both halves as Black Mask. He tracked down and killed David to usurp leadership of his faction before ending his elderly father's life while disguised as a nurse. With the False Face Society whole again due to Black Mask's efforts, Roman focused his attention on eliminating the gang's competition.

However, it appears his origin has been reverted to being the same as his Post-Crisis counterpart during the Year of the Villain saga.

Black Mask: So the famous Sid the Squid is nothing but a pathetic victim of circumstance. Just how stupid do you think I am?

Sidney: Excuse me?

Black Mask: You think I didn't hear the rumors of the third-rate moron who rubbed out Nico Chan? And now you say you accidentally made a fool of Petra Fina? Nobody's that lucky or stupid!

Sidney: Yes, I am. Honest!

Black Mask: Don't worry. You'll still get out of Gotham. (points gun at him) In a body bag!

But then

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted a hole through the ceiling and in came NICO CHAN! ALIVE AND WELL and he kicked Black Mask in the face.

Nico: You will not touch him you black skullfaced motherfucker!

Black Mask: Nico Chan!

Black Mask's men came at him and Nico blasted them with an energy blast and obliterated them.

Black Mask: I thought you were dead!

Nico: It'll take more than an explosion done by you to kill me.

Sid: Nico, I'm so sorry. It was all..

Nico: I know Sid. It was all an accident. You didn't mean it.

Sid: So, no hard feelings?

Nico: Nah. It was all an accident. And besides, I know you would never hurt a fly. Now, let's get out of here before Black Mask wakes up!

Sid the Squid: Right!

Nico grabbed Sid and they flew away!

Nico: YEAH!

Nico and Sid then came back and we were overjoyed!

Me: NICO!

We hugged him!

Sixshot: Nico! You're alive!

Nico: It will take an accidental explosion to kill me.

May: Oh Nico! (Crying) (Hugs him) I'm so glad you're all right.

Nico: Of course May. I'm not going anywhere.

POW!

May punched Nico in the face.

May: YOU BLITHERING IDIOT! DO YOU HAVE ANY IDEA HOW WORRIED I WAS ABOUT YOU!?

Nico: Okay I deserved that.

Me: But we're just glad you're okay Nico.

Nico had a nasty black eye.

Me: (Whistles) Nice shiner.

Nico: Nothing I can't heal from.

I saw Sid.

Me: Sidney the Squid. I've heard a lot about you.

Batman: Sid it's good to see you again.

Sid: I'm sorry guys. I've had a really rough day.

Laney: It's not your fault. It was all an accident.

Sid: You're not gonna take me to jail?

Punch: You've earned the right to be let off the hook after the day you've had. Besides, being a criminal doesn't suit you.

Me: No it doesn't Sid. Besides it was all an accident.

Batman: Yeah it happened to me once.

Sid: Batman! Good to see you again.

Batman: Same here Sid. Glad you and Nico are okay.

Nico: Yeah.

Sid: Thanks guys.

We let him go and he decided to get a normal life.

Scrapper: Now that we've cleared up the details of Nico's so called demise, let's go to Atlantis.

Me: Okay. This is gonna be really interesting. We're going to see the world of 2001's Atlantis The Lost Empire.

Varie: I remember that. This is gonna be so cool. Me, Maria, Stewie, William and some of us went to help in that world and it was so cool.

Venom: We remember that. It was really cool.

Stewie: It sure was. And it was awesome seeing Atlantis.

Meeryn: (Scottish Accent) There are other versions of Atlantis?

Nico: There sure are. But this will be the one from the 2001 movie Atlantis The Lost Empire.

Kairi: Cool! Sora didn't you go to that world?

Sora: I sure did. It was on the journey to Castle Oblivion.

Nico: This is gonna be so cool!

Laney; Yeah it is!

Lily: I am so looking forward to this!

Toiletnator, Robo-Blaze, Robo-Roxy, Demyx, Dark Laser, Skulker, Dr. Light and Eccentro then appeared.

Toiletnator: Can me, Robo Blaze, Robo Roxy, Demyx, Dark Laser, Skulker, Dr. Light, and Eccentro go with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're gonna see the beginning of the movie and then head in at the entrance to the Smithsonian Institution.

Nico: Cool! I've always wanted to see the Smithsonian.

Laney: Me too!

Me: We're gonna go through the whole movie of Atlantis The Lost Empire and see how it all happened.

Nico: AWESOME!

Lola: This is gonna be awesome!

Lana: YEAH!

Me: Lets head to the Simulator.

We went to the Simulator.

---

In the Simulator we got ready and waited for the right moment to go in. The Simulator activated and we saw a message appear.

"… In a Single Day and Night of Misfortune, the island of Atlantis disappeared into the depths of the sea." - Plato, 360 B.C.

We see the world as it was 10,000 years ago in the ocean. Suddenly there was a huge flash of light followed by a massive explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was powerful and it caused a massive megatsunami and numerous machines and vehicles were trying to escape it.

Me: WHOA!

Man 1: (Speaking in Atlantean) You fool! You've destroyed us all!

Man 2: (Speaking in Atlantean) The wave is gaining! We have to warn Atlantis!

Man 3: (Speaking in Atlantean) Too late!

They screamed as the wave enveloped them. The vehicles were flying through the lands until they got to the city of Atlantis as Storm Clouds rolled in and the waves were coming. A man went to the intercom.

Man 4: (Speaking in Atlantean) Everyone to the shelters! Everyone to the shelters!

Lightning struck everywhere as two guards rang a gong. It was chaos all over as people were going all over to get to shelter. Red Lights were going all over..

Guard 1: (Speaking in Atlantean) This way your highness. Quickly!

Queen: (Speaking in Atlantean) Kida, come on!

Young Kida left her toy.

Queen: Kida! Just leave it! There's no time!

Then a red light enveloped the queen and glowed aqua blue and her crystal reacted as her eyes turned aqua blue. The king saw this and the lights converged and energy surged and pulled the Queen up.

Young Kida: (Speaking in Atlantean) Mother! Mother!

Giant statues formed a powerful force field and blocked some of the citizens from getting in.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: We have to save them!

Me: Right!

I snapped my fingers and the citizens that were locked outside were saved by us and they were sent to the Atlantis here on our Earth.

Young Kida: Mother!

King: (Speaking in Atlantean) Close your eyes Kida! Look away!

There was a huge light and the force field formed a dome and the massive wave destroyed Atlantis and caused the whole city to sink into the depths of the sea for all eternity.

Nico: Unbelievable!

Lana: No kidding! That was intense!

Me: No kidding! Here we go.

We went in and the year was now 1914. We were in Washington D.C. at the turn of the 20th Century.

Me: Well here we are guys. Smithsonian Institution, Turn of the 20th Century Washington D.C.

Nico: This is so cool.

Laney: It sure is.

Dead End: This is the place. Too bad Milo's stuck at a lousy job.

Me: I know. He works as a Cartographer and Linguistics Man. And it's a darn shame that no one will listen to his proposal.

Nico: I know. Atlantis is so awesome. And it was horrifying seeing it disappear like that.

Meeryn: It sure was. I wonder what caused that explosion.

Me: Boy I have no idea. But the power that came off of it was unbelievable.

Eli: But it's just hard to imagine that it all happened 10,000 years ago.

Heidi: No kidding. And the Orichalcos was the main cause of Atlantis's destruction as well.

Alister: It was terrible that all that happened.

Rafael: It sure is.

We went in.

Me: Wow.

Nico: So awesome.

We went down to the Boiler Room and found Milo.

Demyx: Hey there. Are you Milo?

Milo: That's right. (Sees us.) Hey guys!

Varie: Milo you are doing great!

Varie hugged him.

Milo: How you doing Varie?

Varie: Doing Awesome. But this time I brought everyone.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Milo. Sorry we didn't meet earlier.

Milo: That's all right J.D. but its an honor to meet you all.

Nico: Same here Milo.

Me: I can't believe those blockheads won't listen to you about Atlantis.

Milo: I know.

Eli: Atlantis IS definitely real. (Shows an Atlantean Crystal Necklace) This crystal is from Atlantis.

Milo: Wow! Then Atlantis IS Real. (Sees Eli's scar) What happened?

Eli: Oh my scar? It's a long story.

Me: Very complicated too. A lot of things have happened.

Nico: We've increased our numbers ever since Varie saw you the last time.

Sunset Shimmer: We sure have.

Milo: I can see that.

Diamond Tiara: Milo, why don't we go to Atlantis with you guys? In case something happens.

Milo: That's a great idea! But I have to wait for approval by my superiors.

Me: Can we hear your proposal?

Milo: You all sure can.

He got ready.

Milo: Good afternoon, gentlemen. First off, I'd like to thank this board… for taking the time to hear my proposal. Now, we've all heard of the legend of Atlantis, a continent somewhere in the mid-Atlantic that was home to an advanced civilization possessing technology far beyond our own that, according to our friend Plato here it was suddenly struck by some cataclysmic event that sank it beneath the sea. (Pings a fishbowl) Now, some of you may ask, why Atlantis? It's just a myth, isn't it? Pure fantasy. Well, that is where you'd be wrong. 10,000 years before the Egyptians built the pyramids Atlantis had electricity, advanced medicine, even the power of flight. Impossible, you say? Well, no. No, not for them. Numerous ancient cultures all over the globe agreed that Atlantis possessed a power source of some kind more powerful than steam, than… than coal. More powerful than our modern internal combustion engines. Gentlemen, I propose that we find Atlantis, find that power source, and bring it back to the surface.

Me: Wow! That's a huge proposal!

Varie: It sure is. But that will take a huge amount of resources.

Lily: Yeah and we don't even know what the Power Source is.

Milo: I know. Now, this is a page from an illuminated text that describes a book called the Shepherd's Journal said to have been a first-hand account of Atlantis and its exact whereabouts. Now, based on a centuries-old translation of a Norse text historians have believed the Journal resides in Ireland. (Lifts up a Viking Shield) But after comparing the text to the runes on this Viking shield I found that one of the letters had been mistranslated. So, by changing this letter and inserting the correct one we find that the Shepherd's Journal, the key to Atlantis, lies not in Ireland, gentlemen but in Iceland.

Me: All the way over in Iceland?

Laney: That's incredible.

Lola: It sure is.

Milo: Pause for effect. Gentlemen, uh, I'll take your questions now. [Telephone rings] Uh, would you gentlemen please excuse me for a moment?

Me: Sure.

Milo: [Phone Rings] Cartography and Linguistics, Milo Thatch speaking. [Indistinct angry ranting] Yeah. Uh, just… just a second. (Clicks Light) Pardon me, Mr. Hickenbottom. Pardon me guys.

Me: Sorry.

Milo: (Turns knobs) [Hissing] (Bangs Boiler) How's that? Is that better? [Indistinct angry ranting] Uh-huh. Yeah. You're welcome.

VOICE: And don't let it happen again!

Milo: All right, bye.

Me: Sheesh that guy needs an attitude adjustment.

Milo: I know. Now, as you can see by th… by this, um, map… map, uh, that… that… ahem… that I've drawn, I plotted the route that will take myself and a crew to the southern coast of Iceland to retrieve the Journal.

The Cuckoo Clock chimed at 4:00 PM.

[Cuckoos four times]

Milo: Ah, showtime. Well, this is it. I am finally getting out of the dungeon.

Me: Here we go.

He held up a picture of him and his grandfather Thaddeus Thatch.

Me: Is that your grandfather?

Milo: Yep that's him.

Sora: He sure looked like a nice guy.

Milo: Oh yeah.

Milo remembered that he wanted to try on his explorer hat and it didn't fit and covered him. He opened his box and put on his hat again. The same thing happened. Then a message in a pneumatic tube came.

Me: Oh a message.

He read it.

Milo: "Dear Mr. Thatch, this is to inform you that your meeting today has been moved up from 4:30 P.M. To 3:30 P.M."

We saw the clock and it was 4:35 PM.

Milo: What? [Whoosh] "Dear Mr. Thatch, due to your absence the board has voted to reject your proposal. Have a nice weekend. Mr. Harcourt's office." They can't do this to me!

Me: Those blockheads! Lets get up there and give them a piece of our minds!

Man 1: : I swear, that young Thatch gets crazier every year.

Man 2: If I ever hear the word "Atlantis" again. I'll step in front of a bus!

Man 1: Ha ha ha! I'll push you!

They laughed.

Milo : Mr. Harcourt!

Members of the board: Good Lord! There he is!

Milo: Members of the board uh, wait!

Harcourt : How did you find us?

Milo : Mr. Harcourt, wait!

Man: Head for the hills!

Harcourt : Where is a guard when you need him?

Milo : Mr. Harcourt, you gotta listen to me, sir! Uh, sir?

He shoved his umbrella in his face and left. We followed.

Milo: Wait! Mr. Harcourt! Sir, I-I have new evidence that… Please, Mr. Harcourt! Stop! Sir, if you… Could you hold… Thank you very much. Look at…

Harcourt : This museum funds scientific expeditions based on facts, not legends and folklore.

Eli grabbed Harcourt.

Eli: Listen here you clod! Atlantis IS real.

Harcourt: (Sees us) Wait a second! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? What are you all doing here!?

Me: Here to help prove the legend of Atlantis. And Milo needs our help. Atlantis DOES exist.

Nico: Yeah!

Me: Milo lets go.

We got to Milo's apartment.

Milo : I'm home. Fluffy? Here, kitty. [Lamp Clicking] [Thunder]

Me: It's really coming down.

Helga : Milo James Thatch?

Milo : Who… who are you? How did you get in here?

Helga : I came down the chimney. Ho, ho, ho.

Me: How can we help you Miss uh?

Helga: My name is Helga Sinclair. I'm acting on behalf of my employer who has a most intriguing proposition for you all. Are you interested?

Milo : Your… your… your employer? Heh. Who is your employer?

Me: Depends on what it is.

[Thunder] [Thunder]

We went to an awesome mansion and it was amazing.

Me: Wow. Nice mansion.

Nico: Not nearly as nice as our World Tree Estate.

We went into the mansion and it was nice.

Helga : This way, please. And don't drip on the Caravaggio.

Me: Sorry.

Helga: Step lively. Mr. Whitmore does not like to be kept waiting.

Varie: Of course.

We caught up to her.

Me: Some of us will have to take the stairs.

Helga: Understood. (Some of us got into the elevator) You will address him as "Mr. Whitmore" or "Sir." You will stand unless asked to be seated. Keep your sentences short and to the point. Are we clear?

Me: Yes ma'am.

Milo : [Gulp]

Helga : And relax. He doesn't bite… often.

Milo : [Sees Photograph] Grandpa?

Me: Is that your grandpa?

We saw a man in a yoga pose.

Whitmore : Finest explorer I ever met. Preston Whitmore. Pleasure to meet you, Milo. And it's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm. [Crunch] [Sighs] Care to join me in a little yoga?

Milo : Uh, no, no. Thank you. Did you really know my grandfather?

Whitmore : Oh, yeah. Met old Thaddeus back in Georgetown. Class of '66. We stayed close friends… till the end of his days. [Grunting] Even dragged me along on some of his danged fool expeditions. Thatch was crazy as a fruit bat, he was. He spoke of you often Milo.

Milo : Funny. He… he never mentioned you.

Whitmore : Oh, he wouldn't. He knew how much I liked my privacy. [Grunting] I keep a low profile.

Me: That's okay sir. But we have seen lots of crazy things over the years. We've seen all kinds of things dealing with mythology, legends, the supernatural, everything.

Milo : Mr. Whitmore, should I be wondering why we're here?

Whitmore: Look on that table.

We went over to it.

Whitmore : Ah! It's for you.

Milo: It's… it's from my grandfather.

Whitmore: He brought that package to me years ago. He said if anything were to happen to him I should give it to you when you were ready whatever that means.

He opened it and inside it was the legendary Shepherd's Journal.

Milo : It… It can't be. It's the Shepherd's Journal. Mr. Whitmore, this journal is the key to finding the lost continent of Atlantis!

Whitmore : Atlantis! Ha ha ha! I wasn't born yesterday, son.

Milo : No, no, no. Look… Look at this. Coordinates. Clues. It's all right here.

Me: Yeah 10,000 years worth of information.

Whitmore : Yeah, looks like gibberish to me.

Milo : That's because it's been written in a dialect that no longer exists.

Eli: It's the Atlantean Language.

Whitmore : So it's useless.

Milo : No, no, just difficult. I've spent my whole life studying dead languages. It's not gibberish to me.

Whitmore : Ah, it's probably a fake.

Milo : Mr. Whitmore, my grandfather would have known if this were a fake. I would know. I will stake everything I own, everything that I believe in that this is the genuine Shepherd's Journal.

Whitmore : All right, all right. So what do you want to do with it?

Milo : Well, Ill… Ill… I'll get funding. I mean, Ill… The museum…

Whitmore : They'll never believe you.

Milo : I'll show them! I will make them believe.

Whitmore : Like you did today?

Milo : Yes! Well, no. How did you… Forget about them, OK? Never mind! I will find Atlantis on my own. I mean, if I have to rent a rowboat!

Me: We all will find Atlantis!

Whitmore : Congratulations, Milo. This is exactly what I wanted to hear. But forget the rowboat, son. (Presses a button and a bunch of models of vehicles came up from a table) We'll travel in style. It's all been arranged, the whole ball of wax.

Milo : Why?

Me: Wow.

Whitmore : For years your granddad bent my eae with stories about that old book. I didn't buy it for a minute. So finally I got fed up and made a bet with the old coot. I said, "Thatch, if you ever actually find that so-called journal not only will I finance the expedition but I'll kiss you full on the mouth." Imagine my embarrassment when he found the darn thing. (He showed us a picture of what happened after he kissed him full on the mouth) Now I know your grandfather's gone, Milo. God rest his soul, but Preston Whitmore is a man who keeps his word. You hear that, Thatch? I'm going to the afterlife with a clear conscience, by thunder! [Chuckles]

Me: Looks like you aren't the only one with a vow to keep his word.

Nico: Yeah.

Whitmore: I know. [Sighs] Your grandpa was a great man Milo. You probably don't realize how great. Those buffoons at the museum dragged him down made a laughingstock of him. He died a broken man. If I could bring back just one shred of proof that'd be enough for me. Ah, Thatch. What are we standing around for? We got work to do.

Me: We're gonna need A LOT of work.

Milo : But, Mr. Whitmore, you know, in order to do what you're proposing, you're gonna need a crew.

Whitmore : Taken care of!

Milo : You'll need engineers and and geologists.

Me: And powerful people.

Whitmore : Got 'em all. The best of the best. Gaetan Moliere, geology and excavation. The man has a nose for dirt. Vincenzo Santorini, demolitions. Busted him out of a Turkish prison. Audrey Ramirez. Don't let her age fool you. She's forgotten more about engines than you or I will ever know. They're the same crew that brought the Journal back.

Nico: Cool!

Vince: This is gonna be awesome.

Milo : Where was it?

Whitmore : Iceland.

Milo : I knew it! I knew it!

Me: Looks like your theories were correct Milo.

Whitmore : All we need now is an expert in gibberish. So it's decision time. You can build on the foundation your grandfather left you or you can go back to your boiler room.

Milo : This is for real.

Whitmore : Now you're catching on.

Milo : All right. OK. I-I'll have to quit my job.

Whitmore : It's done. You resigned this afternoon.

Milo : I did?

Whitmore : Yep. Don't like to leave loose ends.

Milo : Um, my apartment. I have to give notice. -

Whitmore : Taken care of. -

Milo : My clothes? -

Whitmore : Packed. -

Milo : My books? -

Whitmore : In storage. -

Milo : My cat? (His cat appeared) [Meow] My gosh.

Whitmore : Your granddad had a saying. "Our lives are remembered by the gifts we leave our children." This journal is his gift to you, Milo.

Me: That is a really good saying. I like that.

Whitmore: Indeed. Atlantis is waiting. What do you say?

Milo : I'm your man, Mr. Whitmore. You will not regret this. Boy, I am so excited, I can't even hold it in.

Me: Lets get ready everyone!

---

The next day we were on a ship and Milo and Applejack were hurling their guts out over the side.

HOOOOOOOOOOONNNNNNNNNNNNNKKKKKKKKKKKKKK!

The ship we were on was amazing.

Milo: [Retching] Carrots. Why is there always carrots? I didn't even eat carrots.

Laney: I have some seasickness medicine for you and Applejack, Milo.

She gave them a bottle of anti-seasickness medicine.

Milo: Oh thanks Laney.

Applejack: Thank you kindly.

They took it.

PACKARD: Attention. All hands to the launch bay. To whoever took the "L" from the Motor Pool sign, ha ha, we are all very amused.

Me: That's funny.

Applejack: It sure is.

Milo : Excuse me? I need to, uh, report in?

Helga : Yes, Mr. Thatch?

Milo : Aah! Uh, it's you!

Cookie: Blondie, I got a bone to pick with you.

Helga : Hold that thought. What is it this time, Cookie?

Cookie : You done stuffed my wagon full to bustin' with non-essentials. Look at all this. Cinnamon, oregano, cilantro. What in the cockadoodle is cilantro? And what is this?

Helga : That would be lettuce.

Cookie : Lettuce? Lettuce?!

Helga : It's a vegetable, Cookie. The men need the four basic food groups.

Cookie : I got your four basic food groups! Beans, bacon, whiskey, and lard! [Warning alarm sounds]

Me: Time to get ready.

Helga : All right, cowboy. Pack it up and move it out.

PACKARD: Attention. All hands to the launch bay. Final loading in progress. [Elevator starts]

Vinny : [Italian accent] Hey, Junior. If you're lookin' for the pony rides, they're back there.

Varie: Vinny its been a while.

Vinny: It sure has Varie. Looking good.

Me: She's with me.

Milo : Excuse me. Excuse me? You dropped your dyn… dynamite. Heh heh heh. What else have you, uh, got in there?

Vinny : Oh, eh, gunpowder, nitroglycerin, notepads, fuses, wicks, glue, and paper clips. Big ones. You know, just, uh, office supplies.

Me: More like war supplies.

WHITMORE: Milo! Where you been? I want you to meet Commander Rourke. He led the Iceland team that brought the Journal back.

We met Commander Lyle Tiberius Rourke!

---

Commander Lyle Tiberius Rourke is the main antagonist of Disney's 41st full-length animated feature film Atlantis: The Lost Empire . He initially appears as a very reliable and praiseworthy commander able to lead his men through perils, but as the film progresses, he turns out to be a highly manipulative, ruthless and sadistic mercenary who is out to capture the Heart of Atlantis and make money off of it. He is Milo Thatch's arch-nemesis.

He was voiced by the late James Garner in the film and by Earl Boen in the video game.

Past

Lyle Tiberius Rourke was born in 1860 and learned the ways of military life at an early age when his father, a cavalry officer named Lt. Col. Jackson, was killed in battle in 1864 during the Civil War. After repeated expulsions from boarding school for fighting, Rourke resolved to follow in his father's footsteps and joined the military in 1875 at the age of 15. There, he exhibited a remarkable talent for leadership, owing to his analytical mind, charisma, and refusal to acknowledge the white flag surrender. He married in June 1887 at the age of 27, but his wife left him after only 4 months. Later, he retired in 1901 and became under the employ of millionaire Preston B.

Whitmore, whose closest friend Thaddeus Thatch is known for his claims about the existence of Atlantis. Upon hearing that Thaddeus is intending to find an ancient manuscript called the Shepherd's Journal that will detail the location of Atlantis, Whitmore sends over Rourke and his team of seven experts (Rourke's second-in-command Helga Katrina Sinclair, demolitions expert Vincenzo "Vinny" Santorini, geologist Gaetan "Mole" Molière, medical officer Joshua Sweet, chief mechanic Mr. Ramirez, cook Jebidiah Allerdyce "Cookie" Farnsworth, and cynical communications expert Wilhelmina Packard) to help Thaddeus search for the lost book.

Eventually, Thaddeus was able to find the Shepherd's Journal located in Iceland, declaring the mission to be a success, much to the surprise and delight of Rourke and his team. Unfortunately, the Smithsonian board refuses to accept this and jeered Thaddeus, who died of a broken heart, much to Preston and the team's distraught. However, Rourke was secretly unconcerned by the loss of Thaddeus, and found out within the Shepherd's Journal a certain page that details a certain energy source (a powerful but sentient crystal called the Heart of Atlantis) that would make him extremely rich. Despite taking the page for himself, Rourke is unable to read and translate the Atlantean language, so he decided that he need to have an linguistics expert to help him translate the text.

Atlantis: The Lost Empire

In 1914, Milo James Thatch (the hero of the film), a luckless linguistics and map expert who works for the Smithsonian Institution, learns that his proposal to lead an expedition to Iceland to find the Journal is denied by the Institution's board, so he angrily resigns.

Eventually, Whitmore contacted Milo and asked him to be a member of the team, informing him that Thaddeus had already located the Journal in Iceland, and entrusted Whitmore to give it to Milo when he was ready.

Declaring this to be an honor and prove the Smithsonian board wrong about their claims, Milo happily accepts the offer; even Mr. Ramirez's teenage daughter Audrey takes over her father's job following the latter's retirement. Upon meeting Rourke in person, Milo shook hands with him, and Rourke states that it has been a pleasure to meet the grandson of old Thaddeus, gloating that the trip will be quite enriching for all of us.

On the expedition to Atlantis, the explorers' submarine is sunk by an underwater Leviathan and the team suffered numerous casualties. But Milo, Rourke, and the remaining people persevere and manage to reach the entrance of Atlantis hidden underwater. During the journey, Milo read through the Journal and learns about the Heart of Atlantis, but soon learns that there is a missing page. After going through several obstacles as stated in the Journal, Milo and the team are able to locate the underwater city of Atlantis, where it still survives in a subterranean chamber beneath the earth, much to the team's extreme surprise and amazement. The team are also surprised to learn that the Atlanteans can speak other languages (including English) as the Atlantean language is the basis of those languages from a root dialect. They are met by the city's princess Kida, who brings them over to her father, the Atlantean King Kashekim Nedakh, who allows the team to stay for one night before they can leave for the surface per Rourke's request.

As the team enjoy their stay in the ancient city, Kida discovers that Milo can read the Atlantean language, long forgotten by her own people ever since a tidal wave consumed much of the ancient empire thousands of years ago. They dive to read ancient underwater murals, and learn about the Heart of Atlantis, a giant blue crystal that is the source of the power that saved Atlantis from the tidal wave and of the strange blue gems that each Atlantean wears. As they leave the ruins, they are caught by Rourke and the rest of the team, who have turned out to be mercenaries, fully armed and are after the Heart of Atlantis. Milo then deduces that Rourke is going after the Heart, and Rourke presents out the missing page detailing the Heart to confirm it, revealing that he kept it in his person the whole time. Realizing this, Milo protests by stating that the Atlanteans will die without the Heart, but Rourke takes no regard of it, and instead states that it will make him even more rich. Rourke attempts to justify his actions by claiming that each of the artifacts at a museum are technically stolen (although considering that Rourke wishes to make a profit from stealing the heart, he likely was not planning to donate it to a museum), but Milo warns him that tampering with the Heart of Atlantis could be potentially disastrous, resulting an annoyed Rourke to mock him for trying to live up to his grandfather's idealisms. When it became clear that Milo is getting uncooperative, Rourke becomes more forceful and has his troops point their guns at Kida's head, and Milo reluctantly complies.

Rourke then has the doors to the Atlantean king's chambers blown open and his crew search the throne room for the Crystal, but find nothing. Rourke aggressively holds up the Shepherd's Journal in front of Milo, demanding him to give him a clue. Milo tells Rourke that the Journal states the riddle "the Heart of Atlantis lies in the eyes of her king". Rourke stomps over to the King and demands him to explain the riddle. When the King refuses, Rourke fatally punches the King in the chest, much to both Kida and the crew's horror. Realizing that this has gone out of hand, Sweet furiously defects to Milo's side as he berated Rourke for what he just did to the King, Rourke just brushes Sweet off, telling him there has just been a change of plans. Sitting on the King's throne, Rourke threatens to shoot the King if he does not tell him the Crystal's location. Just as Rourke impatiently prepares to pull the trigger, he suddenly stops and looks at the symbol on the Journal's cover, then at the same shape formed by rocks at the surface of the pool overlooking the throne room, and he manages to figure out the riddle on his own. He then proceeds to descend into the chamber with Helga dragging Milo and Kida along.

Inside the Crystal Chamber, Milo and Rourke argue over how the Crystal is to be retrieved. Kida is called upon by the Heart of Atlantis and is bonded with it. Rourke then has Kida sealed up in a metal container and prepares to leave with the crew while leaving Milo and Sweet behind. Milo berates the crew for going against their consciences to satisfy their greed at the expense of the Atlanteans. However, Rourke brushes this off by punching Milo in the face and crushing the framed photo of Milo and Thaddeus with his boot, mocking him with the irony that he started out as the man who discovered Atlantis that is about to become a part of an old history relic. Outraged by this and finally realizing what a greedy scoundrel Rourke truly is, Audrey, Vinny, Cookie, Packard and Mole defect to Milo's side, leaving Rourke with only Helga and his other men. The crew then berated Rourke for his actions, but he is unmoved as he leaves the crew in the dying city, proclaiming that he will take the profit for himself. The ruthless commander then has the bridge (the only one, in fact) detonated to prevent anyone from ever leaving the city.

The King, in his dying breath, gives Milo his crystal and begs him to rescue his daughter and save Atlantis. Eventually, Milo, the crew and the Atlanteans discover how to use the crystals to activate ancient flying machines and they give chase as an air force. As Milo and his team fly over to the volcano, Rourke had his men to inflate a massive balloon to haul the crystal through an ancient volcano to the surface. But Milo and his friends, and the rest of the warriors arrive, engaging into a fight against Rourke's troops.

During the lengthy battle, Milo's friends and the Atlanteans gained the upper hand against Rourke's forces and annihilated them, while Milo rammed his machine into Rourke's blimp, causing it to lose altitude slowly. Determined to 'lighten the load', the greedy Rourke betrays Helga by throwing her off to the volcano base, mocking her by claiming it to be nothing personal.

Milo swings on a rope towards Rourke and they both fall. Grabbing the rope, they slide down and land on the platform above the spinning propeller blades. Milo lunges at the evil commander, but he is easily outmatched by Rourke's strength and expertise in combat, thus Rourke quickly gaining the upper hand. However, Helga, fatally paralyzed by the fall, uses her remaining energy to pull out her flare gun and shoot at the balloon as retribution for Rourke's betrayal, setting the balloon on fire and descending at a faster rate, much to Rourke's anger and horror. Losing what is left of his sanity, Rourke grabs an axe to kill Milo in revenge for foiling his plot. Rourke swings his axe at Milo, who ducks and the axe shatters the glass cover on Kida's transport container, with glass shards becoming embedded with the Heart of Atlantis. Thinking quickly, Milo desperately takes a shard of glass containing the crystal's essence as Rourke grabs him to finish the killing blow on him. Just as Rourke prepares to decapitate Milo, the latter cuts his arm with the shard, turning Rourke into a crystallized blue monster. At first, Milo thought Rourke was done for, but was proved wrong when Rourke appears to be alive in a almost feral state, having succumbed to madness. Still bent on killing Milo, he climbs at Milo's level. Fortunately, Milo pulls up the chains, hoisting the crystallized Rourke into the balloon's propellers, while Rourke screams one last time before the propellers shatter him into millions of pieces, killing him for good. The crystal pieces were enough to break the chains holding the Heart's container, thus allowing Milo and the team to regain hold of it.

However, the destruction and fiery crash of the balloon causes the volcano to become active and erupt, putting Atlantis in the brink of extinction. Fortunately, Milo gets himself and the crew to deliver the Heart back to the Atlantis, where the Heart powers up a giant shield to protect the city from the volcanic eruption and return Kida to normal, thus leaving Rourke's plans in complete vain.

After Atlantis is saved, the team is returned home to the surface while Milo stays behind to help Kida (who becomes the new Queen) rebuild the lost civilization. The team explained the truth about Rourke's plot to Whitmore, who agrees to the team's intentions to keep the discovery of Atlantis as a secret, even declaring that Rourke is "missing" to cover up the truth so that no one will ever try to steal the Heart of Altantis ever again.

Atlantis: Milo's Return

Although Rourke does not make an appearance, he is mentioned by Whitmore while telling Milo that his grandfather would have been proud that he stopped Rourke's plans for the Heart of Atlantis.

House of Mouse

Rourke makes a cameo appearance in Donald Wants to Fly, when he was watching Kida fly above his head in quiet awe. This was Rourke's only appearance in House of Mouse . Strangely enough, he (for some reason) does not appear in the show's tie-in film Mickey's House of Villains, not even as a cameo, and is therefore one of the only three Disney villains featured in that show who does not appear in that film at all, with other two being Scar and Shere Khan because they are absent.

ROURKE: Milo Thatch. Pleasure to meet the grandson of old Thaddeus. I see you got that journal. Nice pictures, but I prefer a good western myself. And J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Commander.

WHITMORE: Pretty impressive, eh?

MILO: Boy, when you settle a bet, y-you settle a bet.

Me: No kidding.

WHITMORE: Well, your granddad always believed you couldn't put a price on the pursuit of knowledge.

Nico: No way.

MILO: Well, uh, believe me this'll be small change compared to the value of what we're gonna learn on this trip.

ROURKE: Yes, this should be enriching for all of us.

PACKARD: Attention, all personnel. Launch will commence in 15 minutes.

Rourke: Mr. Whitmore.

Whitmore: Rourke.

ROURKE: It's time.

Milo: Bye, Mr. Whitmore!

Whitmore: Make us proud, everyone!

DIVING OFFICER: Rig ship for dive!

CHIEF OF THE WATCH: Aye, sir! Rig ship for dive.

Rourke: Lieutenant, take her down.

Helga: Diving officer, submerge the ship. Make the depth 1-5-0 feet.

DIVING OFFICER: Make the depth 1-5-0 feet.

INTERCOM: Dive, dive! Five degrees down bubble.

DIVING OFFICER: Take us down. [Warning alarm buzzes]

The ship was launched and we were off to find the lost city of Atlantis! It was awesome seeing the ocean.

Me: This is so cool! It's like an awesome version of our submarine.

Nico: It sure is.

Fu: This is amazing.

PACKARD: Attention. Tonight's supper will be baked beans. Musical program to follow. [Sighs] Who wrote this?

Milo was about to head out to sleep when a light shined on him.

Milo: Aah!

MOLE: (French Accent) You have disturbed the dirt.

Milo : Uh, pardon me?

MOLE: You have disturbed the dirt! Dirt from around the globe, spanning the centuries! [Gasps] What have you done? England must never merge with France!

Milo : What's it doin' in my bed?

MOLE: You ask too many questions. Who are you? Who sent you?

Speak up!

Milo : Me? I'm, uh…

MOLE: Bah! I will know soon enough.

Milo : Hey, hey, hey! Let go!

MOLE: Do not be such a crybaby. Hold still. (Pulls a speck of dirt out from Milo's fingernail) Aha! There you are. Now tell me your story, my little friend. Parchment fiber from the Nile circa 500 B.C. Lead pencil, number 2. Paint flecks of a type used in government buildings. You have a cat, short-haired Persian two years old, third in a litter of seven. There are all the microscopic fingerprints of the mapmaker (Tastes the speck of dirt) And linguist. -

Milo : Hey, how did you…

MOLE: This is an outrage! You must leave at once! Out, out, out, out, out!

SWEET: Uh-oh. Sat in the dirt, didn't you? Moliere, now what have I told you about playing nice with the other kids? (Pulls out a bar of soap) Get back. I've got soap, and I'm not afraid to use it. [Mole Hisses] Back, foul creature! Back to the pit from which you came! [Mole Grunts] The name's Sweet. Joshua Sweet. Medical officer.

Milo : Yeah, Milo Thatch.

SWEET: Milo Thatch. You're my 3:00. Well, no time like the present.

Milo : Oh, boy.

SWEET: Nice, isn't it? The catalog says that this little beauty can saw through a femur in 28 seconds. I'm bettin' I can cut that time in half. Now, stick out your tongue and say "ahh."

Milo : Oh, no, really, I have a… Ahh. -

SWEET: So, where you from? -

Milo : [Babbling trying to say "Washington D.C.]

SWEET: Really? I have family up that way. Beautiful country up there. Do you do any fishing? [Garbled speech] Me? I hate fishing. I hate fish. Hate the taste, hate the smell… and hate all them little bones. Here, I'm gonna need you to fill these up.

Milo : [Sputters] With what?!

PACKARD: Will Milo Thatch please report to the bridge?

Milo : Thank you. I mean, uh, uh, nice meeting you.

SWEET: Uh-huh. Nice meeting you, too.

PACKARD: So I says to him, "What's wrong with my meatloaf?" And he says to me… Oh. Hold on a second, Margie, I got another call. Sir, we're approaching coordinates. Hello, Margie? Yeah, so anyways, he says…

Rourke : All right, let's have a look around.

HELGA: Aye, sir. Set course to 2-4-0. 15 degrees down angle on the bow planes. Come right 2-4-0.

Rourke: Welcome to the bridge, Mr. Thatch. OK, everybody I want you to give Mr. Thatch your undivided attention.

Milo: Good afternoon. Can everyone hear me OK? Heh, OK, uh, how… how 'bout some slides?

He Pulls out some slides.

Milo: T-The first slide is a deception of a creature. A creature so frightening that sailors were said to be driven mad by the mere side of it!

We began to feel uneasy as Milo insert the slide into the projector. Then, to the astonishment and sudden amusement of mostly everyone, the slide contained a black-and-white snapshot of Milo in a striped swimsuit and the beach waving. He was wearing an inflatable dinosaur floatie, holding a fishing pole with a fish at the end, water wings, and goggles. Beside him was a cat reaching for the fish with its front legs crossed and its mouth open in a friendly snarl.

Robo-Roxy: (catcall whistle) That's a nice swimsuit, Milo!

Mrs. Packard: Hubba hubba.

Me: Oops.

Milo: I'm sorry that's wrong.

Audrey: (Spanish Accent) Geez. I used to take lunch money from guys like this.

Me: Audrey that's enough.

Nico: Yeah.

Milo: Anyway, this, uh… OK. (Shows the Right Slide) This is an illustration of the Leviathan, the creature guarding the entrance to Atlantis.

Me: Whoa! That's a scary creature.

Nico: No kidding.

Vinny: With something like that I would have white wine, I think.

Milo: It's a mythical sea serpent.

Aylene C.: Looks more like a lobster to me.

Milo: Good point. He's described in the Book of Job. The… the Bible says "Out of his mouth go burning lights, sparks of fire shoot out." But more likely it's a carving or a sculpture to frighten the superstitious.

Rourke: So we find this masterpiece. Then what?

Mole: When do we dig?

Milo: Actually, we don't have to dig. You see, according to the Journal the path to Atlantis will take us down a tunnel at the bottom of the ocean, and we'll come up a curve into an air pocket right here where we'll find the remnants of an ancient highway that will lead us to Atlantis. Kind of like the grease trap in your sink.

Nico: Interesting.

Lola: This is gonna be an awesome adventure.

Helga Sinclair: Cartographer, linguist, plumber. Hard to believe he's still single.

Mole: You said there'd be digging.

Helga Sinclair: Go away, Mole.

Navigator: Captain, you'd better come look at this, sir.

Rourke: OK, class dismissed. Give me exterior lights.

The lights on the submarine turned on and we saw numerous destroyed sunken ships from over the course of the centuries!

Helga: Look at that.

Milo: There are ships here from every era.

Nico: Wow. I can't believe all these ships were destroyed.

Fu: These are ships from all over the centuries.

Nicole: Maybe there's treasure on them.

Me: See if you can find any.

Nicole: Okay.

Nicole used her device and found lots of treasure on many of the ships and she used her teleporter beams to beam all the treasure from the ships on board the submarine.

Nico: Nice job.

Nicole: Thanks.

Rourke: You're quite the treasure hunter Nicole.

Nicole: I am quite an adventurer.

But little did we know that there was something below us.

Packard: [Beeping] [Hiss] [Radio static] Commander, I think you should hear this.

Milo : "Predeshtem logtu nug nah geb."

PACKARD: Commander? Commander?

Milo : "Enter the lair of the Leviathan."

PACKARD: Commander?

Milo : "There you will find the path to the gateway."

PACKARD: Commander?

ROURKE: Yes, Mrs. Packard. What is it?

PACKARD: I'm picking up something on the hydrophone I think you should hear.

ROURKE: Put it on speakers.

She did so.

[Groaning and whooshing sounds]

Me: What the fuck is that?

Eli: I don't like the sound of that.

Rourke: What is it? A pod of whales?

Packard: Uh-uh. Bigger.

Helga: It sounds metallic. Could be an echo off one of the rocks.

Varie: It might be.

PACKARD: Do you want to do my job? Be my guest.

Milo : Is it just me, or is that getting louder?

Nico: And if it's getting louder then it's getting closer.

It vanished.

Helga: Well, whatever it was, it's gone now.

Rourke: Helmsman! Bring us about. Tighten our search pattern and slow us to… [Crash]

We were hit and we saw the big lobster called THE LEVIATHAN! [Alarm bell ringing]

Audrey: Out of the way! [Crew shouting]

[Roaring]

I formed a force field around the sub and the Leviathan hit it.

ROURKE: Tell Cookie to melt the butter and break out the bibs. I want this lobster served up on a silver platter.

Helga: Load the torpedo bays! Subpod crews, battle stations!

ENSIGN: Battle stations!

ROURKE: (ON INTERCOM) Steady, boys. Don't panic.

Milo : Jiminy Christmas! It's a machine!

Eli: I got this!

Eli showed his crystal to the Leviathan and he backed off and knew that we were with him and it let us go.

Milo: It let us go. How?

Eli: My crystal here.

Rourke: Wow. Nice work kid.

Nico: That was a close one. Great job Eli.

Me: Way to go bro.

Eli: Thanks guys.

Rourke: Where to Mr. Thatch?

Milo: We're looking for a big crevice of some kind.

Me: I think I see it up ahead!

Varie: 20˚ Down Angle everyone.

Helga: Roger that.

We went down into the crevice and I formed a force field around us so that we would be protected from the water pressure and the narrow walls.

Milo : It's only a grease trap. It's just like a sink. It's only a grease trap. It's just like a sink!

We went up and got into the Air pocket and we saw an amazing tunnel and ruins.

Me: Wow! Look at that.

Nico: Just like Milo said.

Rourke: We owe you guys big time for saving us.

Me: Think nothing of it Commander.

Helga: That was very smart thinking.

Lola: It sure was.

Me: Well looks like we're getting everything ready for land travel.

Lana: Yeah.

Packard: We're all gonna die.

Rattrap: Hey! That's usually my line!

ROURKE: OK, people. Saddle up. Lieutenant, I want this convoy moving five minutes ago.

Helga: Moliere, you're on point. No, Vinny, Audrey's taking the oiler. You know the rules. I want you 50 yards behind that truck at all times. And, Packard, put out that cigarette.

Milo was honking a horn.

Milo: [Beep] [Beep beep] [Beep beep beep] [Beep beep beep] (Rourke grabbed the horn) [Squeak]

Rourke: Are you sure you're checked out on this class of vehicle?

Milo: Uhh

Rourke: Can you drive a truck?

Milo : Pfft! Heh heh. Of course I can drive a truck. I mean, sure, you got your steering and your gas and your brake and, of course, this metal, uh, looking thing.

Me: That's a stick transmission Milo. It's much different than what we have in the 21st Century.

Milo: I see. OK, so it was a bumper car at Coney Island but it's the same basic principle!

Rourke: [Sighs]

Milo: [Brakes squeal] [Horn beeps]

DRIVER: Come on!

Milo : Sorry abou… sorry about that.

SECOND DRIVER: Come on, civilian!

Milo: Oof.

We went along the highway and it was incredible. We had to lower down the vehicles to get to the next part until we came across a skull temple. Milo pointed to the left eye and the digger was stopped by a roaring bug creature.

I fired an energy blast and destroyed the creature and Milo realized that he was looking at the journal all wrong and pointed to the right tunnel. I sensed that we were not alone.

Milo got a drink.

Milo: Ahh.

Vinny: You didn't just drink that, did you?

Milo: Mm-hmm.

VINNY: That's not good. That's nitroglycerin.

Milo: [Gags]

Me: Vinny are you crazy!?

Vinny: Don't move. Eh, don't breathe. Don't do anything, except pray maybe.

Mole snuck up behind him.

Mole: Boom!

Milo: Aah!

Mole and Vinny: [Laughing]

BONK!

I bonked Mole on his head.

Me: That was NOT FUNNY!

Luan: YEAH!

We continued and we got to a rocky cave room.

Nicole was collecting geological samples for study. I pulled Milo up.

Later as we made Camp, Milo was doing a lot of research on the Journal and Lily was helping him.

SWEET: [Chuckles] Yeah.

We then continued on and then we came across a huge column.

Milo : Good night! Will you look at the size of this!

Me: This column is incredible.

Laney: It's amazing.

Milo: It's gotta be half a mile high at least. It… it must have taken hundred… no, pfft, thousands of years to carve this thing.

Me: No kidding.

KRABBOOOOOMMM!

Vinny knocked the column down and made a bridge.

Vinny: Hey, look, I made a bridge. It only took me, like, what? 10 Seconds. 11 tops.

Me: I could've gotten it done faster.

Robo Blaze made sure Helga wasn't near Rourke at the moment.

Robo Blaze: (To Helga) I can guarantee that by the end of this, you'll find out that Rourke isn't your type of partner.

Helga: (raises eyebrow) Are you trying to flirt with me?

Robo Blaze: Nevermind. Just forget I said anything.

He came back to us and so did Helga. But somehow she knew that he was right.

We continued on the highway and it was really amazing.

We then went through a snow filled room.

Milo: [Teeth Chattering]

We then came across a huge wall blocking our path.

Rourke: Looks like we have a little roadblock. Vinny, what do you think?

Vinny: I could unroadblock that if I had about 200 of these. Problem is I only got about… 10. Plus, you know, five of my own and a couple of cherry bombs, a road flare. Hey, too bad we don't have some nitroglycerin, eh, Milo?

Mole: [Laughing hysterically]

Rourke: Looks like we're gonna have to dig.

Mole : [Gasps gleefully] It will be my pleasure.

Lynn: Leave this to the Earth Masters.

Lynn, Toph, Tara, Geo-Force, Kwame and Bobby smashed the wall down with a powerful punch and cleared the way.

Rourke: Nice job guys!

Me: Way to go!

Nico: YEAH!

Lynn: Aw it was nothing.

Tara: But at least it's clear.

Me: Yep.

We went on and we came across a glowing lamp structure on the ceiling and it was amazing.

Milo : This is it. It's gotta be.

Rourke : All right, we'll make camp here.

Audrey: Why is it glowing?

Mole: Pah! It is a natural phosphorescence.

Lola: It's pretty though.

Vinny: That thing is going to keep me up all night, I know it.

[Triangle jangling]

Cookie : Come and get it!

It was dinner time!

Cookie: For the appetizer, Caesar salad (Serves Sweet a greasy meal) escargot, (Serves Audrey a greasy meal) and your Oriental spring rolls. (Serves Mole a greasy meal)

Cookie was serving us his meals and they were greasy.

Audrey: Yuck.

Mole: I wanted the escargot.

Lana: Oh boy! This is great!

Cookie: Glad you like it Lana. Put a lot of meat on them bones. (Pours Lana a big meal)

Lana: Thanks Cookie.

Audrey: (Hands her tray to Mole) Knock yourself out.

Cookie: There you go, Milo. Put some meat on them bones.

Milo : Thanks, Cookie. That looks greasier than usual.

COOKIE: You like it? Well, have some more. (Pours a lot) You're so skinny, if you turned sideways and stuck out your tongue you'd look like a zipper.

Nico: This is good though.

Sweet : You know, we've been pretty tough on the kid. What do you say we cut him some slack?

Audrey : Yeah, you're right. Hey, Milo! Why don't you come sit with us?

Milo : Really? You don't mind?

Audrey : Nah. Park it here.

He came over.

Milo : Gee, this is great. I mean, you know… it's an honor to be included in your… (Mole puts a whoopee cushion under him) [Pbbbt]

Mole: [Laughing]

Sweet & Audrey : Mole!

MOLE: Ah, forgive me. I could not resist.

Lugnutz: (to some of the crew) If you're lucky, we might see some people that could be living in Atlantis.

Joshua Sweet: I don't know why you might think that. But I'll take your word for it.

Varie: You guys are gonna be amazed when you all see Atlantis.

Nico: Yeah this is gonna be an awesome adventure like Lola said.

Eli: Yeah it sure will be.

Rourke: How did you get the Leviathan to stop like that son?

Eli: My crystal around my neck. Whenever there's an Atlantean Crystal around someone's neck it will stop.

Me: Yep.

Rourke: That's impressive. Well done.

Eli: Thanks.

Audrey: Hey, Milo, don't you ever close that book?

Sweet: Yeah, you must've read it a dozen times by now.

Milo : I know, but this… this doesn't make any sense. See, in this passage here, the shepherd seems to be leading up to something. He calls it the heart of Atlantis. It could be the power source the legends refer to. But then it just it cuts off. It's almost like there's a missing page.

Lily: Hmm. That's unusual.

Lola: Yeah.

Vinny: Kid, relax. We don't get paid overtime.

MILO: I know, I know. Sometimes I get a little carried away. But, hey, you know, that's what this is all about, right? I mean, discovery, teamwork, adventure. Unless, maybe you're just in it for the money.

Audrey : Money.

Sweet : Money.

Packard: Money.

Mole: Money.

Vinny : I'm gonna say money.

Milo : [Sighs] Well, I guess I set myself up for that one. [Grunts]

Sweet : What, is something wrong with your neck?

Milo : Oh, yeah, I must've hurt it when… [Cracking] Aah! Ow!

Sweet : Better? [Grunts]

Milo : Yeah! Hey, how'd you learn how to do that?

Sweet : An Arapaho medicine man.

Milo: Get outta here.

Sweet: Born and raised with 'em. My father was an army medic. He settled down in the Kansas Territory after he met my mother.

Milo : No kidding.

Sweet : Nope. I got a sheepskin from Howard U. And a bearskin from old Iron Cloud. Halfway through medical school, I was drafted. One day I'm studying gross anatomy in the classroom the next I'm sewing up Rough Riders on San Juan Hill.

Me: With President Theodore Rosevelt. That's awesome.

Nico: The Battle of San Juan Hill in Cuba is one of my favorite battles.

Laney: It's really interesting to learn from.

COOKIE: Main course.

Vinny: I couldn't eat another bite.

Audrey : I'm watching my weight.

COOKIE: Ha ha ha, don't you worry. It'll keep and keep and keep.

Packard: Thank God I lost my sense of taste years ago.

I helped pitch the tents and we pitched our tents and they were cool.

Vinny: Aren't you going to pitch up your tent?

Milo: Uh, I did.

His tent was poorly made.

Applejack: Well you did try Milo and that's all that counts.

Milo: Yeah. I guess I'm still a little rusty at this. I haven't gone camping since well, the last time my grandpa took me.

Audrey : I never got to meet your grandfather. What was he like?

Me: That's what most of us want to know.

Milo : Where do you start? He was like a father to me, really. My parents died when I was a little kid and he took me in.

Me: Oh no. I'm sorry Milo.

Milo: It's all right. [Chuckles]

Audrey : What?

Milo : Well, I was just thinkin'. One time, when I was eight, we were hiking along this stream and I saw something shining in the water. It was a genuine arrowhead. Well, you'd think I'd found a lost civilization the way Grandpa carried on about it. It wasn't until I was older that I realized that the arrowhead was just some compressed shale mixed with zinc pyrite that had fractured into an isosceletic triangulate. [Giggles]

Nicole: That's very cool in Geological standards.

Mole : That is so cute!

MILO: Say, Audrey, uh, no, no offense but how does a teenager become the chief mechanic of a multimillion dollar expedition?

Audrey: Well, I took this job when my dad retired. But the funny thing was he always wanted sons, right? One to run his machine shop and the other to be middleweight boxing champion. But he got my sister and me instead.

Me: That shows how strong women can be.

Lana: Yep and I'm a handiman too. It's awesome.

Milo: So, what… what happened to your sister?

Audrey: She's 24 and 0, with a shot at the title next month.

Lynn: Wow! That's awesome.

Paula: Very impressive.

Me: Your sister is quite skilled.

Rainbow Dash: That's awesome!

Audrey: Thanks. Anyway, I'm saving up so my Papi and I can open another shop.

Nico: Cool.

Milo : Forget your jammies, Mrs. Packard?

PACKARD: I sleep in the nude.

Sweet handed us eye masks.

Sweet : You're gonna want a pair of these. She sleepwalks.

Me: Ah. Thanks Sweet.

Sweet: You're welcome.

Vinny: Well, as far as me goes, I just like to blow things up.

Me: You sure have an explosive touch.

Sweet : Come on, Vinny, tell the kid the truth.

Vinny : My family owned a flower shop. We would sell roses, carnations, baby's breath, you name it. One day, I'm making about three dozen corsages for this prom. You know, the one they put on their wrist. And everybody, they come. "Where is it?" "When is it?" "Does it match my dress?" It's a nightmare. Anyway, I guess there was this leak next door of gas or what. Boom! No more Chinese laundry. Blew me right through the front window. It was like a sign from God. I found myself that boom.

Me: A gas explosion. Who knew.

Mole: [Grunting]

He dug himself into the dirt.

MILO: [Mole chuckles] What's Mole's story?

Sweet : Trust me on this one. You don't wanna know.

Me: Oh uh noted.

Sweet: Audrey, don't tell him. You shouldn't have told me, but you did. And now I'm telling you you don't wanna know.

Me: I'll take your word for it. Night guys.

We went to sleep.

[Cookie snoring]

[Milo yawns]

Milo got up to use the restroom.

Cookie: (Talking in his sleep) The redhead's got a gun. [Snores]

He accidentally shined the light on the structure above and fireflies came.

Milo: Ahh, ooh. Ah! Aah! (He hit one and it ignited the toilet paper into flames) Holy Whoa!

Me and Eli woke up and we absorbed the fire and everyone got up!

Milo: Fire. Fire! Fire! Fire!

Me: Everyone wake up!

Milo : Fire!

Rourke: I'm gonna kill him. Thatch, go back to bed.

The whole camp was on fire!

Helga: Get some water on that fire!

Rourke : No time! Get us into those caves! Move it! Move it! Move it!

Me: Lets go!

I formed a force field around the vehicles and we went across the bridge and we went into the cave and we saw a light up ahead.

Me: I see something.

Milo then saw a bunch of figures with glowing blue eyes and Milo followed them.

Milo: [Echoing] Hey, wait a minute! Who are you?

We came and then we caught glimpse of an incredible sight! We saw right in front of our eyes THE LOST CITY OF ATLANTIS! We found it underground after 10,000 years!

Cookie: Sweet mother of Jefferson Davis!

Audrey: It's beautiful.

Me: Wow! Atlantis!

Nico: This is incredible!

Vince: Wow!

Varie: Home.

Sweet: Milo, I gotta hand it to you. You really came through.

Me: After 10,000 years we've found it!

Meeryn: It's so amazing!

[Screeching]

The masked men came down and pointed spears at us.

Sweet : Uh, I take that back.

Rourke: Holy cats! Who are these guys?

Milo : They gotta be Atlanteans.

Helga: What? That's impossible!

Cookie: I seen this back in the Dakota. They can smell fear just by looking at ya. So keep quiet.

We were surrounded by masked Atlanteans.

Blot: Let me handle this. (to the Atlanteans) Bah-weep-Graaaaagnah wheep ni ni bong.

Nico: Blot I don't think they understand Cybertronian.

Kida: [Speaking Atlantean]

Mole: I think it's talking to you.

Kida: [Speaking Atlantean]

Milo : [Haltingly speaking Atlantean]

Kida: (Speaking Atlantean)

Milo: Ita, sum amice viator.

Kida : Dices linguam Romae.

Milo : Parlez-vous francais?

Kida : Oui, monsieur!

MOLE: They speak my language! Pardon, mademoiselle? Ah, voulez-vous… [Whispering] [Gets punched]

SWEET: Ooh, I like her.

Audrey : Hmm! 'Bout time someone hit him. I'm just sorry it wasn't me.

Varie: (Speaking in Atlantean) My name is Varie Knudson and we mean you all no harm. We are peaceful explorers and adventurers.

Eli: (Speaking in Atlantean) Princess Kida my name is Eli Winston Bullock, I'm J.D. Knudson's little brother and you know J.D. 10,000 years ago and he was there when your mom disappeared.

J.D. 3: It's true Kida.

Kida: (In English) J.D.? Is that you?

Me: It's him and he's inside my head.

Sora: And it's good to see you again Kida.

Kida: Sora!

Sora and Kida hugged and then she went to me and hugged me.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Kida.

Atlanteans: Buenos dias. Guten tag! [Atlanteans speaking various languages]

Helga : How do they know all these languages?

Milo : Their language must be based on a root dialect. It's just like the Tower of Babel.

Rourke : Well, maybe English is in there somewhere. We are explorers from the surface world. We come in peace.

Kida : Welcome to the city of Atlantis. Come. You must speak with my father now.

Rourke : Squad "B," head back to the shaft… and salvage what you can.

OFFICER: Yes, sir!

Rourke : We'll rendezvous in 24 hours.

OFFICER: Let's move it. You heard him.

Mole: I'm so excited! [Creatures Screeching]

Milo : Now, what's really amazing is that if you deconstructed Latin, you overlaid it with a little Sumerian throw in a dash of Thessalonian you'd be getting close to their basic grammatical structure. Or at least you'd be in the same ballpark… -

Helga : Someone's having a good time. -

Rourke : Like a kid at Christmas.

Helga : Commander, there were not supposed to be people down here. This changes everything.

Rourke : This changes nothing.

Milo : Take that, Mr. Harcourt!

We were absolutely amazed the City of Atlantis has been down here for 10,000 years.

Me: Wow! This is incredible! We are probably the first ever explorers in 10,000 years to see all this.

Dark Laser: Listen, can we talk to your father? (Flipsie barks) And Flipsie says it's very urgent!

Me: Very.

Kida: Of course. Right this way.

Kida took us to her father and we stood before the King.

Kida: (Speaking in Atlantean) Greetings your Highness. I have brought the visitors.

King: (Speaking in Atlantean) You know the law Kida. No outsiders may see the city and live.

Kida: (Speaking in Atlantean) Father… These people may be able to help us.

King: (Speaking in Atlantean) We do not need their help.

Kida: (Speaking in Atlantean) But father…

King: (Speaking in Atlantean) That is enough. We will discuss this later.

Varie went up to him.

Varie: Hello your majesty. It's great to see you again.

King: (In English) Varie it's great to see you too.

Varie: Last time I was here there was only a few of us. Now all my team is with me.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you your Majesty. I apologize for coming here. My name is James Dean Knudson and I'm the leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

King: It's an honor to meet you J.D. and any friends of Varie is honored to be here.

Rourke : Your Majesty? On behalf of my crew, may I say it is an honor to be welcomed to your city.

Milo: Ahem. Uh, excuse me? Commander?

KING: You presume much to think you are welcome here.

Rourke : Oh, sir, we have come a long way looking for…

KING: I know what you seek and you will not find it here. Your journey has been in vain.

Rourke : But we are peaceful explorers, men of science. Heh heh heh.

KING: And yet you bring weapons.

Me: We apologize for that your majesty. But we have to defend ourselves whenever possible. There are many dangers all over the universe that we have to be prepared for.

King: That's all right.

Rourke : Our weapons allow us to remove obstacles we may encounter.

KING: Some obstacles cannot be removed with a mere show of force. Return to your people. You must leave Atlantis at once.

Rourke : Oh, Your Majesty, be reasonable.

Milo : Sir…

Rourke : Not now, son.

Milo : Trust me on this. We better do as he says.

Rourke : May I respectfully request that we stay one night, sir? That would give us time to rest, resupply and be ready to travel by morning.

KING: Hmm. Very well. One night. That is all.

Rourke: Well, thank you, Your Majesty.

Rourke and his crew left.

Pharaoh Man: Your majesty, now that you've granted the Rourke's request, can me and my friends talk to you? In private?

King: Of course. Guards leave us.

They left.

Me: I'm afraid that Rourke is not who you think. Rourke is after the Heart of Atlantis.

Lily: It's true. While he was sleeping, I swiped this.

Lily held up a page from the journal and it was the Heart of Atlantis.

We gasped in shock.

Varie: I knew there was something fishy.

Nico: Rourke is after the heart.

Lola: Yeah. He's after the Crystal.

Lana: We got to let everyone here know.

Me: No. We can't let everyone here in Atlantis know or Rourke will know that we're on to him.

Nico: Yeah.

Eccentro: Listen, it's only a matter of time before Rourke makes his move. You need to hide in any secret bunker you have before that happens.

King: Agreed.

Nico: We're not gonna let him get the Crystal. He wants to sell it on the black market. We're going to kill him before that happens.

Me: Yeah.

---

Later, Me, Eli and Milo were gonna ask Kida around.

Kida : I have some questions for you… and you are not leaving this city… until they are answered.

Milo : Yeah, well, I… OK.

Kida : Shh! Come with me. Oh, there is so much to ask about your world. You are a scholar, are you not? Judging from your diminished physique… and large forehead… you are suited for nothing else. What is your country of origin? When did the flood waters recede? How did you…

Me: Whoa whoa whoa. One at a time Kida.

Milo : Wait a minute. I got a few questions for you, too. So let's do this, OK? You ask one, then I'll ask one… then you, then me, then… Well, you get it.

Kida : Very well. What is your first question?

Milo : Well, OK, uh, how did you get here? Well, I mean, not you personally… but your… your culture. I mean, how did all of this end up down here?

Kida : It is said that the gods became jealous of Atlantis. They sent a great cataclysm and banished us here. All I can remember is the sky going dark… and people shouting and running. Then, a bright light, like a star floating above the city. My father said it called my mother to it. I never saw her again.

Me: Oh I'm sorry. It was some kind of powerful explosion that triggered the cataclysm that sunk you all here.

Milo : I'm sorry. If it… if it's any consolation I know how you feel, because I lost my… Wait a minute. Wait a minute! Whoa, back up! Wh… what… what are you telling me… that you remember because you were there? No, that… that's impossible… because, I mean, that would make you… you know.. 85 or 88 hundred years old.

KIDA: Yes.

MILO: Oh, well, hey, uh, pfft! Lookin' good. Just, uh, ahem. You got another question for me?

Kida : Yes. How is it you found your way to this place?

Milo : Well, I'll tell you, it wasn't easy. If it weren't for this book, we never would have made it. OK, second question. Legend has it that your people possessed… a power source of some kind that enabled them…

Kida : You mean you can understand this?

Milo : Yes, I'm a linguist. That's what I do, that's my job. Now, getting back to my question.

Kida : This, right here, you can read this?

Milo : Yes, yes, I can read Atlantean, just like you. You can't, can you? No one can.

Kida : Such knowledge has been lost to us since the time of the Mehbelmok.

Milo : Oh, the Great Flood.

Me: But that was back in the biblical era.

Kida: Show me.

Milo: OK, uh… [Reading in Atlantean]

Kida: "Follow the narrow passage for another league. There you will find the fifth marker."

Milo:Yeah. Yeah, that's it. How was my accent?

Kida : Boorish, provincial and you speak it through your nose.

Milo : Yeah, gotta work on that.

Kida : Here, let me show you something.

We saw that Kida showed us an awesome vehicle that looked like a fish.

Milo : What? It looks like some sort of vehicle.

Me: It looks like a fish.

Kida : Yes. But no matter what I try it will not respond. -

Milo : Perhaps if - Way ahead of you. OK, let's see what we got here. OK. "Place crystal into slot."

Kida : Yes, yes, I have done that! "

Milo : "Gently place your hand on the inscription pad."

Kida : Yes!

Milo : OK, did you… turn the crystal one-quarter turn back?

Kida : Yes. Yes!

Milo : While your hand was on the inscription pad?

Kida : Ye… No.

Milo : Ah, well, see, there's your problem right there. That's an easy thing to miss. You know, you deserve credit for even even gettin' this far. OK, uh, give it a try. (She started it up) [Gasps] [Speaking Atlantean]

Me: Wow!

Eli: That is amazing!

Milo: Yeah, you got that right. Oh, th… this is great! With this thing… I could see the whole city in no time at all. Wonder how fast it goes. (It zoomed) [Crashing]

Me: LOOK OUT!

We ducked.

Milo: [Crash] [Sputters] So, who's hungry? By the way, we were never properly introduced. My name's Milo.

Kida : My name is Kidagakash.

Milo : Ki-Ki-Kidamaschnaga. Uh, hey, you got a nickname?

Kida : [Giggles] Kida.

MILO: OK, Kida. I can remember that. Wow. [Sighs]

We saw Atlantis and it was breathtaking.

Me: Wow. So beautiful. And after 10,000 years.

Eli: It's so beautiful.

KIDA: What is wrong?

MILO: Oh, it's nothing. I just… got something in my eye. You know, my grandpa used to tell me stories about this place as far back as I can remember. I just wish he could be standing here with me.

Me: But it's so beautiful.

Later, me, Maria, Horsea, Kida and Milo were at a pool.

Milo : You know, Kida the most we ever hoped to find was some crumbling buildings, maybe some broken pottery. Instead, we find a living, thriving society.

Me: Yeah this is absolutely incredible.

Milo: Heh heh. These guys are kinda cute when they're not, you know formed into a fiery column of death.

Maria: I know.

Kida : We are not thriving. True, our people live but our culture is dying. We are like a stone the ocean beats against. With each passing year a little more of us is worn away.

Me: Oh man.

Maria: That's awful.

Milo : I wish there was something I could do.

Kida : I have brought you to this place to ask you for your help. There is a mural here with writing all around the pictures.

Maria: We'll have to take a look at it.

Milo : Yeah, well, you came to the right guy. OK, let me see. Let's start with this column right here. Uh, well, this, uh, uh, Kida? Uh, heh, what are you doin'?

Kida : You do swim, do you not?

Milo : Oh, I swim pretty girl. Pr-pretty good! Pretty good. Sw… Good, swim good. Pretty good. I swim pretty good.

Kida : Good. It is a fair distance to where we are going.

MILO: Hey, you are talkin' to the belly flop champ at Camp Runamuck. Oof!

KIDA: [Giggles]

Maria: Funny.

MILO: Come on, we're… we're wasting time. [Gasps] Why don't you lead the way because I have no idea where we're going.

Cheetah: Horsea, why don't you, Maria, Kida, and Milo go down there and translate the tunes?

Horsea: Right!

She dove down into the water.

Kida and Milo: [Gasping]

They swam down into some further ruins and came up into an air pocket.

KIDA: Are you all right? -

MILO: Well, I didn't drown, so…

KIDA: Good. Follow me. [Gasps]

They dove back down.

Maria: Oh wow!

Horsea: Wow! Look at all this.

Maria: This is incredible!

Milo : This is amazing! A complete history of Atlantis! It's just like Plato described it. Well, he was off on a few details, but…

Kida : The light I saw. The star in the middle of the city. What does the writing say about that?

Milo : I don't know yet. But we're gonna find out. Come on.

They saw that it was the Heart of Atlantis and it was incredible. It also showed the stone golems and more and it was incredible.

Milo: [Gasping] - The heart of Atlantis!

Kida : What?

Milo : It's the heart of Atlantis! That's what the shepherd w-was talking about. It wasn't a star, it was it was some kind of crystal… uh, like these! Don't you get it? The power source I've been looking for the bright light you remember they're the same thing!

Maria: Unbelievable!

Kida : That cannot be.

Milo : It's what's keeping all these things you, all of Atlantis alive.

Maria: How is that possible?

Kida : Then where is it now?

Milo : I don't know, I don't know. You'd think something this important… would have been in the Journal, but… Unless.. The missing page.

Maria: Oh no.

Milo: [Gasps]

He came up.

Rourke: You have a nice swim?

They saw Rourke and most of the crew armed with guns.

Milo : Hey, guys, what's going on? What's… what's with all the guns? Guys?

Me: I knew you were up to something.

Milo: [Exhales] I am such an idiot. This is just another treasure hunt for you. You're after the crystal.

Me: Yeah!

Rourke: Oh, you mean this?

Shows him a copy of the page.

Milo: The heart of Atlantis.

Rourke : Yeah. About that I would've told you sooner but it was strictly on a need-to-know basis and, well, now you know. I had to be sure you were one of us. Welcome to the club, son.

Milo : I'm no mercenary. [Gasps]

I punched them all over the place and kicked them! Kida pulled out a dagger and Rourke shot the dagger out of her hand and they grapped her.

Kida: Whoa!

Rourke: Mercenary? I prefer the term "adventure capitalist." Besides, you're the one who got us here. You led us right to the treasure chest.

Milo : You don't know what you're tampering with, Rourke.

Me: Yeah you don't know what kind of power you're up against!

Rourke : What's to know? It's big. It's shiny. It's going to make us all rich.

Milo : You think it's some kind of a diamond, I thought it was some kind of a battery, but we're both wrong. It's their life force. That crystal is the only thing keeping these people alive. You take that away, and they'll die.

Me: Yeah! That Crystal belongs here and it keeps them all alive!

Rourke : Well, that changes things. Helga, what do you think?

Helga : Knowing that, I'd double the price.

Rourke : I was thinking triple.

Milo : Rourke, don't do this.

Rourke : Academics. You never want to get your hands dirty. Think about it. If you gave back every stolen artifact… from a museum…

you'd be left with an empty building. We're just providing a necessary service… to the archeological community.

Milo : Not interested.

Rourke : I got to admit, I'm disappointed. You're an idealist, just like your grandfather. Do yourself a favor, Milo. Don't be like him. For once, do the smart thing. I really hate it when negotiations go sour. [Snaps fingers] [Cocks gun] Let's try this again.

Skulker: You better let Kida go right now!

Rourke: (chuckles) Oh, I don't think so. And as insurance…

Two of Rourke's men took Heather, Emily, and Rebecca hostage.

Misty Tredwell: Let me and J.D.'s kids go. NOW!

Rourke: Relax. They'll be safe. As long as you all don't get any funny ideas.

Suddenly, the two men were shot in the head by two more of Rourke's mercenaries.

Rourke: (to the two men) What the Hell do you two think you're doing?!

The supposed mercenaries took of their masks to reveal Rick Flagg and David Cain.

David: What we're doing is saving J.D.'s kids.

Rick Flagg: (to the former Suicide Squad members) Can't seem to keep yourselves out of trouble, can you?

Me: Anthony Miller A.K.A. Red Flagg and David Cain. Boy do I owe you guys one.

Rick Flagg: Think nothing of it J.D. and it's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here.

Ra's: It's good to see you again David.

David Cain: Master Ra's! We all heard that you were dead.

Ra's: I was but thanks to J.D. and some unforseen circumstances I am back after almost a year.

Lori: (to Rick Flagg and David Cain) Rourke still has Kida and yet, you were still able to save Heather, Emily, and Rebecca?!

Rick Flagg: (sarcastically) I guess that's your way of saying "Thanks for saving J.D.'s kids"?

Leanbow: Don't worry, Mr. Flagg. We really are glad that J.D.'s kids are safe.

Me: But Rourke got away. Lets get over there.

BOOM!

An explosion blasted through a wall.

Vinny: Knock, knock.

Cookie: Room service.

But they saw that the King was gone!

Me: You're too late Rourke!

We had our weapons and guns and swords ready and Flash got Kida away and we were ready to fight.

Me: You're not getting that crystal and we're gonna make sure you don't!

Rourke: Where's the King!?

Me: As if I would ever tell you!

Nico: We were on to you the whole time Rourke! We knew you were up to no good!

Lola: Yeah you fiend!

Rourke: Then there has to be a way into the chamber.

Milo : Well, there isn't. It just says… "The heart of Atlantis lies in the eyes of her king."

Me: You are not getting it.

Rourke: Well then…

He saw the symbol that was on the cover of the journal. And he saw the same symbol on a pond.

Rourke : The heart of Atlantis lies in the eyes of her king. This is it. We're in.

He knew how to get into the chamber.

MILO: Rourke, for the last time you've got to listen to me. You don't have the slightest idea what this power is capable of.

Me: Yeah it's power is incredible!

Helga : True, but I can think of a few countries who'd pay anything to find out.

Me: The Love of Money is the Root of all evil.

Rourke got onto a platform and it rumbled.

[Rumbling]

Rourke: Hurry. Get on.

We followed them and we saw a strange and incredible sight! We saw the Crystal and it had a bunch of stone faces in orbit around it.

Rourke: Jackpot.

Me: Wow. Is that the Crystal?

Lola: What are those stone faces around it?

Nico: I don't have any clue.

Kida: Ohh. The kings of our past. [Speaking Atlantean softly]

Rourke: Thatch, tell her to wrap it up. We got a schedule to meet.

Milo : Um… Kida… I'm sorry.

Me: Atlantis must have a much bigger history than what we first thought.

Hunter: (German Accent) Maybe 100,000 years. Maybe more.

Me: Maybe.

Rourke went over to a pool and kicked a small stone into the water and red energy beams came out of the Crystal.

[Voices murmuring]

Helga: Come on, let's get this over with. I don't like this place.

Me: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Rourke : All right, Thatch, what's next?

Milo : OK, there's a giant crystal hovering 150 feet above our heads over a bottomless pit of water. Doesn't anything surprise you?

A beam of light enveloped Kida and turned aqua blue and her crystal necklace lifted up.

Rourke : The only thing that surprises me…

Kida : Mahtim.

Her eyes turned aqua blue.

Rourke : That thing's not on the truck yet. Now move it!

Milo : I don't know how to move it. I don't even know what's holding it up there.

Me: Yeah we don't even know how it's being held up there.

We saw Kida walking.

Rourke : Ahh. Talk to me, Thatch. What's happening?

Milo: Look, all it says here is that the crystal is alive somehow. It… I don't know how to explain it. It's their deity. It's their power source.

Rourke : Speak English, professor.

Milo : They're part of it. It's a part of them. I'm doing the best I can here.

Rourke : Well, do better.

Milo : Oh, I know. Why don't you translate and I'll wave the gun around!?

Kida : [Atlantean: Don't be afraid Milo, all will be well]

Me: (Gulp)

Rourke : What did she say?

Milo : I don't know. I didn't catch it.

Varie: She said Don't be afraid Milo, All will be well.

Kida walked onto the water and we were all getting a glimpse of its power.

[Woman sings in Atlantean]

[Chorus singing]

As she got closer the power of the crystal was rising.

[Rumbling]

The stones moved and the beams converged on Kida. Then a massive surge of energy happened as the beam hit her crystal.

Me: Whoa.

[Thunder] [Thunder]

She was lifted up and went into the crystal and then massive energy surges flickered as the crystal spun and the stone faces were orbiting around it faster.

[Rumbling] [Low humming]

Kida fully merged with the crystal and the level of power coming off of her was incredible.

[Energy blasts]

She was now one with it.

[Noises stop]

The energy coming off of her was incredible.

[Energy blasts]

Me: Incredible!

Varie: What power!

Eli: Unbelievable!

Kida came down and she was walking on the water.

Rourke: Hold your horses lover boy.

Milo : Kida. Kida!

Me: Here she comes.

She came to us and the stone faces came falling down and splash into the water.

Me: She's totally one with the crystal.

Milo : No, don't. Don't touch her.

Me: She's totally translucent.

Nico: Amazing. I've never sensed this kind of level of power.

Lola: It's amazing.

Laney: It's like she's made of pure energy.

[People murmuring]

They were later building a cage for Kida.

SERGEANT: All right, step back.

SQUAD LEADER: Sergeant, keep those people back.

Man: You heard him. Step back.

SERGEANT: I'm warning you.

They loaded it on a truck.

Milo: So… I guess this is how it ends, huh? Fine. You win. You're wiping out an entire civilization. but, hey… you'll be rich. Congratulations, Audrey. Guess you and your dad will be able to open up that second garage after all. And, Vinny, you can start a whole chain of flower shops. I'm sure your family's going to be very proud. But that's what it's all about, right? Money.

Me: The root of all evil.

Rourke : Get off your soapbox, Thatch. You've read Darwin. It's called natural selection. We're just helping it along.

Helga: Commander, we're ready.

Rourke : Yeah, give me a minute. I know I'm forgetting something. I got the cargo, the crystal, the crew… Oh, yeah.

He punched at me and I grabbed his fist.

Me: You don't have any idea who you're fucking around with.

I crushed his fist and pushed him back and he crashed into the cage.

[Atlanteans gasp]

Rourge: Look at it this way, son. You were the man who discovered Atlantis and now you're part of the exhibit. Let's move, people.

Helga : That was an order, not a suggestion. Let's go!

Audrey and most of the crew came and they knew that it was wrong.

PACKARD: [Sighs] [Inhales] We're all going to die.

Rourke : Oh, you can't be serious.

Audrey : Rourke! This is wrong, and you know it.

Me: Yeah Rourke!

ROURKE: We're this close to our biggest payday ever and you pick now of all times to grow a conscience?

VINNY: We've done a lot of things we're not proud of robbing graves, plundering tombs, double parking, but nobody got hurt. Well, maybe somebody got hurt but nobody we knew.

Rourke : Well, if that's the way you want it, fine. More for me. P.T. Barnum was right. [Engine backfires]

They crossed the bridge.

Milo: We can't let him do this!

Vinny: Wait a second.

He blew up the bridge.

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

The Bridge was destroyed.

[Crowd gasps]

Vinny: OK, now you can go.

Me: We better go check on the king.

We went up and did so.

King: You were right J.D. That man was up to no good.

Me: No he wasn't.

Milo : What a nightmare. And I brought it here.

Sweet : Ah, don't go beating yourself up. He's been after that crystal since Iceland.

Me: Your majesty, we won't fail you. We're gonna go after them as soon as we come up with a plan.

KING: Where is my daughter?

Milo: Well, she… she… Mmm.

KING: She has been chosen like her mother before her.

Milo: What?

Me: Chosen? What do you mean?

KING: In times of danger, the crystal will choose a host, one of royal blood to protect itself and its people. It will accept no other.

Me: You mean the crystal chose her for that reason?

King: Yes.

Milo: Choose? So this thing is alive?

KING: In a way. The crystal thrives on the collective emotions of all who came before us. In return, it provides power, longevity, protection. As it grew it developed a consciousness of its own.

Me: It developed some kind of sentience.

Nico: Wow.

King: Indeed. In my arrogance I sought to use it as a weapon of war, but it's power proved too great to control. It overwhelmed us and led to our destruction.

Me: So it was because of the Crystal that it lead to Atlantis being sunk beneath the surface of the Earth.

Milo: And that's why you hid it beneath the city, to keep history from repeating itself.

KING: And to prevent Kida from suffering the same fate as my beloved wife.

Laney: That's terrible!

Milo: What do you mean? Wh… What's going to happen to Kida?

King: If she remains bonded to the crystal, she could be lost to it forever. The love of my daughter is all I have left. My burden would have become hers, when the time was right. But now, it falls to you.

Milo: Me?

The King gave Milo a crystal.

King: Return the Crystal, save Atlantis and save my daughter and us all.

Me: We will your majesty.

Eli: Kida is like a big sister to me. I won't let Rourke get away with this.

Me: We all won't.

Sweet: So, what's it gonna be?

Milo: Excuse me?

Sweet: I followed you in, and I'll follow you out. It's your decision.

Milo: Oh, my decision? I think we've seen how effective my decisions have been. Let's recap: I lead a band of plundering vandals to the greatest archaeological find in recorded history, thus enabling the kidnap of the royal family, not to mention personally delivering the most powerful force known to man into the hands of a mercenary nutcase who's probably gonna sell it to the KAISER! HAVE I LEFT ANYTHING OUT?!

Sweet: Well, you did set the camp on fire and J.D. saved us all the entire time.

Milo: Thank you! Thank you very much.

Dr. Light: Look, we get it. You made a mistake. But after the usual battles, you can either sit here and mope. Or, you can do something about it. It's your choice.

Me: That's right Milo. None of this was your fault. This was all done because of pure greed. Pure unadulterated greed.

Nico: Money has a way of causing people to do evil things, but there are lots of things that money can never buy.

Milo: Like what?

Me: Love, friendship, power, anything like that. I think it's time we show the people of Atlantis the power we have that will trounce Rourke for good. He will rue the day he messed with the power of Team Loud Phoenix Storm! (Eyes Glow Red)

Eli: Yeah!

Me: We are the most powerful force in the entire universe and we will not let Rourke get away with this.

Eli: Yeah!

Sweet: Of course, it's been my experience when you hit bottom the only place left to go is up.

Milo: [Sighs] Who told you that?

Sweet: A fella by the name of Thaddeus Thatch.

Me: I didn't know about that Sweet. That's cool that Milo's grandfather told you that. But lets show you all our power by having our usual battles.

We went onto the main terrace of the palace and then Iron Lung, Zzzax, Tala, LaGrange, Trickster, Toy Man, Wolf O'Donnell and Beetle appeared.

Me: Iron Lung, Zzzax, Tala, LaGrange, Trickster, Toy Man, Wolf O'Donnell and Beetle. (Jokingly) Fancy seeing you all here after 10,000 years.

Zzzax: (Laughs) That was funny!

Toy Man: It sure was.

Iron Lung: (to me) Before the usual battles, Nico, I have something to give you.

Nico: What's that?

SMASH!

Iron Lung then punched him in the face.

Nico: Okay. I deserve that.

Zzzax: Good. It's what you get for making us think you were dead!

Tala: Myotismon was actually crying his eyes out when he thought you were dead!

Nico: I'm sorry about that. But I had to lay low for a few hours so I could get Sid the Squid out of there.

LaGrange: It still devestated us when we heard the news about your so called demise!

Me: May already did that guys.

Iron Lung: Oops. Sorry.

Lola: No worries.

Me: Besides it will take more than an explosion like that to kill him.

Goku: It's true and Nico is a Saiyan after all.

Zzzax: Wow. Also we have 4 new archenemies for the Digimon Sovereign.

Me: Really?

LaGrange: Yep.

Then 4 huge figures came out and they were THE TITANS OF DISNEY'S HERCULES FROM 1997: LYTHOS, HYDROS, PYROS and STRATOS!

---

Lythos The Mountain King

The Titans are supporting antagonists in the 1997 Disney animated feature film, Hercules . They are portrayed as four elemental monsters who terrorized Ancient Greece. They were each the physical manifestation of the element they controlled. Though based on Greek mythology, these "Titans" were original creations for the film. Hercules: The Series featured Titan characters from actual Greek mythology.

The Mountain King: A two-headed Titan made completely out of rock. He ripped through the gates of Mt. Olympus, and is the physical manifestation of earth. He appears to be a large two-headed boulder creature with glowing red eyes. The inside of his mouth is red as well. Since he is very large and heavy, Lythos has the ability to stomp on the ground and cause massive earthquakes. He was voiced by Corey Burton(right head) and Patrick Pinney(left head).

Hydros the Lurker

The Lurker: A skeletal Titan made completely out of ice. He teamed up with Pyros to engulf Zeus into the Earth. He is the physical manifestation of ice. He was voiced by Jim Ward.

Pyros the Lord of Flame

The Lord of Flame: A blob-like Titan made completely out of lava. He teamed up with Hydros to engulf Zeus in the Earth. He is the physical manifestation of fire. He was voiced by Jim Cummings.

Stratos the Mystic Voice

The Mystic Voice: A tornado-like Titan with tornado arms, red eyes, and a red mouth. He was captured by Hercules to suck up the other titans and destroy them. He is the physical manifestation of air. He was voiced by Corey Burton.

---

Me: The Titans!

Nico: WHOA!

Lola: The Digimon Sovereign all get the Titans as their archenemies!? This is so awesome!

Hydros: It is amazing isn't it.

Stratos: We think so too.

?: I agree with you.

A figure came out and it was BLAZINATOR from episode 12 of Turbo!

---

Blazinator is a fire truck monster created by Divatox's detonator explosion while on a normal fire truck. It was destroyed by the Auto Blasters.

---

T.J. Johnson: Blazinator!

Blazinator: Been a while rangers!

Me: I remember you! You were made by Divatox's detonator while on a fire truck!

Blazinator: That's right. I look cool huh?

Me: You sure do.

Maria: (to Blazinator) Consdering you're a fire engine monster, you probably should've been created by Bansheera to fight the Lgihtspeed Rescue Rangers.

Blazinator: (laughs) You're right about that. Heck, if I had a robot mode, I probably would've been a Protectobot.

Me: That is funny! But maybe I can make that happen later on in the future.

Pyros: This will be fun!

Zhuqiaomon: It sure will be! The Digimon Sovereign have not seen any action ever since the True Enemy came.

Nico: You must mean the D-Reaper.

Azulongmon: Exactly.

Me: People of Atlantis you are in for an awesome show.

Nico: Oh yeah! Lets rock!

Me: Lets do it!

We went at them.

Battle 1: Liam, Twilight Sparkle, Star Swirl, Alice, Joe Shimamura, Mixmaster and Scrapper VS Iron Lung

Iron Lung was first.

Iron Lung: (to Liam) Be honest. Were you very upset when you thought Nico died?

Liam: We all were. But to be honest I actually knew that Nico was too powerful to be blown up in an explosion like that.

Twilight Sparkle: That's right! I actually knew he wouldn't go down that easily.

Harry Potter: (British Accent) I believe you but I always knew he wouldn't go down that easily. I think it was part of a plan that Nico had.

Starlight Glimmer: I think so too and Batman told us that this happened to him before.

Tala: Really? This happened to Batman as well?

Clover: That's what he said. And it was all an accident as well.

Françoise: Yeah it was a clever plan too.

Raimundo: You got that right! He had no idea we are all immortal and invincible. Bullets don't kill us.

Fluttershy: No they don't. I hope Rourke gets what's coming to him.

Mage Meadowbrook: Indeed. He messed with us and we will mess with him.

Marucho: You got that right!

Geronimo Jr.: Yeah!

Battle 7: Cole Evans, Sunset Shimmer, Gusty the Great, Sir Great Britain, Fuzzy Lumpkins and Cheetah VS Wolf O'Donnell

Wolf O'Donnell was next.

Wolf: (to Cole Evans) Have you and the others heard about the Aparoids? If not, you guys should probably look into that soon.

Cole Evans: No we haven't heard of them. But we'll have to take that into consideration.

Sunset Shimmer: Wait a second! The Aparoids!? Oh man! I know them!

Cheetah: What are they?

Sunset Shimmer: A very dangerous insectoid race that are parasitic and want all things in the universe all for themselves.

Sunset Shimmer went over their history.

---

The Aparoids are the main antagonistic force of the 2005 Gamecube game, Star Fox: Assault. They are an insidious race techno-organic insectoids led by their queen, who seeks to conquer the Lylat system and eventually the universe.

Appearance

The Aparoids come in many forms and varieties, but all appear as bio-mechanical insects with offensive capabilities.

Personality

Each and every Aparoid is part of a hive-mind controlled by the Aparoid Queen, who desires nothing but absolute subjugation of all existence. Everything built by the Aparoids is made to serve in their conquest.

Powers and Abilities

The abilities of each Aparoid species depends on their role. Either they attack their enemies by firing lasers, shooting dark energy spheres, or by simply charging at their foes. But their greatest and most frightening aspect is the ability to assimilate other beings, whether they are living or mechanical, allowing their kind to multiply even further and overwhelm their opponents through sheer numbers.

Members

The Queen

This entity is the sole member to have free will, and controls the rest. Her appearance is somewhat humanoid at first, but she becomes monstrous later on. Fox and his friends have to kill her to destroy the rest of her kind. Killing her is not easy; she can only be killed by the Self-Destruct program, which would cause apoptosis in her cells.

History

Early years

It is not exactly known how or when the Aparoid species formed, or if they may be a mutated race. Their homeworld is outside of the Lylat System. The Aparoid queen, who likely had a significantly longer lifespan than other organisms, may have created the species, as she can spawn more aparoids. By Beltino's account, about seventeen years prior the Aparoid Invasion, a moth-like aparoid came across a Cornerian Fleet and wiped it out leaving few survivors to witness, which alerted the Cornerian Army to the Aparoid's existence. However, nothing was done in defense, as no other known attacks were made on them by the Cornerian Army. The Aparoids did not show themselves again, and went quiet for a time

The Aparoid Invasion The Battle of Fortuna

The aparoids then began to feel the Lylat System belonged to them. In 9 ALW, during The Oikonny rebellion conflict, the Aparoids executed their invasion, by first striking Fortuna, where the last battle of the rebellion was being fought. A moth-like Aparoid (assumed to be the same one that attacked the fleet) arrived at Fortuna, and revealed itself when he destroyed a slightly weakened version of Oikonny's flagship, who was leading the rebellion. The moth then did battle with the Star Fox team, but was killed. Its Core Memory was taken by the team right as the Aparoids launched a full-scale attack on the planet. The Cornerian Fleet recognized them and escaped, but the rebels were ignorant to the danger and all of them were killed, save Oikonny. Fortuna's natives, escaped and suffered very light casualties, but the Aparoids had the planet occupied. Soon they struck with full force on the galaxy, capturing many planets on the way in vicious battles. The Cornerians reacted by hiring Star Fox to deal with the threat.

The Battle of Katina

One of the next victims of the Aparoid Invasion was an outpost on Katina. Star Fox was notified of a distress signal coming from this outpost, and was sent there by General Pepper to find the source. The Aparoids attacked with many of their troops, but were unable to stop them, even with Aparoid hatchers. The Aparoids finally sent the leader of the invasion of Katina to the surface of the planet. The leader was destroyed by Fox, and its Core Memory was stolen by Pigma Dengar (the one who sent the distress signal) before Star Fox could claim it. The Aparoids were driven off of Katina afterwards.

The Battle of Fichina

The Aparoids then attacked Fichina, which coincidentally, the Star Fox team had been dispatched to find Pigma. The Aparoids captured the climate control center, eliminated the scientists stationed there, and with some unexpected help from Pigma, got the sentry bots turned into Aparoids. But Fox intervened and were able to get the control center back on. The Sentry Bots attacked him, but were defeated by Falco. Pigma again gave some more unexpected help to the Aparoids, by using the Core Memory to turn a piece of the center's generator engineering into an aparoid, which would cause the center to explode if not beat fast enough. The aparoid was defeated, and it was soon driven out by Cornerian Soldiers.

The Battle of Meteo

The Cornerians discovered Pigma's whereabouts in Meteo, an asteroid belt, and were sent to capture him with Star Fox leading it. They were unaware that, due to Pigma's actions, the Aparoids had began assimilating him into some form of machinery. The Aparoids attacked with full force and used the assimilated prototype they captured on Fortuna against the team, but to no avail. They soon caught up with Pigma, who was just assimilated into the machinery. The team defeated him and captured the Core Memory, earning Corneria a victory, with the bonus of Meteo.

The Battle of Sauria

Just as Corneria was analyzing data from the Core Memory, the Aparoids attacked Sauria, because they were drawn to large energy sources shown by Sauria's dinosaur tribe's unmatched ability to survive. The natives fought back hard but were nearly defeated with certain tribes suffering heavy casualties. But Star Fox quickly rushed in to reinforce the Saurians and destroy the hatchers there.

The Battle of Corneria

While Star Fox was on Sauria, a colossal Aparoid armada invaded Corneria itself, nearly decimating the Cornerian Defense Force, assimilating many of the soldiers stationed there, and quickly gaining control of the planet's capital city. The Aparoids also placed a number of EMP radar jammers throughout Corneria City. Star Fox came to stop the Aparoid invasion, with Fox going on foot to seek and destroy the jammers. After an arduous struggle, Fox was then trapped by a multitude of Aparoid ground and air units, and was caught between assimilation or a gruesome fall to his death, but in a turn of events, Wolf came to Fox's rescue and destroyed the Aparoids surrounding Fox. After Star Fox and Wolf defeated a large number of air and land based Aparoids, General Pepper's flagship flew in from over the ocean, having been infected by Aparoidedation. Fox was forced to fight him, and as Pepper was about to die, Peppy rescued him by stabilizing the fall trajectory with his Arwing.

The Battle of The Orbital Gate

The Aparoids quickly learned of the invasion plans of their homeworld, and attempted to stop it by launching a full scale offense on the orbital gate. Star Fox and Star Wolf assisted the Cornerians and seemed to hold back the Aparoids' massive waves of fighters. The Aparoids then began to warp in multiple missiles in an attempt to destroy the entire station. After the missiles had been destroyed, the aparoids launched a gigantic, three-part missile, but it was also destroyed before it could achieve its goal. It seemed that while there were still a few Aparoid fighters left in the area, the battle was over.

The Battle of the Aparoid Homeworld

The Cornerians launched an offensive on the planet with Star Fox leading the invasion, but the Aparoids managed to reduce the Cornerian fleet by 20% and forced them to retreat. The Aparoids had set up a shield to protect the way into the planet's core. Star Fox took out the generators and the team prepared to go into the planet solo, but the Aparoids activated an auxiliary shield. However, as the Great Fox was under heavy attack by Aparoids attaching themselves to the unprotected rear hull, Peppy and ROB presumably sacrificed themselves by ramming the ship into the shield, taking it down just long enough for the Star Fox Team to get through. The Aparoids threw everything they had in desperation at Star Fox and the Star Wolf team, which had also some how gotten through the Aparoid's defenses, but were unable to stop Star Fox from entering the queen's lair, with Star Wolf distracting a group of Aparoids that was blocking Fox from proceeding further.

The queen initially tried to fool Star Fox into surrendering by using information from things it had absorbed to try and convince Star Fox that the Aparoids were not an enemy, using the voices of the team's friends and father. It didn't work, however, and after a fierce battle, Star Fox succeeded in launching the self-destruct Program into the queen, but she began suppressing it and tried to escape, which would allow it to create an antibody. Star Fox gave chase and after one final battle, was able to set off the program. The Aparoids, the queen, and their homeworld were completely annihilated soon after, and their threat was ended.

Battle 13: Ebonwumon VS Lythos

Ebonwumon was facing Lythos.

Ebonwumon: (Irish accent) This is gonna be most fun. The Sovereign of Earth VS the Titan of Rock. Good fun.

Lythos: We won't disappoint you.

Ebonwumon fired a wave of black rain and knocked down Lythos.

---

All the battles were done.

Me: Well what did you all think of that?

All of Atlantis cheered.

Milo: That was amazing!

Me: It sure was. Now we're ready.

Nico: Lets get ready guys.

We went with Milo.

Audrey: Where are you going?

MILO: I'm going after Rourke.

Audrey : Milo, that's crazy.

Kelsey Winslow: Crazy is my middle name.

Milo : I didn't say it was the smart thing but it is the right thing.

Varie: Absolutely.

Audrey: [Sighs] Come on. We better make sure he doesn't hurt himself.

We followed Milo to a fish vehicle.

Audrey : Milo, what do you think you are doing?

Milo : Just follow my lead. [Engine revs]

Packard: Wow. I'm impressed.

Milo: It's simple. All you got to do…

Audrey : Yeah, yeah, yeah. Shut up. We get it, OK?

Milo : No, no, wait! (She pressed too hard and it crashed into the wall) [Thud]

[Atlanteans gasp]

Milo: Gently. Just gently.

Me: You have to be gentle Audrey.

Eli: Yeah it's hard.

Vinny : Hey, Milo, you got something sporty? You know, like a tuna?

ATLANTEAN: How is this done?

Milo : All you got to do is use the crystals. Kida showed me.

Milo got into a shark vehicle.

Milo: Half-turn right, quarter-run back. Keep your hand on the pad.

Cookie: Saddle up, partners. Bring jerky and ammo. [Engines revving]

Me: We got plenty of it!

Mole : I'm so excited.

Milo : All right, this is it! We're going to rescue the princess. We're going to save Atlantis. Or we're going to die trying. Now let's do it!

Me: We're not gonna die! NOW LETS GO KILL THOSE SONS OF BITCHES!

[Atlanteans cheering]

In a volcanic shaft, a missile was fired and it hit the top of the shaft and exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOMMMMM!

Daylight was shining down.

Rourke : I love it when I win.

We were flying through the tunnel.

The crew got a zeppelin ready!

Milo : OK, here's the plan. We're going to come in low and fast and take them by surprise.

Audrey : Well, I've got news for you, Milo. Rourke is never surprised, and he's got a lot of guns.

Milo: Great. Well, do you have any suggestions?

Vinny: Yeah. Don't get shot.

Me: Target sighted!

The zeppelin was starting to go up and Rourke and the crew saw us!

Milo: There they are!

Rourke: We've got company!

(GUNFIRE)

I fired energy blasts all over the place and blew some of the crew apart in massive fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Man: Take off!

They lauched planes.

Rourke: Take her up!

Nico: Take this!

Nico fired a blast of energy and it hit the zeppelin and blew it apart in a fiery explosion and sent it crashing down and Vince and Carol grabbed the cage with Kida in it and cut it free and the zeppelin crashed into the ground.

Me: It's over Rourke! You're finished! And we'll pay quadruple to you all to kill Rourke!

The men all agreed and went at him.

Me, Milo, William and Maria were facing him.

Rourke: (to Milo, William, me, and Maria) Well, I have to hand it to you 4. You're bigger pains in the ass than I would have ever thought possible! I consider myself an even-tempered man; it takes a lot to get under my skin. But congratulations - you guys just won the solid gold kewpie doll!

William: (smirks) Really? I wonder what it'll take for someone to win silver and bronze!

POW!

I punched Rourke in the face and kicked him in the stomach 10 times and dealt him a deadly uppercut and sent him crashing into the rock wall!

Maria: You make me sick Rourke! You don't give a flying fuck about anyone but yourself!

William: That's right! Prepare to have your fucking ass handed to you!

I punched Rourke in the face and stomach and everyone else was dealing damage to some of the crew and more. Lyssta, Pyrithion, and Raimusa smashed and blasted some of the men all over the place.

Lincoln: Take this one! LIGHTNING STYLE: ELECTRO SPIRIT BALL!

Lincoln formed a ball of lightning and sent it at a bunch of men and it hit them all over and electrocuted them.

Jessica Shannon: This will hurt! STING STYLE: FIVE FINGER STING SHOT!

Jessica fired five energy blasts from her fingers.

Gluko: WIND STYLE: VACUUM WAVE SLASH!

Gluko fired a blade of wind and slashed a bunch of men.

Mai Shiranui: This will hurt! FIRE STYLE: BURNING DRAGON FIST!

Mai fired a blast of fire from her fist and it turned into a dragon.

Hilda: (British Accent) Try this one on! WILD STYLE: RAGING WIND SLASH!

Hilda fired blades of wind from her sword!

Menat: SPIRIT STYLE: SPIRIT PHOENIX BLADE!

Menat formed a blade of spirit energy and fired a blast of fire and it formed into a phoenix.

R. Mika: Take this! STRENGTH STYLE: MOUNTAIN SPLITTING WAVE!

She fired a wave of energy and it hit a bunch of men and obliterated them.

Makoto: Take this! STRENGTH STYLE: BONE CRUSHING FIST!

Makoto smashed numerous men all over.

Ibuki: STEALTH STYLE: VOID SLASH!

Ibuki fired blades of darkness.

Yuna: WATER STYLE: QUENCHING TIGER FIST!

Yuna fired a blast of water from her fist and it formed into a tiger.

Shantae: MAGIC STYLE: MYSTIC WHIRLWIND STRIKE!

Shantae fired a wave of magic and wind and it formed into a tornado.

The blasts obliterated most of Rourke's men.

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT GREEDY CIVILIZATION DESTROYING THIEVES! (BLASTS ROURKE'S MEN EVERYWHERE) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT GENOCIDAL SCUMBAGS! (BLASTS ROURKE'S MEN EVERYWHERE) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Punch, Sam, Magma and Sixshot all used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Punch's Mortar Launcher, Sam's fire powers, Magma's volcano powers and Sixshot's weapons and powers 100-fold.

Punch and Sam Sharp Loud: VOLCANIC MORTAR BLAST!

They fired a mortar and fire blast.

Magma and Sixshot: VOLCANIC FIRESTORM BLAST!

Magma and Sixshot fired blasts of lava and energy. The blasts hit some of Rourke's loyal crew and killed them.

Misty Tredwell: You make me sick Rourke! No one hurts my kids and J.D. and lives!

Me: Darn tootin!

Helga then shot Rourke in the shoulder.

Rourke saw it and he was enraged!

Helga: I am through with you!

Lincoln, Yuna, Toph, Mai, R. Mika, Hilda, Menat, Jessica, Gluka and Shantae: FINAL SMASH: 1,000 CRACK FIST OF THE NORTH STAR!

They smashed Rourke all over with incredible fury and power with the force of 1,000 star strikes!

Milo Thatch, me, William, Maria, Varie, Misty Tredwell and May: NEPTUNE FIRE MEGABLAST!

We fired a massive blast of blew fire and it hit Rourke and burned him all over.

Me: Had enough Rourke!?

Milo kicked him in the face and he was getting tired.

Rourke: Tired, Mr. Thatch?! Ah, that's a darn shame…'cause I'm just getting warmed up!

Maria: Well, here's something to cool you off! (shoots water at Rourke)

Me: Sorry Kida.

I punched Kida's cage window and take a piece of glass from the cage window and slashed his arm.

Rourke: (Screams in pain) (Crystal spreads all over him) [Rumbling] Aah! Aah! (Turns into a crystal man) [Shrieks] Aah!

MILO: Thank heaven. Whoa!

ROURKE: [Growls]

Me: You want money!? YOU CAN HAVE IT ALL IN HELL!

I fired an energy blast and it hit the Crystal Rourke and blew him apart in a massive energy explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Rourke was dead!

Me: That's the end of Rourke.

But then we felt rumbling and the ground was cracking.

Me: Uh oh!

Mole : The volcano… she awakes!

Vinny : Hey, I had nothing to do with it.

Cookie : This here would be a good place not to be.

Milo : No, wait. We got to get Kida back or the whole city will die.

Audrey : And if we don't get out of here, we'll die.

MILO: It's the only way to reverse this.

Vince and Carol got the cage.

Vince: Me and Carol got her!

Me: Lets go!

Helga: Hurry!

We flew back to the city and I grabbed the digger and we landed in the main terrace. Milo took a spear and tried to pry the cage open. The cliff was bubbling with lava and it was gonna blow at any second.

Mole : The fissure, it is about to eject its pyroclastic fury!

SWEET: Milo, Mole says the wall's going to blow!

Me: (Grunts) We know what it means!

Milo: Unh! Uhh!

The cage bursted open and the amount of energy coming from Kida was incredible!

[Atlanteans gasp] [Voices murmuring]

Laney: Whoa! What power!

[Crackling]

The symbols and cracks on the floor glowed and the entire palace glowed.

[Electricity crackles]

In the chamber of the crystal the stone faces came to life and floated up.

[Rumbling]

The stone faces came up through the floor and we saw Kida fly up with them.

[Voices murmuring]

Me: Whoa!

Nico: My God! What power!

Varie: Unbelievable!

Eli: Incredible!

The stone faces spun fast.

[Wind whistling]

[Electricity crackles]

It fired beams of energy and they hit a bunch of ruins and the ruins were really the stone golems and they rose up out of the water as lava bombs flew everywhere.

Me: Oh wow!

The Golems got to the edge of the circle of the city.

Lincoln: Incredible!

Lily: Wow!

Lava was bursting from the wall.

[Rumbling]

The whole wall exploded open and the lava came pouring out.

[Loud boom]

The golems formed the force field dome and it protected us. The lava was pouring out of the wall and over the dome and it was an unbelievable sight.

[Muffled splashing]

The dome was covered by the lava and it hardened into a solid rock dome thanks to an energy burst. Then the rock dome started cracking.

[Cracking]

It then started falling apart.

[Rumbling]

The force field faded and more water came pouring out.

Me: Whoa! That was incredible!

Eli: So cool!

Kida came down from the air in a beam of light and she was exhausted. Milo, Me and Eli caught her had we her in our arms.

Kida : Uhh. Milo?

Me: Are you all right Kida?

Kida: I think so.

Eli: (Smiles) She's okay.

We cheered for her.

Me: You did it Kida. You did it. You killed Rourke. He's dead and gone.

Nico: That was awesome.

Me: Actually we all did it. And it wasn't just us. It was all of Earth, the Universe and Atlantis coming together.

Eli: We sure did.

Kida saw that she had her bracelet in her hands.

Me: Your bracelet.

Kida hugged Milo.

I saw something.

Me: Wow look at that!

We saw that there was more ruins that were unearthed after millennia.

Eli: Wow!

Nico: So much was hidden underneath all that water.

Lola: It's amazing.

Varie: It sure is.

Later we were getting a ship ready to go back home.

Kida: Atlantis will honor your names forever. (We were given Crystals) I only wish there was more we could do for you.

Vince: Uh, you know, thanks anyway but I think we're good.

Milo: They'll take you as far as the surface.

Audrey: We are really going to miss you, Milo.

Vinny : You know, I'm going to reopen the flower shop and I'm going to think of you guys every single day… Monday through Friday, Saturday until 2:00. Sunday… I'm going to take Sunday off probably, and… Maybe I'll go in for a couple of hours, you know but August, I'm going to take August.

Cookie : I ain't so good at speechifyin' but I wanted you to have this. It's the bacon grease from the whole trip.

Milo: Cookie, I…

Cookie: [Mutters] Aw…

Audrey: [Kiss] Ah-ah. Two for Flinching. See you, Milo.

Lynn: (Laughs) Looks like we have something in common Audrey.

Mole : Hey, Milo! Heh heh! [Insects buzzing] [Laughs]

Milo : Mole. Mole. Wow. Hey, well… good-bye, Mole. [Pats Mole on head]

Sweet : Now, you sure you want to stay? There's a hero's welcome waiting for the man who discovered Atlantis.

Milo : Ah, I don't think the world needs another hero. Besides, I hear there's an opening down here for an expert in gibberish.

Me: That's a great idea Milo.

Sweet : You take good care of yourself, Milo Thatch.

Milo : Yeah. You, too, Sweet.

Sweet : Come here. [Crack]

Milo : Unh! Sweet, uh, before you go, could you…

Sweet : No problem. [Crack]

Milo : Ah. Oh. Thanks. Ha ha ha!

Sweet : Oh, you're getting a bill.

We laughed.

King: I would like to thank all of you for saving Atlantis. And my daughter.

Trickster: It was no problem, your majesty.

Toy Man: Now, no one will try to steal your crystal ever again.

Wolf: (to Milo's friends) And you guys can get paid without anyone dying.

Beetle: (to Helga) I knew you'd make the right choice.

Helga: Thank you all.

Me: Rourke was a monster. Now he'll have all the money in the world when he is burning in it down in hell.

Nico: You got that right.

Me: But our adventures are not finished yet. We have 10,000 years of restorations to help you all out with. I'm going to start an Atlantis Restoration Program for you all.

King: Thank you all.

Me: You're welcome. But as long as we're around we'll make sure that no one steals the Crystal.

King: Thank you.

Packard: Can we go home now?

Sweet:Come on, y'all. Let's get one last shot in front of the fish.

Me: Good idea.

We all gathered around.

Atlantean: Say "Gochk."

All : Gochk. [Camera shutter clicks]

We later went back home and we had an awesome photo made and we hung it on the wall.

Me: Not bad for an early 20th Century Photo.

Nico: Yeah that was an awesome adventure!

William: It sure was. (To the viewers) And I hope you all liked it too.

Me: I know I did.

We had a great time.

Crises of Atlantis

At the World Tree Estate we were watching TV and playing card games. With us was Lucy, Laney, Lana and Lola's friend Melinda Strauss.

Cynder: (to Melinda) Welcome to the class, Melinda.

Melinda: (Coughs up blood) (Weakly) Thank you.

Me: Oh man Melinda are you all right?

Melinda: Yeah. I have Leukemia.

We gasped.

Me: Oh man! That's cancer of the blood.

Melinda: Yeah I only have 2 days left to live.

We gasped again.

Me: Oh man.

She was coughing violently and coughing up blood.

Lola: Man that cough is terrible.

Lana: Yeah.

Me: Mr. & Mrs. Strauss how long has she been like this?

Mrs. Strauss: 3 years now. She had the diagnosis too late. We thought it was something else. We didn't know it was cancer.

Laney: Oh no.

Mr. Strauss: Yeah it's terminal. There's nothing they can do.

Pumbaa: (to me and Lily) Okay, guys. This is the part where you two use your powers to make Melinda feel better. Go for it!

Lily: I've never tried my powers on anyone with Cancer.

Me: Me neither. Lets give it a shot.

I fired a ball of water and Lily spread her wings and we enveloped Melinda in a ball of water. When it was done Melinda was on the floor.

Melinda: (Coughs up blood)

Me: Aw nuts! It didn't work.

Lola: If that won't cure her nothing will!

Melinda's mom and dad cried.

Me: Unless…

Nico: What are you thinking J.D.?

Me: There is a way but it's incredibly dangerous. We have to take her to a Lazarus Pit.

Everyone gasped.

Nico: J.D. are you crazy!?

Robin: Yeah the Lazarus Pits are dangerous!

Me: I know. And I'm well aware of the dangers that come with it. But unfortunately we don't have any choice. If it can help Ra's live for over 600 years, resurrect Jason Todd and give Bruce back his youth then it's highly possible that it can cure the terminally ill.

Nico: I don't like it. But if it will help Melinda we can help her!

Octane: There's also the fact that Melinda might go crazy because of the Lazarus Pits.

Talia: I'm well prepared for that. (Pulls out a spray container of knockout spray) The side effects are only temporary though.

Me: Awesome. The closest Lazarus Pit is not far from here in a forest cave.

Nico: Lets go.

We were off to the forest and we arrived at the cave and we went deep into the cave and we saw a big chamber full of a glowing green bubbling liquid.

Melinda's mom: Is that the Lazarus Pit?

Me: It sure is.

Melinda's Dad: You want us to put Melinda in that? You're crazy!

Me: We don't have any other choice. Melinda needs this.

Lola: Yeah she is our friend and she needs all the help she can get.

Lucy Loud: That's right.

Batman: We don't have any choice. She needs all the help she can get.

Me: And Talia and Ra's all have experiences with this. Lets do it.

We set her up and put Melinda on a big board and lowered her down into the pit. She was totally submerged by the chemicals.

Splash Woman: She's not dead is she?

Talia: No all is well.

Then a swirl of chemicals formed and a blast of fire and chemicals came out and Melinda bursted out and landed on the floor.

Nico: WHOA! It worked!

Laney: And she looks better than ever!

Melinda then growled ferociously.

Talia then sprayed Melinda and knocked her out and Laney and Lucy caught her.

Talia: It's a temporary side effect of the pits powers.

Me: Lets get her to bed.

We got her to a room at the estate and Lisa did a full scan on her and we saw that she was totally cancer free and cured.

Melinda woke up about 3 hours later.

Sandstorm: (cautiously gets out blaster) Hey, Melinda. How are you feeling?

Melinda: I feel incredible! Wow! I'm all better!

Me: You were cured with the Lazarus Pit.

Melinda: Lazarus Pit? What's that?

Me: It's a pit full of unknown chemicals. It healed you and saved you.

Lisa Loud: Indeed it did. The Pits regenerative and rejuvenating chemicals destroyed all of the cancerous tumors and cells in your body and healed you and made you officially cancer free.

Melinda: Wow! That's incredible!

Lola: It sure was incredible.

Lana: Yeah and we're glad you're okay.

Melinda: I know! Wow! (Hugs me) J.D. you saved my life.

Me: You're welcome Melinda. We now know that the Lazarus Pit can cure the terminally ill.

Ra's: It is a most amazing achievement and discovery.

Me: Yeah it sure is. The Lazarus Pit can do more than just revive the dying. It can resurrect the dead, make the elderly young and even cure the terminally ill.

Lola: That is so cool!

Laney: It sure is.

Ra's: Indeed. It's amazing that the pits powers are that resourceful.

Melinda: It sure is.

Melinda got up and she was better than ever.

Talia: Wow.

Melinda: I feel more than just cured. All my stuff that I should have as at my age is coming back to me.

Me: The pit revitalizes stamina, strength, agility and all the stuff people normally would lose when they are dying or elderly.

Melinda: Wow. That is amazing.

Laney: It sure is.

Lily: But that's why we have to be careful with the pit. The chemicals do physical rejuvenation but the stress of the transformation and curing process can make you go temporarily insane.

Melinda: Oh man! No wonder I acted all crazy afterwards. But man I feel incredible.

Me: Glad we could help you out.

We showed Melinda to her parents and they were overjoyed that she was back and cured.

Later we were in the Gym exercising and I was trying a new exercise for Pegasus Ponies called Wing Pushups. It is good for boosting wing strength and flying speed. Rainbow Dash was coaching me. I was dripping sweat like no tomorrow.

Rainbow Dash: Come on J.D. you can do it!

Me: (Groaning) 99,999 (Groans) 100,000!

Rainbow Dash: Yeah!

Me: (Panting) Whoo! Wing pushups are easier than arm pushups.

Nico: Wow. No kidding.

Lola: Yeah.

Mushi: How about we go check up on Atlantis now?

Me: Good idea. After our last visit there, they all have over 10,000 years of repairs and restoration to do.

Nico: This is gonna be awesome seeing how far they have come with repairs.

Lincoln: I'm sure it will be cool.

Me: Whew! Lets shower up and get ready.

Nico: Good idea.

We went and showered up and got ready.

LaGrange, Zzzax, Beetle, Trickster, Toyman, Wolf, Iron Lung and Tala appeared.

LaGrange: Can me, Zzzax, Beetle, Trickster, Toyman, Wolf, Iron Lung, and Tala come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. I can't wait to see Atlantis and see how things are going.

Zzzax: I know and with 10,000 years to catch up on.

Wolf: Yep.

Me: Lets head out guys!

We were off to the Lost city of Atlantis!

ATLANTIS

---

We were flying through the caves and we arrived in the giant pocket that was home to the Lost City of Atlantis.

Nico: Wow!

Shred Naught: Things in Atlantis are good so far.

Me: Restoration sure is really coming along well.

Nico: It sure is.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: After being down here for 10,000 years there's lots of work to do.

Laney: It sure is amazing.

Melinda: Wow! So this is the lost city of Atlantis. I thought it was all just a myth.

Lana: Nope it's all real.

Lucy: It sure is.

We landed on the terrace and Milo came.

Milo: Varie! Guys!

Varie: Hey Milo!

And at the same time, Audrey, Sweet and everyone came.

Nico: Hey guys!

Audrey: Glad to see you all here.

Zzzax: Hey, Milo!

Milo: Hey guys!

Me: You are doing great! Wow! You have been named as King?

Milo: I sure have.

Me: Wow! That's awesome.

Nico: Quite a promotion.

Lola: Yeah.

Me: It sure is.

Rage Mage: We're just making sure no one's causing trouble.

Milo: So far nothing is wrong here.

Me: That's good.

Laney: But lots of things have been restored after 10,000 years.

Kida: Yeah and it's amazing.

Trickster: Wait. Haven't there been reports about some criminals causing trouble?

Me: Hmm. As a matter of fact yes there have been. Those reports were coming from Norway.

Whitmore: Well then you guys better get over there and see what's up.

Maria: Whoever is behind it will meet their call to justice.

Nico: You got that right.

Me: Kida, would you like to come with us to see what has changed over the last 10,000 years?

Kida: I would be honored.

Varie: Lots of things have changed over the millennia.

Me: Lets head out to Norway.

We went to Norway.

---

We arrived in Norway.

Me: Here we are guys.

Lola: Wow! It's as beautiful as we remember.

Lana: It sure is.

Lady Deathstrike heard some bubbling in the water. But when she turned, there was nothing.

Cyclops: Something wrong, Deathstrike?

Lady Deathstrike: It was nothing. Must've been hearing things.

Me: Hmm. Well lets continue.

We walked on and we arrived in the small fishing town of Trondheim, Norway.

Me: Trondheim, Norway. Its been years since I was here last.

Nico: It's beautiful.

Vince: It sure is.

Eli: But something is really wrong here. I sense a huge disturbance in the force.

Twilight Sparkle: What do you mean Eli?

Eli: It's like the whole town has lost its hope.

Iron Lung: I agree with Eli. Something's very off here. And I think someone or something is also in the area with us.

Me: Yeah I sense it too. Something is seriously up.

Nunnally: Eli can you sense where the source of this hopelessness is coming from?

Eli: I can try.

Eli concentrated and he sensed a huge source of negative energy coming from the caves in the area!

Eli: There's a huge negative energy source in the caves around the town.

Me: Whoa! Lets go check it out.

We went to check it out and we went into the caves.

We heard some rocks clatter.

Demolishor: Whoever is in here better show themselves!

We saw an old man and it was J.D. 3's Old enemy EDGAR VOLGUD!

---

Edgar Volgud is the main antagonist in the first arc of the Disney movie Atlantis: Milo's Return.

He was voiced by Clancy Brown.

When the Krakken made all the fish of the town of Krakenstaff disappear, Volgud sold his soul to the kraken for food in return for the souls of the townsfolks. Volgud also asked for immortality, but forgot to ask for eternal youth. Living for an unspecified time but over a hundred years, Volgud ran Krakenstaff, becoming old and creepy, while the Kraken would sink ships and bring their supplies to him.

When Milo and his team arrived in Krakenstaff to investigate the kraken's attacks, Volgud told them to leave and go to Tronhyme, but they chose to stay and continue their investigation. Volgud attempted to lead them to be eaten by the kraken, but they escaped, much to his surprise.

When Mole, Audrey, and Kida destroyed the kraken by blowing up a subpod full of missiles right next to him, his deal with Volgud was broken, and Volgud turned to dust.

---

J.D. 3: Edgar Volgud.

Me: You know him?

J.D. 3: I sure do and he is bad news.

Me: Oh boy.

Poliwag: So you're why this town's feeling lousy!

Volgud: (Norwegian Accent) I'm doing it to save this town.

Me: You're a liar!

Eli: Careful bro! His mental power is incredible!

Me: So is mine.

I glared at him and fired a psychic energy blast at Volgud and knocked him down.

Volgud: No power is stronger than mine!

Me: Unless you have walked this universe for over 20,000,000,000 years!

Eli: You are a true curse on this town!

Then a roar was heard and out of the water came THE KRAKKEN! But it was not like the Krakken that we saw in stories and all that!

---

This type of Krakken appears in the direct-to-video sequel Atlantis: Milo's Return as the first adventure's main antagonist. It is based on the famous sea monster Kraken.

The Krakken is first seen attacking a Norwegian cargo ship located somewhere in the North Atlantic. A few days later, upon Kida's first trip to the surface and Milo's return to the surface along with Vinnie, Mole, and Audrey, the Krakken attacks their ship by bursting through the hatches but is eventually backed away by a grenade. It then almost ate Milo, Obby and Kida when their Sub-pod sank but their friends in their sub pods attacks the beast with numerous missiles fired from their pods. According to Inger Allyson, the innkeeper of a nearby fishing village, their magistrate Edgar Vulgud made a deal with the beast to live forever. The sun in their village hasn't been seen since the beast went loose in the sea nearby. It temporarily hypnotize Audrey in a attempt to stop Vulgud and tried to crush her but failed when Vinnie blew the ceiling up to distract it. Later it hypnotize Vinnie who almost killed the group using the sub-pods missiles but Mole hit Vinnie with a wrench to make him snap out of it. The Krakken then chased the group until they blew up an abandoned sub-pod that sank earlier. Upon the sub-pod's explosion, the Krakken faded away, killing Vulgud as well. Vinnie commented that "Mr. Squid was a little hocus pocus himself". The village was restored to its normal self.

Me: WHOA!

Kida: It's the Krakken!

Nico: That is one ugly slab of calamari! (To Squidward) No offense Squidward.

Squidward: None taken but I am more uglier than he is!

Wolf: I'm gonna need my Wolfen for this!

The Krakken was about to punch us when suddenly, two laser blasts hit it. We turned around to see BLACK MANTA there.

---

David Hyde, or better known as Black Manta, is a supervillain in the DC comics and is one of the two archenemies of Aquaman (alongside Ocean Master). Out of all of Aquaman's foes, Black Manta is the one that holds the strongest grudge against him.

Black Manta's hatred for Aquaman has varied over the years, due to the changes of his origin, but he has consistently gone out of his way to be cruel and sadistic as possible to make his life miserable. This involves strategic attacks and murders on his people, specifically his close loved ones.

Black Manta is one of many mysteries of the sea. Manta currently claims that he was an autistic boy who grew up in Arkham Asylum, where he was subject to many unethical experiments. One such experiment increased his knowledge but made him a sociopathic madman in the process. Escaping from Arkham, Manta decided to take over the seas, seeing it as a safe haven from the cruelty of the surface world. But Manta has proven to be just as heartless as the scientists who tormented him as a boy and has frequently fought Aquaman. But now their war has become personal after Manta killed Aquaman's infant son by trapping him in a chamber that suffocated Arthur Curry Jr., despite Aquaman's best efforts to save him, an act that truly proves that not all sea monsters are animals. In the current Brightest Day miniseries, it has been revealed that Black Manta is the father of the new Aqualad, Jackson Hyde, and his true origin may come to light.

Once an autistic child who loved to play by the sea, the child who would be known as Black Manta was abducted and forced to work on a ship for an unspecified amount of time. During his time held prisoner on the ship, the boy attempted to call Aquaman for help but was not seen. This resulted in the boy developing hatred against the sea, and Aquaman, who he saw as its representative. He finally defended himself against his captors, killing one of them with a knife.

As an adult, the man who would become Black Manta created a costume and fashioned a high-tech submersible inspired by manta rays. Under the monker of Black Manta, the supervillain and his army would engage in multiple clashes with Aquaman over the course of several years. During one such confrontation, Black Manta revealed he was African American, and claimed he wished for his people to rule the seas after being oppressed on dry land. This was later revealed to be a ruse to manipulate his lieutenant, Cal Durham. During the clash with Aquaman, Black Manta entrapped Aquaman's son, Arthur Curry, Jr., in a globe filling with air, suffocating the infant to death. This left Aquaman obsessed with revenge, and he engaged in another battle with Black Manta, ending with the supervillain defeated. Aquaman spared Manta's life, however, and had him arrested instead.

Black Manta later sold his soul to the demon Neron, who mutated him into a manta-human hybrid creature. In this new form, Manta indulged in drug smuggling in Star City. He was later reversed back into a human by Aquaman, using the Lady of the Lake's Healing Hand, and cured Manta's autism. Despite this, Manta remained a murderous criminal.

Manta was later used as a test subject to create water breathers using genetic manipulation. He later caused a desturbance in Sub Diego, during which Captain Marley was seriously injured. He was supposedly killed by Aquaman in retaliation, but he was later revealed to have survived via generating an electric charge in his suit. He later returned and overtook Sub Diego, but was forced to flee when King Shark bit off his face. He later joined Libra's Secret Society of Super-Villains but quit the group when Libra helped Darkseid conquer the Earth.

During Brightest Day, when Aquaman was presumed dead, Black Manta took up a job at a fish market. However, upon the return of Aquaman, Manta turned back to crime, teaming up with Siren and her Death Squad to find his son Jackson Hyde, the new Aqualad. Manta attempted to kill Jackson's foster father, but Aquaman intervened and brought the two to safety. During another confrontation with Aquaman and Aqualad, Manta severed Aquaman's right hand. Before Manta can kill Aqualad, however, Mera arrived with Aquagirl, and Manta was sealed in the Bermuda Triangle with Siren and the rest of the invaders.

New 52

In the reboot of DC Universe, Black Manta seeks vengeance against Aquaman for killing his father, who himself had been seeking revenge for the death of his own father at Manta's hands. Manta kills

Kahina the Seer, a former teammate of Aquaman, vowing to kill her entire family. Manta attempted to steal the seventh Atlantean relic in the Dead King's tomb, during which he did battle with the Others, who were forged by the first six relics. Manta was eventually overpowered and incarcerated. While imprisoned, Manta refused Amanda Waller's offer to join the Suicide Squad.

Beetle: Something is going on in the American Southwest. Right around New Mexico and Arizona.

Me: Well then we got to head out for there.

We went to the border of Arizona and New Mexico.

---

ARIZONA-NEW MEXICO BORDER

---

We arrived in the border of Arizona and New Mexico and we got word that a man named ASHTIN CARNABY was up to no good.

---

Ashtin Carnaby (otherwise known as Carnaby ) is the secondary antagonist in Atlantis: Milo's Return . He is a greedy trade post owner.

He was voiced by Thomas F. Wilson.

Role

In the film, an artifact hunter named Mr. McKean in Mr. Whitmore's employ was attacked by wolf spirits, being badly scratched up. Taking advantage of the empty home to steal pottery, McKean had taken from a hidden Indian village.

Upon meeting Milo and his gang, Carnaby pretended to side with them by returning the stolen pottery to the lost village. Upon reaching the village, where it was revealed an Atlantian was responsible for the emergence of several Indian cultures, Carnaby knocked out the group with gas and tried to bury them alive with dynamite, as he intended to steal and sell all the artifacts for his own greed. Fortunately, an Indian hermit named Chakashi (who happens to be the wolf spirits' leader) attacked Caranby, killing him and turning him into a wolf spirit.

---

He was after some ancient Indian Pottery and artwork for his own greed and we were blasting him and pulverizing him all over.

Carnaby: Let's see how you all like being buried alive!

Totally Spies Pam: Don't you dare!

Before he could activate the explosives, a figure grabbed him and bit his right hand off. That figure was Waylon Jones A.K.A. KILLER CROC!

---

Waylon Jones, better known as Killer Croc, is a recurring supervillain in DC Comics . He most often serves as a dangerous enemy to Batman, though as of late, has turned over a new leaf and stays away from the Dark Knight. He first appeared in Detective Comics #523 in February of 1983.

Pre/Post-Crisis

In the original comics, Waylon Jones was simply a man with a disfiguring mutation who eventually turned to crime rather than live his whole life as a circus sideshow attraction.

Eventually, he came up against Batman, who enlisted the aid of the trapeze family, The Flying Todds. Sadly, Croc murdered all of them except for son Jason, who joined Batman in bringing Croc down.

This directly led to Jason becoming the second Robin, now that Dick Grayson had taken on the identity of Nightwing. Later on, in an effort to differentiate Jason's origin from Grayson's, this story was discarded, and following the Crisis On Infinite Earths, Croc no longer played a role in Jason's origin as Robin.

Later stories, owing to a mix of natural threat escalation for a minor foe as well as confusion about Croc's condition, made him more and more reptilian in mind and body. An encounter with the potions of Poison Ivy during Batman's initial confrontation with Hush left him in an almost kaiju-like state.

New 52

In Prime Earth a kinder version of Croc. In same Waylon Jones was born with a rare condition that gave him scaly skin. He scrubbed daily to try and get the scales off to try and be normal. But he decided to give up because of the pain it gave him when he descaled himself. He grew up to become the Killer Croc and worked for the Gotham Circus. He was paid to wrestle crocodiles, but he's boss kept most of the money. Furious by his boss's foolish choice, Killer Croc bit his arm off.

After being apprehended by the GCPD he listen to two police officers joke about him. Saying he should stop while he's ahead and to get henchmen. Killer Croc took this to heart. He stopped being the muscle headed brute and become more of a thinker. He gathered "henchmen" who are really just homeless people that worship Croc for taking them in.

Croc now rules all of the sewers in Gotham with his own personal army.

Killer Croc: Tastes like chicken!

Me: Waylon Jones A.K.A. Killer Croc! I thought I killed you!

Killer Croc: You did and it's great to be back!

Nico: Wow! And the tail is brand new.

Killer Croc: It sure is. I just got it. What do you think?

Me: It looks good on you. Lets tear this greedy son of a bitch apart!

Rainbow Dash: Gladly! This is what he gets for taking stuff that doesn't belong to him!

Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom and Kida: RAINBOW ATLANTIS RETRIBUTION BLAST!

They fired a blast of rainbow light and energy and it hit Carnaby and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion blasted a hole into his chest.

Me: Lunch is served Killer Croc.

Killer Croc: I thought I'm not supposed to eat people?

Toyman: You can actually eat Carnaby as much as you'd like.

Me: And rip him to pieces.

Killer Croc: With pleasure.

He ripped Carnaby apart and ate him all up.

Killer Croc: BBBBBBBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUURRRRRRRRRRRRRRPP
Ahh. I'm stuffed.

Me: Looks like you had an all you can eat buffet with him.

We laughed.

Later we were at Mr. Whitmore's estate.

Me: What's wrong Mr. Whitmore?

Whitmore: It just burns me that someone could just waltz right in here and steal something right off my wall! An ancient Norwegian Spear. Kind of a fancy old letter opener.

Kida: What you needed was a glass case to protect it.

Whitmore: He must've come in the middle of the night. By the tracks I found he had some kind of dog with him. The real strange thing is near as I could tell, there was no sign of forced entry. Whoever it was knew exactly what they were looking for and helped themselves.

Audrey: Why would someone take an old spear when there's so much other junk around. (Gasp) Oh don't get me wrong it's all good junk.

Me: Whatever that spear was they knew it was special.

Milo: I'm more interested in these scorch marks on the floor like lightning struck here.

THUNDERCLAP!

Mole: It cannot be the lightning. See for yourself. There is no hole in the roof.

Vinny: (Sniffs) No black powder. (Sniffs) No explosives.

Kida: Fire did not fall from the sky in Atlantis like it does here. I do not like it.

Me: I don't like it either.

Nico: I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Milo: Yeah I have a bad feeling about this too. Mr. Whitmore, I'm thinking that wasn't any ordinary spear was it?

Whitmore: Do I own anything that's ordinary? Regardless I do have a good idea who took it.

We were shown a slideshow on a projector of Mr. Whitmore with a man in a nice suit. His name was ERIK HELLSTROM!

---

Erik Hellstrom, also known as Odin, is the third antagonist of Disney's 2003 direct-to-DVD film Atlantis: Milo's Return . He was one of Whitmore's competitors.

He was voiced by the late William Morgan Sheppard.

Role

Erik Hellstrom used to be a well known businessman and rival to Preston T. Whitmore. After the stock market crash destroyed his company, he went insane, believing himself to be the Norse god Odin.

One night, he went into Whitmore's manor and stole one of his possessions, an ancient spear called the Gungnir, presumably an artifact of Atlantean origin. When Milo and his friends track him down in the frigid Nordic Mountains, he presumes Kida to be his long-lost daughter and kidnaps her.

His intentions are to end the world in Ragnarok. He creates a lava beast (Surtur) and then an ice beast to destroy the world, but well-placed explosives used by Vinny to distract the monsters long enough for Kida to retrieve the spear and vanquish the beasts by crushing them with Hellstrom's castle, Asgard.

After the castle's destruction, Hellstrom mourns for his lost castle before he is presumably taken to a mental hospital.

---

Whitmore: The man's name was Erik Hellstrom. Son of a gun was a fierce competitor of mine. Built a shipping empire with cruise liners.

The next slide he showed us was an amazing castle he bought.

Whitmore: When he bought the biggest dang castle in the old country and named it Asgard, the press dubbed him The Modern Odin. Yeah he liked being treated as a god and he lived like one.

Thor: His castle is nowhere near as big as the Asgard that I know and he is not father.

Whitmore: No he isn't. Until the stock market crash sank his company.

Me: The Crash of 1929?

Whitmore: Yep. He lost his money, his power and I think his mind.

Me: So he's a fucked up former shipping magnate.

Nico: Oh man.

Whitmore: I hadn't heard from him till he phoned last week. Desperately trying to convince me to sell the spear to him. Raving about Ragnarok.

We gasped!

Kida: What is Ragnarok?

Milo: Doomsday in the Old Norse Myth.

Me: Yeah. It a terrible event where Odin will destroy the entire planet.

Kida: But why would Mr. Hellstrom want the spear?

Lily: Good question but I remember something about a Spear in The Shepherd's Journal.

Lily scrolled through the pages and she found it.

Lily: Found it. Gungnir.

Mole: Gesundheit.

Lily: No it's not that. Gungnir was the name of an Atlantean Spear. The spear Hellstrom stole from Whitmore was the same spear. An Atlantean Spear.

Varie: An Atlantean Spear!? That's not good.

Kida: Varie is right! Weapons of Atlantis contain untold power.

Brittney: And if the myths are right that's an understatement. "At Ragnarok, The Final Night of The World, Odin will use the spear to summon the forces of chaos and destruction."

Milo: He's going to use the spear to bring about Ragnarok!

Vinny: Armageddon!

Mole: Judgement Day!

Audrey: The End of the World!

Kida: Mebelmok, the end of Atlantis. Of everything.

Me: Things just went from bad to worse. First we had to deal with criminals using and selling Atlantean Artifacts, now we have a fucked up madman impersonating Odin and is about to destroy the entire planet!

Laney: This is bad. This is really really bad!

Kida: My father foresaw this.

Audrey: Your father was trying to save his empire Kida. This guy's just frosted because he's in the poorhouse.

Me: Then we have to stop him. But first we're gonna need some powerful help.

I went and prayed to Odin. I prayed for him to come so we can deal with Hellstrom and he arrived.

Odin: I have heard your prayers J.D. Thank you for calling me.

Me: Welcome Lord Odin and we're glad you came.

Thor: Father, I'm glad you're here.

Odin: I know son and I will gladly help you.

Me: Thank you Lord Odin. Looks like we're heading out to Iceland.

We then saw Kida down.

Me: Kida are you alright?

Milo: What's wrong?

Kida: Everyone, my father knew the power of Atlantis would be abused like this. As king it was his responsibility to do as he saw fit. Perhaps it is the same with Hellstrom.

Milo: Yeah but Hellstrom gave himself this crown and he isn't trying to save anybody. There's a big difference.

Me: And besides, the people of Earth didn't know the power of Atlantis would carry this kind of power. It was back 10,000 years ago. We had no way of knowing back then. Also with great power comes great responsibility. Also is trying to destroy the planet and we can't let him get away with it.

Odin: And no one impersonates the gods on our watch.

Me: Yeah. And he has to pay for that. Lets get going Kida. It's time for that world destroying fucked up lunatic to pay. (Eyes Glow Red)

We were off to Iceland!

---

ICELAND

---

We arrived in Iceland and we saw Hellstrom's castle and in front of a mountain with the castle floating above it was ERIK HELLSTROM!

Me: There he is.

Thor: Lets do an entrance for me.

Me: Okay.

Hellstrom: This world is all doomed!

THUNDERCLAP!

Massive strikes of lightning hit around him and then a massive fiery explosion went off underneath him.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A phoenix cry was heard as lightning came out from the explosion and we landed in front of him.

Me: Erik Hellstrom!

Hellstrom: My name is Odin!

Me: You are NOT the Real Odin!

Pain Yatta: (to Hellstrom) You've got some nerve ruining Odin's good name!

Me: That's right you insane nut!

Hellstrom: I am Odin and this world is doomed!

Odin: Not on my watch it is!

Odin kicked Hellstrom in the face and kicked the spear out of his hands and caught it and he gave me the spear.

Odin: You are not me! You're just an insane old fool that has no right to call himself a human.

Thor: Or a god.

Lola: You will not do Ragnarok on our watch!

Nico: The only thing you're going to do is die!

Tala: (to Hellstrom) Whatever magic you think you have is no match for mine!

Me: Or all of us!

Nico: Lets hit him with everything we have!

Laney: Yeah!

Varie: You will not destroy our planet without a fight!

Me: ATTACK!

We went at him and I punched him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted him all over.

Toxic Horror: (to Hellstrom) Time to pay, Odin Wannabe!

Toxic Horror fired a blast of atomic energy and it hit Hellstrom and he screamed in pain as he was being burned all over.

I punched Hellstrom in the face.

Nico: How about a 400 billion volt lobotomy?

Nico fired a blast of lightning and electrocuted Hellstrom all over the place! Spyder and Psimion Blasted and smashed him all over.

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT GOD IMPERSONATING WORLD DESTROYER! (BLASTS HELLSTROM ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Earthworm Jim: EAT DIRT INSANE GOD OF WACKINESS! (BLASTS HELLSTROM ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Lincoln: Try this one on! LIGHTNING STYLE: ELECTRO TYRANNOSAURUS REX!

Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and it formed into a Tyrannosaurus of pure lightning.

Batch: TECH STYLE: MECHA TRICERATOPS!

Gluko: SPEED STYLE: JET VELOCIRATOR!

R. Mika: STRENGTH STYLE: CRUSHING GIGANOTOSAURUS!

Octane, Cynder, Sandstorm and Pumbaa all used the Earth, Undead Skylanders and Animatron Cyber Planet keys and they enhanced Octane's Flamethrower, Cynder's powers, Sandstorm's Sandstorm blaster and Pumbaa's bug and fart powers 100-fold.

Octane and Cynder: FLAMING UNDEAD STORM BLAST!

Sandstorm and Pumbaa: FLATULENT SANDSTORM TOXIC BLAST!

Octane fired a blast of fire and Cynder fired a blast of black lightning and Sandstorm fired a wave of sandstorms and Pumbaa fired a massive and deadly fart cloud.

Odin, Me, Nico, Eli, Diamond Tiara and Toxic Horror: ATOMIC CRYSTAL THUNDERSTRIKE!

We fired a massive blast of lightning, crystals and atomic energy and the blasts all hit Hellstrom and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Lincoln: Now for our final smash! Tommy to you all mind?

Tommy Oliver: Go for it!

Lincoln, Batch, Hilda, Ibuki, Toph, Frosta and Makoto: WE NEED DINOSAUR POWER NOW!

The Mighty Morphin Dinosaur Zords came and they got in.

Lincoln: Lets power up our crystals!

They did so and put them in.

Girls: 2… 1… Go!

The Dinosaur Zords turned into the Megazord.

Lincoln: Get ready Hellstrom! I call on the power of Titanis and the Ultrazord!

Titanis came and the Dragonzord merged with the Megazord and the Zord merged with Titanis and became the ultrazord!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind it as it was ready for action!

Lincoln, Batch, Hilda, Ibuki, Toph, Frosta and Makoto: FINAL SMASH: DINO ULTRAZORD STRIKE!

It fired all its weapons and they all hit Hellstrom and he was obliterated in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

GO GO POWER RANGERS! MIGHTY MORPHIN POWER RANGERS!

Nico: Take that Hellstrom!

Me: You have failed this world!

Vince: BURN IN HELL!

Eli: Don't keep the Devil Waiting!

Hellstrom was damned for all time.

Me: We got the Spear back though.

Vinny: You should put it in a safe. Right now. Maybe with some chains and locks. Big ones.

Kida: I have a better place for this spear.

We went back to Atlantis and Kida came with it and went to us.

Kida: I learned many things from your world. But mostly I think I know my father better.

Kida went to the middle of the center of the terrace.

Kida: My father was only protecting us and the world above when he hid the heart of Atlantis. I understand that now.

Milo: Kida you can't hide the crystal again!

Me: Milo let her finish. That was not the end of her speech.

Kida: Thank you. But my father was wrong. He thought mankind would use the power of the Crystal for destruction. But look around you. The Heart of Atlantis has helped us rebuild our city and I saw how the knowledge of Atlantis touched a tribe of surface people and made them great healers and teachers and heroes. The brightest light is worth nothing if hidden in a cave. I do not want the legacy of Atlantis to be the destruction of its civilization. Let us share our light with the world!

The spear crackled with electricity and she put the spear in the terrace and it caused it to glow and it fired a beam into the Crystal and energize it. The crystal fired beams of energy and they hit the golems and they formed the force field dome. But instead of just protecting the city it enveloped the very pillar all of Atlantis was on and it was raising the whole city up to the Surface. In the middle of the Atlantic, fisherman were catching some fish and they were saw Atlantis coming out of the sea and it pushed their boats back as it was coming out of the water. They were shocked at they saw the city. Atlantis was now back on the surface for the first time in 10,000 years!

All of Atlantis cheered wildly as they were back on the surface after so long.

Me: Welcome to the year 2021 Atlantis. After 10,000 years, welcome home!

All of Atlantis cheered wildly.

We had so much to teach Atlantis and more. It was gonna be so awesome. To make sure the artifacts or treasures or anything of Atlantis doesn't get sought after again and to make sure that the people of Earth would never abuse the power of Atlantis for their own selfish purposes, we placed all of Atlantis under our protection and it was amazing.

Later news about Atlantis being on the surface spread all over the planet like Wildfire and Atlantis was no longer a myth or a legend. It was now 100% Real! The people of the Smithsonian couldn't believe it and they were absolutely floored beyond all comprehension. In fact all the people of the world were shocked and amazed.

* * *

Back at the World Tree estate in the gym, we were getting ready for the usual battles and Taskmaster, Cad Bane, Touch & Go, Mysterio, Femme Fatale, Mr. Fizz, Absorbing Man and Mumbo Jumbo appeared.

Me: Taskmaster, Cad Bane, Touch & Go, Mysterio, Femme Fatale, Mr. Fizz, Absorbing Man and Mumbo Jumbo.

Mumbo Jumbo: Yes it is us.

Mysterio: Glad you're all okay.

Mr. Touch: We're very glad you guys made it back.

Absorbing Man: Please tell us you took down the assholes causing trouble at Atlantis.

Maria: We sure did.

Mumbo Jumbo: Glad to hear it.

Taskmaster: I hope the real Odin is punishing that copycat right now.

Me: I have a feeling he is. No one impersonates one of the gods and lives to tell the tale.

Nico: You got that right.

Me: Odin is punishing him down in the Norse Version of the underworld Hel.

Femme Fatale: Good riddance. He deserves it.

Me: Yep.

?: Indeed he does.

2 figures came out and they were the CROCOTOXES from episode 21 of In Space!

---

The Crocotoxes were breed of toxic eel monsters (one red, one blue) used by Darkonda. He and his partner were sent to Earth to spread its toxins by Darkonda. One of them could swim through space and swim through Earth water, while the other hit the rangers with a green energy barrier that became a net around them. Darkonda had eggs to hatch into an army of Crocotoxes. Zhane destroyed the red one with his Super Silverizer while the blue one was destroyed by the Astro Delta Megazord. Crocotox Red was seen amongst the monsters in the Machine Empire and General Havoc's army.

Zhane: The Crocotoxes!

Red Crocotox: Been a while Silver Ranger.

Me: I remember you two! You were sent to Earth by Darkonda to spread your poisons all over the Earth and make an army of Crocotoxes.

Blue Crocotox: That's right J.D. Good memory.

Red Crocotox: Mistress Vypra was right about you. You never missed an episode.

Me: It's all awesome.

Red Crocotox: Are you Rangers surprised that you're fighting two of us at the same time?

Andros: Not at all. We knew you guys were coming.

Me: And it's gonna be fun. Lets get it on!

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: Tyler Bowman, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, Princess Cadance, Princess Amore, Flurry Heart, Lilly Crystal, Cloud Star, Minuette, Twinkleshine, Lemon Hearts, Lyra Heartstrings, Moondancer, Star Swirl, Joe Shimamura, Alice, Alpha Hydranoid, Robin Food and Mushi VS Touch & Go

---

Mr. Touch & Go were first.

Mr. Go: (to Tyler Bowman) So, how was collecting that treasure the other day?

Tyler Bowman: It was really fun and we got to stop one of our enemies. What really shocked us was that Sir Elton was really one of J.D.'s friends and treasure hunting partners from the past.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah it was really crazy! We didn't know all about that.

Luster Dawn: We sure didn't and that was really crazy.

Princess Celestia: It sure was. But thank goodness he's behind bars where he won't harm anyone.

Princess Luna: Indeed he is sister. Thank goodness.

Princess Cadance: But the more treasure we find all over the world the more fun we have sharing it with everyone.

Princess Amore: It's so much fun getting all sorts of awesome artifacts.

Flurry Heart: Boy you said it. I love all the treasure hunts we've been on.

Lilly Crystal: Me too!

Cloud Star: Me three!

Mr. Touch: We sure can tell.

Minuette: But it's absolutely awful that people will go to great lengths to satisfiy their greed.

Twinkleshine: And that makes me mad that they can think only about themselves like that.

Lemon Hearts: No kidding. It's despicable.

Lyra Heartstrings: It sure is. I don't like people like that.

Moondancer: Me neither.

Star Swirl: Same here.

Joe Shimamura: Yeah it's awful.

Alice: You got that right.

Alpha Hydranoid: Agreed.

Mr. Touch: Indeed. Shall we get it on Mr. Go?

Mr. Go: Indeed we shall Mr. Touch.

They went at them.

Tyler Bowman, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, Princess Cadance, Princess Amore, Flurry Heart, Lilly Crystal, Cloud Star, Minuette, Twinkleshine, Lemon Hearts, Lyra Heartstrings, Moondancer, Star Swirl, Joe Shimamura, Alice, Alpha Hydranoid, Robin Food and Mushi: MAGIC FOOD STYLE FORMATION ART: FURY OF THE SNACK FOOD BARRAGE!

They spun in an icosikaihenagon formation and fired a barrage of snack food and buried them underneath a huge pile of hot dogs and french fries.

Tyler Bowman: Yeah!

Twilight: That was awesome!

Luster Dawn: Yeah it was!

Robin Hood: Well done my hungry friends! Now they will not go hungry after today for I'm..

Medieval music plays.

Hungry Men: (Singing)

Robin Food, Robin Food, not your average thieving dude.

With his band of hungry men, he comes to home at noon and then…

He robs from the old (and the rude)

And gives to the young (Oh, how shrewd.)

Robin Food… Yo-Ho!

Group: YO-HO!

We cheered!

---

Battle 2: Marinette, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Wallflower, Gusty the Great, Diamond Tiara, Silver Spoon, Toxic Horror, Louie PoisonSea, Dan Kuso, Drago, Jet Link, Shred Naught and Trolling Thunder VS Absorbing Man

---

Absorbing Man was next.

Absorbing Man: (to Marinette) I honestly thought all the Lazarus Pits were gone after Ra's got arrested the first time.

Marinette: Actually we found out that they are part of the Earth. They weren't made by Ra's, they are a natural byproduct of the Earth and only appear in certain spots.

Absorbing Man: Oh that makes sense.

Sunset Shimmer: But seeing one in action was both cool and scary at the same time.

Pepperdance: Cool for how it can help people and scary for the temporary side effects it has.

Cayenne: Yeah it was cool though. But thank goodness we were able to help Melinda.

Gusty: Yeah and she needed it too. I can tell her mom and dad were so desperate in not wanting to lose her.

Diamond Tiara: No kidding.

Silver Spoon: Yeah.

Toxic Horror: Thank goodness though.

Louie PoisonSea: Yeah.

Dan: But it's good that Melinda is all right.

Drago: It sure is.

Jet Link: Yep.

Absorbing Man: It sure is.

He touched a piece of metal on the floor and turned his arm into a metal sword.

Absorbing Man: Lets do it!

They went at him.

Marinette, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Cayenne, Wallflower, Gusty the Great, Diamond Tiara, Silver Spoon, Toxic Horror, Louie PoisonSea, Dan Kuso, Drago, Jet Link, Shred Naught and Trolling Thunder: LADYBUG SUNSET FLAME STYLE FORMATION ART: FURY OF THE LADYBUG FIRESTORM!

They spun in a pentadecagon formation and fired a wave of red and black fire and it formed into a swarm of ladybugs and they knocked him down.

Marinette: All right!

Sunset Shimmer: So awesome!

Pepperdance: Andouille!

---

Battle 3: Arkayna, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Sassy Saddles, Sapphire Shores, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Françoise, Marucho, Preyas, Bombshell (Skylanders) and Rage Mage VS Mumbo Jumbo

---

Mumbo Jumbo was next.

Mumbo: (to Arkayna) So, you guys got to fight the Krakken?

Arkayna: We sure did but this wasn't like the legendary sea monster that we read about in books. This was an Atlantean Creature. It was stealing cargo from ships in the Northeastern Atlantic and giving them to an evil man.

Rarity: Yeah it was most unpleasant.

Sweetie Belle: And scary too. Eli said it had psychic powers that were terrifying.

Thunder Terror: Yeah and they were strong too. Good thing that Nico made emergency Anti-Mind-Control Headbands for just that kind of situation.

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) It's good he came through for that.

Sapphire Shores: Thank goodness he did.

Mistmane: Yeah and we are glad that we destroyed it.

Sable Spirit: Yep.

Françoise: I hope the Krakken can learn to love the fires of Hell.

Marucho: You got that right!

Preyas: Yep.

Mumbo Jumbo: Amen to that. Lets get it on!

They went at him.

Arkayna, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Thunder Terror, Sassy Saddles, Sapphire Shores, Mistmane, Sable Spirit, Françoise, Marucho, Preyas, Bombshell (Skylanders) and Rage Mage: JEWEL MAGIC THUNDERSTRIKE STYLE FORMATION ART: FURY OF THE JEWEL THUNDERSTORM!

They spun in a tridecagon formation and fired a blast of lightning and jewels and it hit Mumbo Jumbo and knocked him down.

Arkayna: All right!

Rarity: Rapture darling that was grand!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 4: Brody Romero, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Lightning Dash, Spitfire, Vapor Trail, Sky Stinger, Angel Wings, Soarin, Night Glider, Wind Socks, Flash Magnus, Indigo Zap, Lemon Zest, Sugarcoat, Sunny Flare, Sour Sweet, Frosty Orange, Shun, Storm Skyress, Albert Heinrich, Lady Deathstrike and Mystique VS Taskmaster

---

Taskmaster was next.

Taskmaster: (to Brody) Copying moves is something that I can do. But even I'm not that stupid enough to copy someone's identity.

Brody: That's good. Hellstrom stole Odin's name and thought he was really him.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah he was a totally insane nut! Anyone that impersonates the gods is a monster!

Scootaloo: You got that right! King Sombra thought he was like that.

Magma Gloom: You said it and Hellstrom went from a successful cruise liner shipping magnate to an insane and psychotic god wannabee.

Lightning Dust: Yeah he was a monster that was screwed up to the core.

Spitfire: And I hope they torture him to the brink.

Vapor Trail: Big time. No one insults the gods on our watch.

Sky Stinger: No one ever will!

Angel Wings: Agreed.

Wind Socks: Absolutely.

Soarin: I feel sorry for Hellstrom. He went insane after the stock market crash of 1929 and actually believed himself to be Odin.

Night Glider: Laney said he has what's called Delusional Disorder Grandiose Type and he believed himself to be Odin.

Taskmaster: That's very accurately diagnosed. That is exactly right.

Wind Socks: It sure is. I can't believe he was that determined to destroy the planet too.

Indigo Zap: Yeah he was a monster!

Flash Magnus: You said it!

Sugarcoat: Yeah he was evil.

Sunny Flare: But he has no idea what he's doing.

Sour Sweet: Yeah he's insane.

Frosty Orange: Yeah.

Shun: He deserves to spend the rest of his afterlife burning in hell.

Storm Skyress: He sure does.

Albert Heinrich: Definitely.

Taskmaster: Indeed. Lets do it!

They went at him.

Brody Romero, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Magma Gloom, Lightning Dash, Spitfire, Vapor Trail, Sky Stinger, Angel Wings, Soarin, Night Glider, Wind Socks, Flash Magnus, Indigo Zap, Lemon Zest, Sugarcoat, Sunny Flare, Sour Sweet, Frosty Orange, Shun, Storm Skyress, Albert Heinrich, Lady Deathstrike and Mystique: WONDERBOLTS THUNDERSTRIKE STYLE FORMATION ART: PRISMATIC THUNDERBOLT BLAST!

They spun in an icosikaitetragon formation and fired a blast of rainbow lightning and it knocked him down.

Brody Romero: All right!

Rainbow Dash: That was AWESOME!

Scootaloo: Yeah!

---

Battle 5: Jack Landors, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Apple Fritter, Big Mac, Granny Smith, Coloratura, Autumn Blaze, Julie, Hammer Gorem, Geronimo Jr., Demolishor and Reflector VS Cad Bane

---

Cad Bane was next.

Cad Bane: (to Jack Landors) In case you were wondering, we sent Croc and Manta to help you guys out when you arrived back in Atlantis.

Jack Landors: Awesome! And they saved us from getting thrashed by the Krakken and buried in a landslide.

Applejack: Yeah we owe you guys big time for that. All three monsters killed is a good day for us all.

Apple Bloom: It sure was. But this was an awesome adventure for us.

Frozen Fright: Yeah and the best part is that we raised Atlantis to the surface for the first time in 10,000 years.

Cad Bane: I've heard about that! The news about it has been spreading all over the world like wildfire.

Apple Fritter: You're not kidding. We saved all of Atlantis as it was about to be destroyed and now we brought Atlantis back up to the surface after being hidden down there for over 10,000 years.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Granny Smith: This adventure was more exciting than the time the Flim Flam Brothers challenged us to the Apple Cider Contest with their fancy machine.

Coloratura: Boy it sure was and we all enjoyed every second of it.

Autumn Blaze: We sure did and it was amazing!

Julie: Yeah it was!

Hammer Gorem: Yeah!

Geronimo Jr.: It was so cool!

Cad Bane: It sure was. Lets get it on!

Jack Landors, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Frozen Fright, Apple Fritter, Big Mac, Granny Smith, Coloratura, Autumn Blaze, Julie, Hammer Gorem, Geronimo Jr., Demolishor and Reflector: APPLE VALKNUT THUNDER STYLE FORMATION ART: THUNDERSTRIKE TRINITY BLAST!

They spun in a tetradecagon formation and fired a huge blast of lightning and it formed into a Valknut and knocked him down.

Jack Landors: Yeah!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

Apple Bloom: Yeah!

---

Battle 6: Yusei, Starlight Glimmer, Trixie, Juniper Montage, Clover the Clever, Snowdrop, Children of The Night, Runo, Blade Tigrerra, Chang Changku, Ri'Oha and Ghuul VS Mysterio

---

Mysterio was next.

Mysterio: (to Yusei) For this battle, I'll summon a robot of the Trickmaster Heartless.

Yusei: Sweet! This is gonna be cool!

Mysterio summoned his Robotic Trickmaster Heartless.

Starlight Glimmer: So awesome!

Mysterio: It sure is. Also I heard that you guys have been to different versions of Atlantis before.

Yusei: We sure have. The most epic battle with Atlantis that Heidi told me about was where she and the team killed Dartz and saved the world from his wrath.

Trixie: Wow! I heard all about that. That was an incredible battle from what she and J.D. told us.

Juniper Montage: No kidding. Heidi can you tell us about it?

Heidi: I sure can and it was an epic battle.

Heidi went over the events of chapter 332 and it was epic.

When she was done they were amazed.

Starlight Glimmer: Wow! That was incredible!

Clover: Wow! That must've been one amazing adventure!

Ri'Oha: No kidding. That's really something.

Ghuul: It sure is!

Runo: I've heard about that. That must've been an incredible battle.

Blade Tigrerra: And Heidi saved all of the world from the evil of Dartz.

Chang Changku: Incredible.

Snowdrop: Wow! That is amazing.

Gari: It sure is.

Mysterio: Indeed. Lets get it on.

They went at him and blasted the Robot Trickmaster and went at Mysterio.

Yusei, Starlight Glimmer, Trixie, Juniper Montage, Clover the Clever, Snowdrop, Children of The Night, Runo, Blade Tigrerra, Chang Changku, Ri'Oha and Ghuul: STARDUST MOONLIGHT STYLE FORMATION ART: MOONLIGHT WOLF PACK BLAST!

They spun in an icosikaihenagon formation and fired a wave of moonlight and stars and the blasts all formed into a wolf pack and it slammed into Mysterio and knocked him down.

Yusei: All right!

Starlight Glimmer: So awesome!

Trixie: Another great performance by The Great and Powerful Trixie!

---

Battle 7: Alexis Rhodes, Pinkie Pie, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, Limestone Pie, Saffron Masala, Three Stooges, Somnambula, Sir Great Britain, Pam and Crimson VS Femme Fatale

---

Femme Fatale was next.

Femme Fatale: (to Alexis) My faovrite holiday's coming up on Monday.

Alexis Rhodes: I know. International Women's Day. I have always been a huge supporter of Women's Rights and all that.

Pinkie Pie: That day is very interesting. And I hope it shows that women can be as strong as men are.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) I think it's great that women are as strong as men are.

Femme Fatale: Me too. By the way is it true that you all used the Lazarus Pit to save a girl that was dying of cancer?

Limestone Pie: It sure is true. She had cancer of the blood.

Marble Pie: And we used the Lazarus Pit to save her.

Saffron Masala: (Indian Accent) But it is amazing that the Lazarus Pit saved her.

Femme Fatale: I heard that Ra's has been using the Lazarus Pit for over 600 years.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) He sure has. But there is a temporary side effect that causes one to go insane after the transformation from the pits powers.

Femme Fatale: Wow! That's amazing. The damage from the cancer being healed must've done that.

Sir Great Britain: That's what I'm thinking.

Alexis Rhodes: Same here.

Curly: The pit did it all for us. But I bet it could cure Moe's bad attitude. Nyuk nyuk nyuk nyuk.

BONK!

Moe bonked Curly on the head and twisted his ears.

Moe: Why don't you be quiet?

Larry Fine: Leave 'im alone!

Moe: But out of this Porcupine! (Honks his nose) Next time you say something I'll tear your tonsils out!

They laughed.

Femme Fatale: That's funny! Lets do it!

They went at her.

Alexis Rhodes, Pinkie Pie, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, Limestone Pie, Saffron Masala, Three Stooges, Somnambula, Sir Great Britain, Pam and Crimson: ICE COMEDY STYLE FORMATION ART: DRAGON OF COLD COMEDY!

They spun in a tridecagon formation and fired a dragon of ice and confetti and it hit Femme Fatale and knocked her down.

Alexis Rhodes: All right!

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

Somnambula: That was fun!

Moe: Success!

Larry Fine: Yeah!

Larry kissed Moe.

Moe: (Spits) I'm Poisoned!

SLAP SLAP! HONK HONK!

Moe double slapped Larry and honked his nose twice.

---

Battle 8: Gwen Tennyson, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Zecora, Mage Meadowbrook, Derpy Hooves, Discord, Pyunma, Pain Yatta and Krankcase VS Mr. Fizz

---

Mr. Fizz was next.

Mr. Fizz: (to Gwen Tennyson) You guys did the right thing healing Melinda with the Lazarus Pit.

Gwen Tennyson: Well it was a act of desperation on her parents part. She was given only two days left to live.

Fluttershy: It's great that she is able to get back to every day life and all that.

Tree Hugger: Far out dudes. It's groovy she is gonna be all right.

Zecora: The Lazarus Pits are very magical and very life-saving, but one must be careful on the road they are paving.

Mage Meadowbrook: That's right. I've read about the Lazarus Pits and they can only be used once ever 75 to 100 years.

Gwen Tennyson: Wow! That must be a long time.

Derpy Hooves: It sure is. I think it's amazing.

Discord: It most certainly is. I think it is most amazing.

Pyunma: I think so too.

Mr. Fizz: Indeed. Lets do it!

They went at him.

Gwen Tennyson, Fluttershy, Tree Hugger, Zecora, Mage Meadowbrook, Derpy Hooves, Discord, Pyunma, Pain Yatta and Krankcase: NATURE FLAME STYLE FORMATION ART: FURY OF THE GORILLA FAMILY!

They spun in a decagon formation and fired a blast of nature fire and it formed into a family of gorillas and they knocked him down.

Gwen Tennyson: Awesome!

Fluttershy: That was fun!

Battle 9: In Space & Megaforce Rangers, Sonic the Hedgehog, Tails, Knuckles, Amy Rose, Maria Robotnik, Shadow, Cream and Lana VS Crocotoxes

The Crocotuxes were next.

Andros: Lets Rocket!

The In Space Rangers transformed.

Andros: "Space Power Red!"

Carlos: "Space Power Black!"

T.J: "Space Power Blue!"

Ashley: "Space Power Yellow!"

Cassie: "Space Power Pink!"

Zhane: "Space Power Silver!"

Andros: "Alright Guys, Let's bring it together!"

All: "Power Rangers Power Up!"

KRABBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind them and they were ready!

Lana: Awesome!

Sonic: Yeah!

Maria Robotnik: So cool!

Troy Burrows: Time to double the power!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! IN SPACE!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the In Space Rangers too!

Carlos: QUATTRO BLASTER!

Andros: SPIRAL BLASTER!

The Rangers had their weapons ready.

Sonic the Hedgehog, Tails, Knuckles, Amy Rose, Maria Robotnik, Shadow, Cream and Lana: CHAOS EMERALD STYLE FORMATION ART: FURY OF THE CHAOS SPEAR!

They spun in an octagon formation and fired a wave of energy.

The Rangers fired their blasts and the blasts all hit the Croconoxes and blew them apart in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

They were dead!

Lana: Yeah! Like Nico says, Croconoxes, you have failed this universe!

Andros: Yeah he has!

Troy Burrows: Rangers that's a Super Mega Win.

Cad Bane: I think Atlantis is completely safe now.

Kida: Of course it is. After all, Rourke got what he deserved.

Mysterio: And those 3 baddies got their just desserts.

Femme Fatale: Not to mention that you guys saved Melinda's life.

Mr. Fizz: Overall, it's been a pretty good day.

Me: It sure has. These last 2 days have been pretty eventful.

Nico: They sure have. But Team Loud Phoenix Storm's job is never finished.

Lola: Yep.

Eli: But it will be so cool having Atlantis share all its knowledge and benefits for humanity with us.

Me: Yep.

Kida: (To the viewers) Atlantis is back and here to stay. You all must've liked this adventure. Because I have.

Me: We all did.

We went to rest.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

Atlantis: Milo's Return from 2003 is one of my favorites because of the 3 awesome adventures in the movie and it was so cool! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an epic battle that will make sure that they never sully the names of Twilight and her friends as we take on the Mean 6 who were made by Queen Chrysalis to steal the Tree of Harmony's power but in the end double-crossing her to get that power all for themselves. But this time they will come back from the dead to get revenge. Now it's time for us to make sure they are destroyed for good.

See you all tomorrow.

MLP 6: Vengeance of The Mean 6

In the World Tree Estate we were resting and relaxing after an awesome adventure and finding the Lost City of Atlantis and saving the world from total destruction because of a deranged madman out to destroy the world by bringing about Ragnarok. After sending him off to Hell we brought him back and placed him in the Saturn Insane Asylum Arkham Asylum Section.

Twilight Sparkle: Hey J.D. can I ask you a question?

Me: Sure Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: I heard from Nico that you killed a more insane version of Lex Luthor.

Me: Oh yeah. That version of Lex Luthor was one of the most fucked up we've ever seen.

Nico: I remember that. He was one fucked up douchebag.

Laney: He sure was.

Me: Let me show you all.

I pulled up a video of what happened in chapter 476.

The Simulator activated and we found ourselves in a prison hallway looking at a Lex Luthor that was ONE INSANE NUT! He was in a solitary confinement cell. He was being confronted by Batman.

Batman: Whatever you do, wherever you go, I will be watching you.

He had a red hot bat knuckleduster on.

Lex: Oh, look at us. This is how it all caves in. Civilization on the Wayne Manor's out the window. But who would believe me? I… I. I'm insane. I'm not even fit to stand trial.

Batman: That's right. We have hospitals who treat the mentally ill with compassion. (Lex Chuckles Nervously) But that's not where you're going. I've arranged for you to get a transfer to Arkham Asylum in Gotham. I still have some friends there and they're expecting you.

Lex: But the bells already been rung.

In the halls we were waiting and I was loading a huge 50 caliber pistol.

Me: (whispering) Boy this Luthor is one seriously fucked up piece of shit.

Nico: (Whispering) Tell me about it. What are you gonna do to him?

Me: I have a special bullet with his name on it. It explodes on contact.

I pull out a 50 caliber bullet and carved on one side of the shell was his name Lex Luthor and the other side was B.I.H. and it had the star of Satan on it.

Me: This bullet has his name on one side and the other has B.I.H.

Nico: What does that stand for?

Me: It means Burn In Hell.

Nico: Nice.

Lex: And they've heard it. Out in the dark among the stars. Ding dong, the God is dead.

Batman punched the wall and burned a bat shape hole into it.

We go up to him.

Lex: The Bell cannot be un-rung! He's hungry and he's found us and HE'S COMING!

Me: You would like that would you Lex?

We came out and went at him.

Lex: Who are you?

Nico: You're executioners. And has anyone ever told you that you talk like Edward Nygma - the Riddler?

Me: We've come to kill you Lex.

Lex was laughing. I had my gun pointed right at his head in between his eyes and a laser was on him.

Lex: You can't kill me. I'm insane.

Me: You're worse than that Lex. You're one seriously fucked up piece of motherfucking shit. People like you deserve only one place and that's in the darkness of Hell, burning for all eternity. In my opinion, Arkham is too good for you and Eternal Damnation is what you deserve. Give my regards to the Devil when you see him and say hi to all the bad guys we killed.

I pulled the Trigger.

LOUD BANG!

The bullet blew his whole head right off his body and killed him instantly. Splattering his brain matter and blood all over the walls. His headless body fell to the floor and blood poured out of him.

Me: Burn in Hell you psychopathic motherfucking son of a fucking bitch.

I pick up the shell casing and we teleport out of there before the guards arrived and Nicole sealed him into the Book of Vile Darkness.

The video ended and they cheered wildly.

Sunset Shimmer: Boy he got what he deserved.

Lola: Yeah that version of Luthor was a monster.

Superman: He was more insane than the one that we knew.

Hawkgirl: But he deserved to die.

Rarity: I most agree.

Applejack: He was a lunatic. What did he mean by the God is Dead?

Me: He killed Superman in his universe. That was 2016's Batman VS Superman's Lex Luthor.

Sunset Shimmer: Oh I get it.

Martian Manhunter: It was horrible he did all that.

Laney: Yeah it sure was. He was a psychotic monster.

Lily: No kidding.

Leena: He was worse than me.

Me: No kidding.

A new recruit came and it was TY THE TASMANIAN TIGER. The Australian hero that saved all of Australia from the evil Cass and his group.

Maria: (to Ty) Thanks for joining us, Ty.

Ty: (Australian Accent) It's an honor to be with you mates. Me and all of Bush Rescue love all your adventures and they are amazing!

Nico: We're not ones to brag but they are fun.

Laney: Yeah they sure are. Some of them are awesome.

Valon: (Australian Accent) But it's always a pleasure to have a fellow homelander with us.

Ty: Same here Valon. This is gonna be awesome mates.

Me: It sure is. I heard your boomerang skills are absolutely incredible.

Lola: They sure are.

Laney: I think it's so cool how you can use different boomerangs and how they can use different elemental forces.

Ty: Thanks Laney. It's really cool isn't it mate?

Laney: I'll say.

May: Brain, didn't you and Pinkie deal with a company that sells cigarettes before?

Chompy growls in anticipation, wanting to know the story as well.

Brain: We sure did and we used the addictive properties of tobacco to sell cigarettes to kids.

Me: That's crazy! Cigarettes and cigars are really bad for your health. Smoking kills 480,000 people per year.

Nico: Whoa! That many people!? That's crazy!

Vince: No kidding!

Me: Yeah no lie. And smoking costs up to $300 billion in health costs because of it as well.

Eli: Man that is rough!

Me: No kidding.

Brain: I'll tell you all how it happened.

He went over everything and how it went down.

We were amazed.

Ty: (to Pinky) It's funny how J.D. and the others told me that you're dumb yet you have a good heart.

Pinky: Thanks Ty. I may be dumb but I have a heart of gold.

Lola: You most certainly do.

Nico: That's right.

Blitzwing: (to Brain) Well, that's good that you decided to go against the cigarette company.

Brain: Yeah it was a bad idea.

Me: But I would never smoke a cigarette or cigar even if you paid me or held a gun to my head and threatened to blow my fucking brains out.

Nico: I know that feeling too. I hate smoking.

Lola: Me too.

Lori: I would literally never touch a cigarette.

Lynn: Me neither.

Me: Well except for Patty & Selma because they like it but that's okay. But getting kids to smoke is contributing to the delinquency of a minor and that is punishable here in Michigan by $500.00 fine or 90 days in jail.

Lynn: Whoa.

Selma: Even me and Patty wouldn't give cigars to children.

Grim Adventures Mandy: Even I never smoked before meeting you guys.

Sky Lynx: And we Cybertronians never smoke. At all.

Me: That's good. Bart smoked an E-Cigarette from what I recall right? (Season 26 Episode 20)

Bart: I sure did. Annika got me into them.

Me: As long as it's not like vaping. Vaping is worse than Smoking.

Annika: I heard they are gonna ban that.

Me: They sure are. For the safety of children and more.

Lola: Yeah that is terrible stuff.

Lynn: It sure is.

Adam Lyon: I can't believe people think vaping is cool.

Jake Spidermonkey: Yeah I don't think it is that cool at all.

Nico: I agree.

Me: Me neither.

Laney: Yeah.

Me: Lets worry about that later.

Roscoe: Maybe we should check up on the Imakandi before tracking down the Mean 6.

Maria: What makes you suggest that?

Desoto: If the Mean 6 are still out there, it means the Imakandi were unable to take them down. We've got to make sure they're not dead!

Me: The Imakandi will not go down that easily without a fight. But yeah we better go check on them just to make sure.

Lola: Yeah.

Mumbo Jumbo, Taskmaster, Absorbing Man, Touch & Go, Mysterio, Fizz, Cad Bane, and Femme Fatale then appeared.

Mumbo Jumbo: Can me, Taskmaster, Absorbing Man, Touch and Go, Mysterio, Fizz, Cad Bane, and Femme Fatale come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can and we're gonna be in for quite a battle.

Nico: This is gonna get ugly really fast. I know it.

Lola: Yep. If the Mean 6 are anything like what Twilight and the others say then we're gonna be in a really huge fight.

Lana: Yeah.

Me: Then lets head out. Scans show that the Imakandi were last seen at the entrance of a huge cave deep in the Forbidden Jungle.

Twilight Sparkle: Ooh! That place is a dangerous one.

Daring Do: That's where I often go to collect artifacts and face Ahuizotl and Dr. Cabelleron.

Me: Cool!

Nicole: If we're lucky maybe we'll find some artifacts there.

Me: Maybe. Lets head out!

We went to the Forbidden Jungle in Equestria.

---

FORBIDDEN JUNGLE

---

We were trekking through the Forbidden Jungle and it was an amazingly dense jungle and it was loaded with dangers and more. But we were ready for anything.

Me: Man this jungle is as thick as the Amazon and Borneo Rainforests.

Nico: No kidding.

Lola: It's still amazing though.

Daring Do: It sure is.

We trekked on until we got to the cave.

Me: This must be the cave.

Lucy Loud: It sure looks wicked.

Mysterio: I'll summon some Flood Unversed robots to help us.

Me: Good idea.

Mysterio summoned some Flood Unversed Robots and we went into the cave with flashlights and our powers as lights.

Me: Stay close guys. They could be anywhere.

Eli: I sense them. Their energy is strong but not nearly as strong as us.

Me: Stay close though.

We continued trekking on and it was a terrible cave and it was creepy. But then we heard some voices.

Me: (Whispering) Shh. I hear voices.

We snuck down further into the cave. We saw in another part of the cave… the Mane 6?

"Twilight Sparkle": Thank goodness you guys came!

Quick Man: Twilight? Girls?

"Applejack": You guys came with the wrong Mane 6. They're imposters! You know how many shapeshifting baddies there are.

May: Normally, I'd say that you're lying. But I can't tell which Mane 6 are real!

Nico: Then, let's ask them questions only the real ones can answer.

Me: Good idea. (To Mean Twilight) Okay Twilight. What is the square root of 817,293,692?

Mean Twilight: Uh?

Twilight: 28588.3488855.

Lisa Loud: She's correct.

Eli: And look at their cutie marks.

We saw the Mane 6's cutie marks and the Mean 6's and saw that the Mean 6's Cutie Marks were completely different.

Me: BUSTED!

The MEAN SIX WERE EXPOSED!

---

The Mean Six are the titular secondary antagonists of the MLP: FiM episode of the same name. They are clones of the Mane Six created by Queen Chrysalis and lead by Mean Twilight before they end up turning against her. They are voiced by the same people that voice the original Mane Six.

Season 8

In " Mean Six " Queen Chrysalis created the Mean Six from trees using pictures she took of the Mane 6, hairs from their manes (in Rainbow Dash's case, her tail), and magically carving their cutie marks into the trees. Their purpose was to take the Elements of Harmony and destroy the Mane 6 in front of Starlight Glimmer as revenge for taking away her army and kingdom and then destroy Starlight as well.

However, because of Chrysalis' evil magic, the clones ended up flawed, acting opposite to the original counterparts. Evil Twilight could tell that Chrysalis couldn't do much without them. Chrysalis sent the Mean Six to search for the Elements of Harmony in the Everfree Forest.

During the search, Evil Fluttershy got distracted picking on a bird, while Evil Rainbow Dash got bored and flew off. Evil Applejack lied to Chrysalis as to where they were, and Chrysalis gave her and the other three permission to split up and search for them.

Evil Twilight took note of the fact that Chrysalis needed them more than they needed her and planned to lead the other Mean 5 so they could take the Elements for themselves instead of Chrysalis. She ran into the real Pinkie Pie, who inadvertently revealed to her that the Elements were inside the Tree of Harmony, and told her the location of the Tree.

Evil Rainbow Dash ran into Fluttershy, snubbed her, and flew off.

Chrysalis found Evil Pinkie Pie, laying bored on the ground, while Evil Rarity hoarded random objects, and Evil Applejack continued lying. Chrysalis got angry at them and commanded them to find the other three and bring them back.

Evil Fluttershy treated the animals badly, causing them to get angry at the real Fluttershy (during which a bird curses at her).

Evil Rarity mistook the real Rainbow Dash for her clone and started stealing the items that Applejack packed for Starlight.

When Evil Twilight and Pinkie ran into Fluttershy, Evil Twilight was mean to her and left to get the others, causing the real Twilight to think Pinkie upset Fluttershy, and Pinkie accused Twilight of doing so. Twilight was offended that Pinkie seemingly found the trip boring (when it was Evil Pinkie that made the remarks earlier).

Chrysalis overheard Evil Twilight's plan to betray her and confronted her, saying she should kill them and start over, but Evil Twilight told her she knew where the Elements were.

Evil Rarity tried to run with Starlight's items but became tangled in vines. Rainbow Dash tried to help her out with a shovel, but Evil Rarity accused her of trying to take it from her. After she got free, she pulled Rainbow Dash to the ground by her tail and ran off.

Evil Applejack ran into Starlight and Rarity, telling more lies and insulting Starlight, hurting her feelings. After Starlight ran off and Rarity ran after her, Chrysalis and the other Mean 5 reunited with Evil Rarity, telling Evil Twilight to lead her to the Tree of Harmony.

As the Mane 6 and Starlight met up, argued, and reconciled, Chrysalis and the Mean 6 reached the campsite where the Mane 6 and Starlight were headed for, and the Mean 6 trashed the tents for fun, with Evil Rarity stealing everything. Evil Twilight told the other five about her plan, and they got to the Tree of Harmony. The other Mean 5 fought amongst themselves, and Evil Twilight said they needed the Elements to take out Chrysalis. Chrysalis heard this and engaged Evil Twilight in a beam struggle while the other five attempted to take the Elements. As Evil Twilight was about to overpower Chrysalis, the Tree sensed the Mean 6's evil and captured them, melting their bodies before destroying them in a flash of light, leaving only fragments of the trees used to create them.

After the Mean Six's destruction, Chrysalis remarks how servants can't be depended on, but ensures that she will have her revenge on Starlight one day.

Season 9

In " Frenemies ", it is shown that Chrysalis kept Evil Twilight's log as something to "talk to" when she needs it.

---

My eyes glowed red.

We just got done confirming who's the real Mane 6.

Grenade Man: (to the Mean 6) Looks like you 6 are busted!

Mean Twilight Sparkle: (chuckles) So it would seem. But you have to realize that things like friendship aren't going to help the world forever. For the sake of Equestria's survival, a deal had to be made. With Chrysalis! (fires a beam of magical energy from her horn at Lynn)

But then, a figure got in front of the attack, blocking it. That someone was Mark Scheefer A.K.A. Shrapnel (DC).

---

Shrapnel is a supervillain in the DC Comics universe and is an enemy of the Doom Patrol and the Outsiders.

Very little about Shrapnel's past and identity is known, although it is known that his name is Mark Scheffer and that he was a normal human at one time and has an ex-wife and two very human blond-haired daughters. Shrapnel has tried to stay incognito, but failed to do so after deciding to slaughter anyone who caught even a glimpse of him.

He was discovered by the Doom Patrol in Kansas while on a murder spree and forced into combat by the team. Celsius quickly flooded Shrapnel encasing him within a solid prison block of ice. Shrapnel blew it apart, hitting Mrs. Caulder point blank and hospitalizing the heroine.

It is also noted that Lodestone was not able to magnetize some control over Shrapnel. It was energy blasting Tempest who worked out that Shrapnel is a series of organic cells creating a single consciousness- that feeds on the blood of victims. Shrapnel escaped the encounter with the Doom Patrol.

He has since joined the Secret Society of Super Villains. Shrapnel has later resurfaced as one of the exiled supervillains in Salvation Run.

In DC Special: Cyborg mini-series, Shrapnel has joined The Cyborg Revenge Squad.

Following the Final Crisis, he was with Cheetah III's Secret Society of Super Villains at the time when Genocide was created. He was defeated by Wonder Woman.

Shrapnel appeared in the intercompany crossover JLA/Avengers as one of the villains who attack the Vision and Aquaman in Metropolis. He actually makes the first attack, but the Vision blocks it by increasing his density. After the two heroes are subdued, Shrapnel prepares to blast Aquaman when Green Lantern attacks him and knocks him out.

---

DC Shrapnel: Now that wasn't very nice.

Me: Mark Scheffer A.K.A. Shrapnel. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Nico: Same here.

DC Shrapnel: It's an honor to meet you all and it looks like you all have your hands full.

Me: You have no idea. These six are the Mean 6, They were made by Queen Chrysalis to steal the power of the Tree of Harmony and destroy Equestria.

Mean Applejack: We're trying to save Equestria!

Me: Bullshit! You're trying to destroy Equestria and all it represents.

Applejack: Even I know a lie when I see one!

Mean Twilight (to Lynn): I hereby discharge you from duty!

Mean Twilight was about to fire another magic blast at Lynn when she got grabbed by another figure. Mean Twilight screamed in pain as the second figure started draining her of her powers. That figure revealed himself to be Rudy Jones A.K.A. PARASITE!

---

Parasite is a villain from DC Comics, frequently appearing as an enemy to Superman and Firestorm. They are a superhuman criminal who feeds off of the energy of people, also adopting their strength and abilities. Parasite has notably been reincarnated and reimagined numerous times by several different characters, although all incarnations of the character share the common desire to drain Superman of his energy and take it as their own.

Rudy Jones

Once a janitor, Rudy Jones became Parasite by stealing from a center. Transformed into the Parasite, he could absorb their physical and mental properties. He began to get to those closest to Superman and was run down in the pandemonium that evening when Lois came to his aide.

Rudy and Superman battled on the moon where Superman uncontrollably unleashed an immense blast of heatvision that the Parasite absorbed, causing him to mutate even further into a huge, hulking monster with teeth resembling a leech's. This mutation

(Parasite 2.0) again increased Rudy's draining abilities, allowing him to absorb fast-moving objects' inertia as well as making him impervious to telepathic attack to an unknown extent since he could now drain energy through a mental link as he displayed when Dubbilex telepathically attacked him. His extra size and power did have a downside, however; he needed to absorb more energy more frequently in order to stay alive.

Rudy was contracted to help drain off a being named Strange Visitor's excess electromagnetic energy as she could not fully control it. This exposure to Strange Visitor's power caused the Parasite to mutate again, giving him the ability to fully and permanently retain the intellects of all of his victims and also allowed him to maintain any stolen energy for up to twenty-four hours. Like Torval Freeman, Rudy also absorbed an unknown shapeshifter into his biology, granting him the permanent power to mimic the exact genetic makeup and appearance of his victims.

---

Parasite: Discharge Lynn from duty? What are you, a general?

Me: Rudy Jones A.K.A. Parasite! I thought you were locked in prison.

Parasite: I was. But I got released for good behavior.

Nico: So you're now part of the Masters of Evil.

Parasite: I sure am. Same with Shrapnel.

Nico: Cool!

Me: Awesome!

Mirror Master, Fixer, Abomination, Lady Shiva, Dr. Destiny, Hank Scorpio, Abis Mal and Titanium Titan then appeared!

Me: Mirror Master, Fixer, Abomination, Lady Shiva, Dr. Destiny, Hank Scorpio, Abis Mal and Titanium Titan.

Lady Shiva: Looks like we got here just in time.

Abis Mal: We sure did.

Mirror Master: Good thing we were able to follow you guys.

Maria: How'd you guys find us?

Fixer: I used a tracking device to locate where the Mean 6 were headed.

Abomination: Their deception of looking like the Mane 6 was clever. But not clever enough.

Shiva: (to the Mean 6) If you were smart, you'd tell us where the rest of the Equestria villains are.

Mean Twilight Sparkle: As if we ever would tell you!

Me: That's all right. We're gonna wait till April 12th so we can kill them all at once.

Nico: Yeah and you all better be ready for a fight unlike any other.

Ty: You got that right mate!

Lola: And it will destroy you all!

Nico: Yeah!

?: It will not be pretty!

A figure came out and it was WISE WIZARD from episode 7 of Lost Galaxy!

---

Wise Wizard is a squid monster who was one of the eight monsters sent by Furio (and later Treacheron) to find the Lights of Orion. He uses an enchanted notepad and Kanji to destroy, wound or paralyze his opponents. He is squid-themed.

The Wise Wizard believed that the Lights were hidden in oridinary cameras and attacked first at Carolyn Pickets' photoshoot. He would continue to target the movie production filming Starcrossed Lovers on the colony until he was confronted by both Carolyn and Kendrix Morgan, the latter he wounded earlier when she and the other Galaxy Rangers tried to intervene with his plans. Leo and the other Rangers manage to fend him off long enough for Kendrix to transform (and inspire Carolyn to work hard at her craft), before being paralyzed by the Wise Wizard's enchanted paper. Kendrix arrived in time weaken the wizard and free the others. Wise Wizard was later destroyed by the Galaxy Megazord.

Leo Corbett: Wise Wizard!

Wise Wizard: Its been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Furio and then Treacheron to find the Lights of Orion. You thought they were in a photoshoot and then a movie production set.

Nico: But that search was all for naught.

Lola: Yeah!

Wise Wizard: That's right. Very good memory.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Laney: (to Wise Wizard) That's a nice notepad that you have.

Wise Wizard: Thank you. Would you like to take a look at it before the battles?

Laney: Sure.

Laney looked at it and she saw that it was full of information from many planets all over the universe and even has knowledge on many kinds of magic spells and more. And it had kanji of different kinds of symbols and more.

Laney: Whoa! This is amazing.

Me: That notepad is really cool though. Come on guys! Lets tear these Disharmonious Impostors apart!

Nico: Lets do it!

I snapped my fingers and we were all on the volcanic planet Valmorg! And we were in a huge force field dome to protect us from the searing heat of the planet.

Vince: The planet Valmorg!

Me: Yep. Figure it would be appropriate for this battle.

Nico: It's perfect. But wow. This planet looks REALLY inhospitable.

Vince: It sure is Nico. The temperature on this planet can get up to 2,543˚ Fahrenheit.

Applejack: Hoowee! Man that is hot!

Nico: No kidding!

Me: Almost 3 times hotter than Venus.

Carol: Where is it located?

Vince: In the galaxy NGC 3987.

Nicole: That's 214 million light-years from Earth.

Nico: Wow!

Me: Lets get it on!

We went at them.

---

Strut: Indeed there is.

Roscoe: We agree.

Rainbow Dash: Lets tear this fake version of me apart!

Mean Rainbow Dash: (to Cad Bane) You really think you can trust Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Cad Bane: I trust them more then you.

Rainbow Dash: You are nothing but a traitor and a worthless sore loser!

Lightning Dust: And you give all the Wonderbolts a bad name!

Spitfire: And the Rainbow Dash that I know is loyal to everyone!

Scootaloo: And is the greatest big sister know and love as well as the greatest flying mentor I know!

Magma Gloom: You have a heart that's as black as the treachery that made you!

Vapor Trail: And that shows that you have no honor.

Mean Applejack: (to Femme Fatale) Why don't you back off? We can work this out in a friendly manner.

Apple Bloom: Yeah! You give my sister a bad name! The Applejack that I know is the most honest and most amazing sister there is!

Rockhoof: (Scottish Accent) Or anything like that laddies!

Mean Applejack charges at Ripster but Hard Man launches his fists like rockets, knocking her down.

In the World Tree Estate we were getting ready to watch another awesome Robot Chicken Sketch. It was gonna be a freaky one about The Jetsons.

George Jetson: What are we watching again?

Calypso: Well, recently, we've gotten into watching Robot Chicken sketches. And we'd like you guys to watch this one.

Me: You guys probably won't like this one. But here goes.

I pulled up the video and it was for the Robot Chicken Sketch: Aliens Meet The Jetsons.

---

Cut to Elroy and Astro returning home after a field trip, George comes floating on a chair)

George: Hey, Elroy. How was your field trip?

Elroy: Great, dad. We studied an abandoned ship and found a bunch of these. (holds up an alien egg)

George: Well! A foreboding alien egg! Let's burn it until there's nothing left but ashes. Anyone who doesn't do exactly that is the lowest form of fool.

Elroy: Aw, dad, can't I keep it?

George: Well, for the sake of entertainment, yeah, sure.

(The egg hatches a facehugger which crawls across the room and tickles Astro)

Astro: Reorge! Rad ralien! Rad ralien! (George! Bad Alien! Bad Alien!)

(Elroy walks the facehugger on a leash)

Elroy: Yeah, Astro, he is a pretty rad alien.

Astro: Ro! Ranger! Ranger! (No! Danger! Danger!)

Elroy: Ranger's a great name. Good idea, boy.

Astro: Ro! Ro! Ro! (No! No! No!)

George: Settle down! Go sniff another dog's butt or something.

Astro: Ruttrole. (Butthole)

(Cut to Jane, Judy, and George at the dinner table)

Jane: Now, Judy, your father and I are worried about how little you eat, so today you're having an entire breakfast pill, young lady. (puts a breakfast pill on Judy's plate)

(Elroy enters the room with Ranger lying dead in his arms)

Elroy: Ranger slept on my face all night, and when I woke up, he was dead! It makes me so sad, I feel like my heart is gonna rip out of my - Ggggrrrhhh!

(Elroy chokes and convulses in pain. Jane and Judy gasp)

George: Wow! You really are sad!

(A chestburster bursts from Elroy's chest, killing him)

Jane: Stop him, George!

(George tries to catch the chestburster on a moving conveyor belt, but it escapes in an air vent)

Jane: Looks like we need a strong female role model to handle this problem.

(Jane strips down to a tank top and underwear)

George: You might want to stable that high horse, Jane. I'm getting some mixed signals here.

(Jane and Judy arm themselves with guns, while George presses a button on his briefcase, only to find that it only contained papers)

George: Aw, dang it.

(The now grown creature leaves the air vent and roars at George)

Jane: It must have had an inexplicably short growth span!

Judy: On the bright side, it sure does move this story forward at a snappy pace.

(George hits the creature with a smackstick)

George: Hurry up! I've only got three whacks left!

(The creature kills George and knocks out Jane with its tail. Judy approaches the creature)

Judy: Tall, dark, and mysterious? Oh, what a dreamboat!

(The creature kills Judy with its inner mouth)

Rosie: Get away from her, you douche!

(Rosie shoots the creature with her guns, causing it to bleed acid and fall outside the Jetson home)

Jane: Phew. It's over.

Astro: Reah. Rhew! (Yeah. Phew!) Rrraaarrrrggghh!

(A chestburster bursts from Astro's butt)

Jane: You know that's scary exactly once.

(Jane and Rosie shoot the chestburster and Astro. End segment)

Me: Okay that was not only funny but it was weird. Well there you have it. What do you think?

George Jetson: That was freaky!

Judy Jetson: No kidding!

Jane Jetson: I sure looked good in that one.

Rosie the Robot: Same with me.

Flik: (to Jane) You were actually badass in that sketch.

Jane Jetson: I sure was. Same with Rosie.

Nico: No kidding! Awesome!

Ellen Ripley: I got to admit though Jane, you and Rosie took them all down faster than me.

Newt: That was great.

Lola: They sure were terrifying though. I will never forget seeing what it was like when we killed the Xenomorphs before.

Twilight Sparkle: What are the Xenomorphs?

Sunset Shimmer: I think that was what we saw.

Me: Yep they are a dangerous parasitic alien race. They come from the planet Xenomorph in the very Galactic Center. They are a very dangerous race that poses a tremendous threat to all life in the entire universe.

Nico: And we also encountered them on planet LV-426 and it's how we met Ellen Ripley and Newt here.

Me: Yeah. They are ruthless and really savage.

I went over what happened during the events of Chapter 569 and the entire history of the Xenomorphs and how big a threat they are.

The Xenomorph XX121 species, more commonly known as Xenomorphs, are the main antagonists of the Alien film franchise, consisting of the films Alien, Aliens, Alien 3, Alien: Resurrection and Alien: Covenant .

They also serve as the main antagonists of the 2014 game Alien Isolation and of the crossover films Alien vs. Predator and Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem, and as minor characters in the 2012 spinoff Prometheus .

They are a hostile and parasitic extraterrestrial species that are known for their acidic blood, their pharyngeal jaw and their biological life cycle, in which their offspring are implanted inside living hosts before erupting violently from their chests, which is in many ways their most disturbing feature. Xenomorphs are asexual, with a fertile Queen producing Xenomorph eggs. The Xenomorphs are predators with the goal of expanding their own species and killing or infecting any life they encounter. They originate from Xenomorph Prime.

The original Alien in Alien was played by Bolaji Badejo, whereas the First Acheron Queen and her fellow aliens from Aliens were all portrayed by Carl Toop.

History

Unlike many of the alien invaders that came before them, the Xenomorphs did not seek conquest or human slaves, instead Xenomorphs were depicted as animal-like killers of the highest order - extremely intelligent and cunning but guided by a desire to hunt, kill and breed rather than anything more complex. Unfortunately for any species that gets in their way the Xenomorphs cannot reproduce without a very gruesome method of parasitic infection in which alien "face-huggers" attach themselves to a victim and inject them with a Xenomorph seed that grows inside their stomach, eventually bursting out of the victim as a "chest-burster" - of course, this is fatal to the host - the "chest-burster" then proceeds to grow into a full-grown Xenomorph a short while after being "born".

Xenomorphs have several adaptations that make them even more terrifying - thick exoskeletons and amazing speed are only the start as their blood is highly acidic and they can use their tails as effective whips or stabbing implements plus they have an extendable tongue with a set of teeth on it that can be fired out with enough force to pierce a human's skull.

Xenomorphs also absorb a small amount of DNA from their host bodies before being born and this can result in unique breeds of Xenomorph being formed - such as the "dog xenomorph" or the powerful Predator / Alien hybrid the Predalien that served as the main villain of Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem . In Alien vs. Predator: Extinction, Xenomorph castes who born this way are referred as "Transbreeds", whereas those who not adopt characteristics of their hosts whatsover such as Queen referred as "Purebreeds".

Another creature known as the Deacon was also a cross of Engineer and Trilobite DNA born in the Alien prequel Prometheus . While it is possibly not a true Xenomorph, the Deacon, alongside Neomorphs introduced in Alien: Covenant, are arguably "beta" version of the creatures developed by David 8.

A final note on Xenomorphs is that they are usually portrayed as having a matriarchal system ruled by a single Queen, the Xenomorph Queen is gigantic and powerful - seen as the most powerful of all Xenomorphs, though there may be more than one Queen as several have appeared in the movies and associated media - all varying slightly in size and appearance. In comics, there are also Queen Mothers, who holds the sort of "goddess" role in Xenomorph race because of her vast telepathic powers which enable her to govern every single Xenomorph hives across the galaxy, if nit entire universe.

The Alien design is credited to late Swiss surrealist and artist H. R. Giger, originating in a lithograph called Necronom IV and refined for the series' first film, Alien . The species' design and life cycle have been extensively added to throughout each film.

Origin Story Theories

Xenomorphs' origins are a mystery. There are no solid facts as to the origins of these creatures; instead, there are many assumptions which cannot be confirmed. Based on the limited information we have so far, the most commonly accepted hypothesis is that they are an artificially created species, although another hypothesis says that they evolved naturally on a planet much different than our own. Another theory is the Deacon from Prometheus evolved into the first primitive Xenomorph, a theory which debunked yet confirming the prospect of their connection as bioweapon developed by Engineers.

Bio-Engineered Theory

In Prometheus, Xenomorphs are implied to be byproduct of Chemical A0-3959X.91 - 15 that found in one of the Engineers' spaceships, a similar spaceship where a batch of Xenomorph eggs was found by Ripley and her co. years later. To be specific, the android, David 8, infected Charlie Holloway with a drop of the mutagen and Charlie then impregnated Elizabeth Shaw, a process that created Trilobite. After Elizabeth painfully removed the creature via. automated surgery table on board Meredith Vicker's exclusive ship, Trilobite impregnated an Engineer in the same manner with Facehugger would as soon as she released it upon him, injecting Deacon embryo into his system which then gestated within him before tearing its way out.

The following are proofs of connection between Xenomorphs and creatures produced by A0-3959X.91 - 15 in Prometheus film:

All of them are associated with Engineers, creator of A0-3959X.91 - 15 chemical.

Hammerpede's acidic blood which is similar to that of Xenomorphs'.

Trilobites' ability to impregnate a host with Deacon embryo which parallel that of Facehuggers and Chestbursters.

Deacon's uncanny resemblance to typical Xenomorph built.

Various Xenomorph-like monoliths and other reliefs in Engineer ships.

The creatures' connection with A0-3959X.91 - 15 is further explored in Alien: Covenant with the introduction of David's Planet 4

Xenomorph strain called Praetomorph and Neomorphs, another beta version of Xenomorph species which relation with common Xenomorph species much more defined. David's Xenomorph strain is much cruder than the original, yet still deadly through said strain's facehugger's ability to impregnate hosts within seconds of attachment as a fail-safe ability to make up their less potent caustic blood and slightly weaker grip in addition of accelerate growth while in chestburster state, both of which criticized by fans due to deviating from established lore much like Paul W.S. Anderson's Alien vs. Predator duology incarnation. The film's novelization rectified this by stating such traits being the result of David 8's partially successful attempt in recreating original Xenomorph strain based on Engineer's notes about the creature, a fact that was excluded in the film itself to establish him as the sole creator of his particular Xenomorph strain but nevertheless stressed their experimental nature compared to their well-known counterparts. Though this still leaves some questions and debates among fans that yet to be answered, one thing is clear: Xenomorphs are the product of Engineers' ill-biological experiments with A0-3959X.91 - 15.

Apex Predator Theory

Another theory, commonly accepted but only in expanded universe (including canon Alien vs. Predator series), is they were the alpha predator of their own ecosystem on a nightmarish and harsh planet (some assume it to be Xenomorph Prime, but there is no solid evidence). Without their native ecosystem to keep them in check, they have since infested their own kind, and developed into a separate dominate species.

Concept and creation

The script for the 1979 film Alien was initially drafted by the late Dan O'Bannon and Ronald Shusett. Dan O'Bannon drafted an opening in which the crew of a mining ship are sent to investigate a mysterious message on an alien planet. He eventually settled on the threat being an alien creature; however, he could not conceive of an interesting way for it to get onto the ship. Inspired after waking from a dream, Shusett said, "I have an idea: the monster screws one of them," planting its seed in his body, and then bursting out of his chest. Both realized the idea had never been done before, and it subsequently became the core of the film. "This is a movie about alien interspecies rape," O'Bannon said on the documentary Alien Evolution, "That's scary because it hits all of our buttons." O'Bannon felt that the symbolism of "homosexual oral rape" was an effective means of discomforting male viewers.

The title of the film was decided late in the script's development. O'Bannon had quickly dropped the film's original title, Star Beast, but could not think of a name to replace it. "I was running through titles, and they all stank", O'Bannon said in an interview, "when suddenly, that word alien just came out of the typewriter at me. Alien. It's a noun and it's an adjective.". The word alien subsequently became the title of the film and, by extension, the name of the creature itself.

Prior to writing the script to Alien, O'Bannon had been working in Paris, France for the late Chilean cult director Alejandro Jodorowsky's planned adaptation of Frank Herbert's 1965 classic science-fiction novel Dune . Also hired for the project was the late Swiss surrealist artist H. R. Giger. Giger showed O'Bannon his nightmarish and monochromatic artwork, which left O'Bannon deeply disturbed. "I had never seen anything that was quite as horrible and at the same time as beautiful as his work," he remembered later. The Dune film collapsed, but O'Bannon would remember Giger when Alien was greenlit, and suggested to the director Ridley Scott that he be brought on to design the Alien, saying that if he was to design a monster, it would be truly original.

Giger's Alien, was portrayed by the late Bolaji Badejo in Ridley Scott's 1979 film Alien by 20th Century Fox. After O'Bannon handed him a copy of Giger's 1977 book Necronomicon, Scott immediately saw the potential for Giger's designs, and chose Necronom IV, a print that Giger completed in 1976, as the basis for the Alien's design, citing its beauty and strong sexual overtones. That the creature could just as easily have been male or female was also a strong factor in the decision to use it. "It could just as easily fuck you before it killed you", the said line producer Ivor Powell, "[which] made it all the more disconcerting.". 20th Century Fox was initially wary of allowing Giger onto the project, saying that his works would be too disturbing for audiences, but eventually relented. Giger initially offered to completely design the Alien from scratch, but Scott mandated that he base his work on Necronom IV, saying that to start over from the beginning would be too time-consuming. Giger signed on to design the adult, egg and chest-burster forms, but ultimately also designed the alien planetoid LV-426 and the Space Jockey alien vessel.

Giger conceived the Alien as being vaguely human but a human in full armor, protected from all outside forces. He mandated that the creature have no visible eyes, because he felt that it made them much more frightening if anyone could not tell they were looking at you. Giger also gave the Alien's mouth a second inner set of pharyngeal jaws located at the tip of a long, tongue-like proboscis which could extend rapidly for use as a dangerous weapon. His design for the creature was heavily influenced by an aesthetic that he had created and termed bio-mechanical, a fusion of the organic and the mechanic. His mock-up of the Alien was created using parts from an old Rolls Royce car, rib bones and the vertebrae from a snake, molded with plasticine. The Alien's animatronic head, which contained 900 moving parts, was designed and constructed by the late special effects designer Carlo Rambaldi. Giger and Rambaldi would both go on to win the 1980 Academy Award for Visual Effects for their design of the Alien.

Scott decided on the man-in-suit approach for creating the creature onscreen. initially, circus performers were tried, then multiple actors together in the same costume, but neither proved to be scary. Deciding that the creature would be scarier the closer it appeared to a human, Scott decided that a single, very tall, very thin man be used. Scott was inspired by a photograph of the late Leni Riefenstahl standing next to a 6'4" (1.93 m) Nubian. The casting director found 7'2" (2.18 m), the late rail-thin graphic designer Bolaji Badejo in a local pub. Badejo went to tai chi and mime classes to learn how to slow down his movements.

Giger's design for the Alien evoked many contradictory sexual images. As the critic Ximena Gallardo notes, the creature's combination of sexually evocative physical and behavioral characteristics creates, "a nightmare vision of sex and death. It subdues and opens the male body to make it pregnant, and then explodes it in birth. In its adult form, the alien strikes its victims with a rigid phallic tongue that breaks through skin and bone. More than a phallus, however, the retractable tongue has its own set of snapping, metallic teeth that connects it to the castrating vagina dentata.".

Name

This creature has no specific name, and has been referred to most often onscreen, and in the credits of each film, simply as the Alien. It was called an alien, and an organism, in the first film. It has also been referred to as a creature, a serpent, a beast, a dragon, a monster, or simply a thing. The term xenomorph (lit. "alien form" - from Greek xeno- or "strange" and -morph, shape) was used by the character Lieutenant Gorman in Aliens and by Ellen Ripley in a deleted scene from Alien 3 . This term has been adopted by fans and used in merchandising as a convenient name. The species' binomial names are given in Latin as either Internecivus raptus (meant as "murderous thief") in the Alien Quadrilogy DVD or Lingua foeda acheronsis (meant as "foul tongue from Acheron") in some comic books. The main Alien from Alien vs. Predator is listed in the credits as "Grid", after a grid-like wound received during the film from a Predator's razor net.

Characteristics

Continuing advancements made in the field of special effects technology as the series progressed have led to numerous variations in the creature's design, including varying numbers of fingers and limb joints and varying head design. Characteristics that explained in this section mainly focus on Drones or Warriors.

Appearance

When standing upright, Xenomorphs are vaguely bipedal in form, though they adopt a more hunched, quadrupedal stance when walking or sprinting. They have a skeletal, biomechanical appearance and are usually colored in muted shades of black, blue or bronze. Xenomorphs do not radiate heat, as their body heat matches the ambient temperature of the environment in which they are found. In most of the films, adult Xenomorphs have the ability of running and crawling along ceilings and walls. They have great physical strength, having been shown to be capable of breaking through vent covers and welded steel doors, and even of breaking down reinforced pressurized doors.

The Xenomorphs' primary weapon is their inner pharyngeal jaw, which is capable of shooting from their mouth like a piston with sufficient power to smash through bone and metal. In fact, a common tactic used by the creatures to eliminate prey is to restrain the victim with their hands, immobilizing them, before killing them with a precision jaw strike to the head, piercing through the skull and penetrating the brain; this form of attack is colloquially known as a "Headbite". On several occasions, Xenomorphs have been seen to suspend those that they kill from the ceiling through unknown means.

Xenomorphs have segmented, blade-tipped tails. The sharp tip was initially a small, scorpion-like barb, but from Aliens onwards the blade design increased in size and changed in appearance to more closely resemble a slashing weapon. From Alien Resurrection onwards, the tails have a flat ridge of spines at the base of the blade. This was introduced to help them swim convincingly, and was left intact in the subsequent crossovers. The original shooting script for Aliens and the novelization both featured a scene in which Lieutenant Gorman is "stung" by the barb tail and rendered unconscious; in the final cut of the movie, Gorman is instead knocked out by falling crates. As a weapon, the strength of the tail is very effective, having been shown to be strong enough to impale and lift a Predator with seemingly little effort. They are also adept at using their tails as blunt weapons, sometimes to deadly effect, as seen in Alien .

They have elongated, cylindrical skulls, but possess no visible facial features other than their mouth, though in the original Alien film, the top of the creature's head was translucent, with a human skull forming the front, including empty eye sockets visible within (although this is hard to distinguish on-screen). This element was reused for the "Predalien" in Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem 29 years later. In Aliens, the adult creatures have a more textured head rather than a smooth carapace. In the commentary for Aliens, James Cameron states that this change is a part of the maturation of the creatures, as the creatures in the film had been alive far longer than the original Alien. The smooth design of the carapace would be used again in Alien 3 and Alien Resurrection . This design would be kept in Alien vs. Predator, and abandoned in Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem in favor of the ribbed design.

How the creatures see or otherwise rationalize their environment is uncertain due to lack of visible eyes; Giger mandated this in his original design, because he felt that it made the creatures much more frightening if one could not tell they were looking at them. In the novelization of the movie Alien, the creature is held mesmerized by a spinning green light for several minutes. Several theories regarding their ability to perceive their surroundings have been conducted such as echolocation, electro-reception in the same manner with Earth sharks, and via. pheromones. The most plausible theory, however, is that their eyes are behind their black carapace and they see through it, similar to a one sided mirror (except in this case no one can see in, but the Xenomorph can see out). Some species of terrestrial fish such as the Barreleyes see through a transparent layer of skin; it is possible Xenomorph vision is similar. This is supported by how a fisheye lens was used to illustrate the Xenomorph's point of view (which creates a perspective similar to that of a peephole) in Alien 3 and later, in Alien: Covenant .

Throughout their appearances, human-spawned Aliens have been shown to have a fluctuating number of fingers. In Alien, the creature has webbed, six fingered hands. In Aliens, the number of fingers is reduced to three (two "paired" and a single, opposable thumb), and they are shown to be much longer and more skeletal. In Alien: Resurrection, the number of digits is increased to four, with two long middle fingers and a pair of thumbs. This design is kept in the Alien vs. Predator films, though the hands were made bulkier in order to make the Aliens seem more formidable against the Predators.

The spines on the Xenomorph's back provide protection from attacks from the rear.

Aliens have been alternately portrayed as both plantigrade and digitigrade organisms, usually in accordance to their host. Human-spawned Aliens were usually portrayed as having humanoid hind limbs, while in Alien 3, the featured Alien sported double-jointed legs due to its quadrupedal host. This characteristic would be continued in Alien Resurrection for the human-spawned Aliens. Tom Woodruff, who had previously played the "dog-alien" in Alien 3, described the human-spawned Aliens in Resurrection as feeling more like a dog than the previous creature, despite having been born from human hosts. The human-spawned Alien warriors would revert to a plantigrade posture in Alien vs. Predator .

Blood and secretions

Xenomorph blood is an extremely potent molecular acid that can corrode on contact almost any substance with alarming speed. It is dull yellowish-green in color, and seems to be pressurized inside the body, so that it spurts out when punctured. Shusett suggested the idea that the creature have acid blood as a plausible means to make the creature "unkillable"; given the starship setting, if one were to use traditional firearms or explosives to attack it, its blood would eat through the hull of the ship. In later films in the series, the Xenomorphs are shown to be conscious of the effects of their acidic blood, and even use it to their advantage - in Alien Resurrection, two Xenomorphs escape a cage by killing a third so its acid melts through the cage floor; in Alien vs. Predator, a queen being held by chains apparently instructs several Xenomorphs to slash and cut her, thus corroding the chains. Had this tactic not her idea, it would have been Grid's, a Drone whom discovered the corrosive nature of his kind's blood.

Xenomorphs Drones can produce a thick, strong resin (vomited from their mouths) referred as Hive Webbing that they use to build the Hives and to cocoon their victims. Its non-uniform, bio-organic appearance allows adult Xenomorphs to camouflage themselves when at rest, to the extent that humans have stood directly beside hiding Warriors and had no idea of the imminent threat. In the case of Hives set up inside existing non-Xenomorph structures, webbing helps to disguise existing visual cues in the environment, turning the area into a disorientating maze and making escape from and/or assaults on the Hive all the more difficult. However, whether this is considered by the Xenomorphs during construction is unclear. The structure of a Hive also appears to have a disrupting effect on motion tracker operation, generating a host of false readings that imply the entire area is awash with sporadic movement, making genuine readings harder to spot. The exact cause of this is unclear. In Alien vs. Predator: Extinction, it's explained that each portion of Hive Webbings within a certain radius has a living core called Hive Nodes, comprising of small organisms secreted by the Drones. The node's presence also enables any injured Xenomorphs to regenerate to full health as long as they remain within its webbings' contact. Once deposited, the node uses up available organic materials from plants, carcasses, and even microorganisms to produce the hive's structure, cementing their hostility to all non-xenomorph lifeforms and has potential to corrode away an entire planet. While able to regenerate from damage, the nodes are susceptible to fire, and thus can only be effectively destroyed via complete incineration. Should a Hive Node is destroyed, the webbings it produced would wither away and rendered useless.

In the original Alien, the Facehugger is shown to be able to "spit" acid, melting the faceplate of Kane's helmet and allowing the creature immediate access to the inside. This ability is also exhibited by adult Xenomorphs in Alien 3 and Alien Resurrection ; much like a spitting cobra, the creatures use this ability to blind and incapacitate their victims rather than kill them outright. This also serves as long range weapon as means to fight against foes/potential hosts that armed with guns and prefer to fight from distance.

Despite their own immunity to their blood, they are vulnerable to hydrofluoric acid which was used against them to great effect on LV178.

Intelligence and communication

During events in Aliens on the LV-426 colony and in Alien Resurrection on the USM Auriga, the species displayed observational learning and problem solving skills, and in both cases the Aliens learn how to operate machinery at a very basic level. On LV-426, they were able to cut power in a section of the complex to gain access to the humans, and the Alien Queen learns to board an elevator by observing Ripley and Newt escaping in the one beside it. The novelization of the film notes that the queen establishing her 'nest' at the base's main power plant could have been chosen either for the feral, animal reason of the warmth that it would provide or for the intellectual reason of selecting a location where any attackers would be unable to destroy her without destroying the entire facility. In the director's commentary for Aliens, James Cameron noted that the creatures in Aliens had been alive for far longer than the Alien in the original, and had more time to learn about their environment. On the USM Auriga, the Aliens kill one of their own, using its blood to melt through their enclosure and escape; in Alien vs. Predator, they use a similar strategy to free the queen from her chains. An Alien also uses acid spurting from its severed tail as an improvised weapon, indicating they are fully aware of the effects of their acid blood.

Life cycle

Aliens are eusocial life-forms with a caste system ruled over by a queen. Their life cycle comprises several distinct stages: they begin their lives as an egg, which hatches a parasitoid larval form known as a facehugger, which then attaches itself to a living host by, as its name suggests, latching onto its face. In the Alien 3 novelization, Ripley commented that this parasitoid would likely be able to use a host as small as a cat, or as large as an elephant (like Oswocs in Alien vs. Predator: Extinction ).

The facehugger then "impregnates" the host with an embryo known as a "chestburster", which, after a period of gestation, erupts violently from the host's chest resulting in the death of the host.

The chestburster then matures to an adult phase, shedding its skin (entering cocoon state in Alien vs. Predator: Extinction ) and replacing its cells with polarized silicon. Due to Horizontal gene transfer during the gestation period, the Alien also takes on some of the basic physical attributes of the host from which it was born, allowing the individual alien to adapt to the host's environment.

The adult phase of the Alien is known by various different names. The adult Aliens have been referred to as "drones," "warriors," "workers," and sometimes "soldiers," similar to the way ants have been defined. The names of the adult phase have also been used to name different types of adult phases of the Alien in numerous sources including video games, comic books, novels, and, of course, the films, but only in the commentaries by the team who created the films. No official name has been given to the adult stage of the Alien in the films themselves.

Queen

Queen Aliens are significantly larger and stronger than the normal adults, approximately 4.5 meters (15 ft) tall. Their body structure differs also, having two pairs of arms, one large and one small. The queen's head is larger than other adult Aliens and is protected by a large, flat crest, like a crown, and they vary from queen to queen. In the second film Aliens, unlike other adults and queens, the queen had high-heel protrusions from its feet.

Egg-laying Alien queens possess an immense ovipositor attached to their lower torso, similar to a queen termite's. Unlike insect queens, there appears to be no need for drones to fertilize an Alien queen's eggs. When attached to its ovipositor, the queen is supported by a "biomechanical throne" that consists of a lattice of struts resembling massive insect legs.

In the original cut of Alien, the Alien possessed a complete lifecycle, with the still-living bodies of its victims converted into eggs. However, the scene showing the crew converted into eggs was cut for reasons of pacing, leaving the ultimate origin of the eggs obscure. This allowed Aliens director James Cameron to introduce a concept he had initially conceived for a spec script called Mother, a massive mother Alien which laid the eggs and formed the basis for the Aliens' life cycle. Cameron conceived the Queen as a monstrous analogue to Ripley's own maternal role in the film. In that vein, some critics have compared it to Grendel's mother.

The design of the queen was created by Cameron in collaboration with special effects artist Stan Winston, based upon an initial painting Cameron had done at the start of the project. The Winston Studio created a test foam core queen before constructing the full hydraulic puppet which was used for most of the scenes involving the large Alien. Two people were inside working the twin sets of arms and puppeteers off-screen worked its jaws and head. Although at the end of the film the queen was presented full-body fighting the power-loader, the audience never sees the legs of the queen, save those of the small-scale puppet that appears only briefly. In Aliens, Cameron used very selective camera-angles on the queen, using the 'less is more' style of photography. Subsequently, the movie won an Oscar for Visual Effects. An adult queen was to reappear in Alien Resurrection . The original mechanical head previously used in Aliens was provided by Bob Burns, and was an altered design. It was repainted with a blend of green and brown, giving it a shimmering, insect-like quality (due to the said queen are actual clone from the original version like her children). This color concept would be abandoned in Alien vs. Predator in favor of the original black color scheme.

In the climax of the 2004 film Alien vs. Predator the queen's basic design was altered to make it more "streamlined" in appearance and its overall size was increased to 6 meters (20 feet) tall. An additional reason for this was due to Queen in the movie are far older than the one in Aliens. Other changes include the removal of the "high-heel" protrusions on its legs, including additional spines on its head and making its waist thinner because there was no need for puppeteers inside its chest. The animatronic laying queen had 47 points of hydraulic motion.

Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem (2007) introduced a younger form of the full grown queen, albeit with traits inherited from its Predator host. Recalling the facehugger's method of embryo implantation, the Predalien uses its inner mouth to directly deposit multiple chestburster embryos into pregnant female hosts, also using its mandibles to latch on the faces of said hosts. This is explained by the Brothers Strause as a means of quickly building an army of Aliens before the young queen evolves into its sedentary, egg-laying state.

Egg

The eggs laid by the queen are ellipsoidal leathery objects between 2 feet (60.96 cm) to 3 feet (91.44 cm) high with a four-lobed opening at the top. As a potential host approaches, the egg's lobes unfold like flower petals, and the parasitic facehugger extracts itself from the egg and attaches itself to the potential host. Giger initially designed the eggs with a much more obviously vaginal appearance, complete with an "inner and outer vulva". The producers complained that Catholic countries would ban the film if the allusion was too strong, so Giger doubled the lobes to four, so that, in his words, "seen from above, they would form the cross that people in Catholic countries are so fond of looking at". The interior of the original egg was composed of "Nottingham lace", which is the lining of a cow's stomach. In the first film, the quick shot of the facehugger erupting from the egg was done with sheep's intestine. Initially, the egg remained totally stationary save for the hydraulic movement of the lobes; however, by Alien Resurrection the entire egg was made to ripple as it opened.

Eggmorphing

There is another method in creating egg without any need of Queen's presence which called eggmorphing. Though this method of reproduction was ignored by official sources after its early shots of the scene that shows how this method works were cut (though partially reinstated in Director's Cut version of Alien ), the novelization of the Alien 3 states that both forms of reproduction are typical of the species, and that either can be used to create more Xenomorphs, dependent on the situation. For instance, had a drone arrived in foreign lands/planet where it was only one of its kind that present on that lands/planet, it would immediately use this method for creating a Queen.

The process was unclear, but it is obvious that the victim that would be turned into an egg did not need to morphed alive, but was rather killed first. Quotes from Ridley Scott seem to imply that Eggmorphing actually involves the human "host" serving simply as a source of nutrients or "yolk" for the growing Egg (which feeds on the host like a parasite), rather than physically becoming the Egg itself, as is typically assumed.

Facehugger

A facehugger is the second stage in the Alien's life cycle. It has eight long finger-like legs which allow it to crawl rapidly, and a long tail adapted for making great leaps. These particular appendages give it an appearance somewhat comparable to chelicerate arthropods such as arachnids and horseshoe crabs.

The facehugger is a parasitoid; its only purpose is to make contact with the host's mouth for the implantation process, by gripping its legs around the victim's head and wrapping its tail around the host's neck. Upon making contact, the facehugger tightens its tail around the host's neck in order to render it unconscious through oxygen deprivation. The facehugger then inserts a proboscis down the host's throat, supplying it with oxygen while simultaneously implanting an embryo. Attempts to remove facehuggers generally prove fatal, as the parasitoid will respond by tightening its tail around the host's neck, and its acidic blood prevents it from being safely cut away. In addition, its grip on the host's head is strong enough to tear the host's face off if it is forcibly removed.

Once the Alien embryo is safely implanted, the facehugger detaches and dies.

Giger's original design for the facehugger was a much larger creature with eyes and a spring-loaded tail. Later, in response to comments from the filmmakers, Giger reduced the creature's size substantially. At first, Giger assumed that the facehugger would wrap around the outside of the astronaut's helmet, but Scott decided that it would have far more impact if the facehugger were revealed once the helmet was removed. Scott and Giger realized that the facehugger should burn through the helmet's faceplate with its acid blood; subsequent redesigns of the space helmet included a far larger faceplate to allow for this. Dan O'Bannon initially conceived the facehugger as somewhat resembling an octopus, possessing tentacles. However, when he received H. R. Giger's designs, which substituted tentacles with fingerlike digits, he found Giger's design concept to be superior. Since no one was available at the time, O'Bannon decided to design the facehugger prop himself. The technical elements of the musculature and bone were added by Ron Cobb. Giger's initial design for the smaller facehugger had the fingers facing forward, but O'Bannon's redesign shifted the legs to the side. When the foam rubber sculpture of the facehugger was produced, O'Bannon asked that it should remain unpainted, believing the rubber (which resembled human skin) was more plausible.

In Aliens, the facehuggers were redesigned by the late Stan Winston so that they would be capable of movement. Unlike the creatures in the first film, the creatures would take a much more active role in impregnating their victims. When Ripley throws one off her, the facehugger was now capable of scuttling across the floor and leaping at its prey, wrapping its tail around the victim's throat. Due to the film's budget, only two fully working facehuggers were built.

In Alien 3, another addition, a "super-facehugger" that would carry the embryo of the queen Alien, was planned but ultimately dropped. The super-facehugger is briefly glimpsed in the Assembly cut of Alien 3, but not identified as such. This face-hugger's role in carrying the Queen embryo was equivalent with Praetorian Facehuggers, though instead of carrying an embryo that grows into the Queen straight away, said embryo would grow into Praetorians, the miniature version of the Queen.

Chestburster

After implantation, facehuggers die and the embryo's host wakes up afterwards showing no considerable outward negative symptoms. Symptoms build acutely after detachment of the facehugger, the most common being sore throat, slight nausea, increased congestion and moderate to extreme hunger. In later stages where the incubation period is extended in preparation of a queen birth, symptoms will include a shortness of breath, exhaustion, and hemorrhaging (detectable through biological scanners and present in nosebleeds or other seemingly random bleeding incidents), as well as chest pains inflicted either in lack of chest space due to the chestburster's presence, or even premature attempts to escape the host. The incubating embryo takes on some of the host's DNA or traits, such as bipedalism, quadrupedalism or possessing the mandibles of a Predator and other body structure changes. Over the course of 1 to 24 hours, indeterminable in some cases, and sometimes up to a week, in the case of some queens, the embryo develops into a chestburster, at which point it emerges, violently and fatally ripping open the chest of the host. There is no on-screen explanation of the reasons for the different incubation times.

The chestburster was designed by Alien director Ridley Scott and constructed by special effects artist Roger Dicken. Giger had produced a model of a chestburster that resembled a "degenerate plucked turkey" and was far too large to fit inside a ribcage. Much to Giger's dismay, his model reduced the production team to fits of laughter on sight. Scott drafted a series of alternative designs for the chestburster based on the philosophy of working "back from the adult to the child" and ultimately produced "something phallic." The chestburster in the original Alien was armless but arms were added in Aliens to facilitate the creature crawling its way out of its host's corpse. This concept would be abandoned in Alien Resurrection and subsequent films.

Growth and Maturity

When a chestburster erupts from the body of its host, it is less than 1 foot (30 cm) tall. However, it soon undergoes a dramatic growth spurt, reaching adult size in a matter of hours; in Alien the chestburster had grown to 2 meters (6.6 ft) in height by the time the Nostromo crew located it again. The chestburster is shown to have molted before reaching maturity. In Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem Alien warriors are shown who are still growing, showing shedding skin. In the unrated cut, the Predalien is shown actively wiping off its final molted skin at the film's start.

Alternative forms

Aliens take on various forms depending on the characteristics of their hosts. Most of the Aliens seen to date have been human-spawned, but a number of Aliens born from other hosts and newly created variants have also been seen. This also includes those that exclusively seen in video games and comic book series of both the main franchise or AVP franchise.

Dog Alien

The quadrupedal Alien variant from Alien 3 . The "Dog Alien" ( also jokingly referred to as the "Bambi burster", or "Runner Alien" in the expanded universe stories ), was introduced in Alien 3 . The creature itself shares the same basic physical conformation and instincts as the other Aliens shown in the previous films, although there are several differences due to the host it was spawned from ( a dog in the theatrical cut, an ox in the DVD assembly cut ) . The Dog Alien in its Chestburster form is a miniature version of the adult, unlike the larva-like human spawned chestbursters. The adult is primarily quadrupedal, has digitigrade hind legs and lacks the dorsal tubes of the human-spawned variety.

Newborn

In Alien Resurrection, due to significant genetic tampering in an attempt to recover DNA from the deceased Ellen Ripley and the Alien Queen within her, the resulting cloned Aliens show a number of minor human traits. The cloned Queen inherits a womb, and as a result it ceases to lay eggs and gives birth to a humanoid mutant. Physically, the human-Alien Newborn is very different from its brethren, being larger, with pale, translucent skin, a skull-shaped face with eyes, a human tongue and complete absence of a tail. The Newborn fails to bond with its Alien Queen mother, and kills it. Instead, the Newborn sees the Ripley clone as a surrogate parent.

The Newborn creature was originally scripted by Joss Whedon as being an eyeless, ivory-white quadruped with red veins running along the sides of its head. It had an inner jaw, with the addition of a pair of pincers on the sides of its head. These pincers would have been used to immobilize its prey as it drained it of blood through the inner jaw. The creature was also meant to rival the Queen in size. Jean-Pierre Jeunet later asked ADI to lean towards making the human-Alien hybrid, known as the Newborn, more human than Alien . The Newborn's eyes and nose were added to improve its expressions to make it a character, rather than just a "killing machine", and give it depth as a character. Jeunet was adamant about the Newborn having genitalia, a mix of both sexes. However, Fox was uncomfortable and even Jeunet felt "even for a Frenchman, it's too much." The genitalia were digitally removed in post-production. The Newborn animatronic required nine puppeteers and was the most complex animatronic in the film.

Predalien

This variation is the result of a facehugger impregnating a Predator. The "Predalien" was first depicted in a painting by Dave Dorman, and subsequently featured in the Aliens vs. Predator comics and games. A Predalien chestburster debuts in the final scene of Alien vs. Predator, but it is not seen until Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem that an adult hybrid makes its first movie appearance.

The Predalien shares many characteristics with its host, such as long hair-like appendages, mandibles, skin color and similar vocalizations. It is a large, bulky creature, and possesses physical strength greater than that of human-spawned Aliens. Like human-born Aliens, it is also shown to be stronger than its host species, as evidenced by its ability to pin, push, and knock a Predator away with ease.

The Predalien seen in Aliens vs. Predator: Requiem was also a Queen, as it also possessed the ability to impregnate human hosts with multiple Alien embryos before molt into a true Queen.

The more canonical versions of predaliens however, are portrayed as heavy shock troopers of the Xenomorph hive, utilizing their brute strength for dealing the heavy blow upon their enemies. Examples include the Abomination and Predalien in AVP: Extinction .

Deacon

Ridley Scott's 2012 film Prometheus, originally conceived as a direct prequel to Alien, ends with the birth of a creature noted for its similarity to those in the Alien franchise. Scott christened the creature the "Deacon" in reference to its oblong head, which resembles a bishop's miter. Designer Neal Scanlan said that the Deacon's appearance had to reflect its complex genetic heritage: "It came from Shaw and Holloway, which then produced the Trilobite, which impregnated the Engineer, which then mixed its DNA with the Trilobite. We tried to hold on to some of Shaw, some femininity since it was born of a female before being born of a male.". According to Scanlan, the Deacon "represented the beginning of Giger's Alien, although it did not directly resemble that creature". The designers based the Deacon's skin on horse placenta, in an effort to give it an iridescent quality "between horrific and beautiful". Its pharyngeal jaw was inspired by that of the goblin shark.

When discussing the film's connection to Alien, the cowriter named Damon Lindelof asked: "Do you need to see a xenomorph bursting out of the human body? And how do we do it in a way that you haven't seen before?" Lindelof stated that whether the creature is a queen Alien, or the progenitor of the eggs found by the crew in the original Alien, is open to interpretation, but said, "I felt that the punchline of Prometheus was going to be that there is human DNA in what we have come to know as the human xenomorph."

Neomorphs

Neomorphs are creatures which unlike Deacon, are true siblings of both Protomorphs and original Xenomorph race. They are indirectly created by David 8 when polluted Engineers' settlement on Paradise, and had an important role in his experiments for Protomorph creation.

In terms of behavior, the Neomorph is far more feral and animal-like than a typical Xenomorph, to the point that even their newborn form is highly aggressive and dangerous when they will attack anyone on sight. Their animalistic nature may suggest a lack of intelligence in comparison to their counterpart. Unlike the Xenomorphs, Neomorphs are more organic in appearance and lack biomechanical aspects. Neomorphs are notably seen consuming the flesh of humans they have killed unlike Xenomorphs who more concerned in expanding their hive and amassing an army of their brethren while rarely eating their enemies' flesh.

According to David 8, the Engineer's black liquid mutagen was intended to create hybrid creatures like the Neomorph that would instinctively hunt down and kill all non-botanical, animal life in an ecosystem - "the meat". Notably, when one Neomorph encountered David 8, it apparently recognized that he was a synthetic android - and thus instead of attacking him, simply stood still and regarded him in confusion. Xenomorphs, in contrast, have been observed attacking synthetics - possibly another example of their greater intelligence compared to Neomorphs, whose behavior seems to be based more on animal instinct.

Neomorph Eggsack

Pollution by black liquid produced a number of Neomorph Eggsacks on the ground. These Eggsacks looked like small, black, spherical, fungus-like growths on the ground that when disturbed would release a cloud of microscopic spores (motes) into the air.

Neomorph Motes

Neomorph motes are microscopic spore-like embryo that came out from an eggsack in response of it being disturbed. Once came out, they flew and entered nearby host organism through any open orifice - such as the nostrils or ear canal.

Bloodbursters and Adulthood

Once a host is infected with the airborne contagion, the spores would enter the bloodstream and proceed to develop into a Bloodburster to grow inside of them until they violently puncture the skin and claws their way out of the host's body. This process is notably similar to the Xenomorph Chestburster, although the exact point of emergence varies depending on how the host was infected. For instance, should the spore entered the ear, it will bursts out of the host's head.

Initially, the creature is born with arms and legs and moves in a quadrupedal manner, reminiscent of a Runner, but as they grow, the Neomorph adopts a bipedal stance. The creature has pale whitish-gray skin with a somewhat translucent appearance, attributes that resemble those of a Hammerpede. The Neomorph features a fleshy tail tipped with spikes, which can be used as a devastating slashing and battering weapon, and a large number of silvery fangs in their mouth, which appears circular when closed. Notably, individual Neomorphs appear to display physical variance. For instance, one of the creatures featured a pair of sharp, bony dorsal spikes on their back that assisted them in breaking out of their host, whereas the other individual encountered lacked these features. Their blood is thick and yellow in color, but notably not acidic.

Unlike a typical Xenomorph, Neomorphs do not possess an extendable inner jaw which can be used to attack. Also, while the teeth of a Xenomorph's outer jaws are usually visible, a Neomorph's jawline is nearly invisible when closed.

Praetomorphs

David's Xenomorphs (also known as Protomorphs) are strains of xenomorphs he personally created, which confirmed the fact that

Xenomorphs are products of Engineers' black liquid with a parasitic wasp as genetic material to create his first Xenomorphs. While virtually identical to original Xenomorph strain featured so far, this Xenomorph strain possesses notable differences that set it apart from its mainstream cousins due to more crude appearance than another. Notably, they lack any biomechanical features and their limbs are longer, thinner and muscular, with gaps appearing in their arm pits. The shoulders and dorsal tubes are noticeably different, being smaller and thinner. David's Xenomorphs also has a thinner, sleeker tail that ends with a small barb or stinger.

Even with these differences, these Xenomorph strains still as deadly as their cousins since they share same powers and abilities, including their armor-piercing inner jaws.

Praetomorph Eggs

Protomorph Eggs looked similar with mainstream strains', but had more crude appearance.

Praetomorph Facehuggers

Protomorph Facehuggers had more crude appearance than regular facehuggers because area where reddish wrinkled area between forelegs had flat smooth surface with the same coloration as the rest of its body instead of reddish wrinkled look. The digits are notably different as they are thinner and while their actual span may be the same as typical Facehuggers, the size in between knuckles is different, notably the size of the digits from body to the first knuckles is smaller. Protomorph Facehugger is also weaker than regular facehuggers due to easily removed from the victim's face and being slow in strangling the victim with the tail, but makes up of this weakness with their incredible speed and agility and ability to impregnate its host within seconds of attachment that made their ability to a host alive and in a coma redundant, otherwise optional as they would only need to remain attached long enough to implant the Chestburster. Though sharing the same recklessness with regular facehuggers, protomorph facehugger was intelligent enough to analyze its situation: One of these facehuggers shown quickly retreating when the targeted host was too aggressive, but upon seeing another viable host, it immediately sprang from its cover and attacked.

All in all, protomorph facehuggers' physiology is more designed for speed and hasty infestation instead of incapacitating.

Praetomorph Chestbusters

The differences in the Drone of this Xenomorph race extend to its Chestburster form (which had more developed limbs like Dragon the Runner Xenomorph in Alien 3 ).

Praetorian Xenomorphs

Alternate form of mature xenomorph that so far, only appeared in video games. In appearance, Pretorians can be considered as miniature version of the Queen due to their similar color and physical structures. Unlike Queens, however, Praetorians do not possess a second pair of arms on their chest, and their jaws, filled with metallic teeth, are comparable to lower Xenomorph castes. Like Queens, Praetorians typically possess longer dorsal tubes that end in a sharp point when compared to other Xenomorphs that possess these appendages. Praetorians are dark in color, typically black but sometimes blackish-blue, and stand over 10 feet (304.80 cm) tall, towering over their fellow Xenomorphs on the battlefield. Despite this size, they are almost as fast and agile as their smaller Xenomorph siblings. Although Praetorians seem to remain in a permanent bipedal position and owing to their bulk, they cannot scale walls or ceilings.

As is befitting of their size, Praetorians are incredibly strong and their thick skin, known to be bulletproof in some cases, enables them to shrug off damage that would be terminal several times over to most other Xenomorph castes. They are capable of defeating entire squads of human Marines single-handed and are even a match for Yautja in close-quarters combat. Praetorians can spit acid in far larger quantities than other Xenomorphs, and will also use their claws and long blade-tipped tails as slashing and stabbing weapons, making them deadly at any range. In Aliens vs. Predator, the Praetorian's upper jaw protrudes slightly, giving them an overbite.

In AVP: Extinction, Praetorians can be upgraded so they can molt into two specialized breeds as their alternate life cycle: Carriers and Ravagers:

Carriers

Carriers are alternate life cycle of Praetorian that purposed for field infestation. Should be noted that in spite of majorities of xenomorphs could subdue their foes/preys that can be used for impregnation by facehuggers, it does not guarantee that they always succeed in doing so, as sometimes they ended up killed before able to took the said potential hosts back into their hive. Other problems would be that the facehugger themselves (though able to travel from the hive into the outside world) are vulnerable and can be easily killed. Carriers' presence within the hive would could counteract this, as they could bring around six to twelve facehuggers for instantly subdued potential hosts on the field without truly need for bring them back into the hive.

Carriers resemble Drones in appearance, but are thrice taller and lack clawed fingers. Instead, they possess a single blade on each arm much like a praying mantis. Also, they possess pairs of dorsal tubes that seemingly have joints on them, and generates nutrients for facehugger to feed on board. Carriers also use these tubes to propel the facehuggers on their foes' face like a catapult. Had Carriers facing enemies that cannot be infested, whether while carrying facehuggers or not, they uses their blades instead.

Ravagers

Ravagers are presumed to be the Xenomorph evolutionary response to the heavier military equipment brought to bear by more advanced species. This massive beast towers above other Xenomorphs, short of the queen, and has a uniquely terrifying presence in battle. Instead of just having hands, its upper extremities terminate in "hull blades" capable of easily slicing through even advanced armors and metals. Their appearance are depicted as a taller and more muscular version of warriors.

Unlike other forms of Xenos, the purpose of a Praetorian molting into one of these are solely for combat alone, as it can only kill their foes outright instead of subduing them: Ravagers' attacking methods often in form of beheading any enemies that they encountered.

Mutated Chestburster

A mutated Alien variant incapable of maturing past its larval stage, the mutated chestburster resembles a large black Chestburster. Hatched from a pink egg among an ordinary clutch, the mutated chestburster's egg was smuggled to the pleasure planet Celeste, where the resulting hatchling, after escaping from a human host, caused havoc among the population with its diseased slime trail, which caused people to go delirious and detonate.

Swimmer Xenomorphs

In Aliens Colonial Marines s story published by Dark Horse Comics, a group of marines ends up on a colony planet known as 'Bracken's World', a primarily oceanic planet that grows large amounts of sea kelp. Having become stranded on one of the kelp beds following an APC breakdown, the group is attacked from the water by large xenomorphs resembling queen aliens from the top half, and a more whale-like structure below the waist with a lateral tail fin and several trailing tentacles.

White Hybrids

The hybrids are a race of Aliens created by a corrupted computer system called "Toy". The hybrids possess the traits of Aliens, Predators and humans. Like Aliens, they are an eusocial species with acid for blood (though it is less acidic than that of the ordinary strain) and like humans, they are capable of speech and can use firearms. They are led by a hybrid king which generates facehuggers capable of impregnating ordinary Aliens.

Eloise

Eloise is a vat grown prototype Alien/humanoid android hybrid created using Queen DNA on Sybaris 503, who escapes from the destruction of the facility after an attempted "hostile" take over. She later settles on the planet LK176 with her group of "implanted" lepers (whose condition prevents their chestbursters from maturing) and a pack of Alien warriors. She and her army successfully beat back both Predator and human forces (at the cost of most of her leper friends), and she gives the latter an ultimatum to leave her people alone, or be destroyed.

Queen Mother

Queen Mothers are the supreme rulers of the Xenomorph species, and even Queens are subordinate to them. They appear in Dark Horse's extended universe, albeit only on the Hiveworld, where they are protected by enlarged, elite drones. Queen Mother's nests consist of six orbs arranged around a central orb, in which they reside. These orbs are interconnected and contain the prized royal jelly, which molts a drone or warrior into a new Queen Mother when one becomes absent. Queen Mothers have acute telepathic and emphatic abilities, thus they are able to call to their hive over vast distances. In fact, the Queen Mother was capable of melding to the minds of humans during the Earth infestation. What makes a Queen Mother similar to a Queen is that they are both capable of laying eggs. The first Queen Mother was kidnapped by Ripley in Steve and Stephanie Perry's novel The Female War, leading to anarchy and chaos on the Hiveworld. While a drone was morphing to take the previous Mother's place, several deviant, drones, designated as "red drones" by the humans due to their dull, burgundy color, were born that rebelled against the primary hive, and a countering red hive, led by a red Queen Mother, was created. In Aliens: Genocide, massive warfare has broken out between the two subspecies over rule of the planet as the dominant xenomorph species. A fleet of Colonial Marines (financed by the Grant Corporation, Weyland-Yutani's competition in the Aliens novels) were sent on a mission to retrieve the deceased Mother's royal jelly, located in the "black" hive, in order to synthesize a highly addictive drug called Xeno-Zip, also known as Fire (which the government felt was a "highly useful" combat drug). The crew decided to destroy the red Mother's hive to distract the drones of the original nest while the jelly was being extracted. The new Queen Mother was shot after killing a scientist during the extraction.

Rogue Alien/"King"

In the comic Aliens: Rogue, a mad scientist engineered the Rogue Alien: a male alien designed as a weapon to rival the queen caste and thus help rid the Earth of its alien infestation (see Earth Hive, Nightmare Asylum, Female War, and Genocide ). However, the engineered Alien King escapes and wreaks havoc until it is killed by the Queen that had been nesting in a separate and secured section of the installation.

In the book of the same name, the Rogue is believed to be more powerful than the Queen, but Dr. Ernst Kleist, the scientist who created the Rogue, is shocked to find the Queen is in fact the superior specimen. While the Rogue is larger and stronger, the Queen's superior speed and intellect enable her to easily dodge the Rogue's brutish attacks while she slowly wears it down and finally slaughters it. Kleist is subsequently killed when he uses a sound cannon (a sound device he designed to [and that did] instantly freeze the movements of xenomorphs) on the Queen until it goes critical, destroying the asteroid-base he is on. The Rogue is seemingly much more aggressive and mercilessly attacks the smaller castes of Aliens. This is illustrated when Professor Kleist finds the crushed corpses of the elite Praetorian guard of the queen. The Rogue's recklessness is shown when it destroys the barrier that separates the Alien sector and the Human sector, thus allowing any Alien drones that escaped the Rogue's notice to pour into the Human sector, and when it confronts the queen by crushing the eggs in its way while the queen carefully steps around them to outmaneuver the Rogue.

Empress

The Empress is a later stage in the Xenomorph life cycle not specifically stated. When a hive expands to the point of having multiple queens that dwell in it, the "Empress" is the queen that the subsequent queens had spawned from, making the Empress the "queen of queens." The Empress is somewhat larger than most other queens and boasts a larger crest than the rest. The crest of an Empress has an addition pair of straight spines that flank the three spires of its crest, and there appears to be not as many curves to the crest as there are with the crests of other queens; there are much more geometric lines and angles.

Matriarch

The queen dubbed the "Matriarch" is the oldest known alien queen. It is unknown how old the Matriarch is specifically, but many speculate that she could be thousands or perhaps hundreds of thousands of years old. The Matriarch's flesh has yellowed and wrinkled with age, giving the creature a subtle softness to its exterior. The crest of the Matriarch has also expanded with age: two pairs of spires fan out to the sides of the crest in addition to the three that all queens seem to have at maturity, and a bony ridge of spines runs down the center of the crest sweeping towards the end of it. The face of the Matriarch is extensively scarred as well and missing chunks of flesh from around the mouth and the carapace that protects the face when it is retracted has holes in it that resemble being eaten away by acid.

Arachnoid

A strong purple and black brood that uses powerful jump attacks. They are assumed to be special variants of the Warrior and Stalker aliens created through experimentation, much like the Chrysalis and Razor Claws minibosses. They are sometimes seen curled up on the ground as they wait for enemies.

Chrysalis

A very large (around the same size as a Praetorian) Xenomorph with a grayish-green exoskeleton and a hard, tan carapace on its head, back, and forearms. It sometimes moves/attacks by rolling itself along the ground in a ball. It gets its name from the chrysalis that it is seen gestating in when it first appears. The Chrysalis' head can actually extend a short distance from underneath the carapace over its head when biting its prey, in addition to the extension of the inner mouth. More Chrysalis are also seen defending the Queen during the final battle. These have a reddish or blue coloring.

A variation of the Chrysalis appears in the second level of the Konami "Aliens" arcade game, but it looks considerably different and has a different attack pattern.

Defender

A bluish brood with an apparently hardened carapace on its arms and head that can defend itself against most projectiles and hand-to-hand attacks.

Dogburster

A lighter colored variation of the Runner from Alien 3 ; a "Super" Dogburster also appears as a much tougher version that launches purple balls of acid from its mouth.

Flying Xenomorphs

Castes of Xenomorphs that born with ability to flight by the wings. They can be seen in Konami's Aliens, the arcade game Aliens: Extermination as a boss under the name Alien Dragon, in the Super Nintendo game Alien vs. Predator as an end-level boss (this one having gestated in a giant species of bat and taken on the arm-wings and overall appearance of a bat), as well as a Flying Queen in the Kenner toy line.

Infectoids

A human implanted by a type of facehugger altered as a bioweapon. Instead of being sedated, they are put in a zombie-like state, and move around the nesting area, attacking any intruders (presumably either hypnotized by facehugger that implanted them through chemical secretions or possessed by chestburster inside them). If the same type of facehugger implants a Predator, the Predator is instead driven into a berserk state, and will attack anything that moves. Similar zombie-like humans controlled by aliens are found in the Female War comic book, the Aliens arcade game and Alien trilogy for Playstation.

K-Series Xenomorphs

In Aliens Verses Predator: Extinction, a variation of the original Xenomorphs are created by Dr. Samuel Kadinsky. This group is called "The K-Series". They are almost identical to normal Xenomorphs in ability but have white and yellow pigmentations to their exoskeleton rather than the dark colors usually seen. They were eventually wiped out in a hive war to keep the species of xenomorphs "pure" (being that they were not naturally created, but were instead clones).

Tarkatan Xenomorphs

This unique Xenomorph breed is from Mortal Kombat X and it started it's life as one of the eggs that left behind by members of it's kind on Outworld long ago, until a Tarkatan Patrol leader disturb one of them. This egg hatch in response, releasing the facehugger inside that immediately latches on his face. Later, after the facehugger had fallen off, the Alien progeny burst from the unfortunate Tarkatan's chest, bearing characteristics of both Xenomorph and host.

It eluded the rest of the Tarkatan soldiers and eventually killed them with both of it's inherent powers and the newfound one, retractable blades that it gained from its Tarkatan host. The creature now roams Outworld, looking for more hosts to build the hive and amasses more powerful Xenomorph breeds to take over Outworld.

Weaknesses & Countermeasures

Despite their deadly capabilities, Xenomorphs are by no means invulnerable:

Reliance to Hosts : The Xenomorphs' gruesome life-cycle demands active castes to work hard in gathering up readily available hosts to either build and expand the hive (which includes spawning a Queen to command everyone within) or amassing enough army to combat threats. If a hive falls behind in its growth, it may become unable to win further battles and therefore unable to recover from losses.

Extreme Heat : Xenomorphs are greatly susceptible to extreme heat. In fact, flame often so thoroughly bakes them that even heavily armored castes such as Queen or Praetorian will eventually crippled with sufficient & continuous exposure to fire-based attacks/ weaponry. Caution must be taken when dealing these creatures with fire-based weapons, however, as Predalien castes developed some form of resistance to heat owing to its host species' arid death world (ex. LV-742 Predalien's fire retardant secretions) and Runner caste will likely let themselves burnt alive so as to superheat its cartilaginous framework and release razor-edges biological shrapnel that strikes everything nearby upon exploding like frag grenade. On

BG-386, Xenomorph warriors who were exposed to enough fire would immediately begin bleeding out at a rapid rate and would be reduced to crawling on all fours for a few seconds before exploding. Even nonlethal versions of heat such as boiling steam is shown to be enough to spook or outright injure them, as Ellen Ripley defeated the Xenomorph who infiltrated the Nostromo by forcing it to show itself by hitting with large doses of hot steam and Corporal Tequila saved Rooke from one of the creatures by unleashing a large amount of boiling steam right next to the warrior

"""Extreme Cold"": Although not as fatal, extreme cold could also seriously injure or kill Xenomorphs, as liquid nitrogen was used to repeatedly intimidate the Xenomorphs to prevent them from getting any ideas on trying to escape. However, the Xenomorphs were far more resistant to extreme cold than extreme heat as it required larger and concentrated doses in order to subdue them.

Rival Xenomorph Hive : As shown in expanded universe medias such as Aliens versus Predator: Extinction, Xenomorphs cannot use their acidic blood against other members of their kind, forcing them to fight with other means (i.e. claws, inner jaws, and bladed tail).

Reliance on ambush and/or mob tactics : To get around the fact that Xenomorphs barely have long-range fighting castes thus must combat foes in close-quarters, Xenomorphs often relied on ambush tactics or adversaries being unaware to be effective at fighting with minimal losses. Alternatively, they can simply rush adversaries head on with overwhelming numbers. Either tactics have its disadvantages however; whereas the former being less effective against adversaries who were familiar with their tactics or had weapons that could see them in the shadows, the latter can be countered with an entrenched and well-prepared force with the losses potentially being fatal to a hive if they lost the majority of their soldiers.

Daylight & limited camouflage options : As a result of their dark armored plating, the Xenomorphs were most effective fighting in buildings, their hives, or at night. They suffered severely when fighting in the open daylight, as it was much easier for adversaries to see them, making their ambush tactics impossible or more difficult to carry out, as shown in the war on BG-386.

Gas : As shown by Specimen 6 during her time in Weyland Yutani's captivity, unleashing a large dose of airborne gas to a single Xenomorph had the ability to render the creature temporarily unconscious, allowing them to be moved without the risk of attack. It is implied however that multiple Xenomorphs required considerably more gas, thus making gassing multiple Xenomorphs at once unproductive.

Neural Shock : In the event of the violent or sudden death of a high-profile caste member, the ensuing shock to the hivemind would immediately cripple all lower caste members of the hive, rendering them immobile or at the very least badly disoriented. How severe the shock was depended on the height of the caste and how violent the ending was, as shown during the war on BG-386. The Matriarch's death, being killed suddenly in a violent explosion, immediately caused Specimen 6 to completely collapse and being rendered utterly immobile on the ground, and she would have been executed by Weyland's combat androids had Weyland not ordered her to be spared. Similarly, the deaths of the four Praetorians at the hands of Dark and Rookie immediately caused all remaining Xenomorph warriors to disengage and flee from the two combatants, as they had been killed in combat and still had a few seconds of life left, therefore making the shock less direct.

Vital castes : A Xenomorph hive can be severely crippled by killing its Queen first before decimating other castes that would likely molt into another Queen to replace the slain one such as Praetorian and eggs that may produce either Praetorian Facehugger or Royal Facehugger.

Vulnerability of young castes : While the Xenomorph warrior castes and higher could survive many things, the facehuggers, chestbursters, and to a lesser degree, the eggs were extremely vulnerable. Multiple encounters with the Xenomorphs showed that just one shot from weapons ranging from the pulse rifle to the bolt gun was enough to kill a facehugger, and chestbursters, while initially fast, became so slow that they were killed easily if they were spotted. Furthermore, if an egg was opened and a host was a considerable distance away, the facehugger would just wonder around aimlessly in the egg's immediate vicinity leaving it extremely vulnerable if someone noticed it and shot it. Furthermore, while the eggs would open if it was shot repeatedly, a single shot from a high-powered weapon like a sniper rifle would destroy the egg and kill the facehugger within.

Decompression and air pressure : Xenomorphs were repeatedly shown to be extremely vulnerable to the decompression and air pressure, regardless of the caste from warriors to Queens. Both of Ellen Ripley's encounters with the Aliens on LV426 ended with her ejecting the creatures through the airlock. Although the Acheron Queen attempted to fight the air pressure, she was still sucked out. During the war on BG-386, Specimen 6 saw a Warrior get pulled towards the fans and carved to pieces by the air pressure and it was only due to her precise jumping and holding onto the vents that she was able to avoid the same fate.

Old age : As Xenomorphs are biologically immortal, they do not have a risk of dying naturally. However this carries a risk, as while it is extremely rare for a Xenomorph to live to an advanced age, a Xenomorph that lives long enough will become considerably weaker. This was highlighted with the Matriarch, who was 10,000 years old, as she had considerable trouble ripping out of her ovipositor when escaping from Weyland Yutani, and when she battled Rookie, was unable to repeat the same feat. Furthermore, the Matriarch was badly injured by the flames by the furnace and the canisters around her exploding when Rookie shot them, before burning to death in a massive explosion that caused the refinery's collapse, while it is indicated that a younger Queen would have been able to survive all of these events, along with having little trouble ripping out of her oviposter.

Cultural impact

In the years since the release of Alien, the Alien has become one of the world's most recognized movie monsters and a pop-cultural icon. A memorial to the Alien was made in Vladivostok, Russian Far East. In June 4, 2003, the Alien was voted as the 14th most memorable screen villain by the American Film Institute. The Blondie co-founder Chris Stein, who is a friend of Giger, pondered in an interview:

Examples of Alien-inspired works include the classic video games Contra and Metroid .

The Aliens have appeared in many crossovers ( including a large number of intercompany crossovers ) in comic books and other media such as novels, toys, and videogames. Crossovers include encounters with Terminators, Judge Dredd, Green Lanterns, Batman, and Superman. The largest of these crossovers is the Alien vs. Predator franchise, in which the Aliens battle the Predators. This was an idea that came to the comic book artist Chris Warner in early 1989. He and other people at Dark Horse Comics were trying to come up with a good character combo for a new comics series. Dark Horse had been publishing Aliens comic book under license from 20th Century Fox since 1987. In November 21, 1990, the first depiction of the idea in film appeared in Predator 2, when an Alien skull, sculpted by Kevin Hudson, appeared as one of the trophies in the Predator spacecraft. Because Dark Horse possessed the rights to the franchise in comics, it has been able to feature likenesses of the alien in its other licensed comic books. For example, it did this in a mini-issue of Buffy the Vampire Slayer Season Nine which was billed in the media as an Alien crossover.

Giger's Alien was iconic enough to have an audio-animatronic version of it appear in The Great Movie Ride at Disney's Hollywood Studios at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Florida. The Alien appeared with the attraction's opening in May 1, 1989 and remained there until its closing in August 13, 2017. An Alien-based attraction at the Magic Kingdom entered early development stages before being reworked into ExtraTERRORestrial Alien Encounter until its closing in October 12, 2003.

In the Red Dwarf episode Polymorph, the Polymorph turns into a form that looks similar to the Xenomorph in one scene.

In other media Animaniacs

A Xenomorph appears in the episode Taming of the Screwy . It attempts to attack Dot Warner, but Dot released her pet (red monster with horns) from her box to protect her. A Xenomorph and Dot's pet monster fell in love with each other and leaves Dot.

Family Guy

During a cutaway in the episode Peter's Daughter, Ellen Ripley is attempting to run for her life but is stopped by the Xenomorph Queen. The alien speaks in an overly flamboyant and soft-spoken voice while threatening Ripley.

South Park

A Xenomorph appears in South Park's Imaginationland Trilogy, among with the other evil imaginary characters who break through the barrier which is destroyed by the terrorists using Rockety Rocket causing the evil imaginary characters to be free. The Xenomorph kill the Mayor of Imaginationland and later join up with the other evil imaginary characters in the war against the good imaginary characters.

Conker's Bad Fur Day

A Xenomorph appears as the final boss of the game. Heinrich is the final boss in the game. After Berri gets shot by Don Weaso, the Panther King starts to have stomach pains. He is oblivious to what is going on, but all of a sudden, his breath cuts short, starts coughing weakly and, after seconds passed, he gets a horrible surprise. A black, reptilian figure with a tail bursts out of the Panther King's chest, instantly killing him. Professor von Kriplespac starts to call the creature "Heinrich" and then orders him to kill Conker. Conker then runs over to a nearby lever and pulls it, opening up the air vault, where Berri's body, The Panther King and Von Kripplesac get sucked into space (Don Weaso's fate is unknown) and Conker runs out the room to don a heavy Spacesuit to battle Heinrich.

Conker then tries to defeat him by throwing him into space, but to no avail does he get sucked in. After throwing him out two more times, Heinrich gets his grip and is climbing back up and powerfully pounces at him like a panther, where the game then freezes up. Conker contacts a game programmer and agrees to keep the lockup a secret in exchange for help beating Heinrich. Conker is transported to the Panther King's throne room and allowed to choose any weapon he wants to defeat him. After grabbing and storing a Shotgun and a crossbow, he chooses a katana and decapitates Heinrich before the dangerous weapon can kill him, causing acidic green blood to burn up part of the floor. After that, Franky comes out of nowhere, looks at a dead Heinrich on the floor and says that Conker is now king and was never seen again.

Kill la Kill

A Xenomorph makes a cameo appearance in Episode 16 of the anime series, Kill la Kill as one of Mako Mankanshoku's "transformation" sequences.

Insaniquarium

One of the Aliens called Sylvester appears to be inspired by the Xenomorph. Unlike the Xenomorphs in the Alien franchise which are hard to kill, Sylvesters are very easy to kill (most likely due to being the first enemy encountered in that game).

Excel Saga

The queen of the Puchuu resembles the Alien Queen.

Villainous

A Xenomorph makes a cameo appearance in an episode of the Cartoon Network and Ai Animation Studios mini-series Villainous, "The Lost Cases of Boxmore".

When I was done it was shocking!

Ink Rose: Whoa! That's horrible.

Moonlight Raven: More horrible than what you guys saw.

Nico: I know. It was terrifying.

Fluttershy: I hope we never have to run into a Xenomorph!

G1 Venom: You won't have to. J.D. and the others made sure they'll ever kill anyone ever again.

Me: We blew up the entire planet of LV-426 and sealed off the entirety of the Xenomorph World from going out into the universe and making more Xenomorphs.

I pulled up a picture of an area in the Galactic Center.

Me: This zone is something we call the Xenomorph Quarantine Zone or X.Q.Z. for short.

Nico: Yep.

Rarity: Thank goodness.

Laney: But seeing how ugly they were was more horrifying up close.

Kate Lloyd: They were nearly as horrifying as the Thing though.

Me: No the Thing was 100 times worse.

Pinkie Pie: But that was terrible though.

Rainbow Dash: Besides making more Xenomorphs, what would've happened if the Xenomorphs reached Earth back then?

Elita One: They probably would've started World War III. Killing every human on Earth, hero and villain alike.

Me: Yep and it wouldn't matter who is good and who is bad, they were just that ruthless.

Ellen Ripley: Yeah and we know how they think.

Jared: But Xenomorphs speak on a telepathic level. I tried to reason with them, but they are just pure evil.

Nico: And like the social insects they are all part of a huge colony with a single queen that's capable of laying several thousand eggs.

Laney: Yep. And too many eggs are bad for the cholesterol count.

We laughed.

Cody (OC): And lets not forget that the Yautja's and the Xenomorphs have been at each other's throats for as long as anyone can remember.

Me: Oh yeah. It's a majorly brutal battle that is still haunting the universe to this day.

Applejack: That's horrible.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Sugar Belle: It sure is.

Me: I know. Xenomorph blood is also very highly acidic.

Ellen Ripley: It sure is. It's strong enough to burn through anything.

Me: It sure is. It's as strong as my poisonous blood.

Twilight Sparkle: I saw that. That's intense.

Nico: No kidding.

Lola: But at least we never have to see them ever again.

Lana: And thank goodness for that.

Later I looked at the clock.

Me: Oh man. It's time for us to go to school.

Nico: Oh man. Lets get moving then.

We got ready for school.

---

Later at school we were walking up to the entrance.

Wallflower: Another great day at school.

Me: Yep. And another great day of learning after saving the universe.

Lola: But we never know what will happen.

Me: Always have to be ready for anything.

Nico: Yep.

Varie: But it feels great to be back in school.

Me: Thank goodness we have Shadow Clones to be there when we need them.

Nico: Yep.

Titanium Titan, Hank Scorpio, Lady Shiva, Abis Mal, Dr. Destiny, Abomination, Fixer and Mirror Master then appeared.

Titanium Titan: Can me, Hank, Shiva, Abis Mal, Dr. Destiny, Abomination, Fixer, and Mirror Master accompany you guys to school? In case something happens?

Me: You all sure can. Better to be safe than sorry.

Hank Scorpio: Good thinking.

Cocoa Axe: (Irish Accent) But I'm always ready for anything lads.

Applejack: Me too. And this is so exciting to have all of the Mighty Helm with us.

Nico: It sure is. J.D. what caused you to bring back all of the Mighty Helm?

Me: Well I saw Rockhoof feeling lonely and he was missing all his friends in the Mighty Helm. It has been over 1,000 years since he saved his village from that volcanic eruption that nearly destroyed his home. So I figured why not bring back his friends that loved him like family.

Nico: Wow!

Stella Oresdotter: (Norwegian Accent) And it was a good thing you did.

Me: Thank you Stella.

Abis Mal: That is amazing!

Me: It sure is. I think it's amazing.

Lola: I do too.

We went into the school building.

---

Later after our classes we were having lunch and Eddy went to the bathroom. Eddy then saw the toilet look at him.

Talking Toilet: What are you looking at shitnose!

As soon as Eddy saw the talking toilet, he screamed and he closed the bathroom door shut and ran out of the bathroom.

Hood Sickle: Hey, Eddy. You ok?

Eddy: I'm fine. You guys want to get ice cream?

Horsea: Sure! I love ice cream!

Me: Lets go get some!

Nico: Yeah!

We went to the nearest ice cream parlor. But little did we know that the battle was only just beginning.

We had really good ice cream and it was awesome and tasty.

Me: Ahh. Mint chip, my favorite.

Applejack: Mmm! Mine is the apple and caramel.

Laney: I like cotton candy.

Nico: I like Cookies and Cream. Always has been my favorite since my childhood.

May: It's delicious.

Me: I remember that.

Pinkie Pie: I like all flavors of ice cream.

Pinkie Pie ate her ice cream too fast and then she got a really bad ice cream headache.

Pinkie Pie: AGH! Brain Freeze!

We laughed.

Lily: That's funny!

Nico: Yeah!

Me: But a Brain Freeze is not fun. It feels like someone froze your entire head in a block of ice.

Earthworm Jim: Yeah it hurts too.

Me: No kidding.

We later went back to school and we saw a toilet in our path.

Abis Mal: What's this toilet doing out here?

Me: I don't know. Anyone got to use the can?

Nico: No I'm good.

Varie: Me too.

We all agreed.

Talking Toilet: YOU WILL BE FOOD FOR US!

We jumped and screamed as we saw the toilet talk!

Nico: THAT TOILET TALKS!

Lana: Cool!

Lola: Gross!

Carol: This has to be one of Petra Fina's tricks!

Chop Shop: (to the talking toilet) Tell Petra Fina that she's gonna have to do better then toilets if she wants to defeat us!

Talking Toilet: Who?

George Beard: Guys this is not the work of Petra Fina.

Harold Hutchins: This is the work of the Turbo Toilet 2000!

Me: The Turbo Toilet 2000?

Lana: Sounds like a super fancy toilet.

George Beard: It's more than just fancy. It's the leader of an army of toilets that want to destroy all of humanity.

Harold Hutchins: And it's the very first enemy that Captain Underpants beat.

They went over it's history.

---

The Turbo Toilet 2000 is the recurring antagonist in Dav Pilkey's Captain Underpants book series and also serves as a major antagonist of the 2017 film Captain Underpants: The First Epic Movie. He is a giant talking toilet created by George and Harold in the book series, and created by Melvin Sneedly and Professor Poopypants in the film. He has robotic arms and legs bent on taking over the world with an army of man-eating toilets.

The Turbo Toilet 2000 first appeared in the second novel Captain Underpants and the Attack of the Talking Toilets as the main antagonist, where he was a creation of a George and Harold's latest comic after they were put into detention for messing up the Invention Convention. The Turbo Toilet 2000 and his army of toilets come to life after the boys accidentally use one of Melvin Sneedly's inventions, the PATSY 2000 (that can turn any picture into a living object), and the toilets start to threaten the students and teachers.

Having no choice, the boys are forced to turn to their principal Mr. Krupp, who changes into Captain Underpants after one of the teachers snapped her fingers at the toilets. With the help from George and Harold, Captain Underpants managed to formulate a plan to successfully destroy the talking toilets by feeding them disgusting chipped beef, causing all the toilets to die.

Unfortunately, this only made the Turbo Toilet 2000 so furious, that he defeated Underpants and swallowed him whole, much to George and Harold's distraught. However, the boys produce a giant robot known as the Robo-Plunger, who defeats the Turbo Toilet 2000, presumably suffocating him and saving Underpants, who emerged from the deceased Turbo Toilet 2000's mouth. The Robo Plunger then fixes the school before flying away to Uranus on the boys' command, taking the deceased Turbo Toilet 2000 and his Talking Toilets with it.

In both Captain Underpants and the Perilous Plot of Professor Poopypants and Captain Underpants and the Big, Bad Battle of the Bionic Booger Boy - Part 2: The Revenge of the Ridiculous Robo Boogers, the Turbo Toilet 2000's corpse along the corpses of his deceased Talking Toilets can be seen in a newspaper and when a spaceship discovers them.

The Turbo Toilet 2000 returns in The Tyrannical Retaliation of the Turbo Toilet 2000, where he is suddenly revived when a ball kicked by the robot Harold 2000 in the fifth book arrives at Uranus, decapitating the Robo-Plunger and causing the Photo-Atomic juice to fall into the Turbo Toilet 2000's mouth.

Bent on revenge against Underpants and the boys for destroying his army, the Turbo Toilet 2000 returns to Earth, forcing Captain Underpants to fight him. Though Underpants manage to best out the giant toilet, the latter's tears touch Underpants, turning him back into Mr. Krupp. The Turbo Toilet 2000 then grabbed Krupp and forced him to reveal the boys' current location. On arrival, the Turbo Toilet 2000 ate Mr. Krupp and intends to do the same to George and Harold, but fortunately, three hamster pterosaur hybrids (who would later be named Dawn, Orlando, and Tony) attacked the Turbo Toilet 2000, lifted him over half a mile into the air and let him to fell to his imminent death, crashing in pieces when landing and getting destroyed once and for all.

The Turbo Toilet 2000 serves as a supporting antagonist of the 2017 DreamWorks animated film based on the series. This iteration is an invention of Melvin's as opposed to being a comic book character. It first appears during the school assembly, where Melvin introduces it as his latest invention. However, chaos ensues when George and Harold sabotage the Turbo Toilet 2000 by reprogramming it to shoot out toilet papers. However, Melvin knew of George and Harold's involvement, having set up a recording device, and turns over George and Harold to Mr. Krupp, who angrily puts them in separate classes for the rest of the school year as punishment for their pranks.

When Professor Poopypants becomes the new science teacher, he finds himself as the ridicule of the entire school because of his silly name but notices that Melvin's brain is incapable of having fun. Deciding to recruit Melvin to his cause, Poopypants uses his machinery to enlarge the Turbo Toilet 2000 as part of his plan to get rid of laughter due to the fact that people have made fun of his name for years.

Using the school cafeteria's rotten leftovers as fuel for the robot and equipping it with a ray gun that rids children of humor, Poopypants directs the Turbo Toilet 2000 to take over Jerome Horwitz. After disposing of Captain Underpants by having the Turbo Toilet 2000 to swallow him whole, Poopypants uses the Turbo Toilet 2000 to turn George and Harold into zombies. With all of Jerome Horwitz's students under his control, Poopypants announces his plans to conquer the rest of the world followed by the rest of the universe. However, in the midst of his victory, he mentions Uranus (the very start of George and Harold's friendship), restoring George and Harold's sense of humor and causing the Turbo Toilet 2000's computer to crash. With that in mind, the Turbo Toilet 2000 shuts down, freeing all the citizens from Poopypants' control, and allowing Underpants to escape after gaining superpowers from the leftovers in order to defeat Poopypants for good.

Despite being defeated, the Turbo Toilet 2000 enacts one final act of evil- when its body is being disposed of, the clean-up crew fails to be careful and drops the toilet off in such a way that the mutating contents of its toilet bowl spill over a large collection of toilets, which turn into the Talking Toilets and (a few seconds later) proceed to ravage the town. Fortunately, Captain Underpants comes by to the rescue as he is last seen fighting off the mutated toilets (with the help from George and Harold).

We gasped in shock.

Me: So they're a bunch of Man-Eating Toilets!

Talking Toilet: That's right you fucking poopyheads.

Me: Well look who's talking Mr. Dickhead shitsucking poophole.

Talking Toilet: There's a class on sanitizing going on. How about you attend you shiteater?

Me: Last time I saw a mouth like that it had a fucking fish hook stuck in it.

Shiva: (to the talking toilet) You don't know who you're messing with.

Talking Toilet: Oh I don't huh toots? Why don't you go marry Rush Limbaugh.

Me: Rush Limbaugh is dead stupid.

Lola: Yeah I never liked listening to him!

Lynn Sr.: Me neither.

Me: And besides, Lady Shiva is not your type.

BURN!

Lana smashed the toilet into a million pieces and destroyed it.

Lana: That's it for that Potty Mouth!

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Lana!

Eddy: (Laughs) Yeah that was a good one!

Nico: We're not out of the woods yet!

We saw LOTS of toilets!

We blasted them all over the place and destroyed them and Eddy saw that they were coming from the school!

Eddy: Guys, I think I know where they're coming from! We need to get back to the school!

Eye Scream: No wonder you ran out of that bathroom in a hurry!

Me: Yeah! Lets go!

We ran back to the school.

Nico: Hey J.D. great toilet talk to that dumper abomination.

Me: Thanks Nico. I learned a lot of toilet humor.

We ran back in and we saw a massive number of them!

Fixer: Oh great! More of them!

Me: Lots of them! Melvin made a really bad abomination of nature!

Nico: We're gonna have a really long talk with him after we're done here.

Luan: And it won't be pretty.

Me: Harold, George, how did you guys defeat them the first time?

Harold: We had to use lots of cafeteria food.

I got an idea.

Me: Danny, I have an idea. But we're gonna need the help of a certain former enemy of yours.

Danny: I think I know who you're talking about.

Me and Danny: The Lunch Lady Ghost!

Nico: Oh man!

Me: Lets do it! (Snaps Fingers)

Lincoln and Danny had a Ghost Sense and in came the spirit of Delores MacNugget, The Lunch Lady Ghost!

Delores: This is quite a treat.

Danny: Hello Delores.

Delores: The Ghost Boy and J.D. it's great to see you all again.

Me: Same to you Delores. We need your help with taking them out.

I pointed to the talking toilets.

Delores: Oh dear.

George Beard: And you'll need some help. (SNAPS FINGERS)

Krupp turned into CAPTAIN UNDERPANTS!

Captain Underpants: TRA LA LAAAAAAAAAA!

Beastbox: Let's take these toilets down!

A toilet was about to lunge at Beasbot when suddenly, a rope grabbed it and slammed it towards a wall, destroying it. We looked to see Christopher Weiss A.K.A. SLIPKNOT there.

---

Slipknot is a major antagonist of the 2016 DC Warner Bros film Suicide Squad, the third installment of the DC Extended Universe.

He was portrayed by Adam Beach.

History

After being arrested during a confrontation with Wonder Woman, Slipknot was placed in Belle Reve. Although not initially considered for the Task Force X, Slipknot was added to the team after the escape of the Enchantress. After being injected with a nanite explosive, he was driven to the base outside of Midway City, where he attacked a female ARGUS agent immediately after stepping out of the car, to the amusement of Harley Quinn.

On their flight into Midway City, the squad's helicopter is shot down by Incubus, causing it to crash into Midway City. After emerging, the squad ventures through the city and Boomerang tricks Slipknot into believing the bombs used to control them are a ruse. Slipknot then attempts to escape and is killed by Rick Flag, the team leader, when he detonates the bomb inside Slipknot's head, decapitating him and confirming to Boomerang that the bombs are real.

---

Slipknot: Geez, I haven't been brought back to life for an hour and I find that there are toilets everywhere.

Me: Christopher Weiss A.K.A. Slipknot.

Slipknot: That's right and it's an honor to see you again J.D.

Me: Same here. We haven't seen each other since we killed the Joker the first time.

Slipknot: I know.

Killer Frost: Chris!

Harley Quinn: It's great to have you back!

Slipknot: Louise and Harley it's great to see you again.

Me: And it's good to see you again.

Abomination: (punches a toilet, destroying it) Who else wants some?!

A toilet jumped at Abomination's head only for another figure to karate chop it to pieces. The figure was Ben Turner A.K.A. BRONZE TIGER.

---

Bronze Tiger (real name: Benjamin "Ben" Turner ) is a villain and anti-hero from DC Comics . He has been a member of both the League of Assassins and the Suicide Squad.

Ben Turner comes from the Suicide Squad, setting him up to become the team's leader, but he ends up the team's second-in-command under Rick Flag. On the team's first mission, the Tiger faces Raven, who he brutally cripples, but refuses to kill. Turner develops a relationship with Vixen, while Flo Crawley, a part of the Squad's support crew, nurses a crush for him. Meeting Ravan again later, Turner convinces him to join the Squad, and the two become an effective fighting duo.

As Turner is confronted for his actions by his superiors, and in the ensuing meeting, Turner's mind snaps. He flees, traveling back to the East (leaving Vixen in the process), where he spends some time as a janissary. Shortly afterwards, the Suicide Squad is disbanded and Amanda Waller is sent to jail.

In the team's last mission, the Squad struggles to free a small island nation from the tyranny of it's seemingly immortal ruler. The team must pass through a forest known for causing hallucinations. While the others experience their own mind-trips, Bronze Tiger faces himself. Defeating himself, and thereby exorcising his demons, Turner once again becomes a complete person. The tyrant is later defeated by Waller.

Powers and Abilities

Bronze Tiger has no meta-human powers, however he is a master of martial arts, considered one of the top five martial artists in the DC Universe. He has mastered various martial arts styles, such as Taekwondo, Jiu-jitsu, Aikido, Karate, and Kung fu. He is considered on par with Lady Shiva and has bested Batman more than once.

---

Bronze Tiger: So this is how crazy life on Earth has become, huh?

Me: Ben Turner A.K.A. Bronze Tiger.

Bronze Tiger: It's an honor to meet you J.D. Knudson. I've heard many incredible things about you.

Me: It's mutual. But that was a nice save.

Bronze Tiger: Thanks.

Ra's: It's good to see you again Ben.

Bronze Tiger: Master Ra's! I thought you were dead.

Ra's: I was. But thanks to some unforeseen circumstances and J.D. saving me I am back.

Bronze Tiger: Wow.

Me: We can catch up later. We got a bunch of evil toilets out to destroy all of humanity.

Nico: Because of a certain nerdy evil genius that George, Harold, Captain Underpants and Luan all hate.

Luan: Yeah!

We went at the toilets and smashed them apart.

Flamefeather: We need to destroy the source of the toilets!

Me: And that's the Turbo Toilet 2000. If we destroy it we destroy all these toilets.

Toiletnator then appeared.

Toiletnator: I'll help you with that J.D.

Me: Thanks Lou. We owe you one.

Numbuh 4: Let me help you with that Uncle Lou.

Toiletnator: Thanks Nephew.

Nico blasted many toilets.

Toiletnator: This is a fight I was destined for!

Lana: Same here! Time to bring out BIG BERTHA! (Holds up a plumbing tool)

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT MANIACAL TOILET ABOMINATIONS! (BLASTS TOILETS EVERYWHERE) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Earthwork Jim: EAT DIRT TOILETS OF PUTRIDITY! (BLASTS TOILETS EVERYWHERE) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Mirror Master made some holograms of himself.

Mirror Masters (to the toilets): Try to guess which of us is real!

The Toilets were stumped and they were so stupefied that they exploded into a million pieces.

Me: Nice one!

Mirror Master: Yeah that was awesome!

Nico: Yeah!

Lunch Lady Ghost fired waves of burgers and meat and the Toilets ate them and exploded.

Me: Yeah!

Danny Phantom: That was awesome!

Lincoln: Lets take them down together Danny!

Danny Phantom: We're going Ghost!

They turned into Danny and Lincoln Phantom and they phased through numerous toilets and grabbed a bunch of chips from them and the toilets all exploded.

Girl Jordan: Way to go guys!

Cozy Glow saw the photocopier and it was making more and more talking toilets by the second!

Cozy Glow: We should probably destroy the photocopier!

Me: Why would we do that?

Nico: I think THAT is the reason!

We saw THE TURBO TOILET 2000 making copies and they were of numerous toilets!

Me: So that's where all the Toilets are coming from!

Lola: I got this!

Lola fired a blast of fire and destroyed the photocopier!

Me: Yeah! Good eyes Cozy Glow.

Cozy Glow: Thanks J.D.

Hank Scorpio: I'm glad the toilets of the Globex Corporation aren't like this!

Homer: No they weren't.

Me: Lets take the fight to the Cafeteria. First we need to evacuate the school and get everyone to safety. This is gonna get really ugly.

Varie: I'm on it!

Varie went and pulled the Fire Alarm and told everyone to get out fast.

I went up to the Turbo Toilet 2000.

Me: HEY YOU!

The Turbo Toilet 2000 turned to see us.

Sea Clasp: (nervously) Um… hi?

Turbo Toilet 2000: Well well if it isn't the Shitmouthed Fucksacks Team Loud Loser Storm!

Me: That's MR. SHITMOUTHED FUCKSACK to you shithole breath!

Eli: Yeah! You will pay for unleashing those potty-faced toilets upon humanity!

Nunnally: And it won't be pretty!

Me: Lets take this to the cafeteria!

I threw him into the cafeteria and we got ready to face him and we were ready!

Selene, Copperhead, Gearhead, Unicorn, Aqueduct and Femme Fatale then appeared.

Me: Selene, Copperhead, Gearhead, Unicorn Aqueduct and Femme Fatale.

Selene: That's right.

Copperhead: Looks like you've had your hands full.

Me: We sure have and I also called Femme Fatale for an extra battle because today is a very special day. It's International Women's Day.

Femme Fatale: That's right. And it's my kind of holiday.

Nico: Yep it sure is.

Maria: I take it you guys saw the toilets as well.

Selene: We did. They had dirty mouths.

Copperhead: And then, we saw them coming from the school.

Gearhead: Also, we've got some new recruits for you guys.

Me: Awesome.

3 Figures came out and they were Tony Woodward A.K.A. GIRDER, Arthur Brown A.K.A. CLUEMASTER and Mark Scarlotti A.K.A. WHIPLASH!

---

Girder

Girder is a supervillain from DC comics and an enemy of the speedster known as the Flash.

History

Steelworker Tony Woodward assaulted a female coworker, leading to a riot in which he was thrown into a vat of steel. The steel turned out to be scraps from experiments at S.T.A.R. Labs, and Tony survived, his body becoming steel itself. He remained cruel and angry, however, and used his new strength for robbery and murder.

While incarcerated at Iron Heights, the prison staff allowed his body to begin rusting away. Girder escaped in the panic of Murmur's viral outbreak and joined the new Rogues Gallery. Not surprisingly for living steel and a living magnet, Girder is unreasonably attracted to Magenta, who repeatedly refuses his crude advances.

Cluemaster

The Cluemaster (real name: Arthur Brown ) is a relatively minor Batman villain who copied the Riddler's methods.

The first appearance of Cluemaster was when he made an attempt to learn Batman's secret identity. He failed this and many other criminal attempts, mostly because he left clues at his crimes much like how Riddler would leave riddles. He then joined a supervillain team called the Injustice League. Sadly the team of loser villains were even more unsuccessful together then they were separate. After staying in Blackgate prison, he supposedly reformed. Now cured of his compulsion to leave clues, he joined a gang and killed the leader to take charge. However his daughter, Stephanie Brown, left clues for Batman to help him catch Cluemaster and his gang. Stephanie was angry at how Arthur's criminal career destroyed their family. Stephanie would become the superheroine Spoiler and begins a romance with Tim Drake/Robin. From then on his daughter would help Batman whenever he attempted a crime. Cluemaster seemed to have a genuine desire to reform for his daughter and hoped to make her proud by joining Suicide Squad, a government sanctioned team of supervillains who perform covert operations in exchange for pardons. He battles a team of terrorists and was injured with several bullet wounds to the chest. He survived, but unfortunately his daughter died fighting alongside Batman. Angry at Batman, he takes on the identity Aaron Black and starts a protest campaign to stop Batman, claiming he put children sidekicks life in danger. Stephanie turned out to be alive and became the new Batgirl, while Cluemaster, unaware of her being alive, funded a supervillain team that frequently battles her called The Reapers.

Whiplash

Whiplash (later Blacklash ) is a villain in the Marvel universe, and an enemy of Iron Man. He is in league with Thunderbolts.

Origin

Mark Scarlotti was a brilliant technician for the Cincinnatti branch of Stark International, but his greed got the best of him. Using a special whip that could generate an electric current powerful enough to tear through Iron Man's armor, Scarlotti became Whiplash, an assassin under the employ of the Maggia. After several defeats, Scarlotti called it quits, married, and had a child, but after money troubles, he returned to villainy, and his wife was killed, he took revenge, only to try to retire once more. He was later killed by Iron Man's Sentient Armor.

Before that, he had battled other Marvel heroes, including Spider-Man and Captain America. He had also worked under and alongside other villains such as Justin Hammer, Rhino, and Scorpion.

Me: Tony Woodward A.K.A. Girder, Arthur Brown A.K.A. Cluemaster and Mark Scarlotti A.K.A. Whiplash. But not the Whiplash we faced on Akira's world.

Whiplash: That's right and it's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Cluemaster: Same here. We heard so many incredible things about you all.

Girder: Hey, Flash. Did you miss me?

Flash: I was just thinking about you Tony.

Applejack: You are quite a strong man in that suit.

Cocoa Axe: He sure is lass.

Cluemaster: It certainly has been a while, Batman.

Batman: Indeed it has Arthur. You are looking more mysterious than ever.

Laney: But you always love a good mystery.

Me: Yeah you do.

Whiplash: Did my counterpart from the Disk Wars Earth really look awesome?

Eddy: Honestly, he did.

Me: He sure did Mark and there's only room in this universe for one version of you.

Whiplash: You got that right J.D. But those Celebrity 5 jerks got what was coming to them.

Me: Yeah I just wish we could've killed them though.

?: I would've done so myself.

A figure came out and it was COBRA INCARNATE from episode 16 of Lightspeed Rescue!

---

The Cobra Incarnate is a cobra Demon, from Power Rangers, that served Diabolico, he serves as as the secondary antagonist of the episode "The Cobra Strikes".

Cobra Incarnate was a cobra demon, who was the alter ego of Ryan's tattoo (which Diabolico placed on him in his dream). He was placed in a demon's tomb, where all demons were found. Ryan traveled to the tomb, to defeat the demon and free himself from the curse. He entered the chamber and he found a cobra statue that came to life and fought him. Cobra Demon was powerful and easily defeated Ryan. Then Ryan used the last of his Titanium Ranger Powers, but still was no match for the monster. The villain laughed at Ryan and told him that the tattoo will finish him. However, Ryan's weapon still materialized and he threw his Titanium Axe at the column, striking, causing it collapse on the monster, finally destroying him. After the demon's death, Ryan was freed from the Cobra's curse and regained his Titanium Ranger Powers.

---

Ryan Mitchell: Cobra Incarnate!

Cobra Incarnate: Been a long time Ryan Mitchell.

Me: I remember you and I know you all too well! You are the personification of the Curse of The Cobra and Ryan went to destroy you so that the curse would be destroyed.

Cobra Incarnate: That's right J.D. You have a really good memory on you just like Mistress Vypra said.

Me: Never missed an episode. And Anko would love having you as her partner because of her use of snakes.

Cobra Incarnate: (Laughs) I bet she would.

Lola: Yeah!

Cobra Incarnate: How many people besides Rotwood's group have gotten the Curse of the Cobra?

Me: And they are Rotwood, Squidward, Master Frown, Brad Morton…

Jycellia: And my so called sister Krystellia.

Tom Majors: And that stupid dickhead freak Klay.

Sarah Gunnerson: And Simon and his friends Bianca, Dimitri and Bruno.

Me: But Rotwood and his group are pardoned for their crimes and Krystellia and Klay only have a little over a year left to live. Same with Simon and his posse.

I showed my timer on my watch and it showed that they have about a year and 2 months left to live.

Cobra Incarnate: I hope they love the fires of Hell.

Me: I have a feeling they won't. What they did to Perim is completely unforgivable.

Kaz: You got that right.

?: And J.D. will soon be joining him after I kill Goku.

2 figures came out and they were 2 ANDROID 17'S!? WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON!?

Me: Two Android 17's!? That is not good.

Android 17 1: You'll see why soon J.D.

Android 17 2: Because we're going to kill you after we kill Goku.

Me: I don't think so. You guys have fun with the battles. This is my battle.

I snapped my fingers and me and the two Android 17's teleported away.

Nico: Be careful J.D. Lets get them!

They went at them.

Sam Simpson: We sure did. It was the one where Elroy found a Xenomorph Egg.

Selene gasped in shock.

Twilight Sparkle: It sure was. I can't believe that Elroy would bring back a Xenomorph Egg and not fully realize the dangers of it.

Luster Dawn: Yeah that was terrible.

Princess Celestia: It sure was and it was awful that it would hurt the Jetsons like that.

Princess Luna: No kidding sister. But thank goodness we will never encounter the Xenomorphs or anything like them anytime soon.

Princess Cadance: Thank goodness for that. It was awful that they are that dangerous.

Copperhead: Thanks Anko.

Sunset Shimmer: It's so cool that we can use Duel Monster Cards in battle.

Pepperdance: It sure is. Too bad there aren't that many Spicy Duel Monster Cards.

Cayenne: I know and I think that's so cool.

Wallflower: It sure is.

Rainbow Dash: But this is gonna be so awesome.

Lightning Dust: It sure is! I have a feeling it's gonna be great!

Scootaloo: I'm always up for a challenge.

Magma Gloom: Me too!

Gearhead: That's the Spirit! I heard that J.D. and team faced a terrible series of creatures called The Necromorphs. What are they?

Spitfire: You would be scared out of your wits.

Vapor Trail: They are monsters of the dead from another planet.

Sky Stinger: Yeah and that was a nightmare from Hell 100-fold.

Angel Wings: Yeah it was awful.

Soarin: It was an adventure of grotesque monsters…

Night Glider: Brutal insanity…

Flash Magnus: And creatures that are out to destroy all life in the entire universe.

Rainbow Dash told him everything about the Necromorphs and the Brethren Moons and the sheer danger that they pose to the entire universe.

---

The Necromorphs are the main antagonists of the Dead Space video game franchise. They are a parasitic species that come in a variety of forms ranging from tiny barely humanoid monstrosities to hulking abominations and are capable of infecting dead bodies in order to make new Necromorphs and are highly resistant to damage: the best means of defeating most Necromorphs is dismemberment, also in order to prevent new Necromorphs from spawning it is wise for a player to destroy any corpses they come across.

According to an in-game description that two types of Necromorphs exist, those that exist to infest dead bodies and those that exist to create new corpses - in other words, Necromorphs kill other species in order to survive.

Despite their single-minded crusade to eliminate all other species and monstrous mass murdering nature, the Necromorphs are worshipped as Gods by Unitology, a massive universal religion, and aids in helping the Necromorph population grow as part of their apocalyptic prophecy, even at the cost of Earth and all of mankind as many of them such as Challus Mercer or Daina Le Guin wanted to spread the Necromorphs on the Earth (Mercer) or in the entire universe (Daina).

Etymology

Necromorphs are named after "necro" - which means dead and "morph" - which means form making their literal name "dead forms": as their name implies Necromorphs are similar in many ways to zombies, but are not undead - instead, they are a unique form of alien life but are just as dangerous to the living due to their desire to spread and their parasitic nature.

Origin

Necromorphs are created through the power of Markers (either Black Marker or its derivation Red Markers), alien objects that emit a highly concentrated electromagnetic signal that alters any dead tissue in range on a cellular level, converting it into Necromorph tissue and re-animating the corpse of the host organism. This signal also affects the minds of intelligent life forms, usually manifesting as dementia and resulting in homicidal and suicidal actions - laying out a rich field of fodder for the Necromorph infection.

Once some Necromorphs created, these Necromorphs would butcher any non-Necromorph lifeforms on sight so their corpses can be reanimated either via infection with their cells or Markers' powers.

The Markers present themselves to lifeforms as sources of unlimited energy, tempting those lifeforms to build more Markers in a misguided attempt to harness their energy only for those Markers to cause more Necromorph infestations.

Types of Necromorphs Slasher

Slashers are the most common Necromorphs, posing the greatest threat when in groups. They are named for the large bone blades that emerge from the hands of their upper arms, which can be the infected corpses' original arms or can be newly sprouted limbs from their backs. Slashers also have an atrophied set of lower arms, which usually have little purpose, but can sometimes be used to hold their prey. Bones in the feet of Slashers are extended, most notably the heel bone, which adds balance. It helps them in climbing on walls or running, but walking is harder. More durable 'Enhanced' Slashers can also result from more decayed corpses and female Slashers can spit acid projectiles and are called Spitters .

Leaper

Leapers are more animalistic Necromorphs with more muscular arms and the top of their heads seem to have separated from the neck, also sporting a set of mandibles on their heads and mutated jaws. However, their most notable trait are their long scythe-like tails created from the corpses' innards and legs, fused together into a single limb. Leapers' tails can coil to about a third of its original length and they can use these to propel themselves, letting them leap long distances. Leapers also sport large fangs and claws and can move quite fast, often inhabiting areas with no gravity so as to take advantage of their fast moves.

Lurker

Lurkers are the result of the corpses of infants being transformed into Necromorphs. They have been heavily mutated, due to lacking any physiology that could be used to kill, and have become little more than a mass of muscle. Lurkers' skin have become leathery and a set of tentacle like appendages extend from their lower stomach, which act as their primary means of movement. Lurkers attack with a trio of whippy barbed tentacles that extend from their backs and the tentacles can fire barb projectiles. Additionally, Lurkers can be created from animal bodies as shown in Tau Volantis where Lurkers were created from the bodies of the dogs.

Infector

Infectors are the Necromorphs responsible for helping them to spread, constantly hunting for corpses to infect. The host corpse is twisted and broken, developing bat-like wings formed from flaps of flesh between their limbs. The head becomes the Infectors' feelers and a stinger-like appendage, made from a fusion of bone, flesh, and spinal tissue. The Infectors' use these appendages to spread the Necromorph infection, enveloping the corpse in their wings and driving its stinger into the skull to inject a fluid stored inside its body.

Pregnant

Pregnants sport an enormous sac that contains lesser Necromorphs and have two large arms with bone scythes. The host corpses' arms are fused into the sac and in troublesome situations, Pregnants tear open their sacs to release the Necromorph spawn inside (Swarmers or rarer Lurkers). They have smaller legs so as to balance themselves out and can move at a decent speed despite their bulk.

The best method to kill Pregnants is to avoid hitting the sac as should the sac was attacked, Swarmers inside would be released and swarm the player. Also, had a Pregnant been decapitated, they would wind up slashing everything around them blindly, which is useful should this Necromorph also be accompanied by another.

Swarmer

Swarmers are small Necromorphs that seem to be nothing more than reanimated chunks of flesh. They attack in groups and try to swarm and overwhelm their targets, tearing them apart.

Brute

Brutes are large Necromorphs created from numerous corpses. They have spiky armored skin on most of their bodies to protect them and have high physical strength, as well as surprising speed. However, Brutes have notable yellow weak points on their backs, which can be used as a means of severing their limbs. If they lose their legs, they can fire organic bombs out of holes in their stomachs.

Guardian

Guardians are immobile Necromorphs, created from human corpses fused into the enormous Necromorph entity known as the Corruption. It it's immature form Guardian is extremly weak and resembles a human torso with hanging intenstines but as this Necromorph develops, it becomes less and less human-like and grows more actively hostile. The Guardians lose their arms and develop large sacs and openings in their lower bodies from the Corruption mass. These openings have appendages sprouting out of them, helping attach them to the wall. The Guardians can attack with scythed appendages made from their innards, but their most notable ability is their ability to spew forth embryo-like Necromorphs called Pods . These Necromorphs attack with tentacles and can burst in a small explosion, though they are little danger unless they swarm enemies.

Wheezer

Wheezers are unique Necromorphs that do not directly attack people, instead sitting stationary. The only threat they pose is the poisonous gas that they breathe from their lungs, which have grown to large size and sprouted out their backs thus removing clean air from the atmosphere. Wheezers' arms and legs are fused together, preventing them from moving, and they can be easily killed.

Exploder

Exploders are suicide bomber-esque Necromorphs with large glowing growths on their arms that are extremely explosive. The corpse hosts of these Necromorphs have had their heads split in half and they can use these two halves to bite at enemies. Exploders' other arms and legs have developed to help balance them out, so they can manage a clumsy walk. When they have gotten close to enemies. Exploders swing the explosive pustules on their arms at them or against the ground. This results in a large explosion, which can easily blow humans to bits and usually kills the Exploder.

Divider

Dividers are tall, lanky Necromorphs, able to split apart into smaller Necromorphs after they have been damaged enough. These Divider spawns (head, hands and legs) are not as durable as the original Divider, but they are very fast. They move along with tentacles and jump onto and attack their enemies. The characteristic trait of Divider is it's very long and loud moan indicating it is near.

Creeper

Creeper is a new name applied to the head of a Divider that feature an elongated tongue and three tendrils coming out of the neck, Creeper heads are capable of decapitating dead bodies and burrowing into their neck stumps to reanimaed them Shamblers . Shamblers are dead soldiers or Circle terrorists with firearms in their hands that are capable of using them albeit with very poor aim.

Twitcher

Twitchers result from corpse hosts that possess stasis modules. The modules fuse into these Necromorphs' flesh, reversing their effects and making Twitchers able to move much faster than normal Necromorphs. They also move rather erratically and even have a blur when seen up close. Twitchers are designed similarly to Slashers, though more muscular and some lack the small appendages on their chests, but have larger bone scythes. They have a large gap on top of their skulls, which is filled with worms and seem to lack eyes.

Puker

Pukers are Necromorphs that can spit corrosive bile out of their mouths and also have sharp claws. They are heavily mutated with one leg being made of the hosts' intestines and the other being the hosts' original legs fused into one. The Pukers' lack eyes, their jaws are fused into their necks, and their lungs are visible, clearly full of their bile. Their flesh also hangs loosely from their bodies and appears to be burned due to the way they expel bile.

Tripod

Tripods are three-legged Necromorphs composed of multiple corpses and are highly vicious even by Necromorph standards. They attack mostly with their brute strength, but also use their bladed tongues. Tripods have large yellow weak points visible on their arms and tongues and they are brought down when they lose their arms. There exists a unique female version of the Tripod, which has a female corpse as its main host and a more tentacle-esque tongue.

The Pack

The Pack are a group of Necromorphs created from children, acting as a predatory herd and are rarely encountered alone. They aren't as mutated as other Necromorphs, now sporting bony claws, enhanced muscles, and a more open fanged mouth. However, the members of the Pack are easily torn to shreds, which may be why they act as a group and they seem to coordinate through sound.

Stalker

Stalkers are raptor-like Necromorphs that use flanking, stealth, and group-tactics to catch their prey. They sport large claws and their rib cages have spread open, though most of their organs are now gone. However, Stalkers' most notable feature are their large domed skulls, which they use to smash against their opponents and also help to protect themselves from attacks. Stalkers are possibly the most intelligent Necromorphs, moving around, hiding, attempting to lure their targets, fleeing when damaged, and attacking only when they think their prey's guard is down.

Cyst

Cysts are immobile Necromorphs that seem to grow from the Corruption. Whenever anything comes near them, they fire explosive pods into the air that explode upon hitting the ground. If the Cyst fires a pod without killing it, it will quickly create another one.

Spitter

Spitters are created only from female host and are very similar to Slashers in their appearance as they have large, bladed arms protruding from their shoulders, along with their intact original arms. However, their mouths have expanded to spew acid bombs and their yellowish lungs have been expanded and ripped through flesh. Unlike Slashers, Spitters are capable of spitting corrosive acid at their enemies like Pukers.

Crawler

Crawlers, like Lurkers, are Necromorphs resulting from using infants as hosts. They are extremely bloated with an explosive substance inside them and the torso and head are twisted backwards. Crawlers also have had their legs fused together, making them crawl along.

Nest

Nests are Necromorphs created from female host corpses, which are fused with at least one other corpse. They have bulbous appendages sprouting from them and a mess of flesh on the bottom that anchor them down. While normally retracted into these bases, Nests will emerge when anything comes near them and release swarms of glowing Necromorphs created from parts of nervous system that act as projectiles, homing on targets and exploding when they hit. If the target gets too close, Nests will retreat back into their invulnerable lower sections until the target moves away.

Fodder

Fodders (also called Wasters ) is a unique type of Necromorph, notable for the fact that it is the most human-looking. Fodders typically retain their hosts' clothing and overall silhouette, but possess oozing eyes and mouths that emanate a ghastly yellow light. Unlike every other type of Necromorph seen in-game which rely on their mutations, Fodders use a variety of melee weapons to fight. However, a unique trait of the Fodders, is the ability to trigger further mutations when dismembered.

Feeder

Feeders were created from the hosts that consumed Necromorph's flesh. Their bodies were grotesquely emaciated, with its bones and skeletal system which gives them almost skeletal appearance which allows them to have increased agility and run quickly. They also lack eyes so they rely on their enhanced sense of hearing to locate victim. They always attack in groups and emit sounds similar to chimpanzee to alert others of intruder's presence.

The Hunter

The Hunter is a unique Necromorph created by Dr. Challus Mercer, which was created by placing some of the Corruption's tissue inside a human. It is built similarly to the Slasher, but bigger and stronger and can regenerate lost limbs, meaning that the dismemberment method used on other Necromorphs will only stop the Hunter temporarily. The Hunter pursued Isaac Clarke throughout the USG Ishimura and he was only able to escape it or temporarily disable it on each occasion. However, he was finally able to wipe the Hunter out when he test fired the engine of a shuttle while it was in the way, incinerating it completely.

The Corruption

The Corruption is the single largest Necromorph entity, though it does not directly harm other creatures. Its unsteady design does slow down those that walk on it and it also removes oxygen from the air, changing it into poisonous gas that makes any kind of long term survival in its presence near impossible. Since the Corruption drastically changes habitat, it may be key to the Necromorph infection and it seems to aid them in adapting to the different environments they must deal with.

The Tentacle

Tentacles are massive and either stationary Necromorphs that belong to no other creature or they are part of a bigger Necromorph such as the Leviathan, the Hive Mind or the Tau Volantis Moon. They appear suddenly and grab Isaac to pull him into the hole they come from. They have yellowish-sack on their bodies which acts as the weak point.

The Leviathan

The Leviathan is a large Necromorph entity that collided with the Ishimura as it was drifting in space. It made its way into the Hydroponics Deck of the ship, infesting there the Food Storage. The Leviathan has a large gaping mouth, which has a bulbous orb in the center and three large tentacles. It attacks by swinging with its tentacles, spawning Pods, and spitting out organic bombs. Isaac Clarke confronted this Necromorph in the Hydroponics Deck due to it causing the air to degrade on the whole ship and managed to destroy it.

The Slug

The Slug is another large Necromorph entity that attached itself to the blast doors above Comms Array on the hull of the Ishimura. It is a large, mostly immobile mass, with five large tentacles. Needing to open them to send a message to the USM Valor, Isaac took the helm of one of the asteroid defense cannons and fought it, successfully killing it, and making it detach from the blast doors.

The Hive Mind

The Hive Mind is an enormous Necromorph that seems to be the guiding intellect behind the ones on Aegis VII and the Ishimura. It resembles a segmented worm-like creature with a large circular maw that has two sets of jaws and a number of yellow bulbs that act as weak points. The Hive Mind utilizes large tentacles and spitting acid projectiles to attack and has more yellow bulbs in its lower body. It was created by the military testing their experimental Red Marker 200 years before the outbreak. However, when the Marker proved too dangerous, the experiments were abandoned and it was used to suppress the Hive Mind. After the Marker was taken aboard the Ishimura, the Hive Mind was awakened, beginning the Necromorph outbreak. Isaac Clarke managed to return it on Aegis VII, suppressing the Hive Mind once again, but after Kendra Daniels tried to retake the Marker, the Necromorph reawakened. It killed Kendra and attacked Isaac, but he managed to bring it down and the destruction of the planet destroyed it completely.

The Tormenter

The Tormenter is a massive Necromorph, formed from numerous corpses. It has a lean serpentine build with a large fanged maw and mandibles on its head. The Tormenter has long arms, connected to its body by yellow tissue, which act as a weak point, and the rest of its body is a mess of spikes and tissue. This Necromorph is quite strong, able to deal with fire from a gunship without any sign of damage. The Tormenter attacked Isaac after he dropped down a vent to escape Tiedmann's forces. It managed to grab Isaac, who succeeded in escaping its grasp and it pursued him onto Tiedmann's gunship, grabbing him when he tried to jettison away. However, the Tormenter tore off the ship's fuel canisters and Isaac shot them, destroying the Necromorph in the explosion.

The Ubermorph

The The Ubermorph is a unique Necromorph, notable for the fact that it has no human traits in its design. It is built similarly to the Slasher, though a good deal bulkier, and has a pair of small arm-like appendages on its torso, in addition to its larger clawed arms. Like the Hunter, the Ubermorph is able to regenerate itself, making it practically impossible to kill. After Isaac deactivated the power in the government sector, letting the Necromorphs swarm it, the Ubermorph found its way inside as well. As Isaac started to find the secrets of stopping the Marker, the Ubermorph pursued him and he was forced to constantly escape the Necromorph. The Ubermorph was finally destroyed after the Titan Station's reactor exploded.

Flier

Fliers are the winged Necromorphs that are capable of flight. A Flier seems to consist of an upper torso twisted and flayed into a shape vaguely resembling a stingray, topped by a partially-skinned human skull and possessing a 'tail', presumably composed of either intertwined nerves, a dangling spinal column, or both. The arms are twisted forwards and fused to the cheeks, forming a crude "frame" for the wings. Human lungs can be seen attached to the Flier's back that have been mutated into chemical production chambers to help them fly.

Grabber

Grabers are stationary Necromorphs that attack their victims by using mutated elongated necks to grab their victim with it's head that has multiple sharp teeth. On the outside, the host's body looks normal but most of the main body's mass has been transformed to make and store the Grabber's extremely long, muscular neck and serrated blade from host's spinal cord.

The Graverobber

The Graverobber is a Necromorph that was supposed to appear in the animated short film Dead Space: Downfall, but was finally cut most likely due to time constraints. Originally, it would have pursued Alissa Vincent until getting smashed by the Ishimura's centrifuge.

The Graverobber has a bear-like stance and possesses three jawless heads and pincers. It also has large, Slasher-like blades. The most interesting part about this creature is that its upper half is composed of the dead bodies of Ramirez, Samuel Irons and the shower woman. This Necromorph would find deceased bodies and within seconds fully eat the body.

Medusa

Medusas act similar to Nests as they can be found in Zero Gravity areas and shoot homing missiles at the victim with the exception that they are mobile and instead of being created from the human corpse, they are believed to be derived from a lifeform native to the planet of Tau Volantis.

Swarm

Swarm are small spider like Necromorphs that attack en masse their victim in attempt to take the control of the body or to reanimate the nearest dead body to turn it into either a Fodder or a Slasher.

The Brethren Moons, also known as Brother Moons or Blood Moons, are colossal moon-sized Necromorphs and are discovered to be the true source of the signals from the Markers. They're believed to be the final stage of the life cycle of the Necromorph race and are colossal sized lovecraftian entities that span across the universe infecting and consuming entire worlds and species as a means of continuing the existence of their own kind. Because of their nature and agenda, they serve as the de-facto gods of the Unitology cult religion and they are the main antagonists of the entire Dead Space franchise. They later serve as the main antagonist of the DLC Dead Space: Awakened .

Origins

The true origins and source of the Brethren Moon remain a mystery as it remains unknown where they truely came from. What is known is that they are a species of moon-sized creatures based throughout the known universe that consume all known life on various worlds that they come across using the signals and powers of the Markers. Markers are created and sent throughout the universe and land on various worlds throughout the known universe. Earth was one such world where a Marker landed on the planet 65 million years ago in prehistoric times and wouldn't be discovered until the early 23rd Century. It's unknown if the Brethren Moon knew that intelligent life existed on Earth and sent the Markers there or if they simply sent them in any direction across space. It's also possible that the Markers themselves were responsible for the evolution of intelligent life on Earth as theorized by Unitologist militant, Jacob Danik.

After landing on a planet, the Markers will let out an electromagnetic signal originating from the Brethren Moons themselves and use it to atract the attention of any species native to the planet that they've landed on. The signal greatly effects the natives mentally and manifests itself in other organic beings as dementia or a complusion and desire to create new Markers through artificial methods, such as the Red Marker created by humanity in replication to the original Black Marker. Because of the power s of the Markers and how much energy that they individually hold, there's been attempts to replicate Markers and research and harvest them as a means of providing an energy resource to meet high demands such as the Red Marker on Earth following the depletion of natural resources by the 23rd Century. The signal however, also serves another purpose; alter necrotic tissue on a molecular level and cause the reanimation of corpses into becoming horrific creatures known as Necromorphs.

After the Necromorphs have infested most of the planet's population, many Markers will ignite a signal and begin a Convergence event, an event in which living, dead, and Necromorph tissue is merged together to form a singel entity and flies into the stratosphere of the Marker where they begin to fuse and ultimately form a new Brethren Moon making Convergence the birthing process for the entire species. The moon will not only absorb organic tissue, it will also absord parts of the planet itself and it helps make its colossal moon-sized appearance. The creature is only finalized when the creators of the Marker are absorbed into it along with the rest of the planet's biosphere and the Marker itself levitates towards the center and heart of the Moon to broadcast its signal revealing its formation and continue broadcasting to other Markers across the universe. It's unknown what happens to the Moon after it absorbs all organic life in its birthsite, but it's assumed that it moves on and heads toward the next planet to find a new source of organic life and a new source of food to maintain itself.

Dead Space 3

During the events of Dead Space 3, Isaac Clarke comes to realize that the Marker signals that Markers receive are a distress call from the incomplete moon of Tau Volantis, which was forced into a hibernation state when the alien race it was attempting to lure and assimilate built a machine to freeze over the entire planet, preventing the monstrosity from becoming whole and continuing on in the galaxy. As a result, the Moon began deploying distress signals through its alien Markers, hoping to bring new organic beings to disable the machine preventing its growth, which would allow it to continue its assimilation of the galaxy. The faux Markers that Isaac had been facing were attempting to continue the "Brethren Chain" of Moons by circumventing the hibernating Tau Volantis Moon. He also realizes that if the moon is freed from its frozen hibernation, any location within the galaxy with a still active Marker will begin the ultimate Convergence, continuing the growth of the Tau Volantis Moon.

The Moon's completion would then awaken the other completed Brethren Moons which would subsequently head for the Marker locations and devour all organic life present, resulting in the inevitable destruction of humanity and possibly all life in the galaxy.

In the final chapter, the Unitology terrorist Jacob Danik shuts down the machine keeping the moon frozen and effectively awakens the slumbering creature. However, Isaac manages to reconfigure the alien machine and destroy the Tau Volantis Moon by using the machine to pull the massive Necromorph into the planet's surface. The Moon's destruction causes all the Markers to cease broadcasting their signals, ending the danger they pose to the rest of the galaxy. However, in the Awakened DLC, it is confirmed that before the Tau Volantis moon was destroyed, it contacted the rest of its brothers and they have made their way to Earth to consume it.

Battle 11: Me and Super Android 17

Me and the 2 Android 17's were on the desert planet of Shia, a desert planet located 1,165.5 light-years away from Earth.

Me: So I'm going to face 2 Android 17's this time.

Android 1: No we are just two split into one.

Me: Huh? What do you mean by that?

Android 17 2: (Chuckles) We are but one split in two.

Android 17 1: But that's about to change.

Their eyes glowed red and they were glowing in a yellow light and it was bright. The two 17's merged and they were enveloped in a powerful ball of energy and its power was incredible! It vanished and they turned into SUPER ANDROID 17 and the level of power he had was staggeringly mindboggling!

---

Super 17 is the second of the three arch-villains in Dragon Ball GT, and the main antagonist of the Super 17 Saga. He is a fusion of Android 17 and his counterpart Hell Fighter 17.

Creation

In the depths of Hell, Dr Gero., who created the deadly androids, and Dr Myuu., who created the Machine Mutants, including Baby, collaborated. They sought to make the ultimate fighter and planned to merge Android 17 with a Machine Mutant of their creation, making the ultimate machine killer. Gero and Myuu built Hell Fighter 17, who brainwashed 17, then had them both combine their energies to create a portal out of Hell. This the two doctors, along with a great deal of other previously defeated villains, escape. 17 proceeded to try and get Android 18 to join them, but Krillin interfered and 17 blasted him to death without a second thought. Enraged, 18 attacked him, but he didn't fall so easily and tried to kill her as well, though he eventually left to met up with Hell Fighter 17. The two managed to meet up as Hell Fighter 17 was fighting Vegeta and the two fused into one, becoming Super 17.

Battling the Z Fighters

Super 17 powered up before being attacked by Vegeta, whom he knocked aside with one blow. The Saiyan Prince went Super Saiyan, but was still beaten when the super android turned his power against him. Majuub, Trunks, Goten, and Gohan all attacked Super 17 to no avail and Dr. Gero commanded him to show his true power. The super android proceeded to strike them all down with one hit and they tried going Super Saiyan again. However Super 17 used a Flash Bomb to weaken them so that they reverted to their normal forms. He continued to easily beat them all, until Pan grabbed Dr. Gero from behind, demanding that he call off Super 17. Gero tried to do as she asked but the super android refused to listen and Dr. Myuu revealed he'd programmed Super 17 so that he had full control. The super android proceeded to blast Gero, killing him again. However Goku returned to Earth, having been stuck in Hell, with help from Piccolo and Dende, saving Vegeta from one of Super 17's energy blasts. The Saiyan engaged the super android, who attacked with his Super Flash Bomb and Goku tried dodging with Instant Transmission but Super 17 detected and blasted at him. The Saiyan assaulted the super android with energy blasts, not realizing that they were just making him stronger.

Eventually Goku transformed into a Super Saiyan 4, allowing him to fight on an even level. However Super 17 continued absorbing Goku's energy attacks and by the time Goku realized what was happening, he'd become too powerful and started overwhelming the Saiyan.

Seeing no other option, Goku grabbed onto Super 17 to try a self-destruction attack, which the super android didn't think he would do. He was partly correct since the explosion Goku generated wasn't strong enough to kill either of them and Super 17 was unaffected completely. However 18 arrived to avenge Krillin and called the super android weak and pathetic for being controlled by someone else and said the 17 she knew wasn't a cold-blooded killer. 18 said that if Super 17 attacked, she'd detonate the self-destruct device inside her, (which was a lie since it had been removed before) which fooled the super android. 18's words had an affect on Super 17 and Dr. Myuu angrily ordered the super android to destroy Goku and 18 with his Shocking Death Ball.. However this made Super 17 turn on Myuu, blasting him with the Shocking Death Ball instead. 18 began firing energy blasts at Super 17, only for him to just keep absorbing them.

But this let Goku find a weakness in the super android, when he was absorbing energy, he was vulnerable to other attacks. He used his Dragon Fist on Super 17, piercing his body then finished him with a Kamehameha blast. Android 17 had actually been influencing Super 17 so that he would reveal this weakness which meant that he was trying to fight the entire time.

Powers and Abilities

Due to being a machine, Super 17 has superhuman natural abilities and can fire energy blasts, as well as fly with use of a machine called Hikou in his body. By concentrating, his senses can become heightened to the point he can sense changes in the air and sound, allowing Super 17 to catch even the most stealthy opponent though this ability can be countered with loud noise. He can detach his hand to fire a barrage of countless bullets from a cannon hidden in his arm and generate an energy barrier around himself for defense. Super 17 can use an attack called Flash Bomb, where he puts his hands forward with the fingers outstretched, then concentrates energy into his fingers, before firing several hundred small energy blasts from them. Super 17 can also use a powerful attack called the Shocking Death Ball, where he places his hands forward, then generates a large black energy sphere with a gray and black energy center and fires it at his opponent, leaving behind a black energy trail and generating a nuke sized explosion upon impact. Considering that he is more powerful than most foes Goku faced even before he became a Super Saiyan Four, Super 17 is likely a solar system threat at the very least.

Super 17 can leave behind afterimages of himself and also has an energy absorption ability similar to Android 19 and 20. He does it by spreading his arms and legs in a star-like shape, generating an invisible field, which absorbs any energy that comes near Super 17, and adds to his own power. It is unknown if there is any limit on the energy he can absorb with this power, but he is open to physical attacks while using it. This allowed Goku to finish him off with the help of 18.

Super 17's greatest weakness might be his more humane side. Because of 18's pleas, he ended up falling for her trick as he did not suspect that she would be willing to kill her brother even if it meant avenging her husband. This lead to his defeat once Goku found out that he could not withstand physical attacks when absorbing energry.

Power Level

Super #17's power level is listed at 1,500,000,000 in Scouter Battle Kamehameha. It increases even higher to 1,799,926,758 in a special mission in-game.

Notable Techniques Ki Absorption Barrier

Android #17 can put up an Energy Barrier capable of Absorbing Ki. Like with the normal 17, this can also protect him from any damage.

Thunder Eraser

Super #17 moves sideways very close to his opponent as he charges a purple and black energy sphere on his hand. Then, he fires a small yellow energy wave out of the energy sphere at the opponent with a Rush Ki Wave, inflicting a great amount of damage.

Hell's Storm

Super 17 removes one of his hands, revealing a built-in machine gun underneath. He then fires many bullets from the gun's rotating barrel. It is very similar to Android 16's Hell Flash except even more powerful because of Super 17's higher power level. Because of this, he can harm and possibly even damage fighters that are normally immune to bullets.

Flash Bomber

Super 17 places both of his hands forward with his fingers stretching out, concentrating energy into his fingertips. He then fires several hundred small yellow energy waves that act as a machine gun type blast. He also seems to be able to fire the attack in a cone shape, causing a shotgun effect. It is similar to Omega Shenron's Dragon Flash Bullet .

Super Flash Bomber

A much stronger and larger version of the Flash Bomber.

Hell Lightning Cutter

An attack Super 17 develops after absorbing his sister in Dragon Ball Heroes . It is him putting his hands in front of his face and then he extends his arms to create balls of energies coming from both the palm of his hands. These balls then turn to be discs, much like Krillin's Destructo Disc. Super 17 throws these discs and before hit the opponent, they merge into each other, forming a much larger and deadly disc, ultimately reaching the opponent and striking one for some time. It explodes on contact with the target, inflicting massive damage.

Blitz Hell Ball

Known more commonly as the Electric Eclipse Bomb or Shocking Death Ball . It is Android Super 17's ultimate attack. To use it, Super 17 places his hands forward as if he were going to do a Flash Bomb attack, only he forms a sphere of deep black energy that has another gray sphere inside it that turns black in the center and has red electricity flowing around it. If he charges the attack for a few seconds, it seems to take on a decagon shape, but most commonly looks like a circle. Once he fires it, it leaves a shot black trail of energy behind before it hits the target, very easily causing a nuke-sized explosion that destroys everything caught in the explosion.

I gasped in shock!

Me: WHOA! They became a Super Android!

Super 17: That's right. I am now Super 17.

Me: Wow! I don't know how Dr. Gero did all this but your power is incredible. I may not be feeling any energy from you but if you had a power level I would estimate it to be at 1.5 billion.

Super 17: You are indeed correct. When we were separate we had a power level of each of 750,000,000. Now I have double that power.

Me: Unbelievable. Even in death, Dr. Gero just will never learn. This is gonna be just as brutal as the battle with Omega Shenron. Maybe 100 times worse. Now it's time for me to kick it to the extreme.

I unleashed the full extent of my power and went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 500,000,000 and my power was at maximum.

Super 17: So this is the full extent of your power J.D.

Me: (Divine Echoing Voice of Light) It sure is. But just for the record, your sister Lazuli misses you. You were once known as Lapis and you were killed when Dr. Gero found you and Lazuli and turned you into Androids and programed you both to destroy Goku all just for revenge.

Super 17: I know and I miss her a lot. But I will still carry out my mission.

Me: I had a feeling you would. But I will stop you and save you from Gero's influence. It's time for Android 17 to become a forgotten memory and for Lapis to return to normal.

Super 17: Then come get me.

Me: Your overconfidence will be your undoing. You may be twice as strong but power levels usual don't mean anything. But if you insist…

I went at Super 17 and teleported and kicked him in the face and knocked him down and he got up and pulled his hand off and it had a machine gun ready to fire.

Super 17: HELL STORM!

He fired a massive barrage of bullets at me and I was running fast and dodging them all over the place and really dodging them. I then teleported and kicked him in the back of the head and smashed him down and he got up.

Super 17: I admire your tenacity J.D. I'm impressed you are able to match my power like this.

Me: Keep on being overconfident and we'll see.

Super 17: Yes we will.

He formed a massive Electro Eclipse Bomb.

Me: So that's it.

I did the same.

Me and Super 17: ELECTRO ECLIPSE BOMB!

We fired both our energy bombs at the same time and they collided and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The massive explosion decimated much of the planet with devastating fury and more and we went at each other and punched and kicked with merciless fury and it was unbelievable! We were punching and kicking and massive fiery and explosive shockwaves and explosions were shaking the planet and more.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM
KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM
KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

I punched him in the face and knocked him down. Then he got back up and flew into the air.

Me: (In my head) I have an idea.

I fired numerous energy blasts of incredible power at him and they hit him and he was absorbing them and getting stronger and stronger.

Me: (In my head) In that state as he's absorbing energy he's vulnerable. This is my chance! (Out loud) SHADOW CLONE!

I formed a shadow clone.

Clone me flew at him.

Clone me: YOU WILL NEVER WIN! (ECHOING) DRAGON FIST!

He was enveloped in a dragon energy structure and it covered my fist and he plowed all the way through him with devastating force and appeared behind him.

I then appeared behind him and my clone dispelled. I fired a beam of light and it hit Super 17 and separated Lapis from him and made him a full fledge Super Android.

Me: KAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEE HAAAAAAAAAAAA MEEEEEEEEEEEEEE!

I charged up a rainbow Kamehameha!

Super 17: You haven't learned anything! It will only make me stronger!

Me: Not this time! HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA!

I fired the rainbow energy blast and it went all the way through

Super 17 and he screamed in pain as he was being completely obliterated into nothing. SUPER ANDROID 17 was dead!

Me: Take that!

I landed and grabbed Lapis and put him on my back.

Lapis: (Groans weakly)

Me: You're gonna be all right Lapis. Lazuli will be grateful you're back. First we need to deal with Dr. Gero for good.

I used Instant Transmission and went to the Otherworld and went to Hell and there I faced DR. GERO!

Me: Dr. Gero.

Dr. Gero: J.D. Knudson. I see you have bested Super 17.

Me: And saved Lapis from your control. But that's not why I'm here. I'm not here to gloat. I'm here to kill you.

Dr. Gero: I'm already dead.

Me: You're gonna be more than just dead. You're gonna be long forgotten.

I held out my hand to him.

Me: HAKAI!

He glowed purple and he was obliterated from existence for all eternity and he will NEVER make his dark dream of revenge happen ever again! He was erased from existence forever.

Me: Hell and the Warp are too good for you. Now lets head back.

I teleported back.

---

Everyone regrouped and they were facing the Turbo Toilet 2000 and

I appeared with a weak Lapis.

Lazuli: Is he gonna be okay?

Me: He'll be fine. I separated him from Super 17 and he is now back with you forever.

Lazuli hugged him and cried.

Me: Master Goku I have good news. I went to the Otherworld and Hakaied Dr. Gero. You are now no longer caught in the crosshairs of his goal of vengeance.

Nico: Awesome!

Goku: That's great! Thank you J.D.

Me: Anytime master. Now lets take this sewage spewing shithole down!

Nico: With pleasure!

We went at the Turbo Toilet 2000 and smashed and pulverized it all over the place and more and really smashed him all over.

Mario: (Italian Accent) It's a plumbing time! PLUMBER STYLE: TOILET PLUNGING STRIKE!

Luigi: (Italian Accent) Lets-a Go! PLUMBER STYLE: SNAKE MACHINE!

Lincoln: LIGHTNING STYLE: ELECTRO HACKSAW!

Lana: PLUMBER STYLE: PLUMBING MANIA!

R. Mika: STRENGTH STYLE: CRIMPERS BARRAGE!

Mai Shiranui: FIRE STYLE: BLAZING TORCH!

Entrapta: TECH STYLE: CRUSHING PLIERS!

Batch: TECH STYLE: VALVE AND PIPE BARRAGE!

They fired blasts of plumber tools and energy and more and they hit the Turbo Toilet and knocked it down.

Elita One, Flik, Calypso and G1 Venom used the Autobot, Animatron and Gigantion Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Elita One's blasters, Flik's and Calypso's powers and G1 Venom's Stinger Fluids 100-fold.

Elita One and Flik: BLASTING ROCK BARRAGE!

Elita One fired energy blasts and Flik fired waves of rocks.

Calypso and G1 Venom: POISON JUNGLE BLAST!

Calypso fired a jungle fire blast and Venom fired an acid blast.

Toiletnator: This toilet freak gives all toilets everywhere a bad name!

Lana: Yeah!

Toiletnator, Captain Underpants, Lana, Patrick Star and Nico: TOILET SMASHING FART BLAST!

They fired a massive blast of fart energy.

Mario: Are you ready Paisanos?

Luigi, Lincoln, R. Mika, Mai, Entrapta, and Batch: Let's do it!

Mario, Luigi, Lincoln,, Mai, Entrapta and Batch: FINAL SMASH: PLUMBER TOOL BARRAGE!

The blasts all hit the Turbo Toilet 2000 and obliterated it into nothing. We powered down.

Me: Take that toilet freak!

We powered down.

Nico: That's one toilet we won't be using ever again.

Captain Underpants: I think that's the last of the talking toilets.

Unicorn: Glad to hear it!

Aqueduct: From now on, the only toilets I want to see are the non moving ones!

Me: And the ones we all know.

Eddy: Yeah!

Lola: That's right!

Nico: But this was a lot of Potty Fights. (Laughs) That was funny.

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Nico!

Me: That was funny. Now lets pay a visit to Melvin.

We went to Antarctica.

ANTARCTICA PRISON

Melvin Sneedly was sitting in his cell.

Melvin: (GROWLS) I hate Harold and George and Krupp! Especially that brat comedian Luan!

But then a swirl of darkness exploded out in front of him.

Count Spankulot: (Transylvanian Accent) Those who make toilets that will kill all of humanity are bad and must be punished Melvin Sneedly. Prepare to feel the Stingy Wrath of COUNT SPANKULOT!

SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK SMACK!

Count Spankulot: (LAUGHING MALEVOLENTLY!)

Melvin then got the worst spanking ever as he was spanked so bad and hard that it made his butt bleed! OUCH!

Me: Yikes that has to hurt.

Nico: No shit.

Harold Hutchins: He deserves it.

Nico: Yep.

Captain Underpants: (To the viewers) Don't be like Melvin or you will be getting the worst spanking ever.

Me: Big time.

We went back home.

THE END

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

The Talking Toilets of Captain Underpants was a funny one. I never read the book or saw the villains in the movie but they were funny. I hope you all got a good laugh out of this from the toilet humor. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. I'm gonna take a 3 day break starting tomorrow from March 9th to March 12th. I need to give my brain a rest. But the next chapter after my break will be for one of my favorite video games: Kirby and The Crystal Shards for Nintendo 64, one of my favorite childhood games and it was awesome. We're going to help Ribbon, Kirby and friends take down Zero-2 and the Dark Matter and make sure it never terrorizes the universe again. It's gonna be awesome as we journey across different stars all over the Kirby Universe and save it from destruction.

See you all on March 12th.

Dark Matter in The Dream World

POW!

I punched a man in the face with incredible force. But this wasn't any ordinary man. This was an old enemy that was responsible for unleashing the terrors of the Necromorphs aboard the Ishimura Space Colony. It was CHALLUS MERCER! The Unitology Cult Leader from the events of chapter 784.

---

Challus Mercer is the secondary antagonist of the video game Dead Space .

History

Doctor Challus Mercer was a scientist aboard the USG Ishimura, and was a devout Unitologist to the point of zealotry. Mercer became fanatically obsessed with the Necromorphs after the ship was compromised and the infection spread; he believed them to be the successors to the human race and that their ability to reanimate necrotic flesh was life after death. Mercer performed several medical experiments on the crew of the USG Ishimura, one of which resulted in the Hunter. While ordinary Necromorphs are usually produced by the infection of corpses, audio logs suggest that Mercer's experiments were aimed at transmitting the infection to live subjects, which may have caused the Hunter's unique regenerative properties. When Isaac Clarke encountered Dr. Mercer, Mercer appeared psychologically unstable; he advocated mass suicide amongst the crew, and kept severed human body parts in his office. He viewed the human race as obsolete in the face of the Necromorphs, even to the extent of assisting the infection by way of deliberate sabotage to ship systems. He viewed Isaac Clarke's struggle to survive as admirable but misguided, and attempted to kill him on several occasions by both having the Hunter attack Isaac and shutting off life support in sections of the Ishimura Isaac traveled through. Mercer also murdered Jacob Temple and Elizabeth Cross, the former in front of Isaac. After Isaac finally destroyed the Hunter, Mercer allowed himself to be killed by an Infector, thereby becoming a Necromorph - an Enhanced Slasher. Isaac Clarke encountered the changed Mercer and euthanized him.

The player can kill Mercer before the transformation is complete, which would be his ultimate defeat as he would be denied his "rebirth" as a Necromorph.

---

Me: You and I have an old score to settle Mercer!

Mercer: Just like the filthy heretic I remember.

Me: You are the fucking heretic you monster! You killed almost everyone aboard the Ishimura with your pet friends the Necromorphs! Don't you even realize how dangerous they are to the entire universe!? They will destroy everything! They want to kill everything and spread their terror all over the universe and kill all life as we know it!

Alicia: Yeah you monster! You don't care!

Susie Berricks: They nearly killed all of us!

Nicole Brennan: How can you not care about that!?

Mercer: Because I only care about uniting the worlds.

Me: Your form of unification has resulted in the deaths of countless lifeforms all over the universe! You would rather see them all suffer and burn rather than help out. Now you will die like you should have! The Anti-Unitology Conglomerate will never allow a terrible menace like the Necromorphs or the Brethren Moons to terrorize this universe of ours ever again!

Isaac Clarke: I won't allow you to get away with everything you've done!

I fired an energy blast and Isaac, Alicia, Susie and Nicole fired blasts of Light, fire, water and lightning and the blasts all hit Mercer and obliterated him in an instant and banished him to the Warp forever.

Next we were going after a bad Internet Troll that goes by the name of Cheesepuff Mike. He was a troll that Uncle Grandpa and Mr. Gus faced before and he has a really nasty disposition. He hates Uncle Grandpa and hates everyone. He gets a great thrill out of destroying peoples spirits by posting flaming comments on videos and pictures on the Internet.

Cheesepuff Mike: (Evil Laughter)

Me: (From behind him) You are in big trouble you sicko!

Cheesepuff Mike: Nyol! What are you doing here!? I was just about to post another comment on Uncle Grandpa's video page. (Typing) "Uncle Grandpa is a Shitnosed Mustache Freak!"

Uncle Grandpa: Hey! That one really hurt!

Me: You better apologize to him or this is gonna hurt (Cracks Knuckles) Real Bad!

Carol: Yeah!

Cheesepuff Mike: Nyol! How's this for an apology? (Typing) "Uncle Grandpa can Go to Hell!"

Me: (GROWLS)

Uncle Grandpa: This troll makes me sick!

Me: Don't they all.

Carol fired a blast of atomic energy at the computer and destroyed it.

Carol: And now for the troll.

Carol fired a blast of atomic energy at Cheesepuff Mike and burned him all over and revealed his true form! He was really a full-fledge troll! And he was now a statue!

Me: What the!? He REALLY WAS a Troll!

Nico: A REAL ONE!? I thought Internet Troll was just a slang term.

Me: Me too. But one thing is for sure this troll will never touch any computer again.

I smashed him and reduced him to fine powder and banished him to the Warp.

Next I was in the Moon Prison talking to our friend Kendra Daniels.

---

Kendra Daniels was the computer specialist of the USG Kellion emergency maintenance team and the main antagonist of Dead Space .

She was voiced and modeled after Tonantzin Carmelo.

Shortly after the crash landing of the USG Kellion, the crew make their way into the Ishimura's Flight Lounge. There, the crew are attacked by Necromorphs who immediately dispatch the two lower ranked security personnel. The crew scatters; Kendra flees with Hammond, while Isaac Clarke makes his own route to (relative) safety. She and Hammond contact Isaac from the bridge as he moves through the ship, guiding him toward various locations until she and Hammond are attacked by a Leaper.

The Necromorph drives them from the bridge, separating Kendra from Hammond. After finding refuge in the USG Ishimura s computer core, Kendra keeps in contact with Isaac Clarke and Zach Hammond through their RIG links, while using her computer skills to assist them with their tasks around the ship; like by overriding secured doors throughout the ship as well as uncover the mystery behind the vessel's infestation. She frequently expresses distrust of Hammond, suspecting he knows more about the Marker than he lets on. She behaves much more frantically than both Hammond and Isaac, often urging them to abort the mission and focus on escape.

Later on in the game, the Marker's influence begins to take its toll on Kendra, causing her to hallucinate. She says that she keeps seeing her brother, at one point waving at her from a security monitor, even though "it's not possible", hinting that he is dead. Although she later accuses Isaac of becoming insane, she appears to have forgotten her own hallucinations, and may be unaware of her own damaged sanity or just used her supposed hallucinations as a ruse.

Betrayal and Death

Towards the end of the game, Kendra is supposed to leave her position in the computer core of the USG Ishimura to meet up with Isaac and Terrence Kyne at the escape shuttle; however, she had already made her way there and had concealed herself inside. As Isaac prepares to board the ship, Kendra shoots Dr. Kyne in the chest with a Divet pistol, in order to secure the shuttle. Dr. Kyne quickly dies as the shuttle takes off and exits the ship, effectively stranding Isaac in USG Ishimura.

While on the shuttle, Kendra (through her RIG link) reveals herself to be a covert agent, who was specially selected by 'higher ups' to be onboard the USG Kellion mission. She also tells the true origin of the Marker, and its purpose. Kendra bids Isaac farewell, but Nicole Brennan shows Isaac how to recall the stolen shuttle. Kendra's ship is then pulled back into the USG Ishimura landing bay, but Kendra activates an escape pod, and lands on the Aegis VII colony safely. Isaac, with the guidance of Nicole, takes the Marker back to the colony and places it on it's pedestal. Kendra then appears after Isaac cannot go back to the pedestal, and reveals to Isaac that Nicole was dead the whole time, he has been having hallucinations generated by the Marker.

By removing the Marker, this will lead to her own demise .

She then attempts to take the Marker back to the shuttle for transport to government custody. Isaac reaches the shuttle just as Kendra prepares to take off. Before she can depart, The Hive Mind rises up from the mining crater and smacks her away from the ship with a tendril. Kendra screamed in terror before one of the tentacles smashes down onto her, knocking her unconscious. It then rolls her across the pad and then throws her at the sharp corner of a wall, the force of the impact destroying her head and sending two limbs flying. Her body then crashes down sending her other limbs flying completely dismembering her. Kendra's cardiac monitor then immediately flatlines, signaling her death.

Kendra failed her mission to recover the marker, as it was destroyed alongside the Hive Mind. Despite the losses, the government would continue to make markers, and used Isaac and other subjects' brains to create more (since their minds had been exposed to the Marker).

---

Kendra Daniels: I don't understand J.D. Why did you save me after all the pain I caused when I was helping you out?

Me: Because you helped us during the Terror of The Necromorphs and that shows that you have a lot of good in you. You are not fully brainwashed as you were lead to believe. But Kendra there is more to the Necromorphs than what you know as well as the Marker. I did some research on The Marker and I found out some really dark info. The Marker acts like a beacon and a radio antenna. It acts like a transmitter and emits a powerful psychic energy from the Brethren Moons that causes people to go cuckoo mad and see things that are never there and all that. It's why many people went insane. It's because of the psychic energy from The Marker. The Markers also act like a beacon so that the Brethren Moons can know which planet to kill next. The Brethren Moons are the main beings of the Necromorphs and they were the cause of them invading the Ishimura. The Brethren Moons are as big as entire planets and they act like a cancer. A parasite and they suck that entire planet dry of life and turn their lifeforms into Necromorphs. They are that dangerous and they pose that big of a threat to all life in the entire universe.

Kendra gasped in shock. She was being lead to her death. She was also duped into thinking that the Necromorphs and the Marker could be used for good. But she was dead wrong. The Necromorphs, The Brethren Moons, The Marker, it's all pure evil. They are monsters that are set on destroying all life in the entire universe.

Kendra Daniels: I had no idea. What have I done!? WHAT HAVE I DONE!? (Crying Hard)

I went into her cell and comforted her and she was crying hard into my chest and I pat her back. Kendra crying was hurting my heart and it was sad. She realized that she was being used as a pawn and a tool all for some false godship and false unification. For 35 minutes, Kendra was crying and she was so exhausted from all of it that she fell asleep. I took her to the estate and put her in her own room. She went through enough punishment because of the Necromorphs and the Ishimura and Mercer and the Marker.

She deserves a chance at redemption after everything that happened.

Later at the Burpin Burger we all were there for an awesome eating contest. Me and Nico were having the contest.

James: (Pokemon) Are you guys having another eating contest?

Me: We sure are. We're participating in that.

Everyone saw a poster for a deadly eating contest. It was called the Nova Dragon Burger Bucket Challenge. We were gonna eat a bucket full of Fire In Your Belly Burgers in 25 minutes and they were all covered in a nuclear hot deadly hot sauce made with the hottest peppers and extracts in the world and the universe and it was gonna be deadly.

Everyone gasped.

May: WHOA MAN!

Lori: This challenge will literally kill them!

Lucy Loud: I'll be sure to say something nice at your funerals.

Vince: Been nice knowing you boss.

Me: It'll take more than a bunch of spice to kill me.

Nico: Me too.

2 staff members came out wearing radiation suits and they had buckets full of burgers that were glowing a powerful neon red and they had the buckets in safety tongs so they wouldn't get burned. The buckets were glowing red hot from how hot they were and even my Geiger counter was going crazy.

Me: Whoa! Those look lethal.

Nico: No kidding. But this is gonna be awesome!

We had the buckets placed in front of us and we got the contest started. As we were eating massive pillars of fire exploded out of us and we were literally on fire and surging with power as it was making us stronger.

Lola: WHOA! That is hot!

Lynn: Man these guys are tough!

Lori: Yeah!

Gardenia: I'll get some milk to cool you guys down.

Me: (Eating) Don't need it.

Nico: (Eating) Me neither.

We were enveloped in powerful auras of pure fire that was so strong that not even the most powerful fire magic users could even comprehend.

Sunset Shimmer: Whoa! That fire is strong!

Pepperdance: Ooowee! These guys are stronger than me in terms of spice!

Cayenne: No kidding! Wow!

Jared: Powerful!

Nico then fell to the table in pain and I finished my burgers first.

Me: Ahh.

Manager: And the winner is J.D. Knudson! He is the first ever winner of the Nova Dragon Burger Bucket Challenge!

Everyone cheered wildly for me!

But then my stomach grumbled.

Me: Uh oh.

Rainbow Dash: TAKE COVER!

Transquito: Every Cybertronian for himself! (turns into mosquito form and flies out of the danger zone)

Everyone ducked.

BBBBBUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUUU

I let out a massive and monstrous belch and a massive jet of fire exploded out of my mouth and it went out of the restaurant and it went all the way to a hideout of an evil crime gang in Ohio and it hit the hideout and exploded! Incinerating the entire hideout and killing everyone in it.

When the jet of flames faded, I had smoke coming out of my mouth.

Me: Pardon me.

Everyone cheered wildly for me.

Lori: And the new spicy food champion is J.D. KNUDSON!

Laney: Way to go J.D.!

Varie: Yeah! (Kisses me) (Lips burn) WHOA! That is spicy! I like it.

Chromia: Are you guys proud of yourselves?

Me: We sure are.

Nico: (COUGHS SMOKE AND FIRE) (WHEEZING) I'M NOT! SO HOT!

May: Poor Nico.

Maria: I'll cool you down buddy.

Maria fired a wave of water and it went into his mouth and a huge cloud of steam came out of his mouth.

Nico: Ahh. Thanks Maria.

Maria: No problem.

Salem: But that was intensely spicy.

Nico: No kidding. Lynn I don't know how you and your friends do it but you are really tough people.

Lynn: Thanks Nico.

Margo: We sure are.

Paula: Yeah.

I was given a medal and a t-shirt and free burgers for life.

---

Later at the World Tree Estate we were getting ready to head out to Kirby's home world, Dreamland.

Donna: So, we're going back to Dreamland with Kirby, right?

Me: We sure are. We're gonna see how everything is doing since it merged with our would.

Natilee: It'll be awesome to see it again. But my scepter has showed that something is going on in the Dream World System. I don't know what it is but whatever it is it's not good.

Me: Well then we better find out what it is.

Nico: Yeah.

Unicorn, Copperhead, Selene, Girder, Gearhead, Aqueduct, Cluemaster, and Whiplash then appeared.

Unicorn: Can me, Copperhead, Selene, Girder, Gearhead, Aqueduct, Cluemaster, and Whiplash come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can. We're heading to the world of Kirby.

Girder: Cool! I love the Kirby Games.

Molly Malloy: Me too! Kirby is so cute!

Britney Crosby: He sure is! Who can resist how cute he is?

Zan Partizanne: He sure is cute.

Flamberge: We think so too.

Francisca: Me too!

Lola: Kirby is one of the cutest.

Me: He sure is.

Lucy opened a portal and we were off to Dreamland.

POP STAR

In the world of Pop Star we arrived.

Kevin Levin: So this is Pop Star?

Me: Yep. This is gonna be so cool seeing more of Kirby's world.

Nico: It sure is.

Stacy Bolton: I was told so much about Kirby's world and it's awesome.

Laney: And the best part is that we can do anything we want in here.

It's all part of the dream world.

Spike: It sure is. (Spike turns into a knight) Yeah!

Nico: Now that is cool!

May: I've always wanted to try this. (May turned into an amazing dragon) YEAH!

Nico: Wow! May you look incredible as a dragon!

May: Thanks Nico. Hop on.

Nico hopped on and they flew around.

Nico: YEAH!

Me: Wow!

Princess Luna: As Princess of the night, I can safely say that Dreamland is fine so far.

Gari: It sure is.

Me: Well we just got here so lets take a look around just to be sure.

Nico: Agreed.

Vince: One can hope it's safe.

We walked around and then a crystal shard hit me on the head.

BONK!

Me: Ow! (Sees the shard) What the?

I picked up the shard.

Rarity: That crystal is beautiful.

Me: It sure is. But where did it come from?

Nico: No idea.

Then we saw a fairy fall and land by us.

Nicole: Ribbon?

Natilee: Uh oh.

Ribbon: (Gasp) Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Kirby, thank goodness I found you all. My people and my home world are in terrible danger!

Kirby: Ribbon!

Ribbon: Kirby!

They hugged.

Me: Uh oh. That must mean that Ribbon's world Ripple Star is in trouble.

Nicole: I was just about to say that dad. I have a strong feeling that a familiar foe I know is back.

Natilee: I don't like the sound of that.

Nico: Me neither.

May: Yeah.

Nicole: I remember in the game Kirby and The Crystal Shards that we're gonna have to go to 7 worlds.

Cluemaster: Hmm. Based on how many worlds there are in Dreamland, we'll also have to deal with the bosses that live in each one.

Nicole: And this is gonna be an awesome adventure. As the Goddess of Video Games, I love a great challenge and an awesome adventure.

Natilee: I do too. It's so awesome.

Francisca: You said it!

Flamberge: I love a good battle.

Then Evil Green Ranger, Loki, INSTIGATOR, Carmen Dillo, Grumblemon, Eris, Trumbipulor and Firepower then appeared.

Me: Evil Green Ranger, Loki, INSTIGATOR, Carmen Dillo, Grumblemon, Eris, Trumbipulor and Firepower.

Loki: Good seeing you all here.

Grumblemon: It's amazing here.

Me: We're not having our usual battles already are we?

Firepower: No. Not now.

Evil Green Ranger: We've figured out how the usual battles are going to work.

Maria: Really?

Loki: Each of us will have our respective battle in each of the worlds you'll go to.

May: So basically, it's like our final mission against Oogie.

INSTIGATOR: Exactly! We'll let you guys know when the first usual battle will be.

Carmen Dillo: For now, just continue what you're doing.

Me: Cool! This is gonna be awesome!

Nico: That covers more ground and it will help a lot.

Naruto: It sure will.

Me: Lets get moving guys.

The Masters of Evil teleported and waited.

We walked around Pop Star and it was beautiful and amazing.

Lola: Wow. Pop Star is more beautiful than what I remember.

Lana: It sure is.

Fu: I think it's amazing. It's like Heaven.

Natilee: And the coolest part is in this world you can do anything you want.

Maria: You sure can. The power of dreams works amazingly.

Lori: It sure does.

Natilee: Time for me to call in the special forces.

Natilee put on her ring for the Dream Crusade.

Natilee: (Celtic Accent) DREAM CRUSADE, BRING DREAMS TO ALL!

She held up her ring and a beam of green energy and it formed into a Celtic Crescent Moon and a portal appeared and out came all of the Dream Crusade!

Meta Knight: We're home.

King Dedede: Looks like something is going on here.

Adeleide: No kidding.

Natilee: We got a huge crisis here Crusaders. Lets go help out.

We kept walking until we came across a big tree in the middle of a clearing in the force. The tree moved and had a face form and it was none other than the first boss: WHISPY WOODS!

---

Whispy Woods is a recurring boss in the Kirby series. He is one of the most recognizable characters and is often seen in forests.

Biography

Whispy Woods is a common opponent to Kirby and would usually be fought in levels based around plant life or forests. He is said to be the protector of the forest and has been so since ancient times. He is one of Kirby's most recurring adversaries and usually fights Kirby to stop his progress.

Kirby's Dream Land

Whispy Woods makes his first ever appearance in Kirby's Dream Land, appearing as the first boss serving King Dedede to protect the Sparkling Stars. Here is also the first time Whispy used his well-used attacks of dropping apples and spitting puffs of air. In the game's Extra Mode, Whispys' attacks speed up and he drops Gordos as well as apples.

Kirby's Adventure / Kirby: Nightmare in Dream Land

Whispy Woods appears in Kirby's Adventure and its remake, this time guarding a piece of the Star Rod for his master monarch. Whispy Woods' fight is near identical to the last game both in order and attacks, barring that his nose can't hurt Kirby on contact.

Kirby's Pinball Land

Whispy Woods appears both as a boss and as one of the subgames in Kirby's Pinball Land, with the player controlling two Kirbys to break blocks in the latter.

Kirby's Dream Course

Along with its fellow boss Kracko, Whispy Woods appears as an obstacle in Kirby's Dream Course, bumping Kirby away on contact. He can only be felled with the Spark ability. He does not count as an enemy, and oddly, multiple of him can appear in one course.

Kirby's Avalanche

Whispy Woods appears as the fifth opponent in Kirby's Avalanche, being the second boss in the Normal difficulty set of opponents.

Kirby's Dream Land 2

Whispy appears once more as the first boss in Kirby's Dream Land 2, this time with his fight being divided into two phases. The first has him obscure his face with glasses and a surgical mask, with him mainly attacking with his apples and a new root-based attack. The second as his mask and glasses fall off as he once more returns to his classic form of attacks. Whispy Woods also appears in World 1's bonus game, with the player needing to collect stars and avoid apples.

Kirby's Block Ball

Whispy Woods appears as the boss of the eighth stage in Kirby's Block Ball, once more spitting air and dropping Gordos. Like every boss in the game, he needs to be hit twelve times to beat.

Kirby Super Star / Kirby Super Star Ultra

Whispy Woods appears in Kirby Super Star and its remake in multiple sub-games. In multiple of these, Whispy appears as a boss in his classic format. However, two games revise the formula. In Revenge of Meta Knight, Kirby fights a version of him named Twin Woods, where the player fights two Whispys at once. Later, in Revenge of the King, Whispy appears as Whispy's Revenge, inheriting Twin Woods' spinning attack and also gaining the abilities to dropping harmful rotten apples and firing small tornadoes.

Whispy Woods also appears in Dyna Blade's ending and as a card in Card Swipe.

Kirby's Dream Land 3

Whispy Woods appears as the first boss once more, this time spitting his fruits and vegetables rather than dropping them from his leaves. Once he has been hit four times, Whispy flies into fury and uses his roots to pursue Kirby. If Kirby refights Whispy with all of the Heart Stars, Whispy is harmless.

Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards

Whispy Woods appears as the boss of Planet Popstar in Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards in the first 3D entry in the series. Fought in a circular arena, Whispy uses his classic attacks with Kirby required to beat the Whispy Wood Jrs around the arena. After the three are defeated, Whispy uses his roots to attack Kirby, with them needing to be attacked to damage it.

Kirby Tilt 'n' Tumble

Oddly, Whispy appears to aid Kirby in Kirby Tilt 'n' Tumble, transporting Kirby to later levels if the player can find them.

Kirby Air Ride

Whispy Woods merely cameos in Kirby Air Ride, appearing in a small forest in the City Trial mode. If the player rams him into him enough, he shows his classic defeated pose.

Kirby: Squeak Squad

Despite not being a boss in the game, Whispy appears on the game's title screen.

Kirby's Epic Yarn / Kirby's Extra Epic Yarn

Due to the nature of the game, Whispy appears as a late-game miniboss the player fights in their Tankbot form at the end of Whispy's Forest. Earlier in the level, smaller versions of him named Twiggy Woods both summon Gordos and can be used as platforms. Whispy also appears as a decoration for Kirby's Pad.

Kirby Mass Attack

Once more, Whispy Woods appears as the first boss Kirby fights, with this fight having three phases. The first phase has Whispy drop large spiked balls and spitting wind, the second growing two logs under him the player must damage to get to Whispy, growing mushrooms that bounce the player away, and keeping variants of attacks from the first phase, and the third has him grow three logs that can grow dangerous spikes, as well as the attacks from the first phase. After the fight, he removes the clouds covering Sandy Canyon. He is later fought in a rematch in Necro Nebula.

Whispy also appears as the first boss in Kirby Brawlball and Strato Patrol EOS, and as a high-point value target in Field Frenzy.

Kirby's Return to Dream Land

Whispy Woods re-appears in Kirby's Return to Dream Land, again as the first boss. In this fight, he shows off several new abilities in the second phase, such as growing in size, spitting larger puffs of air, and sucking in Kirby to damage him. Once defeated, he shrinks and releases the oars for the Lor Starcutter. In the game's Extra Mode, Whispy can also spit tornados, release harmful purple apples, attack with his roots, and drop Scarfys.

Kirby's Dream Collection Special Edition

Whispy Woods appears in Kirby's Dream Collection Special Edition in the Smash Combat Chamber EX. He fights similar to his extra mode counterpart, but with no root attack, normal apples, and the ability to drop Comos from his branches.

Kirby: Triple Deluxe

Although Whispy is absent from Kirby: Triple Deluxe barring appearing as a keychain, a similar boss known as Flowery Woods appears.

Kirby and the Rainbow Curse

Whispy Woods is fought twice in Kirby and the Rainbow Curse, with him able to drop spike balls, mines and do his signature gust-blowing attack. He also has Bronto Knights protect his face in the first fight. In the second fight, he gains a metal truck to stop the player from using Tap Dashes and can summon Barampas.

Kirby: Planet Robobot Main article: Clanky Woods

In Kirby: Planet Robobot, Whispy Woods gains a mechanized form known as Clanky Woods .

Team Kirby Clash / Super Kirby Clash

In both games in the Team Kirby Clash series, Whispy Woods is fought as a boss, with similar attack strategies to Flowery Woods. His fights take place in the Ruins.

Kirby Battle Royale

In the spin-off Kirby Battle Royale, a variant of him known as Mini Whispy Woods appears in Apple Scramble, with the player needing to obtain apples they drop from being hit.

Kirby Star Allies

Whispy Woods appears as a recurring boss in Kirby Star Allies, with among his classic attacks of blowing air and dropping fruit (including the new explosive Burst Fruits), his inhale and enemy drop attacks returns. On his second phase, his attacks become more dangerous and Whispy Woods gains the ability to jump in the air and slam back onto the ground. Whispy Woods' second phase can be easily skipped if one has multiple friends/attacks using Sizzle, as it chars Whispy Woods into he is defeated. The player can also throw a Friend Heart at Whispy Woods once defeated for him to drop food. Additionally, he has two variants in the game, Yggy Woods and Parallel Woods, the latter fought in Heroes in Another Dimension.

Kirby: Right Back at Ya!

In Kirby: Right Back at Ya!, Whispy Woods appears as a major ally towards the heroes as the wise and loving, if vengeful sometimes, caretaker of the forest. Here, Whispy has a love interest in the form of Lovely, and a mentor in Acore. Additionally, King Dedede (along with Escargoon) are not allies but enemies, with King Dedede trying to get Whispy Woods and the forest cut down to build a golf course.

Super Smash Bros. Super Smash Bros.

Whispy Woods makes his debut in the Super Smash Bros. series in the first game, being a hazard on the Dream Land stage, occasionally blowing a stream of wind to knock fighters away from the center of the stage.

Super Smash Bros. Melee

Later on, in Super Smash Bros. Melee, Whispy Woods was both a trophy and a stage hazard on both Dream Land and the new Green Greens stage, shaking apples to either hurt players or land on the ground and become healing items.

Super Smash Bros. Brawl

Whispy Woods lacks the trophy he had in Super Smash Bros. Melee, but in Super Smash Bros. Brawl, he both returns on Green Greens and appears as a sticker that increases damage done by weapons when used on Kirby characters.

Super Smash Bros. For 3DS / Super Smash Bros. For Wii U

Whispy Woods appears in Dream Land once more in both Super Smash Bros. For 3DS and Super Smash Bros. For Wii U, but he only appears as a trophy in the latter.

Super Smash Bros. Ultimate

Whispy Woods returns in Super Smash Bros. Ultimate not only with both of his stage cameos returning, but also appearing as one of the game's spirits. Whispy Woods is an ace-level shield-type spirit, which grants the user a weakness to fire attacks when used. His spirit battle involves the player beating a team of five red Kirbys on Green Greens (representing Whispy Woods' apples), with high winds occasionally starting up.

---

The mantid are a race of insectoid creatures native to Pandaria, originally descended from a group of aqir - insect-like spawn of the Old Gods - that settled in the southern parts of ancient Kalimdor. The mantid forced the yaungol out of their homeland Townlong Steppes and devour everything in their path in order to build their own crystalline empire of ruthless warriors and scheming feudal lords.

When Pandaria was found by the Alliance and the Horde, the pandaren were left reeling when the mantid's hundred-year cycle of aggression kicked off a decade too early and their greatest warriors burst through the Serpent's Spine. The beleaguered pandaren fought off the worst swarm in recorded history with the aid of the newly-arrived Alliance and Horde. While trying to isolate the cause of the mantid's erratic behavior, it was revealed that Grand Empress Shek'zeer and many of her mantid were corrupted by the Sha of Fear, and with the assistance of the Klaxxi, adventurers were able to defeat her.

Following the resurrection of the Heart of Y'Shaarj by Garrosh Hellscream, the Klaxxi allied themselves with the Warchief. Their paragons took up guard beneath Orgrimmar to protect the heart of their dark former god, but were ultimately defeated during the Siege of Orgrimmar.

By the time of the Fourth War, Grand Empress Shek'zara has ascended the throne. With the awakening of N'Zoth, she pledged her swarm to the Old God's will. In service of her dark master, she unleashed her forces upon the Vale of Eternal Blossoms to claim Pandaria in N'Zoth's name.

---

Ink Rose: This is gonna be good! CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: PLANET ILUM!

Ink Rose formed a crystal ball and it formed into the Star Killer Planet, Ilum.

Ilum was a snow-covered planet located in the 7G sector of the Unknown Regions, within the Ilum system. Ilum was the fifth planet from its parent star Asar, a blue dwarf, located roughly equidistant from Asar and the system's cometary cloud. Ilum had a kyber crystalline core, and had been utilized by the Jedi Order for the Gathering, a rite of passage in which Jedi younglings had to find and harvest kyber crystals for their lightsabers, which had existed for thousands of standard years.

When the Jedi Order was exterminated by order of Darth Sidious, the new Galactic Empire occupied Ilum and began excavating it for its vast supply of kyber crystals, which were to be used in the construction of the first and second Death Stars. The over-mining of the planet caused its core, and later a massive Imperial Trench, to open up along Ilum's equator.

After the fall of the Empire, its successor state, the First Order, converted the massive trench into Starkiller Base: a system-destroying superweapon that was the culmination of the Empire's research into dark energy translations and hyperspace tunneling. Held in secret by the First Order, its modifications allowed Ilum to act as a mobile base and major weapons platform until it was destroyed by the Resistance in desperation after Starkiller's destruction of the Hosnian system. Following the attack, led by Poe Dameron, the planet collapsed into a star that would later be named Solo after the legendary smuggler Han Solo, who died at Ilum.

Moonlight Raven: I've always wanted to try this one. CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: HEART OF ATLANTIS!

Moonlight Raven floated into the air and formed the Atlantis Crystal and the stone faces of their kings and it fired beams of energy.

Marucho: This will be good! TECH STYLE NINJA ART: PRINCIPALITY OF ZEON!

Marucho fired a beam of gears and energy and it formed into the Gundams of the Principality of Zeon from Mobile Suit Gundam.

The Principality of Zeon, also referred to as the Duchy of Zeon and Zeon Dukedom, is a nation featured in Mobile Suit Gundam. It was in control of the colonies of Side 3 and fought against the Earth Federation during the One Year War.

Rise of the Principality of Zeon

When Zeon Zum Deikun, the leader of the Republic, became gravely ill in UC 0068, he mentioned only one name on his deathbed: "Degwin Zabi." The people of Side 3 took this to mean that Deikun was naming Degwin to succeed him as leader of the Republic in that year. After being appointed as the leader of the Republic of Zeon, Degwin Zabi adopted the title of Sodo, meaning "Lord," and was referred to from them on as Degwin Sodo Zabi. Seizing control of the government, Degwin maintained the only way for the colonies to be independent of the Earth Federation was for the Principality to fight (though in reality, Side 3 was already independent of Earth at that time). To this end, Degwin appointed his children into military and political offices and pushed for rapid development of military technology.

Gihren Zabi, the eldest of the Zabi children, remained at his father's side as his aide, achieving Admiral's rank and eventually became the Supreme Commander of the Zeon Armed Forces in place of his father. Dozle Zabi, the second eldest son of the Zabi family, became Vice-Admiral and the Commander of the Space Attack Force, responsible for overseeing fleet movements within the Principality and for securing territory. Kycilia Zabi, a Rear Admiral, shared command of the Zeon Space Attack Force with her brother Dozle, which led to conflicts between the two as she operated from the lunar city of Granada. Garma Zabi, the youngest of the Zabi family, was placed in command of the Zeon Earth Attack Force.

With the backing of the Principality of Zeon's new leadership, technological breakthroughs were made in many fields of research. One of the largest developments was that of mobile suit technology, which initially intended for colony construction found military applications. Research by Doctor Minovsky led to the discovery of the Minovsky Particle and the Minovsky Particle Effect, which allowed for the development of further technology, such as the Minovsky Craft System. Supported by Kycilia Zabi, research into the growing phenomenon led to the classification and discovery of Newtypes, and with it her support of the development of Newtype-based military units.

Negotiations with the Earth Federation finally broke down in UC 0079, leading to the Principality of Zeon (re)declaring its independence from the Earth Federation and at the same time declaring war on the Federation.

One Year War Opening Weeks

One of the first groups of colonies to be drawn into the conflict were the colonies located at Side 1, also called Zarn, which served as the capital of the Earth Federation in space. The group of colonies at Side 2 (known as Hatte) and Side 4 (known as Moore) were drawn into the conflict as well, with one of the devastated colonies from either Side 2 or Side 4 being used for "Operation British," which was to use a colony as a weapon by sending it on a collision course with Earth. Operation British met with moderate success, as an explosion caused the colony to alter its trajectory. Instead of impacting the Federation's Earth-based capital, it instead landed on Sydney, Australia, destroying 16% of the continent. While attempting to gain another colony to drop onto the Earth, the Earth Federation Space Forces intercepted the Zeon Space Attack Force at Side 5 (also known as Loum), resulting in the "Battle of Loum." The resulting battle employed both nuclear and biological weapons, destroying Side 5 as both forces attempted to bring a quick end to the war.

The massive loss of life at Loum resulted in a truce being called between the Earth Federation and the Principality of Zeon for representatives of both governments and other colonies to meet and discuss the terms of the Federation's surrender, as they had been vastly demoralized. Gihren threatened to drop Luna II on Jaburo next. However, General Revil, rescued from Zeon captivity, arrives in time to reveal Gihren's bluff, leading to the Federation changing the tide and setting the terms of the war. This meeting led to the signing of the Antarctic Treaty, which prohibited nuclear and biological weapons by both the Earth Federation and the Principality of Zeon. The treaty also outlined that colonies could not be used as weapons in the conflict, the treatment of prisoners of war, and other colonies' neutrality that wished to remain out of the war, becoming a haven for refugees.

Earth Invasion

With the signing of the Antarctic Treaty, the war between the Earth Federation and the Principality of Zeon entered a new phase. Knowing that they could not continue the war without resources, Zeon organized an assault force to invade Earth and secure resources for the war effort. Garma Zabi, the youngest child of Degwin Zabi, was named Commander of the Zeon Earth Attack Force and descended to Earth with mobile suits. The Earth's invasion proceeded quickly due to the Earth Federation Forces being ill-equipped to deal with the new threat of the Zeon mobile suits. The Principality captured a large number of territories and set up mining operations and bases to transport materials back to the homeland as a result. The Zeon Earth Attack Force's base of operations was the captured California Base of the Earth Federation.

However, the Federation was able to develop new tactics in dealing with mobile suits, which with the aid of the Antarctic Treaty and the return of General Revil, led to a stalemate in the war as both sides worked to replenish their resources. The Earth Federation gained a morale boost due to Revil's speech " Zeon is Exhausted! ". However, even with the war at a stalemate, a Zeon victory seemed inevitable due to the high-quality mobile suits produced for both land and space forces.

Turning Points

The discovery of "Project V" marked the turning point for the Zeon's war against the Federation. Till the discovery of the Federation project, the corporations within the Principality of Zeon led the way in technology and production of mobile suits. Curious and alarmed by the development of a series of Federation mobile suits, as well as a new ship to carry them, operations were carried out to investigate the ship codenamed the "Trojan Horse." The pursuit of the mobile suits and the ship eventually contributed to the death of Garma Zabi, as well as experienced and valuable pilots such as Ramba Ral and the Black Tri-Stars.

The death of Garma Zabi on October 4, UC 0079, marked yet another turning point in the war as it led to a shake up in the political power of the Principality of Zeon. Grief-stricken by his youngest son's death, Degwin Zabi started to strongly consider moving towards a peaceful end to the war with the Federation. Degwin fell out of power and was now little more than a figurehead as his eldest son Gihren took command of not only the military but the Principality itself. Inspired by the speech given by Gihren Zabi at his brother's funeral, the Zeon military forces fought harder to obtain victory and independence. However, their morale boost did not last long, as the Earth Federation started to deploy its mobile suits on Earth and in space and carry out successful operations against the Zeon forces on Earth due to its lacking an adequate command structure with the absence of Garma Zabi. The victory of the Earth Federations "Operation Odessa" on November 9, UC 0079 started a collapse in the Zeon Earth Attack Forces' support infrastructure.

An attack is carried out on the Earth Federation headquarters of Jaburo on November 30, UC 0079, to regain Zeon's momentum. The attack led by Captain Char Aznable succeeds in breaching the Federation Headquarters; however, due to the lack of supplies and resources at his disposal, the operation fails and eventually results in a mass evacuation by Zeon forces from Earth.

Fall of the Principality of Zeon

With the success of operations on Earth, the Earth Federation again turned its attention and the war effort to space, which both the Earth Federation and the Principality of Zeon knew would be the final battleground for the war. Confident that the Zeon Space Attack Force can withstand anything that the Earth Federation could throw at it, Vice Admiral Dozle Zabi amassed as many ships under his command to the asteroid base of Solomon, his base of operations and a Zeon stronghold located close to Lagrange Point 5. Dozle Zabi was reluctant to ask for support from his sister Kycilia but could get some reinforcements for Solomon before the Earth Federation Space Forces attacked, his reinforcements coming in the form of the MA-08 Big Zam. The added firepower of the Big Zam, however, was not enough to curve the tide of the Federation forces as Solomon fell with the aid of a secret Federation weapon on December 24, UC 0079, the battle ending with the abandonment of the base by the Principality of Zeon and the death of Dozle Zabi.

With the loss of Solomon and a second son, Degwin Zabi started to make a peace move; however, he took notice of the shifting ideals of his eldest son Gihren. The war between the Earth Federation and the Principality of Zeon transformed under the leadership of Gihren Zabi. Instead of simple independence from the Federation, Gihren wished to destroy all human life on Earth so that the chosen race of Side 3, the Principality of Zeon can rule. Degwin departs from Side 3 to meet with General Revil in the hopes of negotiating a peace between the Federation and Zeon before the Federation launches an attack on the last line of defense. Knowing of the plot, Gihren orders his secret weapon's firing, a colony laser called the "Solar Ray." The firing of the weapon led to the destruction of a third of the Earth Federation fleet and the deaths of General Revil and Degwin Zabi on December 30, UC 0079.

Taking command of the remaining Zeon forces, Gihren Zabi commands from the space fortress A Baoa Qu as the remaining Federation forces launch an attack against the Zeon forces. Gihren is able to command the forces for a while; however, he is murdered for the assassination of Degwin by his sister Kycilia. Kycilia takes command of A Baoa Qu and oversees the battle, deploying as many mobile suits as possible to combat the Federation forces. Curious as to why they are taking such heavy losses, Kycilia learns that most of the forces deployed are pilot cadets who have not yet been fully trained to pilot mobile suits. Determining that the battle is lost, Kycilia gives the order to have her ship ready to depart and for the remaining forces to surrender once she has left with an escort group. However, the command is never issued as the command center was overrun by Federation forces that gained entry to the fortress. Char Aznable assassinated Kycilia; her ship was destroyed not long after.

With a lack of command and control, the remaining Zeon fleet went into a panic. Split as to what to do, several ships gathered as many as possible before fleeing the battlefield, while others remained to fight to the last man, each believing that it was what their commanders wanted. With the fall of A Baou Qu, the remaining government of the Principality of Zeon surrendered to the Earth Federation, bringing an end to the war on January 1, UC 0080.

With the Zabi family's reign ended, the remaining citizens of the Principality of Zeon entered negotiations with the Earth Federation. It was replaced by the Republic of Zeon, the colonies of Side 3 formed their nation subject to Federation inspections and review. Maintaining a small defense force comprised of ships and mobile suits from the Principality of Zeon, the Republic of Zeon has taken on a more peaceful relationship with the Earth Federation.

Neo Zeon Movements

Loyalists to the Principality of Zeon and the Zabi family did continue, however, as those that escaped capture or death at the Battle of A Baoa Qu either hid within the Earth Sphere or fled to other regions, including the asteroid Axis and Mars. These loyalists later formed their movements based upon the principals of the Principality of Zeon, with one Neo Zeon movement being led by the daughter of Admiral Maharaja Karn, Haman Karn. She used Dozle Zabi's daughter Mineva Lao Zabi as a figurehead and rallying point for the movement.

Interestingly the Second Neo Zeon Movement did not have any loyalty to the Principality of Zeon or the Zabi family. Led by Char Aznable who revealed that he was the son of Zeon Zum Deikun and thus the true heir of the Republic of Zeon, the goal of the Second Neo Zeon was to force humanity to move into space, and kill those that didn't, by dropping asteroids onto the Earth and starting a nuclear winter that would kill the majority of life on the planet. This, in turn, would achieve the two original goals set out by Zeon Deikun long ago: the first allowing the planet to rest (albeit entirely unable to support life after that), and the second establishing full independence for spacenoids from the rule of Earth. Almost three years later, the late Char Aznable's Neo Zeon's scattered forces would be gathered and reorganized by a man named Full Frontal. These remnants of the second Neo Zeon movement are referred to as "The Sleeves" by the Federation army, are not recognized legally, and are considered a terrorist organization.

Fighting and running from, turning from

Who we really are

Cannot suppress so let's find the one

We have shaped so far

Flying too close to the sun

As if we're invincible

Cannot dictate, dominate the earth

That we're living on

We can't defy the laws

Cut the laws that we consummate

Around the world

We grow weaker as we exterminate

The only thing that gives thing

That brings air and life to us

Wake up one day and find

That what we got is serious

We are the children of the sun

We are the children of the sun

The human greed and our creed

Is all that we have to share

Knee deep in tragical

Fabrical issues everywhere

Cannot replace the one

Chase the one that we used to be (used to be)

It isn't how we were, why we're here

What we're meant to be

Fighting and burning from, turning from

Who we really are

Cannot suppress so let's find the one

We have shaped so far

Flying too close to sun

As if we're invincible

Cannot dictate our faith

On this earth that we're living on

We are the children of the sun

The love for everyone

Always on our own

The fire in our eyes

The passion never dies

We're the chosen ones

The children of the sun

We are the children of the sun

The love for everyone

Always on our own

The fire in our eyes

The passion never dies

We're the chosen ones

The children of the sun

We are, we are

We are the children of the sun

We are, we are

The children of the sun

Yeah, we are, we are

We are the children of the…

Always on our own

---

Clan Mors is one of the most powerful of the Warlord Clans, ruled by the equally ruthless Lord Gnawdwell. Due to recent victories and prodigious expansion, Clan Mors is very near to matching Clans Eshin, Pestilens, Moulder, and even Skryre in sheer power and influence. Together, the four Great Clans might easily crush Mors, much as they have destroyed other upstart clans in the past. Yet Mors continues to flaunt its power, and none are certain why the Great Clans have failed to act as they are expected to.

The Skaven of Mors are uncharacteristically united as one, and exhibit a loyalty to their leaders unheard of in Skaven society. Even those Skaven who have been conscripted into Mors from less fortunate clans are soon heard voicing praises to Gnawdwell and his staff. None are certain if this loyalty is a result of sorcery most foul, as of yet undiscovered drugs, or the product of something else that has yet to be discovered.

Like any of the Lesser Clans, Mors covets a place amongst the Great Clans. Warlord Gnawdwell has made it very clear that he believes he is the one to lead all Skaven to their inevitable victory over the surface world and its furless inhabitants. Given his continued success and prowess in battle, perhaps he is correct. The other clans are hesitant to accede to his call for an invasion of the world above, citing that the time is not yet ripe for another invasion. Gnawdwell dismisses such reasons as pitiful excuses, but he is hesitant to throw away his recently gained ascension to the Council of Thirteen. So he bides his time until his place is somewhat stronger in the Council. He is instead content to rest on his laurels for the time being, basking in the plentiful adoration of his troops.

Warlord Gnawdwell, the mastermind behind Clan Mors' unbridled success and the unquestioned master of the City of Pillars, now sits upon the Council of Thirteen. His ruthless methods have resulted in the deaths of many of his rivals, as well as the outright destruction of at least six lesser Clans. With these triumphs, Gnawdwell has increased the wealth and power of Clan Mors to unprecedented levels. The Skaven of defeated Clans have increased Mors' military strength, not to mention its labour force, and conquered strongholds across the Under-Empire proudly fly their banner.

Rumours have spread that the Great Clans live in fear of Gnawdwell's sinister reputation. Many great Skaven have been struck down as a result of the warlord's schemes, and there is no telling what he will do if he is forced to defend his clan's newfound prestige. Even if Gnawdwell himself were to be assassinated, any one of a number of his subordinates would likely rise to usurp his position. Given the effectiveness of the clan's battle strategies to date, it would be foolish to assume it would crumble if Gnawdwell were killed.

Clan Mors has yet to prove its value to the Lords of Decay, though it will indeed have an opportunity to do so if Warlord Gnawdwell has his way. The Council itself is not yet sure how to best employ Clan Mors, and discussions between individual Council members have been heated on this topic for some time. It is no secret that Skryre wishes to see Mors destroyed, a sentiment Clan Moulder has dismissed on many occasions. Pestilens, which was in a similar position to Mors' at one time, has yet to make a determination. Eshin, of course, keeps its own counsel regarding the upstart clan.

Of the Lords of Decay, it seems only the Seer Lord has lent his support to Clan Mors. The unity exhibited by Mors' members, which is an obvious factor in its recent successes, intrigues the Seer Lord. If the methods by which Gnawdwell guarantees the loyalty and stability of his Clanmates can be discovered, then perhaps the Great Ascendancy will become reality. After all, it is the duty of the Grey Seers to keep the Skaven united as a race, and Gnawdwell has obviously seen some success in keeping his own forces in line.

---

The techniques smashed Evil Green Ranger and knocked him down.

M.J.: YEAH!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was amazing!

Battle 3: Laney, Sam Manson, Misty Tredwell, Cluemaster, Riley, Julie (Bakugan), Cornelia Hale, Layla Williams, Wood Man, Plant Man, Sailor Jupiter, Selene, and Amy Anderson VS Whispy Woods

---

Whispy Woods was next.

Laney: Lets turn this tree into firewood!

Julie: Yeah! This is gonna be good!

Cornelia: Lets get him!

They fired waves of plant and lightning energy and more and reduced Whispy Woods to logs and sawdust and he was dead.

Laney: Take that Whispy Woods.

Misty Tredwell: That was too easy.

Riley: Usually the 1st boss of Kirby is ALWAYS the easiest one.

Me: Yep. Lets head to the next world.

The shard fired a beam and opened up a portal and it showed a rocky world. It was ROCK STAR.

Me: Looks like we're heading there.

Nicole: That's Rock Star. Lets go.

We all went through the Portal.

ROCK STAR

We arrived in Rock Star.

Long Haul: I had a feeling Rock Star would be made of rocks.

Me: It looks more like a desert and rocky world. But this is so cool.

Nico: It sure is.

Nicole: My kind of world. I always love rocks as much as any geologist and volcanologist would.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) It's my kind of world too. Especially for the minerals such as Potassium Feldspar.

Nico: Cool.

Marble Pie: It's amazing huh.

Naruto: It sure is.

We went through mines and caves and mountains and we got to a temple and it was amazing. We got to an elevated platform and we saw the second boss: PIX!

---

Pix is the boss of Rock Star in Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards . It is composed of three separate beings. All three must be defeated in order to be victorious. They materialize one by one out of thin air during a rather chaotic elevator ride in Rock Star. The fight between Pix and Kirby occurs on an elevated platform in the skies of Rock Star.

Kirby reaches the boss when he enters the spaceship in Rock Star. Kirby starts out on an elevator-like structure and one by one the octahedrons reveal themselves as the structure ascends. The elevator is constantly going up, and about a little more than halfway through the ride all three crystals have appeared. Each of the three crystals project laser beam blades and cut across the circular platform. The crystals are constantly slicing through the arena, so by the time all three are active Kirby must be constantly jumping to avoid them all. Upon reaching the top of Rock Star, the real battle begins and the trio begins to fight in tandem. Pix begins by spinning around the arena and transforming into blades that try to cut Kirby from all 3-dimensional axes (in mathematics, red, blue, and green are commonly used to represent the X, Y, and Z axes). Throughout the battle different colored atoms pop up around the arena. These are for Kirby to inhale and spit back at Pix. Each of the octahedrons suffer more damage when damaged by their respective colored atoms, such as the green octahedron only taking adequate damage from the green colored atoms and so on. Each octahedron is destroyed after two hits with the correctly colored projectiles and four with the incorrectly colored ones. When Pix is defeated, its remnants meet in the center of the arena, and spin around while merging, before finally exploding.

Me: Pix!

Lola: Wow! Those diamonds are NOT a girl's best friend.

Girder: (to Pix) Let's see what would win. Steel or diamonds. (turns skin into steel)

The Red Pix formed a laser sword and slashed at him and it didn't even cut him.

Me: Whoa! Those lasers are strong but not strong enough.

Nico: You got that right.

Lola: Lets destroy this geometrical monstrosity!

INSTIGATOR then appeared.

Me: INSTIGATOR. I had a feeling you were next.

INSTIGATOR: But this is amazing. The view from up here is amazing.

Me: It sure is.

Luan: It's amazing.

Pinkie: Well lets get it on.

Pinkie and her group went at him.

---

INSTIGATOR was next.

INSTIGATOR: (to Pinkie Pie) Out of curiosity, have you ever tried coffee before?

Pinkie Pie: I did have coffee once. But I can't have it anymore.

Maud Pie: Pinkie would get so hyper that it would be like she ate 20 whole bags full of sugar.

Marble Pie: She would bounce off the walls like numerous bullets fired from guns.

Somnambula: (Egyptian Accent) Wow. That must be why she can't have Caffeine.

Cheese Sandwich: Yeah that must be rough.

Limestone Pie: Don't remind us. It's a sight no one should ever see.

INSTIGATOR: Wow! Thank goodness for that.

Petunia Paleo: But seeing this whole world is so amazing! I love using the magic of dreams to do anything here. How cool is that!?

Lily Longsocks: I like it too! It's so awesome!

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) I can imagine myself doing all kinds of amazing things here.

Diamond Tiara: Me too! It's so cool!

Silver Spoon: Yeah it is!

Toxic Horror: I've always wanted to be a member of the Wonderbolts. Now in this world I can make that dream possible.

Louie PoisonSea: My dream has always been to be a great artist and painter.

Françoise: Those are great dreams!

Runo: They sure are.

Blade Tigrerra: I think so too.

INSTIGATOR: Agreed. Lets get it on.

He went at them and punched at them with incredible strength and they dodged all his strikes.

Hook fired his laser and Long Haul fired his grenades and they hit INSTIGATOR and Exploded.

Toxic Horror: And for good measure! DECAY STYLE NINJA ART: ATTACK OF THE DEAD MEN!

Toxic Horror floated into the air and poisonous atomic chemicals and atomic fire swirled around him as he was singing Attack of The Dead Men by Sabaton.

Turmoil at the front

Wilhelms forces on the hunt

There's a thunder in the east

It's an attack of the deceased

They've been facing poison gas

7, 000 charge en masse

Turn the tide of the attack

And force the enemy to turn back

And that's when the dead men are marching again

Osowiec then and again

Attack of the dead, hundred men

Facing the lead once again

Hundred men

Charge again

Die again

Osowiec then and again

Attack of the dead, hundred men

Facing the lead once again

Hundred men

Charge again

Die again

Two combatants spar

Hindenburg against the Tsar

Move in 12 battalions large

Into a Russian counter-charge

They'll be fighting for their lives

As their enemy revives

Russians won't surrender, no

Striking fear into their foe

And that's when the dead men are marching again

Osowiec then and again

Attack of the dead, hundred men

Facing the lead once again

Hundred men

Charge again

Die again

Osowiec then and again

Attack of the dead, hundred men

Facing the lead once again

Hundred men

Charge again

Die again

And that's when the dead men are marching again

Osowiec then and again

Attack of the dead, hundred men

Facing the lead once again

Hundred men

Charge again

Die again

Osowiec then and again

Attack of the dead, hundred men

Facing the lead once again

Hundred men

Charge again

Die again

That's when the dead men are marching again and again

That's when the dead march again

He fired the fire and atomic energy and it formed into the armies of the Battle of Osowiec Fortress in 1915 during World War I.

The blasts from the techniques all hit INSTIGATOR and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

INSTIGATOR was knocked down.

Pinkie Pie: BEST USUAL BATTLE EVER!

Toxic Horror: That was fun!

Diamond Tiara: Hunter showed you his Sabaton songs didn't he?

Toxic Horror: He sure did. I'm a huge fan of Sabaton and it's so awesome.

Louie PoisonSea: They do have a lot of educational value.

Somnambula: Great songs.

---

Battle 5: Luan, Eddy, Devack, Star Butterfly, Vambre, Prohyas, Runo, Lilian Hale, Solar Man, Bright Man, Spark Man, Sailor Venus, Girder, and Nico VS Pix

---

Pix was next.

Luan: Lets get these geometrical abominations!

Eddy: Yeah!

They fired blasts of light and elemental energy and the blasts all hit Pix and blew them apart.

Star Butterfly: Awesome!

Vambre: (British Accent) Jolly Good! That was great!

Prohyas: Yeah it was!

Me: We got all the shards in Pop Star and Rock Star. What's next?

The shard then opened a portal and it lead to a raindrop shaped world called AQUA STAR!

Nicole: Aqua Star is next.

Me: Cool! Lets go!

We were off to Aqua Star.

AQUA STAR

We arrived in Aqua Star.

Me: Wow.

Lola: It's beautiful here!

Lori: (Inhales) Smell that ocean air.

Flame Man: I hope my flames don't get extinguished in Aqua Star!

Me: Don't worry. I used my magic and powers to make sure your fire doesn't get extinguished.

Lori: But it's literally beautiful here. It's like we're at the beach.

Leni: It sure does and it's totes beautiful.

Carly Atlas: It sure is.

Misty Tredwell: I think so too.

Maria: And the ocean is amazing.

Nico: It sure is. Wow.

May: It's so beautiful.

Laney: It sure is.

We walked around and we got to finding more shards and we later were facing the Orca boss ACRO!

---

Acro is a boss character that appears in Kirby's Dream Land 3 and Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards . He is a large orca whale that apparently lives in a deep sea trench on Aqua Star. He is not evil, however, as his appearances show him to be under the influence of Dark Matter mischief.

Kirby's Dream Land 3

Acro is the boss of Ripple Field, having been disturbed by Dark Matter. The battle starts off in a cavern with Acro walking on his tailfins, then sliding at Kirby and crashing into one of the cave walls - knocking off a large boulder that can be inhaled and used as ammo against him.

After taking enough damage, Acro will destroy the cavern floor, in turn making Kirby and him plunge into the water below where the rest of the fight takes place. Acro swims back and forth spitting out various objects like skulls, anchors, and Acro Jrs., which Kirby must push back at him by blowing bubbles at them. Anchors cannot be blown back and the Acro Jrs. float up and down, making them difficult to push back. Once Acro reaches one of the walls, he will swim forward at great force, crashing into it and creating a large undersea avalanche. Kirby has the chance to drive these falling rocks back at Acro as he simultaneously dodges the rest.

If all the Heart Stars are collected for Ripple Field, Acro will be freed of Dark Matter and friendly the next time Kirby enters the arena.

In Boss Butch, the battle takes place outdoors, possibly below a sandstone cliff, as seen in the first phase of the battle.

Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards

Acro, who relocated on Aqua Star, gets disturbed again when he somehow stumbles across a Crystal Shard in the water. The battle starts off much like the second phase did in Kirby's Dream Land 3 ; Acro shoots out the same objects as before that must be shot back at him to cause damage. Now, however, Kirby has the luxury of inhaling them, and no longer needs to precariously shoot bubbles at them to send them back. He occasionally will do an underwater backflip and crash into the ground, creating two rocks that can be inhaled and shot back.

After enough damage is dealt, Acro retires to the sea floor as the cavern crumbles. The screen beings to scroll upward as he chases Kirby to the surface. Kirby encounters more enemies to inhale as Acro darts round shooting out Pedos. After Kirby lands the finishing blow, Acro sinks out of sight, leaving Kirby the Crystal Shard.

---

Nicole: Acro!

Aqueduct: (to Acro) Let's see who's the better water fighter!

The Bolton Siblings turned into their Street Shark forms.

Maria: And it will show you how dangerous sharks can be!

Ripster: Lets do it guys!

Jab: I'm always up for some brutal fighting!

Big Slammu: I'm gonna smash this shark's teeth out!

Shredgirl: Me too!

Streax: Save seconds for me!

Street Sharks: SHARK ATTACK!

They went at Acro and Eris then appeared.

Me: Eris, Goddess of Discord and Chaos.

Eris: Yes it is I.

Lane: Lets get it on.

Lane and his group went at her.

---

Battle 6: Lane, Starlight Glimmer, Trixie, Juniper Montage, Clover the Clever, Chang Chengku, Alice, Alpha Hydranoid, Centaur Man and Flame Man VS Eris

Eris: (to Lane) I think I know who's causing trouble here.

Lane: You do? Who is it?

Eris: Zero Two of the Dark Matter.

They gasped!

Lane: Whoa! Who is Zero Two?

Eris: He is a nasty monster.

Eris went over his history.

---

Zero, alternatively spelled as 0, is the creator of Dark Matter and one of the overarching antagonists of the Kirby franchise.

Zero serves as the unseen overarching antagonist of Kirby's Dream Land 2 and the main antagonist in Kirby's Dream Land 3 and Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards (as his resurrected form $0^2$). It is a mysterious being who resides within the Hyper Zone and is the source of Dark Matter. Zero's exact motives are unknown, but it is stated that it desires to spread Dark Matter across the universe in order to turn it into a "Dark World". Though it was defeated in Kirby's Dream Land 3, its kind would continue to serve as recurring foes for Kirby.

After the defeat of Dark Matter Blade, 0 launched an invasion of Pop Star and possessed multiple regions. Kirby liberated these lands one by one, then encountered the Dark Matter possessed King Dedede. Kirby drove it out of him and back to the Hyper Zone where 0 resided.

After Kirby and Gooey defeated the Dark Matter using the Love-Love Stick, 0 revealed himself and attacked Kirby. In a desperate attempt to kill Kirby, 0's eye detached from his body, becoming a small bloody eyeball. Kirby defeated this, thus destroying 0 and the Hyper Zone.

$0^2$ serves as the main antagonist and the true final boss in Kirby 64. Like Zero, it remains hidden throughout the majority of the game, until the end when the player has managed to collect all of the crystal shards.

In this game, $0^2$ has an angelic appearance and a bandage on his head (which is likely a reference to him pulling his eye out at the end of Kirby's Dreamland 3). In order to face the creature, Kirby must collect all 74 crystal shards, otherwise Miracle Matter serves as the final boss. Once Kirby defeats the villain, $0^2$ and the Dark Star explode.

---

When she was done they gasped in shock!

Starlight Glimmer: Whoa man! He sounds like he is dangerous!

Trixie: No kidding! I would not want to meet a monster like that.

Juniper Montage: Me neither! I played the Kirby Games long ago and I remember seeing him and he was ugly and scary.

Clover: And he sounds like trouble.

Chang: No kidding.

Alice: That is awful.

Alpha Hydranoid: Geez.

Eris: He's more than dangerous. He spells chaos and destruction for everything in the universe.

Flame Man: That's bad.

Eris: Indeed. Lets do it.

They went at her and Eris threw some of her golden apples and they hit the ground and exploded as they dodged them. Flame Man fired blasts of fire and Centaur Man fired energy blasts and they hit her all over.

Lane: Try this! MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: WITCH!

Starlight Glimmer: And this one! MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: FAIRIES!

Trixie: Prepare to be amazed as The Great and Powerful Trixie will show you how grand and magical she is! MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: TRIXIE THE MAGICIAN!

Trixie fired a wave of magic and it formed into herself and fired magic blasts.

Juniper Montage: This is gonna be fun! MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: PIXIES!

Clover the Clever: And I am a unicorn so this is perfect for me. MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: UNICORN!

Chang Chengku: MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: MAGICAL SPRITES!

Alice: MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: ALICE IN WONDERLAND!

Alpha Hydranoid: I've always hated this woman. MAGIC STYLE QUEEN OF HEARTS!

Centaur Man: EARTH STYLE NINJA ART: CENTAUR WARRIORS!

Flame Man: FIRE STYLE NINJA ART: FIREBATS!

They fired blasts of magic, earth and fire and they formed into said creatures and smashed into Eris and knocked her down in a huge explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Eris was down.

Lane: YEAH!

Starlight Glimmer: That was awesome!

Trixie: Another grand performance by The Great and Powerful Trixie!

Clover: Yeah!

Battle 7: Neptune Crusaders, Kalin, Luna, Lily, Girl Jordan, Marucho, Irma Lair, Sailor Mercury, Aqueduct, and Varie VS Acro

Acro was next.

Varie: Lets get this whale of a whale!

Luna Loud: Yeah dudes!

They fired blasts of water and energy and knocked Acro down and he was freed from the influence of the Dark Matter and he licked Irma all over like a puppy.

Lily: Aww.

Girl Jordan: So cute.

They got the shard and it opened up a portal and it lead to a jungle planet. It was NEO STAR!

Nicole: Neo Star is next. Lets get a move on.

We went through the portal.

---

NEO STAR

---

We arrived in Neo Star and it was a beautiful jungle world.

Laney: Wow! It's a beautiful jungle!

Blitzwing: I didn't expect Neo Star to be full of trees.

Me: It looks more like a beautiful jungle.

Nico: It sure does.

Laney: Wow. It sure is beautiful.

Lola: Yeah it is.

?: It sure is.

A figure came out and it was a young centaur. She had purple hair and white legs and her human half had an orange shirt. She had a cutie mark in the shape of a thunderbird with lightning and sparkles around it.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow.

Thunder Sparkle: My name is Thunder Sparkle. Thunderbird Sparkle in actuality. But I like being called Thunder Sparkle. And Lincoln, Princess Twilight, I know this is gonna be a big shock to you but I'm your future daughter.

Lincoln and Twilight Sparkle gasped in shock and we were floored too!

Twilight Sparkle: Oh our baby girl!

They went and hugged her for the first time.

But she wasn't the only one. Out of the jungle came the children of Sunset Shimmer, Pinkie Pie, Rarity, Fluttershy, Applejack, Rainbow Dash and Starlight Glimmer as well. Sunset Shimmer's daughter was named Phoenix Shimmer, Pinkie Pie's daughter was Little Cheese, Fluttershy's daughters were twins: Butterfly Rose and Mirage Daffodil, Rainbow Dash's daughter was Storm Rainbow, Rarity's daughter was called Emerald Shine and her son was called Topaz Light, Applejack's daughter was Thunderbird Apple and her son Lightning Fritter and Starlight Glimmer and Sunburst saw their children too. They saw two girls. One was called Starburst Aurora and the other was called Fireheart Flame. They were all Centaurs and they had powerful Alicorn abilities and magic and more.

It was a great reunion and it was beautiful that their children would become like this in the future.

Nico: This is a huge surprise for them.

Me: No kidding. But dreams have often been known as visions into the future and show us events that will happen later on.

Laney: That's true.

Lola: Yeah it is.

As we were walking and searching for more shards we were talking to the kids and it was so awesome. We later got to the volcano and we were facing MAGMAN!

---

Magman is a boss in Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards . He is fought inside Neo Star's active volcano. He is a large being made entirely out of magma, and is able to manipulate the burning-hot magma that he dwells in. As well as attacking Kirby with magma, Magman is also capable of summoning fleets of fire-based enemies that will attack Kirby for him. He is notable for being one of the few bosses with two phases fought in the same arena, as well as spending the majority of the fight in the background and not directly fighting Kirby.

His affiliation with Dark Matter is never revealed. It is not known if he was directly created by the entity or if he was simply possessed during the fight like the previous bosses Acro or Adeleine, or even just being aggressive or protecting territory.

As Kirby delves deeper into Neo Star's largest volcano, he reaches a volcanic crater. Magman arises from the magma and the fight begins. In the first phase, Kirby is confined to four small platforms while Magman stays in the background and out of Kirby's reach. Many Magoo arise from the magma at some parts during the battle, which can be inhaled and later used as ammo. Magman attacks by using the magma inside the arena to form pillars of magma which lift up the platforms and plow into Kirby, or surround the platforms and close in on them to ensnare Kirby with the magma. Attacking these pillars is the only way to damage Magman during this phase. After being damaged enough, Magman charges after Kirby until they reach a large platform of solid magma. In this phase, Magman fights Kirby himself, and as such, Kirby is able to damage him up close by hitting him in the face. At the beginning of this phase (as well as after every attack), Magman will turn into a pool of liquid magma and charge at Kirby, summoning three Burnis to battle right after. In addition to this and spewing out a large beacon of fire, Magman is able to cause rocks to fall from the ceiling. These rocks can be inhaled and used as ammo, and are often clustered in the vacuum, allowing Kirby to attack with multiple rocks at a time in the form of a cube-shaped projectile. After being defeated, Magman withers and cools into the solid rock of the arena, leaving Kirby with another Crystal Shard.

Battle 9: Lynn, Sam, Tara, Taranee, Fire Man, Flame Man, Heat Man, Magma Man, Dan, Roman Goodwin, Lola, Lea, Francis, Whiplash, Sailor Mars and Carol VS Magman

Magman was next.

Lola: Time to burn!

Francis: Yeah!

Sailor Mars: Lets get him!

They fired blasts of powerful fire and defeated him in an instant.

We got the next shard and a portal opened up and it lead to the ice world of Shiver Star.

Nicole: The next world is Shiver Star.

Me: Oh boy. It's gonna be really cold there. Lets go.

We went through the portal.

SHIVER STAR

We arrived at Shiver Star and it was blistering cold.

Sonata Dusk: (shivers) Shiver Star really does make you shiver!

Me: Brr. No kidding. It's like a Winter Wonderland here. Good thing we can do this.

I imagined us with winter parkas on and we were toasty and warm in them.

Nico: Much better. Perfect.

Maria: Good thinking J.D.

Eli: But this is so awesome that we can do all sorts of things with our imaginations like this.

Nunnally: It sure is. I think it's neat.

Fu: I think so too.

Samui: I like it.

Me: Lets head on.

We continued on and we got more shards and went into a factory and it was nice and warm in it.

Me: Man it's warm in here.

We took off our parkas and went into the factory and we defeated many enemies and later we were facing HR-H/HR-E!

---

HR-H is an AI robot in the Kirby series, appearing in Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards . It is the boss of Shiver Star, appearing in an apparently long-abandoned, high-tech city. Like many of the bosses in the game, the fight with HR-H is done in two different phases. Unlike many bosses, however, HR-H actually takes on a whole new form as the fight progresses. After Kirby depletes his health the first time, HR-H turns into a rocket-shaped robot known as HR-E and starts to pursue him across the metallic road suspended high in the city's sky.

HR-H is a strange lighthouse-shaped robot with impenetrable armor. Because his armor is so tough, Kirby must instead target his weak point: his arms (and later, his shadowy body when he becomes HR-E).

HR-H is activated when Kirby enters a desolate cityscape in the heart of Shiver Star. The battle begins with the fight against HR-H, the robot's first form. As HR-H, the boss has a total of four attacks. Two of these attacks (neither of which leave HR-H open to attack) include shooting out large missiles that crash into the ground, and projecting a thin yellow laser from his beacon onto the stage that swiftly sweeps across the screen. To damage him, Kirby must wait for him to perform an attack with his arms. These two attacks include sweeping his arm across the platform, and slamming his hands into the center of the stage. With the use of an ability or just regular projectiles, Kirby must damage these hands in order for the second phase to begin.

The battle turns into a side-scroller as the robot turns himself into the snowmobile-like HR-E. While Kirby runs away from HR-E, he tries to snip Kirby with his claws and hit him with missiles. There are two types of missiles that he shoots, one being the type of small ones that HR-H used, and the other being a new, larger type. When Kirby tries to inhale the larger one, it breaks into two halves, and the back half continues to plow into Kirby if he doesn't avoid it by jumping. At half health, HR-E will fly up into the sky and then crash down in an attempt to crush Kirby. The platform eventually runs out, meaning that HR-E must be dealt with quickly. In this form, Kirby must damage his dark core in order to destroy him completely.

---

Nicole: WHOA! HR-H! He is also HR-E. He's two bosses in one.

Copperhead: (to HR-H/HR-E) I'm gonna enjoy poisoning you and then watching you die slowly!

Me: He's a robot Nathan.

Copperhead: Oh sorry.

Nico: But he's a really cool robot!

Eli: And this calls for an awesome robot! RISE! SHINING GUNDAM! (SNAPS FINGERS)

Eli got into the Shining Gundam and he was ready for action!

Me: YEAH!

Nico: Wow! Eli has an awesome Gundam!

J.D. 3: He sure does. And it's his signature Gundam. He learned how to use it from me and Domon.

Laney: That is so cool!

Laney: Yeah it is!

Firepower and Carmen Dillo then appeared.

Me: Firepower and Carmen Dillo.

Firepower: Yep it's us.

Carmen Dillo: Is that Eli's Gundam?

Me: It sure is. He is a great Gundam Pilot from what we were told.

Carmen Dillo: Cool!

Aurico: (Alien Voice) Lets get it on!

Fluttershy: Go ahead, make my day.

They went at them.

---

Firepower was next.

Firepower (to Aurico): Good thing my suit protects me from the cold.

Aurico: I got to admit though that is one impressive suit.

Adagio: It sure is.

Firepower: Thank you. But man this is really cool. In the dream world here I made a bunch of modifications to it.

He showed that he had more missiles, weapons, lasers and more.

Aria Blaze: Wow! That is what I call fully loaded.

Sonata Dusk: No kidding! That's awesome!

Princess Celestia: It sure is. I think it may be going overboard but that is well thought up.

Princess Luna: It most surely is sister.

Princess Cadance: I think so too.

Princess Amore: It's cool.

Firepower: I'm glad you think so.

Flurry Heart: Kirby's world is so awesome and Natilee and Aunt Luna are the guardians of the Dream World.

Lilly Crystal: They sure are and everything they do here is amazing.

Cloud Star: Yeah it is!

Rainbow Dash: I think so too. And I can do this too.

Rainbow Dash turned into her Power Ponies counterpart, Zapp!

Scootaloo: Wow! You look awesome sis. And I love the Power Ponies.

Magma Gloom: Hey me too! I read all the comics and their archnemesis Mane-Iac is wicked.

Lightning Dust: She sure is and we're gonna be facing her when the April 12th War comes around.

Storm Rainbow: I know. That war is gonna be epic from what I heard.

Pyunma: I agree.

Spitfire: Me too. But we're ready for anything.

Firepower: Indeed. But who is the Mane-Iac?

Rainbow Dash: She is the Power Ponie's archnemesis.

Rainbow Dash went over her history.

---

The Mane-iac is a fictional character that appears in the fourth season of the show My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic and is the main antagonist of the episode entitled "Power Ponies". The Mane-iac appears to be an earth pony with a violet coat, a mane consisting of large green hair tendrils, and green eyes with red pupils.

At the beginning of the episode, Spike shows Twilight Sparkle a couple of pages of a Power Ponies comic book on which the Mane-iac is depicted.

She is stated to be the Power Ponies' "most evil nemesis". Originally, she was the power-mad owner of a hair-care product company, she was the victim in an accident at her shampoo factory and fell into a vat of green liquid and was electrocuted by a downed power line. The accident had given her strange new powers and caused her to go insane. Another page shows the Mane-iac breaking into the Maretropolis Museum and stealing something called the Electro-Orb.

When Spike and his friends are sucked into the comic book and become the Power Ponies, they're brought to the point in the story at which the Mane-iac has just stolen the Electro-Orb. She watches in amusement as they grow accustomed to their newfound superpowers before leaving the scene. When the Power Ponies track the Mane-iac down to her headquarters-her abandoned shampoo factory-she dispatches the ponies with her "Hairspray Ray of Doom", freezing the ponies in place and rendering their powers useless. She then takes the Power Ponies prisoner, but leaves Spike/Humdrum alone, considering him pointless. The Mane-iac uses the Electro-Orb to power her doomsday device, with which she plans to cause the manes of every pony in Maretropolis to grow wild. As she gloats to the Power Ponies over her apparent victory, Spike traps some of her henchponies and helps in freeing his friends. Just before the Mane-iac can use her weapon on Fluttershy/Saddle Ranger, a firefly enters her line of fire, and she swats it away. This action incurs Saddle Ranger's wrath, and she single-handedly does away with both the Mane-iac and her weapon.

As the result of being struck by her own weapon, the Mane-iac's mane grows out of control, ensnaring her in it like a straitjacket, while seemingly tickling her as she was laughing.

IDW Comics

In issue #54 of the IDW comics, Shadow Lock brings the Mane-iac out of Twist's comic book to distract Applejack and Pinkie Pie while he erases the information from all of the books in the school. The Mane-iac is presumably sent back into the comic book off-screen.

Role

Mane-iac is a stereotypical super-villain parody akin to the cackling maniacs found in early comic books (especially DC) - inhabiting a fictional world similar to Metropolis she was once a normal Earth Pony who fell into a vat of chemicals in a shampoo factory, which coupled with electrocution mutated her and drove her completely insane.

As Mane-iac she developed the ability to use her hair as weapons and tools (like Marvel's Medusa or PPG's Sedusa) - she also developed her own personal army of hair-product themed henchmen and weapons.

Seeking a power-source for her doomsday weapon Mane-iac wanted to destroy the city so as to strike a blow for liberty and a victory for the forces of oppression (like many parody villains she was 2-dimensional evil).

---

Firepower gasped.

Firepower: Whoa! She's like a pony version of The Joker.

Rainbow Dash: No kidding and we're gonna make sure she pays for her crimes. Also Blossom told me that she is like Sedusa, an old enemy of the Powerpuff Girls. She's like a combination of The Joker and Sedusa as well as Rita Repulsa.

Firepower: Right because the Power Ponies are like The Power Rangers and Mane-Iac is their archnemesis so that makes her like Rita.

Rainbow Dash: Exactly.

Aurico: That's rough. Lets get it on.

Firepower: Gladly.

Firepower fired his lasers and missiles and they dodged all the blasts and went at him.

Transquito: Lets get him! Transquito, TERRORIZE!

He had his hand energized and grabbed the robot's head and ripped it clear off!

Lana: WHOA! AWESOME!

Dana: Way to go Eli!

The HR-H/HR-E robot exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Wes Collins: Nico are you crazy!?

Nico: Relax Wes.

Salem: It's alright Wes. I am still bound to Nico through this.

She pointed to a symbol of the Crest of Planet Vegeta on her arm.

Katie: That's the Crest of Planet Vegeta isn't it?

Samui: LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: LIGHTNING CUTTING BLADE!

They fired energy blasts and Samui formed a blade made of pure lightning and the blasts hit Contemptra and exploded and Samui slashed her all over with lightning and electrocuted her all over.

Wes: Lets assemble the Vortex Blaster!

They did so and the Megaforce Rangers did too.

Rangers: FIRE!

BANG!

They fired and the blasts hit Contemptra and she exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

She was reduced to the size of an action figure and Samui picked her up.

Samui: It's gonna be so cool being your archenemy.

She gave Contemptra to Jen Scotts.

Salem: That was awesome! I missed fighting on the outside.

Nico: I can see that.

---

The usual battles were done and we went to the castle tower and we went into a dark room and we saw MIRACLE MATTER!

---

Miracle Matter is the boss of Ripple Star in Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards . It is the final boss of the game if Kirby does not have all 72 (74 if the shards Kirby and Ribbon found in the second movie sequence are counted) of the Crystal Shards. After defeating it, it will explode, revealing a final, large Crystal Shard. Upon obtaining every Shard, the final world, Dark Star, becomes accessible. Here Kirby confronts the true final boss, $0^2$.

Battle

Throughout the course of the battle, Miracle Matter's surface will change to represent one of the game's Copy Abilities. During this time, Miracle Matter will use attacks based on those abilities to harm Kirby. Miracle Matter can only be harmed by whatever ability or projectile is matching the form it is currently in. Otherwise, a force field blocks the attack. For example, if Kirby tries to use Stone while Miracle Matter is in its Cutter form, it does no damage to the boss. As Miracle Matter takes damage, it will stop using some of its forms. Most of Miracle Matter's attacks can be avoided by simply standing in a corner.

Kirby can enter the battle with an ability, being able to attack a form or two. However, as this will prove useless in time, it is best to fight without one.

Forms

Burning Form : In its Burning form, Miracle Matter appears as a fireball with a yellow core. For its attack, Miracle Matter will shift in a direction and shoot simultaneous columns of fire. These leave behind fiery projectiles that can be used against Miracle Matter. There are three variations to this attack. It can shoot fire in vertical columns, which it will do so three times, it can fire in horizontal columns, two or three times, and it can move anywhere on screen and shoot fire columns in all four basic directions, doing so only once.

Ice Form : In its Ice form, Miracle Matter represents an ice cube, tilted on its vertices. It simply moves around the area, surrounded by shards of ice that can be used against it. After gliding around for a while, it will stop for a moment, still spinning the fragments around it, and change back.

Spark Form : In the Spark form, Miracle Matter is a ball of electricity. Its attack is pretty tricky to dodge: It fires three beams of energy a few seconds apart from each other. These can ricochet off of Miracle Matter. The energy beams go off-screen, reappearing at the corresponding side of the screen (i.e. if they went off the bottom of the screen, they'd appear at the top), and once they get small, they turn into smaller energy balls similar to Miracle Matter. Only then can they be used against the boss.

Stone Form : Miracle Matter in its Stone form represents nothing more than a brown boulder. As it hovers, rocks appear on its four sides. It then attempts to drop these rocks on Kirby, dropping two, and then dropping two with itself. After that, it rolls about the ground for a while, stopping near the edges of the area (where Kirby should be to avoid damage), before floating back up. The smaller rocks it spawns are projectiles, but can only be used once they're dropped.

Bomb Form : As its Bomb form, Miracle Matter strangely turns into a large black bubble. It surrounds itself with four smaller bubbles.

Once it launches the bubbles, they enlarge and bounce around. They then split into two smaller bubbles each, which then bounce around as well. Soon, the smaller bubbles disappear, leaving behind bombs that can be used.

Needle Form : The Needle form of Miracle Matter takes on an orange, 8-sided star. Once it transforms, it starts protruding each of its points, one by one, reaching all the way to the edges of the arena. As each of the spikes retract, they leave behind a thorn that can be used against Miracle Matter.

Cutter Form : Miracle Matter's Cutter form resembles a crescent-shaped razor (somewhat resembling Fishbone) covered with moving spikes, with smaller crescents trailing behind. This form zips around the screen, in a path that's easy to predict. After a few times, it will dive into the ground, drilling through it, and return to the center. The only usable projectile is the smallest crescent at the tip, which respawns once inhaled.

Me: WHOA!

Nicole: Miracle Matter. Be careful around this one guys.

Me: It looks like an Icosahedron.

Lana: A what?

Me: A 20-sided dice.

Nico: I was always really good at Geometry. And it has eyes all over the place.

Laney: It's like it can see all over the place.

Lisa Loud: At 1,080˚.

Lola: Wow!

Gearhead: (to Miracle Matter) The minute you choose an element to transform into, we'll make sure it's your last!

Me: Yeah and it won't be pretty!

The Miracle Matter turned into a ball of fire and it fired balls of fire at us and I absorbed it.

Me: You play with fire and you'll get burned!

I fired a blast of fire and it hit the Miracle Matter and exploded and reverted back. Then it turned into a cube of ice with ice pyramids orbiting around it.

Dana: So you want to be an ice cube!

Dana fired a beam of ice and it hit the Miracle Matter and exploded and it reverted back. They blasted all its forms and blew it apart.

We beat all its forms and got the last shard and the darkness and dark matter left and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: That did it!

Mollie: Yeah! (Feels something)

She saw a bracelet appear on her left wrist and it had the elements of Miracle Matter.

Mollie: Whoa! I have all of Miracle Matter's powers in the form of a bracelet.

Emerald Shine: That is a beautiful bracelet Mollie.

Nico: It sure is.

Carly Atlas: Look at the crystal.

It floated and fired a beam of light and it hit the queen and more dark matter left her and went into the sky. We then saw it form into a new world and it was DARK STAR!

Me: Come on guys! Time to take down this monster for good!

Nico: Lets go!

We flew into the sky and went to Dark Star.

---

DARK STAR

---

We arrived at Dark Star and we saw the ultimate lord of the Dark Matter and it was ZERO TWO!

Me: No it won't.

We went back home.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure done.

I'm back from my break and this was an awesome chapter! Kirby 64: The Crystal Shards for Nintendo 64 is one of my favorite childhood games and it was so awesome. It came out on June 26th, 2000 and it was awesome. I was only 12 when it came out and it was awesome. But I've known Kirby for most of my life. Since I was 4. It is awesome. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next chapter is for the 2009 Cartoon series called Get Ed and we're going into battle against the evil Simon Bedlam and we're going to make that monster pay for his crimes in the year 4,023. It's gonna be so cool!

See you all tomorrow and a rest was much needed.

Greedy Businessman in the 41st Century

In the year 4023 in the 41st Century, Dark Spicer was working undercover.

The Get Ed heroes were having an argument with a pizza guy.

Pizza guy: Isn't this Dojo Deliveries?

Ed (Get Ed): Yeah. The Dojo Deliveries who didn't order a pizza. We're the ones who usually do the deliveries!

Pizza guy: Look, I'm really not in financial help right now. So, just pay up, alright?

Burn: Fine. We'll take the pizza. But we didn't order it!

?: I know you guys didn't.

They turned to see Dark Spicer there.

Dark Spicer: I did (to pizza guy) Pineapple and black olive, right? (pizza guy nods nervously) Sweet and salty! Did they burn the crust too?

Pizza Guy: No!

Dark Spicer: (glares at him) I specifically told them to burn the fucking crust! (points blaster at pizza guy) Get in here!

Ed, his friends, and the pizza guy, in the main room, watched as Dark ate the pizza.

Loogie: So, now that you're done eating, can you tell us what you're doing in our HQ?

Dark Spicer: That's easy. I'm here to do a contract killing. (burps)

Pizza guy: That's just cold, man! You broke into these guys' house, ordered a pizza, ate the pizza, and now, you're gonna kill them?

What the Hell, man?!

Dark Spicer: I'm not here to kill them. I'm here to kill you, Gavin.

Gavin: What?! But… why?

Dark Spicer: (points blaster at Gavin) Tanya Patterson? Name ring any bells? (Gavin shrugs) Let me refresh your memory. Back in high school, back when you were all "Mr. Popular Super Jock", you started a particular heinous rumor about Young Ms Patterson. A rumor that had no basis in fact. That rumor was so heinous that her boyfriend Lee, who was a really nice guy, dumped her immediately. None of the others guys wanted to date her and none of the girls wanted to associate with her. All because of what you said about her!

Fizz: Um… sorry to interrupt. But what was the rumor exactly?

Dark Spicer: It's that she… come here.

Dark whispered to the Get Ed crew about what the rumor was. When he was finished, they all glared at Gavin.

Deets: (to Gavin) You're sick, do you know that?!

Dark Spicer: I… have to agree.

Gavin: That was 9 years ago, man!

Dark Spicer: That rumor still haunts her to this very day. At the grocery store, at the gas station. No decent man wants her and the guy who ended up marrying her is a total loser who no one else would take! And the kids that he stuck with her are eve nwrose then her dad! You fucking ruined that girl's life, Gavin!

Gavin: (tears in his eyes) And I'm sorry about that, okay? But come on! (sobs) THAT BITCH NEEDS TO GET THE FUCK OVER IT!

Dark Spicer: (glares at him) She's about to. (pulls trigger)

BANG!

He shot him in his head and killed him instantly.

Dark Spicer: (Blows smoke out of the gun) He's happier in Hell.

Ed (Get Ed): He deserves it.

Blood poured out of Gavin's head as he laid lifeless.

Ed (Get Ed): Good riddance.

Dark Spicer: Yep.

---

Later back in the year 2021 at the Gotham Royal York Convention Center we were having an awesome bake sale.

Cloud Man: Another day for a bake sale.

Me: Yep and we have really good cookies and treats thanks to Pinkie Pie.

Laney: My favorites are the chocolate chip cotton candy cookies and the mini-MMMM Cakes.

Me: Mine too.

Lola: (Eating a mini-MMMM Cake) They are so delicious!

Spike: They sure are.

Twilight Sparkle: They are really good and the cookies you and Pinkie made are delicious Spike.

Nico: (Eating one) Mmm! I'll say! And the free samples idea was great.

Duncan: Is that kid stealing some of our cookies?!

Me: It sure is.

We saw the kid and he was in torn up ragged clothes.

Me: Oh man he looks like a homeless kid!

Laney: Oh no.

Lynn: Get him!

Lori, Lynn and Lola went after him.

They pounced on him.

Lynn: Any last words before we send you to the Warp, kid?!

Lola: Actually, you won't even have time to scream! (holds out her hand) HAK-

Nico: (stops Lola) Wait! Before you Hakai this kid, let's hear him out.

Scrapper: (to the kid) What's your name?

Luke: Luke Newman!

Laney: (Gasp) Wait a second, didn't you and your sister drop out of school 6 months ago?

Luke Newman: That's right. I'm sorry I stole from you it's just that me and my mom and sister are hungry. We haven't had anything to eat for 3 days. We've been going through the garbage.

We gasped.

Nico: You poor kid.

Me: Oh man. Do you remember how this happened?

Luke Newman: We lost our house, everything.

Me: Oh no.

We found out that because their dad died, they lost everything and no longer have any money and they were forced to live on the streets and it was awful.

Lori: (sighs) I guess our usual methods of dealing with criminals doesn't work all the time.

G1 Firestar: (smirks and takes out a voice recorder) I'm sorry. Could you repeat that again?

Me: Firestar that's enough. Luke can you show us where you live?

Luke Newman: Sure.

I put up a sign on our stand for the bake sale that said Back in 15 minutes.

We followed Luke and he lead us to an alley that was in between the pizza shop and the Hair Cut Shop.

He showed us that they were living in a cardboard box in an alley. It was Luke, his sister Gina his mom Laura and his corgis.

Me: Oh no. This is not a good environment.

Nico: No it isn't.

Laura was crying hard and Gina was comforting her.

Me: Oh man. We got to get them some help.

Nico: Good idea.

We had Luke and his family come with us back to our Estate to get some food and shelter. Now that our estate was as big as a ginormous tree and over 1,000 miles wide we have much, much, much more room and more.

We gave them their own rooms and homes. Dark Spicer came home.

Riku: Hey, Dark. How was your morning?

Dark Spicer: Pretty good. I just completed a bounty hunting job. And I found some new friends. And by new friends, I mean new recruits for you guys.

Me: Awesome!

Dark Spicer: You'll meet them in a few minutes guys. Whoa who are the new people?

Me: Strange and sad story with them.

Dark Spicer: What happened?

I told him everything.

Dark Spicer: Oh no. Poor kid was just trying to feed his family.

Me: Yeah. They lost everything after Laura's husband died. They had no insurance or anything.

Lisa Simpson: It was like that story where Brenda became homeless. (Season 16 Episode 13)

Dark Spicer: Oh yeah I remember that one. She died in front of Harvard Medical School.

Me: As a dead corpse.

Lola: Geez.

Me: Yeah that was awful. Poor woman.

Lori: Yeah.

Maria: Now, about these new friends.

Computer: Alert. Temporal disturbance in progress.

Me: Uh oh. Time travelers incoming.

Suddenly a portal opened up and out of it came Ed and his team!

Dark Spicer: There they are.

They were Ed, the Protector

Voiced by Lyon Smith; A genetically engineered teen made from the instructions of an ancient alien artifact found by Ol' Skool. As he tries to uncover his origins, he also works on the Dojo crew as a delivery boy. On top of delivering packages and figuring out his identity, Ed's side job is fighting evil. He has much equipment that he finds along his journey whose technology is far beyond the technology of Progress City, thought to be gifts from aliens for his use. Due to being created as a teenager he lacks a lot of life experience and can be a little dense and gullible sometimes, but sometimes he gets flashes of future events that help him and his friends. His vehicle is an AI co-piloted hoverboard. His symbol is "The Protector." Sometimes, his eyes glow red when he becomes angry.

Deets, the Dreamer

Voiced by Megan Fahlenbock; A former teen computer programmer-in-training originally named Sarah, who was forced to work for Bedlam because he captured her parents (also computer programmers), but Ol' Skool helped her save them and offered a place in the Dojo. She appears to have a crush on Ed, yet these feelings appear to be mutual. Her vehicle is a hand-held jet glider pack. Her symbol is "The Dreamer."

Burn, the Warrior

Voiced by L. Dean Ifill; The unofficial leader of the Dojo who takes pride in being the best of the Dojo group, but with the arrival of Ed, he feels his role in the group has been challenged. Because of this, he is hard on Ed every chance he gets but as the series progresses he starts to warm up to Ed. Although he is still hard on Ed now and again, he cares for him deep down. He also hates a lot of other courier teams. His vehicle is a flaming one-wheeled motorcycle. His symbol is "The Warrior."

Fizz, the Builder

Voiced by Bailey Stocker; A very smart girl in her early teens who is most handy when it comes to technology, planning, and building new equipment for the Dojo. Her quick thinking saves the crew constantly. Her vehicle is a flying scooter. Her symbol is "The Builder."

Loogie, the Joker

Voiced by Peter Cugno; A wacky teen comedian with a catfish puppet named Dr. Pinch on his left hand, which has a bizarre alter-personality that constantly criticizes its owner. His vehicle is a pair of rocket-powered in-line skates. His symbol is "The Joker."

Me: Whoa!

Ed (Get Ed): Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's such an honor to meet you all. Sorry to come in like this.

Burn: We heard so many great things about all of your adventures and we love all that you do.

Deets: We sure do.

Ed (Get Ed): Sorry my name is Ed the Protector and these are my friends of The Dojo.

Deets: I'm Deets the Dreamer.

Burn: Name's Burn the Warrior.

Fizz: I'm Fizz the Builder.

Loogie: And I'm Loogie the Joker.

May: It's really nice to meet you guys.

Ed the Protector: It's an honor to meet you all and Horsea it's great to see you again.

Maria: How do you know Horsea?

Deets: We met Horsea while you all were fighting Black Ghost.

Fizz: We kicked the living crud out of that stupid time-travelling bitch Petra Fina.

Carol: Wait a minute! That was YOU guys that beat her up!?

Loogie: Yeah it sure was.

Me: Wow! You guys really left your mark on her. I'm impressed.

Burn: Thanks guys.

Ed the Protector: We need your help guys. An old enemy of ours is back and we need your help to destroy him.

Me: You called the right people. We'll gladly help out.

Fizz: Thanks J.D. We are from Progress City and it's amazing.

Me: Wow. This is gonna be cool.

Evil Green Ranger, Firepower, Carmen Dillo, Eris, Trumbipulor, INSTIGATOR, Loki, and Grumblemon then appeared.

Evil Green Ranger: Can me, Firepower, Carmen Dillo, Eris, Trumbipulor, INSTIGATOR, Loki, and Grumblemon go with you guys to Progress City?

Me: You all sure can. By the way Ed, what year are you all from?

Ed the Protector: We came from the year 4023 A.D.

Everyone: WOW!

Me: That's 2002 years into the future!

Earth: Incredible!

Abra Kadabra: This is gonna be most cool.

Dark Spicer: I thought you were back at base Abra.

Abra Kadabra: Sorry I couldn't pass up a good opportunity to visit another time in the future. So I want to check it out with all of you.

Me: That's all right. This is gonna be so cool.

Ed opened the portal.

Ed the Protector: Lets head in.

We went to the future.

---

41st Century, 4023 A.D.

---

We arrived in Progress City in the year 4023 A.D. and it was an advanced city that was filled with technology that was far more advanced than anything we are familiar with and it was incredible!

Ed the Protector: Team Loud Phoenix Storm and Masters of Evil, welcome to Progress City.

Me: WHOA!

Applejack: Hoowee! This is incredible!

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! This is amazing!

Lola: Wow! I didn't know that the cities would turn into something this advanced!

Lisa Loud: Amazing! It's incredible levels of technological ingenuity.

Ed the protector: Yep. It's home. We'll show you where we work.

We went to the Dojo Deliveries HQ and it was amazing.

Me: So this is Dojo Deliveries.

Burn: Yep. And it pays good money.

Me: Wow.

Raythor: (looks around Dojo Deliveries) This is a nice place you guys have.

Me: Wow. It's amazing that you all do so much here.

Heffer: I love the future. (Puts a drop of water on a pill and it turns into a giant bucket of chicken.) I love the future.

Squidward: This reminds me of the time I accidentally locked myself in the freezer and I was in there for over 2000 years. I was in the Year 4,017 A.D. Everything in Bikini Bottom was all chrome.

Lana: Did that really happen to you Squidward?

Squidward: It sure did Lana. And let me tell you it was crazy. I was given a time machine to use.

Lily: That explains that room I saw that was out of a wall.

Lisa Loud: Indeed. Very genius.

Me: It sure is. But thank goodness you found a way back.

Squidward: Yeah that's true.

Me: So who do you need us to destroy?

Ed the Protector: It's our enemy Bedlam.

Me: I don't like the sound of him.

Carmen Dillo: How about you guys watch the usual battles before we go after Bedlam?

Me: Good idea. But first we don't know anything about him. We have to know more about him before we decide on any course of action.

Ed the Protector: Right. We'll gladly tell you all about him.

He went over his history.

---

The main antagonist of Get Ed. Bedlam is an evil greedy bureaucrat who's determined on taking full control of all of Progress City and continues to seek information he desires. His interests, however, have changed to focus more on Ed and wants to know his connection to certain alien artifacts, and leads armies of DNA clones, short clowns and different robots. He has been collecting certain items, as well as Ed's DNA. He wants to change his genetic signature to match Ed's in order to use his artifacts for his evil purposes.

He and Anthony Ol' Skool were once business partners in the past until Bedlam cheated him and took the business all for himself, leaving Ol' Skool with nothing. Ol' Skool, however, went off on his own to start the Dojo.

---

When he was done we gasped in shock!

Varie: Whoa! Looks like we came here just in time.

Brittney: No kidding mom.

Me: If he wants to take over Progress City he can do it over my dead body.

Nico: And he will pay for his crimes 100-fold.

Me: We're going to kill him.

Ed the Protector: Thank you guys. We're gonna be in for quite a battle.

Me: And we're gonna give him one that won't be pretty.

Goku: And he'll pay for his crimes in full.

Vegeta: He sure will.

Then the Dark Signers and Webstor then appeared.

Webstor: Hey, guys! Fancy seeing you all here in the future.

Horsea: (laughs) I know, right?

Roman (to Ed and his friends): It's very nice to meet you all.

Ed the Protector: Same here.

Carly Atlas: (disgusted) It smells a bit bad in here though.

Burn: (gestures to Gavin's corpse) Sorry. It usually smells nice in here. But right now, there's a dead body.

Devack: Someone should clean that up.

Me: Dead Body?

Dark Spicer was sweating.

Me: Dark did you kill another man?

Dark Spicer: (Sighs) Yes.

He went over everything and we were shocked and then we were happy.

Ed the Protector: Yeah he deserved it.

Me: Way to go Dark.

Dark Spicer: Thanks guys.

Misty Tredwell: I hope he likes the darkness of Hell.

Me: You said it Misty.

?: Indubitably.

A figure came out and it was WEDDING DRESS ORG from episode 20 of Wild Force!

---

Wedding Dress Org is the female wedding dress like monster Org. She serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Three's a Crowd".

Wedding Dress Org was created as a result of Org Spirit acquiring the wedding dress. This highly wicked and cowardly Org possessed only one goal - the ruining of the weddings. She worked with Jindrax and Toxica. She attacked Turtle Cove several times and kidnapped brides, as well ordinary girls. Danny managed to not let her kidnap his girlfriend Kendall, but she was injured in the process. The Org escaped. Finally Wedding Dress Org kidnapped five brides, before was finally found. She fought the Power Rangers, but was defeated even with his Fire Stick, which was snuffed out by Danny. Wedding Dress Org was destroyed on the ground by the Jungle Sword, and then she was revived by Toxica, but in the giant battle, she was eventually destroyed by Wild Force Megazord's Sword and Shield Pachyderm Crusher attack. Meanwhile, Merrick found all her victims in the church and returned them to the normal forms.

---

Danny Delgado: Wedding Dress Org!

Wedding Dress Org: Been a long time ranger.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to ruin weddings and you attacked and kidnapped several brides and girls. But Danny didn't kidnap Kendall, Danny's girlfriend.

Wedding Dress Org: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode. But thank goodness all the girls and brides were found safe.

Danny Delgado: (To Wedding Dress Org) I just want to thank you.

Wedding Dress Org: For what?

Danny Delgado: If you didn't attack so many years ago, I wouldn't have been able to confess my feelings for Kendall. So, thanks!

Wedding Dress Org: (confused) Um… you're welcome, I guess.

Me: I remember that. Danny, you and Kendall were made for each other.

Lola: Does Kendall know that you're the Black Bison Wild Force Ranger?

Danny Delgado: She does. I showed her before we joined you guys. She thought it was absolutely amazing that I'm a ranger.

Me: Awesome.

Kendall Perkins: That's amazing.

Kick Buttowski: It sure is.

Me: I know. Danny I think Kendall would make a great ranger for you. That way you can fight side by side.

Danny Delgado: That's a great idea.

Isabelle: And I have the perfect Wild Zord and spirit for her.

Isabelle waved her singing staff and an aqua blue light appeared and shined and out came the Peacock spirit and the Peacock Zord Animal Crystal then appeared.

Me: The Peacock Zord. I remember that one.

Kendall: What the? Isabelle Knudson? It's an honor.

Isabelle: It's an honor to meet you too Kendal. I have a gift for you and for you to have a chance to help Danny Delgado.

Kendall: Danny is with you?

Isabelle: Yes he is. He and the Wild Force Rangers are all now part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Kendall: Is Danny all right?

Isabelle: He's fine. And he thinks about you all the time. But that's not why I'm here. I have a gift for you. My gift is for you to be a Wild Force Ranger: The Aqua Wild Force Ranger of The Peacock.

Kendall: Wow!

Isabelle: Yep. The Magnificent Peacock has chose you and you will can help Danny if you choose to accept.

Kendall: I'll do it!

Isabelle: That was fast.

Isabelle then had the Peacock Crystal appear and it landed in her hands and it was an aqua blue crystal and she was given her own Wild Force Morpher and Vest that said Magnificent Peacock and her own Crystal Saber.

Isabelle: You are ready.

Isabelle then teleported Kendall to us in the 41st Century and she saw where she was and it was incredible.

We regrouped and Ed and his friends cheered wildly for us.

Loogie: Those were awesome battles! (through Dr. Pinch) They sure were!

Astro Man: Is that a sock puppet?

Burn: (sighs) It is. You'll get used to that.

Chompy Mage: I thought I was the only one that uses a puppet. (Through Chompy Puppet) It's neat.

Luan: That sure is a cool thing. It looks like he Socks it to him. (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

We laughed at that one.

Me: (Laughs) Good one Luan!

Nico: (Laughs) That was funny!

Me: It sure was.

Eddy: (Laughs) Good one!

Ed the Protector: That was funny! But those battles were awesome! I can see why you like having them.

Me: They sure are fun. And they build up our strength and power for more powerful foes in the future.

Nico: Yep and we have a huge war coming next month. It's a big one.

Deets: Oh man!

Phage: Deets, do you have a crush on Ed?

Deets: You bet I do and he is awesome.

Ed the Protector: (Blushes) Thanks Deets.

Me: Aww. Well now that we have the battles done, lets go tear that monster Bedlam apart.

Acid Man: Based on what you've told us, Bedlam probably has some robots inside and outside his lair.

Fizz (Get Ed): They're actually called Hoopbots.

Me: Whoa. They look dangerous.

Nico: No kidding.

Adagio Dazzle: And if you guys will allow it I have an awesome plan for us to minimize the forces of all of his men.

Me: Lay it on us Adagio.

Adagio Dazzle: You remember how we absorb negative energy through our jewels and it makes us stronger?

Nico: Yeah.

Aria Blaze: When we sing we cause people and everyone to fight and all that and we feed off their negative energy through their hatred, rage and anger.

Sonata Dusk: We're going to sing and cause all of Bedlam's men to kill each other and give us all their negative energy.

Me: That's brilliant girls.

Vince: Yeah it sure is. And Bedlam better start praying.

Giganta: Where's Bedlam's lair even located in?

Ed the Protector: It's that big office building right there.

We saw a massive and really tall building in the middle of the city.

Me: That building sticks out like a sore thumb.

Nico: That is a no-brainer. It's like he wants us to go there.

Me: Yep. Better be ready for anything everyone. (Eyes Glow Red) Get ready Bedlam, we're coming for you and we're going to make you pay for your crimes.

Eli: Yeah and you will not be receiving any mercy from us.

Nico: That's right!

We went to Bedlam's tower.

* * *

In his office, Bedlam was sleeping after a long day of work. Suddenly the alarm went off.

Bedlam: Huh?

A screen showed us all killing his men and blowing their fucking brains out.

Bedlam: TEAM LOUD PHOENIX STORM!? Why are they here and helping Ed and his ingrate friends!?

Massive explosions rattled the tower.

A guard came in!

Guard: Sir! Team Loud Phoenix Storm is here! And they are going to kill you!

Bedlam: No matter. Let them come. I have a few surprises for them. (Evil laughter)

We went to a room and we were attacking a bunch of Hoopbots. Then a bunch of heroes that looked like the Looney Tunes came and they were blasting the Hoopbots all over.

Clawful: You guys look like the Looney Tunes!

Ace Bunny: (laughs) We sure do, don't we?

Danger Duck: You guys continue to Bedlam. We'll take care of these scrapheaps!

Me: Wait a second. You're the Loonatics! Wow! it's an honor to meet you all.

Ace Bunny: Same here J.D. We'll talk later on.

Me: Right. Thanks Ace. We'll talk more later. We owe you all one though.

We ran.

We got into the elevator and we were on an arena floor.

Me: Nice room.

Then a hologram of Bedlam appeared!

Me: Bedlam!

Bedlam: (through hologram) Welcome to my home, Team Loud

Phoenix Storm.

Maria: Drop the formalities, Bedlam. We're here to put an end to you!

Bedlam hologram: (chuckles) Oh, I have no doubt you'll try. But if you insist on continuing this foolishness, you'll have to go through all the floors of this building. Each one has at least one of my loyal minions.

May: Oh, please. That's nothing we haven't faced before!

Bedlam hologram: I'll give you all one last chance. Get out while you still can.

Nico: How about you go suck on a lemon?!

Me: And go fuck yourself into oblivion.

Bedlam Hologram: Very well. I hope this was worth digging your own graves. (vanishes)

Gabriel: Tell me I didn't always sound like that.

Ed the protector: He is always like that. But that was a hologram of him.

Me: He is the one that will be digging his own grave.

Nico: That's right!

Lincoln: Yeah! He doesn't scare us.

A figure then came out and it was CROUCH!

---

He is one of Bedlam's more frequently seen slave robots, with the head of a toaster. Not very well built, he's also not a very smart robot, constantly acting immature and fears Bedlam's wrath above all else. Because of his incompetence, he is met with the wrath and mocking of Bedlam very often. After being asked by Kora as to why he keeps him around, Bedlam later states, "I need the toast".

---

Ed the Protector: Crouch!

Crouch: If you want Bedlam, you'll have to go through me!

Firepower: A robot with a toaster for a head? Maybe we'll keep you around to make breakfast!

Crouch: WHY YOU FUCKING LITTLE TIN CAN!

Nico: Shut your trap toast breath!

Carter Greyson: Lets lend a hand guys!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Crouch was destroyed!

Me: That takes care of him. Lets go!

We went up to the next floor.

The Loonatics just destroyed all the Hoopbots.

Lexi Bunny: Remind me why we're not helping Team Loud Phoenix Storm fight Bedlam?

Tech Coyote: Because they have him under control.

Slam growled in agreement.

Rev Runner: Well, we should probably head home now!

Ace Bunny: (looks up at the tower) Good luck, guys. The rest is up to you now.

Loonatics: (To the viewers) See you all April 2nd!

The Loonatics teleported back to the 28th Century.

---

We got to the next room and we saw SPYKER!

Ed: Spyker!

Spyker: Sorry. But this is far as you guys go!

Eris: (scoffs) Well, I hope you put up more of a fight then your fellow robot Crouch did.

Me: And believe me it will hurt too.

Lola: Yeah!

Lane: Especially when we destroy you!

Me: And another thing, the T-800 Model has already been taken!

Chad Lee: Lets get him!

They went at him!

We saw that we were facing KORA!

She is Bedlam's personal Artificial Intelligence construct. She exists within the computer of Bedlam's lair, as his personal digital slave, and only appears as an orange hologram of a female's upper torso. She's cunning, and brilliant to boot, sometimes making better schemes than Bedlam himself comes up with, but Bedlam still treats her like any other servant.

Fizz: KORA!

Me: Wow! An Artificial Intelligence system.

Kora: Indeed and it's an honor to meet you Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Wow.

Kora: Apologies. But I can't let you go any further.

INSTIGATOR: Before we fight, have you been in contact with CLU?

Kora: Who?

POW!

Nico kicked Kora and sent her crashing into the wall.

Me: Wait Nico. Kora, I can tell you don't want to be working with Bedlam anymore.

Kora: How can you tell? I'm just a computer.

Me: But you have feelings and emotions like we do and that shows that you are just as human as anyone. You are human like us and human like anyone we know.

Nico: That's right and we can tell that Bedlam has been treating you like dirt.

Kora: Yes and no matter what I suggest all he does is treat me like a slave.

Me: You need to be treated with respect and love. He doesn't deserve someone with your level of great help.

Kora: You're right. I can have you program me into your computer so I can live with you guys.

Me: Awesome.

Kora: Follow me.

Kora lead us to the wall and she pulled out a panel and in it was a huge motherboard system.

Me: Your whole motherboard chip.

Kora: Yes. Just remove that and I'll go with you. Afterward destroy that whole thing.

Me: Got it.

I pulled out the chip and she vanished and I put the chip in a case for safe keeping so it wouldn't get damaged.

Kelsey Winslow: Now lets take this thing apart. COMEDY STYLE NINJA ART: CAMP LAZLO!

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We then went to the next floor. We got there and we saw a huge swimming pool and in it we saw familiar foes! They were CRETACEOUS AND MAELSTROM!

---

Cretaceous and Maelstrom are the main antagonists of Blue Sky's third animated feature film Ice Age 2: The Meltdown, the second installment of the Ice Age film series.

They are a pair of carnivorous sea reptiles who are known to take great opportunity in eating animals for food.

Their vocal sound effects were provided by Nicolas David Inhofe, who is the husband of S.E. Hinton.

Biography

Despite being the main antagonists, their role in the film is small, just like Soto from the first film. Cretaceous and Maelstrom were first seen thawing out in a melting pack of ice. Their first victim upon defrosting was Fast Tony's unintelligent Glyptodon sidekick named Stu, who was testing his snorkler too close to them.

They made one scene in the film when they occasionally tried to eat Manny, Sid, Diego, Ellie, Crash, and Eddie when they were crossing a frozen area of water. Cretaceous just wanted to eat Manny because he was the biggest animal in the whole herd, while Maelstrom attacked Sid and Diego when they get separated from the others. Although they almost lost their lives, the heroes successfully managed to escape from the two villains.

They later appear again in the film when Ellie is trapped in a cave during the rising flood. When Manny and his friends went to rescue Ellie, Cretaceous and Maelstrom tried to eat them, starting with Manny, who was in the water trying to save Ellie. However, Manny tricks them into hitting a log wedged beside a large rock. Eventually, he causes the giant rock to fall down and crush the two vicious reptiles to death in the process.

In the novelization, it is revealed that their remains were eaten by The Lone Gunslinger and the vultures for cheating to eating animals for food.

About the Pair Cretaceous

Cretaceous is a slender purple Ichthyosaur. He is shown in the beginning frozen in a great block of ice that was jarred loose when the wall of ice began crumbling. The ice melted, releasing both him and Maelstrom into the lake which was all but abandoned by most animals. When they made it to the ice lake, the first animal that they had encountered and eaten was Stu, leaving behind only his shell. The two sea reptiles then swam further down the series of rivers where they eventually reached Manny's herd as well as Crash, Eddie, and Ellie. Cretaceous made a great lunge at Manny, but his jaws were caught on his tusks, only to be flung far off as he twisted his head to throw the predator, hitting a piece of ice and falling back into the water on his way.

Later, when the dam broke, the two reptiles went swimming on the wall of water that was slowly approaching towards the escaping masses and pulled down Manny when he was swimming to save Ellie. Manny devised a plan to rid himself of the two sea reptiles by having them try to chase him, he tricked them into hitting a log that was wedged under a large rock. The plan worked so well, freeing Ellie, and the boulder falls on Cretaceous and his partner Maelstrom, killing them both.

Maelstrom

Maelstrom is a muscular teal Pliosaur. During his first appearance, he is shown in the beginning frozen in a great block of ice that was jarred loose when the wall of ice began crumbling. The ice melted, releasing both Cretaceous and him into the lake which was all but abandoned by most animals. When they made it to the ice lake, the first animal that they had encountered and eaten was Stu, leaving behind only his shell. The two sea reptiles then swam further down the series of rivers where they eventually reached Manny's herd as well as Crash, Eddie, and Ellie. Maelstrom intended to eat Sid but could not catch him, as Sid was already escaping with Diego, and had only just escaped Maelstrom as he broke off a massive chunk of ice where the sloth and saber-tooth had stood only moments before, with the duo having tricked him.

Later, when the dam broke, the two reptiles went swimming on the wall of water that was slowly approaching towards the escaping masses and pulled down Manny when he was swimming to save Ellie. Manny devised a plan to rid himself of the two sea reptiles, by having them try to chase him, he tricked them into hitting a log that was wedged under a large rock. The plan worked so well, freeing Ellie and killing Cretaceous and Maelstrom.

Cretaceous and Maelstrom growled at us.

Me: Cretaceous and Maelstrom!

Ed the Protector: They're your bad guys. Any ideas?

Loki: Focus on Cretaceous. He's the more dangerous!

Deets: And Maelstrom?

Horsea: Bedlam probably got a pool of water just for him. If we can lure Maelstrom out of that, he'll be easy to take down!

Me: Good thinking Horsea.

Lola: Lets get these overgrown snakeskin wallets.

He called forth Gamabunta!

Gamabunta: Been a long time since you called me Naruto.

Naruto: Sorry Bunta. But we have big problems. See those two dinosaurs there?

Eli: All right!

Nunnally: YEAH!

Me: Now we have one more bad guy left. Lets take down Bedlam.

We went to the very top and we got off the Elevator and we saw MR. SIMON BEDLAM!

Bedlam: (with his back to us) Welcome. I'm impressed you all managed to get this far. But it ends here. (turns to face us) Once I kill all of you, Chrysalis is sure to reward me!

Grumblemon: Buddy, you're not even gonna live long enough to see the war in April!

Me: And Chrysalis is way out of your league loverboy!

BURN!

Nico: Ooh sick burn.

Me: And when I'm done with you, you're gonna wish that you and Chrysalis hooked up.

We laughed at him and he then exploded in rage.

Bedlam: YOU FUCKING FOOLS! GET THEM!

Numerous men came out..

Adagio: Lets sing girls.

The Dazzlings sang and their red jewels lit up and then the men started fighting and killing each other and splattering their blood, guts and organs all over the place and we got a massive increase in Negative Energy and it felt like we absorbed the hatred and rage of numerous Kisenian Blossoms.

Me: WHOA! Adagio that was amazing!

Laney: Wow! You girls really knew how to get them to fight.

The whole floor was a bloodbath and all 8,283 men of Bedlam were all dead.

Kalin: Too bad that's not gonna be the case anymore.

Greiger: (sees the corpses of Omnirex, Maelstrom, and Cretaceous) We should probably eat those three for dinner. I've never had dinosaur meat before.

Ed the Protector: (to us) Thanks for helping us today, guys.

Rex Goodwin: It was our pleasure, Ed. If Old Skool is still out there somewhere, he'd be proud of what you accomplished today.

Me: He sure would. But Bedlam will never be welcome here again.

Nico: No he sure won't. I hope he likes being tortured and burned in the Warp.

Ed (Get Ed): (To the Viewers) Hope you all liked this adventure. I know I did and we have a lot of fun in store.

We went back home to the 21st Century and Progress City was now part of Gotham Royal York as a plant city.

THE END

Another fanfic done.

Get Ed was a great show from 2009 and it was awesome! I can't believe it was only on for 1 season and it was over. WHAT A RIP! And all because Toon Disney went bankrupt. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an interstellar battle as we head out to the world of Lolirock and we're going to destroy Praxina and Gramorr and make them both pay for their crimes and it won't be pretty for either of them. We're not going to let them get away with all the pain and suffering they caused to all of Ephedia and they will pay the ultimate price for their crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Interstellar Rockstar Princesses

At the World Tree Estate we were watching TV and reading books and playing cards.

Me: So far things have been very quiet.

Sunset Shimmer: Lets hope it stays that way.

Nico: Me too.

Twilight: Guys, if you don't mind, can we hear Voldemort's whole story?

Snake Man: In that case, we'll first have to tell you about Tom Riddle, his previous self.

Me: Yeah and what you will hear is not pretty. Tom Riddle and Voldemort are both The Ultimate Evil Incarnate. But to help you understand why Voldemort became the way he was, I will start with the history of Salazar Slytherin.

Daphne Greengrass: (British Accent) And the history with Slytherin is not pretty.

Me: No it's not.

I went over the history of Salazar Slytherin.

---

Salazar Slytherin is the posthumous overarching antagonist of the Harry Potter book and film franchise. He is one of the four founders of Hogwarts who founded the House of Slytherin and the ancestor of Lord Voldemort. Estranged from his fellow founders, Slytherin's goal was to purge Hogwarts from all Muggle-borns to keep the blood purity from Pure-blood wizards intact, directly influencing all the actions of Lord Voldemort and his Death Eaters hundreds of years later.

History

Salazar Slytherin was one of the first recorded parselmouths (wizards that have the extremely rare ability to speak to snakes). When he founded Hogwarts with the other three founders, he chose students that show traits of resourcefulness, leadership, ambition, cunning, shrewdness and determination.

Although he had a peaceful and friendly relations and coexistence with the other three founders, Salazar Slytherin became disillusioned as time passed, wanting to be more selective of the students admitted to Hogwarts. He believed that the school should only accept pure blood witches and wizards, as he distrusted Muggle-borns, possibly of the great conflict between Wizardkind and Muggles. He tried to sway the other founders to agree with him but they refused, especially Godric Gryffindor. This caused Salazar Slytherin's friendship with Godric Gryffindor to break and resulted in him leaving the school. Before leaving, Slythering built a hidden room within the castle where he placed a Basilisk egg without the knowledge of the other founders.

Slytherin planned to have his "heir" eventually find that hidden room and unleash the Basilisk in order to kill all Muggle-born students in Hogwarts. This secret room came to be known as "The Chamber of Secrets" after the other founders heard rumours of its existence but were unable to find it.

Future Hogwarts headmasters conducted multiple attempts to find Slytherin's Chamber of Secrets but all proved to be futile, leading the Chamber to be dismissed as a mere myth. As time passed and the castle was expanded, the Chamber was flooded by the addition of plumbing systems while a girl's bathroom was built over the original secret entrance, making said bathroom the new entrance.

It is unknown when or how he died, but it is known that his portrait is still at Hogwarts and his locket was made into a horcrux by Voldemort.

Slytherin's bloodline was passed down through the female line for generations. The Gaunt family, who practised inbreeding by marrying their own cousins, in order to keep their bloodline pure and their ability to speak Parseltounge, were the last known family to possess Salazar Slytherin's blood. Among the last of the Gaunts included Marvolo Gaunt and his two children Morfin and Merope. Merope fell in love with a Muggle named Tom Riddle and eloped with him, while her father and brother were in Azkaban. Eventually Tom and Merope's marriage resulted in the birth of Tom Marvolo Riddle, later known as Lord Voldemort.

Riddle discovered that he was the heir of Slytherin during his time as a Hogwarts student, as such he found the Chamber of Secrets and initially followed Slytherin's plan. However, after the Basilisk killed Myrtle Warren, the school was threatened to be shut down. As such, Riddle was forced to stop accessing the Chamber and instead left one of his Horcruxes behind so that he could continue using the Basilisk through someone else in the future.

After Voldemort's death, everyone thought that Slytherin's bloodline had ended. More than 20 years after Voldemort's death, it's revealed that Voldemort had a daughter with Bellatrix Lestrange, her name was Delphini. As of 2020, Delphini is the last known survivor of the Slytherin bloodline.

---

When I was done everyone was shocked and horrified.

Twilight Sparkle: So he was a pureblood supremacist wizard!?

Me: Yep. Salazar Slytherin believed that only wizards that are pureblood can learn the powers of magic and that everyone else must be civilians or destroyed. The founders of Hogwarts Hated that idea and said that ALL wizards equally should learn magic no matter what their lineage has.

Harry Potter: (British Accent) That's right.

Me: Now here's Voldemort's history and you guys are not gonna like what you are about to hear.

I went over Voldemort's history and it was not pretty.

---

Tom Marvolo Riddle (December 31, 1926 - May 2, 1998), better known as Lord Voldemort, is the main antagonist of the Harry Potter franchise. He is the archenemy of Harry Potter.

He serves as the overarching antagonist of The Philosopher's Stone / The Sorcerer's Stone, The Goblet of Fire, and The Order of the Phoenix, his Diary Horcrux serving as one of the two main antagonists (alongside Lucius Malfoy) of The Chamber of Secrets, the unseen overarching antagonist of The Prisoner of Azkaban and The Half-Blood Prince, the main antagonist of The Deathly Hallows, and the posthumous overarching antagonist of The Cursed Child .

He is the heir of Salazar Slytherin who was destined to open the Chamber of Secrets and purge Hogwarts from all Muggle-born students. Initially, Riddle's goals were only to fulfill his role as Slytherin's heir, but over time, he had expanded his ambitions into taking over the entire wizard world and shape it under his and Slytherin's supremacist views, becoming the most powerful and feared Dark Wizard of all time above Gellert Grindelwald, as well as the founder and Lord of the Death Eaters in the process.

In the films, he was portrayed by Ralph Fiennes (as an adult, who also portrayed Amon Goeth in Schindler's List, Rameses in The Prince of Egypt, Victor Quartermaine in Wallace and Gromit: The Curse of The Were-Rabbit, Raiden the Moon King in Kubo and the Two Strings, Heathcliff in Wuthering Heights, Barry in Dolittle, Francis Dolarhyde in Red Dragon, Dennis "Spider" Cleg in Spider, and Hades in Clash of the Titans ); Christian Coulson (16-year-old) in Chamber of Secrets ; and both Hero Fiennes-Tiffin (11-year-old) and Frank Dillane (15-year-old) in Half-Blood Prince . In The Sorcerer's Stone, he was portrayed by Richard Bremmer in the flashback scene, but voiced by Ian Hart (who also played Professor Quirrell in the same film, Frankin Hall in Marvel's Agents of S.H.I.E.L.D. and Ryan McGregor in the BBC adaptation of Noughts & Crosses ).

Tom Marvolo Riddle was born on New Year's Eve, 1926 in an orphanage in London. He was born to Merope Gaunt, a direct descendant of Salazar Slytherin, and Tom Riddle Sr., a wealthy and extremely snobbish Muggle. Merope magically tricked Tom Sr. into marrying her and kept him under control until she finally let him go, hoping he would have fallen in love with her on his own after, but he abandoned her without second thoughts, desperate and miserable, she died shortly after choosing a name for her newborn son. J.K. Rowling stated that due to the fact that he was born because of a love potion, it made him unable to feel love and made him the monster he was, though it would have been different if Merope survived and loved him.

Tom Riddle grew up in a dingy orphanage, completely unaware of his Wizarding heritage, though he did have a lot of grasp on his abilities beyond that of normal magical children, which he used to harm people he did not like. He was never caught for any of his acts but was suspected nonetheless. He used fear and manipulation to control his fellow orphans and regularly stole from them, who feared him so much that they refused to share a room with him. Although he was far more intelligent than his peers, he already demonstrated disturbing sociopathic and megalomaniac tendencies.

When Tom was 11 years old, Dumbledore visited the orphanage and invited Tom to attend Hogwarts. Not much else is known of his childhood.

Hogwarts Years

Tom Riddle was educated at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry from 1938 to 1945 and was placed in Slytherin. During summer breaks, he would return to the Muggle orphanage, which he despised and dreaded more than any other place on Earth.

Tom described himself as "poor, but brilliant, parentless, but so brave, a school prefect, a model student." This opinion was shared by the Professors, including Horace Slughorn whom Tom tricked into telling him about Horcruxes. The sole exception to this was Albus Dumbledore, the Transfiguration professor at the time, who still admits that Tom was the most brilliant student Hogwarts has ever seen.

Tom eventually became obsessed with his parentage and began researching it with an insatiable hunger. During his research, he realized his shared heritage with Salazar Slytherin. During this time, Tom relinquished the Muggle name he loathed and began going by the name " Lord Voldemort": an anagram of his given name: "Tom Marvolo Riddle" rearranged giving: "I am Lord Voldemort"

In his 5th year, Tom located the secret entrance to the Chamber of Secrets and was able to control the Basilisk (the snake-like monster inside) because he was a Parselmouth. Tom turned the beast loose on the school, injuring many. The last victim was a student named Myrtle, who was killed in the girls' bathroom and whose soul later became a lingering ghost in the same restroom by the name of "Moaning". Hogwarts was to be closed, but Tom didn't want to return home. To keep the school from shutting down, he framed fellow student Rubeus Hagrid, who secretly raised Aragog, a baby Acromantula (Giant Spider).

Dumbledore, distrusting Riddle, kept a close watch on him after that. Because it was no longer safe to open the Chamber of Secrets, Tom created a diary to preserve a part of his soul, hoping it would one day lead someone to finish Salazar Slytherin's "noble" work. This diary was one of his seven Horcruxes. At Tom's last year at Hogwarts, he was perfect, Head Boy, and he had received a medal for magical merit.

Little Hangleton

During the summer of 1943, Tom Riddle went to the small hut where his mother once lived. There he gained information about his mother and father, and then stunned his uncle Morfin Gaunt (the last remaining inhabitant) and implanted a false memory of him killing the Riddle family inside his head. Later that morning, all 3 Riddles were found dead in the drawing-room of their home. Investigating wizards learned Morfin's wand was used to commit the murders and he confessed the murders. As for people in Little Hangleton, they grew to blame the Riddles' gardener Frank Bryce.

After Hogwarts

Shortly before graduating, Tom used his charisma to charm the spirit of Helena Ravenclaw (more commonly known as the Grey Lady, the ghost of Ravenclaw Tower) into revealing the location of Rowena Ravenclaw's Diadem. Then when he finished his education, he asked Armando Dippet for a chance to teach Defence Against the Dark Arts at Hogwarts but was deemed too young. After leaving Hogwarts, he presumably traveled to the far-flung forest in Albania about which Helena had told him and retrieved the Diadem. He murdered an Albanian and turned the Diadem into a Horcrux. Upon his return to Britain, he was offered several positions in the Ministry of Magic but ended up working at Borgin and Burkes for Caractacus Burke, which disappointed and surprised many. His job was to "persuade" people to part with their valuable magical items - a job at which he was very good.

During his time with Borgin and Burkes, Tom charmed a wealthy, elderly lady named Hepzibah Smith, a descendant of one of Hogwarts' founders, Helga Hufflepuff. After several visits showed him her 2 most valuable treasures: Salazar Slytherin's Locket and Helga Hufflepuff's Cup. Tom killed her and stole the objects, vanishing without a trace. He covered his tracks well by implanting another false memory into an innocent person, Hokey, Hepzibah's house-elf, who admitted to accidentally putting poison into Hepzibah's cocoa. Meanwhile, Tom ran away with the cup and locket and turned them into two more Horcruxes.

Transformation

Tom disappeared for many years, slipping deeper into the Dark Arts. The more he made Horcruxes, the less human he became and eventually lost all trace of humanity. Tom appealed once more to Albus Dumbledore, now Headmaster of Hogwarts, for the position of Defence Against the Dark Arts professor, in an attempt to learn Hogwarts' secrets and recruit followers. Dumbledore denied him, knowing of his plan. The position has since been jinxed; teachers only held the position for a year until Riddle's death ended the spell. Riddle's visit to request the position was not fruitless, however; he hid Rowena Ravenclaw's Diadem in the Room of Requirement, where he believed it would never be found.

The Rise of the Dark Lord

In the 1970s, Lord Voldemort had gathered a following of witches and wizards, who named themselves the Death Eaters. He then began taking advantage of the Wizarding World's greatest weakness: the beings and creatures that they had outcast. He recruited Giants, Werewolves, Dementors and many others; and used his army to wage war against the Ministry of Magic. At the height of Voldemort's reign of terror (and for many years after), people were so afraid of him that they didn't even dare to speak his name, referring to him as "You-Know-Who" or "He-Who-Must-Not-Be-Named."

One of the Wizarding World's few remaining safe places was Hogwarts, which was under the staunch protection of Albus Dumbledore, the only person Lord Voldemort feared. Dumbledore created the Order of the Phoenix to fight against Voldemort, but they were outnumbered and suffered many casualties. In 1979, word came from an informant, Severus Snape, of a Prophecy that predicted Voldemort's downfall:

" The one with the power to vanquish the Dark Lord approaches… Born to those who have thrice defied him, born as the seventh month dies… And the Dark Lord will mark him as his equal, but he will have power the Dark Lord knows not… And either must die at the hand of the other for neither can live while the other survives… „

This Prophecy was made by Sybill Trelawney, during a job interview with Albus Dumbledore for the position of Divination. According to Dumbledore, Snape only heard the part about Voldemort's downfall and to whom it may relate, before being thrown out by the barman, (Aberforth Dumbledore). Frightened, the Dark Lord sprang into action, unknowingly launching a chain of events that would eventually accomplish the fate he sought to avoid.

Lord Voldemort realized he must kill the 2 babies to whom it could refer - Harry Potter, a Half-Blood, and Neville Longbottom, a Pure-Blood - For reasons known only to Voldemort himself, he chose to kill Harry instead of Neville (Dumbledore suspected this was because Harry shared his Half-Blood heritage with Voldemort). Due to the involvement of Peter Pettigrew, James Potter's friend-turned-Death-Eater, Lord Voldemort learned the Potter family's secret location. Voldemort murdered James and Lily Potter, but when he used the Killing Curse on Harry, it rebounded upon himself, ripping his soul from his body and destroying his powers. Lord Voldemort had been defeated by the one-year-old boy because Lily's love for her son created an invisible and powerful defense in Harry's skin when she died for him.

The Death Eaters were lost. Many claimed they had been under the Imperius Curse, while others stayed true to their master and continued his work, most notably the Lestranges; Bellatrix and her husband, Rodolphus. Eventually, they were all captured and locked away in Azkaban.

Missing Years

Lord Voldemort wasn't dead, however. His Horcruxes kept him alive, although formless and powerless. He retreated to the same Albanian forest he had traveled to find Rowena Ravenclaw's Diadem, expecting one of his faithful Death Eaters to find him and help him. But those still faithful to him were either dead or in Azkaban. He gained a form by inhabiting snakes, which never lived long.

During the incidents with the Cursed Vaults, Jacob's sibling encountered several Boggarts in his/her third year, taking the shape of his/her greatest fear; Lord Voldemort. In the Vault of Fear, he/she had to save his/her friends from three Boggarts taking the shape of Voldemort, turning them into clowns. Then another Boggart appeared, saying the words of the real Voldemort; " There is nothing worse than death", before being forced to fight it. After defeating the Boggarts, Jacob's sibling and his/her friends escape and discovers the treasures of the Vault.

Second Defeat

Fortunately for Lord Voldemort, Professor Quirrell was wandering into the forest while on a vacation and he was able to make him into his follower. In 1991 - 1992, Voldemort ordered Quirrell to steal Nicolas Flamel's Philosopher's Stone from a vault in Gringotts Bank, so he could make the Elixir of Life. However, it had been removed by Hagrid right before Quirrell could steal it. Lord Voldemort then possessed Quirrel and took form on the back of his head, which was concealed by a turban. Quirrell often drank Unicorn blood to sustain his master.

Quirrell tricked Hagrid into telling him about Fluffy, the three-headed Hound that was the first guard of the Philosopher's stone at Hogwarts. Now all they needed was a way to get into the Forbidden Corridor. Severus Snape was suspicious, however, and when Quirrell let loose a Troll in the dungeons as a distraction, Snape blocked him off.

Voldemort had Quirrell send a fake letter to Dumbledore, asking him to go to the Ministry of Magic, then moved on with their plan. They beat their way through the security enchantments and reached the Mirror of Erised. There, Quirrell saw himself presenting the stone to his master, but could not get it. It was only when Harry arrived that they could retrieve the stone, as only someone who wanted to find the stone, but not use it, could get it from the mirror. Voldemort figured this out, and Quirrell attacked Harry, but when he touched Harry, his hands blistered. Harry placed his hands on Quirrell's face, severely injuring him. Lord Voldemort's soul fled when Dumbledore barged in, once more without a body.

Second Exile and the Diary

Lord Voldemort returned to the Albanian forest, weaker than ever. He had to wait for another to help him.

In 1992, Lucius Malfoy placed a diary containing the soul fragments of Voldemort embedded in it into Ginny Weasley's cauldron who brought it to Hogwarts. She came in contact with the 16-year-old-Riddle Horcrux, who feigned to comfort her to manipulate her. Riddle's memory learned all he could about his future self-defeat and Harry Potter. He slowly drained the life away from Ginny Weasley and put her under his control. He made her open the Chamber of Secrets and release the Basilisk, kill Hagrid's roosters, and write threatening messages on the wall outside Moaning Myrtle's bathroom. Gradually, Ginny became suspicious, so she threw the diary away in Moaning Myrtle's Bathroom. Harry and Ron accidentally stumbled upon it, and Harry began communicating with Tom.

Tom misled Harry about who opened the Chamber of Secrets, convincing him it was Hagrid. When Ginny saw that Harry had the Diary, she stole it back for she did not want Harry to find out all the things she had done while under its influence. When Tom was ready to take his physical form from Ginny's life, he lured her into the Chamber of Secrets. The switch was almost complete when Harry found them. Tom summoned the Basilisk to kill Harry, but Dumbledore's phoenix, Fawkes arrived and blinded the monster. Fawkes also brought the Sorting Hat, from which Harry withdrew Godric Gryffindor's sword. He killed the Basilisk, then used the Basilisk's fang to stab the Diary, unknowingly destroying one of Lord Voldemort's Horcruxes.

Rebirth and Second Rise to Power

In 1994, Peter Pettigrew, who had been hiding in his Animagus form of Scabbers, Ron's rat, ever since his Master's defeat, was unmasked and fled, eventually returning to his Master. He milked venom from Nagini the snake to built a rudimentary body that Voldemort could travel and perform magic with. Pettigrew had also captured Bertha Jorkins, a Ministry Official. Peter overheard her talking about a Triwizard Tournament at Hogwarts, and Voldemort used a Memory charm to retrieve the information from her, overpowering the previous Memory Charm cast upon her. He then found out about the whereabouts of a loyal Death Eater, Bartemius Crouch Jr, who Crouch Sr. was forcefully hiding in his home, after freeing him from Azkaban.

Voldemort had Pettigrew carry him to the old Riddle manor house, where they killed the groundskeeper Frank Bryce for overhearing their plan; and then to the Crouch home where they placed Crouch Sr. under the Imperius Curse, freeing Crouch Jr. They returned to the Riddle home, where Voldemort instructed Wormtail and Crouch Jr. to capture Alastor Moody, the new Defence Against the Dark Arts Professor at Hogwarts. Crouch Jr. drank Polyjuice potion with a few hairs of Alastor Moody and went to Hogwarts to make Harry participate in the Triwizard Tournament. The fake Moody helped Harry through all the challenges, and when Cedric and Harry grabbed the Triwizard Cup (which, unbeknownst to them, was a Portkey), they were transported to outside the Riddle mansion, where Peter and Voldemort were waiting. Pettigrew killed Cedric and used Harry's blood in a ritual for his master's rebirth. Voldemort regained his body and called his Death Eaters. Those who were perhaps most loyal to him, save for those who willingly went to Azkaban in his name, appeared.

He then tried to kill Harry, but since their wands were made from the same Phoenix's feathers, the core wands connected, and those who were killed by Voldemort's wand came out as spectral beings, including Harry's parents. Harry pulled away, and the beings gave him enough time to grab Cedric's body and the Triwizard Cup to return to the Hogwarts grounds.

Barty Crouch Jr. had been discovered and was given the Dementors' kiss before he could stand trial, leaving the only knowledge of Voldemort's return as Harry's word, which wasn't taken seriously by most. Due to this, Voldemort was able to operate in secret.

Prophecy Search

Lord Voldemort kept quiet about his return, and only a few believed he was back. Yet Dumbledore started the Order of the Phoenix again, this time with a head start.

In 1995, Voldemort was now after the Prophecy in the Department of Mysteries, to hear the whole of it. Voldemort used the Imperius curse on an Unspeakable: Broderick Bode, and sent him in to get it. However, Bode was seriously injured, and put into a permanent ward at St. Mungo's, where he was eventually murdered by a Devil's Snare plant delivered to his bedside. Voldemort then learned that only the people the Prophecy is about are able to touch it, although understandably he couldn't risk going into the Ministry for fear of exposure. During this period of time, many of Voldemort's most loyal followers, such as Bellatrix Lestrange, escaped from Azkaban and returned to his side.

Eventually he became aware of Harry seeing through his eyes, so he set up a false vision, of Sirius being tortured at the Ministry. Harry, Hermione, Ron, Luna Lovegood, Ginny and Neville went to rescue him, as Voldemort predicted. Now that Harry had gotten the Prophecy, all they needed was to get it from him, but they put up a fight during which the prophecy was smashed.

In the end, Voldemort appeared and tried to kill Harry, but ended up duelling Dumbledore. After a destructive battle with Dumbledore, Voldemort possessed Harry, telling Dumbledore to kill him now, but he fled when Cornelius Fudge and other Ministry officials arrived, now convinced of his return. Many of Voldemort's Death Eaters, including Lucius Malfoy, were incarcerated and sent to Azkaban, though by this time the Dementors had left to side with the Dark Lord.

Second Wizarding War

Now that Voldemort no longer needed to keep his actions silent, he waged a second war against the Ministry of Magic. Mass Muggle killings and destruction, were rampant.

In 1996, he made Draco Malfoy a Death Eater, requiring a loyal follower within the school. He instructed Draco to kill Dumbledore, for he wished to punish Lucius Malfoy by giving his son a task he could not do. If he failed, he would meet terrible consequences. In the end, Malfoy was able to sneak a group of Death Eaters into the Castle through a pair of Vanishing Cabinets (the second of which was located in Borgin and Burke's), and a Battle at Hogwarts ensued. Voldemort's plans were carried out, as Severus Snape killed Dumbledore (Albus was dying and asked Snape to kill him and also to save Malfoy, for he had made an Unbreakable Vow with Draco's mother, Narcissa).

Voldemort made Malfoy Manor his headquarters. During the summer of 1997, he captures the Muggle Studies teacher at Hogwarts, Charity Burbage, and kills her before he feeds her to Nagini. He also questioned the kidnapped wandmaker, Ollivander, about why his wand reacted so with Harry Potter's wand. Ollivander told him that Voldemort needed another's wand and so he takes Lucius Malfoy's wand.

When Harry is removed for the last time from his Muggle home; Voldemort flies to the scene where his Death Eaters are fighting with Order of the Phoenix airborne. He kills Mad-Eye Moody and then heads straight toward Harry. There Voldemort attempts to duel with Harry, but Harry's wand released a spurt of golden fire at him and destroyed Lucius' wand (Harry's wand absorbed a fraction of Voldemort's magic during their duel at the graveyard). Harry managed to reach the protection of Nymphadora Tonks' parents home and Voldemort was forced to retreat.

Angrily, he returned to Malfoy Manor and demanded from Ollivander to answer why Harry's wand yet again reacted towards him, even with a completely different wand. Ollivander told him truthfully that never in Wandlore has he ever heard of such thing happening. Infuriated, Voldemort resolved that he needed the most powerful wand known to man to defeat Harry Potter: the Elder Wand, the Deathstick, The Wand of Destiny. He set out to assume mastery of the Elder Wand, not knowing that it was one of the 3 legendary Deathly Hallows.

During the wedding of Bill Weasley and Fleur Delacour, Kingsley Shacklebolt announced through his Patronus that the Minister for Magic was dead and that the Ministry of Magic had fallen to Voldemort, giving him control over the entire Wizarding England. He establishes a totalitarian police state in its place and has all Muggle-Borns persecuted and imprisoned in Azkaban.

Voldemort traveled to Germany, in search of the wandmaker, Gregorovich. Eventually, Voldemort finally finds Gregorovich, who informs Voldemort that the Wand was stolen from him. Voldemort then performs Legilimency on him and sees a blond young man who steals the wand and disappears in the darkness. Since Gregorovich didn't know who the thief was, Voldemort killed him.

When Harry Potter and Hermione Granger go to Godric's Hollow, they fall into a trap devised by the Dark Lord, who knew that they would go there. Nagini, whom Voldemort had disguised as the historian Bathilda Bagshot, manages to ambush Harry, and calls Voldemort. Harry escapes shortly before Voldemort arrives however, and Voldemort finds not Harry, but a picture of the thief at the scene.

Voldemort realizes that the thief is none other than the Dark Wizard Gellert Grindelwald, whom Albus Dumbledore defeated. He breaks into the prison where Grindelwald was being held, where Grindelwald proceeds to tell him that it wouldn't bring about what Voldemort sought, and that there was so much Voldemort didn't understand. Voldemort killed Grindelwald and stole the Elder Wand from the tomb of Albus Dumbledore.

The Battle of Hogwarts

Following this, Voldemort became aware that Harry Potter and his friends are seeking his Horcruxes, and realizes that three of them have been stolen, with another destroyed.

Voldemort returns to Hogwarts following these revelations, to quell a revolution sparked by the arrival of Harry Potter. He rounds up his entire army of Death Eaters, giants, Dementors and Acromantulas and, after not receiving Potter, commands them to fight the Aurors, teachers, and students who were of age. Voldemort himself isn't present at the Battle; he is investigating why the Elder Wand doesn't work any differently than his old one. He comes to the conclusion that Severus Snape is the true master of the Elder Wand and orders Nagini to murder him.

Voldemort then calls a one-hour armistice, requesting Harry Potter in exchange for peace and no further deaths. Unbeknownst to Voldemort, Harry carried within him a seventh Horcrux, formed when Voldemort failed to kill him. When Harry meets Voldemort, Voldemort hits him with a Killing Curse almost immediately, but only destroys the Horcrux within, for when Voldemort used Harry's blood in the potion, it kept his mother's protection alive. Harry was knocked to the ground and feigns death.

Voldemort then marched to Hogwarts, proclaiming the death of Harry Potter and his victory. Neville Longbottom, instead of surrendering, charged at Voldemort, and the Battle recommenced.

Neville pulled the sword of Gryffindor from the Sorting Hat and decapitated Nagini with it, destroying the last of Voldemort's Horcruxes. Enraged, Voldemort attempted to kill Neville, but Harry interfered and cast a shield charm between them before the former could raise a wand. Voldemort entered the battle and forced his way into Hogwarts with his army, before getting locked in battle against Minerva McGonagall, Horace Slughorn, and Kingsley Shacklebolt all at once. When he saw Bellatrix Lestrange killed at the hands of Molly Weasley, he turned his wand on her, intending to kill her, but Harry revealed himself then to be alive, forcing the battle to stop, and the pair faced each other in the Great Hall.

When the two men are facing one another, Harry proceeds to tell Voldemort that he has magic that Voldemort knows not and a weapon more powerful than his, in addition to giving Voldemort warning of the fate that lay in store for him if he was unwilling to feel remorse for his actions. Goading him by using his real name, Harry tells him that Snape's loyalty was with Dumbledore all along, that Dumbledore's death was planned and that Snape wasn't the master of the Elder Wand; Draco Malfoy was.

Death

Originally horrified, Voldemort proceeded to tell Harry that it makes no difference, and that after he has killed Harry, Draco could be disposed of. Harry then states that if the Elder Wand is aware that Harry overpowered Draco in Malfoy Manor, then Harry himself is the true master. Refusing to believe this, Voldemort cast the Killing Curse at Harry, but Harry was indeed the master: The Elder Wand refused to kill its master and the spell rebounds, killing Tom Marvolo Riddle once and for all and finally avenging Harry's parents, Dumbledore and Snape as well as all those who were perished by Voldemort.

After his death, the jinx Voldemort put on the Defense Against the Dark Arts position was broken and the Dark Mark signs Voldemort gave to his minions faded from their arm, reduced into nothing but scars. The Ministry of Magic was reformed by Kingsley Shacklebolt, who was named the Minister of Magic. In addition, once the wizarding world as whole became aware of Voldemort's final death, they no longer feared to pronounce his name.

Since the Horcruxes damaged Voldemort's soul to the point that he couldn't even become a ghost, he is stunted to exist in the skinless baby-like form that Harry saw when he was in limbo, unable to cross over into the afterlife for all of eternity. Lord Voldemort, who was extremely afraid of death, received in the end, a fate far worse than that.

---

When I was finished everyone was shocked and horrified even worse.

Applejack: That son of a gun!

Twilight Sparkle: Voldemort and his followers wanted to wipe out all muggle born and mudblood wizards!? That's insane!

Me: Along with 7.3 billion innocent people. And it takes racism and genocide to a whole new level. They were gonna basically exterminate the entire human race so that only pureblood wizards can rule the world.

Nico: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle: That is horrible!

Me: Yeah. Voldemort and his followers got what they deserved and they need to burn in the energies of the Warp forever.

Nico: You got that right.

Lola: Yeah!

Sunset Shimmer: So, Voldemort killed Harry's parents before?

Patsy Smiles: Yep. That was before Harry, who was still a baby, managed to incapacitate Voldemort.

Me: Yep. But in doing so as he was killing people, Voldemort locked parts of his soul into 6 artifacts and turned them into Horcrux's. But the shocking piece we found out was Harry Potter's lightning bolt shape scar on his forehead. (Harry showed his scar) That scar is not just an ordinary cut. It was cut onto him to hold a piece of his soul.

Everyone gasped.

Fluttershy: That's horrible!

Me: Yeah it was. The first time we battled Voldemort was with Rin and her group and they arrived at Hogwarts when the brutal war of wizards was going on.

Rin Nohara: Me, Lola, Luna Lovegood, Hermione, Ginny and Aylene killed him and burned him into ashes the first time.

Me: The second time was after we defeated M.O.D.O.K., I used the Cosmic Cube to resurrect all that Voldemort killed and in doing so it brought Harry Potter's parents and everyone he killed back to life.

Nico: I remember hearing about that! That was incredible!

Me: But it could only be used once. So I made it count for that.

Eli: Wow! That's amazing!

Me: Yep.

Twilight Sparkle: What were the artifacts that held pieces of Voldemort's soul?

Me: They were Tom Riddle's diary, Helga Hufflepuff's Chalice, Rowena Ravenclaw's Diadem, Salazar Slytherin's Locket, Marvolo Gaunt's Ring, Voldemort's pet snake Nagini and lastly Harry Potter inside his scar.

Rainbow Dash: That's terrible!

Pinkie Pie: Are the artifacts gone?

Me: Yes we destroyed them and I removed that piece of Voldemort's soul.

Nico: Wow.

Fluttershy: Goodness.

Maria: Harry driving Voldemort off when he was a baby earned him the title "The Boy Who Lived".

Chop Shop: Unfortunately, Harry didn't really enjoy the fame.

Me: No he didn't. It had lots of ups and downs. Especially because of Lily's wretched sister and her fuck abusive husband.

Twilight Sparkle: Who are they?

Me: Warren and Petunia Dursley.

Lily Potter: (British Accent) I never want to hear those monsters again.

Me: I'm sorry Lily. I know it's a sore subject to talk about but it's for Twilight and her friends. They all have a right to know.

Lily Potter: Oh that's all right.

Me: Good. Thinking about everything they did to Harry makes my blood boil every time. But thank goodness they are in prison for the rest of their fucking miserable lives.

Sunset Shimmer: What did they do?

Me: It's awful. It's not my place to tell you.

Harry Potter: I can tell them.

Me: Okay.

Harry Potter: They hated me and they hated all wizards. They called all of us freaks.

Harry Potter told them everything.

Dursley was the surname of a Muggle family, the only known living close relatives of Harry Potter. Petunia Dursley (née Evans) was the older sister of Harry's mother, Lily Potter (née Evans), but took the surname Dursley when she married Vernon Dursley. They had a son named Dudley.

Harry Potter's Muggle aunt and uncle met at work. Petunia Evans, forever embittered by the fact that her parents seemed to value her magical sister more than they valued her, left Cokeworth forever to pursue a typing course in London. This led to an office job, where she met the extremely unmagical, opinionated, and materialistic Vernon Dursley.

Large and neckless, this junior executive seemed a model of manliness to young Petunia. He not only returned her romantic interest, but was deliciously normal. He had a perfectly correct car, and wanted to do completely ordinary things, and by the time he had taken her on a series of dull dates, during which he talked mainly about himself and his predictable ideas on the world. During one particular date when they were sitting in his car in front of a chip shop she tearfully confessed about her strange sister. As she had expected, Vernon was quite shocked, though he comforted her and told her it was not her fault for having a "freak" for a sister and that he would not hold it against her. He finally proposed to her in his mother's (very ordinary) living room, it was all very emotional.

Due to Petunia's maternal connection to Harry Potter, he was sent to live with the Dursleys after his parents were murdered by Lord Voldemort. The belief was that Lily's maternal sacrifice for Harry would be transmitted through Petunia, even though she held Harry in contempt. Due to his wizarding background, Harry was treated with fear and negligence by the Dursleys; originally being kept oblivious to his wizarding heritage, and being told that his parents had died in a car accident.

The Dursleys lived at 4 Privet Drive in Little Whinging, Surrey, and often went out of their way to keep their neighbours oblivious to anything odd about their family, usually explaining away anything odd by telling people that Harry was a delinquent who went to a detention school far away. Harry did occasionally update them about Voldemort and the Death Eaters. Because of their family connection to Harry and the danger of Voldemort using them to get to Harry, they were forced to go in hiding for their own safety for a period of time during the height of the Second Wizarding War.

Despite his mistreatment of Harry, Harry's cousin Dudley Dursley eventually came to regret his cruelty towards Harry, and the two reconciled later in life; this was mostly due to an incident in the summer before Harry's fifth year of schooling that involved him saving Dudley from a Dementor.

Vernon Dursley was an English Muggle, husband of Petunia Evans, father of Dudley and uncle-in-law of Harry Potter. He used to live at 4 Privet Drive along with his wife and son for twenty years until they were forced into hiding during the escalation of the Second Wizarding War. After Petunia's sister Lily and brother-in-law, James Potter, were killed by Voldemort in their own home, Petunia remained the sole surviving blood relative of Harry's. Both Wizard and Muggle law demanded that Petunia and Vernon be the new legal guardians of Harry Potter, which they accepted (albeit reluctantly). However, they disliked Harry and treated him badly, while spoiling and fattening Dudley.

When Harry was sent a letter from Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, Vernon got very angry, as he detested anything to do with magic. He was a former student of Smeltings Academy and a director of the Grunnings drill manufacturing company. In 1997, Vernon, Petunia and Dudley left their house in order to be hidden from Lord Voldemort and his Death Eaters (by the Order of the Phoenix.)

After the Second Wizarding War, Vernon had at least two grandchildren through Dudley and his wife. It is possible that he had a better relationship with Harry and that they remained in contact. Through the union of Harry Potter and Ginevra Weasley, Vernon had two grandnephews-in-law, James Potter II and Albus Potter, as well as a grandniece-in-law, Lily Potter.

Early life

Little is known about Vernon's childhood life. He was born into the Muggle Dursley family and attended Smeltings Academy as a secondary school. Vernon had an older sister named Marjorie (Marge to family members and friends) who made a living breeding bulldogs.

Vernon started working for Grunnings in 1968 or earlier.

Vernon met Petunia Evans at an office job in London where he was a junior executive. He later married Petunia and settled with her at 4 Privet Drive in Little Whinging, Surrey in 1977. Before their wedding, Vernon had taken Petunia on a series of dull dates during which he talked mainly about himself and his predictable ideas on the world. After some time Vernon proposed marriage to Petunia, very correctly on one knee in his mother's sitting room. His fiancée accepted at once. He wasn't aware of the fact that Petunia's sister Lily was a witch, who was then attending her seventh year at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. Petunia eventually revealed to him that her sister was a witch after they stopped for a snack of battered sausage at a chip shop.

Marriage and family life

Vernon, along with his wife, always liked to be normal and never tolerated anything that they considered out of the ordinary. He knew that Petunia's sister was a witch, but kept it quiet. They had a baby boy on 23 June, 1980. This boy, Dudley Dursley, was highly spoiled by his parents.

It was after Voldemort's first downfall and the Potters' murder that Vernon first saw signs of wizards. Albus Dumbledore brought Vernon's nephew Harry to Little Whinging. Although reluctantly, Vernon and Petunia allowed him into their home.

During Harry's early life, Vernon treated him with indifference and cruelty. He forced Harry to live in the Cupboard Under the Stairs and generally mistreated and neglected him while spoiling his own son Dudley. Vernon tried his hardest to stop Harry knowing about the wizarding world and his true magical heritage and also ignorantly believing along with his wife that their harsh mistreatment of him would prevent his magic from surfacing. Before 1991, Vernon told Harry his parents died in a car crash. On Dudley's birthday that year, Vernon drove the family to the local zoo for the day, ranting as usual about the various and innumerable things that annoyed him, motorbikes being the chosen topic. When Harry remarked that he'd had a dream about a flying motorbike, Vernon nearly crashed into the car in front of them before bellowing at his nephew for saying such a ridiculous thing. He yelled at him some more and told him there was no such thing as magic, after Harry unknowingly used underage magic in the Zoo's reptile house.

When Harry got his first letter from Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, Vernon tried everything to stop him getting it as more and more letters arrived via Owl post, resorting to increasingly desperate measures as the letters entered the house in variously creative ways and becoming more and more unstable. He finally cracked one Sunday when a veritable flood of letters came pouring down the chimney, and had the entire family leave the house to try and prevent contact from Hogwarts. However, his erratic attempts failed after driving the family several miles away from home, and upon staying in a gloomy Hotel, he was shocked to see letters turn up there even. Eventually, he took his whole family to a Hut on a small rock on the sea, in a final drastic attempt to prevent contact and even bought what was most likely an illegal firearm as a final defence. But even this did not work, because it was found by Rubeus Hagrid, who personally gave Harry the letter, despite Vernon's stubborn protests and threatening him with the gun, which Hagrid contemptuously bent into a knot.

When Hagrid told Harry about how his parents really died, Vernon cynically responded by telling Harry that whatever happened to Harry's mother and father they probably deserved it, as well as that they were (in Vernon's opinion) freaks anyway and that the world was better off without them (also in Vernon's opinion). Hagrid threatened Vernon with his umbrella in response. The exchanges became more and more heated until Vernon angrily insulted Albus Dumbledore by calling him a "crackpot old fool". This would be a great mistake to Vernon: a livid Hagrid responded to Vernon's outburst by giving a pig tail to Vernon's son, much to the Dursley's horror.

After this incident, Vernon avoided Harry even more so than usual. Vernon reluctantly agreed to take Harry to King's Cross Station to board the Hogwarts Express, but only because it was on the way to the private hospital in London to remove Dudley's tail before he started attending Smeltings.

From then on Vernon only saw Harry in the summer holidays and even then treated him badly, although he reluctantly gave Harry Dudley's spare room.

Almost everything seemed to go wrong every time Vernon had guests over when Harry was present. In 1992, he invited Mr and Mrs Mason over for dinner to try and secure a deal with Mr Mason about a stock of drills. He also forced Harry to stay in his room and pretend he did not exist. Harry was willing to comply with this, arguably because he did not want to create unneeded problems for his uncle (and get himself in further dislike). Due to the appearance of Dobby, the deal was utterly ruined when Dobby destroyed Petunia's prized pudding and the frightening away of Mrs Mason by a Ministry of Magic Owl, due to her ornithophobia. The Ministry of Magic accused Harry of doing Dobby's levitation of the pudding, and threatened expulsion from Hogwarts for violation of the Underage Magic Act, but elected to let Harry off with a warning. Furious for his business deal failing and learning that Harry was forbidden to use magic outside of Hogwarts, Vernon had Harry locked in his room and even had bars fitted on his window to punish him, believing that Harry would be unable to escape without using magic. However, Harry was rescued by Fred, George and Ron Weasley using their father's Flying Ford Anglia, and when Vernon, Petunia and Dudley tried to stop Harry escaping by pulling him back into his room, they were all left dangling out of his window when the Weasleys drove off with Harry. Then, in 1993, Vernon's equally mean-spirited sister Marge visited, much to Harry's discomfort. When Marge insulted Harry's parents, Harry used magic to blow her up like a balloon. Vernon insisted Harry return her to how she was, but was refused. The Accidental Magic Reversal Squad later fixed her and modified her memory of having witnessed magic. Harry afterwards left Privet Drive, and as a result he did not sign Harry's Hogsmeade permission form, which he had beforehand actually agreed to sign, should Harry behave during Marge's visit.

In 1994, Vernon, along with Petunia, decided to put Dudley on a diet, following his dismal report from Smeltings and upon learning that his son was too overweight to fit into the school's uniform. When it was not going so well, he threatened Dudley that he would cut his pocket money if he did not stop sneaking in sweets, which made Dudley furious and caused him to throw his PlayStation out of a window. When Molly Weasley sent an invitation to the family inviting Harry to attend the 1994 Quidditch World Cup with them, Vernon angrily asked his nephew about the letter, as the Molly's letter was covered in stamps which the postman found amusing. After Harry explained, he yelled at him initially but eventually decided that his nephew could go. He and Petunia were very displeased and discomforted with the idea that wizards would soon be visiting their home. When the Weasleys came to pick up Harry by the Floo Network and accidentally destroyed their living room due to them trying to travel into their electric fireplace, Vernon became very intimidated in the presence of actual wizards, including when Arthur Weasley mentioned that he liked to collect batteries. When the Weasleys were leaving, Dudley ate a Ton-Tongue Toffee deliberately left by Fred and George Weasley, causing his tongue to swell. This sent Vernon into a rage which had him throw several china ornaments at Mr Weasley, all the time bellowing like an injured hippopotamus while Arthur was trying to fix Dudley's swollen tongue; it ended up being four feet long before Vernon and Petunia let Arthur shrink it.

Dudley's Dementor attack

In 1995, Vernon, Petunia and Dudley had learned that Lord Voldemort and his Death Eaters had returned to terrorise the both Wizarding and Muggle communities again. During the summer, Vernon and Petunia were concerned regarding Harry's overly attentive nature regarding his listening to the Muggle news, believing he was up to no good. Ironically, he and his wife were ignorantly unaware that Dudley was in fact terrorising the neighbourhood with his gang, engaging in anti-social behaviour and bullying younger children, instead believing that Dudley was simply going round his friends' houses for tea. Furthermore, Dudley was attacked by Dementors and Harry had to rescue him via Patronus Charm. Upon coming across his demented son, Vernon erroneously believed that Harry had in fact attacked Dudley himself. He became extremely angry with his nephew, believing that he had caused permanent brain damage to his son, and even expressed the view that Harry should face capital punishment. However, even when Harry explained to him that he had in fact saved Dudley from the Dementors and they were likely sent by the recently resurrected Voldemort, Vernon decided to throw Harry out of the house, since he did not want Harry staying because he believed that Voldemort was after him. However, he was reluctantly forced by Petunia to allow him to stay, on the grounds the neighbours would notice, when in reality she had just received an angry Howler from Albus Dumbledore, telling her to keep their promise of protecting Harry. When he heard that Harry was in trouble with the Ministry of Magic because of the letter from Mafalda Hopkirk, Vernon was delighted at the concept of Harry being punished by the Ministry. He locked Harry into his room for several days until leaving with his wife and son, to accept an award for the best kept lawn in England. In fact, it was a trick of Nymphadora Tonks, who had sent the Dursleys an invitation to a fake awards ceremony to get them temporarily out of their house. Tonks then escorted Harry to 12 Grimmauld Place, along with a group of other wizards. It was highly likely that Vernon was indignant at being fooled by the very cunning ploy.

Visit from Albus Dumbledore

During the summer of 1996, Vernon and his family were visited by Albus Dumbledore at their house, who had came to inform Harry and them of Sirius Black's will. Vernon was horrified and offended with the sudden arrival of Dumbledore into his home, due to his hatred and fear of wizards. Vernon was surprised and greedily interested when he learnt that Sirius Black had died, and that Harry had inherited 12 Grimmauld Place. He and his family were too fearful to drink Dumbledore's levitating drinks, which resulted in the drinks emptying themselves over their heads. Vernon was also horrified with the sudden arrival of Kreacher into his living room, as he had never seen a House-elf before. Vernon and Petunia were both admonished by Dumbledore for abusing Harry growing up and for spoiling Dudley, which in Dumbledore's eyes had inflicted irrevocable emotional damage upon their son, before Dumbledore left with Harry.

Hiding from Death Eaters

In the summer of 1997, Petunia, Dudley, and Vernon were placed under the protection of Dedalus Diggle and Hestia Jones, both members of the Order of the Phoenix, as it was believed that once Harry Potter turned seventeen, Voldemort would track down all members of his family and torture information out of them. Vernon, his wife and his son all left together: he did not care what would happen to Harry and it was Dudley, who had grown to respect Harry for saving his soul, who brought up the issue, though Vernon said little to Harry.

After their goodbyes, the Dursleys were driven off into the distance, leaving Harry alone on his quest. Petunia and Dudley actually felt a certain amount of fondness towards Harry as they parted in 1997. Vernon was about to shake Harry's hand good-bye. However, because of his dislike of both Harry and magic overall, refrained from doing so at the last second. He left as quickly as possible, hoping to save himself from what he only knew as a very bad and powerful wizard, Lord Voldemort.

Later life

After the war, Vernon had some grandchildren by Dudley. It is unknown if he remained in contact with his nephew, if even only on Christmas-card terms, like Dudley did: nevertheless, he had two great-nephews and a great-niece by Harry. It is also unknown whether Vernon returned to his home at 4 Privet Drive, or if he stayed where he'd been hiding throughout the Second Wizarding War.

In 2015, Vernon signed an online petition to reinstate Jeremy Clarkson as host of the television programme Top Gear, claiming it was the only reason he paid for a television licence.

At some point before 2020, Vernon's wife Petunia died. It's unknown if Vernon was still alive by this point.

Petunia Dursley (née Evans ) (c. 1960 - c. 2020) was an English Muggle woman, the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs Evans and the sister of the Muggle-born witch Lily Potter. During her childhood, she broke off contact with her sister and refused to have any contact with the wizarding world.

She married a Muggle, Vernon Dursley and they had a son, Dudley. However, when Lily was murdered by Voldemort, Petunia became guardian of her nephew, Harry Potter, who was only an infant then. She neglected and treated him cruelly for the most part, and confined him to sleep in the cupboard under the stairs (although she allowed him a room of his own after receiving his acceptance letters to Hogwarts in order to attempt to trick Hogwarts into not sending letters). In 1991, when Rubeus Hagrid came and said that Harry would go to Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, she became very angry at the fact her nephew had discovered his true magical heritage. She and her family left their home in 1997 in order to be protected from Lord Voldemort and his Death Eaters.

After the Second Wizarding War, her son married and she had two grandchildren. She died sometime before 2020.

Petunia was the eldest child of Muggles Mr and Mrs Evans and had a sister, Lily. However, Lily had many unusual abilities, such as making a flower's petals move without touching them, which her sister viewed with a mixture of envy and disapproval. One reason could have been because of the fact her parents praised Lily for her magical abilities and Petunia would have been jealous.

Severus Snape was a boy who also lived in the town of Cokeworth who possessed similar abilities and the two (Petunia and Snape) treated each other disdainfully. Lily, however, was intrigued by Snape and soon became good friends with him. Snape, later on, also developed a crush on Lily. When she received a letter from Hogwarts confirming that she was a witch, Petunia wrote to Albus Dumbledore asking if she could also study there too. Dumbledore responded saying that Petunia may not study at Hogwarts, and even though he responded kindly, Petunia felt hurt and left out, which also in part could have been because her parents were so proud of Lily's talents. From that point on, Petunia wanted nothing to do with magic or the wizarding world and frequently called Lily a "freak".

Marriage and estrangement from Lily

At some point in the early 1970s, Petunia left her home in Cokeworth to pursue a typing course in London. This led to her getting a clerical job, where she met Vernon Dursley, a junior executive whose complete ordinariness she found appealing. Vernon also took a fancy to Petunia and the two went on a number of dates, which mainly involved Vernon discussing himself and his narrow views of the world.

Vernon proposed to Petunia in his mother's sitting room[5] in late 1977. Petunia gladly accepted, but secretly worried what Vernon would think when he met Lily, who was then in her seventh year at Hogwarts. She eventually told Vernon about Lily being a witch on a date in his car that was parked overlooking a chip shop from which they had purchased battered sausage, and while he was shocked, he assured her he would not hold it against her.

The couple's first meeting with Lily and her boyfriend, James Potter, went poorly. Vernon tried to impress James with the car he drove and when James responded by describing his racing broom, Vernon assumed he must be living on unemployment benefits. James told Vernon about his parents' fortune in Galleons, but since Vernon could not tell whether he was being had on or not, he became angry. The evening ended with Vernon and Petunia storming out of the restaurant and Lily bursting into tears.

Petunia and Vernon were married and settled at 4 Privet Drive in Little Whinging, Surrey by the end of 1977. Fearing that she would be overshadowed, Petunia refused to have Lily as a bridesmaid, which upset Lily. At the reception, Vernon would not talk to James, but insultingly described him as "some magician" within his earshot.

Petunia had little contact with her sister thereafter. She and Vernon chose not to attend James and Lily's wedding and the last piece of mail Lily sent her was an announcement of her son Harry's birth on 31 July, 1980, which she took one look at and promptly threw away. However, Lily mentioned having been sent a vase for Christmas by Petunia in a letter to Sirius Black dated around 31 July, 1981.

Petunia and Vernon's only child, a son named Dudley, was born on 23 June, 1980. The couple took pride in being a "normal" family, unlike Lily's.

Giving a home to her nephew

Everything changed on the morning of 2 November, 1981, when Petunia opened her door to find a baby abandoned on her doorstep. The child turned out to be her sister's son, Harry Potter. A letter had been left by Albus Dumbledore, explaining the circumstances of Harry's arrival, including the death of both her sister, Lily and her brother-in-law, James. As she was the only member of the family that had her sister's blood running through her, this ensured the protection of Harry and his family from Lord Voldemort and his Death Eaters. She reluctantly agreed to take her orphaned nephew into her home and family, taking the responsibility to not tell Harry or anyone else about the fact that Harry was a wizard.

Petunia, however, did not treat Harry as a welcome addition to her family. The boy's mere existence gave Petunia a constant reminder of her sister and the world she herself had been excluded from. She treated Harry poorly, even keeping him in the Cupboard Under the Stairs as a bedroom for much of his childhood. She made a point of showering Dudley with gifts while completely ignoring Harry, although they were both around the same age. She forced him to do all of the chores around the house, while Dudley was free to do anything he pleased. Petunia also told Harry that his parents had died in a car crash and that the scar on his forehead came from that same accident. She did not let Harry ask any questions about his family, nor generally any questions at all for that matter.

Contact with the Wizarding world

When Harry's Hogwarts letter arrived in 1991, she supported her husband's decision to keep the truth from Harry. They constantly tried to burn or rip up the letters, but they found that nothing was helping to stop the letters coming to Harry, so Petunia and the rest of the family moved to different places in an effort to outrun this wizarding post, until finally they were tracked down by Rubeus Hagrid. When Hagrid forced the issue of Harry's origin, Petunia lost control and let loose all of the resentment she had held in about Lily's life. She also became horrified when Hagrid gave Dudley a pig's tail after Vernon insulted Albus Dumbledore. Harry decided to enrol in Hogwarts to leave his miserable life and the Dursley's abuse, and left with him to visit Diagon Alley. Just before Harry was to leave Privet Drive to the Hogwarts Express, she and Vernon had Dudley taken to a private hospital in London to have Dudley's transfigured tail removed, and agreed to take Harry to King's Cross Station simply because it was already part of their journey. When they believed Harry would be unable to travel due to Platform Nine and Three-Quarters not logically existing, they left Harry at the station spitefully laughing among themselves, believing he would be left stranded. However, Harry managed to successfully find the platform by conveniently meeting the Weasleys, a wizarding family who showed him to reach the concealed platform, allowing him to go to Hogwarts.

Over the next several years, Petunia still grudgingly permitted Harry to remain in her home over the summers, recharging the blood protections that kept him and her family safe from Voldemort throughout the rest of the year. However, almost everything seemed to go wrong every time she and her husband had guests over when Harry was present. In 1992, Vernon invited Mr and Mrs Mason over for dinner to try and secure a highly lucrative deal with Mr Mason about a stock of drills, which would hopefully massively boost the family's wealth and allow them to purchase a holiday home abroad. She and Vernon completely forgot it also happened to be Harry's Birthday that day. During the day, she prepared a pudding for the Masons and spent most of the day cleaning the house. When Dudley claimed Harry tried to cast a spell on him that day, she punished Harry by giving him more housework. She and Vernon forced Harry to stay in his room and pretended he did not exist. Due to the unexpected appearance of Dobby, the deal was completely ruined following Dobby's destruction of her prized pudding and the arrival of a Ministry Owl terrifying the ornithophobic Mrs Mason, causing the couple to leave their house in horror and disgust.

The British Ministry of Magic threatened to expel Harry, thinking he had done the magic himself. The Dursleys were also informed that Harry was forbidden to use magic outside of Hogwarts. Vernon then decided to have Harry locked in his bedroom, and she gave Harry cans of cold soup to eat through a cat flap in his bedroom door. Upon Harry's rescue from Privet Drive from Fred, George and Ron Weasley using their father's Flying Ford Anglia, she, Vernon and Dudley tried to physically pull Harry back into his room from his window to stop him, but they all were left dangling out of the window when the Weasley's drove off and took Harry with them. Then in 1993, her sister-in-law Marge visited. When Marge cruelly insulted Harry's parents, Harry accidentally lost control of his magic, which caused him to blow her up like a balloon. Vernon insisted Harry return her to how she was, but was refused when Harry informed him that she deserved what she got for her nastiness. The Accidental Magic Reversal Squad later fixed her and modified her memory, ensuring that she remembered nothing of her negative experience with magic.

In 1994, Petunia, along with her husband, decided to put Dudley on diet, following his dismal school report from Smeltings, which specifically stated he was too overweight to fit into their uniform. She and Vernon were also shocked with Dudley's very poor academic performance, along with complaints of bullying other students. When it was not going so well, she was forced to cut his food down to less than half of what he would usually eat. In order to boost Dudley's self-esteem, she also heavily restricted the diets of the whole household to strictly healthy meals and banned all unhealthy foods; she was also unaware that Harry was secretly eating wizarding sweets in his bedroom gifted to him by his friends. When Molly Weasley sent an invitation to the family inviting Harry to attend the Quidditch World Cup, Vernon angrily asked his nephew about the very strange letter. After Harry explained, he yelled at him, but eventually said that his nephew could go.[16] Petunia and Vernon were both very displeased with the fact that wizards would be soon visiting their home, and claimed she would show them no hospitality when they should arrive. When the Weasleys came to pick up Harry by the Floo Network, she became frightened and did not know how to react when in the presence of wizards, especially after when they accidentally destroyed her living room by blowing up their electric fireplace when attempting to travel with Floo Powder. When the Weasleys were leaving, her son ate a Ton-Tongue Toffee deliberately left on the floor by Fred and George Weasley, causing his tongue to swell wildly; Petunia became hysterical at the sight of her son in such pain, resulting in Arthur Weasley fixing Dudley's tongue and repairing their living room.

Dudley's Dementor attack

During the summer of 1995, Petunia and Vernon were suspicious of how Harry would constantly listen to the news, as they were ignorant of how Voldemort had returned, and that Harry was listening to see if Voldemort would launch attacks upon the Muggle world. She and Vernon were also totally ignorant of their son's Dudley's anti-social behaviour with his gang in the neighbourhood, incorrectly believing he was having dinner with his friend's families instead.

That summer, Dudley and Harry were attacked by Dementors and were only saved by Harry performing underage magic. She unintentionally revealed some knowledge of the wizarding world by telling Vernon what Dementors were. When asked how she knew, she said that she heard "that awful boy" and Lily talking about them (although Harry assumed at the time that she was referring to his father, due to his ignorance of Snape's childhood friendship with his mother). When Vernon ordered Harry out of the house, she reluctantly stepped in after a howler (later revealed to have been from Dumbledore) arrived telling Petunia to " remember my last ." Petunia cloaked her decision to allow Harry to stay in characteristic motives - that she knew it would appear strange to the neighbours if Harry suddenly vanished. Whether this was the true reason for allowing her nephew to remain there or perhaps a glimmer of family loyalty was not clear.

Visit from Albus Dumbledore

In the summer of 1996, the Dursleys were visited by Albus Dumbledore at their house, who came to inform them and Harry of Sirius Black's Sirius Black's will, in wake of his godfather's death. Petunia was shocked with the sudden arrival of Dumbledore, who complimented her flourishing agapanthus in the garden. When she and her family refused to drink Dumbledore's levitating drinks out of fear, the drinks simply emptied their contents over their heads. She and her husband were very surprised to be informed that Harry had inherited 12 Grimmauld Place, and were terrified when the House-elf Kreacher apparated into their living room suddenly but briefly. Dumbledore also admonished Vernon and Dudley for abusing Harry growing up, and for how their spoiling of Dudley had emotionally damaged their child irrevocably. Dumbledore took Harry with him afterwards, and Harry stayed the remainder of the summer at The Burrow with the Weasley's.

Hiding from Death Eaters

In the summer of 1997, the blood protection on Harry was due to expire. Petunia, Dudley, and Vernon were placed under the protection of Dedalus Diggle and Hestia Jones, both members of the Order of the Phoenix.

Just before the group left Privet Drive, Petunia watched her son offer the first words of acceptance Harry had ever heard from a Dursley and she burst into tears on Dudley. Petunia walked towards the door to leave, looked back at Harry and opened her mouth to speak, but shortly after she pursed them back up and walked out. Petunia had wanted to wish Harry luck with his quest, but suppressed it and left Privet Drive with her family. They went into hiding from Death Eaters and Lord Voldemort, who probably would have tried to torture them into giving away Harry's whereabouts, and would have most likely killed them regardless.

Later life

In later life, her only son Dudley married and had at least two children, making her a grandmother and mother-in-law to Dudley's wife. Harry has said to have been on "Christmas card" terms with Dudley and his family and went to visit them occasionally, which his children hated.

At some point before 2020, Petunia passed away for unknown reasons. It was revealed that she kept the blanket that Harry was brought to her in when he was a baby, which was given back to him after her death.

---

When he was done they were horrified.

Rarity: Those awful monsters!

Starlight Glimmer: They have no right to call themselves parents or family members.

Me: No they don't! Especially after all the pain and suffering they caused to Harry and so many others in the wizarding world. They not only abused Harry but they also killed over 70 wizards.

They gasped!

Sunburst: WHAT!? That's pure evil!

Me: I know but thanks to our mascots here they were sent to prison for the rest of their miserable lives.

Nico: They were given Whole Life Tariffs against them.

Twilight Sparkle: Whole Life Tariffs?

Me: That's England's version of Life in Prison Without Parole and they will be in prison until the day they die.

Vince: That's right. Quite frankly I think they deserve a place that's far worse than the fire of Hell.

Lola: Me too.

Carol: Same here.

Lily Potter: I agree with you. They deserve worse.

Nico: Yep.

Moonracer: And there's more.

Rarity: And what is that?

Moonracer: While we were killing the Death Eaters, we also removed Remus Lupin's curse.

Remus Lupin: You all definitely cured me considering I haven't turned into a werewolf ever since Greyback's demise.

Me: That was almost a year ago. But thank goodness for that professor Lupin.

Remus Lupin: And I will always be forever grateful for you for saving me.

Nico: Anytime professor.

Twilight Sparkle: Man! Harry Potter and all of Hogwarts have been through a nightmare!

Me: I know. It makes Hell seem like Heaven. Voldemort's crimes against the world make World War II and all the wars we've had over the centuries seem like food fights in comparison. What he did makes him nothing short of pure evil.

Twilight Sparkle: No kidding. That's awful.

Pinkie Pie: But thank goodness they all are dead.

Me: Yep. And we helped establish a new law and made sure that Salazar Slytherin's work and legacy would never be fulfilled. We made it into law that anyone that does that would be punished either by us or the Ministry of Magic. It is now in a sense a federal crime and acts of terrorism and treason.

Nico: Harsh but it fits.

Lola: Yep.

Varie: Salazar Slytherin's crimes are just as bad as what HE did in World War II.

Me: You got that right.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja.

Edwayl: (Bretton Accent) It's horrible lads.

Me: Yep.

I looked at my watch and saw the time.

Me: Whoa! We got to get going.

William: Where are we going this time?

Me: We're going to the town of Sunny Bay in Florida.

Starfire: You guys are in for an amazing treat. Me and Blackfire know a bunch of great girls there.

Blackfire: They are called Lolirock and their music is amazing. Their leader Iris is from the planet Ephedia.

Shanan: Oh man! I know the planet Ephedia. It's a magical kingdom that was liberated recently from the terror of the evil Grand Wizard of Chaos, Gramorr.

I gasped when I heard that name!

Me: Oh man! I remember Gramorr.

Nico: How do you know him J.D.

Me: Because I killed him years ago.

Lola: WHOA! You killed Gramorr?

Me: It was long before I moved to Michigan and formed the team. It was 3 years before I moved here. I am also the one that helped Princess Iris and her friends kill Gramorr. And I also helped kill one of his followers Mephisto. His twin sister Praxina wants my head mounted on a pike for it. She will stop at nothing to kill me and make me suffer.

Everyone gasped in shock!

Nico: WHOA!

Varie: She must have a really huge vendetta against you!

Me: That is the best way to describe it.

Lola: Yeah.

Starlight Glimmer: That's awful.

The Dark Signers and Webstor all appeared.

Misty Tredwell: J.D., can me, the other Dark Signers, and Webstor go with you guys?

Me: You all can Misty.

Webstor: We've heard a lot about Gramorr and all his minions and how dangerous they are. And we had no idea that you are the one that killed him and Mephisto.

Me: Yeah and Praxina has been after my head for 8 years. I haven't seen her since. But it was because she swore to kill the LoliRock girls first and then me second.

Laney: What a monster!

Me: Looks like I have some unfinished business to take care of.

Nico: Oh boy. This is gonna be rough. But lets go.

Me: Yep. Team Loud Phoenix Storm…

Jaime: And Team Loud Fairy Wind…

Me and Jaime: LETS FLY!

We were off to Sunny Bay.

---

SUNNY BAY, FLORIDA

---

We arrived in the beautiful city of Sunny Bay, Florida.

Sandman: Is this the place?

Me: Yep. Welcome to Sunny Bay, Florida.

Laney: Wow! It's so beautiful!

Lola: It sure is. And the view of the ocean is amazing.

Twilight Sparkle: I'll say!

Misty Tredwell: I can't wait to have some fun on the beach.

Carly Atlas: Me too.

Lori: This is literally gonna be fun.

Me: Well first lets find LoliRock. You guys will love them. Their songs are incredible and awesome. They are just as awesome as the Rainbooms.

Twilight Sparkle: We can see that.

Sunset Shimmer: This is gonna be so cool.

We walked around the beach and then two figures appeared and they were PRAXINA AND MEPHISTO!

---

Praxina and Mephisto (more commonly known as The Twins ) are the main antagonists in the animated series LoliRock (aside from Gramorr) and its comic book adaptation. They were biological twins from the planet Ephedia who were sent to Earth to steal the Oracle Gems and destroy the Princesses. Praxina is voiced by Kelly Sheridan, and Mephisto is voiced by Vincent Tong.

The Twins Praxina

Praxina is the older twin sister of Mephisto. Like her brother, she has pale skin and burgundy hair, but has navy blue eyes. She also wears a black and white skirt with red tints and a symbol of a butterfly.

She is more intelligent than her brother and a very cold-hearted, ruthless and determined person. She is older than Mephisto by several minutes and it is typically her who comes up with the plans against the princesses. Though she is harsh and mean towards others, she truly does care for her brother.

Mephisto

Mephisto was the younger twin brother of Praxina. He had pale skin, emerald green eyes, and burgundy hair. He also wore a white shirt with a green snake symbol and wore umbrella black pants, gloves with green tints and shoes.

He was less coordinated than his sister when he battled the princesses one-to-one without Praxina around, which made him less intelligent. However, he had proven himself capable to be intelligent in the episode Lucky Star, as he had a back-up plan in advance after his sleeping spell didn't reach the princesses and that he used/ casted a lot of complex and unique spells in comparison to his sister.

Biographies Pre-Series

The Twins have a mysterious past, and no one knows their origins or who their parents were. However, we only know that they have an uncle named Pappy (in "Lucky Star"), who is a court jester that gave Mephisto a powerful staff that has the ability to make people fall asleep and get their powers drained (for Ephedians only).

Before the Crowning Glory Duology (Seasons 1-2)

Praxina and Mephisto arrived on Earth from Ephedia to bring the Princesses (especially Iris) down by stealing as much Oracle Gems as they can and bring eternal destruction with the help from Gramorr. However, this resulted in multiple fails where the Twins were forced to hear the painful yellings from their master as loud that it spreads throughout the galaxy. This phase continues until the last part of the final episode of LoliRock; Crowning Glory, Part II.

The Crowning Glory Duology and Mephisto's Fate

During the final battle of the entire series, Praxina and Mephisto (along with Gramorr) fought the Princesses at the dead-end of the controlled Castle of Ephedia, even near the dead end. When Iris sees that her friends Talia, Auriana, Carissa and Lyna are in full danger, she loses control over her powers and transforms into her intimidating and formidable Shanila form. Her battle against Gramorr gets taken to the extreme, but unaware of the incident, Mephisto pushes Praxina off the ground where a large, purple rock falls on him. In horror, Praxina looks as she is forced to see the death of her brother caused by explosion from the rocks. Iris then loses control of her blast-to-blast powers, and Gramorr stuns her until the fellow princesses come to the rescue and help her defeat Gramorr for good. Iris stands up, and the princesses altogether cast a powerful spell that instantly kills Gramorr. Praxina survived nonetheless, but Mephisto and Gramorr are nowhere to be seen until Banes arrives with half of Gramorr's mask and gives it to Praxina, making her the Big Bad she is as of now.

At the end of the final episode, Praxina (in her current "badass evil" form) gets surrounded with butterflies (her signature symbol) and is prepared for launching a surprise destruction at Iris' loved one (implying that she is going to kill Nathaniel as means of revenge for what Iris did to her brother, though this done by accident since Iris couldn't control her Shanila power-up and therefore has no remembrance of what happened).

---

Roman: Can we help you two?

Praxina: You can help us by telling us where the Lolirock are!

Maria: That's actually a problem considering we don't know where they are right now.

Mephisto: You think we're stupid? We know that you heroes probably met up with them by now thanks to JD telling you!

May: Ok. J.D. did tell us about them. But we honestly don't know where they are!

Praxina: Or maybe this is one of your plans that you fools always have!

Eddy: How could we have possibly made a plan against you two? We just got here a few minutes ago!

Eddy then dodged a magic blast that Mephisto fired. But the blast hit Sunstreaker in the shoulder.

Sunstreaker: Hey! Watch the paint!

Mephisto: You're gonna lose more then your paint if you all don't tell us where the Lolirock girls are. NOW!

But just then, Mephisto and Proxina were sent to the ground by two magic blasts. We then saw Iris and her friends there. Iris was the one who fired the blasts.

Iris: You want us? Here we are!

Talia (Lolirock): (to us) We'll talk more later. Right now, you guys should get somewhere safe.

Suntreaker: Might as well. I need to buff out this scratch that Mephisto gave me.

Me: One sec. I got to have a little chat with these two.

I went up to them.

Me: Mephisto and Praxina.

I flew up to them.

Me: Its been a long time.

Mephisto: That is has J.D. That it has!

Praxina: YOU KILLED MEPHISTO AND NOW I WILL KILL YOU!

Me: I didn't come here to reminisce about old times. You two and I have an old score to settle.

Mephisto: You bet we do and I will kill you like you did to me!

KROW!

I kicked him with devastating force in his face and sent him crashing into a cliff and then Praxina retreated.

I went back.

Me: Hmph.

Iris: J.D.!

She came and hugged me.

Me: Iris it's great to see you again.

Iris: You too. Wow! You sure have grown the last time we saw each other.

Me: I know. That was 8 years ago.

Francis: It's nice to meet you girls.

Iris: Same here. Sorry about the rough welcome.

Sunstreaker: Nothing a buffer can't fix.

Me: But it's great to see you all again.

Iris: Same here J.D. and you have gotten stronger than you were all those years ago.

Me: All the wonders of training and friendship.

Auriana: You look like you have been doing well.

Me: I'm not one to brag. How has your mom and dad doing ever since you saved them Iris?

Iris: They are doing great J.D. and Starfire, Blackfire it's great to see you girls.

They hugged.

Starfire: I know and it feels like forever.

Blackfire: It sure feels like it.

Talia (LoliRock): But the real question is how did Mephisto come back?

Me: That's what has me stumped.

My Dark Orb detector beeped and it showed that there was a dark orb inside the cliff where I sent Mephisto.

Me: He has a dark orb on him!

Iris: A Dark Orb?

Me: Essence of Xehanort. Long and ugly story.

Auriana: We'll have to hear it later.

Me: We have a lot to catch up on.

We went into the town and we were talking about lots of things.

Greiger: Apart from your villains, you girls live in a nice town.

Iris: Thanks Greiger. It is nice.

Lori: So Iris what is the planet Ephedia like?

Iris: It's a beautiful planet and the view of its moons is amazing. My castle is just as amazing.

Lola: Where is it located?

Shanan: Ephedia is located 23,203 light-years from Earth.

Me: Almost a quarter of the way across the galaxy.

Allenby: No kidding but that's amazing.

Jared: It sure is.

Nico: Wow.

Rhino: Why don't you girls show us around town and what you girls like to do outside of battle?

Iris: Sure thing.

We went to their school and went to their favorite restaurants and more. It was amazing.

Me: Wow!

Nico: Incredible and it is amazing that you do all this here.

Talia (LoliRock): And the concerts we do are awesome too.

Twilight Sparkle: We'll have to have a singoff to see who has the best music.

Me: Hey that's a great idea. We can have that when we get back home.

Carly: Iris, don't you have a boyfriend named Nathanial?

Iris: I sure do and he is the most amazing friend ever. He has been with me ever since I found out I come from Ephedia.

Me: I remember that. Nathanial has been like a big brother to me.

We walked and then we saw Nathanial.

Nathanial: Hey there's my bro!

Me: Nathanial my man!

We fistbumped, high-fived and headbutt and hugged.

Me: (Laughs) It's great to see you again bro!

Nathanial: I know J.D. It feels like forever!

Me: 8 years feels like it huh.

Nathanial: I know and now look at you. You are the leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and have done so much around the universe.

Me: I know but we don't like to brag.

Nico: It's an honor to meet you Nathanial.

Nathanial: Same here Nico and it's an honor to meet you all.

Varie: It's a pleasure but wow. We have so much to catch up on with you guys.

Iris: I know.

Sinestro: (to Nathanial) When did you find out about Iris' secret?

Nathanial: Surprisingly, during one of the battles with Mephisto and Praxina.

Me: I remember that. I was there when it happened.

Nico: Wow! That is amazing.

Laney: It sure is. Wow.

Me: Can we listen to one of your songs girls for old times sake?

Iris: You got it.

We then got to listen to the LoliRock Girls play one of their songs and they were awesome and we cheered wildly for them and it was awesome!

Me: WHOO! YEAH!

Nico: Awesome song!

Naruto: I loved it!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was great!

Devack: If I'm gonna be honest, Iris, you've got a really nice singing voice.

Iris: Thanks Devack.

Me: I think both the Rainbooms and LoliRock are awesome. They have awesome songs.

Sunset Shimmer: We sure do.

Lola: And they are so awesome!

Lana: Yeah they are!

Rainbow Dash: Yeah we do!

Iris: Yeah!

Killer Frost: (to Iris) Any other friends of yours besides Nathanial that we should know about?

Talia (LoliRock): Lots of them.

They told us about their relatives and siblings and family.

Aunt Ellen (voiced by Tabitha St. Germain in English version, named Tante Ellen and voiced by Magali Rosenzweig in French version) - Iris's adoptive guardian, she has taken care of her since she was a baby. She is a cheerful lady who likes to take care of her garden. In the start of the series, she takes in Talia and Auriana as exchange students. In the season 2 episode "Truth Be Told", it is revealed that her real name is Ellira, an Ephedian bodyguard to Iris's parents who is tasked with raising Iris and protecting her on Earth.

Doug (voiced by James Kirk in English version, Julien Crumpon in French version) - He has blond hair and typically wears a brown hat with a pink band. He debuts in Episode 13, "Batty". He is LoliRock's number-one fan and writes a blog about them, gushing over different things and happenings about them. Doug can be gullible sometimes due to his innocence.

Missy Robins (voiced by Ashleigh Ball in English version, named Suzy Robins and voiced by Audrey Sable in French version) - Iris's childhood rival who debuts in episode 2 "Flower Power". She greyish-black hair and yellow-green eyes. As the daughter of the mayor of Sunny Bay, she acts spoiled and vain. When asked whether Missy was based on rival character Mandy in Totally Spies!, the production Tumblr wrote that Missy was not based on her, even though she looks like her. They wanted a character that would be a love rival and a pest, and went with a brunette hair colour to contrast Iris being a blonde, calling it a "classic trope".

Izira (voiced by Chiara Zanni in English version, Jessica Monceau in French version) - Talia's older sister from Xeris. She possesses a great power, and is deemed to be a powerful, responsible and intelligent princess. Talia lost track of her since the attack of Gramorr on Xeris. It is later revealed that she was imprisoned in the prison fortress Krozak on Ephedia. In the show, she first appears in "Xeris". She has white hair, dark skin, and mulberry blue eyes. She returns in the season 1 finale episode "Home", where she leads a resistance movement against Gramorr. In the production Tumblr, she is nine years older than Talia, and her design was based mainly on imagining what Talia would look like in the future. To distinguish herself from Talia, she was designed with slightly darker skin tone and lighter hair. Her symbol is three diamonds.

Lev (voiced by Sam Vincent in English version, Yoann Bellot Sover in French version) - An Ephedian thief who initially appears as a fellow prisoner of Gramorr in the season 1 finale episodes and goes with Iris when they try to escape from their cells. However, it is soon revealed that he has been working for Gramorr all along (as he was the highest bidder) to get her to release the crown. His magic crest bears the symbol of an eagle.

Lyna (voiced by Kelly Sheridan in English version, Marie Nonnenmacher in French version) - A princess of Borealis, she debuts in "Home Part I". In her magical princess state, she has light green hair. She is shy, but brave, light-hearted, and sophisticated. She loves crystal tea and is proud that her castle had won awards for most beautiful. She and Carissa helped free Izira from Gramorr and joined her resistance movement. Her transformation item is a hair pin, and her symbol is a fleur-de-lys. Her weapon is a chakram (ring), but she prefers to use levitation in her spells. At the end of the first season, she joins the LoliRock girls on Earth where she has long straight black hair, medium skin, and violet eyes. As with Carissa, she is neither part of the band nor lives with them at Aunt Ellen's, but appears in some of the episodes. Her transformation sequence is inspired by Sailor Moon, specifically Sailor Uranus and Sailor Neptune, and they are shorter transformations than the main three girls for production reasons and because it would have been boring. According to the character designers, Lyna was depicted as snooty and delicate. Her colour theme is teal. During the development of Carissa and Lyna's characters, the designers wanted to make one of them styled like an Asian princess, and settled with Lyna, while the Caucasian version of Lyna was used for a guest character Debra in season 2.

Carissa (voiced by Tabitha St. Germain in English version,Fanny Bloc in French version) - A princess of Calix, she also debuts in "Home Part I". In her magical princess state, she has purple hair, and purple is also her general theme colour. She likes to show off her fighting skills, enjoys having bruises, and is fired up whenever she's fighting. After she and Lyna free Izira, she joins the latter's resistance movement. Her transformation item is an armlet and her symbol is a compass rose. Her weapon is a pair of clubs, and she prefers close-quarters combat. At the end of the first season, she joins the LoliRock girls on Earth, where she has red-orange hair styled in a fishtail braid, light skin and blue eyes. Storyboarder Christelle Abgrall wrote that Carissa's transformation was inspired by Sailor Uranus and her main attack. The characters designers depicted Carissa as a fiery tomboy. Carissa's hair was made brown in some of the early depictions so as to not confuse her with the redhead Auriana, but the designers later went with her original Irish redhead hair colour. Some of the drafts had also depicted her with dark skin or styled like an Asian princess.

Me: Wow! You guys have a lot of support here.

Iris: We sure do.

Kalin: We should probably inform them that Proxina and Mephisto are back. Assuming those two haven't paid them a visit yet.

Me: Good idea Kalin. But they won't be back for long. Because we're going to kill them both.

Naruto: Good. I'll warn them for us.

Me: Good thinking bro.

Naruto: SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

He formed lots of Shadow Clones and they went over to their relatives.

Me: Lets roll!

Eli: Right!

We went to said relatives and told them everything.

Scrapper: (to Aunt Ellen) Hi. Are you Iris' Aunt Ellen?

Aunt Ellen: I sure am and Naruto Uzumaki Namikaze and Scrapper it's an honor.

Naruto: Same here. I'm afraid that Mephisto and Praxina are back.

Next was Doug.

Webstor: Are you Doug?

Doug: I am and it's an honor Webstor.

Webstor: Pleasure. But we have to get you to safety. Praxina and Mephisto are back.

We got all the relatives out to safety and all that.

G1 Venom: That's all of them.

Me: Okay they are gonna be safe at the estate for the moment. Now we have to find Praxina and Mephisto and kill those bastards for good.

Nico: Easier said than done.

Lola: I know.

Rex Goodwin: Where are those two right now?

Me: They're waiting for us to make a move.

Wind blew and a tumbleweed blew across the road.

Me: It's quiet. Too quiet.

Nico: Yeah I don't like it.

I waited and concentrated.

Me: (Senses something) BUSTED!

I fired an energy blast and it hit an abandoned house and blew it apart in a fiery explosion and out came PRAXINA!

Me: Praxina! You will pay for your crimes.

Praxina: Not if I take you with me to hell!

Vypra, Shiv, Firefly, Bane, Saïx, Vexen, Iron Lung and Gearhead then appeared.

Me: Vypra, Shiv, Firefly, Bane, Saïx, Vexen, Iron Lung and Gearhead

Shiv: Great seeing you guys here.

Vypra: It sure is.

Praxina: (Viciously) Vypra!

Vypra: (Viciously) Praxina!

Me: Uh oh. I can tell that they know each other.

Iris: It's a real honor to meet you guys.

Shiv: Same here, Iris.

Praxina: (to Vypra) You've got some nerve showing yourself to us again, Vypra!

Bane: (to Vypra) (Spanish Accent) What's she talking about?

Vypra: (sighs) Before we battle, it's time you all learned about some of my past with these two.

Firefly: (points heat laser at Praxina) You interrupt Vypra's story and I'll shoot you through the head.

Me: YEAH!

Vypra: My past is this. Long before I worked with Queen Bansheera, I was one of Gramorr's servants. And let me tell you. Me and Praxina HATED each other. We DESPISED each other to the core. It got so bad that I nearly killed Praxina. She has never forgiven me for it. Our hatred towards each other was intense. I left soon afterwards and joined up with Bansheera.

Nico: Whoa! Brutal.

Me: Why do you guys hate each other so much?

Vypra: Because Praxina is my little sister.

We gasped in shock!

Me: WHOA! That is REALLY bad blood!

Nico: No kidding! We didn't know that Praxina was your sister.

Vypra: Yeah and we HATE each other with a vengeance. We haven't seen each other since we were imprisoned in the tomb.

Carter Grayson: That's awful!

Nico: That's horrible! Sorry you had to go through all that.

Me: We had no idea Vypra.

Vypra: It's all right guys.

?: I didn't know that happened to you Mistress Vypra.

A figure came out and it was SLOB GOBLIN from episode 24 of Ninja Storm!

Slob Goblin is a tongue-themed monster in a mailbox-like armor that serves as the primary villain of the episode "Tongue and Cheek".

He was the Intergalactic Mail Carrier for Marah and Kapri, when he showed Lothor his ability's on Choobo, he was sent down to earth to battle the Rangers, he captures two people and was about to captures the two joggers, but the Yellow Earth Ranger came to the rescue, he summons an army of Kelzaks to aid him in battle, but they were no match for the Yellow Ranger and he was forced to retreat. He later captures the Thunder Rangers by having Kapri disguise herself as their grandma, for it was revealed that he had captured her too, he then battled the Red, Yellow and Blue Rangers, the Rangers had the upper hand, but the Red and Yellow Rangers started to argue, which gives the monster the perfect chance to capture the Blue Ranger and blast the Red and Yellow Rangers, the

* * *

Dustin Brooks: Slob Goblin!

Slob Goblin: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You're the intergalactic mail carrier for Marah and Kapri and you were sent to capture the rangers.

Slob Goblin: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Slob Goblin: (to the Ninja Storm Rangers) I may not be able to turn you Rangers into stamps. But I can still use my tongue!

He then licked me and got me covered in slimy spit!

Me: YUCK!

Nico: EW!

Grim: (Laughs) (Jamaican Accent) That happened to me when I got kissed by Lubber.

Me: YUCK! (SPITS) Gross!

?: That was gross.

Another figure came out and it was CARTER PEWTERSCHMIDT!

* * *

Carter Pewterschmidt is the main antagonist (sometimes an anti-hero) of the adult animated series Family Guy .

He is a wealthy businessman who is the owner of U.S. Steel and Pewterschmidt Industries and father of Lois Griffin, Carol Pewterschmidt-West and Patrick Pewterschmidt, father-in-law of Peter Griffin, grandfather of Meg Griffin, Chris Griffin and Stewie Griffin, husband of Barbara Pewterschmidt and the arch-nemesis of Peter and his pet dog and best friend Brian H. Griffin.

He is voiced by Seth MacFarlane, who also voices Peter Griffin, Stewie Griffin, and Glenn Quagmire in Family Guy, and Roger Smith in American Dad! .

Biography

In "Peterotica", Peter decides to write his own erotic novels, and goes to Carter to ask for him to lend him some money to get his business open. Instead Carter gives him five dollars at the bottom of a jar filled with salt and barbed wire. Peter is able to properly invest that five dollars to get his novels off the ground; having his books published by "Carter Pewterschmidt Labels". Peter's erotic novels become a success, earning money for Carter and Peter and eventually getting published on audiotape. However, Carter runs into trouble because a motorist was listening to one of Peter's audiotapes, which distracted him and caused him to crash through Kool-Aid Man's house. Carter is then sued as he was the one who underwrote Peter's erotic novels. A lawyer, Scott Greenberg came by Carter's house stating that he was going to take all of Carters property and money. Carter turns around and asks that he can if he can survive Rancor. Carter quickly turns around and hits a switch, causing the collector to fall through a cement block.

After losing the lawsuit, Carter loses his money, his wife, and his lifestyle, and goes to kill Peter at his doorstep, but instead starts to live with his daughter. Peter then tries to make Cater feel better by showing the life of an average American. Afterwards Barbara returns and tells Carter they are rich again. Peter thinks that he would get a share of wealth only for Carter to abandon their friendship and tells Peter to go to hell. He then leaves with his wife, leaving Peter and the others poor as they were. Lois tells Peter that Carter had offered them $1,000,000 as a wedding present but she turned it down, giving Peter thoughts of murdering her as she explains her view of happiness.

Despite the fact that Carter often locks horns with Peter, he treats Meg, Chris and Stewie well as his grandchildren, even offering to help out when Lois appealed to her father to use his influence to get Chris admitted to a private boarding school in "No Chris Left Behind". His own children are treated a little less kindly at times. Although he uses endearments like "pumpkin" with Lois, he refused to pay a ransom to free her from kidnappers in "Let's Go to the Hop". His son Patrick was locked into a mental institution and he refuses to discuss the matter with his Daughters. He also notes that his youngest daughter Carol has "weird boobs" in "Brothers & Sisters".

In "Stewie Kills Lois", Carter commits perjury by falsely testifying against Peter in court.

In "Ocean's Three and a Half", it is revealed he owns an iPod and enjoys rubbing it in Bill Gates's face. He also has a high tech vault in which he stores his, and sometimes others', money. The times the vault is at its richest is when Carter hosts his gala. It has four Locks: A combination lock, foiled by Reese Witherspoon's chin, Voice Identifier, foiled by Cleveland Brown's impressionism skills, Penile Identifier, broken by Glenn Quagmire's penis, and a question: "What is the least appealing male first name?". The question was answered by Peter with the name "Keith".

In "420", he loses money from the timber industry due to the legalization of marijuana, so he first teams up with Peter on a smear campaign, but only after he has his men violently beat Peter up. When that fails, he bribes Brian to support the re-illegalization of marijuana by publishing Brian's Faster Than the Speed of Love. It is unknown how the book's failure affected him. It is revealed that he had sold his Bangles records, halting his project on learning the song lyrics. We also find out that he has a liking for Diet Rites, and keeps a whole stack of them in his car.

In the parodies two movies in the Star Wars original trilogy that apply, "Something, Something, Something, Dark Side" and "It's A Trap!", Carter assumes the role of Emperor Palpatine. In Blue

Harvest, Carter played the role of Owen Lars, having the much simpler lifestyle of a moisture farmer.

In episodes such as "Bill and Peter's Bogus Journey" and "You May Now Kiss the… Uh… Guy Who Receives", it is made clear that Barbara and Carter married because Carter was rich. However, in "Welcome Back, Carter", it is revealed that Barbra and Carter had fallen in love before they married. It is also revealed that Carter is a war veteran, and he and Barbara exchanged letters, and when that ceased, Carter was presumed dead. At a party Barbara and her new fiancé Roginald attended, he crashed it, and the two reaffirmed their love, sealed by a marriage proposal. However, in the latter episode, Carter was caught in an affair, and though Barbara demanded a divorce, the two are still living in the same household. It is also hinted in the same story that he abused Lois as a child, as when he is woken up by Barbara he mumbles that he is just taking Lois' temperature.

The Pewterschmidt family considered retirement after Carter fell asleep behind the wheel of their car in "Grumpy Old Man". Carter soon became bored and listless, needing to be returned to his office at Pewterschmidt Industries to recover.

Portraits of Babs and Carter hang in Peter and Lois' bedroom, notably in "Family Guy Viewer Mail No. 2".

When Stewie travels to the 1960s and falls in love in "Valentine's Day in Quahog", he learns that the infant he kissed is really his mother when Carter arrives to pick her up.

In "The Old Man and the Big 'C", Carter was told by his doctor that he is dying of terminal cancer, which is overheard by Brian. He returns and tells Stewie who confirms it via online camera in the Pewterschmidt house. Brian tells Lois who rounds up the family and heads for her parent's home, but when they arrive they find Carter in good health and Brian loses his credibility.

Brian and Stewie eventually find out that Carter had and kept the cure for cancer a secret since 1999 after they try to find evidence that the Carter they saw was an imposter. He did it so people would spend more money on treating cancer rather than curing it. He then kicks them both out of the lab, unaware that Stewie swiped the cure. Brian is about to tell about the cure to the family only for Peter to interrupt him to show him his false attempt of doing a somersault, delaying enough time for Carter and a group of men to claim the cure from Brian. Brian then tells Lois what Carter did and is doing before Carter does anything else. Lois is appalled but Carter refuses to show pity until she brings up some of his closest loved ones possibly dying of cancer and he 'promises' to reveal the cure.

However, he crosses the Moral Event Horizon by going back on his word and releases an edible brand of deodorant for the developmentally disabled called "Slow Stick" instead, with tis enraging the Griffins. Lois calls Carter to find out why he didn't reveal the secret whilst being disappointed and in tears, only for Carter to blow her off with the fact that he lied. In the end, Carter puts himself on the front of a magazine with the quote "Carter, you devil!", tricking Peter and Lois into forgiving him, whilst Brian still and might never forgive him. This has shown to be Carter's most selfish, monstrous, and devilish act, almost making him Pure Evil, since he is now responsible for millions of deaths via cancer and millions to come in the Family Guy Universe, only thinking about and caring for profit and himself and only giving himself access to the cure.

In "Tea Peter", he holds a rally to shut down Quahog's government. He manages to get enough supporters, including Peter, into getting Mayor West to shut it down. His main purpose for shutting down the town's government is revealed when Brian shows the Griffins how much pollution Carter is causing. His scheme also caused basic services to become unaccesible and the entire town being put in a state of panic. He obviously turns down on helping Peter restore the government, but his excessive pollution is ultimately stopped when Peter reforms the government as an "entirely new thing", albeit without getting the praise that he was expecting.

Me: Carter Pewterschmidt!?

Laney: Carter Pewterschmidt!?

Stewie: (to Carter Pewterschmidt) I'm gonna kill you just like what happened with our Star Wars selves!

Lois Griffin: You were never my father Carter! You turned me into an evil Whore!

Nico: YEAH!

Twilight Sparkle: Who is he?

Me: That's Carter Pewterschmidt. He was a well renowned business owner in Quahog before we blew it up. And he was also Lois's father as well as Meg and Stewies grandfather. But he was under a lot of federal investigations for fraud, tax evasion, racketeering and even treason.

Rainbow Dash: WHOA!

Meg: And he is the worst Grandfather ever!

Me: Yeah! But the question is how are you back? Prisoners beat the living shit out of you for stealing all their money.

Carter Pewterschmidt: Because of this!

He pulled out a Number Card and it was NUMBER 43: MANIPULATOR OF SOULS!

We gasped!

Eli: Number 43: Manipulator of Souls!

Me: Whoa man!

Lois Griffin: And he will pay for it!

Me: I think the Venus Prison is more suitable for this monster. This is gonna be one helluva battle. Lets take it to another planet where it won't hurt anyone.

Dark Spicer: Good idea.

Before I could snap my fingers, Mephisto appeared and punched Dark, sending him flying towards an apartment. But Dark managed to turn into Widowchimp and managed to hold on to a vent.

Mephisto: That's a long way down.

Mephisto smashes the vent above Widowchimp with his foot.

Widowchimp: You've got to be kidding me.

The vent hits Widowchimp making him fall off again but he manages to hold on to the nearby balcony. Widowchimp tries to go down the building by jumping across each balcony but nearly falls down of the edge.

Mephisto: I'm coming for you!

Widowchimp: (to us) You guys get the rest of the battles to another planet. I'll take care of this joker!

Me: Right! Show no mercy Dark!

Widowchimp: I plan not to! (To Mephisto) Here's your warning, your fuckfignewton ass is about to be fucked and kicked!

Mephisto: WE'LL SEE ABOUT THAT!

I snapped my fingers and we teleported to Glaren and took the fight there.

Me: You will pay for your crimes Praxina! I will make sure you suffer for them all and you will not escape me like you did before.

Praxina: I will have my revenge!

I then flared up my rainbow fire aura and went Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 500,000,000!

Praxina: WHAT THE FUCK!?

Me: (Divine Elemental Echoing Voice) I am not the same as I was before 8 years ago Praxina. I've changed tremendously over the years and I am now far more powerful than ever.

Praxina: I WILL STILL KILL YOU J.D.!

Me: Bring it you bitch!

I flew fast and kicked Praxina in the face and sent her flying into the air and she stopped and we went at each other and collided with a massive and thunderous fiery explosion!

Vypra: (to Luan) Sorry you had to know about my past this way.

Luan: No worries Vypra. It's just hard to imagine that you and Praxina know each other and have hated each other for that long.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah no kidding. And I would never hate my brother or any of my friends like that.

Vypra: I'm glad.

Shining Armor: I would never hate my sister like that. I'm sorry that happened to you.

Vypra: It's all right Shining Armor. But thanks for your concern.

Princess Celestia: Me and Luna know just how you feel Vypra.

Princess Luna: Yes. I hated and resented my sister long ago before I was banished to the moon for 1,000 years. But thankfully Twilight and friends saved me from myself and freed me.

Princess Cadance: That's good they did. I always knew that Twilight and her friends were something very special.

Luster Dawn: Indeed. Did any of the other Masters of Evil know about your past?

Vypra: No. I only told all of you guys and just the members that came with you and me.

Princess Amore: We're so sorry you went through all that with Praxina.

Flurry Heart: That must be some really bad blood between you.

Lilly Crystal: No kidding.

Cloud Star: Yeah.

Vypra: It's bad enough to burn a hole through our skin.

Thunder Sparkle: That's extreme but that's a good enough way to describe it.

Minuette: Yeah ouch. I view Twilight and J.D. and my friends like sisters and brothers and I would never hurt them like that.

Twinkleshine: Me neither. That's too extreme for me.

Lemon Hearts: Same here.

Lyra Heartstrings: Do you have it in you to reconcile with your sister or is the hatred far too extreme for that to even happen?

Vypra: The hatred burns too deep. We both hate each other with a burning passion and want nothing more than to kill each other.

Moondancer: Whoa man! That's an intense hatred.

Star Swirl: It sure is.

Runo: That's awful.

Blade Tigrerra: No kidding.

Joe Shimamura: It's hard to imagine that it burns that deep for some people.

Iris: No kidding.

Vypra: Yeah. But Iris, I have always loved your music and it's awesome. Same with the Rainbooms.

Iris: Thanks Vypra. That means a lot to me.

William Dunbar: Same with me.

Shego: And me too.

Eli: YEAH!

Nunnally: AWESOME!

Ed Cowart: EAT DIRT MENACING SISTER OF HORROR! (BLASTS PRAXINA ALL OVER) HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!

Moonracer and Patsy Smiles: SPEEDING LIGHTNING LASER BLAST!

Chop Shop and Snake Man: SEARCHING LASER SNAKE BLAST!

Moonracer fired a blast of lasers and Patsy fired a blast of lightning.

Chop Shop fired a blast of lasers and Snake Man fired a search snake.

Iris: You and your minions are not welcome in this universe Praxina!

Luna: Yeah dude!

Sam S.L.: Yeah!

Vypra: You were never my sister Praxina! You are dead to me! And you are going to be dead for real.

Will Vandom: This is for all the pain you caused.

LoliRock, Rainbooms, W.I.T.C.H., Winx Club, Luna Loud, Sam S.L., Eli, Nunnally, Lincoln, Laney, Lola, Lana, Starfire, Blackfire, Me, Vypra and Dark Spicer: OMEGA SIBLING ULTRA BLAST!

We fired waves of energy and elements and they all combined.

Lincoln, Iris, Talia, Auriana, Lyna and Carissa: LEGENDARY FINAL SMASH: THROUGH THE FIRE AND FLAMES!

They floated in the air as they had fire swirl around them as they were singing Through The Fire And Flames by Dragonforce and they fired a massive blast of fire and it formed into a deadly dragon. All the blasts hit Praxina and exploded in a massive explosion of fire and energy and completely obliterated her in an instant and there was nothing left of her. She was gone and Super Hakaied in an instant!

We powered down and we were back on Earth.

Me: That takes care of her.

Lincoln: Yep.

Vypra: Good-bye forever "Sister."

Me: You are better off without her Vypra.

Luan: Yeah she brought all that on herself. She didn't care about anyone.

Laney: No she didn't.

Iris: I want to thank you all for your help.

Shiv: No problem, Iris.

Iron Lung: And we got to help Vypra settle things with Praxina.

Saïx: If Gramorr shows up again, we'll be ready for him.

Gearhead: (To Iris and her friends) I can't wait for when you girls eventually sing.

Iris: And it will be awesome. (To the viewers) This was an awesome and epic and powerful adventure. I hope you all loved it as much as we have.

Me: I know I have. Lets head home.

We went back to the World Tree Estate. The LoliRock girls were now part of the team. Carter Pewterschmidt was put in J. Jonah Jameson's cell as his cellmate and now he has a terrible curse on him: Eternal Life without eternal youth.

See you all tomorrow.

TLPS, Tigeroid & Dragonoid War

At the Gotham Royal York Mall, Nico was there to by something for May. He was in a giving mood today as he was looking for something fun for her.

Nico: It's a beautiful day at the mall.

But then he came across a rather interesting stand at the mall.

Luka: (in disguise) Hey there! Nico Chan, right?

Nico: That's me.

Luka: I'm an ordinary salesman making a living in Gotham Royal York. And I was wondering if you'd be interested in buying a necklace.

Nico: What kind of necklace is it?

Luka: They're a special kind. The kind that calms the anger of anyone wearing them.

Nico: Well, I see nothing wrong with that. Can I have four?

Luka: Sure.

He gave him 4 and Nico gave him the money.

Luka: Enjoy.

Nico got the necklaces. But little did he know that it was for a much sinister plot.

He went back on his shopping excursion.

---

Meanwhile back at the World Tree Estate, Me, Eli and Lincoln were playing video games. We were playing Super Smash Bros. Ultimate.

I was playing as Mario, Eli was Princess Peach and Lincoln was playing as himself. Lily was our opponent and to our shock we were seeing that she was playing as Sephiroth. They added Sephiroth to the Super Smash Bros roster. Lily beat me and Eli and Lincoln then beat Lily!

Me: Whoa! Way to go Lincoln!

Nicole: That was really well done!

Eli: Yeah and what is still shocking to me is that Sephiroth is now part of the Super Smash Bros universe.

Me: I know. Masahiro Sakurai has really outdone himself this time. He is a genius in coming up with great games and updates.

Eli: He sure is.

Rainbow Dash: I was shocked myself when they added Sephiroth to the Super Smash Bros roster too. He may have been Hakaied but he will always live on in the game world.

Me: Yes he will. And Eli hates him still.

Eli: You got that right.

Nico then came back as he came out of the elevator.

Nico: Hey guys. I'm home.

Me: Hey Nico. How was your shopping trip?

Nico: It was great thanks.

Solar Man: Hey, Nico. Where've you been?

Nico: I was at the mall. Check out what I got!

He showed us the necklaces. They were jeweled Necklaces that had big jewels that matched mine, Lori, Lynn and Lola's favorite colors.

Lola: Ooh those are beautiful.

Lori: Yeah they are!

Lynn: Awesome.

Me: Those are pretty.

Nico: Yep. They are therapy necklaces and they can calm anger.

Me: Really?

Nico: Yep.

Sailor Moon: So, these necklaces can keep the wearer calm whenever they get angry?

Nico: Yep. I figured they'd be perfect for J.D., Lola, Lynn, and Lori since they get angry at villains most of the time.

But I was skeptical so I decided to put it in my pocket for the time being.

Shanan was suspicious about the necklaces and knew they were not good as she had seen them from somewhere. But she was having a hard time knowing what they were for.

Lola: So, how are these supposed to work? Do we tap them or-

Ed came in with some milk.

Ed: Hey, guys. Just wanted to grab some milk and-

Suddenly, Ed tripped and spilled the milk over Lola, pissing her off.

Lola: (mad) ED! YOU BETTER HAVE A GOOD REASON FOR-

Suddenly, Lola's necklace glowed and she calmed down.

Lola: (calmly) I mean, it's not like you meant to spill the milk on me on purpose. Just don't do it again.

Razorclaw: They really work!

Me: Whoa!

Nico: Wow! They sure work.

Shanan: (In her head) I've got a really bad feeling about this. I know I've seen those necklaces from somewhere. But where?

Me: Careful there Ed. Next time watch where you're going. You tripped on the rug.

Ed: Sorry.

Stewie: Hey, Nico. Don't you find it odd that someone just happened to own these necklaces?

Grimlock: Me Grimlock agree. Necklaces suspicious.

Nico: I understand your suspicions. But J.D., Lola, Lynn, and Lori have been angrier at villains then usual lately. So wearing these necklaces can help calm them down. But if you guys are still suspicious, we can take a closer look at them later.

Stewie: If you say so. But I'm keeping an eye on those necklaces. Something is wrong with them.

Shanan: Yeah I sense it too Stewie. Something is really wrong.

Stewie: I feel it too.

Me: Anyway it's time for our mission.

Energon Scorponok: So, where are we going this time?

Me: To China. I got a call from some people I met 2 months ago and they need our help to take down one of their enemies.

Nico: Who are they?

Me: They call themselves the Dragonoids.

Shanan gasped when she heard that name.

Shanan: Oh man! I know the Dragonoids! They are a dangerous and powerful clan that is out to destroy the world with the power of the Tai Chi Characters.

We gasped.

Me: Whoa man! Sounds like these guys are really bad news!

Shanan: You have no idea dad. They are terrorists that are out to destroy the world. I have been trying to stop them and take them down for years.

Jared: Same here dad. They are beyond pure evil.

Me: Oh man!

Nico: Whoa!

Vypra, Gearhead, Firefly, Saïx, Bane, Shiv, Vexen and Iron Lung then appeared.

Vypra: Can me, Gearhead, Firefly, Saix, Bane, Shiv, Vexen, and Iron Lung come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can Vypra. But we have to be ready for anything.

Vypra saw the necklaces that Lori, Lynn and Lola were wearing and she gasped!

Vypra: Oh no! Guys you have to get rid of those necklaces! They are bombs!

Me: WHAT!?

Nico: What do you mean?

Vypra: Those Necklaces are spirit energy bombs. They glow with thermal energy like a teapot. When it reaches critical mass they will explode and kill whoever is wearing them!

We gasped in shock.

Lori: WHOA!

Lori, Lynn and Lola took them off.

Me: I knew something was fishy about these. But I have an idea.

I took the necklaces and held on to them.

Me: I'll save these for whoever gave Nico these.

Vypra: Good idea. But Vexen you better analyze one just to be sure.

Vexen: Okay.

I gave mine to Vexen.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off. We were heading to a small village in Suhn, China.

SUHN, CHINA

We arrived in Suhn, China.

Me: Wow. Suhn, China.

Nightshade: This must be the place.

Shanan: Yep. This is where we are gonna meet Rai and his friends. Dad I heard you met Rai and his friends before.

Me: That's right and I killed a freak that acted like a snake.

Shanan: That was Ave. He was the snake freak of the Dragonoids.

Nico: Wow! That's great!

Me: Yep. Rai is a cool guy.

Shanan: Not without his mother he isn't. Rai's mother was murdered by a member of the Dragonoids named Luka and he is hellbent on getting revenge on him for murdering his mother.

We gasped in shock.

Sasuke: Oh man! We got to help save him from this dark path.

Nahiri: Yeah or he will be lost to revenge.

Me: Then we have no time to lose.

We went up to a special temple and we saw in the courtyard Rai and his friends Sena, Finn, Donha, Tori, Hak and Elder Komorka.

Saïx: (to Rai) Are you Rai?

Rai: Yeah. (Gasp) J.D. and Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: Good to see you again Rai. And it's good to see you guys again.

Sena: Same here. Thanks for killing Ave.

Me: It was my pleasure.

Nico: It's an honor to meet you all.

Donha: Same here Nico.

Finn (TCC): J.D. is awesome. He took down Ave like he was nothing.

Vince: He sure is.

Elder Komorka: J.D. and Team Loud Phoenix Storm it is an honor to meet you all.

Me: (Bows in respect) Elder Komorka it's an honor and a pleasure.

Elder Komorka: Same to you.

Shanan: (Bows) Komorka-sensei it's great to see you again.

Komorka: You too Shanan.

Lori: How do you know Komorka, Shanan?

Shanan: She taught me her fighting techniques when I was just a little girl. She is a great teacher and she taught me everything she knows about how to use martial arts and the Tai Chi Symbols.

Komorka: Shanan is a great student and has helped us many times before.

Strike Man: This is a nice place.

Rai: Yeah it's home.

Sena: Have you all come to help us kill the Dragonoids?

Me: Only one enemy at a time. We came to help you all kill Luka.

Rai: Great! Now I can kill that bastard for taking my mother away!

Sasuke: Rai getting revenge will not make you feel better. It will only make things worse for you and your friends.

Me: That's right Rai. Revenge is a double-edge sword. All it will do is kill you in the end.

Rai: How would you know!? You all never saw your parents die! You don't know how I feel!

Sasuke: You're wrong Rai. You're wrong. I know exactly how you feel.

Nahiri: I do too.

Me: Same here. Along with so many that lost their families and more. Revenge is a nightmare.

Rai: It is?

Me: You have no idea. I wanted revenge on an alien flower that was destroying planets all over the universe in the name of hatred.

Sasuke: The village council ordered my brother to kill my entire clan and I was hellbent on killing him and would stop at nothing to get it.

Nahiri: I was totally consumed with vengeance and wanted nothing more than getting revenge and I would stop at nothing to get it.

Me: And I had to learn a big lesson that Vengeance is never the answer. All it will lead to is a path to your own destruction. That's why vengeance is a double-edge sword. When you get your revenge the only thing you will get as your reward is death.

Rai: Oh man.

Me: Yeah. But Rai we are so sorry about what happened to your mother. But I promise you that I can bring her back. I have that kind of power.

Cozy Glow: J.D. is not kidding. He revived my mom and fixed my wounded heart and mind.

Nico: That's my pal and brother. He can do anything.

Me: Don't give me a swollen head guys.

Nico: Anyway lets head into the temple and talk.

Me: Yeah I want to find out more about these Dragonoids and why they are doing what they are doing.

Rai: Okay.

We were talking about the Dragonoids and their goals and more. What we found out about them was terrible.

Nico: Whoa man!

Drago: These Dragonoids might share my full name. But not my personality.

Shiv: Got that right. Not to mention that in your true form, you're way bigger then them.

Drago: I know.

Shanan: But the Dragonoids are no laughing matter. They are monsters that are out to make the world pay.

Me: And we can't let them get away with it after everything they did.

If there are that many of them as you say there are Shanan then we have to take them down one at a time before going after their leader.

Nico: That's right and we have to make sure they all suffer.

Lola: Big time.

Me: I don't understand what they have to do with these necklaces and anger.

Bright Man: While we're talking about negative feelings, how about you guys help us find out what's with these necklaces? (holds up a necklace)

Rai: They look like ordinary necklaces to me.

Nico: But some crooked salesman gave them to me. Vypra says they're energy spirit bombs. But I think there's more to it.

Sena: Wait. I recognize these. These are made out of Dragonoid technology

We gasped.

Vypra: Sena is right. I know this kind of technology. It's thermal spirit energy power.

Vexen: Not good.

Captain America: Well? Have you found out more about them?

Vexen: After studying them carefully, yes. I've also deduced that one of the Dragonoids have placed a bomb somewhere in Suhn. These necklaces feed off the anger of whoever wears them and transmits it to the bomb as thermal energy Once the bomb reaches critical mass, it'll explode.

We gasped.

Nico: I've been tricked!

Me: Oh man!

Lola: Yikes!

Lola, Lori and Lynn threw their necklaces away.

I held on to them.

Donha: (to Nico) Why did you even put those necklaces on J.D., Lori, Lynn, and Lola anyway?

Nico: I didn't know what the necklaces were really for! The guy who sold them to me said they help calm down the wearer's anger. And J.D., Lori, Lynn, and Lola have been getting angry at certain villains more then usual ever since the Sullen 6 were defeated. I had to make sure they didn't end up causing the public to lose trust in us. Or worse, end up killing civilians by accident! You guys understand that, right?

Gantu: Relax, Nico. We're not mad at you for this. (to me, Lori, Lynn, and Lola) Right, guys?

Me: I'm not mad. He didn't know.

Lori: Yeah. He had no idea.

Lola: After all he went through we will never be mad at him again.

Lynn: Yeah.

Me: Good. But Nico we're not blaming you for this. You had no idea.

Nico: Thanks man.

Me: But we got to find that bomb.

Nico: Okay.

Lori: I guess the four of us have to keep our anger under control until we find the bomb.

Bane: (Spanish Accent) How are you going to do that?

Bane's question was answered when Lori Dumped a cooler full of water on top of her, mine, Lola, and Lynn's heads.

Me: Brr! That was cold!

Lola: Yeah!

Lori: Sorry guys. But it was just to cool us off.

Me: Thanks. I was hot.

Golden Queen: (to me, Lori, Lola, and Lynn): Until we find the bomb, you 4 will have to remain here for the time being.

Lynn: I guess we don't have a choice, do we?

Me: We will have to comply until the bomb is disarmed.

Lori: Yeah.

Lola: Okay. Besides it will give us time to learn more about the Tai Chi Characters. These are really cool.

Shanan: They sure are and they are one of the most amazing powers I've ever seen. I can teach you guys how to use them.

Lori: We would literally be honored. From student to teacher. That's literally a promotion.

Shanan: (Laughs) That's true.

Firefly: I'll look for the bomb from the air.

He flew into the air and scanned for any heat sources out of the ordinary. He found one in the bell tower of the temple.

Firefly: I think I found it!

Firefly went into the bell tower and he found the bomb. It was a 200 megaton nuclear warhead and it was linked to a spirit antenna.

Everyone else came up.

Starlight Glimmer: This must be the bomb.

Lisa Loud: A plutonium powered 200 megaton nuclear warhead. The Dragonoids are dangerous now.

Nico: I would call them a terrorist organization.

Lana: No kidding.

Lisa Loud: I got this.

Lisa disarmed it by cutting the blue wire and the detonation panal from it.

Nico: Disarmed.

Lisa Loud: Whew.

Lana: Close.

They came back.

Nico then saw Shanan teaching us how to use the Tai Chi Characters and he saw me use the Fire Character and it was incredible as I fired a blast of fire and it hit a tree and burned it.

Nico: WHOA! That was awesome!

Me: Wow! No kidding! That was incredible!

Shanan: It sure was.

Nico: Bomb is disarmed and stopped.

Me: Great.

Rai: Now to go after Luka!

Gearhead: Let me do the entrance this time.

Maria: How are you going to do that?

Gearhead smirked and used his powers to call over an oil tanker truck.

May: Oh, I get it! You're going to ram that oil tanker truck into Luka.

Gearhead: Yep and it will be a flaming entrance.

Me: The Dragonoids have fucked around with the wrong people and it will be the last thing they ever do.

Nico: No one dupes Nicolas Bokrua Chan and lives.

Lola: Yeah!

Me: Come on guys. (Eyes glowed red) Lets kill those Dragonoid fuckups!

Nico: Yeah!

We went out to face Luka and make him pay for his crimes.

---

In a base at the edge of the Himalayan Mountains, Luka was waiting patiently.

Suddenly…

CRASH!

He was hit from behind by an oil tanker and then went crashing into the wall and the oil tanker exploded in a massive fiery explosion.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A Phoenix Cry was heard and Luka got up and he saw us! We saw LUKA!

---

Luka is one of the main antagonists of Tai Chi Chasers, a member of the Dragonoid race and arch enemy of Rai. When the Tai Chi Chasers came to Earth to try and escape the Dragonoid's pursuit, Luka was drawn towards Rai's home and destroyed it, aiming to take out all Tigeroids he comes across.

Some of his Tai Chi skills include the (su) water tai chi, (juum) steam, (gway) destruction, and the (ja) shuriken tai chi. He is voiced by Wayne Grayson.

Cold Warrior

Luka was aboard the Dragonoid battleship tailing after the Tigeroid ship through the skies over Earth. But when they lose sight of their enemy, Luka and Garnia are sent to Earth to hunt down and subdue the Tai Chi Chasers. But as he is tailing after Sena and Finn with Garnia and a group of Dragonoid robots, he senses a strange power nearby (possibly either Rai or his mom) and determines this is a power he must defeat. So he strays off his orders to raid Rai's home while both are away, smashing it to pieces just as Rai returns in shock.

He turns his attention on Rai, attacking him without hesitation. But Rai's mother returns in time to find the two in her destroyed home. She then forces Rai out of the house and locks him out, facing Luka herself. Luka then decides that it was Rai's mother that was giving out the power that he sensed. But as he drew his sword and prepared to attack, a giant explosion destroys the house and causes her to vanish, leaving Luka to go after Rai again. However, Rai soon gains the upperhand when his rage over losing his home and mother fuels him into transforming into a Tigeroid and uses his Hwa Tai Chi to overwhelm Luka.

When the other Chasers discover Rai, they rush to help and manage to knock him out before running off with Rai. Luka emerges from the rubble, enraged by his defeat and claims Rai is "one of them". He lies in wait around the ruined remains of Rai's home, knowing Rai would soon return, which he did. But this time, Rai tries to fight Luka with his own strength, almost losing before Luka is called back to the airship. Despite Rai's attempts to get him to keep fighting and the fact that he saw the boy as a threat, Luka dismisses Rai and departs.

Luka's next confrontation with Rai is while the two are inside a sunken ship, where it is said that Luka's nickname is the "Water Dragon", meaning he is impossible to defeat underwater. He overpowers Rai before a mysterious masked warrior steps in and diverts Luka's attention to her instead. Luka becomes slowly infuriated as he tries to fight this opponent but she continues to lead him further into the ship. He soon realizes this was so the force of his attacks would cause the ship to break loose of its holding and sink deeper into the sea, taking him with it, and decides to escape after losing sight of his opponent.

Recently, he has been seen each time the Dragonoids unleash a full scale barrage against the Chasers. Though he does not get into direct fights with Rai, he seems to be on the losing side as the Dragonoids are defeated each time. And when General Vicious was stripped of his position and replaced, he did not seem to care alongside the others. But when the new general, Mischa, appeared, it had Luka shocked to see his "friend" becoming their new and more merciless leader. Each time he lays eyes on Mischa, he is ordered to wipe that look off his face. After overhearing Jahara and Duran having a comical chat with one another, Luka is seen smiling.

Kind Warrior

Luka seems to be changing slightly as he watches his fellow Dragonoids punished by Mischa. He even pleaded that Jahara be sparred of the punishment dealt by his hands for betraying him. But she decides to accept what is coming and tells Luka not to forget her which he promises concluding that he might have some feeling for Jahara after all.

In the next episode, Rai and Luka wind up in a different dimension, along with Duran, and must work together to escape it while they are being hunted by a Tai Chi controlled Ave. Mischa had set a trap for Luka, however Rai manages to overpower the conversion while Luka battles Ave. Now that they are out, however, they have gone back to being enemies.

Later, when the Dragonoid Assault Squad comes, Luka is found looking out from a balcony. He is interrupted by Terra, a member of the Dragoid Assault Squad, who is one of his biggest fans. He was last seen looking back annoyed.

Next, on the mission to stop the Tigeroids from going to the Sage's conference, Luka and Garnia meet the Chasers and had a battle. While Luka was battling Rai he asked why he was battling him. When Rai gave him his reasons, he simply called Rai a fool before battling him again. Apparently, things changed when Jahara showed up. Like Garnia, Luka was also shocked to see Jahara, but he was even more shocked when he knew she was under the monstrous tai chi. Luka tried many times telling her to resist the effect, but it seemed like she did not care. When Rai came out of the trench he was a little shocked that he used whoo the wing card. Soon after an avalanche formed and it was aimed directly at Jahara. He ran to save her, saving her at the last moment. At the end, he was seen standing next to the unconcious Jahara as he remembered what she had told him.

Later Luka watched over Jahara in a room. Mischa came in after him saying that he knew a way to help Jahara. Luka heard his plan, which was to betray the emperor, and turned it down. Later he shows up in Mischa's office when the door was shot upon. Mischa sends him and Garnia to find an intruder. Luka and Garnia find the trespasser and Luka recognizes the person as the masked warrior form the submarine. The warrior fled, and Luka and Garnia discovered a secret passage way that the warrior somehow knew.

Luka goes back to Jahara promising her he would find a way to save her from the monstrous tai chi. Mischa appears again ordering him to join Garnia in defending the Tigeroids' lost tai chi symbols the Dragonoids found. Luka agrees but tells Mischa that it was the lat time he wold take his orders and that after the battle Luka would fight Mischa. Soon after words he discovers the boom character was going to be activated in a matter of minutes to hours. Luka tries to shutdown the system but Mischa had already turned off the control system so his plan would follow through. Luka then scream Mischa's name and runs to get Garnia. He finds Garnia about to attack the chasers and stops him. Luka then tells Garnia about Mischa's plan. Out of nowhere Jahara appears and knocks Luka off his feet. Luka again tries to reason with Jahara to break from the hideous character, however Jahara continues to attack him and would have prevailed but luckily Garnia stepped in a the last moment. When Jahara screams in agony Luka asks "What's happening." Garnia sees this and decides to take the full power of the symbol on himself, (to which Luka calls insane) somehow draining it from the struggling Jahara. Luka cries out Garnia's name as he dies and Jahara is cured. Luka then picks up the unconscious Jahara into his arms just as the destruction character activates. Luka tells the chasers that there was still time to save the trapped Tigeroids. When Rai asks if he and Jahara would make it out okay he says that it would be the last time that they battled. He then left with Jahara and Duran though where they went is unknown.

Changing of the sides

After escaping Luftdrake, Luka took Jahara and Duran to his old house. There he was reunited with his sister Phoebe who invited the Chasers over. The caretaker of the house then decided to race the chasers along with another Dragonoid who was there on business. He spent the majority of the race with Phoebe who was cheering on Rai. When Rai got to the bridge Luka witnesses as the Dragonoid tried cheating and Rai overcoming it. He was shocked that Rai went down to save the Dragonoid voluntarily with the wing card. Later after the race the caretaker told Luka to lead the Chasers to where Mishka was headed leaving everyone except Phoebe less than excited.

---

Me: Luka I presume?

Shanan: Luka. Should've known you were behind all this. You tried to kill my friends and family.

Nico: Can't believe you had me thinking that those necklaces had good purposes!

Luka: (laughs) It was so easy to trick you even with your powers.

Bleez: Do I even want too know how you managed to fool mall security?

Me: Well Nico is not going to make the same mistake again asshole! You tried to kill us. We were gonna consider throwing you in jail but now we changed our minds. We're going to kill you and banish you to the Warp!

Luka: I would like to see you try!

Me: Try nothing! We're gonna do it!

Nico: And you'll get no mercy from us.

Control Freak, Angel, Duff Killigan, Roquefort, Vulkanus, Diabolico, Kaos and Rich Texan then appeared.

Me: Control Freak, Angel, Duff Killigan, Vulkanus, Diabolico, Kaos and Rich Texan.

Control Freak: Did we miss anything?

Nico: Nope. You're right on time.

Angel: Good. We were busy getting the people of Suhn to take off their necklaces.

Maria: You know the bomb was already defused, right?

Duff Killigan: (Scottish Accent) Better safe then sorry.

Luka: (facepalms) I should've ensured that the necklaces stayed on the wearers once they put them on!

Roquefort: And that flaw became your undoing.

Me: And a path to your death you asshole!

Nico: Yeah!

Goku: You'll pay for everything you've done!

Vegeta: And as Prince of All Saiyans you are hereby sentenced to die!

Then a figure came out and it was DEADWOOD!

Me: Deadwood again! Yeah!

Deadwood: And I'm hear to become Jonny 2x4's Archenemy.

Jonny 2x4: Wow! Hear that Plank? We get to be Deadwood's archenemy!

Plank: It's gonna be fun having you as me and Jonny's archenemy, Deadwood.

Deadwood: It'll be a great honor, Plank.

Maria: Who are you talking to?

Deadwood: I'm talking to Plank, of course.

Connor McKnight: Um.. did dying a second time mess up your mind a bit?

Deadwood: I'm being serious. You can't hear Plank?

Eddy: Are you saying that Plank's alive this whole time but we can't hear him?

Deadwood: Yep.

Me: He's speaking to him telepathically.

Nico: Whoa! That's amazing!

Laney: Wow!

Connor McKnight: We didn't know you had this kind of power.

Deadwood: Cool huh?

Me: It sure is. Lets do it!

We powered up and went at them.

Rai: You guys were right. Revenge is a double edge sword.

Kaos: And as promised, we'll bring your mom back for you.

Diabolico: And we stopped the bomb before it could blow up.

Lola: Now that there are no bomb necklaces holding us back anymore, let's send a threatening message to the rest of the Dragonoids!

Nico: Actually, that probably wouldn't be the right move at this time.

Lynn: Why's that?

Nico: No offense but that kind of anger nearly blew up Suhn today.

Rich Texan: (sheepishly) Sorry, guys. But I agree with Nico on this one.

Lori: (sighs) Okay. You guys literally have a point.

Me: But Rai you need this more than ever. (Snaps fingers)

A beam of light shined down and a figure came down as the divine singing of angels was heard and the light faded and it was Rai's mother Laura back and alive and well.

Rai: Mom!

He hugged her and cried hard.

Laura: Oh Rai! I'm so happy to see you.

Rai: Mom! (Crying hard) I missed you so much!

Laura: I know. I missed you too.

Sena and Rai blushed.

Me: I knew it.

Sena: Yes I have feelings for him. How did you know about that?

Me: I have a habit of picking up on these things. Anyway lets go home.

Nico: Good idea. We killed two Dragonoids and there are many more still out there.

Celebi - Voice of The Forest

In the world of Ponies we were there to visit what Equestria was like long before it was called that. Back then it was called Ponyland and it was an amazing world. This was the world of the 1986 version of My Little Pony and it was amazing. With us was Hunter's friend from Japan, Tahara Udo. He has fair skin, raven black taper hairstyle, black eyes, straight nose, black thin eyebrows, almost similar age and height as Lincoln, Stella, and Clyde. Wears a black and red shirt, blue jeans with an black and silver belt. Red and White sneakers, black and red fingerless gloves. And has powers of Tech, Scorch, Lightning, Plasma, Heat, and Storm Release.

Wave Man: What is this place?

Me: Yep this is it.

Nico: The coordinates are right.

Ice: (Scandinavian Accent) This is it everyone. Welcome to Ponyland.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! I've always wondered what Ponyland was like.

Sunset Shimmer: Wasn't this what they called Equestria eons ago?

Twilight Sparkle: That's right. This is before the Hearthswarming Founding of Equestria.

Lola: This is amazing!

Vince: It sure is. Wow! It's amazing.

Carol: It sure is.

Nico: Wow!

Me: It's an honor to have you with us Tahara.

Tahara: (Japanese Accent) Same here J.D.-san. I am honored to be part of the team.

We walked around Ponyland and it was incredible. It was so beautiful and majestic.

Lola: Wow!

Laney: This is amazing.

Applejack: Hoowee. I've always wondered what it was like back then.

Me: This is also the world where Grogar came from.

Runo: Grogar?

Me: The Devil of Equestria/Ponyland. He was a goat of pure evil.

I went over his history to those that haven't heard about it.

---

Grogar is a ram sorcerer who appears as a villain in the My Little Pony franchise. He appears as one of the antagonists in the G1 series, My Little Pony 'n Friends, appearing as the main antagonist in the four-part episode, " The Return of Tambelon ". In the G4 series, My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic, he serves as the posthumous overarching antagonist and a disguise for the redeemed villain, Discord.

The G1 version of Grogar was voiced by Michael Bell, who also voices The Fear in Metal Gear Solid 3: Snake Eater, Medivh in the Warcraft games, Quackerjack in Darkwing Duck, Lex Luthor in the 80s Superman Cartoon, the Riddler in Challenge of the Super Friends, Doctor Octopus in Spider-Man and His Amazing Friends, Zzzax in the 90s The Incredible Hulk, the Bunny in The Grim Adventures of Billy & Mandy, Ixis Naugus in the Sonic the Hedgehog SatAM series, Aziz in the Aladdin series, Ezekiel Rage from The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest, Redbeard in The New Scooby Doo Movies, and Lawrence in the Ratchet & Clank series.

The G4 version of Grogar was voiced by Doc Harris when Discord poses as him.

The G1 version of Grogar appears only in the four-part episode " The Return of Tambelon " as the main antagonist. He is an evil demonic ram sorcerer and the leader of the kingdom named Tambelon which is also the Realm of Darkness, who conquered the Troggles and once ruled Ponyland with an iron hoof 500 years ago before he was defeated when the ancient bell was rung. This banished him and the city to the Shadow World. However, Grogar swore that he would return in 500 years to retake Ponyland. Overtime, the memory of Grogar and his reign over Ponyland became forgotten from history and were only told as a legend that Paradise had heard about.

Grogar and Tambelon slowly started to return to Ponyland 500 years later, capturing all the Unicorn Ponies one by one when they winked in and out of the city. When Ribbon sends a dream message to Megan to tell where they are, Grogar intercepts it. After his second in command, Bray, feeds the Unicorns, Grogar orders him to prepare the Troggles to attack Ponyland and threatens him to not doddle. Tambleon fully returns and Bray and the Troggles conquer Dream Valley and capture most of it's inhabitants much to Grogar's pleasure.

However, Bray informs him that nearly all of the ponies and their friends have been captured much to Grogar's anger seeing as that he plans to banish his enemies to the Realm of Darkness and plans to make the humans slaves seeing as that they like the Troggles have hands.

When the captured Ponies, Bushwoolies and Grundles escape the dungeons, they find the ancient bell but don't yet realize its purpose before meeting with Megan and Lofty who had sneaked into Tambelon to free them. Unfortunately, they are caught escaping by Bray and the Troggles. Bray informs Grogar of this and Grogar easily recaptures his prisoners except for Peach Blossom who witnessed the events. He orders Bray to return the old and new prisoners to the dungeons and threatens to throw him in the dungeon if they try to escape again.

Meanwhile, Danny, Molly, Spike, the Ponies and their friends realize that the bell on Grogar's collar is the source of his powers and plan to take it from him. They manage to get Danny's tape recorder and record and splice up Bray's voice in order for Masquerade to lure Grogar out. This succeeds and everyone ambush Grogar. Unfortunately, Grogar proves to be too strong and attacks them. Spike nearly takes his bell but Grogar throws him off and captures Paradise and Forget-Me-Not while everyone else escapes.

Later, a Troggle named Drog abandons Tambelon and joins the humans, Spike, the ponies and their friends. However, a few Troggles (either out of fear or loyalty) inform Grogar of Drog's treachery and he prepares an ambush. This succeeds when Drog, the humans, Spike, the ponies and their friends enter Tambelon and get themselves captured and Grogar informs them of his plan to banish them to the Realm of Darkness.

Later, Bray informs Grogar that the Moochick and the baby ponies have been captured which pleases Grogar. He then orders a celebration and threatens that any of the Troggles not celebrating, will be banished with his prisoners to the Realm of Darkness at midnight. Grogar then prepares the spell that will banish his prisoners at midnight forever.

However, the ponies, humans, Spike, Drog, Bushwoolies and Grundles escape the dungeons and prepare to leave with the Troggles. After being informed of this, Grogar threatens to banish Bray to the Realm of Darkness if they escape. When he sees everyone escaping, he decides to use his magic to kill them instead. However, Spike unknowingly gives Paradise the idea of the ancient bell in Tambelon and informs her friends that when the bell is rung, Grogar's power will be destroyed. Grogar was defeated again by Megan after she rang the ancient bell for the second time, destroying the bell containing his power and banishing him and the whole city back to the Realm of Darkness.

It is said he is unlikely to escape the Realm of Darkness again.

My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic

The G4 version of Grogar appears as the posthumous overarching antagonist of the series, My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic . He is first mentioned in the Season 7 episode " A Flurry of Emotions ". His story was told in the book called "Gusty the Great": Millenia ago, long before the three pony tribes came together as one, the land that would become Equestria was once a mere collection of farms and pastures until Grogar took control and declared himself "Emperor of All He Saw". He wielded a powerful artifact known as the Bewitching Bell, a talisman that allowed him to steal the magic of others and transfer it into himself to increase his own formidable magic, which made him extremely powerful. Grogar earned the title of the "Father of Monsters" after he created several terrible creatures to terrorize the populace and ruled his domain with an iron hoof, until he was confronted by a pony named Gusty the Great and her Unicorn Warriors. As told in the book by Twilight Sparkle, he encountered them on top of the hill that leads to Cloudsdale. The unicorn warriors shot magical beams into the clouds and wrapped around Grogar and pulled him to the ground, but the evil ram managed to break through the bonds as fear gave him power. The rest of the conflict was left unknown due to the interruption by Flurry Heart, but in Season 9, it is revealed that Gusty took his bell and banished him. Since the Bewitching Bell could not be destroyed, Gusty hid it in an enchanted cave high atop Mt. Everhoof. Overtime, the memory of Grogar, his reign over Equestria and Gusty became forgotten from history and were only told as legends that Equestria and a few villains have heard about.

In the ninth and final season, the redeemed spirit of chaos, Discord disguises himself as Grogar, in a misguided effort of preparing Princess Twilight to take over as ruler of Equestria when Princesses Celestia and Luna retire. Using this disguise, he then creates a syndicate of the most dangerous villains in Equestria, believing that the combined threat would pose an even greater challenge for Twilight and her friends and boost their confidence. These villains include the former tyrant of the changelings, Queen Chrysalis, the power-hungry centaur, Lord Tirek, and the treacherous pegasus filly, Cozy Glow. He even revives the dark unicorn, King Sombra, who was previously destroyed, though the latter refused to work with the other villains, which got him destroyed yet again.

After cementing his place as their leader, Discord (as Grogar) then later sends the villains on a mission to retrieve the real Grogar's Bewitching Bell from Mount Everhoof. Even though the villains claim to have failed to obtain the bell, they did learn to work together, which was apparently enough to please Discord (as Grogar). Unbeknownst to him, they actually did get the bell but kept it so that they could use its power to betray him and take Equestria for themselves, which they did near the end of the season. Using the bell, they gained new super forms and then drained Discord of his own magic, which also exposed him of his disguise.

The existence of the Bewitching Bell means that Grogar was indeed real in history and Gusty the Great had banished him successfully, never to return again. He only ever appears in illustrations or flashbacks.

Comics My Little Pony: Nightmare Knights

The G1 version of Grogar made a cameo along with all the other previous villains of G1 in Princess Eris' casino.

My Little Pony 'n Friends

The G1 version of Grogar has a cold, ruthless and dangerous personality, always scolding Bray for his mistakes and always threatening him different forms of torture if he failed. He sometimes abuses the Troggles so they can follow his orders and do what he wants. He is extremely hateful towards pony-kind and other creatures and prefers to have all his enemies captured. He loved enslaving anyone and had no problem with wanting to make the human children his slaves. He is also has murderous moments with trying to hurt or kill his enemies as shown when he confronted and attacked the ponies, human children, Spike (who is a baby dragon) and their friends and also when they were escaping along with the Troggles, he decided to kill them instead to make sure his plan worked. He is also very intelligent as shown when he hid the ancient bell in a different part of his castle, so that nobody could use it against him and after he learnt of Drog's betrayal, he set up a trap to capture the rest of the inhabitants of Ponyland.

My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic

While the G4 version of Grogar was never seen, it is safe to assume that he was much like his G1 counterpart: ruthless, dangerous and extremely hateful towards pony-kind. He created an army of monsters to terrorize them so that their fear can supply him with power. In the episode, " A Flurry of Emotions ", he was mentioned to be treacherous.

When Discord portrayed himself as Grogar, he put on a serious and frightful demeanor that was enough to intimidate the other villains into submission. He claimed to be extremely patient and cunning, having awaited for thousands of years to take his revenge and is willing to work with other villains just for a chance to pull it off. Despite this claim, however, he was unable to tolerate his team bickering with each other, so he sends them on a mission to reclaim the real Grogar's Bewitching Bell in order to teach them to work together. When they claimed to have failed this mission, he only showed anger for a brief moment and then was pleased that they finally got their act together. He also did not tolerate disobedience, as he refused to bring back Sombra after he turned his back on him and used his death as an example to coerce the other villains into compliance. Unlike the majority of villains in the series, Discord (as Grogar) did not underestimate the Mane Six and acknowledged their teamwork as the key to their success. However, despite his seeming distrust of his cohorts, Discord (as Grogar) was gullible enough to believe their story that they failed to retrieve the Bewitching Bell, and was surprised when his cohorts turned on him and revealed that they had the bell all along.

---

Everyone gasped in shock and horror.

Marucho: Oh man! I had no idea!

Alice: He is pure evil!

Me: He was yes. When I destroyed his bell with the combined powers of the Elements of Harmony as well as the power to destroy 100,000 planets and obliterated his Bell of Bewitchment, I discovered that his lifeforce was bound to his bell and he was destroyed and banished to the Warp for all eternity.

Gusty: That's good and we'll never see that monster again.

Laney: No we won't. From what I heard, Grogar is Equestria's version of the Devil and he can stay in the Warp forever.

Lola: You got that right Laney. He deserved to be destroyed.

Nico: Indubitably.

Me: Also I found out that Grogar was the source of all dark magic. When I destroyed his bell, I destroyed all the Dark Magic in all of Equestria.

Nico: Wow!

Runa: Good riddance. That will make taking down the Doomsday 23 on the April 12th War much easier.

Me: It sure will. Lets keep moving. I heard that there is a young girl here that knows this world all too well.

Nico: Okay.

Lynn: What's the girl's name?

Me: Her name is Megan Williams.

Ice: I know her. She is the protector of Ponyland.

Luna Loud: What can you tell us about her Tora?

Ice: She is a brave and skilled girl.

She went over her history.

---

Megan Williams is a 13-year-old girl and the eldest of three children. She became the main human protagonist of the first My Little Pony series, first appearing in the 1984 and 1985 specials Rescue at Midnight Castle and Escape from Catrina, then the 1986 film My Little Pony: The Movie and the cartoon that followed (simply titled My Little Pony, but later retitled My Little Pony 'n Friends ).

She and her siblings, Danny and Molly live on a ranch where she keeps a horse named TJ, and a bull named Tauro. Gentle and motherly, but also mature and resourceful in addition to her sweetness and beauty, she acts as the Little Ponies' leader, and in times of crisis the ponies often fly across the rainbow to find her. She keeps the Rainbow of Light, a special locket which contains a powerful rainbow to defeat anything that is evil threatening the ponies.

She was voiced by Tammy Amerson in the first two specials and the movie, and Bettina Bush (who also voices Rainbow Brite) in the cartoon.

She was first brought to Dream Valley by Firefly to help save her friends from the Master of Midnight Castle, Tirac, and his army of darkness. During her quest, she encounters the Sea Ponies and the Moochick, who gave her a heart-shaped locket which contains the Rainbow of Light. After defeating Tirac, Firefly took her back home, taking the locket with her.

She eventually returned to Ponyland, where the ponies throw her a 'Welcome Back' party. During that time, she helped the ponies free the enslaved Bushwoolies from Catrina and reformed her.

---

We were amazed.

Me: Wow! She is a very brave and skilled girl.

Nico: Incredible.

Lola: Yeah.

We arrived at a house and we saw Megan Williams.

Catman: (Fairly Odd Parents) May I ask what a fine young lady like you is doing here in a place like this?

Megan Williams: Oh sorry. I didn't know anyone else was here.

Me: No worries. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Megan Williams: (Gasp) Wow! The world famous heroes.

Me: That's right. It's a pleasure to meet you.

Megan Williams: My name is Megan Williams. I have been coming here to Ponyland for a long time.

Princess Celestia: I remember you Megan. You are the first ever Human to ever set foot in the land before it was named Equestria.

Megan Williams: Equestria?

Me: It's a long story. Ponyland was what they called Equestria eons ago before the lands were terribly divided.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah it's a strange story.

We went over everything.

We told her everything about how Equestria was founded and all that leading up to our adventures.

Megan Williams: Wow! Lots of things have happened in Equestria where you all are from.

Me: All that and more.

Rippersnapper: A lot has changed ever since Equestria was formed. New heroes. New villains. Even a new Princess.

Me: And that's just the tip of the iceberg.

Megan Williams: Wow. I have a lot to learn.

Nico: Yeah and it's amazing.

?: Hey Megan!

A pink Pegasus came and she had beautiful blue hair and 2 blue lightning bolts for a cutie mark.

Megan Williams: Hey Firefly.

Firefly: What's going on here?

Megan Williams: Talking to new friends.

Firefly: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here Firefly.

Twilight Sparkle: I am the new princess. My name is Twilight Sparkle and I'm the Princess of Friendship.

Flurry Heart: I'm her niece Flurry Heart and I'm the Princess of Light.

Lilly Crystal: I'm Lilly Crystal.

Cloud Star: And I'm Cloud Star.

Lilly Crystal: We are the twin Princesses of Life.

Megan Williams: Wow!

Firefly: That's amazing.

Me: It sure is. Also we're gonna need all the help we can get. On April 12th there's a terrible war coming to Equestria. All of its most dangerous enemies are gonna be coming together to destroy everything. This will be a battle like no other and we need all the help we can get to destroy them.

Megan William: Oh man. That's terrible. I will gladly help you.

Firefly: Me too!

Me: Awesome!

Sludge: You Megan no regret joining us.

Megan Williams: Not at all. I love all your adventures and they are some of the most amazing I've heard.

Firefly: They sure are and they are incredible.

Megan Williams: We all would be honored to join.

Nico: Awesome!

Laney: It's gonna be awesome having you part of the Knights of The Friendship Table.

Firefly: Cool!

We later went back home.

---

At the World Tree Estate we were getting ready for another awesome adventure.

Gargoyle: What's our destination this time?

Me: We're going out to the middle of the Montana Mountains in the forest near a town. It doesn't say which town it is. According to legend it is said to be home to the legendary Time Travel Pokemon, Celebi.

Ash: I remember that town! That's where I met Sam and we met and helped Celebi.

Brock: Yeah that was intense. It was amazing.

Misty: But then we had an encounter with that evil Iron Masked Marauder.

Me: Hmm. Let me see here.

I pulled up his info.

---

The Iron-Masked Marauder is the main antagonist of the 2002 Pokémon film Pokémon 4Ever. He is an elite officer of Team Rocket who plotted to overthrow Giovanni and take over the world by using Pokémon that he captured with Dark Balls.

He was voiced by Dan Green.

The Iron-Masked Marauder debuts when he persuades a Pokémon poacher to show him where he found the legendary Pokémon known as Celebi. When the poacher refuses to talk, the Marauder orders his Sneasel to unlock a cell of a Tyranitar that the poacher caught. He then catches the Tyranitar with a unique Poke Ball called a Dark Ball, which turns Pokemon evil and more powerful (even if the Pokemon in question already belong to someone else). The terrified poacher then tells him where he found Celebi just in time when he orders Tyranitar to destroy the poacher's camp.

The Iron-Masked Marauder then searches for Celebi while riding a spider legged machine, along with Jessie, James and Meowth, whom he found in the forest Celebi lived. They decide to go with him due to the fact that he's from Team Rocket as well (and the fact that they were just tired of walking). He finds Ash and his friends with Celebi and tells them to give him Celebi, but they refuse and run away. He sends his Sneasel and Scizor to get Celebi but both are defeated by Ash's Bayleef and Sammy's Charmeleon. When he discovers Scizor and Sneasel tied up with the kids already gone, he sees that the kids were tougher than they looked, but considers that it "makes things interesting." The Marauder is so focused on finding Celebi that he doesn't notice or care that Jessie, James, & Meowth had fallen out of his vehicle and moves onward. The Marauder later finds the kids again and succeeds in capturing Celebi with his Spider-Machine's claw, brutally electrocuting it, before capturing it in a Dark Ball. Before the villain could properly relish his victory, Ash attempted to retrieve Celebi with the help of a flock of wild Pidgey. Although the resulting struggle toppled the Marauder's mecha, the Marauder quickly reclaimed his Dark Ball by stepping on Ash's hands until he passed out.

When surrounded by the angry forest Pokemon, the Iron-Masked Marauder decided to demonstrate the corrupted Celebi's power on them, sending it to attack the wild Pokémon and devastate the forest. Iron-Masked Marauder orders Celebi to build a Scyther-shaped monster from forest materials. He then orders Celebi to destroy the kids, but Suicune saves them. He also captures Jessie by mistake, but decides to use her as a witness to see his power. After the Marauder demonstrates by polluting the lake, Jessie promises the Marauder that she'll guarantee him a promotion when he hands Celebi over to Giovanni; however the Marauder tells her he has no intention of handing Celebi over… instead, he plans to use Celebi to usurp and kill Giovanni in order to take over Team Rocket and the entire world for himself. He attempts to capture Suicune also by using his Tyranitar. Suicune defeats Tyranitar with Bubble Beam and Brock's Onix slammed it into the Lake of Life. Ash and Sammy succeeded in breaking Celebi free from the spell of the Dark Ball (releasing his Scizor, Sneasel, and Tyranitar in the process). The monster was falling apart and Iron-Masked Marauder fell into the lake. He is not defeated, however.

When Celebi is healed, Iron-Masked Marauder suddenly emerges from the lake, grabs Celebi and attempts to fly away with Celebi on his jetpack. But Ash grabs on tightly onto the Marauder's leg as he rises higher and higher. Ash then ordered Pikachu to Thunderbolt the evil man's jetpack, causing it to explode, sending all three plummeting several meters towards the forest floor. While Celebi saves Ash and Pikachu, the Iron-Masked Marauder continues his long fall. He lands in a tree branch that snaps and then lands and rolls down a small hill and lands hard on the ground (losing his mask and Dark Balls in the process). Toya, Diana and Mr. White confront the Marauder along with the forest Pokemon. Surrounded by the angry forest Pokemon, the Marauder tries to send his Pokemon out, but he doesn't have any. The now-powerless Marauder begs for mercy, claiming "This is all a mistake! A big misunderstanding!" The forest Pokemon then tie him up using String Shot, to which Toya replies, "I think the Pokémon understand perfectly!" The Marauder's fate is unknown, but he was most likely arrested and sent to jail afterwards. It is also likely that he remained in jail as Giovanni would learn of the Marauder's betrayal and refuse to bail him out as a result.

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: WHOA MAN! This guy is pure evil!

Nico: No kidding!

Me: And he is part of Team Rocket. I wonder.

I pulled up some more info and it showed that the Iron Mask Marauder escaped from Prison.

Me: He escaped from Prison!

We gasped again.

Laney: He's probably going to finish what he started in the past.

Me: He obviously didn't get the memo that Team Rocket is all dead. And Giovanni is dead too. Lets go!

Kaos, Control Freak, Vulkanus, Roquefort, Rich Texan, Diabolico, Angel and Duff Killigan then appeared.

Kaos: Can me, Control Freak, Vulkanus, Roquefort, Rich Texan, Diabolico, Angel, and Duff come with you guys?

Me: You all sure can.

Lola: Lets get that freak!

Me: Lets fly!

We were off to Montana.

* * *

We arrived in the forests of Montana and it was beautiful.

(Predator The Chopper Plays)

Scourge: This really is a nice forest.

Me: Boy it sure is.

Nico: It's really beautiful.

Eli: Guys something is not right.

Me: What's wrong Eli?

Eli: I have a strange feeling that we're being watched.

And Eli was right. Little did we know that there was a familiar presence watching us in the trees. It was A YAUTJA. It was watching us very carefully and very quietly. It was watching us with his Infrared Vision. Hunting by our heat.

Me: (From the Yautja's vision) (Distorted) I feel it too. Something is not right.

Nico: (Distorted) Whatever it is we have to be ready for it.

Varie: (Distorted) Yeah.

Duff: (Scottish Accent) Hello? Anyone here?

We didn't hear anything.

Me: Nothing. I don't even see anything.

Eli: It's there all right. I sense it. The Force does not lie.

Lana: What do you think it is?

Eli: No idea. But it's watching us even as we speak.

Me: Stay alert everyone. Lets just keep going.

We went on to the town.

The Yautja watched as we walked.

Lana: (Distorted) I got a really bad feeling about this.

Laney: (Distorted) I do too. But whatever this presence is that's watching us it's not good.

Twilight Sparkle: (Distorted) I have a feeling you're right.

Volcana: Ash, is there anyone in this forest that can help us?

Ash: I think so but its been a long time since I was here.

Me: I heard that you met a boy named Sam that lived here from 40 years ago.

Ash: That's right and he was awesome.

Me: Wow.

We heard a singing voice.

Me: Wow. Listen to that.

The Yautja heard it too and it analyzed it with its audio bar analyzer and it showed an incredible and beautiful frequency.

Lily: (Distorted) Man what is that?

Vince: (Distorted) I think that's the Celebi that is said to live here.

Me: (Distorted) It's beautiful.

Sunset Shimmer: (Distorted) It sure is.

Sweetie Belle: (Distorted) It reminds me of the Harmonizing Heights in Mount Aeris.

Me: That was beautiful, melodious and majestic.

Eli: (Distorted) Wow.

We continued on and saw that the town was deserted.

Me: Well this is the town.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Nico: Where is everybody?

Me: I don't know. But I've got a really bad feeling about this.

Eli: I do too. Something is up.

Rich Texan: There's got to be someone friendly who can help us against the Iron Masked Marauder.

Me: We'll find out soon.

Eli: Shh!

Me: What is it?

We got to the lake and we saw Eli looking out over it.

Me: What is it Eli?

Eli: There's something in those trees over there.

Me: Where?

Eli: Over there in that gap in the branches.

I looked and saw a strange outline that was invisible around a ring.

Me: Hmm.

I turned on my Infrared Vision.

Eli: Do you know what that is?

Me: I'm looking.

I looked at the figure and magnified and to my shock I saw THE YAUTJA!

Me: (GASP) Oh no!

Eli: What is it?

Me: It's a Yautja. It's tracking us and watching us. Waiting for its chance to strike.

Eli: What is a Yautja doing here?

Nico: Oh man. It's hunting us.

Lori: I thought J.D…

Me: Shh. Quiet.

I watched the Yautja closely and it was looking at us and stalking us as it was hunting.

Nico: What is it doing?

Me: Stalking us. It's picking out the right target to hunt and kill.

Naruto: Oh man.

Cody (OC): One of the Galaxy's most Lethal Hunters is here for us. Again.

Me: Yeah. We have to be extra careful and alert.

Plant Man: I can use my powers to easily flush the Yautja out of hiding. But let's let it think we're not onto him. Right now, we have to find anyone friendly around here.

Me: His abilities don't work that way. He has an invisibility system and his technology is incredible. He can blend in perfectly with the surroundings. But his heat signature is not invisible.

Eli: I can face him if you want. I want to try my luck at the most Lethal Hunters in the Galaxy.

Me: You definitely have what it takes to face them Eli. All right lets continue on. If he attacks we will retaliate.

Nico: Okay. I remember this quote from the movie. El Diablo que hace trofeos de los hombres.

Nora Eztli: (Spanish Accent) The Demon who makes trophies of man.

Lana and Lola were shaking in fear.

Me: Just like in Sumatra.

Varie: Oh boy.

Cody (OC): This is gonna be brutal.

Rarity: Oh boy.

We backed away.

Roquefort: Cheese Ninjas, see if you can find any possible allies against the Marauder.

The Cheese Ninjas went all over the place and searched.

Me: Now we wait. But stay alert everyone.

Nico: Okay.

The Cheese Ninjas came back 45 minutes later.

Roquefort: Anything.

Ninja 1: Nothing sir. All the people in the town are hiding. They keep saying that there's a mysterious invisible creature hunting.

Me: They've been scared by the Yautja. And the Marauder is coming too.

Celebi's song was heard.

Me: There's Celebi.

Nico: Yeah. Beautiful.

Me: Yep.

I then smelled a really foul odor.

Me: Yuck. I smell death and decomposition.

Nico: That smell is horrible.

Me: I think I know where it's coming from.

I went to a tree and I saw a bunch of crows picking at a bunch of skinless human bodies.

Me: OH YUCK!

Nico: Holy shit! That is gross!

Laney: OH MAN!

Lucy Loud: Wicked.

I looked in some bloody remains and found some dog tags.

Me: Dog tags.

I picked them up and looked at them.

Me: General Dan Corban, United States Army. Nico cut them down.

Nico: Okay.

Nico did so.

Lana: This is terrible.

Me: I knew some of these men. They were Green Berets out of Fort Knox.

Vince: I wonder what they were doing out here.

Eli: No idea. But it looks like the Yautja caught them as trophies.

Nico: Just like in the movie.

Ink Rose: No kidding.

Sam S.L. found a bunch of unspent bullets.

Me: Yeah. They were ambushed. Never saw the attack of the Yautja coming.

Nico: They had no idea they were walking into a trap.

Eli: Until it was too late.

Me: Yep.

Laney made coffins for the bodies and Brittney and Lucy put them in.

Me: We'll give them a proper burial later.

Babs Seed: Wait. I think I see some people up ahead.

Sunset Shimmer: I see them too.

Me: Me too. Can you make out who they are?

Sunset Shimmer: It looks like a boy with brown hair.

Ash: That's Sam!

Me: Wow. And he has a Celebi with him.

Nico: Cool.

Diabolico: Are you Sam?

Sam (Pokemon): I am. Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor.

Me: Same to you Sam. Ash told us so much about you.

Sam (Pokemon): Is he with you all?

Ash: I sure am. It's great to see you Sam.

Sam (Pokemon): Been over 40 years.

Ash: It sure has.

Me: But it's a pleasure to meet you Sam. We heard so much about you.

Sam (Pokemon): I can tell.

Terrorsaur: Listen, is that old lady still around here?

Sam: (Pokemon) You mean Towa and Diana? Yeah they're here but they are hiding.

Me: We can explain everything along the way. Lets get to their cabin so we can talk.

Sam (Pokemon): Okay.

We went to the cabin of Towa and Diana and told Sam about the Yautja and he was shocked and all that.

Nico: Yeah it's crazy.

Vulkanus: Ash, didn't you say that a Suicune helped you guys before?

Ash: I sure did.

Me: Wow. That must've been something to meet the legendary Aurora Pokemon.

Ash: It sure was.

Nico: Cool.

Lola: I hope our invisible friend didn't get it.

Me: I think a Suicune is too much for a Yautja.

Nico: Yeah.

Lynn: But we still have to be careful.

Luan: Yeah.

Me: And now that Marauder is out there too. We are in for a deadly adventure.

Maria: I've got an idea involving Horsea, Poliwag, Poromon, and Manaphy?

Nico: Which is?

Maria: We dress them up as a leprechaun, Santa, Turkey, and Easter Bunny and have them lure the Marauder to us with a pot of gold.

Freon: That's actually a good idea! (to the mascots) Now, which costumes do each of you want to wear?

Manaphy: I'll wear Santa.

Horsea: Turkey.

Poliwag: Easter Bunny.

Poromon: Leprechaun.

Tentacool: Uncle Sam.

Nico: Uncle Sam?

Varie: Wants to include the 4th of July.

Nico: Oh.

We got them dressed and they were so adorable!

May: Oh you all look so cute!

Misty: You sure do!

Maria: So adorable!

Nico: Yeah.

Lincoln: It's time to put Operation: Trick The Marauder So We Can Prevent Him From Catching Celebi So We Can Kill Him And Also Think Of A Shorter Name For This Operation into action.

Twilight Sparkle: Whew! That's a mouthful.

Me: Lincoln has a habit of doing that. Got it from Mr. Lynn. How about we call it Operation: Holiday Marauder Capture?

Lincoln: That works perfectly.

Lynn Sr.: Nice thinking.

Me: Thanks. I've known Lincoln for 5 years and I come up with awesome operation names that are shorter for them.

Lincoln: Yep.

Linka: Neat.

The Mascots went out.

Angel: I'll watch the mascots from the air.

Me: Okay. But be careful.

Angel spread her wings and flew into the air.

Nico: Here we go.

Eli: One more thing.

Eli fired a beam of magic at a rock and turned it into a pot of gold.

Eli: Perfect.

Me: Nice. Our trap is set. Now we wait.

We waited patiently and then the Iron Mask Marauder came.

Me: (Whisper) There he is.

Nico: (Whisper) He's taking the bait.

He saw the mascots and saw the pot of gold.

Marauder: Give me that pot of gold now!

Poromon: Sorry. There's no gold. Only the pot! (bashes Marauder on the head with pot)

Thunderblast: I know it's not Halloween yet but… (to Marauder) Trick or Treat, dirtbag!

OUR TRAP WAS SPRUNG!

Me: HIYAH!

I kicked the Marauder square in the crotch and he screamed like a little girl.

Me: You make me sick you freak!

But then I saw three lasers targeting the Marauder's arm.

Me: Uh oh. GET DOWN!

We ducked and the Yautja fired a plasma blast and it hit the Marauder's arm and burned it completely off and severed his arm off! The Marauder screamed in excruciating pain as his arm was blasted completely off!

Me: OUCH! That had to hurt!

Nico: YEAH!

Eli: I got this!

Eli went to face the Predator.

Me: You will pay for your crimes. And also here's a memo for you: Team Rocket and Giovanni are all dead. They all died a horrible death.

Jessie (Pokemon): Except for us because we got fired.

James (Pokemon): That's right.

Marauder: I was going to have Celebi make that plant monster again! But now, I'll have to create it with my backup plan!

The Marauder tossed the Dark Orb in the air as plants gathered around it.

Control Freak: I know just the guy to use for this situation!

He called a bunch of Burning Leos from Kirby.

Nicole: Burning Leos. Perfect!

Nico: I'm amazed this guy can do all that with just one arm.

Naruto: No kidding!

Me: We need to take the battle to another planet.

Nico: Good idea.
